15 Ways To Remove The Enemy's Covering

Chuck Pierce

We are finishing the first phase or quarter of this year. We need to be sure that we have closed doors that would hinder us in our future, so we can move forward into a new dimension of prosperity. This is a time that we must look past what appears to be an issue and really see the problem or hindrance that is stopping us from moving and advancing through into the blessings that the Lord has for us this season.

Satan Forms an OCCULT Covering that Hides his Ways

We must look past the visible to see the invisible and any supernatural force that would trap us from accomplishing the Lord's will. Let me describe Lucifer, the devil, from Ezekiel 28.

This chapter says:

"He was the model of perfection and covered and adorned with every type of jewel ... He was anointed as a guardian cherub and overshadowed or covered every place he walked ... until wickedness was found in him. Then he was filled with violence. His heart became proud on account of his beauty. He corrupted wisdom and through the abundance of commerce was filled with lawlessness and violence. Through this, he desecrated sanctuaries (paraphrased)."

We must address this covering in prayer. This is related to occult spirits. Occult means: to conceal or cause to disappear from view; secret, mysterious, and supernatural.

God is giving us access to revelation that will uncover that which is secret. Satan hides his ways from the eye of our understanding. Therefore, our eye must be filled with Light. He creates occult lines (geometric lines throughout the earth), qualities, and uses magic and devious words to hide from sight his place. He uses the atmosphere around us to conceal his plan. He creates a veil.

Other ways of looking at this is that he hides, conceals, secretes, caches, screens, buries, cloaks, masks and disguises his plan so he can keep us from uncovering God's fullness in the earth. Another synonym is block; he will use deceptive methods to block our path. He has ways to watch after his iniquitous streams in the earth.

Remove the Evil One's Veil

You need to break anything that the enemy creates to hinder your ability to discern. He hides his way from us. The enemy plots and plans on our path to develop a strategy to divert us from accomplishing God's will and entering into His blessings. Many of us have a hard time seeing the enemy's snare that has been strategically planted on our path of life. Therefore, we step in this tangled web and spend much of our time struggling to free ourselves from his distractions and plan of conforming. To conform means to develop a blueprint that will mold us into the way of the world, instead of us staying free to think God's way and walking in the present truth of this age.

Since Satan forms a covering that hides his ways, we must look past the visible to see the invisible and any supernatural force that would trap us, keeping us from accomplishing the Lord's will. We must enter into a new realm of worship and remove his veil. The Body of Christ cannot afford to stand still and embrace any passivity this year.

Dr. Frank Hammond, a dear friend, says this about passivity: "One of the biggest challenges confronting a deliverance ministry is passivity in the person to whom I am ministering. Unless the will is activated, failure is certain. Active faith is essential in receiving anything from God, and this includes deliverance."
'What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save [Greek sozo, deliver] him? ... faith by itself, if it does not have works is dead.' (James 2:14,17).

When a person accepts Christ as Savior he immediately becomes a Christian soldier. He has entered warfare against Satan and his host of evil spirits. In order to defeat the devil's wiles we must 'put on the whole armor of God,' 'wrestle against spiritual hosts of wickedness in heavenly places,' 'resist the devil,' and employ spiritual weapons which are 'mighty in God for pulling down strongholds.' In the name of Jesus we are commissioned to 'cast out demons.' All this requires commitment and total aggressiveness against Satan's kingdom. Without aggressiveness, one automatically falls into passivity and becomes open prey to the devil for, 'The devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.'

Therefore, we must 'resist him, steadfast in the faith' (I Peter 5:8,9).
Always remember: The enemy wants to block your path. If he can tempt and divert you from your course, he can stop you from entering into the full portion (inheritance) that God has for you. He will develop strategies against you to bring deception and then division. He develops ways to accuse you so he can hold you in condemnation. He wants to block your supply and release a spirit of infirmity or weakness against you. Do not be ignorant of his wiles.

15 Ways to Remove the Enemy's Covering

1. The enemy has a voice to bring deception into our life. Ask God to show you any deception or lie he has brought into your life.

2. Satan is the father of lies and can only work with any resource that we give him. Cut ties with anything in your soulish nature that is holding you captive.

3. Ask the Lord to fill you with His love so that you can break any sin strategy in your life and destroy the devil's work.

4. Jesus resisted the voice of the enemy. Ask the Lord to fill you with the Spirit in the midst of your wilderness so you can resist and receive new power.

5. Do not be ignorant. Let God reveal to you the supernatural qualities that the enemy possesses. Continue to allow revelation to come into you on Lucifer's hidden characteristics.

6. Be sure you are operating in submission so you can resist effectively.

7. Satan wants you to believe that God is not directing you. He also wants you to think that God is holding out on you. This is what he did to the woman in the garden as he manipulated her desires. Ask God to break any manipulation that is aligned with your desires.

8. Be sure your desires are aligned correctly. Temptation is linked to desires that are not within God's boundaries.

9. Ask the Lord to deliver you from temptation.

10. Change your mind or redevelop your thought process (repent). Renounce the act linked with your wrong thinking. Forgive yourself for falling into the enemy's plan. Forgive others who have seduced and led you astray.

11. Ask God for increase. Ask Him to give you a mind for increase. Ask Him to open your heart to any prophetic word that will bring you success and cause you to be able to rake in the spoils that the enemy is holding.

12. Declare deliverance from the hand of the wicked who has tied up any of your provision and health.

13. Declare that the generational curse of "GOD ROBBING" will be broken out of your bloodline. This is one of the four major generational curses. Tear down mindsets of poverty. Poverty has a voice which says, "God is not able." There are philosophies in your life that have developed wrong mindsets.

14. Dismantle unbelief over provision. "Prove Me NOW," says the Lord! Look up and see the windows of blessings that He wants to open up. Watch Him overcome your devourer.

15. Rejoice that you are free from the enemy's plans and purposes!

Let your eye be filled with Light, and may the Holy Spirit direct every step of your path.
"The path of the righteous is like the first gleam of the dawn shining ever brighter until the full break of day" (Proverbs. 4:18).

1 Plus 1 = You

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,
In one of the recent letters (224 – the birthmark), reference was made to Paul's emphatic statement about Abraham being the father of "all who are of the Law [the Jews]", and all those who are not "of the Law" (non-Jews), but are of the "faith". For those who are not of Jewish descent, but yet have an affiliation with the Jews, the Land and the forefathers, these words confirm that what they know or feel is not some extra-biblical fantasy, but is indeed deeply rooted in the Word.

The scriptures sometime make things as simple as one ("faith") plus one ("?") equals two, but until the Spirit illuminates the full equation we may miss it. In this letter let us take a look at the other "one" in the equation, making the equation look something like this: "Faith" plus the "Spirit" (that is, the other "one") = YOU" - a progeny of Abraham and Sarah.

If YHVH, by His Spirit, sowed the seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob into many peoples and nations, how are we to know who they are, except by the characteristics that mark them? Thus the Apostle adds the second witness to our true identity, when he confirms the words of YHVH through His prophets from of old.

"I will pour My Spirit on your descendants [referring to Jacob)", (Isaiah 44:3).

"I will put My Spirit within you [Israel]" (Ezekiel 36:27).

"And I will put My Spirit in you [the whole House of Israel], and you shall live" (Ezekiel 37:14).

"'I shall have poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel,' says YHVH Elohim"

(Ezekiel 39:29).

In the letter to the Galatian believers, Paul asks a very important question: "Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith [the faith of Abraham your father]?" (Gal. 3:2). He then reiterates, "Therefore He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does He do it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" (Gal. 3:5). In these two scriptures Paul is connecting the equation: faith plus the receiving of the Spirit equals the identity of the natural seed of Abraham. "And if you be Christ's [that is anointed with His Spirit], then you are from Abraham's sperm [life], and heirs according to the promise (Gal. 3:29). If you have received the anointing of the Spirit of Holiness, you are a fulfillment of the above prophecies which were spoken to Jacob/Israel. Thus, all those who have the faith of Abraham, whether Jews or those who are (or were) lost to their natural heritage and have became Greeks, whom YHVH scattered into all nations, slave or free, male or female are one in the same Spirit of Holiness, and have the same natural father – Abraham. Again, one (Spirit) + one (faith) = you (or, if you will "ewe", one of the sheep).

"Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes…" are all mentioned in Acts 2:9-10, and by now it could be any one on the face of the earth. The promises were given to Isaac, and that includes the promise of the indwelling Spirit. YHVH has not abandoned His word to those forefathers. If He did, we are all in big trouble.

Many who are into replacement theology, will interpret that Galatians scripture to mean that “being in Christ Jesus makes you the seed of Abraham by some kind of adoption or spiritual transfer”. However, the above quoted verses do not say that. Those who hold to that idea, are the same ones who claim that we do not need the Torah and diminish the importance of the Tanach (Old testament), because “Jesus” established a whole new covenant that really does not have anything to do with the natural seed of Abraham. It is for this reason that those espousing the above- mentioned doctrine have no attraction to the Land, or to the plight of the Jews living in the Land. As a matter of fact, most of them believe that the Palestinians have just as much right to the Land of “Palestine” as do the Jews, and even more so (especially when the gas prices go up). If YHVH commenced His work only two thousand years ago, then the writings of the Apostles would suffice. But what about all the many references in the New Covenant books to the Torah and to the books of the prophets, and to the “called”, “chosen” and “predestined” (that is, those who are to inherit that which according to Scripture rightly belongs to them because it was given to their ancestors)?

As we approach the 40th day of the counting of the Omer, I hope we will remember Yeshua’s words to His disciples when they asked Him *“when are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” (*Acts 1:16). There is no doubt in my mind that by “Israel” they were referring to the natural descendants of Jacob/Israel. Yeshua’s answer is confirming what was promised to the forefathers and to their seed: "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth" (Acts 1:8). Witness to what? To the restoration of the kingdom to Israel, because when they received the promise of the Spirit (through the faith), they also received the kingdom. What is the kingdom of God? “For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit” (Rom 14:17).

Let us celebrate and worship in Spirit and in truth and declare with the prophets:

“Therefore thus says YHVH, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: ‘Jacob shall not now be ashamed, nor shall his face now grow pale; but when he sees his children, the work of My hands, in his midst, they will hallow My name, and hallow the Holy One of Jacob, and fear the God of Israel. These also who erred in spirit will come to understanding, and those who complained will learn doctrine’" (Isaiah 29:22-24).

End Time Prophetic Vision

2004 Prophecy

Aquilla Nash

Those of Eastern descent will be divided. Where there was a oneness of purpose among them it will no longer be so, for the Lord will bring many of them to faith in Christ. Many will know that the Lord is Lord of all nations and multitudes will come to Him. This shall cause no small stir among the Eastern world. There will be a great shaking among those who follow other gods. Those who refuse the Lord will see their strength fail. The evil they have devised will turn upon their own heads.

“Fear not America for the Lord is with you. Many have prophesied in My Name the destruction of America, but I have not spoken it, says the Lord. The haters of this Nation will seek to destroy, but wisdom will prevail against it.”

This Nation will take a turn for the good in 2004. Three men in high places of government will be set aside. Those that I have raised up to take their place will be of a different spirit and it will cause great change to take place.
The righteous of this Nation shall stand up stronger than ever. Godly men and women will stand in high places and once more the world will know America is one nation that stands under the umbrella of God’s Spirit.

Many changes will occur in areas of government throughout the world. Governmental policies will change. Many for the good of the people.

Russia will have a sudden change in leadership. At first it will appear that it is taking the nation a step backward. Then they will make a league with a nearby nation that will be for the common good of the people.

Out of Great Britain will come a governing that will set a new course for the people. It will seem like a small thing in the beginning, not much significance. Yet, it will be the start of a new course, a new direction for the people for their good.

Egypt will have a new leader. He will be much different from those of the past. He will not rule or be ruled in the same manner of those before. His purpose will be much different than others who have ruled. He will be a promoter of the people!

On November 2, 2003, the Lord gave me this interesting Word, “The boundaries of the seas will move, leaving large areas of dry land instead of water for the beaches. In other places the beaches will be covered by the sea. For the boundaries for the seas will be broken down.”

Beloved, just as surely as there are many changes happening on the spiritual level, there are many changes happening on the natural or earthly level. You may remember the Lord speaking to us about great earthquakes in places that had not experienced them before.

I said this a number of years ago, yet I must say it again, I see great change in our weather patterns. Many of us have already begun to experience this. Just as the heavens are in a stir, so it is with the earth. We will see more great earthquakes, floods, tornadoes than ever before.

Precious partner, this is an awesome day. The voice of the Spirit is saying, “Change, change, change.”

(1) The Names of God (part 2)

In the first part of this series I talked of Jehovah - the self existing one who reveals himself. I also talked about Emmanuel and Jehoshua, the names of Christ but in this message I would be talking on other names of God. Hope you'll have a nice time as you meditate on the sermon.

The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob

In Exodus 3:6 God told Moses his name. He revealed himself as the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and he said that is his name for all time. It would be a memorial name.
Looking at this we will find out that the name is his covenant name and we could hold on to that name and get victories in our lives. Let us call him. He will hear us and never leave us alone.

The Word of God

In the old testament God tells us that he has exalted his word above all his names. This means that the name of the Word has a special preference in heaven. When we call him. The angels pay attention. All creatures in the heavens, the earth and underneath the earth all bow in holy reverence of that precious name Jesus.

As we behold him we would see that he is the connection between heaven and earth, the key to success in every area and that in him dwells all power. He can do anything for you if you only believe in him. He is everywhere so it doesn't matter where you call on him. My bible says he filleth all in all. He is the gateway to heaven and the only access to infinite wisdom. He knows everything so relax. Be still and know that I am God - he says. Shalom.

(2) New Seasons

November I believe is a month of new things. Experience the newness of God. Its a month of restoration. So, take in the restoration power let him fill you up for ministry and for everything he has for you. The devil doesn't have to cheat you any more. He would pay back seven-fold of everything he has ever stolen from you if only you believe.

(3) 2005

2005 would be a year of unlimited grace. It would be a year of the fullness of Yeshua Adonai. It would be a year of the manifold wisdom of God. Experience the changes. Experience him in a new way. Experience the multiplicity of God. Wake up to a new reality O Zion for its the new day of Christ.

To maintain the power flow we must stay crucified to self and earthly pleasures. We must pay the price of listening to him and sacrifice time to be with the Lord. Passover is before Pentecost and Pentecost is before Tabernacles. So, we must pass from the outer court to the inner court then to the holy of holies. We must cross from being repentant to being filled with power and then to being a worshipper and a communer in his presence daily.

Its time to be friends of God. Awake Zion. Awake friends of the bridegroom. Behold the bride in her fullness for it a hour of change.

South America

The fiery blaze of the Holy Spirit will intensify. There will be a large ongoing influx of new believers in regions of this continent. Signs and wonders, specifically healings of great magnitudes, will begin to happen. Intercessors will be crying out for their land and will bring the wave of salvations and healings into this continent. There will be a title wave of God’s presence that will overtake the church. A rapid growth of churches will emerge bringing hope to the peoples of this region. I see in the spirit stadiums being full with high praises of God being lifted up. Evangelistic crusades will fill the stadiums and outdoor arenas compelling people to come to Jesus. Joy will replace sorrow and hope will replace the hopelessness that has devastated many places. Revival fires are burning bright!

Africa

There is a call coming forth from the heart of God for leadership training upon the church. This will result in a mass harvest and an overtaking of this continent bringing them to the heart of God. Rapid church multiplication will boomerang in this continent within the next 2 years. Healing crusades and the evangelistic call will overtake this continent. We will see the raising of the dead, signs and wonders and increased Holy Spirit baptisms in unparalleled numbers. Increased ministry to the poor will emerge and be in full swing with anointing upon it in the days ahead. Rivers of revival will pour forth in the land and Africa will once again see the fruit of their land increase both spiritually and physically in the coming years. The heart of Africa will pulse with the heartbeat of God and a fragrant offering will be lifted up from this continent.

Asia

The glory of God will be seen and heard in this land in the days ahead. The cry of intercession that has wailed forth in the hearts of believers will have great effect in the days ahead. Pockets of revival will spring up upon every region of this continent. Extraordinary healings and an outpouring of love will flood the land. The house church will explode within the next 3 years and leaders will be sent forth from this territory into all continents of the world. Idolatry worship will crumble day by day and the tangible presence of the Lord will be felt.

Australia

The walls of resistance will crumble and the power of God will storm this country. Church after Church will emerge and the blaze of the Spirit will overtake the land. Missionaries, evangelists, and the full 5-fold ministry will overtake this land. They will be emerging and will trailblaze paths of righteousness with great strength in the spirit. The beauty of the land will only intensify as the beauty of the Lord increases. Families will be united and children will be preaching the good news of the gospel. The Lord will use the children of this continent to lay hands on the sick and speak deliverance to the captives. Great teachers will arise forth and proclaim the principles and proclamations of the Holy Spirit. Many will feel the waters of renewal and revival sweep across the land.

Europe

Holy Spirit fire will increase. City walls will fall down and be replaced with walls of love, peace, hope and encouragement. Ancient unbiblical ways will give way to Jesus, the way, the truth and the life. Faces of sadness will turn into faces of joy. Heaviness will turn into holiness. Signs and wonders will increase in great proportions. We will see a great cloud of glory cover the regions of this continent.

Where there has been doubt, hopelessness and defeat, we will see encouragement, happiness, and delight. Children will cry out for their cities and see immediate results. The elderly will see great hope before death. Translations and transformations will be common. The heavenly realm will be a normal happening in the lives of the believers. There will be 'hotspots' of dead bodies being raised that will change cities. Worship will increase and new songs for the church will emerge forth. Prophetic dance will be increasing and the love for the world will be seen in new ways. Teens will be filled with happiness and hope. Sorrow will vanish. I see in the spirit a youth revival emerging that will set the pace for this entire continent. The church will forge ahead fast and make an indelible impression on the world. Prophets will arise and Holy Spirit infillings will blaze a fiery path in the regions of Europe. Come Holy Spirit!

North America

America will be arising to a new place of influence in the days ahead. There will be a huge outbreak of youth revival that the churches will not be able to hold them all. There will be an emerging forth of radically changed youth that will lead the way to repentance and renewal in the days ahead. Stadium's nationwide will be filled with believers lifting up holy and righteous praise to the King of kings and Lord of lords. Revival will break forth in the children of America and there will be signs and wonders in the body of Christ with great waves of influence. There will be a title wave of the Spirit that breaks upon the states of our nation. We will see peoples of all ages come forth with new vigor for the sake of the master. The Lord will be giving new wineskins and will flow new wine in the church. Paradigms will shift from the conventional way of church to Holy Spirit led book of Acts church. Holy Spirit gatherings of believers will break forth in every city of America and it will be for the building of relationships in the body of Christ. The church will experience a new wave of finances to fund the work of the Lord world wide thought the Market place Apostles. The five fold ministry will be in full swing and the "Day of the Saints" will be arising with greater power than they have every seen. There will be a Rapid multiplication of House Churches and continued networks of this will be forming on a monthly basis. The Lord is shaking the church into place and we will see the body of Christ arising to a new level of life and relationship. We will see the believers taken to the "Heavenly Realms" and be given the view of the Father from Heavens vantage point. Proclamations and Declarations will be spoken with authority and we will see the earth full of the glory of God.

FOR ALL BELIEVERS WORLDWIDE...
WE WILL EXPERIENCE HEAVENLY REALM ENCOUNTERS
FUNDING FOR KINGDOM PURPOSES THROUGH MARKETPLACE APOSTLES
YOUTH MOVEMENTS IN REVIVAL INCREASING
HOLY SPIRIT BAPTISMS INCREASING AS IN ACTS 1:8
QUICK MULTIPLICATION OF THE HOUSE CHURCH MOVEMENT
TRUE APOSTOLIC IMPARTATIONS INCREASING

Anointed To Wait
Becky McLendon

We should be slowing down to let Him show us more; perfect us more. We can exhaust ourselves trying to push through with this and that OR we can wait on the LORD. We even want every bit of our love to be flowing out from Him, and every word printed to be thus saith the Lord. We do not want the printed words to be just more printed words. They should be the sure word of prophecy, or not at all.

He knows how to bring this into perfection, and we don't want it any other way. Every step must be a walk with God. We have no choice but to wait. We are chosen, so we walk HIS chosen path everything we do will be His orders. This is a walk together with God. We love each other by waiting together on God. One is not pulling on the other in the flesh.

This is a love worth waiting for. We have that love now, and we move as He orders us to move and tells us how. It is a love born out of rest in Him, and it will be perfected in quietness and confidence. What a treasure. All we need to do is stand still. Perfection is an anointing that we wait for, and because of that, we are anointed to wait. We are anointed to be perfected. We have no choice. It will happen. The Lord wants to be able to take perfection to all nations and he will. We wait until we hear Him say go. The devil wants us to run ahead and mess it up. The spiritual abortionist waits right at the doorstep, but if we have sought Jesus first, He has added the anointing to wait for perfection. Then these other things will be added.

Blessings and Shalom,
Becky

There Is A Hunger
Becky McLendon

Hear a little parable: It seems instead of people going after the rabbit; they are going for its tracks. Thinking they will actually FIND the rabbit, they go to and fro asking, “Which way did he go? Which way did he go?” They stop and STUDY on this and that and never get the rabbit. About all we have gotten for years has been rabbit tracks, and Jesus cautioned us not to go when they say, “Lo, he is here or lo, he is over there.” He also said, “ lo I am with you always, even unto the ends of the earth. “ Chasing rabbit tracks instead of going after the rabbit creates a dead end existence that does not satisfy. He is with us, and his kingdom is within if we but believe. There is a hunger.

If you want the rabbit, go after him.

There is a hunger and a thirst in the land. You and I need Jesus so much, and teachings and traditions of men can’t give him to us. We have to go to the table for ourselves, and that by the Spirit. This is the food He prepares in His kitchen. At first it is just for us. Then it will be for many. We will learn of him to feed the multitudes, those that are hungry. We are waiting for the hungry to appear. THEY WILL SHOW UP. We are looking for the HUNGRY now. Expecting. They are the harvest. We prepare the table in oneness for others as he has prepared the table for us. People need to get things off their mind, and think Jesus. And these things will be added. After all did he not say you shall have perfect (complete and mature) peace if your mind is stayed on him? Jesus is our very first need. He is the first love. That is why we must continually return to Him.

There is a hunger and a thirst in the hearts of those that belong to Christ. A hunger that leaves nothing on the plate, a thirst that drinks the whole cup, and this we do each time we return to him. This is remembering him. Together we will leave nothing on the plate. Together we drink the whole cup. I have a hunger that doesn't think food. And it is constant. If we constantly hunger and thirst for righteousness, we will be constantly satisfied.   And that will keep us forever together. And the world is groaning for this manifestation. There is a hunger! A thirst! Come, come, come!

The Sheep Of His Pasture

Hear another little parable: God's sheep were in the wilderness one day, at His leading. They were grazing on the lovely herbs and grasses He had provided for them. However, there was a poisonous weed that had sprouted up, sown by an enemy. God spoke to His sheep, and said: "Touch not, taste not, handle not! For if you eat of that weed, it will kill you!" Immediately, a wolf dressed in sheep's clothing sidled up to one of the lambs of the flock and said, "Why do you not eat that lovely herb?" "Because the Shepherd has said, "Touch not, taste not, handle not!" "Legalist!" snarled the Wolf in Sheep's clothing. "You are taking that command out of context of the written word! That was a command issued forth by evil religious leaders to keep their people from enjoying their lives and their liberties."

"On the contrary," answered the sheep. "The Shepherd has REVEALED that word to me in my spirit for my protection. Therefore in this case it is WITHIN CONTEXT of His revealed word! After all, HE IS THE WORD, is He not? I will obey my Shepherd, for I know His voice, His spirit. It is YOUR voice that I do not know. You are a stranger, and you seek to steal, kill and destroy with your false sense of wisdom and your over-inflated religious pride."

The wolf in sheep's clothing jerked the weed out of the ground, quoted a chapter - and - verse scripture (out of context of the revealed word and purpose of God), "You shall take up a deadly thing and it shall not harm you," ate the weed and died. The sheep followed his Shepherd's voice and lived

The Spirit of the Lord will from time to time tell us who hear, "touch not, taste not and handle not." He is not referring to the forbidding of "things", but to the command not to partake in doctrines laced with heresy because they "look good" and "seem right."   Many doctrines will come to us, sounding good but laced with enough poison to kill us. Many times He will use our voices to issue the same warnings to our brothers and sisters in the Lord, when we see a poisonous doctrine presented. If He has told us "touch not, taste not, nor handle not," He means it.   What we hear in our spirit from the Lord comes not by much study, but by revelation. Christ is to be known, not just known about.

Blessings and Shalom,

Becky

2004 Awake and Arise

Chris Hirsh

During my time with Him the Lord led me to following Scripture

Isaiah 52 vs 1-2

" Awake, awake ! Put on your strength, O Zion; Put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city! For the uncircumcised and the unclean Shall no longer come to you.

Shake yourself from the dust, arise; Sit down, O Jerusalem! Loose yourself from the bonds of your neck, O captive daughter of Zion! "

I believe 2004 is going to be a year of a great shifting, a paradigm shift in the Body of Christ. I believe we will be seeing the beginnings of a positioning of the Church from a state of slumber, lethargy, passivity and defeat into a state of awakening , rising up into the glorious Church she has been called to be. We will be seeing a rising up and entering into sonship, not just from a teaching and head knowledge view , but a literal living out and gaining heart knowledge of who she really is in HIM and the authority and power that has been transferred to her.

For a long time we have seen a Church that has walked bended down, crippled, defeated, passivity, comfortability, without power and walking only in a fraction of the authority that belongs to her thru HIM, but this year is the beginning of her laying down those garments of defeat, false doctrines, poverty mentality and putting on those garments that are truly hers .

This year is the year of shifting, awakening and arising to walk as sons of God and not outcasts, to walk and reclaim her inheritance in HIM, to walk in true kingdom status, power and authority. All this is not a one time deal, but a continuous process.

There will also be an ongoing process of purifying and cleansing, a call to holiness and separation as never before. The lines between light and darkness will become more and more defined and clear cut, swallowing up every "gray" areas that have been tolerated and accepted as "ok" in Christian circles. There will not be no more in between, no more sitting one the fence but we will have to choose whom we serve.

We will see the Church to leave behind and shake off those things that have held her down, ensnared, held captive and rise up and be established to rule and reign.

This year is going to be a turning point, a pivotal time, an open door for her to cross over from a place of defeat, dryness, bondage to a place of promise, destiny ,strength, power and authority.

The time is NOW!

An African American Perspective

William Ford

An Amazing Prophetic and African American Perspective on Life, Justice, Intercession, and Today's Revival

by William Ford III

The purpose of this article is to give a perspective on abortion through my Christian worldview as an African American. Together, we'll explore history in order to gain greater understanding of what I and others believe we are facing today. You'll see historic prophetic comparisons that are alarming. I'll also share a personal encounter which broke my heart and has profoundly impacted me regarding this issue. My attempt is not to solve all societal ills or address them in this article, and I'm sure others could do better. I'm only a voice. First, let's start by introducing some of the history of God's faithfulness, and the sacrifice of those who've gone before us.

Prayer Bowls Over America

Many have heard the testimony of the great spiritual inheritance representing the prayers of the saints in my family. It is a 200-year-old black kettle pot, which was used by my Christian slave forbearers in Lake Providence, LA. This kettle was used for cooking and washing clothes, but secretly it was used for prayer. My ancestors were forbidden to pray by their slave master, and were beaten unmercifully if found doing so. However, in spite of their master's cruelty, and because of their love for Jesus, they prayed anyway. At night, sneaking into a barn, they carried this cast iron cooking pot into their secret prayer meeting. As others looked out, those inside prayed. Turning this pot upside down on the barn floor, they propped it up with rocks on the edge, which suspended the pot a few inches above the ground. Laying prostrate or kneeling on the ground, they prayed in a whisper underneath the kettle to muffle their voices. The story passed down with the kettle is that they were risking their lives to pray for ensuing generations. While researching for my book "History Makers" (co-authored with Dutch Sheets), I found this story repeated in slave narratives around the country. As slaves were sold across the country they continued these secret prayer gatherings at their new plantations, and the practice of these prayer meetings spread wherever they went.

Whispered Prayers on Earth, Shouts and Loud Cries In Heaven

It is important that we understand the dynamics of what happened in the spirit realm. Revelation 5:8 speaks of "bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints" before the throne of God. Zechariah 14:20b says, "And the cooking pots in the house of the Lord, shall be as the bowls before the altar." These containers caught muffled prayers on earth, just as bowls in heaven caught their prayers as incense. Symbolically, without their knowing it, these vessels became their bowls of intercession. Another interesting dynamic is that, in Revelation 8, when these bowls are released, one of the manifestations upon earth is voices.

Voices For The Voiceless

White Christian abolitionists became voices for the voiceless. Their sermons in public became answers to whispered, private prayers. Along with black Christian abolitionists, like Frederick Douglas and Sojourner Truth, they awakened the conscience of America to the value of human life, equality, and justice. They knew intercession was more than prayer, but also a call to respond to comfort God's heart in obedience, thru whatever assignment or action given by Him. In Hebrews it says that Jesus' prayers were heard because of His obedience, and these intercessors were heard for the same reason. Revelation 8 also says that at some future point, God adds His incense and fire to these prayers, which manifest His judgment or justice on earth. And that is just what He did.

The Supreme Court of Heaven Rules Courts on Earth

In 1857, the Supreme Court passed a law which many felt sealed the fate of enslaved African Americans. The case was Dred v. Scott. The Supreme Court basically said, in a 7 to 2 decision, that slaves were the property of their masters and had no human rights. However, because of prayer and acts of obedience, hearts changed and eventually this demonic decree was broken over America.

Like the memorial stones of Joshua's day, our kettle (and others like it), is a shared inheritance and a memorial stone to this generation that reminds us of God's faithfulness to our forefathers -- He Who delivered this nation out of slavery. Had it not been for these remnant intercessors, white and black, this institution would not have ended in America. Justice came, setting slaves free in America, and God's heart was comforted thru prayer and action. Now, our generation is being called into prayer and action today to be voices for the voiceless, releasing justice in our day.

God's Heart over Injustice

Is justice really that important to God? Could He really need comfort? Isaiah 59:15-16 gives us the answer:

"Yes, truth is lacking; and he who turns aside from evil makes himself a prey. Now the Lord saw, and it was displeasing in His sight that there was no justice. And He saw that there was no man, and was astonished that there was no one to intercede; then His own arm brought salvation to Him."

Take note of two very important words in these verses: "displeasing" and "astonished." In Hebrew, these words reveal God's heart over injustice. "Displeasing" is the word "raa," which means "to spoil something by breaking or shattering it into pieces." The Hebrew word for astonished is "shamem," which means "to devastate, to amaze, to stun, or to grow numb." Think of it: When the Creator of the universe sees injustice, His heart is broken. He then seeks someone on Earth to share this burden with Him in intercession and bring relief to His heart. When He can't find anyone who is concerned about injustice, He is astonished, stunned, and devastated!

Broken Intercession

The word "justice" in this verse is "mishpat," which means "a verdict announced judicially," especially a sentence or formal decree. Whether the lack of justice is legalized racist decrees, such as the Dred Scott decision during slavery, or other court injustices, it is God's desire to have intercessors be moved by His heart and, through prayer, release His kingdom justice on Earth. I have experienced what this feels like in intercession.

During one prayer journey (called the Kettle Tour), I had an experience and a depth of travail I'll never forget. I agonizingly wept for more than two hours. While praying and seeking to find out what was happening to me, I heard the Lord say He was sharing with me His heart for America. With intensity I'd never known before, I wept over the pain and division in America. I then heard the Lord speak to me: "If I heard the whispered prayers of slaves underneath cooking pots, how much more do I hear the silent screams of babies being aborted in America."

My heart, like His, was shattered to pieces. In the act of abortion, we kill that for which we once would have died, and spurn what others gave their lives to protect -- the sanctity of human life.

A New Mantle to Break Roe v. Wade

Another unjust decree is upon the nation -- the 1973 Supreme Court case Roe v. Wade. In similar form, the Court said that unborn babies are the property of their mothers, and have no human rights. Just as Dred Scott, this decision was passed 7 to 2. The similarities are eerie. In 1857, when people were outraged about the decision, Chief Justice Taney basically said that if people didn't like slavery, they didn't have to participate in it, and that they had no right to force morality on anyone else. In 1973, when people were outraged over Roe v. Wade, Justice Blackmun basically said Americans didn't have to participate in abortion, and that we have no right to impose morality on someone else. Slavery and abortion are both inhumane. So are fleshly attempts to kill abortion doctors, an action similar to some rogue abolitionists, who tried to kill slave-owners.

We haven't learned our lessons from history. Consequently, we're breaking God's heart again.

The Affects of Abortion on African American Community

The statistics regarding the affects of abortion in our communities are staggering. As a race, the affects of abortion on the African American community have been devastating. Racially, our population is on the decline in America. As a whole, millions of African American babies die every year at an alarming rate. Close to 1,500 are aborted every day. Though we only account for 11 percent of the population, more than 30% of all abortions in America are African American babies. Why are these statistics so disproportionately high, especially since blacks as a whole don't support the philosophies of this institution of death?

Is the fact that 70% of all abortion clinics are in minority communities contributing to this holocaust? Maybe it is because the same spirits of death and racism from slavery are attacking us today.

The hurts of fatherlessness, which began during the peculiar institution, has carried over to today. Part of the reason for our pain, of course, is the affects of slavery. This, of course, does not excuse immoral conduct, but does shed some light on the fruit we see manifesting today. Satan's remedy to this has been programs and facilities set up as a means to help and educate; but instead they have imposed alternatives that promote sin and death, showing no hope or future for our children. New technology has uncovered the lies made to us all: It isn't tissue, it's a person.

Humanistic Ideologies of Racism and Death

The person Satan used was Margaret Sanger, whose philosophy of population control began many organizations, including Planned Parenthood. She was a Eugenicist, who believed that blacks and other "lesser strains" of society should be eliminated. She felt the poor of all races were a drain on mankind and these weaker, "dysgenic" people should be eliminated.

Sanger once even said, "Colored people are like weeds, and must be exterminated."

Keeping her motives hidden, she used black clergy during the early to mid 1900s to carry and disguise her message, unbeknownst to them.

Many pastors were outraged and resisted these efforts. However some were blinded by Sanger's charisma, money, and power, and were manipulated by Sanger, thus her plan infiltrated the black community. Though her motives were not exposed in the past, they since have been revealed through her memoirs. Greg Keath, African American leader in the fight to end abortion in America, thoroughly researched her documents in the 80's at Smith College, and what he found was appalling. For example, in a letter dated December 10, 1939 to a board member, Margaret Sanger wrote the following regarding her project, code named The Negro Project: "We do not want word to go out that we want to exterminate the Negro population and the minister is the man who can straighten out that idea if it ever occurs to any of their more rebellious members." As George Grant writes in "The Grand Illusion," "…since minority communities are the primary targets for contraceptive services, Blacks and Hispanics inevitably must bear the brunt of the abortion holocaust." In most communities, abortions among African Americans outstrip births 3 to 1. Our people are truly perishing for lack of knowledge. We've been lied to by the enemy.

A United Church: The Answer

Will ending abortion in America fix the ills in the black community (crime, murder, drug addiction, economic disparity, etc)? Of course not. But can we truly solve any problem in our community while abortion still exists as it is? The answers, of course, lie in the church of Jesus Christ.

The church was the answer during slavery and the civil rights movement. And a new remnant of Christians of all races, working together on this issue, must pray and be voices for the voiceless in our day: the unborn. In Exodus 10:10-12, Pharaoh agrees to let Moses and the older generations go into the Promised Land, but as a concession, he says that the children must stay in Egypt.

Moses could have taken the easy way out. After all, carrying infants and young children on the journey into the Promised Land could have been viewed as burdensome. Moses, however, rejected Pharaoh's compromise, knowing that the future of Israel was in its offspring. The same is true for us today. Our children are not our burden, they are our hope, and we must fight for their future. If not, we forfeit our own voice and existence. Dr. King has been quoted as saying that in the end of our lives, it will not be the memory of hurtful words from our enemies that wound us most, but rather the silence of our friends. As God's friends, we must be voices for the voiceless on this issue, interceding with prayer and action.

A Call to Prayer and Action Today

The angels of Revelation 8 are standing at attention, waiting for us to add our prayers as incense to the cloud of witnesses that have gone before us. No one thought slavery would end in America, but they forget about the praying remnant of cooking pot intercessors and white abolitionists, who reminded God of how He delivered Israel from Egypt. The prayers of this godly remnant broke the power of Dred Scott, and slavery ended in America.

The same God who broke the power of that unjust decree, can break the power of Roe v. Wade. Truly, the commitment of our fathers has become the calling of our time, and this generation has been called for such a time as this to shift the courts in America. The key of justice purchased by the sacrifice of our black forefathers, which shut the door to Dred Scott and Jim Crow segregation laws, must be used today to close the door to Roe v. Wade. We can turn the courts of this nation again. We must pray for changed hearts and righteous judges, who do justice and love mercy to the unborn. Also, we must reach out and pray for healing for those who have had abortions. They don't need pointing fingers, but rather open arms of mercy, compassion, and hope.

Voting is one of your greatest acts of intercession. Many believers sacrificed their lives for this generation's right to vote in this nation. However, millions of Christians of all races in the last presidential election didn't turn out. As ambassadors for Christ, we must show up at the polls! And when we vote, we must vote for candidates who value the sanctity of marriage and are against killing the unborn. There are those who say that you cannot legislate morality. Sadly, these same people don't understand how this same mindset is what kept slavery intact. The purpose of law should be to protect humanity, not destroy it. Legislation should be used as a moral means, and not as part of supporting an immoral end. Vote to protect life.

Let's agree with the prayer of Harriet Beecher Stowe in 1852 during slavery, who cried,

"O, holy church universal, throughout all countries and nations! O ye great cloud of witnesses, of all people and languages and tongues! Differing in many doctrines, but united in crying, 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, for he hath redeemed us from all iniquity!' -- awake! -- arise up! -- be not silent! Testify against this heresy of the latter day, which, if it were possible, is deceiving the very elect. Your God, your glory, is slandered. Answer with the voice of many waters and mighty thunderings! Answer with the innumerable multitude in heaven, who cry, day and night, 'Holy, holy, holy! Just and true are thy ways, O king of saints!'"

Arise As Bold Warriors

Musa Opiyo

I would have you as My servants Joshua and Caleb, who firstly had seen My hand in operation throughout their travailing and journey from Egypt. Knowing that I the Alpha and Omega was capable of doing what I said I would do, were unnerved when they beheld the giants of the land before them. They knew that of themselves they could not do the job of eradicating their enemies, yet they leaned upon Me for their strength. They refused to speak in unbelief when the rest of their brothers spread fear among the camp. They waited on Me and knew that I had given them the land for their inheritance.

As with My servants of old, you My people are on the threshold of your promised land. You have lingered in the wilderness long enough. Some of the ‘older generation’ doctrine that caused you to turn back is disappearing as My truth is etched on your hearts. The land I have given before you is your inheritance. Yet I have allowed the giants in your way as a set up to show Myself strong in you. Do not look to the natural but to the supernatural.

As these giants advance and try to stop you from moving forward declare My praises and My promises that will ensure the downfall of all that would oppose and hinder My work in you. Do you think that singular stone killed Goliath as it proceeded from the slingshot? Was it not as David released the stone, that My power went behind it? So I AM equipping My end time army with such power. Your prayers and praise may not seem all that much significant to you, yet when the focus is on Me, I would say unto you as I said to Jehoshaphat, “The battle is mine and I will fight it.” Therefore fear not. Arise as bold warriors with the armour of the Lord on you. You are victorious because I say you are victorious for truly what I have spoken shall not return void.

My Acceptance Of You

Musa Opiyo

March 28, 2004

I have accepted you as you are because I created you as you are. I had a special blueprint for your life that was unique to you and no one else. You were and still are to accomplish My will for your life as you lean on Me for your life support. But somewhere along the line, the Deceiver wedged his way into your life and began to fill your ears with lies about yourself. The more you listened, the more you believed that he was right and you then began to question whether you were who I said you are.

I AM THE I AM. I created all things. The earth and the sea are mine.HEAR ME, SAYS THE LORD, FOR AS SURELY AS I AM I DO NOT MAKE FAILURES. In you I see the potential to be great warriors, men and women of valour who will bombard the Kingdom of Darkness. In you I see the potential to be great businessmen, dealing with the arts...you know what talents and gifts I have given you for the glory of My name. Yet you have forgotten that you are a threat to the forces of hell, for hell itself trembles at My mighty ones, strong in Me, advance to storm its gates. Satan knows he cannot stop the power and the anointing that proceeds from you, and so he knows that the only way to bring you down is by undermining your self worth and sowing seeds of discontentment.

DO NOT GIVE HIM THE TIME OF DAY. I have given you My word and the authority of My name. Go forth, knowing that no weapon formed against you shall prosper, knowing that if I am for you, who can be against you. Come unto Me therefore, and experience My rest. I stand at the door of your heart and knock. Let Me sup with you.

Authority And It's Misuse

Mario Procopio

> Matt 28:
> *18 And Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. 19 "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all that I commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age. Biblical Concepts Of Authority

I. Delegated Authorities Must Sanctify Themselves

John 17:19 For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.

1 Thess 4:7 For God has not called us for the purpose of impurity, but in sanctification.

It is something neither apportioned by men nor simply appointed by God. We need to remember that it is on the one hand based upon spirituality and on the other hand based upon the humble and obedient condition of the man before God. We will now add one more point, which is, that one who is to be in authority must be sanctified from the crowd, or to be set apart from the common and ordinary.

“The Lord sanctifying Himself” means that for the sake of His disciples, the Lord refrained from doing many things, which were perfectly legitimate to Him. He was absolutely sinless. Even His anger was without sin. Nonetheless He says, “For their sakes, I sanctify myself.” He was willing to be restrained in many things.

For our sake, he accepts the restrictions, which come from men. For the sake of God’s authority He refrains from doing many things in order to manifest His separation from the world. This is what the Lord sanctifying Himself means.

In learning to be in authority, we ought to be sanctified before brothers and sisters. According to ourselves, we take a certain attitude, but among God’s children, we will be sanctified. Even our fellowship with brothers and sisters must have limit beyond which we will neither be casual or frivolous. We should rather lose our liberty, we rather will be lonely. At times loneliness is the mark of authority. It is not due to pride but for the sake of representing God’s authority.

Rom 9:21
21 Does not the potter have the right to make out of the same lump of clay some pottery for noble purposes and some for common use?

2 Tim 2:20-21
20 In a large house there are articles not only of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for noble purposes and some for ignoble. 21 If a man cleanses himself from the latter, he will be an instrument for noble purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and prepared to do any good work.

Lev 10:6-10
6 Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not mourn-do not let your hair hang loose as a sign of your mourning, and do not tear your clothes. If you do, God will strike you dead too, and his wrath will come upon all the people of Israel. But the rest of the people of Israel may lament the death of Nadab and Abihu, and mourn because of the terrible fire the Lord has sent. 7 But you are not to leave the Tabernacle under penalty of death, for the anointing oil of Jehovah is upon you." And they did as Moses commanded. 8 Now the Lord instructed Aaron, "Never drink wine or strong drink when you go into the Tabernacle, lest you die; and this rule applies to your sons and to all your descendants from generation to generation. 10 Your duties will be to arbitrate for the people, to teach them the difference between what is holy and what is ordinary (common), what is pure and what is impure; TLB

The opposite of holiness is commonness, not just sin. To be sanctified is to be different from others. Many rightful things we will not do, many speakable words we will not utter. This is not an outward pretension but the restraint of God in the spirit. Only in this way will we be God’s delegated authorities.

One who is in authority represents God in his every word and action. If we can only fly at a low level because we cannot bear the solitude of high flying, we are unfit to be in authority. To be in authority requires restraint; one must sanctify himself. Others may, but you cannot; others may speak, but you cannot. You must obey the Spirit of the Lord as He teaches within you. You may feel lonely and miss the fervor of the crowd; nevertheless, you dare not mingle with the brothers and sisters in joking and jesting. This is the price of authority. Unless we sanctify ourselves like our Lord, we are not qualified to be in authority.

Lev 10:3 -“This is what the Lord has said, “I will show myself holy among those who are near me.” In this incident God reveals something; those who are near Him should never be careless. There is a much severer discipline to them than to the people in general.

Mourning is a normal human affection and is perfectly legitimate. But to those Israelites who served God, it was forbidden lest they die. How serious this is. Those who served God were judged differently from the ordinary Israelites. What all other people of Israel might do, they could not.

The opposite of holiness is commonness. Holiness means that others may, but I cannot. Even lawful affection needs to be put under control; otherwise death can be the consequence. The people of Israel died because of their sins, but priests may die because of not being sanctified. With the Israelites, he who killed must die; for Aaron, however, if he had mourned for his sons he would have died. People in authority must pay the price for it.

The people of Israel did not live in the tabernacle, whereas Aaron and his sons were not allowed to step out of the door of the tabernacle. They must diligently keep God’s charge. The anointing oil sanctified us from our natural affections as well as from customary conduct. We should respect the anointing oil, which God gives to us.

25 Great crowds were following him. He turned around and addressed them as follows: 26 "Anyone who wants to be my follower must love me far more than he does his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, or sisters-yes, more than his own life-otherwise he cannot be my disciple. 27 And no one can be my disciple who does not carry his own cross and follow me. TLB

Ordinary brothers and sisters may continue their family affections, but god’s delegated authorities must maintain the glory of God. They ought not set loose their own affections and act carelessly or rebelliously; rather, they must praise the Lord for seeing His glory.

Those who serve are anointed by God. They should sacrifice their own affections, denying even legitimate ones. All who would maintain God’s authority must know how to oppose their own feelings, how to lay aside the deepest of their affections towards relatives, friends and loved ones. The demand of God is exacting: unless one lays aside his own affections he cannot serve God. He who is sanctified is God’s servant; he who is not sanctified is a common person.

It is therefore a matter of enjoyment. Others may enjoy, but we cannot. Others may rejoice in pleasures (for wine speaks of rejoicing), but we cannot. People serving God are under discipline that they may be able to distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean. Whatever loosens the reins of restraint is not to be done.

The higher the office, the stricter the demand. The degree of nearness to God becomes the degree of His demand. Of him to whom God entrusts more, the more will He demand.

Authority has its foundation in sanctification. Without sanctification, there can be no authority. If you wish to live with the crowd, you cannot be an authority.

May we heartily desire to please God too and thus seek after deeper sanctification. It means we will be distinguished from the common, although not separated from God's children as though we were holier than they. The more we are sanctified and are subject to the authority of God the more we may be delegated authorities.

He who is in authority does not grasp authority; he serves God, is willing to pay the price, and seeks not excitement. To be in authority requires one to climb high, to not fear the loneliness, and to be sanctified.

II. The Conditions for Being Delegated Authorities

Titus 1:6-10
6 The men you choose must be well thought of for their good lives; they must have only one wife and their children must love the Lord and not have a reputation for being wild or disobedient to their parents.
7 These pastors must be men of blameless lives because they are God's ministers. They must not be proud or impatient; they must not be drunkards or fighters or greedy for money. 8 They must enjoy having guests in their homes and must love all that is good. They must be sensible men, and fair. They must be clean minded and level headed. 9 Their belief in the truth that they have been taught must be strong and steadfast so that they will be able to teach it to others and show those who disagree with them where they are wrong.
10 For there are many who refuse to obey; this is especially true among those who say that all Christians must obey the Jewish laws. But this is foolish talk; it blinds people to the truth. TLB

An elder must not be a self-conceited person. He who becomes haughty when given authority is unfit for the elder hood. The elders of a local assembly should not be susceptible to power consciousness. Whoever is conscious of authority is not fit to be an elder, nor can he manage the affairs of the church. Only small people are proud; they cannot hear either God's glory nor can they be trusted and used by God. Hence, a recent convert must not be chosen as elder lest he be puffed up and fall into the condemnation of the devil.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.
In order not to be despised one must sanctify himself. If he is not different from others in living and conduct, if he lives loosely and without discipline, he cannot escape being despised. It takes self-discipline to draw respect from others and to qualify oneself as God's representative.

To be in authority is costly; such ones need to be sanctified from the rest and to be ready for a lonely life. Never be self-conceited, but never be disregarded either. As soon as one becomes too common, he is dropped from the work. His usefulness is gone, and his authority is lost. Authority is manifested in sanctification, not in commonness. To represent authority is to represent God; to be in authority is to be an example to all.

Prayer For Deliverance:

Lord Jesus Christ, I believe You are the Son of God and the only way to God -- that You died on the cross for my sins and rose again so that I might be forgiven and receive eternal life. I renounce all pride and religious self-righteousness and any dignity that does not come from You. I have no claim on Your mercy except that you died in my place. I confess all my sins before You and hold nothing back. Especially I confess…

I repent of all my sins and I renounce; Rebellion, Disobedience, Defiance, Stubbornness, Anti-Christ, Absalom, Adversary, Anarchy, Leviathan, Mockery, Mutiny, Passivity, Jezebel, Ahab, Witchcraft, Humanism, Independence, Obstinacy, Self-will, Control, distortion Argumentative, Hatred of authority, Pride, Arrogance, Egotism, Self-Importance, Self-exultation, Phariseeism, Superiority, Criticism, Enmity, Competition, Treachery, Accusation, Criticism, Faultfinding, Judging, Anger, Suspicion, Distrust, Rejecting truth, Intellectualism, Mind idolatry, Prejudice, Fear of authority, Fear of man, Timidity, Inadequacy, Deceit, Lying, Rejection, Rejection from Father/ Mother.

I turn away from pride & rebellion, and I turn to You, Lord, for mercy and forgiveness. By a decision of my will, I freely forgive all who have ever harmed or wronged me. I lay down all bitterness, all resentment and all hatred. Specifically, I forgive… I sever all contact I have ever had with the occult or with all false religion--particularly… I commit myself to get rid of all objects associated with the occult or false religion. I thank You Lord Jesus, that on the cross You were made a curse, that I might be redeemed from every curse and inherit God's blessing. On that basis I ask You to release me from all the consequences of my sins and all the consequences of my ancestors' sins. I take my stand with You, Lord, against all Satan's demons. I submit to You, Lord, and I resist the devil. I declare that Satan and all his demons have no place in me or power over me through the blood of Jesus, Amen!

18 And Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth.

Rev 12:10-12
10 And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying,
"Now the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. 11 "And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even to death.

Legitimate Authority Has 3 Aspects:

1- (Deliverance) - empowers you to be free and to overcome Accusation, guilt, condemnation, & fear.
2- (Inner-healing) - protects, nourishes, & builds up your Inner-man while tearing down inside of you that which is Harmful.
3- (Discipleship) – helps you achieve your divine destiny and To become the person god intended you to be.

Authority that does not have these three aspects is either; control, a Jezebel force, or witchcraft. It is actually illegitimate authority.

Control and/or domination are the methods used for achievement and the wisdom that is taught in this world. Control is the substance of this evil age.

Acts 19:8-10
8 Then Paul went to the synagogue and preached boldly each Sabbath day for three months, telling what he believed and why, and persuading many to believe in Jesus. 9 But some rejected his message and publicly spoke against Christ, so he left, refusing to preach to them again. Pulling out the believers, he began a separate meeting at the lecture hall of Tyrannus and preached there daily. 10 This went on for the next two years, so that everyone in the Turkish province of Asia Minor-both Jews and Greeks-heard the Lord's message. TLB
(Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's)
KJV - Tyrannus.
NT:5181 - Turannos (too'-ran-nos); a "tyrant";
The base of NT:2962 - kurios (koo'-ree-os); supreme in authority, i.e. (as noun) controller

Note; control comes in two forms either manipulation (if you're weaker than the person you are attempting to control) - passive control or domination (if you're stronger than the person you are attempting to control) - aggressive control.

A Look At False Concepts Of Authority That Has Diminished The Strength, Influence, And Unity Of The Church Throughout History.

1- Control Type Leadership Will Make Disciples Unto Men Rather Than Christ

Acts 20:30
30 Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples after them.

Jesus said go and make disciples of all nations. It is evident that He did not mean that the believers were to make disciples unto themselves. They were to be Jesus' disciples. A discipleship program must not make disciples unto men. You should make disciples unto Jesus. You point men to Jesus, not to yourself. In control type leadership doctrines one is forced to remain under his shepherd. He cannot go to new visions. He is forever bound by the limitations of his shepherd. In true Bible discipleship one is to be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ (Galatians 4:19).

Jesus, not your human shepherd, must be your master. You are to be like Jesus, not a man. You are to grow up into Jesus Christ, not the human shepherd.
In some programs there is as strong a commitment to the human shepherd as unto the Lord which is actually a form of witchcraft.

2- Control Type Leadership Will Tell You That Submission To God Is Based On Your Submission To Man.

Submission to God is not based on submission to man.
The slave thing is overemphasized. The servant role is also emphasized in these groups. This keeps the person in fear. He fears to rise up and make his own decision or to enter into his own ministry.

A Christian can call himself a slave to the Lord as Paul did, but for the Christian to be a slave to a human shepherd and his program can lead to backsliding.

Hosea 8:4
"They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off."

3- In Control Type Leadership Churches The Sheep Never Tell The Shepherd Anything.

Again, the New Testament does not honor such nonsense.
Acts 21:4: "And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem."
Here the disciples or sheep were telling Paul rather than Paul telling them.

I Corinthians 3:5-7:
"Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believe, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase."

There is no stair step authority manifested here. This says that the ministers are nothing. It is God who really counts. The ministers lead you to Christ. Paul said stop magnifying men. You have the same thing that they have. You get with it and produce for the Lord.

4- Control Type Leadership Will Emphasize That Their Church Is Greater Than Most Other Churches Or Somehow More Special.

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. KJV

Control type leadership groups have special meetings where the general public is not invited. The main training program, however, is limited to the submitted ones. Jesus took His disciples out on a special retreat, and five thousand men went with Him. He taught them all the same things.

Control type leadership groups claim that the greater truths belong to only a select few. On one occasion the disciples rebuked a man for casting out devils because he was not of their group. (Mark 9:38) Jesus then rebuked them. He informed them that the man was of Him even though he was not in their group. This man's ministry had the approval of Jesus. He had no shepherd other than Jesus.

5- Control Type Leadership Will Often Speak Of Fear Of Stealing The Sheep.

How can sheep be stolen from a man who does not own them? The sheep belong to Jesus. No one on earth owns the sheep.

In "hard core" neo-discipleship programs every speaker is censored. All books are censored. Everything has to be approved by the pastor or shepherd.

1 Cor 7:22-23
23 You have been bought and paid for by Christ, so you belong to him-be free (from being slaves of men) now from all these earthly prides and fears. TLB

6- Control Type Leadership Will Make You Fearful To Listen To And Receive From Other Pastors And/Or Ministries.

In these groups they often speak of being afraid of another shepherd. The sheep should not fear another pastor's voice. You should love all pastors. This analogy is drawn from John 10 where Jesus speaks of the sheep being afraid of strangers. He was not speaking of Christians being afraid of other Christians. That is ridiculous and very poor teaching. This type of control brings about intense division in the Body and creates distrust and fear.

7- Control Type Leadership Will Over-Emphasize The Pastor As The Father.

The pastor is the father, and earthly fathers never change families. Now this sounds cute and nice, but analogies break down. I have only one Father. My Father is in heaven. This teaching is a subtle approach to "super submission." This leads a person to believe that he must submit to the shepherd as a child would to an earthly father. Analogies do not carry through fully from the natural to the spirit. If the shepherd were your father, he would be in full command of your life. You could not make decisions without his approval. You could not mature.

9 "And do not call anyone on earth your father; for One is your Father, He who is in heaven.

8- Control Type Leadership Will Emphasize That Sheep Join Shepherds Rather Than Churches.

Disciples are unto Jesus and placed in His church. Disciples are not to be yoked under human shepherds. A shepherd program may distract from Jesus' roll as the Good Shepherd. The emphasis is on obedience to the under-shepherd.

The Bible doesn't point out any shepherd over Paul or similar men. Control type leadership programs emphasize that the sheep are joined to shepherds. The truth is that the saints are joined to the Lord and a local body.

9- Control Type Leadership Emphasizes The Infallibility Of The Human Shepherd Or Leader.

David did not completely submit to the office of Saul. He ran from him rather than submit. If he had submitted to Saul and turned himself in, he would have been killed by Saul. On the other hand, Sapphire submitted to the office of the headship of her husband and was reprimanded and killed for doing so.

10- Control Type Leadership Doctrines State That One Cannot Be Independent.

The error goes like this, just as parts of the body join other parts to the head, people join other people, who in turn join other people, who finally join you to God. In other words, it is impossible to eat or receive if you are not in a legalistic network of a chain of command program. This is where they derive the idea that once you join a discipleship group you cannot be unjoined. You can readily see that the body analogy is carried too far.

According to this way of thinking, the elbow can command the hand below it or the forearm below it. Nonsense. Only the head can command the body. Jesus is your head. You had better make sure you do not follow another. You are the body of Christ. Jesus is the head. The members cooperate in the physical body with one another, but they are directly controlled by the head. Your leg does not tell your foot what to do. Many times the smallest member may receive a word for the larger, outwardly more effective member. Never should the Church consist of a legalistic structure of dogmas.

Can One Be Independent Of The Main Body And Still Be Used Of God? Answer - Yes

Typical control type leadership concepts say absolutely not. They condemn such action.

Mark 9:38,39: "Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us, and we forbade him, because he followeth not us. But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me."

Bible Teaching On Disciples Without Local Shepherds Or Local Over-Seers.
Acts 14:22-23: "Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue…and when they had ordained them elders in every church…"

These disciples were alone without an apostle or shepherd, but they were disciples. The apostles who started the work were miles and miles away in the meantime. They had no one to turn to but the Lord. The shepherds were appointed in the church and not over individual sheep.

The Bible teaches that individuals are to flow together in a Body that is loosely knit together with the cords of love.

Colossians 3:14: "Above all things put on charity, (love) which is the bond of perfectness."
Colossians 2:2: "That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love."

11- The Believer Is Equal To The Pastor Or Shepherd In The Eyes Of God But Control Type Leadership Groups Say Otherwise.

Jesus taught in John 14:12 that believers would do the same works that He did. In I John 4:17 it stated that the believer is as Jesus. "As he is so are we in this world."

In I Corinthians 3:21-22 Paul exhorts them to stop glorifying in the men who were shepherds over the people and develop their own ministry. "Let no man glory in men. For all things are yours. Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas…all things are yours."

Ephesians 2:5-6 teaches that the believer is seated together with Christ in heavenly places. He is one with Christ. Every believer is equal in the sense of position. God places under shepherds over the flocks to love, guide, and encourage. In no way are these shepherds to act as lords over these saints. Some saints are capable of going beyond their shepherd.

12- In Control Groups The Ministry Of The Prophet Is Infallible And/Or Final.

Today He speaks to us through His Son Jesus Christ.
Hebrews 1:1-2: "God…spake in time past…by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son…"
God speaks directly to the individual today.

There is a ministry of the prophet today. Generally, but not always, his ministry confirms what is already revealed to your heart. You must never accept anyone's word as final. You must rightly divide the word of truth. You must weigh prophecies by God's Word and mature to the point of hearing God directly for yourself.

What Is Rebellion According To God's Word?

Rebellion is disobeying God's Word. It could be preaching the wrong message. It could be going to the wrong church. Rebellion is an attitude of hate for the ways of God. Rebellion against the words of a prophet or shepherd may or may not be rebellion against God. You must fear God's Word. You must not fear the prophet or the shepherd's word. If the prophet makes all of your decisions for you it is not a faith walk. This is walking by the words of your shepherd or prophet rather than having a direct relationship with God.

13- Control Type Leadership Groups Generally Teach That The Lord Speaks The Really Important Things To The Sheep Only Through The Human Pastor Or Shepherd.

I Peter 4:11: "If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God…"

The teaching in Peter isn't limited to shepherds. God will use a shepherd to speak the Word of the Lord to the sheep. He will, also, use the sheep to speak the Word of the Lord to the shepherds. If you can hear the voice of God only through the shepherd, then you are limited by the wisdom of that shepherd. You would be at the mercies of that shepherd.

One of the handbooks of modern neo-discipleship seems to indicate that the current Words of the shepherds are "The Living Words of God" for the disciples today. This is the FALSE foundation of their authority.

If you will go back to their own analogy of the human body you see very easily that the only member which can instruct is the head. That head is Jesus. He can give instructions to any member in His Body directly just as your head can instruct one hand to do the opposite. Jesus has a "now" word everyday for everyone who will seek Him.

14- Control Type Leadership Emphasizes Outward Submission Rather Than The Inward Leading Of The Holy Spirit.

Submission is a key word in control type leadership groups. The picture is forming the life of the children by commands. The child must submit. The child cannot run away. He has to obey. The child cannot run to another family and join that family. The child must stay with you. They insist that lives cannot be molded without absolute submission. This is only part truth in my estimation.

The leader or pastor must speak, exhort, and rebuke with all authority, but the individual must be free to respond as he feels God is directing him. God gives authority by love in teaching the Word. Each individual must be free to sort out what is the will of God, and what is flesh on the part of the shepherd.

No man is perfect. No shepherd is perfect.

15- Control Type Leadership Programs Advocate Dictatorship.

Submit to them that have the rule over you… however…

This does not give leaders authority to demand submission to their error. We are not required to submit to authority that is contrary to the Word or the principles of the Word of God. Paul spoke of false shepherds…He also spoke of those who would arise from among them who would make disciples unto themselves. The sheep must have protection against this type of ruler. Never is the saint obligated to submit to the evil and error in any so-called man of God. He did not tell them to submit to error. He liberated them from the cruelty and bondage of men. It is the stronger helping the weaker. It isn't a shepherd commanding the underdog to straighten up.

Scriptural Tithing.
Never did Paul teach that the pastor or shepherd should receive the tithe. The tithe went to the church and the church used it as it was needed.

A Minister Who Must Rule Is A Sick Person.
Jesus recognized the authoritarian spirit in His disciples, especially Peter. The disciples had argued once on the road as to who would be the greatest. Jesus later instructed them that the greatest must be the servant of all. When there is a strong authoritarian pattern seen in any group, there should be warning bells going off in your spirit.

16- In Control Type Leadership groups there is absolute submission to the shepherd.

Everyone is submitted in a regimented (army type) authoritarian chain of command. Shepherds are submitted to shepherds. Someone is between you and God at all times.

Control type leadership groups teach that to have authority we must be in line with other leaders who are submitted to each other and finally to God. This type of thinking believes that they must be in line with those whom God places over them. Authority passes through the chain of command, this is false. If you get out of the chain of command, then you have no authority. Often this teaching uses the army as an illustration of the type of authority they are teaching.

God's Word teaches otherwise.
II Corinthians 11:5: "I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostle."

II Timothy 2:5: "There is one God, and one mediator between God and man*, the man Christ Jesus."*

Peter was rebuked by a younger man of God called Paul. Paul said, "I withstood him to the face." Peter was in error, and Paul told him off. He did not submit. The dictator-type teaching would have made Paul submit to error in Peter, but God does not honor this type of teaching.

Galatians 2:11: "When Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed."

Abigail refused to submit to the headship of her husband Nabal and countermanded his orders. She sent food to David which her husband said must not be done. She later married David after God slew her husband for his wickedness. (I Samuel 25:1-42)

Your first rule in submission is to God.

James 4:7: "Submit yourselves therefore to God."

Submitting to evil in a husband, pastor, or ruler is not honored by God. Peter said, "We ought to obey God rather than men.” (Acts 5:29) God never honors submission when it causes disobedience to Him. God, many times, will only speak to one person about your life—you.

To consistently submit to the will of another human is inviting spiritual suicide. You are responsible for your own soul. Do not turn your soul over to any man.

Ephesians 5:21: “Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.”

A true submission teaching involves give and take on the part of all members of the Body of Christ. It is not sheep under shepherd in a rigid dictatorship or authoritarian program. God makes all saints equal. No one is to “lord” it over another.

17- Control Type Leadership Programs Or Neo-Discipleship Programs Promote “Totally Submitted Church Bodies.” Shepherd Programs Promote “Submitted Bodies.”

In “submitted bodies” each submits to someone above him. The shepherd has the sheep under him, submitted totally to him. He in turn is submitted to the one over him. There is no room for argument, etc. We don’t find such conditions existing in the Word of God. This was a meeting of the apostles and elders. They argued and disputed. Their conclusion is that there must be an ecclesiastical structure to have authority in God. This is the exact opposite of what Jesus taught.

Following the neo-discipleship route the strong individuals are destroyed. Men with deep convictions must submit them to the shepherd. You have seen this work in ungodly governments when they want to destroy men who are leaders. Dictators remove natural leaders and replace them with small men who know how to rubber-stamp their superiors. These are yes men. This is what neo-discipleship promotes—yes men. The control type leadership doctrine and dogma rules out men of convictions. This does away with men who hear from God. This, in reality, kills the move of God.

18- The Authority Apostles Exercised Over Each Church Was Limited. Control Type Leadership Groups Teach Otherwise.

The churches, which Paul started, were only loosely connected to him. He had to write to some of them to prove his apostleship over them. He didn’t leave them in a “strait jacket” program. They demanded that he prove himself worthy of the ministry or apostleship that he claimed among them. The congregations held Paul accountable. They actually demanded proof from Paul that he was speaking the Word of the Lord.

II Corinthians 13:2: “I told you before, and foretell you…if I come I will not spare.”

II Corinthians 13:10: “I write these things being absent, lest being present, I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.”

Notice that Paul had to tell them twice in this case. He did not have absolute dictatorial type submission in operation. Paul had authority. Every shepherd or apostle must have authority, but he must not overstep this authority. There must be a balance !!! A person must be allowed to make decisions. Through trial and error the babe learns to walk.

Yes, Paul did have authority, but it was not administered in a manner to destroy the will of the church or saints. These are words of authority, but taken in the light of the surrounding scriptures, they were not given in the spirit of dictatorship or absolute authority. God’s ministers must have authority. It is an authority of love; it is not an absolute authority, which demands absolute obedience. Men are prone to make mistakes. A man must be free to find God for himself.

19- Control Type Leadership Groups Emphasize That Relating To Men Of Like Doctrine Is The Basis Of Fellowship.

They acknowledge that Jesus is the Savior and believers love one another because of Jesus. Then they turn around and say that you cannot be joined, or related, unless you are joined to others of like doctrine or come under their leadership structure.

I Corinthians 6:17: “He that is joined to the Lord is one spirit.”

Believers are joined to Jesus. The spirit of Jesus joins the believers to each other, not doctrines, shepherds, or anything else.
The Holy Spirit makes us all one.

20- Control Type Leadership Groups Are Generally Religions That Emphasize Good Works And Focus Inwardly On Themselves Rather Than On Outreach.

One trick of Satan is to get your mind on your works or ministry to the body at the cost of forgetting the main commission of making disciples of sinners, not just fellow Christians. When God’s Spirit is flowing, there is an emphasis upon meeting the needs of fellow church members but it should never be at the diminishment or neglect of evangelism. Through love, thanksgiving, and the acknowledgement of God’s grace in our lives our ministry, deliverance, & inner-healing to the Church is not an end to itself but rather it’s purpose is that all may obtain a greater degree of power and freedom within so as to adequately obey the great commission and win many to Christ.

A Look At Legitimate Concepts Of Authority And Discipleship

1- God’s People Are Not Merely Sheep.

They are the Bride of Christ.
They are Sons of God.
They are Kings and Priests.
They are Eagle Saints.

An eagle is very independent. He flies high and alone.

Paul lived a very independent life. Don’t force God’s children into the fold all of the time. Who wants an imperfect human shepherd leading him? No, you had better look to Jesus! There is a place for the shepherds. They love and protect the flock, but they do not fleece them, and “lord it” over them.

2- The Bible Teaches That God Is Your Covering.

Psalm 91:1 teaches
“He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow (or covering) of the Almighty.” Read Isaiah 30:1.

Only God can cover you on vacation or anywhere else you may reside.
Your pastor or shepherd is only human. He cannot take the place of the Lord.

3- The Basis For True Discipleship Is Acting On The Word.

James 1:21
21Therefore putting aside all filthiness and all that remains of wickedness in humility receive the word implanted, which is able to save your souls.

It is as you learn to obey God’s Word that you will see the discipleship of the Holy Spirit in your life.

4- As We Obey The Word Of God Christ Is Formed In The Disciple Through The Operation Of The Holy Ghost.

The Holy Spirit set these ministries in the Body. It was not a chain of command or dictatorship setting into ministries those who would be subject to a doctrine of man. Hallelujah! It is Jesus who does it all.

I John 4:17: "…As he is, so are we in this world."

You are not down under some pastor or church authority. You are one with your shepherd free in Christ. You are one with Jesus. As He is, so are you in this world right now. You can receive guidance. You can receive revelations. You are a king. You are a priest. You are an overcomer. The Comforter has come. He is leading you today. (John 14:26)

5- Christ, The Good Shepherd, Is To Be Formed In Every Disciple.

Love is an act of your will. You choose to love. You choose to obey the Lord. Any program that orders you to do something in a legalistic fashion causes coldness and doubt. God alone can command you to do something; even then you have the choice to obey or disobey. This makes your obedience an act of love and submissiveness which honors God. If it is forced on you with no choice on your part, it is servitude or slavery. Choosing to obey the shepherd is not a choice to obey God. It is an act of your will that identifies you with a man. We must be free from the oppression of man and come under the authority of Christ and only identify with the Lord.

I John 4:12: "…If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us."

The true disciple loves his fellow man. He does not separate himself in small sheepfolds of ten or twelve people. He identifies with the entire Body of Christ.

18 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations,

Perfect love destroys insecurity and selfishness. You cease being self-conscious and become love-conscious and therefore your focus becomes universal. Your love & focus is no longer on any select few but rather now, your love & focus is on everyone - all nations !!!

Prayer Of Deliverance

To renounce the bondages of control: prayer for release from control:

Lord I forgive everyone who has ever controlled me, and I ask you to forgive me, for being controlling as well. Your word commands me to avoid the fear of men and to not be the slaves of men.

Therefore I take the blood of Jesus and break every ungodly soul tie of control between me and my parents, spouse, children, family members, friends, enemies, employers, people and/or organizations I am in debt to, church family, pastors, people in authority, and all people in general.

In the name of Jesus I resist all control and I command any & all curses and demons of control, witchcraft, Jezebel, Ahab, passivity, death, depression, fear, insecurity, guilt, false responsibility, and confusion to get out of my soul and to never return. I am in covenant with you lord to love, fear, & worship you alone, and to remain free!!! In Jesus name, amen!

Angels And Joy Bubbles

Sandy Warner

HEARD: Joy bubbles are coming soon. Suddenly. Things are going to change.

VISION: I was traveling past a tree. When I looked back, I saw an angel and he suddenly turned brilliant with the Lord’s glory. His mantle went from his shoulders to his hips and it was glowing white. He had turned to face the other direction and looked like he was preparing to depart. My eyes had been opened as in a trance and I tried to keep my eyes open so I could continue to see him. I did not want him to leave. Then he turned towards me and blew joy bubbles up into the air. The bubbles were about 2-3 inches in size. He continued to blow them with the wind carrying them straight to me. I opened my mouth and they popped inside my mouth and in my face. I was so delighted as they popped! I felt the vision closing down, and I tried to keep my eyes open as long as I could. Just before it did, I saw my own company of angels accompanying me. They were floating about 6 feet above my head....

I am sending My joy bubbles. These shall pop over the heads of those with child-like hearts. They shall delight in My Presence and I shall delight in them. No good thing shall I withhold from them that walk uprightly. In their years of waiting, they have wept many tears, but they shall reap in joy as they see the fruits of their trust in Me.

"Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." (Ps 126:5-6 NKJV)

Blooming Butterfly

Sandy Warner

{Ears 2 Hear} BLOOMING BUTTERFLY From the Rhema Journals of Sandy Warner

BLOOMING BUTTERFLY
Feb 12, 2004
SANDY RHEMA
VISION: I saw a Monarch butterfly that was too big for the picture frame. It had grown outside its boundaries. The wings were not inside the picture.

VISION: I saw something coming down from heaven.

HEARD: Swallowed up in God. Sanctify. Set apart. Holy. This is My eunuch. Focused. Where we are going. I will be with you. I promise, I will never leave you. Always is forever. Forerunner. I AM taking you somewhere. Announcement. Version weary. Update energized. Advancement. A Word in due season. Deeper into the heart of God. My sheep hear My voice. Its true. I AM with you. Advancing our relationship. I promise.

SANDY RHEMA
VISION: I saw a huge giant butterfly wing made out of my vivid nightgown material. When I saw this I exclaimed out loud because it was so close to my face that it startled me. I felt the Lord was getting my attention to how close His timing was.. literally right in front of my face.

HEARD: Everything is coming up in roses.

OPENED SMELL: I literally smelled roses as I laid in bed.

INTERPRETATION: Since 1984, I have heard the Lord almost every night and scribed these precious moments. Over and over again there are so many entries with my nightgown! The one I am remembering right now was humorous to me. I saw all these brides in their bridal gowns. They were getting ready. I too had my bridal gown on, but it was hidden underneath my long silken nightgown. His emphasis all these years is that I am to simply rest in Him. He has given me enough time, energy, and provision, - for all that I need to do for what He has called me to do. I dont need to worry, but just rest and lean upon Him as My Source.

SANDY VISION: TO BLOSSOM AS A ROSE
The following is an excerpt from my book, 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him): "When I went to sleep on November 14, 1985, I had a strong yearning for Jesus. As I slept, He came to me and opened my eyes. I saw a huge, gigantic banner unfolding across the sky. This was so huge that it took the entire sky to unfold the banner and display what was written: It said, "THE LORD JESUS CHRIST." Suddenly I found myself in heaven looking down upon a vast desert. It was dry, brown, flat, and immense.

As I gazed upon the lifeless desert, someone was standing above and behind me declaring the scroll of Isaiah 35: "The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the Lord, the excellency of our God. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them of a fearful heart, be strong, fear not: behold your God will come with vengeance; He will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water..." (Isaiah 35 KJ)

After Isaiah 35 had been announced, I heard the Lord say, "And the desert shall blossom as a rose. It shall happen all at once, and it shall happen suddenly." Immediately I saw the desert come to life. The sight was astounding and oh so beautiful! Everywhere blossoms emerged: this dry, lifeless region became a spacious garden of color and beauty. Then I came out of the gazing vision. As I woke, I was still in awe of what Id seen, because it was so beautiful. I knew the Lord was speaking a promise of what He would be doing to our dry, desert like, lives. He was going to rain His Presence upon us and we would emerge with life and beautiful blossoms." [end of vision]

GRANDMA ANNA POEM
Gone is the winter of a dark enclosed tomb. Gone is the darkness of hopelessness and gloom. Now look out the window and see for yourself, God's special treasure taken off the shelf. He dusts off His roses and His butterflies too. Spring needs their beauty, for it's time to renew. Watch the butterflies dancing across open spaces. See the flower petals unfolding happy faces. Life is just like that for all those who know Him. For off comes the veil, their glory no longer dim. The glory has been there, oh so very long, But was not able to sing the hallelujah song. It was very well hidden in that secret place, But now brought out in the open space. That all may behold the beauty of His treasure That grew in the special dark tomb of His pleasure. See what I did in that cold dark place? I brought forth a rose, full of glory and grace.

Cast Your Bread

Feb 9, 2004

Yes My child, I want you to share even what you think are just tiny little morsels that wouldn't even make a ripple in the water. How little you know about ripples! Every piece of bread you share as you cast it upon the waters of life, makes a huge difference in My Kingdom. Angels are sent, divine connections are made, Words are caught and seed is planted. In every seed is a future harvest of plenty. You are thinking too small. I rejoice over the smallest details in your life, and as you share them with others, they are multiplied over and over again. So cast your bread upon the waters and trust Me to do exactly what I have promised.

"Cast your bread upon the waters, for you will find it after many days." (Ecclesiastes 11:1 NKJV)

Emerging From The Cocoon
Sandy Warner

Feb 10, 2004
ADULT
After about 14 days, the adult Monarch butterfly emerges from its now transparent cocoon. As the butterfly struggles to get free, the restricting cocoon and the tiny opening force blood from the body to inflate the wings. When this is done, the Monarch expels any excess fluid and rests. The butterfly waits until its wings stiffen and dry before it takes its first flight.

SANDY RHEMA
DREAM: I was inside some kind of a shell or cocoon and ready to come out. I saw Bob Jones and he said he could hear me knocking.

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA
HEARD: Little one, I understand your misgivings. Blessed ones waiting for God. Soon off comes the cover. Can hardly wait to see your expression. I've planned this surprise for a long time! One you will love. My bride. New cover. Snug fit. Waiting in barn. Stripes. Healed. Butterfly. Happy flying. Open wide your doors and the King of glory will come in.

VISION: I saw some Monarch Butterflies flying up from the ground.

SANDY RHEMA

HEARD: The veil was lifted.
VISION: I saw myself lifting my hands over my head as though to peel off a sweater.

HEARD: Carried you through. To the other side. Keep your focus on Me. I AM your Source. Nothing else matters except what I AM saying. Lean, My precious child. Just trust.

VISION: I saw a box upon the top shelf with the lid slightly open. A word popped out that read, "RELAX."

HEARD: Just relax. Enjoy the process. Wings. Trying to decide what to do. Let them dry. Naturally. In the wind. I love you today and always. Always is a long, long, time.

HEARD SONG: We will rest, rest, rest in the Lord. In His timing He will tell us what to do, where to go and what to say.

VISION: I saw a butterfly with its wings on a wall. Then I saw myself flapping my new wings like a butterfly. (funny!)

PARABLE: Butterflies rest with their wings closed.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER CLIMBING OUT OF HIDING
You wrestle and struggle within the confinements of your hidden faith. It is in that place that the womb of your cocoon grows transparent and those around you can see the issues that I have been working on in your life. You struggle the most to be set free at this time because I have given you such a strong desire to share what I have given you. Always understand that if I were to pry open your cocoon and thrust you out, you would not have the strength to soar, for your faith would miss an important stage in your transition. Do not fret, in the fullness of time you will find your way out of your cocoon. I will send your opportunities that will draw your heart to begin the process.

As you emerge, greatly changed, you will climb out of your cocoon and faithfully wait upon a limb of faith. Dearest, you need not fuss about a thing. Your wings will need a little time to dry and be set in place. I shall strengthen your faith as I blow My wind upon you. As you see opportunities knocking on your door, do not feel pushed. Know that I AM gently knocking to get your attention. I will use these to set your wings. Relax in this process for I AM God and I know how to take care of My new butterfly.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." (Rom 12:1-NKJV)

Sending My Teachers
Sandy Warner

Feb 13, 2004
Precious one, you think that you need to see heavy visions and be this supernatural being in order to be "sent." I AM sending you exactly as you are! You ARE supernatural, because I live inside of you and together we equal super plus natural. It is time to teach. I AM birthing My teachers to come forth and share the nuggets of My Words. I will give them great creativity in how to share My gems and these shall reach many children.

I shall send you to save lives with your own personal stories of what I have spoken to you. You shall no longer be in a corner, I shall thrust you forth for I have need of you. Enjoy - for it is TIME to break through your constraints!

"And though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers will not be moved into a corner anymore, but your eyes shall see your teachers. Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way, walk in it," Whenever you turn to the right hand or whenever you turn to the left." (Isaiah 30:20 NKJV)

Stretching Out
Sandy Warner

I AM calling you to stretch forth your tent stakes and expand. If you build it, they will come. I will send My rains and they shall flock to your doors. Do not misunderstand what I AM saying to you. I AM not asking you to leave or let go of what I have already planted in your life. I AM merely saying it is time to expand your sphere of influence. This new place shall have a different flavor, a different appearance altogether, but it shall also incorporate what is already in use at this time. Trust Me, that as you prepare for this growth, I will fill the expansion. I AM not concerned about you overstepping your boundaries, I AM concerned about you thinking too small. Enlarge the place of your tent, enlarge your boundaries in Me and go as far as your faith will remain safely stable. I shall take care of the rest.

"Enlarge the place of your tent, And let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings; Do not spare; Lengthen your cords, And strengthen your stakes. For you shall expand to the right and to the left, And your descendants will inherit the nations, And make the desolate cities inhabited. "Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed; Neither be disgraced, for you will not be put to shame; For you will forget the shame of your youth, And will not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore. For your Maker is your husband, The LORD of hosts is His name; And your Redeemer is the Holy one of Israel; He is called the God of the whole earth. (Isaiah 54:2-5 NKJV

Turn Right At The Cross Roads

Feb 15, 2004

I have brought you to a cross roads and because you have humbled yourself to seek My will and voice in the direction you should take, I have made you sensitive to see the road markers that I have sent before you. I have given you a sign; a change in direction. This sign is marked with a right turn. You shall know this sign by two things. The turning of this corner is marked with a choice of death to self wishes where you yield your desires to My purposes. As you surrender your personal choices to My own, this shall be a sign that you are turning the corner into the right path. You shall also recognize this sign through the umpire I have placed within your heart. After you have surrendered to My will and turn right, your heart shall be flooded with My peace.

"Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." (Phil 4:6-7 NKJV)

As A Little Child

Luz Cintron

July 23 2004

This morning while in prayer He spoke into my heart. It was a word for a sister but also for each one of us who trust His name.

He is called El Shaddai.

I remembered Psalm 22....

But you are the one who took me from my mother's womb, you made me trust when I was on my mother's breasts.
Since my birth I've been thrown on you;
you are my God's from my mother's womb.

Psalm 22: 9-10

Becky my dear sister, she told me that some years ago there was a situation with Romanian orphans that were being adopted by American families. These children in their orphanages, were put in cardboard boxes and left there the first few months of their lives. They were not attended as newborns are to be, not cared as newborn babies usually are. They were fed but not nurtured. No nurturing to these children handicapped them. When their adoptive parents brought them to the states they found these children were different. There was a family she knew, who took the baby to a neurologist for tests and they found that the baby's brain was wired differently. The nurturing touch of a mother causes the body to release certain substances that stimulates the brain to create its connections. That process was hindered for a lack of touch and as a result their brain connections showed up differently. I understood then so clearly, when He calls us creatures of trust, that is exactly what we are, He knows since He made us and everything reveals by working in us His purpose.

Psalm 22 says, that He caused him to trust on his mother's breasts. Then the word which He spoke made perfect sense to me. For He said to me, He is the many breasted One, and to the woman He gave breasts, one placed to each side of the heart. He also caused us to be born speechless, no one knows how to talk or walk , even lacking the fundamental coordination to grab things and that bears His purpose. He has fashioned it all, so that He causes us to be trained into trust by being born completely helpless.

When we are born, all we know to do is cry. Our sight is even very short. We can see only so far, and then is perfect, because it is the exact distance between the breast and the face. We are born with "focused" vision so to speak, set to focus on the mother's face. That is Him. That is all we need. When the child is nursing, all he sees is mommy's face and all else is blurry. When we see that face all discomfort and even the pains of hunger disappear.

He told me, that's all that is needed.

What is prayer? Why do we cram prayers with words? There is nothing wrong in talking that is not my point. All that is needed is to cry out, the tenderness of His compassionate heart can't help but coming to us, as the mother who hears her child's cries, comes to Him. Isn't it written, even if my mother and father forsake me.... He will not? His love is perfect.

He said He has placed breast to each side of the heart, because it is from His heart that we are sustained. He could have placed breast on the woman's butt. It doesn't work like that. He does not give us the refuse, the waste, but the best. He could have placed breast on the knees. No it doesn't work like that either. He doesn't plan to keep us low and distant. Instead He has fashioned them to be exactly where He can cradle us in His arms and show to us His face, sheltered by His smile.

When I nursed there was always an automatic response between my child and me. At home when he was feeding he would look at me and I would smile at him. With time, I still remember he would smile back and sometimes a little bit of milk would spill by the corner of his lips. "you made me trust when I was on my mother's breasts." The first communication in our lives is speechless. It has no words. That is the language of trust.

Our fears makes us to complicate things, sometimes like one who burns a strange fire before Him. That is what sin does to us. Separate us, creates the illusion that we must perform, do something to undo what is wrong, convince, even to create strife between Him and us. But we don't need to strive... "Look unto the child and learn" that is what He said this morning. He created us to become vessels of trust. Even in our bodies it is written in the way He has caused us to be formed and born. Our very lives reveal His wisdom.

He looks for an empty space in which He can Emmanuel. If we go silent, if we stop doing our gifted things, if we just look up to him and cry, the tender embrace and the warmth of His breast will reveal the beating of His heart never far away from us. He will clean us and feed us and teach us and lead us. All we need is cry until we come to trust. Our very need is His motive. He needs no persuasion, for love in Him has been persuaded to love. That is Who He is. But sometimes we pray, not from a place of trust but of fear and multitudes of words cover our fears. Like a child who wants to close the eyes and make the world go away, we pray like that and in closing our eyes we miss His face.

All our problems, and I mean ALL problems there are under the sun, through the ages and around the world... all of them have One solution. I know, He told me this morning and I tested it. I thought of every person I carry in my heart and the answer was the same. Healing? (Physical, emotional and spiritual) Restoration? Provision? Salvation? Name it. Think about it and name it. All of them have one solution: Emmanuel.

In His presence there is no need at all.

Sometimes His hand deals heavy to cause us to yield rightly. Sometimes as the first disciples we too are brought to the shame of our true condition and we face our own weakness being allowed to fail so that pride is exposed in us. We tend to esteem ourselves higher than we should and then, imagination try to take the place of faith. It is not in vain, that it is written, that He resists the proud. That is why we are allowed to be humbled like Peter who denied the Lord. Then we see who we truly are and the sting of pride being exposed is neutralized in us. Then we like Peter can become an empty space in which He can Emmanuel. No wonder his shadow would heal!

Don't look for power in the high and exalted places for He dwell in the broken and contrite heart. That He can not refuse. Cry unto Him and trust Him until you see His face, for under that face all need is met. Under that face we are clean, fed, sustained, nurtured and trained with a smile. Never of something we may have done, for in truth we can do nothing. It is because of who he cause us to become, that is His doing, not ours and that reveals the glory of the wisdom of His love. All we need to know is how to cry. Funny that is the very first sign of life when we are born after taking our first breath.

I never quite fully understood what was written on Hebrews 5:8

Even though he was the Son, he learned obedience through his sufferings.

I always wondered what kind of obedience a person who is not rebellious has to learn. The next verses on Hebrews 5:9-11 continues...

"and after he had been brought to the goal, he became the source of eternal deliverance to all who obey him, since he had been proclaimed by God as a cohen gadol to be compared with Malki-Tzedek."

Today this has been opened to my understanding. Because our Savior, He is our way and if he learned obedience was not to conquer any disobedience in Him but to show us the way in which we, as creatures of trust may overcome by yielding to obedience that trusts. He learned from His birth as it is written in Psalm 22, from His mother's breasts and through all sufferings until the end. He did not come unto us as the All Knowing one, but He made Himself as one of us and allowed the wisdom of God to train Him and guide Him as one of us, to show us by learning Himself how to yield to the wisdom from above and in that wisdom to receive the secrets things reserved for us.

By looking to our Savior I can see the heart of God, to raise us from death unto life and to crown us with the glory of His presence, Emmanuel. For He speaks from under the cherub's wings, where the mercy seat is found, as we are called to look to the resting place in which we are called to sit (Yeshua), and if we sit, all labor has stopped so He can speak, even as the blood has been brought to be applied to us.

For Christ came to meet His disciples caught in the middle of the storm, far away from the shore. And when they saw Him they thought Him to be a ghost. But He was walking upon the waters in the middle of a storm. (Mat 14:24-27) which reminds me of many storm scriptures regarding the Lord but of one more than others in Nahum 1:3

The LORD [is] slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit [the wicked]: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds [are] the dust of his feet.

It is not without a teaching that the Prince of Peace came walking to His disciples in the midst of lake within a storm. Then He says to them; "Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. " He who calls us to learn obedience through suffering has already suffered Himself. If we can focus on His face until all else fades we shall walk on the waters with Him. The shadow of His smiling face that rejoices in all gladness over us, from all things suffered and endured for our sake, is our shelter and a canopy of glory that shall cover Israel when He restores the tabernacle of David, Emmanuel.

For we are presently being emptied to create a space for Him among men. We are brought to decrease in our esteem so that He can be revealed and become esteemed by men, He, the desired of all nations, mankind only hope. If we trust, all we need to do is cry, "Lord Yeshua, have mercy on us for we are sinners!", even without words He will understand and supply all.

Sweet fellowship of hope is my Savior to me loving embrace of thorns that pierced through all my dreams in Him I find my rest in the midst of the storm tender sight of His love that soothes my soul from fears.

All is well, all is rest, under His sight so dear truth unveiled in the flesh surrendered in peace
I have no more to want than to lay in His arms
it is well oh dear soul, when His love casts out fear.

I know not how to love, but His love loves in me and cleaves throughout my soul to keep me always near and from me loves Him back leaving behind it hope
I am His , He is mine, come now joy or come tears.

Your servant in His love;
Luz C. Cintrón

Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him:
for the marriage of the Lamb is come,
and his wife hath made herself ready.

An Army Of Eagles

22nd March 2004
Many are weak and weary from the fiery tribulations. Many do not feel that they have any "oomph" left, but now I say to you Beloved, I have not left you nor deserted you. I will come and alight upon you as an eagle and I will impart strength to you.

Rev 3:8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

Ask Me for My discernment, My mighty anointing to go forth in the coming battle, the time of rest is coming to an end. I have prepared you and you have done well, My beloved called out ones.

When you go forth My beloved ones, I will clothe you with the armor of MY righteousness and the greatest defense will be My love that flows through you. I have refined you and made you white. Many are already starting to see My glory radiating from you. Those who have allowed the fiery tribulations to refine them will walk as My invincible ones; no more cracks in their armor through which the enemy's fiery darts can penetrate.

Isa 13:2 Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. Isa 13:3 I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness. Isa 13:4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle. Isa 13:5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

Can you see it in your spirit? My mighty glorious army starting to link together as one of spirit. They are becoming one even as the Father and I are one. Oh yes Beloved, there is great strength and power in unity of the Spirit, an impenetrable wall that raises a standard against the evil advancing over the face of the earth.

Isaiah 59:19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

I am coming to reclaim the earth and all that is therein and I will do it through My prepared ones. Wait in the upper room for I will soon alight upon you as an eagle to impart strength to you, vision and a mighty anointing!

Isaiah 40:31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. (this scripture is for NOW Beloveds)

Did you ever envision My army as eagles? Yea soon you will be soaring as eagles. Yea AN ARMY OF EAGLES, with eagle eyes of discernment, the wings of My Spirit to soar above your circumstances, and the talons of an eagle to breakdown the strongholds of the enemy.

What a beautiful sight it is to Me, My Beloved, what a beautiful sight it is to Me. I have long waited for this hour, My beautiful ARMY OF EAGLES READIED TO TAKE FLIGHT!

Rev 4:7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.
Rev 4:8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within:

and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, LORD God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

THE BELOVED.
AMEN

Released From The Wilderness To Proclaim "Prepare The Way Of The Lord"

Mal 3:1 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. Mal 3:2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: Mal 3:3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. Mal 3:4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

I have nearly completed the refining, the purging of My prepared ones. Now I am coming to those of My children who have ignored the voice of My prophets and the promptings of My Spirit to lay down their lives for Me. They have carried on as usual; church as usual, business as usual, not discerning the times and the season. Whoa to My stubborn ones, My hard of hearing children for the time is short and I must use drastic measures to catch their attention. I do not want to loose even one of My precious sheep but many of My sheep are not hearing My voice. Without hearing My voice they can be led astray by the many deceptions purposed by the deceiver.

I am sending out My called out ones, those who have already been prepared by My hand in the fires of affliction. They have heard the call of My Spirit early and have been through much preparation by My hand. These are the ones I am now releasing out to the marketplace, out to the Churches, out to the fields of harvest, to do My bidding and My bidding only. Won't you hear them now Beloved, won't you hear them now? Before the day of great darkness descends upon the earth, won't you hear the voice of My beloved prepared ones?

There is a voice as one crying out in the wilderness "Prepare the way of the Lord". These are My wilderness people, those you would consider "odd balls". They don't fit into your churches and neither do they fit into the world. They are those you consider odd, consider intense and at odds with what you consider normal and acceptable. My people, so was John the Baptist considered in his day!

I have those that are weeping at My feet for they discern the times and the season. They are weeping for their release, to go forth and proclaim My Word in truth. They will go forth with a two edged sword in their mouths. Will you persecute them as My prophets of old were persecuted, or will you hear them?

Today when you hear My words, do not harden your hearts! There is a voice crying in the wilderness repent for the Kingdom of God is at hand.

The Lord Of Hosts Is With You In Battle

Psalms 24:10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

Now My warriors strong and mighty in battle, hear The Beloved. Through all your trials and tribulations you have learned the tactics of the enemy of your souls. You are now ready to set the captives free, to open the doors of the prison houses, to proclaim to the nations that the I AM, who was and is, and is to come, I AM Lord of the Nations.

Man the *ramparts, stand watch you watchman, for as I release you, the enemy will do all in his power to bring discouragement and fear; fear of lack of finances, fear about your capabilities, fear of the future. Fear of the coming events.

Know you not that I AM your high tower! Know you not that I AM your refuge! I AM your provider! Even I the LORD OF HOSTS WILL GO BEFORE YOU INTO BATTLE! My legions of angels stand at the ready, swords gleaming, READY to assist you in the battle.

I will send you to the dark places, yea to the very strongholds of the enemy and you will pull them down AND UTTERLY CRUSH THEM. ENOUGH of the decay! ENOUGH of the deceit! ENOUGH of the rebellion! ENOUGH of pride and self exaltation!

I will send you to the churches, Yea even to My own disobedient children. Yea I will send you to the most bound, for you are My army strong and mighty in battle. Do not fear for I AM with you. This is what you have been prepared for and this has been My plan all along, TO TAKE BACK FROM SATAN THAT WHICH IS RIGHTFULLY MINE!
Isaiah 45:12 I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.
Psa 24:1 The earth is the LORD's, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.
Did I not say right in the beginning that the seed of woman will CRUSH HIS HEAD! Through your belief and submission to My Son you have become the Holy seed which will crush his head.

I Rom 16:20 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Luke 10:19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

AMEN AND AMEN. SO BE IT!

BREAD FOR THE BRIDE: The Twofold Company of Apostles and Prophets

It troubles my heart to send out the following prophetic message to the Body. Bringing this message into an expressible form has cost me much anguished wrestling with the Spirit over recent days and weeks. It is not sent out in the style of a "says the Lord' prophetic word, because that is not how I received it. Nevertheless I believe it is a prophetic message from the Spirit to the church, and particularly the church that utilises the internet. As I sought to hear the Spirit clearly while receiving the fullness of this message, He has led me in intercession for the Lord's holy apostles and prophets who must be yoked together by the Spirit with a strong three-fold cord. Therefore I do not offer this sober message to the Body without having tasted the weightiness it carries.

It is time to bring this message forth trusting the Spirit to deliver it in the spirit of exhortation and love in which it has been conceived. I am aware this will not be a popular message in some circles, but the Lord's word does not return to Him void, and therefore I believe there will be a remnant who will hear. Let those who find correction within it find correction. Let those who find encouragement find encouragement. Let those who find witness shout it out. Above all may you find the Spirit of Truth, and discard anything which is found to be of the spirit of man.

The Twofold Company Of Apostles And Prophets
And Some Considerations For The Prophetic Community

Part One

An Unhealthy Appetite

There is a growing sense of grief both in the Lord's heart and in the hearts of those who live, move and find their being in His heartbeat, concerning the misdirection of prophetic ministry among His people at this time. This trend can especially be seen within the internet church, which provides a mirror and measuring rod for the church among many nations. What I am about to share should not be taken as a blanket statement about the current state of prophetic ministry in the church. There are many genuine prophetic voices at various stages of maturity who together speak the counsel of the Lord to His church for this day. Nor should it be considered as an attempt to stifle the church's pursuit of spiritual gifts or release of prophetic ministry. None of us should want to return to the days when the prophetic office was despised and prophetic experience was scoffed at by so many in the church. What I am suggesting, however, is that the current imbalance and obsession with all things bearing the label "prophetic" needs to be addressed and redressed.

Anyone who is involved to any significant extent in prophetic ministry on the internet must surely be disturbed by the over-proliferation of questionable "prophetic words" among the Christian internet community. "What's wrong with that?" you may ask. "Didn't Joel prophesy that the Spirit would be outpoured in the last days? Shouldn't we therefore expect an increase in prophetic manifestations?" Yes indeed, but I am not talking here about what the Spirit is doing and will continue to do. I am questioning the source of much of what is fed to the church as "prophetic". Others will say "but the tares must grow with the wheat". Yes, but there is danger when tares are called wheat and we can no longer tell the difference.

With all due respect to the prophetic community, let me draw attention to the following: There are believers who publish "the word of the Lord" written in the first person tense almost every day. I don't question that the Lord speaks daily, but I question that He gives messages for His corporate church to one specific believer on a daily basis. Then there are believers who can't function without their daily internet "prophetic word fix", yet who haven't picked up a Bible in months. There are others who can't rest unless their latest dream has been interpreted by several people on a "dream list", but who have no idea how to seek and hear from the Holy Spirit for themselves. Literally hundreds of prophetic "words" are fed to the Body en masse each week through email lists, with little or no responsibility taken for discernment. And there are ministries now telling us we need to be living in the "extreme prophetic", and someone has to ask why? What is so mundane about life in the Spirit, Who Himself is the Spirit of Revelation, that we are now being called to a more "extreme" level? Some ministry leaders are teaching young disciples that unless they are being regularly visited by angels and having third heaven experiences, they are prophetically incomplete and immature. I challenge the authenticity of a gospel that emphasises manifestations and experiences while faith, character and sacrificial lifestyle take a lesser place.

It seems like there is no limit to the internet church's appetite for the prophetic in greater and greater quantities. Unfortunately, it is often quantity at the expense of quality. In such an atmosphere of frenzied feeding, each prophetic offering is devoured so greedily many don't know if they are eating healthy food or maggots disguised as bread, and many more just want a diet of candy. Far from giving the Holy Spirit the honoured place He is entitled to, this trend rather dishonours the true spirit of prophecy, as genuine words and revelations from the Lord are thrown into a common melting pot along with a putrid mix of false and counterfeit prophetic words and experiences. The Holy Spirit is precious and unique; He is not generic.

Let me repeat that I am not attempting to downplay the absolute necessity for the church to be seeking to be a prophetic church. Nor am I undervaluing the gift of prophecy or calling into question proven prophetic voices. So what am I saying? I'm saying that not everything being labeled "prophetic" is necessarily prophetic. Not everything labeled "thus sayeth the Lord" is the word of the Lord. Not everything labeled "exhortation and edification" is the right food for our spirits. And not everything posted on the internet labeled "prophecy" is actually from the Spirit of Truth. I am raising my voice to call for greater discernment amongst the body and greater responsibility among the true prophets of the Lord.

A Word About Words

Today's internet is literally alive with so-called "words of edification" that are in fact nothing more than sympathetic thoughts born in the souls (flesh) of men and women, stroking the flesh into a state of comfort and false security. They do not arise from the Spirit of Truth and have no revelation life in them. Many of these are written in the first person tense which infer the Lord Himself is speaking directly to the hearer. However, the Spirit of the Lord does not seek to comfort the flesh, but to crucify it.

At a recent workshop run by this ministry on Discerning the Word of God, several participants objected when I suggested that a particular (anonymous) internet word was not from the Holy Spirit, because it sought only to comfort the flesh and did not reveal Christ in us. Why did they react this way? Because many in the church have been trained to expect prophetic words to always make them feel good. And while the scriptures do teach that the gift of prophecy is for edification, exhortation and comfort (1 Cor. 14:3) respectively, those words mean 1) to build up; 2) to summons or call near; 3) to persuade, arouse and stimulate. I fully believe the Holy Spirit can and does use the internet to speak to and teach God's people, and for many of us it is a rich source of blessing and edification. But the church must take responsibility for discerning between that which is Spirit and that which is merely dead flesh.

In contrast, there are many words being published on the internet that are authentic words from the Lord, but they were never meant for the internet. When the Lord speaks to us prophetically, our first consideration should always be whether the word, vision, dream etc., is to be applied to ourselves. There are too many assuming that everything they hear or see prophetically must be published, when the Lord is speaking privately and individually to them. There are too many posting and speaking out words from presumption rather than unction. There are too many with a word for the Bride who do not even love her. And there are too many assuming to speak direction to the Lord's Body who have never been to the Cross.

Many using the internet to publish "words" seem to think a multitude of words will somehow prove their prophetic calling, when in fact the opposite is true. However, this is a direct result when prophetic experience is emphasised and elevated over and above intimate relationship with Christ. (Please understand that I do believe there are several genuine prophetic ministries who deliver authentic words to the church via the internet, but fewer that many assume.)

As one who has ministered to and with prophetic people over several years, let me say I believe mature prophets speak and share their revelations ONLY when directed to by the Holy Spirit. Much of what prophets are shown is for the purpose of intercession, or strategic spiritual warfare, and never passes their lips in public. True prophets do not speak for the Lord in the first person tense casually. Furthermore, in my experience there are many mature prophets who give a word from the Lord only rarely. But when they do, I listen, because I know they don't speak for the sake of gaining a reputation and a following. Like Samuel, the word of the Lord is "with them".

"I Will Come to Visions and Revelations......'

This boasting is all so foolish, but let me go on. Let me tell about the visions and revelations I received from the Lord. I was caught up into the third heaven fourteen years ago. Whether my body was there or just my spirit, I don't know; only God knows. But I do know that I was caught up into paradise and heard things so astounding that they cannot be told. That experience is something worth boasting about, but I am not going to do it. I am going to boast only about my weaknesses. I have plenty to boast about and would be no fool in doing it, because I would be telling the truth. But I won't do it. I don't want anyone to think more highly of me than what they can actually see in my life and my message, even though I have received wonderful revelations from God. (2 Cor. 12:1-10 N.L.T.)

The apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthians that he had been granted third heaven prophetic revelations and experiences where he had witnessed such amazing things he was unable to repeat them. Paul was writing to the Corinthian church at a time when they had been visited by what he calls "super-apostles" who disputed his apostolic authority to instruct them. The Corinthians therefore wanted Paul to prove his apostleship through relating his prophetic, supernatural experiences. Paul, however, refused to use these experiences to validate his apostleship, testifying to them instead about His experience of Christ's grace.(If I must boast, I will boast in the things which concern my infirmity, 2 Cor 11:30) The reality of His communion with Christ was so central to His gospel that even fourteen years after His third-heaven visit he would not allow those experiences to distract from the message of the Cross. "But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me and I to the world". (Gal. 6:14)

I'd like to share at this point that I am no stranger to profound prophetic experiences, and I'm not ashamed to say that personally I love being led by the Spirit into that place of prophetic revelation, whether it be through third heaven experiences, visions, or other manifestations.. I make a habit of sharing these experiences with those to whom I am accountable, but rarely publicly, and then only when specifically directed by the Holy Spirit. I have learned to be careful in the way I share such things even with those who know me personally. The reason for this is because that's exactly what they are - EXPERIENCES! My friends, prophetic experiences are entirely wonderful, and exceptionally exhilarating, and should be expected as a normal part of the Spirit-led life. They can be life-changing, they can provide vision and direction, and they can help lay the foundations for life-long ministry. However, they can never replace communion with Jesus and our Father, and they are not intended to do so. Even the highest forms of prophetic revelation are a by-product of our intimacy with Christ. It is His fellowship and presence we seek, not revelatory experiences for themselves. The prophetic experiences and revelations granted to Paul were so profound they were forbidden to be spoken, but his testimony still remained "For me to live is Christ" (Phil. 1:21). Satisfaction can only be found in a life of deep communion with Jesus and the Father.

Now you may feel I'm stating the obvious, but take a look around you. Many believers are pursuing revelation knowledge as a substitute for the revelation of Christ. Multitudes are believing revelatory experiences are a sign of their acceptability with the Father and a measure of their spiritual maturity. If you are one who's been led to believe moving in signs and wonders is proof of God's approval of your lifestyle and your ministry, you're believing a lie. There's only one sign that will ever be the measure of the Father's approval - yours, mine or anyone's - and it's the sign of the Blood of the Lamb on our souls. The only extreme experience we should be pursuing is extreme passion for Christ. We don't need to be extreme about anything else but the depth of the knowledge of Him (Eph. 1:17) By all means the church should be demonstrating the power of the Spirit - this is our inheritance - but only as a witness to the all-sufficiency of the Cross and the victory of the Resurrection. A gospel of power devoid of the Cross is just as dangerous as a gospel of works devoid of the Cross, and they are both rooted in false religion.

What we call "the prophetic" is now largely replacing the centrality of Christ and His Cross. How many believers in the western church would attend a conference promoting the "extreme CRUCIFIED LIFE"? Or what would be the popularity of a minister laying hands on believers to release a deeper EXPERIENCE of the Cross? How long would the line be? (By the way, if there's anyone genuinely doing this, let me know, because I want their hands laid on me!)

The prophetic imbalances I have been highlighting are only the fruit of a far deeper imbalance currently evident in the Lord's Body and serve to expose a deeper need to which the Holy Spirit would draw our attention. As I have held these things before the Lord it became clear that so many in the church are seeking identity in prophetic words, signs and manifestations rather than in the face of Christ. But then the Spirit said to me "you must look deeper to see where I want to lead the church." We must therefore move on to two important questions: Where is the exercise of discernment? And where is the fear of the Lord?

PART TWO

You may or may not share my concerns about the current direction of the prophetic in the Body of Christ. Nevertheless, I hope you will stay with me as we look at a deeper truth that needs to be realised by the church. If we will heed the Spirit He will always reveal the mind and heart of Christ for us and therefore we will grow more quickly into the fullness of His stature.

And My People Love It So.....

An astonishing and horrible thing Has been committed in the land: The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own power; And My people love to have it so. But what will you do in the end? (Jeremiah 5:30--31)

The prophet Jeremiah wrote these words during a time of great turmoil in Israel's history Notice he did not refer to false prophets, but to prophets who prophesied falsely. These were apparently genuine prophets who had compromised their calling for the sake of expediency. He goes on to mention priests who rule "by their own power". Rulership is not the same as God-ordained leadership. The word "rule" in the Hebrew means to "tread down, to subjugate, or prevail against". Jeremiah is referring here to a suppressive exercise of lordship of the kind Jesus warned against in Mark 10:42 and 43. In other words, these religious leaders do not seek to lead by the Spirit's anointing, but rather rule over and seek to control God's people by means of their own strength, knowledge and reason. One has to wonder how these prophets and priests, both in positions of leadership among God's people, had come into an agreement to misuse their offices in this way.

Sadly, one of the things I believe the Lord spoke to me in preparing this article was "My prophets are ruling My church...." I believe He is grieved at this time with the elevation of prophetic ministers to a place of rulership among His people. In much of the church, prophetic ministry, which for centuries was despised, persecuted and crushed by organised religion, has now been raised to such a place of authority that many of God's people give more credence to the prophets than they do to the Anointing within (1 John 2:27). Prophets are called to equip the Lord's people to know and hear the Holy Spirit, not to stand in for Him.

Furthermore, while many genuine prophets spurn this place of elevation, many others have compromised their callings to gain it. The Lord also spoke of unholy alliances between prophets and false apostles, indicating that in order to escape rejection and gain acceptance and credibility, there are prophets who have put their seal of approval on false leadership. To do so they have had to water down their primary message of uncompromised holiness and speak soothing words to the people. In return for his/her compromise, the prophet is endorsed by the false leader and each retains a place of good reputation and comfort. But the Lord goes on to say that all this is only made possible because "My people love it so." And so in this day, even as in Jeremiah's day, unholy alliances are being formed to deceive and control God's people. These are of a threefold nature between compromising prophets, false leadership and the people who want it that way. This kind of alliance should most certainly be described as astonishing and horrible because it is counterfeit and maintained by the spirit of false religion. Some of these prophets have been deceived, and these the Lord would call back to the holiness of their calling through repentance and re-consecration. The Lord's word must never be negotiable, and the Lord's prophets must never be compromised.

Now understand here that I am not speaking of ALL prophets, or ALL leaders. Neither am I legitimising those unhealed lone prophets who, having been mistreated and misunderstood by misguided leadership in the past, now refuse to walk in any form of accountability at all. No, I am referring to a false, apostolic/prophetic religious system emerging in a last days church that "loves it so."

Two Hidden Within Five

There has been much spoken in recent years about the restoration of the fivefold governing ministries of Ephesians 4:11. I am one who believes that the raising up of these five grace gifts of Jesus to His church, is a necessary and major work of the Spirit at this time. These servant-leadership ministries must be allowed to function to their fullness in order to bring the Bride-church to perfection. However, within the fivefold there is a twofold. Before the five can function appropriately two of the five have first to come into unity in the Spirit.

And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven, blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and the two fish He divided among them all. So they all ate and were filled. And they took up twelve baskets full of fragments and of the fish. Now those who had eaten the loaves were about five thousand men. Mark 6:41-42.

In the story of the feeding of the five thousand we see a prophetic picture of the fivefold governmental ministries given by Christ as a gift of grace to His Bride (Eph. 4:7-8). There are five loaves, which must first be broken to be fit for the Bride to eat, just as the Bread of Life, Jesus, was also broken in His own body. It is in the breaking that the multiplication takes place. The five loaves speak to us of the Bread that comes down from Heaven and represent the five-fold functions of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers. Twelve is the prophetic number representing corporate government. The twelve baskets filled with surplus bread and fish speak to us of the full sufficiency of this Christ-appointed fivefold government to bring the Bride to maturity. What then, of the two fish? I believe the two fish represent the twofold that is hidden within the fivefold - that is the joint foundation-laying ministry of apostles and prophets. Just as bread brings a fullness and nourishment to the physical body, fish also provide an added source of essential nutrients that are unique to that species. Man does not live on bread alone but by every word that proceeds forth from the mouth of God (Deu. 8:3). Prophets bring to the Bride the rhema word tempered by the logos. Apostles deliver to the Bride the logos, impregnated with the rhema. Both together provide the Bride with specific revelation and direction for the hour.

Built Upon the Foundation of the Apostles and Prophets

Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit. (Ephesians 2:19-22)

The Lord's heart is towards His holy apostles and prophets. He thinks on them and watches over them jealously. He does not love them, favour them, or bless them more than any of His other servants, but He invests much in them and guards them with a most ardent zeal. The apostles and prophets are not the foundation of the church, for no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Christ (1 Cor. 3:11). However, together they have been appointed to lay that solid foundation.

The Lord's heart is to draw together His chosen apostles and prophets with a strong binding. Until this takes place there will be no securely built foundation from which the three other governing ministries of evangelists, pastors and teachers can launch forth. The church cannot come to the fullness of Christ without the operation of all five, but I believe before the five can function together as the Spirit wills, these two foundation-layers must be bonded together by the Spirit of God.

The Holy Spirit is saying to us that indeed there is a threefold alliance that will be established in these days and it is a most holy alliance. It is the alliance of prophets, apostles and the Spirit and it shall not be by the might or the power of men that this alliance will be forged, but by the Spirit of the Living God. We have not yet seen this happening on a major scale in the church. What we do often see are attempts to patch up the old wineskin by re-naming and repositioning, but this is the work of the flesh and not of the Spirit of the Lord and therefore will not stand.

The Lord does indeed desire to raise up and release His fivefold prophets in this hour, but it has always been His intention that they should govern alongside the complementary ministry of apostles. It has not been an easy time of transition for the prophets while they have awaited the release of the apostles, nevertheless neither prophets or apostles will minister within the Body of Christ to their full potential until they are aligned together by the Spirit.

Can two walk together, except they be agreed? Amos 3:3

The Lord Jesus referred to the twofold ministry of apostles and prophets in His crushing rebuke to the hypocritical religious leaders of His day (Luke 11:49). He said that some of the apostles and prophets would be persecuted and killed. The book of Revelation records, however, that their blood will be avenged by God Himself (Rev. 18:20). Paul also mentioned this partnership of apostles and prophets as having been granted insight into the mystery of Christ (Eph. 3:5).

A study of the close working relationship between Barnabas and Paul will further reveal the Spirit's evident intention to establish ministering partnerships between apostles and prophets. We know that Paul was an apostle and teacher (2 Timothy 1:11), and Barnabas is listed first as a prophet and later as an apostle (Acts 13:1; 14:14). It was Barnabas who brought Paul, (then called Saul), to the twelve when the other Jerusalem disciples were afraid even to associate with him (Acts 9:26-27). Later, Barnabas again sought out Saul in Tarsus and brought him to the church at Antioch (Acts 11:25). It is clear that this unique partnership was recognised and endorsed by the leaders in Jerusalem because the council of apostles and elders referred to the two men as a functioning unit, calling them "our beloved Barnabas and Paul" (Acts 15:25). In Acts 13:2 we read that as the church ministered to the Lord the Holy Spirit said "now separate to me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." Together the two were sent on three official assignments by the Antioch church and together they demonstrated the Spirit's power and suffered for Jesus. Sadly, a strong disagreement between Paul and Barnabas brought about the end of a partnership that had been ordained by the Holy Spirit, a clear case of man separating what God had joined (Acts 15:39).

A Testing of the Prophets

To whom much is given, much is required. The Bible indicates that prophets have been chosen by the Lord to exemplify suffering, affliction and patience (see James 5:10). Likewise, apostles are set forth as spectacles before angels and men and even appointed to death (see 1 Cor. 4:9-13). We could easily apply all of these statements to the life of Jesus Himself, who patiently endured suffering and affliction , was appointed to death and set forth as a spectacle before angels and men. Prophets and apostles are called to testify with their lives the fellowship of the Lord's suffering.

The Lord is calling for the restoration of a twofold foundation laying generation of His holy prophets and apostles to once again lay down their lives together daily for the sake of His church. This must happen if fivefold government is to be restored and His Bride-church is to emerge on the earth in the full reflection of His glory. One of the ways in which the church can make herself ready is by recognising, and receiving the twofold ministry of prophets and apostles.

Over the past two millennia fivefold prophets and apostles have largely been rejected by a religious system that denied both their necessity and their existence. The church has suffered much self-inflicted lethargy and ineffectiveness during this time. In recent years the Spirit has been patiently restoring the prophetic office to the church and this will surely continue. As five-fold apostles now begin to emerge from years of hidden cave-dwelling there is a testing coming for the prophets who have walked just a few steps before them.

The test for the prophets is whether or not they will now embrace their fellow apostles, making room for them in the spirit of Barnabas, who was the "son of encouragement." There is a tendency for prophets to want to gather in companies, and this is both right and understandable considering the persecution and misunderstandings prophets endure as part of their territory. However, those companies must now make way for the partnership of apostles, otherwise the Bride will suffer needlessly. Obviously, I am not here referring to the self-proclaimed apostles we witness in some parts of today's church whose purpose is to make a name for themselves and to gain position and reputation. These are merely card-carrying imposters who will not stand up under the tribulation and affliction experienced by all of the Lord's genuine holy apostles and prophets. They were present in the early church, and so they are present with us now. The church, however, is in great need of the true twofold complementary ministry of prophets and apostles together.

These are truly dangerous days for the church, when holy is mixed with profane and many who have neither been called or chosen seek to lord it over the people of God using doctrines of demons and lying signs and wonders to control and deceive. It is crucial therefore that true prophets and true apostles merge together through the eternal Spirit of Holiness to undergird and strengthen the Lord's maturing Bride. In this hour there are multitudes of emerging apostles who the church does not yet recognise as having been sent from the Lord. Just as Paul did, they come in unfamiliar style and from unexpected backgrounds. These emerging apostles are going to need the fellowship and the encouragement of the prophets. It will be prophets who recognise these apostles first. It should be prophets who welcome and support their restoration and appearance in the Body.

Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend. Prov. 27:17

Apostles and prophets have been ordained by the Spirit to complement and complete each other's callings. Prophetic zeal needs apostolic wisdom. Apostolic grace needs prophetic fire. Prophetic passion needs apostolic authority. Prophets equip the Body to discern holy from unholy. Apostles engender holy fear of the Lord which is the beginning of wisdom. I believe we are seeing so much confusion and mixture in the church today because the prophetic life of the church is operating at this stage of transition mostly without apostolic accountability. The twofold ministry of apostles and prophets is being called forth by the Spirit to provide the elect Bride with the wisdom and holiness necessary for her survival in the season coming upon her.

Prophets of God, there is coming to the Bride of Jesus a time of both deep distress and unparalleled power. She will need the full counsel of holy prophets and apostles who walk together in the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (Eph. 4:1-3). What will you do in the end? Will you open your ears to the heartcry of your brother and sister apostles as they come forth from the womb of the Spirit? Will you come to them as Barnabas in encouragement, support and partnership as they seek to find their place in the Body? Will you in humility and reverence before God allow yourselves to be joined to them, nothing lacking, for the service of the Lord and His Bride?

May the work of the Spirit be unhindered, who says :"Now separate to Me the apostles and prophets for the work to which I have called them."

Two are better than one, Because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, one will lift up his companion. But woe to him who is alone when he falls, For he has no one to help him up. Again, if two lie down together, they will keep warm; But how can one be warm alone? Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him. And a threefold cord is not quickly broken. Ecclesiastes 4:9-12

11th August 2004
ARISE, SHINE, MY GLORY IS UPON YOU. Long have you waited for such a time as this. You have stood firm, believing through the refining fires. You have not turned away from Me but stood firm with a face set like flint, seeking Me through it all.

ARISE, SHINE FOR MY GLORY IS UPON YOU. You are now released for mighty works, signs and wonders will follow you. I will confirm the words you speak for your words are as My words.*

Oh My Beautiful Beloveds, this is the time I have longed for; My revealing My glory over the earth. Persecution will come will come with My glory, but do not fear, take heart, for nothing will touch you, or My glory, without My allowing it. You will walk in the supernatural, no longer bound by the natural laws of the earth.

As I tell you to go, you will be translated. Stones will be turned to bread for your provision. YOU ARE MY MIGHTY, GLORIOUS ARMY, being sent forth even now. The land desolate before and as you step forth at My command, the earth will be left green and restored behind you.

Nations and kings will tremble at your appearing and fall to their knees saying "truly God is within you, show us the way". They will lay provision at your feet and offer you their worldly abundance. They that have plundered you will be plundered; their goods taken from them for My purposes to be distributed to the poor and afflicted.

A GREAT TURN AROUND is upon you. A GREAT REVERSAL of how things have always been. Mine own will walk in prosperity, for their hearts truly belong to Me and are their own no longer. These are My refined stewards, those I can trust with My heart and with riches in abundance. Nothing, except for their needs will be kept for themselves; the remainder will be distributed to the orphans, the widows and the poor and downtrodden.

THESE ARE THE DAYS OF DIVINE REVERSAL AS MY GLORY COMES UPON YOU. AT MY PROMPTING, STEP INTO IN, YOU WILL NEVER BE THE SAME AGAIN.
THUS SAITH THE LORD.

* The Lord's words and our words are the same for the heart is ONE – a heart totally after God's heart.

A Bride For The King

Roy Resh

"…He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches." Rev 2:7, 11, 17, 29; 3:6,13,22; NKJV

If you think that you are not subject to obey the whole LAW of Moses, read on!

Grace Age Our Age is called "Grace." It began nearly 2000 years ago when the Prince of Grace sacrificed His innocent Life for us. The entire Age of Grace has had one glorious, overarching purpose Gather and prepare a holy Bride for this Prince, who is the King of Heaven and Earth, Jesus Christ!! Every truly productive human work is a divinely-ordained mission to fulfill this single purpose, yes, to gather and make ready the human Bride of the King of Kings! All of us are called to set aside worldly pursuits and build in this Kingdom of Grace and eternal Life.

Paradise Reopened When innocent Jesus Christ died on the cross, He committed His Spirit back to the Father. Jesus had finished His charge to fulfill all of the requirements of the (Mosaic) LAW. God's holy angels rent the dividing veil in Jerusalem's Holy Temple from top to bottom, reopening Paradise and its glorious Tree of Life (eternal). Whoever worthily and with knowledge eats its fruit, which is the Body and Blood of Christ, enters the Kingdom of Heaven. Repenting of all of our sin and renouncing satan's works gets us out of his evil kingdom of darkness (spirit death). Then eating of the Tree of Life seals our Betrothal with the King of Grace, who is now the King of Heaven and Earth. Before their fall from Grace, Adam and Eve never ate of the Tree of Life, so the Believer may experience a more 'abundant' life than anyone knew before the cross.

A Bride Being Chosen Jesus betroths (pledges to marry) each mature, humble Believer who answers His call to marriage with the heartfelt desire to be His Bride. He immediately begins to develop a strong, One-to-one intimate relationship with each individual Bride member. The primary way that this relationship is strengthened is for the Bride to hear His voice within her human own spirit and then follow His guidance. The blood of the cross of Christ provides continuous, equal access to the Throne of Grace for all who come to God through Him with pure, loving hearts. OBEDIENCE to Jesus by His Bride reveals His glory. Our meek submission becomes a blaze of light that reveals the knowledge of our loving God to the whole Earth, as the waters cover the sea!

The Law Remains The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil remains in Paradise to tempt Jesus' Bride to decide right and wrong without Him. Many eat unknowingly of this fruit. All unbelievers remain under the Mosaic "LAW." Believers too must obey it until they learn to walk in "Grace", to walk constantly in the guidance and power of the Holy Spirit, bringing glory to Christ alone! . Bride members who OBEY Christ bear one another's burdens and bring forth the fruit of righteousness this fulfills His Law of Grace.

The Great Apostasy Everyone knows that a loving bridegroom wants to have a close relationship with his intended he wants to communicate directly with her no one else should be involved! It wasn't long before clever men began to tell others that they should come to Jesus through them. "We are wise, let us teach you about Jesus," they said. "He wants us to stand in for Him until He returns." Those who establish this clergy-laity relationship reject the life of faith and must obey the whole LAW of Moses!! Believers who are captured by this hateful Nicolaitan deception often don't try to develop their own intimate relationship with Jesus so that His glory may be revealed through them.

Worship of Saints The cross and resurrection left no tomb of death for Jesus. It wasn't long, however, before people began to worship at the coffins of dead saints. In effect, they stood on dead men's bones looking backward, crying "wasn't he (she) a great saint". This abominable practice remains common among those who establish works in the name of such famous saints as: "Mary, Luther, Calvin, Wesley, Wimber…" Looking backward to dead men's good works may gain some blessing, but it's those who look forward to the living Jesus Christ who walk as His beloved earthly Bride.

We've Got the Spirit! From time to time, Holy Spirit moves powerfully upon a group a revival occurs. Other groups may receive deeper revelations of scriptural meaning. Each visitation has its own character, so it is very easy to believe: "this surely must be how Jesus Christ wants it to be forever." Great blessings may cause people to think, "isn't Jesus blessed to have us, as we are so wise, to speak through? How great we must be in His sight!!" Often groups who experience special, miraculous flows of divine favor of Jesus try to bottle up the wondrous spiritual power! Jesus has much more than the mind of man can contain, so for us it is to listen carefully for the next guidance, and pray for revival and wisdom. No individual or group has a monopoly on scriptural interpretation, on revival methods or any other work of the Holy Spirit.

I'll Stay Here Any work, be it sacred, secular or mixed, that isn't ordained from the Throne of Grace puts its advocates under the whole Mosaic LAW. Myriad are the Believers who, upon discovering that their institutions and practices are based on LAW, not Grace, remain members and continue fleshly works. These "foolish Galatians" (see 3:1) often needlessly suffer many of the LAW's penalties. It is a rare person who indeed leaves behind all fleshly human works to become obedient to the King of Heaven, and therefore not obligated to personally fulfill the LAW. The Bride member who seeks Jesus Christ first often stands out from fellow believers, and may be made to feel welcome in the more carnal assemblies. Those who know themselves as the beloved Bride of the King ought to lovingly encourage fellow believers to walk in obedience, to lead others to a Kingdom walk.

Grace Marriage God's primary unit of government is the married couple. Only Jesus can properly join a man and woman, wed them so that they are equipped to work as a team in His Kingdom. Under Grace the man and woman have a higher relationship with God than even Adam and Eve experienced before their fall. In the present Age, when God joins, the couple has moment-by-moment, equal access to the fruit of Tree of Life, in Paradise. Marriage is a very great mystery, for no two couples experience the same love relationships with each other, or with their Lord. Although many think that their union has been blessed by God, in truth only a rare couple has been joined by Him. To be joined by God both the man and woman need to have sufficient maturity in spirit to faithfully fulfill the responsibilities of a marriage relationship. Such couples have obedient hearts turned fully toward Him. They are ready to jointly exhibit the glory of our Lord Jesus through their love, for Jesus, for each other, and all others.

Family Relationships With the birth of children the family is created. Each child is born in satan's kingdom. There is no ritual or act of another which can cause someone, child or adult, to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. When children are mature enough to reason on their own they must choose for themselves to leave satan's kingdom and become a member of Jesus Christ's Kingdom of Grace. A child is responsible to parents under the Mosaic LAW until Jesus Christ's authority is accepted. Even after a young person enters His Kingdom and accepts Him as Lord, Jesus expects children to remain in close fellowship with their parents until they themselves are married.

Meaningful Fellowship Building together in the Kingdom of Heaven isn't some religious game, it's a serious work with the eternity of many at stake. Every work relationship and team should be established by Jesus, and He should be the acknowledged "Leader and Provider." The only genuine working fellowship is among Bride members because they all march to the same drummer. Nominal Believers and unbelievers who must obey the whole law may resent being left out of the authority roles, but often cause contention if they are given powerful authority. Unfeigned love and much patience may encourage such to turn their hearts fully to Jesus.

Bridegroom-Bride Relationships During this Age of Grace, Jesus is choosing and preparing a holy Bride to rule and reign with Him forever. Everything that He ordains works toward the fulfillment of this goal. He takes an interest in the smallest to the greatest task that we may be assigned. Jesus wishes greatly for us to learn obedience to Him in our daily lives. Jesus knows which of us are properly equipped to take each role in the building of His Holy Temple from the spirits of His Bride. He shapes and hones the living stones, and places them exactly where He wants them to be! It is this temple of living stones assembled together harmoniously which reveals the glory of our Master Builder.

Walking in the Light Scientific studies reveal no essential moral or spiritual differences between typical American Christian church members and their unchurched peers. The institutionalized church has failed in its primary mission: to call and prepare a Bride for Jesus Christ. It hasn’t offered its members the clear choices: Serve Jesus as Bridegroom or the World of Mammon; Walk in Full Grace or obey the Whole LAW; Live in your spirit with forgiveness or in the selfish self esteem of your flesh. Holy Spirit interventions will soon bring American Christianity to its moment of truth. If the institutions don’t step up to the plate, then individual leaders ought to take their callings and anointing seriously and lead others into the Kingdom Walk. The Holy Spirit is our Leader and Empowerer. Jesus will return for a perfected Bride who has learned to love, honor and obey Him! You will be blessed and our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified when you choose Him and His way!!!

The Spirit and the Bride say “Come”. Rev 22:17

Note: Although I personally have had many unfruitful experiences with local pastors and their chief elders, the Holy Spirit has assured me that many will answer the final call to humble themselves and take their proper places among the anointed apostles, prophets, evangelists and teachers. We need to pray for a smooth transition from institutionalization to the freedom of the blessed Kingdom Walk.

A Baptism Into Destiny
Bill Burns

April 4, 2004

The Lord awakened me at 12:44 a.m. and said, "A great battle is about to take place for the kingdom positions of My people. Satan's plan is to unleash his fury against My people to try and disqualify them from attaining to the fullness of their kingdom positions. But, if My people will seek Me for a fresh baptism of the Spirit, I will baptize them with the fire of their destiny, and they will come forth in the fullness of their kingdom positions. The season that is before you is a season of war. It is a season in which the Church will be baptized in the fire of My Spirit, and this fire will destroy the works of the enemy that will come against My people. Tell My people to seek the baptism of fire that I will now release upon those who desire to receive the fullness of their kingdom position."

The time I was awakened is symbolic. Twelve is the number of divine government, and four is the number of the open door. Two fours would indicate a double portion or time of the fulfilling of that which the Lord spoke. Two fours equal eight, which speaks of the beginning of a new thing, which the Lord is doing.

I was looking at the calendar for May and saw that May 15th is "Armed Forces Day," and the Lord said, "My people must be equipped for war by this date, for the battle will intensify. Again, I say, receive the fire by which you will overcome the enemy." And, this scripture came to mind:

Jeremiah 12: 5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, Then how can you contend with horses? And if in the land of peace, In which you trusted, they wearied you, Then how will you do in the floodplain of the Jordan?

The Jordan represents the baptism of the Holy Spirit. The prophetic question of this scripture for us is: The horsemen (more powerful assault) is coming at the season of the flooding of the Jordan (Pentecost). We must be ready to be baptized with fresh fire before the season of Pentecost arrives if we are going to withstand the enemy's assaults. The thief comes to steal our kingdom destiny.

The Lord is promising us a victory at the time of the flooding of the Jordan.

Joshua 3:14-15 So it was, when the people set out from their camp to cross over the Jordan, with the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people, and as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks during the whole time of harvest).

Joshua (a type of Jesus) led His people to victory against Jericho. Jericho fell because of the anointing in the shout of the people who had crossed the Jordan.

The Elijah Company
In these days the Lord is raising up an Elijah Company that will confront Jezebel's prophets and defeat her attacks against God's people. Elijah was a prophet who was baptized in the fire of the Lord. In 2 Kings chapter 1 Elijah calls fire down on two companies of men who were sent by Ahaziah who inquired of Baal-Zebub. 1 Kings chapter 18 tells the story of how Elijah defeated the prophets of Baal by calling down God's fire.

We also need this baptism of fire. John the Baptizer prophesied these words:

Matthew 3:11 "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Jesus has baptized us with the Holy Spirit, but we also need the baptism of fire. John said that we would be baptized with the Holy Spirit AND fire. Fire will not only consume the wood, hay and stubble (1 Corinthians 3:12-13), but it will destroy the works of the enemy. The anointing of God's fire will be released by the prophetic word in the mouths of God's people. The fire will destroy the plans of God's enemies.

Revelation 11:5 And if anyone wants to harm them, fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner.

A great battle is about to take place this spring and summer for the destiny of God's people. The baptism of fire will equip us to withstand the onslaught of the horsemen and preserve our destiny in the kingdom. Another battle for the destiny of America will take place this fall. This next election is crucial for America and those who dwell in this land. The prophets of fire will be called forth from their personal victory to wage war for the destiny of America -- one nation under God.

For this reason we have been instructed to gather our people and seek the baptism of fire before May 15. We are to be armed with the fire of God's Spirit that will dress us for battle in the armor of God's light.

Romans 13:12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light.

The light of Christ will be released by the fire of God's anointing, and we shall be ready for the battle. Victory is assured!

A Time Of Birthing
Bill Burns:

You are coming out of a time of revelation of new beginnings and entering into a time of birthing of those things which I have spoken. Fear not, My children, and let not your heart abide in heaviness, for though trials and tribulations come upon the earth know absolutely that I am with you and I am for you and I will never leave you nor forsake you. I have come to lead you through the Valley of Despair. I will lead you out of hopelessness and will give you hope. I have come to be one with you so that you may know Me in a fresh way. I will reveal Myself to you not only as King of kings but I will come to you in intimacy and be your Friend and strengthen you for that which lies ahead.

I will reveal to you the mysteries of this world and the mysteries of your own life, the things that transpire that you do not understand or have reckoning of, for I know your heart more than you know your own heart. I call you to a place of trust today. If you know that you can trust Me, you will trust Me with your heart. If you heart condemns you, I am greater than your heart and the condemnation that has been heaped upon you, says the Lord.

I tell you that you will reckon and understand and see before you the place of turning, for this is a turning point, a place in which you will turn from that which has hindered you. You will have opportunities that will bring the grace to turn now from the path you have been on, from the bondage and mindsets, for it is the time for turning around and lining up with divine purpose.

Marsha Burns: Beloved, I want to bring you to a level of trust that you have not known, for if you have not learned to trust Me with your very life, you will certainly view those around you with suspicion. But, haven't I said that all things work together for good to those who love Me, to those who are the called according to My purpose? Then, why do you fear what man might do to you? Why do you fear being taken advantage of? Relax, and release your suspicions, and put your life in My hands and allow Me to be your refuge, your fortress, and your high tower, for I am your place of strength and protection. I will certainly show you places of danger and pitfalls if you will only trust Me to do so.

Marsha Burns

Remember the commandment, you shall have no other gods before Me. I say, beware of carving idols. But, you say, I'm not carving idols. Yet, you are exerting pressure against certain people to mold them into the image of your making. Just as surely as you would use chisel and hammer, you are trying to shape them with your desires, attitudes, motives, words and prayers. I execute justice for the oppressed and give freedom to those held in captivity, and you also must choose to release those held captive by your own selfish desires. Tear down the idols of your own heart so that you can worship the true and living God.

Mar 31, 2004
I have already warned you to set a watch, and now is the critical time, for the enemy will rise up to assault you with boundary violations. And, when you stand your ground and refuse to allow his intrusion, he will accost you with condemnation and guilt. Be on guard, for these violations will come under the guise of religion, and he will use those against you who live in an extreme position of self-interest. Stand your ground and keep your focus and sense of kingdom purpose or these attacks could derail you. Maintain peace by keeping vigil.

Marsha Burns

Matthew 13:44 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for the joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." I heard the Lord say, many of My people are seeking treasure in their field of dreams. Examine yourself to see if what you are seeking is the real treasure of My kingdom or earthly treasure. Are you seeking that which will bring only temporary satisfaction and delight? Are you seeking the approval and acceptance of man or to establish a reputation and acclaim among your peers? Now is the time to reconsider your priorities and objectives, for what you value will be your reward.

Marsha Burns

Now is the time to hold fast to what you knew you heard Me speak in the secret place of your heart. You had revelation and direction, and you rose up to fulfill destiny. Yet, the enemy has planted seeds of doubt with his question, "Did God say?" And, suddenly you feel lost and without direction. Not only that, but you sense the danger of the enemy's presence to destroy all that has been built. Do not stand in fear and trembling, watching and waiting on the sidelines to see what will transpire. Rise up in the Spirit; take your stand in the authority I have given you to overcome and defeat the works of the evil one. Exercise your sword of the Spirit by proclaiming the Word and bringing down the strongholds. Do not doubt or waver in your warfare. Be strong and very courageous, for victory is assured.

Abide In His Truth

Marion Lundy

God is calling His people to come into the knowledge of and abide in His Truth. A few people walk in it, some are almost there and many go in and out according to the situations in which they find themselves. This action causes negative effects in their worlds without their understanding what is going on.

Elohim is Truth-yesterday, today and forever. This never changes. His eternal plan for us is that we realize this and help Him finish His works. This was His will before the foundation of the world. He has set His seal upon it.

God was manifested in the flesh and crucified on the cross for our redemption, healing, prosperity and all other blessings. He destroyed the ‘works of the devil.’ He went down to hell, made perfect and brought out the spirits of the just people that was there. He arose from the grave, ascended up to heaven and sent back the Holy Spirit who endowed His followers with His might. This is the TRUTH.

His blood has and does cleanse from all sin that is repented of. That same blood annihilates the produce of Satan and his cohorts from our lives and circumstances when it’s applied. We have overcame that old dragon by ‘the Blood of the Lamb’ and by the ‘word of our testimony.’ This is the TRUTH.
By grasping and proclaiming THIS TRUTH God can do His will and meet our needs in this world of reality. He says to be as He is and call those things that be not as though they already are.

Through the wisdom and the word of God we understand that when we know the TRUTH, the TRUTH will make us free. It will cause us to experience Him as we should and as we desire. It will give us to see what His unique purpose is for our individual lives. It will empower us to decree that the promises of God are now fulfilled unto us in actuality.

A Blank Canvas Of Blackness
Marie-France McDowell-Smith

DREAM/VISION last night or early this morning? 10-8/9/2004

WHERE: In sound, solid sleep and protection of my sleeping quarters...was awakened instantly, seemed as wide awake, in calmness and peace.

SAW: Complete blackness.

HEARD: "She is about to 'gobble up' the whole world!"

SAW: Myself lying prostrate, face in the dirt and rocks before a looming, ominous mountain--came from no where--WOW! I have been before this mountain before, as though a primal memory.

HEARD/UNDERSTOOD: Thunder and lightenings! Words, understanding placed in my spirit at a pace faster than light. Continuing to digest it all.

SAW: The mountain was now gone, and only saw the blackness. Zooming from the blackness came two round lights, as headlights. At first only tiny specks becoming larger and this perspective gave the impression that lights were coming closer as they speedily appeared. The light on the right was flashing on and off and off and on; and the light on the left was glowing constantly with no flickering. The two lights traveled in synchronization and in an oblique angle, from the top right hand side and to the bottom left hand side in my sight of vision.

SENT TO PRAYER/PROPHET-WARRIORS for Ruach [Holy Spirit] to open our understanding.

The dream/vision ended, it seemed complete. Spiritually on my knees, I submit and shake from a fresh and healthy dose of fear and respect in awe of our YHWH [God].

Some of what Ruach recaptures from this dream/vision:

REFLECTION, WHILE STILL IN DREAM/VISION: There was no horizon or distinction of any kind, just saw solid blackness, but not deadness nor was there any heaviness associated with it or exuding from the scene/picture shown. There was a sense of life emerging somewhere from this blackness. As though to the natural senses it could be described as "bleakness, desolation, nothingness, without hope" ~ BUT OUR YHWH (God) chai -- life...Hallelujah!

UNDERSTOOD: YHWH was about to show a simple picture with a simple message. In Ruach, seemed as though a background for a painting to show the "black and white of it", without any possibility of misunderstanding, confusion, or distraction.

Clearly YHWH (God) was showing a starting or beginning point. A blank canvas of blackness. Further understood that HE IS BUILDING UPON AND WILL CREATE, as it were 'from the ground up'. HE builds from 'the Rock", Yeshua haMashiach (Messiah Jesus). The only foundation of substance or reality. I heard the song in my spirit...'All other ground is sinking sand'....can you remember this old song? Do you hear it?

YHWH is clearing away all the lies of the enemy of our souls....ALL LIES will be wiped away, destroyed, blasted off the face of the earth, and YHWH (God) IS BUILDING HIS BODY, not man, and no longer will man's ways be allowed for Babylon's methods of building are inferior, men's methods of building do more damage and cloud TRUTH! WHAT HE HAS BUILT, IS BUILDING AND WILL BUILD WILL LAST BEYOND ALL TIME INTO ETERNITY for the foundation is Yeshua, HIS Only begotten Son, the real Redeemer, not the false!

HEARD: "She is about to 'gobble up' the whole world!"

As Ruach brought this back in my mind to see again, I began asking, "What does this mean?" I rolled the words I had heard over and over in my mind and tumbled them in Ruach seeking an answer. Without the aid and strength of Ruach, this could have seemed as a terrifying statement. It was not, there was great Peace, HIS Peace!

In my human understanding in this dream, I attempted to substitute the phrase 'gobble up' with 'eat up', for surely that sounded better; certainly more correct for such an awesome YHWH (God) to be speaking, one whom we reverence and fear, as HE belches out fire and smoke from HIS Mountain. Sensed myself prostrate, lying face to the ground before a H-ly mountain, and our H-ly God (YHWH).

In this dream/vision, I saw near the base of the looming, ominous mountain my own body lying flat on the ground, trembling...I heard and was instructed to record..."WOE unto those who change HIS words and deliver them to the Body of Messiah. Woe to those who once served HIM and now pervert HIS WILL AND HIS WAYS. Woe to HIS servants who believe that in their humaneness they can even begin to know and speak for YHWH! Woe to my servants who believe LIES and do not seek me and me alone for I AM Wisdom and Truth! Woe to prophets and priests who alter one jot or one tittle of MY WORD. Woe to priests and prophets who have fallen away from YHWH and speak from their own lips, lying lips, for they have purposely walked into paths of Babylon's darkness. They now speak for profit and extravagant worldly gain. They have no desire to hear from ME, what they must give up is too great in their eyes, for they know me not. Tell them!"

My entire being was shaken and continuing upon my face...Ruach corrected me, repeating what YHWH had SAID: 'gobble up' and then asked me "What does this phrase mean to you? I emphatically answered 'Thanksgiving'. And mulled that in my culture (the USA) Thanksgiving Day - Nov. 25th. had begun with gratitude for you O H-ly One of Isra'el. Gratitude for you as our source for ALL things. Gratitude from a people who had come under much religious persecution in another 'world', had sought You, O YHWH! A people who had prayed, planned, worked together under the leadership of men and women of Your choosing, and had sacrificed, and given up home and family and comfort to come to a new land of opportunity to live lives to Glorify You, O Mighty One.

We have forgotten and these people understood that You are the True and Living God. These people understood that You are the sustainer of our very lives. They saw Your hand of provision through the indigenous peoples whom they thought to be heathens.

There were many lessons for all to learn, one from another. Together these combined peoples found expanded knowledge and intelligence of a different sort. In celebration of You and Life (Chai) via the avenue of friendship and mutual respect, they shared food and set aside this day to come together to honor You, O Great Spirit.

Surely they praised You during this Feast, as during Hanukkah whom this holiday is patterned, they must have praised You for miraculous provision when there was no seeming way to survive. they had escaped from persecution, by Your Mighty Right Hand, for You O H-ly One of Isra'el, You provide and make a way....in surprising and monumental ways. Your ways are above our ways and your thoughts higher than our thoughts...You have redeemed, are redeeming and will redeem our souls on that day. Hallelujah!

FURTHER UNDERSTANDING FROM RUACH: Ruach impressed that it was not a mistake when I heard "gobble up", and reminded me that one can never change a single phrase or word or syllable or change the sentence structure, NOT one thing that is given.

YHWH makes no mistakes in what and how and when HE communicates to us. This arrogance of the Apostles, Prophets, Priests, Teachers and Evangelists has cost the Body in errors of discernment and forward movement and no longer will be tolerated!

Many, many, many eternal lives are at stake. YHWH said that these offices and responsibilities are vitally important, that HE is grieved as all too many consider them a mere hobby...HE CALLS to COME TO HIM TODAY!

Fall before HIM in repentance and HE will build HIS BODY, the Body of Messiah Yeshua in fullness and power and strength and tenderness and mercy and HIS LOVE for those of each tribe and tongue and nation.

REPENT! REPENT! REPENT! PREPARE, PREPARE, PREPARE THE WAY of our YHWH, HE COMES, That Day comes!!!

YHWH/Yeshua/Ruach knows HIS audience, HIS children, HIS own -- and our ability to understand specific Words from Abba on many levels. HIS PLAN is for us to come together and function together as HIS BODY, not leading but fitting in function and serving in joy! As we become rightly fitted, we will know HIS JOY, our STRENGTH in new and restorative ways...HIS WAYS, Our destinies have, are and will be fulfilled!

UNDERSTOOD: That as we come together in function as servants of El Elyon [Most High God], the delivery or every piece of information that we need will be given, that YHWH does not hold back, but the 'pieces' of information do not come together in fullness because the 'servants pride' is too great. When we become desperate enough, and lay down our lives in exchange for HIS completely, then all will be revealed, double mindedness must be eliminated at all costs, no longer may we allow Babylon to stretch and pull and distract and steal, kill, destroy our lives, for YHWH's destiny has been declared upon our lives, we must choose today, YHWH or destruction...for HIS GLORY COMES!

Are we willing? Are we willing to crucify ourselves completely, exchanging our lives for HIS....contemplate today, for HIS PLAN, HIS GLORY COMES QUICKLY! The harvest lies in the fields rotting, it is beyond White!!! Redeemed ones, on your faces, repent, repents, repent, and march, intercede, pray and Be H-ly, set- apart, as HE IS H-ly, be set apart for HIS SERVICE and GLORY and for HIS NAME;'s SAKE, YHWH!!!

Brothers and Sisters in Messiah, I pray that we not allow the deception of the enemy to steal from us at this last, end time...we are so close to HIS COMING! Yeshua is the overcomer, and in HIM, WE ARE OVERCOMERS. We cry out YHWH, Abba, Adonai Elohim and ask that YOU send YOUR angels, Messengers warring at Your command, to come to each of us today and give us courage and clarity of vision, Your VISION for the Body of Messiah, WE SEE THAT our Redeemer Comes!!! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Halleluyah!

SAW: The mountain was now gone, and only saw the blackness. Zooming from the blackness came two round lights, as headlights. At first only tiny specks becoming larger and the impression of the perspective that lights were coming closer as they speedily appeared. The light on the right was flashing on and off and off and on; and the light on the left was glowing constantly. The two lights traveled in synchronization and in an oblique angle, from the top right hand side and to the bottom left hand side of my sight of vision.

Response from a Prayer/Prophet Warriors on the previous paragraph of dream/vision:

IN Torah, the right "side" of G-d has to do with MERCY, and the left "side" of G-d has to do with judgment. I perceive that the picture is saying that judgment is coming, fast and hard like a freight train or a semi truck. The judgment will be unrelenting- constant (the left light which glowed steadily.) But G-d's mercy will come in waves (the right light was on then off, then on then off..).And as it says in James "Mercy triumphs over judgment"-if it were not for mercy, nothing would survive.

Matthew 24:22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

Matthew 24 24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

...continuing to wait before YHWH, asking for help to understand more of what HE is conveying;

...that we may be HIS servants of honor and worthiness, glorifying HIS NAME, and NOT servants to be pruned nor tossed into the fire for habits of laziness, disloyalty, lies, or unworthiness in HIS EYES!

May we, HIS sons and daughters, be lights in HIS KINGDOM that others may be drawn to Messiah Yeshua. May YHWH be GLORIFIED!!!

We ask that before men and women all over this earth, the TRUE REDEEMER (Messiah Yeshua) BE REVEALED by Ruach haKodesh, by Your RUACH O Great and Mighty Yah [God]!

May all men be drawn to Your Son, Yeshua as a powerful magnet!!!

May HIS obedient sacrifice of Blood upon that stake on Mt. Moriah come clearly into their heart's vision and understanding that they too may have the opportunity to REPENT and fall before a Holy YHWH (God) who seeks with and extends HIS arms of mercy, compassion and tender Love, for their release from bondages and to have HIS hands lift them to powerfully and simply declare, sing, dance and sow lives of celebration for TRUE FREEDOM AND LIFE in HIM! All these gifts for peoples of the planet before Justice Himself comes! Amen!

A Blossoming Walk
Mary Clark

July 4, 2004
In a vision, I looked down at my foot and saw an ornament of precious stones. The stones were like a flower – the center was deep red and the two leaves were a brilliant green. It was growing out of the top of my foot. Why did You show this to me, Lord?

I want My beloved to see something about your walk in Me. I want you to know that it is flowering forth as a thing of great beauty. I want you to know that the walk that I have provided for you is from everlasting to everlasting. It is a work that will live on. Look on the promises of your God with much delight, for they are truly manifesting in these last days. Look on them and know that one who is committed to the Beloved receives huge dividends – exponential blessings, developing in your midst, and promising you a walk of sheer delight.

I am calling My beloved to the forefront of the world's situation. I want you to know that I am leading and guiding you in My power and strength to move forward into that place of purity, grace, and hope in Me. The enemy has touted his words of ugliness long enough. I want you touting My truth in the great power of your Lord God Almighty. I want you standing fast in the face of adversity. I want you standing tall, eager to mount up with wings of the eagle and into My vicinity of great hope.

I am eager for the approaching hour. I want you to know that I am doing a fine work in hearts – a work that spills over into your walk with Me. So be of good cheer. I have made you an everlasting promise of great hope, and you are seeing it develop in your midst. You are seeing it blossom forth in your walk. You are coming into the knowledge of My great and undying love for you. This is a good reason to rejoice. This is a good reason to clap your hands and dance the dance of victory, for your God has looked on you with the kindest intent, and He is moving you forward into a glowing hour of promise and hope beyond anything you could ever ask or think. Now! Isn't this a good reason to rejoice, beloved? Isn't this a good reason to clap your hands and sing forth praises to your King of kings? For He has spoken His intent and He is bringing it to pass – bringing it to pass in your lives – in your walk, and yes, in your heart of hearts!!!

Depravity Of The Mind
Mary Clark

barnabessie@earthlink.net

July 1, 2004
depravity – corruption; wickedness

I want to talk to My dear children tonight about depravity of the mind. I want to enable you to understand some things about the mind of man.

In the beginning, I created them – male and female – to walk in unity with Me, the Almighty One. I desired fellowship. I desired to be known by My created ones, and for them to love Me and walk in obedience to Me. Yes. I desired much. I desired more than was to be had, didn't I?

But in this day, I am doing a mighty work among man. I am wooing – drawing man to Myself. I am showing man the mind of the living God and what He desires. I am teaching My beloved children about My mind – My mind is filled with love for all of mankind. My mind is filled with good intent. Nothing crosses My mind that is not pure and holy. All of My thoughts are just and true.

I want My beloved to see this – to know this, and to follow after My will for their lives, knowing that the very best is in this path – this holy path – that leads into the loving arms of the Beloved.

I want man to see his mind for what it is – depraved. It is not a mind that thinks purity and holiness every moment of the day. No good thing can come from a mind that is depraved. Nothing can come from a depraved mind that could further My kingdom. But your mind is changing. It is lining up with My truth. You are coming into the very real realization of the goodness of your God, and desiring to be like Him – desiring to dwell in that holy place in Him – that holy place filled with His love – His kind intent toward His beloved.

Let Me tell you this, dear child of the living God: Nothing man could ever think could ever dwell in the heart of the Beloved. Man's mind just does not work in the area of holiness. Man's mind does not seek after the holiness of the living God. It is only by the power of My Spirit working within your heart, that you can ever come into the realization of the truth. So, redeemed one, rejoice in the fact that your God created you to come into a holy union with Him.

He desires to see you prosper in every area of your life. He desires to see your mindset change and become like Him – I desire to see you come into the realization of My love, whereby you will know things of purity for a certainty. You will walk in that purity, desiring to keep your focus on your Beloved – desiring to spread His good will far and wide.

The enemy likes to see you out of focus. He likes to see you floundering, but I like to see you alert and attentive to My will, prospering in every area of your life. I enjoy seeing My beloved grow stronger and setting your feet in that path of My desire. I enjoy seeing you grow in power and might, doing the work of your Father.

In these last days I am changing some minds. I am taking those depraved minds and "fixing" them to suit My needs. You will enjoy this change, beloved. You will thrill to this change. You will look on this change as miraculous, because you will know that it has come forth by My hand. So rejoice, beloved! Rejoice in the coming work of the Lord your God, knowing that it is for your good, and for the betterment of My kingdom that you are being blessed in this way.

And don't forget this, beloved: You asked Me to conform you into My image. You sought Me to do a mighty work in your heart, asking Me to make the changes necessary for you to draw closer to Me, and what better way is there for us to draw closer than the meeting of the minds. What better way is there for us to get in unity than for us to think alike? What better way is there for us to commune than for us to be on the same page? Ask yourself those questions, beloved, when you start to see the mighty changes that are coming forth. Yes! Ask yourself those questions about My work that is shining forth in you – in your mind – in that mind that was once so in need of renewing, and is now being renewed according to My will.

Ask yourself about this work that is shining forth – this renewing of the mind in a fashion that will thrill and excite, and keep you on the right path – the path that leads directly to My heart – directly into My arms of love that are open to receive you – all of you – every fiber of you! Ask yourself about this most miraculous work, and then look up, beloved, and know that just as surely as I have done this most splendid work, I have drawn you into a new place in Me – a new place of wonder and happiness. That is your destiny, beloved. That is the destiny that I have planned for you!!!

Ratified

Mary Clark

(A Prophetic Exhortation)
June 29, 2004

ratify – approve, sanction, endorse, confirm, authorize, consent

I am ratifying something very important at this moment, beloved. Yes! I am giving My consent to something that may surprise you. Hear the word of your Lord:

In seasons past, My children have walked under and umbrella of hope – hope in My coming – hope in My will being fulfilled in their lives – hope in My word being fulfilled in the lives of those that they love – hope in the living God giving them those things that would bring them true happiness – more of Him – more of His presence, manifesting in their lives. In this hour, I am showing My beloved that the time is indeed upon you when you will see ALL for which your heart longs fulfilled in your lives.

Let Me tell you something about what to expect: You may expect for your God to intervene in your life in a most substantial way. You may expect to see loved ones won over to My cause and walking in harmony with Me. You may expect to see glorious angelic activity – the goings and comings of My angelic messengers in your life. You may expect to walk in such a way that will please and surprise you.

Yes, my beloved, I have ratified those papers giving the authority for all of this to begin in your lives NOW! I say NOW! So get ready to explore the most glorious work of the Lord God Almighty, as He shines forth in a vast array of splendor in your lives, and know this for certain: It was worth it all! It was truly worth it all when you said “yes” to your Beloved. It was truly worth it all when you decided to follow after My heart. It will be worth it all when you take those steps into that place of loveliness in Me where you will see My beauty shining forth in your life, identify My will, and take those steps forward into what awaits you. What awaits you in this place? Being about your Father’s business! THAT, My beloved, is what awaits you as you take these next most important steps into this new realm of rich discovery. THAT, beloved, is what awaits one who is following after My heart – a newness of life that can only be described as most wondrous – a place of high activity of another realm – a place of great beauty – a place of sheer wonder, beloved – a place of the sheerest wonder!!!

About Arafat

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Friends,

This is just a short note about what is brewing here in Israel in relationship to the Yasser Arafat "carnival". As you know, the Islamic holy days of Ramadan and their aftermath (Id el F'ter) are not quite over. Thus Arafat who died last week was being preserved in a condition which the French news media called coma, even though totally on life support. This is only one of the reasons why the dictator was kept in some semblance of existence; another was the negotiation with Israel as to his burial. Arafat of course wanted to be enshrined on the Temple Mount, while Sharon deemed Gaza to be a more suitable location for that purpose. The PA was demanding East Jerusalem with the approval of Left wing Knesset (Israeli parliament) members of the Opposition. The compromise reached was the compound in Ramalla, where Arafat was confined for the past three years. A PLO spokesman announced that this location would suffice until Jerusalem is liberated and the Palestinian Stat e is formed, at which time the cadaver will be transferred to the Temple Mount. The third reason that Arafat's meeting with his Maker was deferred, was the wrangling for leadership within the P.A. The PA leadership also met with the leadership of Hamas and Jihad. This impromptu unity was only for the purpose of demanding from Israel that Arafat be buried in East Jerusalem. Don't kid yourselves; there is no love between the PA (PLO) and the other militant branches! The only reason that Arafat wielded power over all of these was because he held the purse strings to billions of dollars, fractions of which were divvied out at his discretion. However, now none of the leaders of the PA have this available to them to help control and build a so-called unified government. What you see in one part of the Arab world you will find in another - one strong leader, or family, who have the most cunning and are the most intimidating, is essential to keep the system thriving.

The Palestinian militant Islamic factions will not cooperate with those who bow to Israel, to the U.S. or to any other western nation, as to do so would be giving into the great Satan and will result in brutal deaths. To kill or be killed is the lingua franca that unites that world. Sadam Hussein was responsible for the murder of scores of people in order to gain the power and respect as a leader in Iraq. Arafat, like his colleague and supporter, made his way into the power struggle with the same terror tactics. The spiritual nature of the Arab world originates from the ancient biblical bloodline of Ishmael, Lot, Esau, Amalek, Amman, Moav etc. There was no love lost between them and Israel, as they struggled for the Abrahamic inheritance and birthright. The religious spirit that is behind Islam propels all of this. They all have one objective in common, as the Psalmist so discerningly pointed out: "They have said, 'Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more'. For they have consulted together with one consent; they form a confederacy against You (Psa. 83:4-5).

If the so called moderates of the PA (PLO) capitulate to Judah/Israel, or to Ephraim/Israel these other factions will continue to use terrorism as their rightful weapon against an occupier of Arab land (and that doesn't mean just the West bank and Gaza), as the whole Land of Israel once was ruled over by an Islamic nation and once Isalm's always Islam's. They will not recognize any other solution or compromise. Terrorism has been one of the most successful tools in their hands to date. Only extreme military force will subdue them and then only for a time, unless Islam is completely wiped off the pages of modern history. The symbol of Islam is the sword, and so is the temperament of the spirit behind it. But we must also remember that YHVH used those nations in the past to judge Israel when the latter went too far into adultery and idolatry (iniquity and sin).

The Arab world, along with most of the rest of the world, is now paying homage to one of the most evil men who have yet to stand in the hall of the infamous. He not only has innocent blood on his hands, but was also known to be a pedophiliac (lover of children), as well as a homosexual. The French Government will not release the reasons for his death or condition. It is to be kept a family secret. It does not take an expert to figure out what killed this man. The indications over the weeks were that his immune system was defective and that he suffered from some kind of virus. All the symptoms pointed to Aids (HIV). This is the only disease that disgraces and humiliates a person, and the only one that someone would want kept secret. Why?

Paul, an Apostle of Messiah, points out a Torah principle in his letter to the community in Rome: "Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due" (Rom. 1:27).

The conflict now between the nation of Judah/Israel and her neighbors is poised to enter a new phase. The times of the fulfilling of YHVH's latter day prophecies in regard to the whole House of Israel will accelerate.

"Behold, the whirlwind of YHVH goes forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind; it will fall violently on the head of the wicked. The fierce anger of YHVH will not return until He has done it, and until He has performed the intents of His heart. In the latter days you will consider it" (Jer. 30:23-24)

These are times to have our lamps trimmed with the fresh oil of the Spirit of Holiness.

About the Bride

Megan Morris

Psalm 45: About the Bride

One night several months ago, I was writing in my prayer journal, and Holy Spirit took me to one of my favorite Psalms and started telling me things about the second half of it. I was a little surprised because I usually get stuck in the first half, which describes the Bridegroom-King. I could stay there for hours. But the second half describes the Bride, and this is what He chose to talk to me about. I've held onto it for awhile, but today I felt like I should send it out.

The three main versions of the Bible I used for this were the King James (KJV), Amplified (AMP), and the Message (MSG). :) The verses will be marked by asterisks around them.

PSALM 45 -- Of the sons of Korah: A Wedding Song

v9. Kings' daughters are among Your honorable women; at Your right hand stands the queen in gold of Ophir. (AMP)

Here the Queen is the King's "right-hand-man." She is his helpmeet, the able partner who has earned her place as his most trusted confidante. The glory of God rests on her; Ophir was a country famous for its fine, high-quality gold. These are righteous acts done in God's strength, not "good" things done in the wisdom of man. Man-things are wood, hay and stubble. God-things are fire-tested gold. These God-things are her jewelry.

v10-11. Now listen, daughter, don't miss a word: forget your country, put your home behind you. Be here -- the king is wild for you. Since he's your lord, adore him. (MSG)

"Hear, O daughter, consider, submit, and consent to my instructions: forget also your own people and your father's house; So will the King desire your beauty; because He is your Lord, be submissive and reverence and honor Him." (AMP)

"...So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord, and worship thou him." (KJV) (v11 only)

Here is a common thing: it is the language of marriage and covenant. "So shall a man leave his father and mother and cleave to his wife." "Forgetting that which lies behind, pressing on toward that which lies ahead." "If any man loves [and takes more pleasure in] father or mother more than [in] Me, he is not worthy of Me." "...and forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live." "...and they left their nets and followed Him."

If we do not release our past -- even the good parts -- we can not continue on with Jesus. We are commanded to honor our parents, but are contrarily instructed to "forget," "forsake," and, by comparison, to "hate" them. (The KJV translation of "not loving more than".) Our loyalties must be to God, not to our heritage.

Parents and homeland here speak of the relationship we had with God through a spiritual "umbilical cord." It must become a personal relationship. The King is wild for you. He greatly desires your beauty. It also says something about traditions we were raised with. These cannot become substitutes for Jesus. Forget that which lies behind you -- press on towards Jesus. He wants you present with Him in the here and now, not dwelling on former days.

It is the example of manna: new manna had to be gathered every morning; if any was kept over from the day before, they found that it was full of maggots. You can't keep yesterday's bread when it comes to Jesus; you have to taste of Him anew every day. You do not belong to your past. If you want to be married to Jesus, you can't go back. He is your Lord, King, and Master -- focus on Him, and on adoring Him.

v12 -- "..even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favour." (KJV)

"And, O daughter of Tyre, the richest of the people shall entreat your favor with a gift!" (AMP)

When we are being the Bride of Christ that we're called to be, even people who supposedly have everything will want what we have. Song of Songs 5:1 describes the Bride as a garden, unshared and undefiled, reserved only for the King. The King is so pleased with this garden that He invites all His friends to come enjoy her fruitfulness. It is like in the story of Esther, when Xerxes told Vashti, "Come, let my friends enjoy your beauty!" -- but Vashti refused. In this context, this speaks of ministry. Vashti was self-satisfied and only wanted to minister to her friends; she refused to minister to the ones Xerxes chose. A true Bride is a ministry to everyone, which in turn brings her favor with even "the richest of the people".

v13. "Her wedding dress is dazzling, lined with gold by the weavers. All her dressed and robes are lined with gold." (MSG)

"The king's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold." (KJV)

"The King's daughter in the inner part [of the palace] is all glorious: her clothing is inwrought with gold." (AMP)

When Gabriel greets Mary in the Gospel of Luke, he calls her, "beautiful with God's beauty -- beautiful inside and out." (MSG) Mary was a prophetic picture of all of us, as she let the Holy Spirit fill her with Jesus. The Bride here in this verse has been through the purification process. Her dress -- the outer garments -- is lovely. Her outward acts are beautiful. The things everyone sees, her interactions with other people and her daily "public" life is beautiful -- it bears the mark of God's glory. This is because the inside is filled with the glory of God. She has been faithful in intimacy with Jesus. The beauty of her private life of devotion, a beauty cultivated in the secret place (the inner part of the palace), in her personal relationship with God, in the inner workings of her heart where nobody else can see, has bled over into her public "manifested" life. The beauty given to her in her time of hiddenness, in her "Esther" time of preparation, has paid off and she is now ultimately pleasing.

Esther's treatment started with six months of treatment with the oil of myrrh. Myrrh speaks of the sufferings of the Cross, six is the number of flesh. Her flesh is being crucified before anything else can take place. The next six months were treatments with perfumes and cosmetics. This follows the pattern of Song of Songs 4:16 in which the Shulammite asks for the North Wind and then the South Wind -- the testing and suffering before the blessing -- in order to make her garden ready to become the King's garden.

v14-15. "She is led to the king, followed by her virgin companions. A procession of joy and laughter! A grand entrance to the king's palace!" (MSG)

"She shall be brought to the King in raiment of fine needlework: with the virgins, her companions that follow her, she shall be brought to You. With gladness and rejoicing will they be brought; they will enter into the King's palace." (AMP)

There are a couple of things to be had from this. First, she surrounds herself with purity. Her companions are virgins, undefiled. Second, her companions may also speak of those sincere believers who have kept themselves pure from the world but haven't yet heard the call to intimacy with the Bridegroom. They haven't been "de-virginized" by the world, but they haven't become Brides yet, either.

However, as in the Song of Songs, the Bride's sincere passion for the King awakens their hearts. Here, they "follow her in to the king" (KJV); in the Song, the Shulammite says, "Draw me, and we will run after You." One being drawn results in many running to Him. Later in the Song, the virgins' ridicule and incomprehension of her devotion to Christ ("What is your beloved more than another beloved?") turns into desire to know Him personally ("Where has your lover gone, that we may seek him with you? ") when she stands in the face of pain and adversity and praises Him. (See Song of Songs 5:6 to 6:1.)

v16-17 "Set your mind now on sons -- don't dote on father and grandfather. You'll set up your sons as princes all over the earth. I'll make you famous for generations; you'll be the talk of the town for a long, long time." (MSG)

"Instead of thy fathers shall by thy sons, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth. I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee forever and ever." (KJV)

No longer will the Bride be defined by those who have lived before. As much as we honor and love the fathers of our faith who have prepared the way before us, the sons that God is releasing in this final hour will outshine them all. "The latter rain will be greater than the former rain." "Behold, I am doing a new thing!"

This is a pattern Jesus has established -- a precedent God set forth in Scripture: Elisha had a double portion of Elijah's anointing; Moses led Israel out of Egypt, but Joshua took them into the Promised Land; John the Baptist, though he had an amazing ministry, was only the forerunner of Jesus. As the New Testament fulfilled the Old Testament, so will the Last Hour Generation that God is raising up fulfill the promises and prototype of the previous generations.

In this, the entire Church throughout history will be honored. As we honor Christ, He desires to honor us. The King always wants to "show off" his Queen -- we can either respond as Vashti or Esther. (When the King threw Esther a banquet, she apparently accepted it with all joy and humility.) In Revelation 3:9, Jesus promises the church at Philadelphia that, because they've used every last ounce of their strength to keep His Word and remain faithful to Him, He "will make those who are of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie -- behold, I will make them come and bow down before your feet and learn and acknowledge that I have loved you." (AMP)

Christ will honor and glorify the Bride who honors and glorifies Him. This is the nature of true marriage, because the two have become one.

God, make these things real in Your Church so we can be just like Your Son and can be united as one with Him!

"Lord, make us ready now -- behold, our Bridegroom comes!" ("I Must Get Ready Now" - Ramey Hughes Whalen, the Selah Project)

"Change the shape of my heart Until it becomes more familiar to Your eyes Take the place of my heart Until I become a stranger to my life I won't give up on giving You A chance to blow my mind... I'll find You when I think I'm out of time."

A Call to Intimacy
Keith Loper

Intimacy: The state of being intimate.
Intimate: marked by very close association, contact, or familiarity, marked by a warm friendship developing through long association suggesting informal warmth or privacy

Over the past several years I have read numerous Christian emails and thought I would try and contribute what I think God has been showing me about the church. Many I am sure have read the allegory about leaving Christian City. It is my opinion, that for the most part, what the remnant was has left it in part, but still holds to the traditions of the old model of man or a ministry acting as their head instead of Yeshua. This is to say, there is very little intimacy.

It can be tasted it in some writings and it can smelled as well. Worst of all, I as well as others suffer the consequences of not having complete or good discernment before we read.

Let's explore this:

Revelations 2.2-2.4 states: I know your works, your labor, your patience, and that you cannot bear those that are evil. And you have tested those that are Apostles and are not, and have found them liars; and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for my names sake and have not become weary. Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love.

What I am primarily interested in looking at is the fact that this church, much like a great portion of America's church and the remnant; work for the LORD, have patience, hate evil, persevere and have the ability to not become weary in doing so. This tells me that there is faith present to accomplish all of these things. Faith in God's character. Faith in His willingness and abilities to help us do the works for His sake. This is a very scary place to be because of what He mentions next…..you have left your first love. Much of the Church in America is pursuing the work of the Lord not pursuing the Lord of the work. This puts anyone in the same place as those in Matthew 7:21-23.

- Matthew 7:21-23: Not everyone who says to Me, "Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in Heaven. "Many will say to me in that day, 'Lord, Lord have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; [The greek word for knew here is the same one that describes marriage intercourse.] depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness.

These two groups of people sound the same to me. What are the consequences if repentance is not brought forth?

- Revelations 2:5: …I will come quickly and remove your lamp stand from its place…
- Matthew 7:23:…'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness.

It appears to me and I do not want to seem like I am trying to minimize the consequences, but if you and I will cease to carry His oil, the Holy Spirit, we will become like Saul. The Spirit of the LORD will depart from us. Furthermore, we will be told to get away from Him, not for a mere moment, but forever. Intimacy is the goal.

Where are those people supposed to go who no longer have the Spirit? Where are those to go who are told to depart? Luke 7:28 tell us that there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. They will be kept out of the kingdom. They will and must assuredly go to hell for their practicing of lawlessness. Where the worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.

What a terrifying thing. They go to the place that was reserved for the devil and his angels.

Is this possible? Is it going on today? Unfortunately the answer is yes. How do we know for sure? Where is He? What is He doing right this minute? Do you know? At the time of this writing He is looking over my shoulder as I type.

Sure He longs for the lost to be saved and he will help you draw them in, but you had better wait on His leading. Why? He is the King! If you don't you will be practicing lawlessness. Follow Him, not man, unless he is speaking the words of God, not me, not a doctrine, but Him. How do we follow Him? Is he a flesh and blood that we can physically follow? No, He is a spirit and we must perceive Him by our spirit to know what He is doing and wants us to do. Yeshua "only did what He saw His father do", nothing more, nothing else! That is our calling as well and to worship Him in spirit and truth!

If we want to be His friend we will do the things he commands us. Not what he commanded a day or two ago. (Unless we have not done it yet.) Our question should be; what is the curriculum for today LORD? What is it that You wish right now? We are to be courtiers. We are to serve Him and put Him at the forefront of our lives at all times. Let these words sink in deep. Gifts and their functioning do not mean you are right with God.

Can you imagine Jesus putting together a program? I can't. His teaching occurred wherever He was and there was no charge to hear Him.

There was a time and season not so long ago when God called forth a remnant from His people that attended organizations or corporations or whatever they may be referred to as, to come from amongst them and become separate. (Come out and follow Me for yourself.) Today He is calling the remnant and any of His people who will listen to the next step. I don't know specifically what it is for you, but it is further obedience to the things He wants. More intimacy. More of His heart functioning in your life and my life. Don't divorce Him out of stubbornness, arrogance and fearfulness of heart as many of you have done. The remnant is being whittled down again. This will continue to occur until He has what He wants. People who want only Him and all of the other things will follow.

Please hear me. More importantly, please hear Him. This sounds oh so elementary, but the implications of the times we live in are tremendous. Do you want America to be judged again? Do you want America's prosperity taking away? Do you want more terrorist attacks? Or worst of all, do you want to be cast out of His presence forever?

Here's a litmus test if you will:

When is the last time that you felt the Lord's presence while you were alone with Him? [daily]

When is the last time you heard Him speak to you (not through the scriptures)? [hourly]

Do you ask Him about His will for you for each week, day or hour? [hourly]

When is the last time you sat and just talked to Him? [daily] Did He answer you or was it a one sided conversation?

Do you walk with Him or do you just call on Him when you have a problem or need something?

When is the last time you wept in prayer with His burden?

When is the last time that you prayed for someone and felt the Holy Spirit move through you?

When is the last time you told Father God that you love Him? How about Yeshua?

How about the Holy Spirit?

It is not your neighbor who needs to repent first. It is you and it is me. Take the log out of your eye while I do the same to mine. I would suggest that many of us, including me, are not ready for what America is about to experience. Yes, possible great revival, but not unless there is purity and integrity in us, His people. If not, revival yes, but in the midst of one of the greatest judgments the world has ever seen. Invasion, sickness, famine, certain cities will just cease to exist. This judgment will last for many, many years and we will be left as a third world country. Don't believe it? Just look at scripture. It is full of examples of what God did to nations that continually ignored Him.

Judgment is first for you and me and then the world. I heard a very prominent preacher once say that the 9/11 attack was not God's judgment because the church was not judged first. I think we have been judged and are being judged. How? By the lack of His presence in our midst. By the lack of the miraculous in America. Sure miracles happen from time to time, but if we are so intimate with Him then why is there so much sin in the church?

Let us move away from an old mindset and move forward towards Him. Let us make a place where He can find rest in us. Lest us make ourselves ready. Let us return to our first love and not to programs. I hope you are getting my point. I can hear the aging remnant saying: yes I know all of this. I am talking to you more than anyone else. The last thing you did for God. Did you see Yeshua, the Holy Spirit or the Father doing in first? Oh, how utterly important this is. I am not there yet, nor do I think I will be next week, but I will get there for His sake. The consequences of not trying are far too great. I want to see you in heaven. I want to hear of all of your great and mighty exploits in intimacy for the LORD.

May God bless us with Intimacy!

Yesterdays revelation is todays death.

A Call To My Faithful

Yolanda Ballard

Nov 5, 2004

Never before have I seen such desperate and fervent desire to have Me move on the behalf of My people come from the heart of My intercessor army. And I AM also moved by the commitment of My people to have Me place into office the man which would stand for moral dignity and truth. And I AM also moved by the compassion of My people toward those who need to know Me as their Lord and Savior. And I AM about to pour out My wrath upon those who have hardened their hearts against Me once again.

For I said in My word that I would move the hearts of My people towards Me. I know those who I gave My life for. I know those who would seek My face in this end time hour and repent of their wickedness, but there are still those people who will not humble themselves before Me in the secret place that I provided for them.

What will it take for My people to draw close to Me once again? I have poured out My grace and mercy, and I have given them their heart's desire to have a man whose heart is pliable towards Me lead them as a nation. I have provided protection against the forces of darkness who seek to destroy them. And I have also provided the way in which they could dwell in peace and safety, but yet they still act like they don't know Me.

I love you, My people, and I long for you to come before Me to hear My voice. I seek after those who will long after My holiness to be their way of life--one who would love what I love and also hate what I hate? Why do you still go after the idolatry of the Nicolaitans? Why do you continue to be lukewarm of heart? For I do not want to have to spew you out of My mouth, but I will have to.

Come before Me once again and rent your heart and not your garments. Come before Me and pour out a heart that longs for repentance and change. And I will bless you with My presence like never before, but you must take that step to come before Me. And I will take your hand and heart and change it to having a heart of love and compassion for My will and My ways. And then you will see the signs and wonders following My true word. And then you will see the multitudes come forth who seek after a word that is full of My grace and truth.

I know My people long to have their hearts stirred once again for holiness and conviction. They do not long to continue having the freedom to express themselves in an unholy way, but many have seared their hearts against My truth and need to cry out for repentance and the deliverance they need from complacency and apathy.

If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and I will heal their land. But you must pray and turn in order for Me to hear you. Otherwise, I will take it that you want things and conditions in this land to stay the way they are.

Come before Me. Let Me know what you want, and I will answer you. Draw near, come before Me, and I will draw near to you. Let us break bread together and become united with one mind and in one accord. Worship Me in the beauty of holiness. Delight yourself in My presence. Yes, bask in the rivers of living water, and I will fill you to overflowing. I will allow you to excel in My gifts, and you will once again see My truth and holiness reign among those who are called by My name.

The choice is yours to make for I AM ready to move in a mighty way, but I AM waiting for those who will step out and say that they want to be counted in My endtime army of holiness. I AM looking for those who will cast down their idols of pride and mammon and just delight in having Me move in their presence. You cannot fool a true believer those who try to bleed My people of their money. Why do you use methods known by the heathen to get what you think is My will to be done?

Seek My face and My righteousness and I will provide for My will to be done. Aren't I big enough to spread My word across the land? My word spread like wildfire by man that did not have your technology before, and I will do it once again if you would allow My anointing to flow through you where you dwell. Do not be deceived by the enemy. Return to the simplicity of just knowing and loving Me, and I will do the rest for I AM your God and I AM faithful.

This is a word to the wise and humble of heart. My people know My voice and will follow. Do not be afraid to admit when you are wrong. If you want your ministry to grow, seek Me for changes in your heart and the revelation of any area that might be holding you back.

This is a new day and a new beginning. I want you to take advantage of it. True revival begins with you. As you take steps to come before Me to seek My face and not My hand, I will bless you. Then agree with Me that I will touch the multitudes with My love and repentance. Believe for the best for your nation. Believe for My prosperity to spread across the land and for My truth to prevail. This is the time and the hour where I will pour out My power and through you I will move, but you must be ready.

This is a call to My faithful.

Africa Cries for Justice

Geoff Sadler

I'm currently in Atlanta, Georgia at the G8 prayer summit which is running con-currently with the actual G8 summit on Sea Island Georgia. This afternoon we had a major visitation of the glory of the Lord. It was a heavy presence and for most of the worship time all we could do is cry out "Have mercy Lord." Most of us were either face down on the floor or weeping. When this lifted there was a real sense that what we were experiencing was God's heart for the injustice that is going on in regards to some of the poorer African nations. It was as if spiritual blindness was lifted as God revealed his feelings and opinion of what is going on globally. Two of the people leading the meeting felt also, that at the actual G8 table where the leaders were meeting there was a real feeling of not really knowing what to do, but of covering it up and so, being in a place of unreality.

Because of agricultural subsidies in the European countries and America, it means that the poorer African nations aren't able to compete in the world market, creating poverty and a feeling of helplessness in their own governments.

A lady from Kenya was asked to come and pray and as she did so, she poured out her heart about how she also, feels helpless and mistreated. Intense weeping came on the man who was praying with her and all he could do was beg for forgiveness. We were all able to pray as one after that for justice to be released for the African nations and in the world markets.

Just this morning I was telling someone that I felt that God was calling me to take to another level, the repentance and reconciliation I have been doing in regards to Liverpool's involvement in the slave trade. Going from repentance, to seeking to lavish blessing on African American and African people. Both of these experiences are the basis for the following word that the Lord gave to me this evening.

"I hear your cries for justice oh Africa and I will not be slow to act. I am raising up many voices to plead your cause in the earth. For I hate greed and injustice and I will answer you, as you continue to cry out to me for mercy and justice. Know that my hand is not too short that it cannot save and my ear is not too deaf that it cannot hear. I will redeem your lands and I will pour out blessing upon you. Know that my promises come through faith and patience. Be patient therefore and press in, in faith. Knowing that I care about it more than you do yourselves. I will answer you. I will answer you. I will answer you. So be it."

A Call For Rest

Feb 14, 2004

Listen for My voice, says the Lord, for indeed many of you have become distracted and overcome by all the pressures of this life, and while this world has demanded your time, My time with My beloved has waned with it. It is not time to become independent, but to become dependent on Me and My strength. As you take My yoke upon you, you will find that most of what the Spirit instructs will bring minimum stress, for where the Spirit of the Lord is concerned, you are liberated. When My people spend less time with Me, their focus is shifted and many of you become discontented and discouraged. Though this is a groaning from the inner man to be refreshed at the well of My presence, many of you turn for answers and refreshment from broken cisterns and parched land. Return now and rest.

Questioning God

Feb 16, 2004

Yesterday I was reading chapters 38, 39 and 40 of the Book of Job in which the Lord heftily questioned Job about whether he was able to accomplish the things that he, the Lord had done since the beginning of time. These questions had resulted from a complaining in Job's heart as to why the Lord had allowed all these calamities that he had experienced to come upon him. As I read the Lord spoke to me and said:

Beloved as I questioned Job when he questioned My ways and plans so I am doing it again in this season. Can man truly know My ways and thoughts? Can man truly comprehend what I have done, am doing and shall do in the days to come? Who are you to question Me. Did you create the heavens and the earth? Did you create the boundaries between the seas and the lands? Do not allow discontentment to take its place in you. Your focus is shifting and you have began to question what I am doing. You have began to question My power. I cannot be moved. With one blare of My nostrils I parted the Red Sea and created a way for Israel. In My anger I caused the ground to swallow up the sons of Korah in their rebellion. There is no victory without a battle. For many of you the battle is stronger than others, but the principle still remains the same: FAITH. For without faith you cannot please Me. Without faith you cannot launch out into the deep knowing that I am with you despite what may seem to you an impossible situation.

> Job 40:1-3 Then the Lord said to Job, ?Do you still want to argue with the Almighty? You are God's critic, but do you have the answers? Then Job replied to the Lord I am nothing-how could I ever find the answers? I will put my hand over my mouth in silence. I have said too much already. I have nothing more to say.

Sons And Daughters Of The Third Day
Musa Opiyo

Feb 17, 2004
For you are the people of the Third Day. With the same resurrection power that raised Me from the dead I come to raise you up out of the pit into My righteousness. You are My sons and daughters who will ride on the currents of the wind of My Spirit. You are those to whom I have put My Spirit and to whom I have bestowed favor. You are those who will not tolerate and ounce of oppression of the enemy, but who will rise up in My power and strength and declare, 'It is written.'

My sons and daughters of this day I say arise. To those who are close to despair and discouragement I say arise. To those of you to whom your finances are close to nil, I say arise, and see that your redemption draws nigh even at this time. I am your Redemption. I am your Inheritance. Even now are the angels fighting on your behalf as you declare and speak My praises. Do not be afraid to break forth into song, for I shall put a song in your heart to which you will sing in joy. You shall go out with joy and gladness for those of My people who have been in a season of mourning. This is the time and this is the season. Rejoice, sons and daughters of the Most High God.

Acceleration of Time

Behold I set the plumbline of holiness among My people where your eyes shall be open and you shall see clearly that which is holy from that which profanes and mocks My name. Behold I set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Many are at the Valley of Decision at this moment, for things cannot be as the are normally, for yea, there is an acceleration of time in which the darkness which is already upon the earth shall grow darker, while My Glory shall shine upon My people in complete contrast to this darkness.

For the enemy has sent a spirit of deception to deceive and lure away even My very elect. My people it is time to wake up. It is time to be sober and vigilant, for the enemy of your souls has come with the intention to steal, kill and destroy and lead man away, yet I have called you out of this darkness that you might partake of My inheritance.

Choose this day whom you will give your heart to, your desire to, for the demarcation line has been set, and all shall clearly see who belongs to what camp. Come and let Me sanctify you in My presence, that I would teach you the ordinances of My Word. Let Me wash and purge you clean to set your feet dancing even as you embrace Me.

Soar As Eagles
Musa Opiyo

zia6rg@msn.com
March 7, 2004
Watch now as I release you to new heights. For it is an invitation to come up higher in Me. For in this day I am releasing My people from the anchors and weights that have held them, and they shall know a new liberty in My Spirit. As you rise up and take flight and soar as eagles, as you hear the clarion call of your God to spread your wings and let the wind of My Spirit carry you to My Holy Mountain, beware of the vultures that have been sent to distract you and sow seeds of discord among you for the purpose of stopping your flight.

For many of them shall gather above you in the sky and cause as it were a temporary darkness for the purpose of bringing fear. Yet My Warriors, fear not. For you are My victorious army of men and women, boys and girls who know that greater is he who is in you than he that is in the world. As these spirits approach, I say arise, take flight and let the glory of the Lord shine upon you.

As the eagles high pitches screech is feared and known so the enemy and his forces of darkness shall scatter at the sound of praise on your lips. For My light shall break through this fog of darkness and dissipate all that would hinder you from moving foward. Arise, and let the glory of the Lord shine through you.

"Arise, Shine; for thy light has come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee."-Isaiah 60:1

A Cry From The Heart
Heidi Cummins

A Cry For Our Nation! A Cry For The Church Of The Most High God!

"Lord, we have sinned against you and you ALONE!

Lord, we do not deserve to even raise our eyes to you, so great is our wickedness!

Oh, we don't even deserve to even wear your name!

Have Mercy upon us, Oh have Mercy!

Your children's eyes are full of adultery and sin!

We look to our amusements and our pastimes as if these empty things can satisfy us! We lust and we seek out those things that can never fulfill us, that can never heal us, but only bring heartache and misery and death upon ourselves!

Oh Lord, these things can never satisfy! How we need your Living Water to fill our empty souls!

Our idols have filled our hearts with iniquity!

We seek and we seek!

We lust and we lust! Only to find that we have reaped death and destruction upon ourselves!

Unless you heal your children, we will never see the light of day! Unless you come and heal us, have Mercy upon us, we are doomed to death!

Oh Lord, we don't deserve your goodness and love! Please come and heal your children, the one's who bare your Holy name! A name that is ABOVE ALL NAMES!

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS!

For you so love us, but we have forsaken you and turned aside our idols of amusement and pleasure, while you have watched your children with tears in your eyes!

You have called and called but we haven't answered!

We have turned aside to our wickedness and closed our eyes to the HOLY ONE!

Oh beloved, do not forsake your Holy God!

Oh beloved, chosen by the Lord, do not forsake the Holy One Of Israel!

Oh beloved, cry out to your Lord and your Redeemer!

Perhaps He will pity us and bestow Mercy upon us and heal us.

A people who have forsaken His Holy Name!

A people who have prostituted themselves upon their many other lovers!

A people who have merchandized and profited from the Holiness of His Name! We have turned aside from our true Love, the Lover of our souls!

We buy and sell His name without a second glance! We don't deserve to lift our shameful heads to Him!

We have treated your Name as if it were a common and base thing! Oh, have Mercy upon us, MOST HOLY LORD!

WE HAVE FORSAKEN YOU OH LORD! WE HAVE FORSAKEN YOU!

Pity us Lord.

Pity us and come heal your people who are called by your Name.

The World Will Have To Deal With The Cross

Heidi Cummins

Jesus asked one of His disciples, Peter, "Who do you say that I am?"

Jesus is bringing this question to the whole world right now and asking this present generation, "Who do you say that I am?"

The people of the world(including the Church) will have to deal with the reckoning of the cross. It is being brought to their attention- Jesus is bringing it to the forefront of their attention.

They will have to make a choice. The whole world will have to make a choice about Jesus. They will either accept Jesus or reject Jesus based on who they believe Jesus is.

There is no more middle ground. There is no more wiggle room. You are either for Jesus completely, or you are against Jesus completely. You can't be half for Jesus anymore. You can't be half against Jesus anymore. It is all or nothing.

The choice is your's and your's alone to make. Mom, Dad, brother, sister, relative, friend, cannot make the choice for you. It must be your's and your's alone. By your words, you be held accountable.

To the world, Jesus asks "Who do you say I am?"

Every individual's destiny, hinges on that question.

Soon it will be answered by every person on the face of the earth. Those in the world will give their final answer. There will be no turning back. This will be their final decision.

A Chosen Generation
Danny Korakas

I sense from the Lord a time and season of sharing from the heart in the body of Christ. There is a feeling of freedom and an environment that produces refreshing when we simply express our hearts to one another. I believe that this conditions us to hear the expression of God's heart. The Lord has been ministering to me about the importance of children…Not just superficial or obvious feelings toward our young people, but a desperate and convicting revelation of the Father's heart concerning our kids.

We had a birthday party for our son last weekend. I saw in my backyard all of the children having so much fun as they jumped on the trampoline and participated in the events that my wife Carole had planned for them. The parents were scattered about the backyard standing with approval and joy at the sight of their children having so much fun and building meaningful relationships with other children. It occurred to me how much we need groups or clusters of parents to take a corporate interest in the lives of our FUTURE. The Lord ministered to me the words "Corporate Investments."

I believe that the paradigm shift that we have been expecting in the church is going to be the wholesale investment in our future…Our children. I can think of no greater investment. Can you? We must wake up as the church and build relationships with one another as parents for the purpose of sowing the family and corporate identity that the church is supposed to represent. The Bible WARNS us that we have many teachers, but few spiritual fathers and mothers.

A staggering 80-94% (depending on the study) of evangelical (church attending) young people coming out of a youth ministry or group will say "no more Jesus" by the lifestyle that they live after 4 years of college. Obviously, we have a serious problem that is perpetuating year by year. Our children are being influenced by the world instead of influencing the world. The spirit of this world through media, entertainment, divorce, and political propaganda is luring the souls of many young people into its grasp at alarming rates. If we don't get our heads out of sand and face this thing, we are going to continue to lose our future history makers and life changers…I am no longer satisfied with the "remnant" mentality. My heart desire is to see an entire generation coming into a sold-out relationship with Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. And you know what, it starts with us. It's easy to put this all on the Holy Spirit or a youth minister like we've done in the past and neglect OUR responsibility as SPIRITUAL PARENTS and nurturers.

We need fathers who will take an interest in the lives of young boys who have lost their fathers. Every teenage boy needs a father figure, who will BELIEVE IN HIM and teach him the manhood and value of abstinence. Without a strong male influence of encouragement and affirmation, a young man will continue on a path of sexual promiscuity to meet his need of acceptance and sense of value. We need moms who will come together and teach their young women the virtues of hospitality and a gentle spirit rather than the act of gossip and back-biting. Our young women need adults who will take an interest and place a higher value on their inner-beauty. I believe that the Lord desires to change our whole way of thinking in how the church views our young people. I believe the Lord desires that we make this our primary outreach. The families of the world are looking for a model that we have failed to reflect. If you were to study church history in detail, you would find that what won people in multitudes to Christ was the simple love and fellowship that existed between the families of believers.

Our young people in the church are engaging in oral sex and justifying it as "keeping their virginity." Again, we have got to get our heads out of the sand and face the truth. We would much rather turn our heads and heart in another direction. This behavior, which is rationalized by a 15 or 16 year old, will soon turn to "who will be my first sexual partner" by 18. There is only one cure for this. It is the practice of giving our young people a platform of PURPOSE in the church and in our homes. We place secular demands upon our children to excel and receive an education. At the same time, we will do little if nothing in encouraging their spiritual education through Bible study and prayer in our homes. Why?

Which has greater moral and eternal significance? Have our young people reached just one of their peers for Christ? Why not? Do they even know how or have the spiritual understanding? Again, what are we really doing in this thing we call "church."

It is time that we begin coming together as parents to corporately encourage the spiritual growth and fire of our kids. The issues and struggles that today's youth must deal with need to be communicated to an older generation who will just shut-up for a minute and LISTEN. We absolutely stink at listening to our young people as a church body. We give them no time to express themselves in a spiritual and corporate setting. Why are we not allowing and encouraging our children and teens to bring the Word of God and pray for others with their pure and uncorrupted faith? I mean, what in the world are we coming together for? The issues of sexuality, rebellion, and addictive tendencies in our young people can be easily overcome by an environment of corporate love within the church for them. They have got to know that we care deeply for them, and that we will listen to their concerns with sincerity. When they realize that they have spiritual value and are vital to the life and future of the church – they will be a light in a dark world and a history maker in their generation.

I know that my last article "Counting To Ten" was a hard word for some to digest. I am ok with that. What I not ok with, is having a generation with so much promise, not prepared to receive their bridegroom. As the church, we have been given the tremendous privilege of preparing and encouraging a generation that will prepare the way of the Lord!

A Prophetic Word
Danny Korakas

Nov 7, 2004

Whether we want to face it or not, the prophetic movement is in a season of being called to repentance for the abuses that we have allowed to infiltrate into the clarity of its purpose and function. There is a tension in the prophetic body of Christ concerning how to respond to this Fall season in prophetic ministry.

I sincerely believe that there is in fact a call from the Lord to repent on behalf of prophetic ministry and to look into our hearts for areas of hypocrisy and agenda. The problem that is arising is two-fold. The first is that there has been a lack of wisdom in calling for repentance. Many prophets are correctly hearing the Lord's call to repentance. However, this message when communicated to the body of Christ has become "slanted and mixed" with frustration, anger, and misunderstanding causing strife and un-needed finger pointing. Beloved, this is what the world feeds off of in its criticism of the church. We cannot single out a hand full of "leaders" and place the blame on them…Prophetic ministry touches the masses, but is very personal and individual in calling. (The words of the prophet are subject to the prophet) In other words, we cannot associate the good or the ugly within prophetic ministry on a few individuals. We ALL (individually) must look into the heart of God and His Word for the areas of our heart that He desires to touch and change.

Secondly, our human nature is to revert to areas of comfort in times of change and confrontation. If we are being confronted in truth by the Lord, then we need to humbly submit. We can go to the far end of the spectrum and call for nothing but encouragement, light-hearted, and soft words to tickle our ears and miss the voice and heart of God for our corporate well-being.

We must not partner with the accuser of the brethren and fall to his deceptions of causing divisions. (A house divided will not stand) On the other hand, let's not forget our mandate to build and encourage, nor to confront and proclaim truth in love.

Building The Kingdom

We are to seek first the kingdom of God (Matthew 6:33). But, what is the kingdom of God? Is it ministry and other "heavenly minded" pursuits? Jesus helps us understand His kingdom perspective when He said, "let the children come to me ... for such is the kingdom of Heaven" (Matthew 19:14). Based on this, we understand that the kingdom is "people." This makes good sense. Of all God's marvelous creations, people are the only ones He called "very" good.

After God blessed the first man and woman, He gave them a commission — to be fruitful and multiply. This commission extends to us as well. What does that really mean? Perhaps it means more than to populate the earth through procreation. Perhaps it means to bear good fruit and reproduce ourselves spiritually. Remember, the first thing God did upon creating man was to bless them. We are blessed of the Lord and we are also to bless one another. As we bless one another, we build the kingdom by building relationships

We read in John 15:13, "Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends." Jesus did this when He died for us (see Romans 5:8). He who knew no sin became sin for us (see 2 Corinthians 5:21). He laid down his life (died) that we might live. How do we lay down our life? It's easy to say that we have laid down our "self" or "life" for others. But how does this build relationships ... and the kingdom of God? There are some practical things that we can do on behalf of others that will truly have eternal significance.

MAKE TIME
Time is perhaps our most precious resource. It can't be bought, only spent. Once spent, it can never be replaced. The way we spend our time is a reflection of our priorities. Do we spend our time on ourselves – meeting our needs and accomplishing our agendas? Or, do we spend our time on others – meeting their needs? There must be a healthy balance; we must not neglect ourselves, but neither do we need to neglect others. We need to carefully examine the way we spend our time – making sure that we are being led of Holy Spirit as we build relationships rather than "ministering" to people because we have a desire/need to "minister." You see, once we move into ministry to meet "our" needs, we are setting ourselves up to worship the "ministry idol."

Just because we are busy doing things for other people doesn't necessarily mean that we are being led of the Spirit in building His kingdom. A good barometer to check this is to examine our close relationships. Are we spending time building the relationships with the ones (family and friends) that He has entrusted to us? Are we spending more time "doing things" for others outside of our sphere of influence than we are for our family and friends? Do we neglect the ministry in our own homes because we lack time (because we're too busy with "ministry")?

PRAY
Prayer on behalf of another is perhaps the most selfless thing we can offer. When we pray for one another, we most often do it behind closed doors. No one knows that we've poured our heart and time out for them. When we see the prayers answered in the lives of others, we can't claim any credit because all glory belongs to the Lord for His intervention.

We read in James 5:16 that we are to "pray for one another" and that "the effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much." Prayer is one vitally important and practical way that we lay down our life (our time, agenda, etc.) for our loved ones. This is just one instance in scripture that we are admonished to pray for others. We ought to cherish the time that we spend with the Lover of our Soul — listening to Him and talking to Him. It's in these intimate times with Him that we can lift one another to Him. He loves for us to lift others to Him. After all, this is what Jesus does on our behalf (see Romans 8:34) ... and in doing so, we become Christ-like.

DEMONSTRATE LOVE/SUPPORT

Jesus's prayer was that we (that means you and me) be one as He and His Father are one (see John 17:22). We are "one" when we sincerely "love one another" as Jesus commands us to do (see John 13:34 and 15:12). We read of a powerful example of love in Romans 5:8. "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Our Father and His Son "demonstrated" their love toward us. Notice, it wasn't enough for them to say they love us (although this is important and we are not to neglect doing this), they demonstrated love through action.

We are to demonstrate our love to one another. We are commanded to "be doers of the Word, and not hearers only" (James 1:22). We also glean from this verse that if we are a "hearer only," we are deceived. This means we follow Jesus (the living Word) by being a "doer" of His example and written word. In other words, we are to put our faith in Him into action.

Perhaps the most practical way that we demonstrate our love for another is in support. We need to support one another in the things that are important to them. Whether it be attending a special ministry opportunity (either that the Lord has opened for them to minister... or one in which they will be ministered to), attending special functions (such as baptisms, weddings, showers, retirement parties, luncheons or receptions honoring individuals), or contributing financial support (for things such as mission trips, moving expenses, or special ministry projects such as CD's, tapes, or books).

Our words become cheap when they are not backed up with action. We must support one another. Failure to do so indicates the true attitude of our heart — that we don't care, that we really don't want others to grow/succeed or that and that we are not "do-ers of the Word."

EXAMINE SELF

We must ask ourselves, "Why do I with-hold time, prayers and support from others? Do I not recognize or discern their genuine needs? Do I truly care about the body? Do I care more about my ministry or agenda than- I do about others? Am I insecure in who God created/called me to be ... and consequently feel threatened by others? Do I compare myself with others ... and feel that I don't measure up and don't have much to offer? Am I jealous of the calling, anointing, accomplishments, ministries, or success of others?" As we allow Holy Spirit to reveal the answers to these questions, we must embrace Our King of Kings who wore a crown of thorns and bore stripes for our sakes — that we might be healed ... spiritually, emotionally and physically. He desires to bring healing and wholeness into our lives ... so that we (like Christ) might be instruments of healing and wholeness in the lives of others.

CONCERNING CORPORATE BODIES

Each of us is a member of the body of Christ. As such, we are to be connected to other members in the body ... whether in churches, ministries or home fellowships. Each member in the body of Christ is vitally important to the functioning, growth and health of the whole body. For example, our hand is useful for rubbing a sore knee, wiping sweat from a brow, scratching an itch or writing a letter. None of these functions could be accomplished in quite the same way with an elbow or foot. Likewise, our hand isn't very useful for walking, supporting our body weight or thinking. These functions are supported and relied upon by different body parts. So it is in the body of Christ. Each of us has a vitally important function ... which another cannot fill (and vise versa).

In the body of Christ, there are people to be reached and functions to be performed that God has ordained for us. He has prepared us for this since birth. We need to realize that He has wired each of us differently and has prepared a different function for us. We must embrace one another with our unique differences ... and BUILD one another within the body so that each member can supply its part and reach those outside the body (those who are being drawn by Holy Spirit and who will one day believe). We must begin to invest our time, prayers and support in one another. This is a sign of spiritual maturity and security for individuals. It's also a prerequisite for a healthy body. Bodies are living organisms made up of many parts. The whole body is only as healthy as each part that makes up the whole. As we build one another, we will build a healthy body. The degree to which corporate bodies make time, pray and support one another will determine the degree to which they fulfill their corporate destiny.

REAP RELATIONSHIPS ... AND BUILD THE KINGDOM
One important kingdom principle is that we reap what we sow. When we sow into other's lives, we will reap a harvest. When we say we care, but don't demonstrate it through making time to support others through prayers and actions, our words become cheap ... and we will ultimately reap the consequences. We must demonstrate that we care through our words, prayers and actions; others will be blessed ... and so will we.

We must invest in those things of eternal significance. The only thing that really has eternal significance is the souls of people — relationships. Ministries, various accomplishments, and activities may be tools to reach others and build relationships, but they in and of themselves are not of eternal significance. We must differentiate between building ministries and building relationships. We must seek first the kingdom (relationships) ... and build the kingdom ... one relationship at a time. A Kingdom is not made of stone buildings, but of living stones. Likewise, our King does not reign over our buildings and programs. He reigns over His people and their relationships with Him and one another.

If we can't be faithful to the ones He's already entrusted to us (through practical ministry) , why should we expect Him to entrust some wonderful "ministry" to us for the sake of others? When we withhold what we know others close to us need (and what He desires us to give), we are demonstrating our selfishness, greed and insecurity ... rather than the fruit of the Spirit. When we are faithful to the ones He has entrusted to us, we will reap healthy relationships ... and produce a healthy body. We must give of our time, prayers and support for the sake of others. Only then will His kingdom come on Earth as it is in Heaven.

Islam The Murder Of Morality
Danny Korakas

The year is now 623 (year 2 in the Islamic calendar and Muhammad is 53 years old. The Muslims had now settled in Medina and were taking over the cultural identity of the town. Their hometown of Mecca laid 200 miles to the south and would prove to later be a place of declared war. However, the main and most pressing problem would be the desperate poverty of the refugees who accompanied Muhammad to Medina. They were unskilled in business and farming and had to hire themselves out to Medina's more wealthy as laborers.

However, these impoverished Meccans did understand the caravan trade and how the Bedouin clans would seize upon them through raids known as "razzias." Muhammad thought and realized that a program of razzias could change this Bedouin practice into a sort of Muslim sponsored enterprise. This would in turn solve the Muslim's financial problems. Medina would serve and prove to be an excellent base of attack and retreat. The Muslim razzias would be justified as a "holy mission" performed for "god." Essentially, Muslims involved could murder without qualm. If they died, paradise awaited them and if they lived, they prospered.

The first several Muslim razzias proved to be disastrous. Finally, one would be successful when they ventured far south and intercepted a caravan loaded with wine, raisins and leather goods. It was unguarded becuase the southern routes were considered safe and it was the month of pilgrimage to the Ka'ba when fighting was prohibited. Needless to say, the entire shipment fell into the Muslim's hands.

Muhammad seems to have been troubled that this razzias took place during the sacred month and berated the leader of the raiding party. The chastened leader asked if he should return the stolen goods...Muhammad consulted Gabriel, who thought it best not to return the goods! "Warring during the sacred month is greivous, said he, but to obstruct the way of god and deny him is more grievous still." (Sura 2:217)

This statement would prove to be a defining moment and principle in Islamic conduct. If accepted moral rules need not apply to the servants of Allah, Muhammad now discerned that Muslims could justifiably lie, steal, and kill to accomplish any "holy" purpose. Once this matter was resolved, four-fifths of the booty went the raiders and their families and one-fifth given to Muhammad. Thus, stealing and pillage became an expression of devotion to Allah.

"Then Jesus said to them again, 'Most assuredly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. All who ever came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief does not come except to STEAL, and to KILL, and to DESTROY. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly." (John 10:7-10)

Clouds Without Water
Danny Korakas

Nov 6, 2004

> "These men are those who are hidden reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you without fear, caring for themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, doubly dead, uprooted; wild waves of the sea, casting up their own shame like foam; wandering stars, for whom the black darkness has been reserved for." (Jude 12-13)

The book of Jude is filled with metaphors or "word pictures" that help increase our vision and understanding. A metaphor or word picture is a style of language. They speak of one subject matter or activity and are used in place of another to suggest a likeness between them. I have found that I like to use the phrase, "Woven into the fabric of." This is a metaphor that allows us to paint a picture in our minds eye of the closeness and interconnection of the threads as they are sown together. We find that we will often use metaphors to communicate a thought more clearly to another. We read in the Gospels that Jesus often used metaphors to communicate spiritual and moral truth. Just as we carefully select our metaphors to express our point, Jude expressed himself by using metaphors in the verses above to provide a picture for us to discern false teachers.

Through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, Jude used five metaphors to describe certain individuals who had "woven into the fabric" of the early church. Somehow, these people, who were HIDDEN reefs and clouds without water (virtually invisible to the natural eye), had infiltrated and corrupted the harmony and PURPOSE of the church.

So, who were these infiltrators? I believe we can discern from the verses above that they were first of all, "FALSE TEACHERS." These false teachers and their followers held to new ideas and doctrines that the early apostles had not validated through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Many of these teachings would move and grow into the second century, known as Gnosticism. Gnostic teachings fostered an environment and excuse for fleshly indulgences, including the tolerance of homosexuality as a permissible lifestyle. Gnosticism twisted and corrupted scripture to meet the agenda of its proponents.

Many of these false teachers grew up in the church and considered themselves to be "Christians." These individuals had become so wrapped up in "revelation and enlightenment" that they slowly strayed away from the orthodox faith of their spiritual fathers. The word "gnosis" is the Greek equivalent for "knowledge." These people (Gnostics) considered themselves to be superior to the masses in spirituality because of their self-proclaimed acquisition of spiritual knowledge and their claims to ultimately understand the mind of God. Simply put, these people really believed that they were a special class of the spiritual elite.

The five metaphors or word pictures used in these verses not only denounce false teachers, but they expose their strategy and tactics. The metaphors used by Jude not only reveal the character of these first century deceivers, they also vividly paint a picture for us to recognize false teachers in the church today.

The first metaphor used in verse 12 is "HIDDEN REEFS." 2 Peter 13 refers to these people as "spots" or "blemishes." I like this translation of "hidden reefs" because it goes so well with the other metaphors that all contain elements that relate to nature or what is "natural" (fleshly and temporal). The picture of a hidden reef comes into clarity when we visualize a sailboat sailing smoothly over the waters. Everything seems to be calm and still and there is no NATURAL VISION of the danger that lies ahead within the hidden reefs.

The Titanic was the largest and safest vessel of its time. The people on board were confident, comfortable, and without fear. Then suddenly and without warning, disaster struck with major destruction and even death. The real danger that sunk this mighty vessel was below the surface and out of sight of those who were on the look-out with NATURAL VISION.

One of the highlights and ministries of the first century church was the fellowship suppers or "Love Feasts." Jude exposes these false teachers as those who were hidden and would eventually "shipwreck" those who were UNDISCERNING and not grounded in the Word of God. Likewise, false teachers are "hidden" in the church today. They destroy the purposes and destinies of many of God's children through their doctrines of control and religion. False teachers will usually hold tight to "their" pulpit and not allow others in the congregation to teach or preach the Word of God. They will use the guise that they "must steward the calling of God and monitor what is spoken behind THEIR pulpit." What these "teachers" are proclaiming is that they are on a higher spiritual level than the masses. Is this not whom Jude was addressing?

Look, the purpose of authentic and godly teachers is to reproduce themselves in others for the purposes of expressing the heart and Word of God. We must create an environment of spiritual learning and destiny. We must also have the wisdom to embrace mistakes along the way as we provide a platform for people to exercise and strengthen their spiritual gifts. Any other format of "church" reproduces "religion", reliance and un-fulfillment. A reliable study has indicated that 80% of all church attendees will leave a church in their lifetime. This percentage excluded career changes or relocation. The statistics showed that the greatest reason for people leaving a church was "un-fulfillment." People simply felt that they had little spiritual value. We can see the obvious results of this in that most of our new "members" are coming from another church rather than being a new convert.

When a new-born baby is learning to walk, we do not spank or beat them down when they fall. This will only stunt their God-given ability to walk. We encourage our babies to keep trying and to keep walking with praise as a reward. We soon find that not only are they walking, but running! However, we see just the opposite in the church. We see the false teachers and hypocrites beating down those who are just beginning to move into their spiritual gifts and destiny. In other words, "they are not going to allow you to fall down or make a mistake." They demand that you either run or don't walk at all. Our job as leaders and teachers is to encourage our inexperienced sailors to avoid the hidden reefs and to check and discern the waters before venturing out. Nonetheless, we must encourage the people of God to venture out into their destiny. And finally, we always supply them and teach them how to read the "MAP" that the Lord has given us to navigate the waters of life.

The second metaphor that is used is "clouds without water, carried along by the winds." It is important that we understand the natural environment of Israel and the surrounding areas to really appreciate what is being described. After the arid or dry season, the parched land thirsts for the coming rains. Imagine the disappointment of a farmer (who has planted his crop for his livelihood) who sees the clouds blow in quickly without producing a drop of rain. These clouds give a visual appearance of hope and promise, but produce no nourishment, refreshment, and eventual fruit.

This is descriptive of not only the false teachers in Jude's day, but in our day as well. These people give a visual impression that they have water (a word from the Spirit of God) for our thirsty souls, but there is no substance or scriptural foundation to their message. We may come away smiling and "feeling" encouraged, but did the message base its foundation on the Word of God and really bring permanent change to our life? Only the words of the Bible have the power through the Spirit of God to bring lasting repentance, deliverance, and answers to life's issues.

It seems that many of the "popular" teaching and prophetic voices of today have a mandate to earn a following through messages that are comfortable and easy on the ears. These teachings are "clouds without rain" appealing to our flesh and love of comfort. However, our souls are left to thirst for the true Word of God. People have been created by God to seek what is spiritual. It is a part of our creative make-up as individuals. It is the heart and core of our spirit. People (including believers) without the Word of God will seek to drink anything to satisfy the intense thirst of their souls. Much too often, many are left to drink from "BITTER WATERS."

In Exodus 15:22-27, Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea through the Wilderness of Shur. They wandered for three days and came to the waters of Marah. "Now when they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah for they were bitter...And the people complained against Moses, saying, 'What shall we drink?' So he cried out to the Lord, and the Lord showed him a tree. When cast it into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There He (God) made a regulation for them, and there He TESTED them, and said, if you diligently heed the voice of the Lord your God and do what is right in His sight, give ear to His commandments and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians. For I am the Lord who HEALS you."

Just a couple of weeks ago, we had a woman who moves prophetically in our congregation come to the front of the church in the midst of worship and the adoration of our Lord to simply prophesy by reading the Word of God. We had a first time visitor that day who had been suffering from an ailment. She testified that the power of God came upon her at that time and healed her of this serious ailment. It was just that simple — the power of prophecy through the spoken Word of God through faith in Jesus Christ. Remember, the Bible states that Jesus Christ (the Word) is the Spirit of prophecy. The beauty and simplicity of genuine prophetic ministry is to create an environment of intercession, worship, and adoration soaked in the Word of God and spoken forth in faith.

The true teaching ministry (whether pastoral, apostolic, or prophetic) does not have its focus on "cosmic" revelations to wow us. It brings healing, encouragement, and affirmation, along with challenge and even rebuke if needed, to everyday life. Everyday life is many times acquainted with hurt, questions in need of an answer, personal and emotional needs, and change. Real teachers bring the water of God's Spirit to refresh and revive the thirsty soul. They help prepare the soil and spiritual growth of others so that they bear fruit that remains. The greatest "professors" are not those who weren't quite good enough for their field of dreams; they are those who care deeply for the destinies of others above themselves and material wealth. True teachers are those who prepare the "destinies" of tomorrow.

The FALSE TEACHERS who have infiltrated the church have caused many to drink from the "bitter waters of Marah." The church is so spiritually thirsty for more of God that they have settled for messages that lack challenge, conviction, and the authority of God's Word. The church has gorged herself on fast food and junk food for so long (When was the last time you heard just one chapter of God's Word read in church?) that it has become a couch potato in its pews because they have not been given the chance to EXERCISE their spiritual gifts and abilities in a corporate setting. The spiritual needs of many "teachers" are being met at the expense of most believers going through a perpetual cycle of inactivity and un-fulfillment.

As teachers, we should be challenging and equipping people (especially young people) to share the Word of God by giving them a platform to fulfill what the Lord has called them to do in building His Kingdom. Our present model of church with its "orator and audience" format has driven people to drink from the bitter wells of psychic hotlines, New Age philosophies, false religions, and secular humanism to meet the THIRST of their soul for life's answers and true love.

Does a "false teacher" have to be pagan or an unbeliever? No, I don't think so. A false teacher is simply one who refuses to teach and speak the TRUTH.

15 "I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. 16 So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth. 17 Because you say, 'I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing' — and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked — 18 I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me. 21 To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

“So many lives hang in the balance of eternity right now. This is an hour for prayer and for worship; for priestly ministry. It is an hour for speaking the Word in faith. The world is on the edge of eternity and some would have you believe that things will go on and on and on. The signs are all around you, that the antichrist is here and living and soon to gain position for his end times role. You are creating life as if you can manipulate and mimic My creation.
You have altered the life cycle of plants and animals, transferred species all over the world, upsetting the order of everything that is made. Pollution fills the oceans and lakes, and waters just about everywhere. People are dying daily from oppression , disease and starvation. Ethnic wars abound. The electronic chip system is being implemented in nations. The earth is groaning, and all is set for the man of sin to appear once major disasters catapult the economic system into chaos. The war of all wars looms on the horizon. Yet many are still slumbering, still business as usual, as in the days of Noah.

People mock My name day in and day out. Spiritual blindness and deafness has affected the lives of ordinary men and women, and children are taught humanistic and pagan principles in schools. Compromise has filled many churches called by My name, for a long time now. Don’t you think I have been patient? Don’t you think that wake up calls have been given enough to shake people? Yet people go on in their complacency and apathy. You must pray and worship and war with the weapons I’ve given you, and you must continue to REST in My arms of love in communion with ME, that you will be prepared. PREPARE YE THE WAY OF THE LORD, I have said. How did they prepare for Pentecost? That is how you need to prepare now! Worship, pray, read, LISTEN for Me to talk back to you, and then DO what I ask you to do. The wind blows where it will, and so must you also be led of the Spirit [Ruach Elohim]. Let ME be Your Adonai!

KNOW that if you are in true relationship with ME, that you will be hidden in the day of My wrath. For again I will come like a mighty rushing wind and there will be a new day, and My people will know Me, My people will agree to do My will alone!

7 Judah; They shall feed their flocks there; In the houses of Ashkelon they shall lie down at evening. For the LORD their God will intervene for them, and return their captives.
8 "I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the people of Ammon, with which they have reproached My people, and made arrogant threats against their borders. 9 Therefore, as I live, "Says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "Surely Moab shall be like Sodom, and the people of Ammon like Gomorrah — Overrun with weeds and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation. The residue of My people shall plunder them, and the remnant of My people shall possess them."

10 This they shall have for their pride, because they have reproached and made arrogant threats against the people of the LORD of hosts. 11 The LORD will be awesome to them, for He will reduce to nothing all the gods of the earth; People shall worship Him, each one from his place, indeed all the shores of the nations.

You have heard the trumpet calls of My prophets and so I have said to draw near to ME, for the days grow more terrible in violence. Keep hidden in the shadow of My wings for I am Jehovah Sabaoth…I AM the LORD OF HOSTS.
I will defend My own. Throw off the unbelief that so surrounds you and CLING to ME! I AM YOUR ROCK AND HIGH TOWER. I AM THE ROCK OF DEFENSE AND YOUR INVINCIBLE ARMY! TRUST IN ME AND BE COURAGEOUS!

Matt 24:36-44 NKJV No One Knows the Day or Hour (Mark 13:32-37; Luke 17:26,27,34,35; 21:34-36)
36 "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only. 37 But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. 38 For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, 39 and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. 40 Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. 41 Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left. 42 Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming. 43 But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. 44 Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Mark 13:9-13 NKJV "But watch out for yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will be brought before rulers and kings for My sake, for a testimony to them. 10 And the gospel must first be preached to all the nations. 11 But when they arrest you and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand, or premeditate what you will speak. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. 12 Now brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. 13 And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But he who endures to the end shall be saved.

John 12:23-26 NKJV But Jesus answered them, saying, "The hour has come that the Son of Man should be glorified. 24 Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain. 25 He who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. 26 If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also. If anyone serves Me, him My Father will honor.

John 16:23-24 NKJV "And in that day you will ask Me nothing. Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you. 24 Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

Rev 3:3-4 NKJV Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you.

Rev 3:10-13 NKJV Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. 11 Behold, I am coming quickly! Hold fast what you have, that no one may take your crown. 12 He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more. I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God. And I will write on him My new name. "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'

Rom 8:20-23 NKJV For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; 21 because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. 23 Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body.

Truth or Consequences

2 John 4-9 NKJV Walk in Christ's Commandments
I rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father. 5 And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: that we love one another. 6 This is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

7 Beware of Antichrist Deceivers
For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. 8 Look to yourselves, that we do not lose those things we worked for, but that we may receive a full reward.
9 Whoever transgresses and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son.

2 John 10-11 AMP If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine [is disloyal to what Jesus Christ taught], do not receive him [do not accept him, do not welcome or admit him] into [your] house or bid him Godspeed or give him any encouragement. 11 For he who wishes him success [who encourages him, wishing him Godspeed] is a partaker in his evil doings.

There are many who think it is all right to compromise My Word. There are many who think that by being politically correct they can attain peace. Peace only comes through Jesus Christ! There is no peace with compromise! there is no peace to those who deny the truth. Joy comes from repentance. Joy comes from knowing ME and the sacrifice made by My Son for the sins of this world. He is your Peace Who has broken down every door.

Eph 2:14-16 NKJV For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation, 15 having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself one new man from the two, thus making peace, 16 and that He might reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby putting to death the enmity.

Those who are on the inside no longer walk trying to fulfill the law for My Son has fulfilled the law, and put to death the law with HIS BLOOD on the cross. But the Word of God stands forever and the law is to point to the TRUTH of HOLINESS, that you would know what is holy and what is profane. Yet, I have said if your holiness does not exceed that of the Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven! I have said, Be holy as I AM HOLY! The desire for holiness should come from your relationship with ME. When you love one another you desire to please one another in every way. A child normally desires to please their father and mother. When they displease them, they should be remorseful and try to change. That is because I have built into you a conscience.

When you strive and try too hard to attain to the law, then you are not under grace, but have ventured out into the Law of blessing and cursing; the enmity. You walk in witchcraft instead of GRACE! OH WHO HAS BEWITCHED YOU FOOLISH GALATIANS I SAID! For if you abandon the GRACE of GOD, provided by the CROSS and the precious blood of My Son, then you are in opposition to it. Either you are for ME or against ME…there is no middle ground. The religious spirit has become stronger, because it IS ANTICHRIST in nature. I have not called you to be religious but in RELATIONSHIP. HE whom the Son sets FREE is free indeed. Where the Spirit of the LORD is, there is LIBERTY. Yet many of my people walk around CAGED because of the judgments and criticisms of other Christians who don't know HOW to walk by the Spirit, but are walking under the CURSE OF THE LAW which only leads to condemnation and despondency, and defeatism.

I came to give you LIFE and that more abundantly. But when you judge one another, gossip and shame one another, and treat as outcasts those of the faith, then you walk in RELIGION and not in LOVE. YOU need to be a part of the healing and deliverance for one another….IRON sharpening IRON, not criticism and judgment, controlling one another and jealous of one another.
There is much work to be done in this hour and you must learn to walk together with those who are IN ME. For those who refuse to come in, they have chosen then, their OWN WAY and not the way of LIFE. CRY OUT for the revelation of MY GRACE FOR THEM! For I desire to break every chain that binds them. Cry out for the BAPTISM that those who do not know the power of MY SPIRIT will come to know it! Cry out for mercy and TRUTH to be revealed.

HUMBLE YOURSELF for the sake of your brothers and sisters and cry out for their freedom! TRUMPET MY CALL TO FREEDOM in LOVE and MERCY and GRACE…for I am coming with a tsunami of MY LOVE. I am coming with GLORY. But My glory is a two edged sword. It exposes, empowers and it cleanses, but it can also kill. Remember the high priest wore a cord, so that if he died in the presence of the Lord of Hosts in the most holy place, that others could drag him out? Remember that if you touched the Ark without holiness, that you were instantly killed?

Do I CHANGE? AM I LESS HOLY THAN I WAS THEN? DID NOT ANANIAS AND SAPPHIRA DIE FOR LYING TO THE HOLY SPIRIT.
DON'T I KNOW WHAT IS IN THE HEARTS OF MEN?

No you are not under the Law, but if you are trying to be, and are not accepting of my grace, and living in PRETENSE, then you are relying on SELF, and not on ME. I WANT you to understand this, because I am coming in POWER. If you disdain the TRUTH, how can it set you free? The fullness of truth is gradually attained. You are sanctified by the Truth. So then I AM HE Who judges the by the HEART. I alone know what is in the heart of man. I am not just coming to change you. I am coming to TRANSFIGURE YOU into MY LIKENESS that you may endure the days ahead. I WANT to pour out My love and it will break every chain. ASK NOW for that LOVE, that it may break the yokes of bondage that have so easily beset you. TAKE time for yourself to spend time IN ME to truly KNOW ME!

John 8:31-32 NIV Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."
1 Tim 4:2-3 AMP Through the hypocrisy and pretensions of liars whose consciences are seared (cauterized), 3 Who forbid people to marry and [teach them] to abstain from [certain kinds of] foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and have [an increasingly clear] knowledge of the truth.

2 John 1 AMP THE ELDERLY elder [of the church addresses this letter] to the elect (chosen) lady (Cyria) and her children, whom I truly love--and not only I but also all who are [progressively] learning to recognize and know and understand the Truth--

You cannot walk in obedience to my word till every chain is broken! As long as there are demonic strongholds on your soul, then there is inability to fully walk in ME. I KNOW those whose hearts are torn because they try, but can't seem to overcome. I know those who cry out for freedom. I know thse who have hearts of humility. I WILL ANSWER your cries for freedom!
I will baptize you in FIRE and every chain will be broken! I WILL HAVE A HOLY BRIDE!

1 John 3:20-24 AMP
20 Whenever our hearts in [tormenting] self-accusation make us feel guilty and condemn us. [For we are in God's hands.] For He is above and greater than our consciences (our hearts), and He knows (perceives and understands) everything [nothing is hidden from Him].
21 And, beloved, if our consciences (our hearts) do not accuse us [if they do not make us feel guilty and condemn us], we have confidence (complete assurance and boldness) before God,
22 And we receive from Him whatever we ask, because we [watchfully] obey His orders [observe His suggestions and injunctions, follow His plan for us] and [habitually] practice what is pleasing to Him.
23 And this is His order (His command, His injunction): that we should believe in (put our faith and trust in and adhere to and rely on) the name of His Son Jesus Christ (the Messiah), and that we should love one another, just as He has commanded us.
24 All who keep His commandments [who obey His orders and follow His plan, live and continue to live, to stay and] abide in Him, and He in them.
[They let Christ be a home to them and they are the home of Christ.] And by this we know and understand and have the proof that He [really] lives and makes His home in us: by the [Holy] Spirit Whom He has given us.

Watch What I DO

I desire mercy and not sacrifice I have said. So though men do not deserve it, when you show it to undeserving men or women, it is a character trait like Mine. For I am good to the ungrateful, even as I have been good to you when you have been ungrateful.

I love you and adore you, and you are My precious daughters and sons! I feel that way towards all My creation, though they spit on Me, and gnashed at Me with their gritted teeth, I died for them. I am about to do some transformations in such men, who think they know everything…who think because they have everything they could ever want, they don't need Me! I will bring revelation, and I will bring judgment depending on what is best for the situation, but watch and see what I will do in them who think they have Me all figured out!

I will take those who play ME for a fool, and they will eat the dust of the earth and grovel for mercy when I am done! I will shake their foundations and they will know that I am GOD! They will no longer think they can do ANYTHING apart from ME! Watch how I come into seminaries and shake them! Watch how I shake institutions of "higher" learning! Watch how I come into the palaces of KINGS and Rulers and SHAKE them to their knees! For I am ALMIGHTY! And though they have defied ME, they will bow down at MY FEET and yours! They will KNOW that I have loved you! The power of the CROSS will heal even the most hostile and wounded soul! There will be those who are beyond foolishness, and who have given themselves to wickedness, that will be ushered into MY KINGDOM, and they will cry out and bring in MANY MORE! I will take Mafia bosses and turn them into tender hearted bravehearts! I will take drug lords and turn them into Joshuas for My Kingdom! THERE is NOTHING too powerful for ME to heal and save and deliver!

I will take sons and daughters who have abandoned ME entirely thinking I have abandoned them in their woundedness, and terminate all the power of the enemy in their lives, and they will go forth singing and shouting with JOY in their hearts and the power of the HOLY SPIRIT ruling in them, and they will subdue nations and peoples for the sake of My KINGDOM!

Will you pray and WORSHIP ME as if you believe that? Will you DECLARE MY NAME and DECLARE MY LOVE AND MERCY to ALL who come to you?
Will you embrace the CROSS, as I move among you and awaken the hearts of the LOST? KNOW that this will be MORE than you can imagine! KNOW that I am DETERMINED to have a HOLY and SPOTLESS BRIDE, and nothing can stop ME! Those who oppose this move, will find themselves in deep MIRE. Though they fight, they will not prevail. For the Son of Righteousness is arising with HEALING in His WINGS, and there will be STARTLING MIRACLES and SIGNS AND WONDERS!

Upon it’s back will come LYING SIGNS and WONDERS by demonically inspired people that will try to mimic what I do…but like Jannes and Jambres, they will not succeed. MY POWER will be UNSTOPPABLE.
MY LOVE will penetrate the hearts of EVERYONE who calls themselves by MY NAME! It will expose to all the condition of their own heart and many will be in the VALLEY of DECISION. Should they EMBRACE THE CROSS?
Or should they be politically correct…though that status will soon mean nothing in this nation! MY PLANS will overrule the plans of any man!
I am desirous of HARVEST, and there will be a great flood of souls coming into the KINGDOM, so GET READY MY PEOPLE! Get ready, for the MIGHTY ONE is coming and YOU WILL NOT BE LEFT OUT, if you are IN ME! Many will come, and many will not, but I will have a GREAT HARVEST of souls!
Do you hear the sound of RAIN? Do you hear the THUNDER?
The clouds are gathering! Get ready to REAP! SUDDENLY I WILL COME INTO MY TEMPLE!

A Change Of Arms
Laurie Bowe

I dreamed that I was standing at a small white sink with the water running, and then a square of white paper about the size of a post-it-note appeared in front of me and I saw typed words appear on the paper. I knew it was the Lord talking to me. He wrote a riddle, but He also gave me the understanding to know what He meant. It was clever and I wanted to write it down, but then it disappeared down the drain. He showed me maybe a dozen riddles or more. I was so delighted with them.... it wasn't hard or beyond me because He kept giving me the understanding... so it was fun... and He was speaking to my heart in such an awesome way. I wished I could write them down, but each one, as soon as I understood it, would go down the drain, and then He would write me another one... so I didn't even really get to dwell on each individual one. The very last one He told me, I got to keep. :) I awakened with His words ringing in my ears:

"I'm going to drain your right arm and fill your left arm."

He gave me the sense of what He meant. The right arm has skill that the left does not, and it's the right arm that I depend on for so many things. Draining my right arm means coming to the end of myself - my abilities and my efforts - and realizing that I can't do anything. And filling my left arm means His power and ability coming in and taking over where I have none.

I want that heart of trust to know that when I'm empty and can't do anything it's just about to get really good because He's about to take over.

As for the ones that went 'down the drain'. I think that there are many things that He writes on our hearts, and only some of them He reveals to our minds. And He gets to choose what He does with the words He gives us.

I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots. Sgs. 1:9

I can hear the breath of the Almighty cry out in victory,

'A Company Of Horses'
'A Company Of Horses'
'A Company of Horses'
Make way for the King is coming!

Can you see them, can you hear the resounding echo in the hills as their hooves dig deep into the earth's atmosphere, they are ready my friends, they have gathered and they are here! I have never seen horses such as these, their muscles carved out like a fine tuned instrument and their manes as long as the days they have been waiting to ride in such passion. Upon their backs the riders the same as they can only hear one voice, they can only see one face and they together ride in the same rhythm, the beat of the Master's heart.

Leading this great company of horses are riders with gold trumpets in their hands and they are blowing heaven's sound through out the land. It is a dire warning to not retreat, to not give into man's thinking and man's ways but to only heed the voice of the King and ride, ride hard into the night. I see Gideon upon his horse, an ancient horse and he is leading this holy army with the deep passion of Christ and yea though a few, it is an army not to be reckoned with. They will not bend to the right nor to the left for they hear and obey only the Master's voice as they raise their torches of fire towards heaven.

Of whom the world was not worthy they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.
And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:
God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.
Hebrews 11:38-40

Do you hear the deep groaning in this verse; that they without us should not be made perfect, oh my friends, the deep calleth unto the deep and the Ancient of Days is upon us as He rides in a Holy Fire that will shake, tear down and consume all that is of man. Yes, the earth will cry out in agony as she is awakened by the King, walls will come down, kings will fall but those who have perfected the ways of the King of Kings by resting at His feet, will not only stand in the face of the enemy but they will ride hard past the forces of darkness and into His Holy Chambers. Oh such love and adoration of the Father is before us, upon us and through us,

A Song of degrees of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;

I saw in the spirit two armies, one was the company of horses that I saw several days ago, this time the Lion of Judah was accompanying them and He had fire coming forth from His mouth. He was running along side this great big and beautiful army of horses and their riders in agreement with their mission.

I then saw another army and this too was a company of horses but they were from the hordes of hell. They looked Exactly like the good army right down to the blood, but it was not the blood of Jesus that they were saturated in but the blood of death and destruction. I then heard the Father say: "Terrorism >From Within."

I then saw the first army of horses, the good and pure army and in their hands were long arrows, there were swirls of gold and silver running through them, full of life, full of God's power. The tips of the arrows was the Word of God, alive, breathing Word of God and all His promises to keep, ready to be delivered to the United States. As soon as the arrows hit their targets the people would fall down in the spirit of the Lord and be healed, some from years of sickness both mentally and physically. They then were given nations by name to cry out for, specific details and plans of the enemy exposed and Nations delivered by the Word of the Lord!

Soon both armies were side by side and running hard against the wind, I could see that the company of horses straight from the Throne room of God not once be affected by this wind but they remained still upon their horses and they rode hard to deliver these arrows. Both armies rode through state after state, through many cities, those of great darkness and those of His light.

The company of horses from the pit of the enemy were having a hard time against the company of the Lord but they remained steadfast and too continued to ride. All of a sudden I saw a horse and its rider catch an arrow and ride forth through out the city looking for his target. This arrow was now in the hands of the enemy, still words of God but not the Word of God. As the enemy found his target I saw that it was the Statue of Liberty, she not only represented New York but the entire United States. As the arrow went forth a rider too came forth from the army of the Lord, dressed in pure and holy armor and along side the rider the Lion of Judah. No longer earth bound but by the Spirit of the Lord the rider took the arrow straight in his chest and fell to the ground beside his horse. I then saw the Lion of Judah lay down beside the rider and He looked as if He was crying as a Holy roar went forth right into the heavens. Many angels descended from Heaven and they began to surround New York continuing through the U.S.

One angel began to slowly lift the helmet off of the rider who was down, as long, beautiful golden curls emerged from beneath, it was a young girl no older than 14. Oh my friends she was absolutely stunning in appearance for she bore the heart of the King. The Lion of Judah began to lick her face as a mother lion would her cub and He breathed life back into this young body. As she stood she immediately bowed before the Lion of Judah and thanked Him for sparing her life and got back on her horse to join the others in mission. Oh the army of youth that is arising with the heart of the King, nothing but nothing will be able to stop them.

The Lion of Judah began to roar as fire came forth from His mouth, a sound of fear, a holy fear to beware the false words of those masquerading in prophet attire. I saw the arrows that were sabotaged by the enemy run forth through out the U.S. being delivered as the word of the Lord to many places high in authority, governmental authority and they came forth in fire but not His fire but the fire of the enemy. Again I heard the Lord speak but this time it was a shout as thunder shook the earth and lightning hit many cities, it was His cry to awaken the sleeping, a time to pray!

"Terrorism From Within" again resounded as I saw some of the arrows in the hands of the enemy no longer containing the anointing from the King but words spoken in false array that when hit there designated target the people would instantly fall to sleep. There were many arrows hitting churches where those in authority were not pure of heart and they would deliver fear of the enemy causing many people to remain focused on the enemy and not on the Lord, for there is no fear in perfect love. (1John 4:18)

Tell My children that it is not My will for death and destruction upon the earth but everything on earth is not under My will. Tell My children to pray, to humble themselves and pray for their cities, their nations and to pray for President Bush, that he would instantly in his spirit discern the True Word of the Lord.

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. (2Ch 7:14)

The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever.

Amen!

But those who wait for the Lord shall change and renew their strength and power; they shall lift their wings and mount up as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint or become tired.

Isaiah 40:31 (amp)

And by the Spirit of the Lord the company of horses who were reigning with Him in heaven yet were on earth began to be lifted high up into the heavens and were brought before the Throne of God. One by one the riders dismounted their horses with armor and all and knelt before the King.

Through blood, sweat and tears they humbly wept, they humbly cried and rested at the feet of the King, the feet of the Almighty God and waited for further enlightenment. As the King arose from His throne water began to pour out from His heart, the purest of waters I have ever beheld, it was thick like honey but white as snow. The water began to fill the mouths of each and every rider and their horse until they were now standing looking as if they had never been touched by battle, but were alive and renewed with the Holy Presence of God.

To each rider was given a scroll and etched deep within the scroll were the names and addresses of those waiting for its arrival. Then the Lord in the power of holiness, in the power of love began to kiss each and every rider directly upon the lips. As the mouth of the Almighty touched the lips of the riders, His tears mixed with their tears became a message of power, a message of strength and a divine message of love for the battle ahead.

Then to my surprise but yet so like the Father, He then began to touch each and every horse upon the face, right in the soft part of their noses, and He began to whisper love notes in their ears as He kissed each and every horse, a holy impartation for the coming days.

"Awake the sleeping"

"Awake the dreaming"

"For I coming to awake even the dead!"

There was such love expressed in the Lord's words that I began to hear a groaning, a deep awakening happening in the earth as two great golden wings of an eagle began to grow out from the sides of every horse to equip them for there next assignment.

The riders then mounted their horses and returned to earth, in love, in power and with a holy fire to deliver the messages of God.

I awoke with the taste of Divine Love upon my lips.

Revelation 22:7
And behold, I am coming speedily. Blessed is he who observes and lays to heart and keeps the truths of the prophecy contained in this book.

A Coming Move of His Supernatural Love

Mark Kaphaem

I feel Lord has been speaking to me that we are on the verge of a great move of His supernatural Love that will build His body and shake the world.

I believe the kickoff of this move will be the release of the movie "The Passion of the Christ", but this is just the beginning of the move. It is important that we realize this.

A Calling is going forth with this movie to the body of Christ. We has seen a revival of the experiential knowledge of the Grooms great love for His bride. The time has come to go forth in that love in the same manner the Christ did. The time has come to lay down our lives in His love.

When we think of the supernatural we think of Angels, miracles, healing, visitations. We will soon see that there is no force on this Earth that is as supernatural as His love.

There will be miracles of His love breaking forth in all arenas of our lives. The workplace, schools, stores, government buildings, federal courthouses. There are no laws that can restrict Gods supernatural love.

With His love at the core all other manifestations of the Spirit will be magnified. With His love at the core will see the fruit of the Spirit and the Gifts of the Spirit walk hand in hand like they were designed to do.

As apart of this move I also see the Lord walking through the churches with an axe in His hands. This great move of God is to call us to our roots in Him. For those who do not respond their roots will be severed.

I also feel like it's no accident that the movie "The Passion of the Christ" was brought to us through Mel Gibson who is a Catholic. Or that the Catholic church has been through so much controversy recently. This move will have a powerful impact on the Catholic church and the Lord will do a great work of restoration in her. She will be reminded of her calling and that reminder will be felt throughout the entire body of Christ.

ACPE Word for 2004

Chuck D. Pierce

Here is the Apostolic Council Of Prophetic Elders (ACPE) Word for 2004 and Beyond
Chuck D. Pierce
acpe@globalharvest.org

This ACPE met in Colorado Springs, Colorado for two days to seek the Lord for a word for the Body of Christ. While some of these things will be fulfilled in 2004, we feel that we should not put a specific time table to the events because of the number of variables that can take place concerning prophetic words. Two of these variables are:

1. Intercession can change the course of the events.

2. The mercy of God that is extended when individuals and nations repent.

Reformation

Reformation will be a key theme for the coming year wherein many prophets will call for national reformations as in the time of Josiah.

This reformation will affect the way that we do church in a structural way as the church moves out into society rather than has primary functions from a church building. The church will be in the society rather than separate from it. Many new wine marketplace churches will spring up in businesses across the world. Networking will take place more in an electronic way through web casting rather than physically being in one place for all the weekly meetings.

With this move there will be a strong wave of persecution from a religious spirit. The Lord admonished us not be get caught up in a religious spirit even from a prophetic stance and allow God to show us the areas where the spirit of religion was working.

Release Of Favor

We are entering into the favor of the Lord in a profound way. This is the acceptable year of the Lord. For this reason the Body of Christ should understand how to walk in faith to see a release of this favor.

Part of this favor will manifest in favor with the lost. It is a time for prophetic evangelism. Intercession has ripened the harvest and it is NOW the time to go into the harvest to reap, for the fields are white with harvest. God is calling for a renewed emphasis on evangelism for every believer. Churches that heed this call and release their people into this call to win the lost will experience great growth.

Along with this favor, God will require new levels of brokenness and humility. If this does not happen, pride will enter into the hearts of those receiving the favor and they will lose what they have gained.

God is removing dead wood and uprooting old things. There is a time of refining coming to the Body of Christ. In the refining season, we will be brought into new levels of intimacy which will see the birthing of new things in our lives.

Inroads Into Hollywood And The Media
Great inroads will be made by the Body of Christ into media and Hollywood. There will be a wave of the Holy Spirit move across Hollywood and other media-related industries. We will see actors stand up in an increased measure and profess their faith in Christ.

There will be a power encounter with MTV which will result in children being set free from the wicked ways it has influenced them.

(Note: This has already begun after the half time show at the Super Bowl.)

A connection is coming between the prophets and Hollywood and media.

Apostles and prophets are going to see a new teaming on a level not realized before and this will lead to city transformation movements. This will include new teachings about the Kingdom of God and seeing it influence each sector of society. There is a time of shifting and transitioning taking place as God aligns His leaders for the new wine anointing. This will particularly occur with apostles and prophets.

2004 Year Of The More
2004 is the year of the more. We are going to see a release of finances on a bigger scale than before. Whereas some have seen release in the amounts of thousands, some will begin to receive millions. We are going to see a breaking of this million dollar barrier for major projects that the Lord has put into the heart of His people.

Revealed Mysteries

This is a year for mysteries to be revealed from the Lord. Even as God gave prophetic revelation to his prophets when Saddam would be captured, so there will be other strong prophetic and intercessory releases for mysteries that have puzzled the Body of Christ.

In seeking the Lord for an answer as to why Osama b*n Laden has not been captured nor has it has been revealed what has happened to him, the Holy Spirit convicted us that he is supernaturally being hidden by an occult spirit. The reason that we cannot break through this occult spirit is that we are not as fervent and radical in our intercession as the Muslim extremists are in their belief systems. The Lord called for a forty day fast for the Body of Christ in general to stir up our hearts in passion for the Lord and a willingness to "love not our lives unto death."

"Judicial Intercession"
Concerning the 2004 elections, there was a general consensus that we need to call for massive intercession, as the case for the courts which will affect school prayer, abortion, and other serious matters on the heart of God, will be decided in the next few years. There also was a concern expressed that this will be a "mean and dirty" election if we do not intercede. The enemy wants to "polarize" both the church and nation and cause wounds that will take years to heal.

A new move of "Judicial intercession" will sweep the Body of Christ as the Lord stirs up people to intercede for the court systems.

The Lord spoke to us through several directions that voting is a spiritual exercise. This especially needs to be spoken to the youth movements of the United States. Very few youth have voted, historically, and this needs to change to see the will of God put into place for this nation.

Mandate From The Lord For The Youth

There is a mandate from the Lord for the youth to become actively involved in what happens in their nations. The universities are quite critical in this next move of God as to whether violence will break out again or a sweeping move of revival on campuses.

This is the hour when the Spirit of the Lord is going to awaken the prophetic voice of the youth. Young people prophesying will become a move of God that will be mainstreamed and infused in church services across the world.

With this will also come the prophetic recognition and setting into place through the Word of the Lord of the leaders in the youth who will rise to bring transformation in every sector of society.

Preparation For 2005

2004 is the preparation year for that which is coming in 2005 and beyond. The first quarter of 2004 will be a time of shutting doors. The second quarter will be a time when the Lord begins to form new doors before us. The third quarter is a time to go through doors. And the fourth quarter is a time to be established for the next four years. Remember, you must shut the doors to the old to transition into the new.

A Call For Intercession

A call for intercession for President Bush concerning his stance on Israel came from this prophetic group. The decisions that he makes concerning Israel will either make or break him in this coming election. As always, there is the call to pray for the President.

A Continued Season Of Positioning

So many of My Beloved are waiting, waiting for me to position them, some geographically and all spiritually for My plan at this time. You have seen others moved and yet you remain, but hear Me, My child, I am still positioning and you will see Me move in an instant. In an instant!.... and you will be surprised for it will come upon you so suddenly.

Some of you believe you haven't seen it because of foolish choices that you have made in your walk, of wrong moves and actions you took that changed the course of your life..... But I say to you because of your faithfulness to Me your destiny in Me is secure and will SURELY come forth.

Many of you I have already re-positioned but many of you still remain in a waiting mode and I say things will not remain "status quo". I AM beginning the final positioning of My Beloved for what lies ahead and be assured you will be positioned in the very center of My will. I will re-position many as well for you safety as the nations will continue to see more of My judgments. This is a time to stay close to your Lord and to seek My guidance and wisdom in this hour.

I have linked some of you together in unity and you have found that you have a strong relationship of commitment and love for one another. Now watch, as one by one, each of you enters the new season I have before you.

You ask when, when? You are so pre-occupied with time but My timetable is not synchronized to your earthly time. You see, My time is over the course of history and not limited to a human lifespan of time. My views and anointings are not based on gender, or age or your predisposed ideas of value and worth. Even so, My hand is upon you and as Esther entered into such a time as this, so are My Beloved. You have been living through some very intense years but still you remain faithful to Me in all you have been going through for the vision still remains alive in your heart and spirit. You have gone through intense times but they have been "strengthening times". Times of preparation and strengthening to enable you to be ready for such a time as this.

I have been uniquely equipping and preparing you for the work that I have called you to do. You have unique responsibilities and I will help you to do them. There are turning points in your life, marker moments in which the I AM, in an instant, can change your life. It has all been pre-ordained by My hand and I say, "Fear Not" for I will bring all to pass that I have promised.

I AM faithful, now see Me move. Watch as you find yourself in places of exceptional opportunities while knowing the I AM is at your side. I have prepared and I am continuing to position during "MY time and season." As Esther, you have found favor with the King by your obedience in times of long suffering. Now see My favor that is coming upon you. Watch and see just what your God can do with a strategically positioned obedient people. Positioned in place but more than that, positioned in time! I have opened and closed doors in your life and I have done it fairly and with purpose. It is late in the hour, the storms are approaching but not until all of my faithful ones are positioned and have fully entered the King's chamber... truly you have come for such a time as this..............

A Cleansing Sword

Bill Hernandez

Return, oh peoples of the Earth, and see the Glory of your King.

For I am coming with a cleansing sword to cut away all that ails you and distracts you.

Rejoice, oh barren ones, for you are heavy with child and are about to give birth.

I am coming, says the Holy One, to winnow away the chaff and establish you as pure before My throne.

Take up the crown of love and power and authority and deliver them that have no voice and them who are poor of spirit and free them.

Bring in My lost ones and I will bring you to rivers of living waters and springs of joy.

A time is coming when I will no longer allow compromise in this area of love.

I will no longer allow conditions to be placed on who receives what and when they receive it.

I will no longer allow compromise and I will no longer tolerate distinctions, for this is sin in My eyes.

Embrace hope and joy and peace of heart by embracing all I send you and make no choices of this one or that one, but choose them I send.

Make no distinctions, but embrace equality.

Choose the unlikely to succeed.
Choose the irregular and unseemly.
Choose the unattractive.
Choose them who would use you and tax your resources.

Choose whom I have died for, for these are My children, every one of them.

Make a name for yourselves by crowning the unblessed with love and acceptance.

Choose the hard road and I will make it easy on your souls.

Choose the easy road and you will find hardship with little joy.

Choose the difficult ones and I will pour out of My sanctuary miracles and signs and wonders.

Be famous in sacrifice.

Be famous in lovingkindness.

Choose My way.
Choose Me and be like Me.

Be little saviors of the lost and broken and destitute.
Be a light to them.
Be honored in your giving to souls.

Embrace the lost ones. Bring them in to the party. Fill your sanctuaries with the sick and heal them and love them and bless them.

Do this and I will fill your coffers to overflowing with more to give.

Do this and you will have many workers and ministers of joy and you will have many friends.

Bring in your lost friends, the poor, the destitute, the hurting, the fearful, the mourning, and make them your friends.

I am coming with a sword to them who deny My way of love and I will prune and prune away all that is not of Me.

And when brokenness is complete, I will raise them up to join the first wave of love.

Great consternation is coming and confusion.

How sad many will be who don't understand what I've always desired.

I have desired the unlikely and unseemly to be honored and loved and built up.

I have desired a heart of compassion and not self-seeking ways.

I have desired a mother's heart for all that would take up My sons and daughters and love them into the Kingdom.

Partake then of this great banquet. This is the great feast and the great party. This is the Groom's celebration and all are invited.

Do not disinvite and do not bar any who wish to enter, but extend a hand and even beg them to come in to the wedding feast.

Do not filter out anyone who wishes to come in. But let all partake who wish it. Let all partake who desire it.

Put away your designs to build My church and take up My design.

My design is love for all - young and old, men and women, every race, every creed, every nation.

My design is an open door policy. Let My people in and don't limit yourselves to this person or that, but let all in.

Invite all in and trust Me. Trust My wisdom. Sacrifice is wisdom.

Being last is wisdom. Being used is wisdom. Being hurt is wisdom.
Being mocked is wisdom. Being Me to the world is wisdom. Filter out none.

Filter out selfish designs and let in joy and love and healing for yourselves.

Here is Revival: Revival of love and tenderness and respect and long suffering.

Here is Revival: Revival of My ways and Revival of Who I am.

Be then instruments of My love. Be my hands and heart and feet.
Be My body and be united as one to do what I did and to be who I was and still am.

I haven't changed.

Follow My example and give all that you have.

Give your time, your money, and your resources to the lost.

Give from the abundance of Heaven placed in your stewardship.

Be wise stewards and follow My example.

Give of the riches available to you.

Keep giving and I will be the supplier.

Give and it shall be given to you to give away more. Reach into your bag and spread love generously.

A Crossroads Time

Terri Derocher

Hi everybody: Some of you are ministry friends and some are family and some are just special friends. I hope you hear my heart here, as I have tried to make it clear. Love in Jesus Christ---

We are in a crossroads time... Jeremiah 6:16 "Stand at the crossroads and look: ASK about the ancient paths, Which one is the good way?" TAKE IT, and you will find rest for your souls. What YOU do...how YOU react...the decisions YOU make will change history.

I would ask you to consider your children and grandchildren as you contemplate these things. Do you know how accustomed Lot was to seeing what he was seeing and hearing everyday? Are our days any different? We have become NUMB.

We have corporately arrived at our destination (the present spiritual location) much the same way Lot arrived at his. He chose the BEST for HIMSELF. Genesis 13 : 5-11 He was motivated by his pocketbook and greed and fear of tomorrow.

When we as a country CHOSE to be boss of our own bodies (1974) so we could kill our inconvenient babies and as states sanctioned (authorized or approved, gave permission to...as in a moral principle) to the sexual union between same sexes, we thought we were choosing the best for ourselves ...just as Lot thought the same as he looked out upon that seductively green valley.

Now we have ....sanctioned orgies (Key West Florida's coming Fantasy Fest) and babies dying from being shaken....daily all across America. Our children are kidnapped and enslaved by pedophiles. We are bombarded with porn when we open our eyes. We drug ourselves from reality and to have better sex. Our corporate motto has become " It's all about Me!!!!!" We corporately have hated ourselves and each other so much that millions of us choose plastic surgery...rather than treasure each unique face and the wisdom of the aged. Human life, each one a master piece ...is precious... in the sight of Jesus. It is NOT trash to be disposed of.

CONNECT THE DOTS

We have arrived at this place, a step at a time. We got used to a little more evil each day.

We NOW have been given another chance to repent. Liberal Supreme Court judges can be replaced ....but only if you CHOOSE our President wisely. YOU KNOW who stands for what...because the Holy Spirit has made it abundantly clear to you.

I know of ONE old friend who called me from the East coast (we hadn't spoken in years) and was shocked about my support of President George Bush. I say to all with that opinion....how do you look away and shut your ears to the cries of millions of murdered babies and how do ignore the mocking laugh of the anti-christ spirit as millions of our youth are coerced into a homosexual lifestyle through school teaching? Give me blinders for my face so I don't have to see it all

...but LORD LET ME SEE IT ALL....so I can repent because I have had a part in it!

MAY ONE of you change your mind and understand this day we are living in ...and the chance we have to change the future. I am going to send this out to my painting ministry list and my friends & family. This has absolutely nothing to do with painting but it is the MOST IMPORTANT thing I can do RIGHT NOW!

Do YOU HEAR THE SHOFAR? That is the question asked in Jeremiah 6:17 "I have appointed sentinels to direct them: LISTEN for the sound of the shofar (trumpet blast...a warning) " The Lord is waiting for your response just as in the day of Jeremiah...They said "we will not listen"

....have mercy on us TODAY Lord ....and let us listen!

Love one another....and that means also the helpless ones in our society who have no voice...including the disenfranchised homeless. MAY God be glorified in YOU and may you be blessed in Jesus' name.

Acting Prophecy Part II

Lishan Desta

IV. The Apostle Paul and His Bodily Affliction

Among all New Testament prophets no one gets as personal in his writings as the Apostle Paul does. Paul in his letters mentions much about his afflictions and persecutions, which he had endured while traveling in his numerous missionary assignments. Paul also made mention of a bodily affliction, a possible malady, in his letters. The second part of this article is devoted to examine the nature of the apostle's afflictions in general, but most importantly to focus on his bodily infirmity in particular.

The purpose of Part II is four fold. It will show that the apostle Paul indeed suffered from a bodily infirmity; that the nature of his malady is knowable; that Paul's affliction had an acting prophecy dimension to it; and that his infirmity carried a profound theological and eschatological significance, still valid today.

4.1 Paul's Affliction

In taking a deeper look at Paul's bodily affliction, the following questions inevitably arise in the minds of those who study the Bible with reflective intent.

- As long as the identity of Paul's infirmity is not clearly stated in the Bible, is there any way to find out what it really was?
- Why is it so important to study in detail Paul's affliction, whatever it may be?

4.1.1 Paul's Affliction: What was it?

Two major lines of opinion exist regarding the nature of Paul's bodily affliction.

(i). Many Bible scholars understand Paul's bodily afflictions in broad terms as a description of the frequent physical hardships and mental anguish he suffered.[1] However, these scholars barely entertain the notion of any kind of bodily ailment or infirmity on Paul's part[2]. As the following words of Paul attest, Paul indeed had endured much hardship and persecution for the sake of the Gospel.

"To this present hour we are both hungry and thirsty, and are poorly clothed, and are roughly treated, and are homeless; and we toil, working with our own hands; when we are reviled, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure; when we are slandered, we try to conciliate; we have become as the scum of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now" (1 Cor. 4: 11-13); and,

"Are they servants of Christ? --I speak as if insane--I more so; in far more labors, in far more imprisonments, beaten times without number, often in danger of death. Five times I received from the Jews thirty-nine lashes. Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have spent in the deep" (2 Cor. 11: 23-25).

(ii). Other Bible scholars, on the other hand, without denying the fact that the apostle had seen considerable persecution and physical hardship, however, they maintain that Paul also suffered from one or another form of a bodily ailment. However, as to the nature of Paul's bodily infirmity, 'there is no end of conjecture.'[3] Some say it was some type of eye disease, others say epilepsy, and still others say it was malarial fever, etc.

In general, Paul's description of his bodily condition, and also how others regarded him because of it, is quite unflattering. As the following series of quotes from his writings attest, Paul often used strong negative adjectives to describe his physical and mental conditions.

"For I think that God has exhibited us apostles as last of all, like men sentenced to death; because we have become a spectacle to the world[4], to angels and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute. To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are ill-clad and buffeted and homeless, and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; when slandered, we try to conciliate; we have become, and are now, as the refuse of the world, the off scouring of all things " (1 Cor. 4: 9-13).

"For his epistles indeed, say they, are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is unimpressive[5] and his speech contemptible " (2Cor. 10: 10).

"He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself " (Phil. 3:21).

The question, then, to be asked is what could have been the cause of Paul's feeble constitution, humiliation and slanders? From Paul's own words, there is a strong evidence that he had suffered from some serious malady, which among many things caused him weakness, embarrassment and insults. For example, Paul in his letter to the Galatians informed them that his first visit to them occurred while he still had a malady. As Paul said it, his infirmity was potentially a 'trial' to them, and his condition such that they could have easily 'loathed and rejected him' for it (Gal. 4: 13-14).

"…you know that it was because of a bodily illness[6] that I preached the gospel to you the first time; and that which was a trial to you in my bodily condition you did not despise[7] or loathe[8], but you received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus Himself " (Gal. 4: 13-14).

The above quoted words of the apostle better fit with the descriptions of a malady than those for describing persecution or physical hardship (Cf. 2 Cor. 10: 10; Phil. 3: 21).

Secondly, in considering the nature of Paul's 'thorn in the flesh' (2 Cor. 12: 7-12), the same kind of argument can be made. Paul described his 'thorn in the flesh' as a torment (incessant affliction), a messenger of Satan, and associated it with his bodily weaknesses and insults, etc.[9]

"Because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a thorn[10] in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me--to keep me from exalting myself! Concerning this I implored the Lord three times that it might leave me. And He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me … Therefore I rejoice in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in anguish, for whenever I am weak, then I am strong" (2 Cor. 12: 7-10).

As Paul noted, the thorn was given to him by the Lord as a 'humbling' counterpoint to a potential conceit coming from the great revelations he was granted. Therefore, the 'thorn' has to lead to humility or humiliation, and as Paul noted it caused in him infirmities, reproaches, persecutions,[11] and distress on a continual basis (v. 10). What W. Barclay noted about Paul's 'thorn' is very astute and pertinent in this regard,

"The word (skolops) can mean thorn but more likely it means stake. Sometimes criminals were impaled upon on a sharp stake. It was a stake like that Paul felt twisting in his body… the very word 'stake' indicates an almost savage pain; the whole picture before us is one of physical suffering; whatever the thorn was it was intermittent, for, although, it sometimes prostrated Paul, it never kept him wholly from his work."[12]

However, following others, it is harder to imagine the term the 'thorn in the flesh'[13] or the 'messenger of Satan' to be a personal adversary who followed Paul to every place he went. This is because, we don't read in the Bible about an individual or a group who followed Paul from place to place constantly to cause him endless persecution and weakness in body. But we know from Paul's life that Paul rather than losing face to any of his human adversaries; he always had the upper hand over them in any argument. But if his 'thorn in the flesh' is some kind of malady, then it can follow Paul everywhere he went and be the cause of his physical feebleness, as well as the cause of reproaches and embarrassments. Such a malady, for its ubiquitous presence, therefore, can realize God's objective in Paul's life to keep the apostle in constant dependence on Jesus for strength and succor, and in a state of humility regarding others.

4.2.2 Paul's Affliction: Its Theological Significance

The malady, which caused Paul constant agony and frequent humiliation and reproaches, and that which he had to carry with him as a heavy burden wherever he went,[14] did it have any other significant role beyond suppressing the spirit of conceit in him? The answer is yes. As to be shown below, Paul, drawing close parallel between his trials and the sufferings of Jesus, saw a deep mystical and theological meaning in what he carried in his body.[15]

(i). Paul's afflictions show Christ in His suffering

Paul understood his trials as part of his calling to manifest Christ as crucified (Cf. 2 Cor. 4: 10-12; Gal. 3: 1). He saw the cross of Christ to be very active in his life; and he understood himself as one chosen of Jesus for a unique theological/ prophetic mission to 'show' Christ in his weakness and humiliation to the churches and to the rest of the world. Paul in this regard wrote,

"Always carrying[16] in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. For while we live we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you" (2 Cor. 4: 10-12).

"Henceforth let no man troubles me; for I bear[17] on my body the marks[18] of Jesus" (Gal. 6:14).

"But far be it from me to glory except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world" (Gal. 6:14).

"O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you as crucified? " (Gal. 3:1).

"I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church" (Col. 1:24).

To Paul, his bodily affliction had a strong relationship with the passions of Jesus. For example, Paul's reference to the thorn in his body, or the death of Jesus he carried around in his body (2 Cor 4: 10), or the marks of Jesus he carried as a heavy burden on his body (Gal. 4:17) can be related to the passions of the Christ based on what Bible prophecies said the Messiah would endure. Prophecies of Isaiah and the passion Psalms, besides saying among many other things about the Messiah, they speak of also about his affliction, humiliation and rejection, etc. It is therefore, to such references, Paul alludes to for others to see how his afflictions mirrors that of Christ's. The following are some of the most commonly known passages in the OT, which give us the picture of the Messiah, particularly in his humiliation and rejection.

"Just as many were astonished at you, so His visage was marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men" (Is 52:14).

"For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground. He has no form or comeliness; and when we see Him, There is no beauty that we should desire Him. He is despised and rejected by men, A Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him; He was despised, and we did not esteem Him. Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted"[19] (Is. 53: 2-4).

"But I am a worm, and no man; A reproach of men, and despised by the people. All those who see me ridicule me; they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, "He trusted in the Lord, let Him rescue Him; Let Him deliver Him, since He delights in Him!" (Ps. 22: 6-8).

"Because for Your sake I have borne reproach; shame has covered my face. I have become a stranger to my brothers, and an alien to my mother's children; because zeal for Your house has eaten me up, and the reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me. When I wept and chastened my soul with fasting, that became my reproach" (Ps. 69: 7-10).

"For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draws near to the grave. I am counted with those who go down to the pit; I am like a man who has no strength, Adrift among the dead, Like the slain who lie in the grave, Whom You remember no more, And who are cut off from Your hand. You have laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the depths. Your wrath lies heavy upon me, and You have afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah You have put away my acquaintances far from me; You have made me an abomination to them; I am shut up, and I cannot get out; My eye wastes away because of affliction. Lord, I have called daily upon You; I have stretched out my hands to You" (Ps. 88: 3-9).

"Hear my prayer, O Lord, and let my cry come to You. Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my trouble; Incline Your ear to me; in the day that I call, answer me speedily. For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned like a hearth. My heart is stricken and withered like grass, So that I forget to eat my bread. Because of the sound of my groaning my bones cling to my skin. I am like a pelican of the wilderness; I am like an owl of the desert. I lie awake, and am like a sparrow alone on the housetop. My enemies reproach me all day long, those who deride me swear an oath against me. For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, Because of Your indignation and Your wrath; For You have lifted me up and cast me away. My days are like a shadow that lengthens, And I wither away like grass" (Ps. 102: 1-11).

Apparently, it is from such OT passages, that Paul draws his theological insights regarding his bodily affliction. Paul's mystical sounding statements like, the fellowship of His suffering, or the carrying of the death of Jesus in one's body, or being conformed to His death, or being crucified to the world on the cross of Jesus, all draw their ultimate inspiration and pattern as from the above quoted OT prophecies. It is only then by looking at such OT prophecies, and drawing parallel between them and the sufferings of Paul, that we will able to infer whether Paul indeed carried the 'death' of Christ in his body or not.

It is clear that Paul in his identification with the passions of Jesus does not use the terms cross, death, and the marks of Jesus in any literal sense, but with their mystical and figurative import. What Paul writes about his identification and fellowship with the passions of Christ is more in the terms of rejection, reproaches, humiliation, and hardship than in terms of the physical crucifixion and burial of Jesus. Paul's experience resembles what the apostle Peter wrote,

"Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened[20] to you; but rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy. If you are reproached for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is glorified" (1 Pet. 4: 10-12).

Paul's words that he carried the death of Christ in his body, etc. makes theological sense based on Peter's words. To Paul, the afflictions he endured gave him the opportunity to partake in the passions of Jesus, thereby establishing a mystical union between himself and His Lord.

"That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship[21] of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead" (Phil. 3: 10-11), and realized as,
"Always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. For while we live we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you" (2 Cor. 4: 10-12).

(iii). The Cross as God's Supreme Wisdom

Beyond its immediate and most significant role as God's method of salvation for humanity, the cross of Christ, according to Paul, also has more purpose. According to Paul, the cross hides Divine wisdom and power in a most paradoxical manner. The cross is one of the most excruciating and dehumanizing of all human experiences, but at the same time it's God's chosen instrument to achieve the overthrow of the might, rule and wisdom of the world. In what passes human accepted norm and defies the imagination of even that of the most learned, God uses the very things the world despises as 'utter foolishness,' 'base,' and 'feeble' to bring to naught the world's might and sophistication.

"For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. For consider your call, brethren; not many of you were wise according to worldly standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth; but God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise, God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong, God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, so that no human being might boast in the presence of God" (1 Cor. 1: 25-29).
In modern parlance, Paul is saying - The world laughs at the weakness and foolishnesses of the cross, but the last laugh belongs to our God.

(iv). Paul's affliction as a Pattern
Paul's affliction did not only mirror Christ's affliction for Paul's contemporaries, but it also foreshadowed, what will take place in the churches later. Many passages in the NT encourage believers to partake of Christ's suffering, to be overcomers, in order to enter the resurrection glory like their Master's. Such injunctions get ultimate fulfillment, in particular, with the church of the last days (cf. Rev. 3: 12; Heb. 11: 39-40, 12:28).

There are some Scriptural references to support this view. For example, Jesus' words when He said that He would drink afresh from the cup and eat from the bread again in the Kingdom of God (Mt. 26: 29, Lk. 22: 14-17), does not mean that Jesus will suffer pain and death a second time (Heb. 9:25-28), but that His future passion will be in and through His Body, the church (cf. Is. 63:9; Jn. 14: 20-25, 17:22-23; Col. 1:27).

Secondly, God's ideal is that the believer be conformed to the image Christ (Rom. 8: 28-30). To be conformed to the highest degree to the image of Christ entails the fellowship of His sufferings. The degree to which one identifies with the Messiah's suffering, as exhibited in the life of the apostle Paul, defines the degree to which one attains to His glory. For example, in the book of Hebrews, the believers are encouraged to imitate Christ to endure rejection and reproach like His.

"Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God… Therefore Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate. Therefore let us go forth to Him, outside the camp, bearing His reproach [22] " (Heb 12: 2 and 13: 12-13).

The following words of Paul repeat what he said about the purpose of his suffering in terms of the church (cf. Col. 1:24).

"Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself " (2 Tim. 2: 10-13).

That there is a close association between partaking in Christ's suffering and in His resurrection glory, the following words of Jesus indicate.

"To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne" (Rev. 3:21).

It is in this regard that Paul can be seen as a major prophetic figure, his life showing forth what will take place in the church as it enters the fellowship of His suffering. He is a transitional or intermediary figure between the passions of Jesus Christ and believers in all time, particularly those living during last days, setting them the pattern to see and to follow.

4. 3 Conclusion

It has been shown that the apostle Paul had endured a bodily affliction; besides all the persecution and hardship he faced during his preaching itineraries. It has been discussed how Paul's bodily affliction, had caused him much humiliation, rejection, weaknesses, etc. It has been emphasized that Paul's bodily ailment went beyond the ordinary in its nature and significance, in mirroring the Messiah's sorrows as found in OT prophecies. Therefore, it is said that Paul's bodily affliction reflected Christ's sufferings in a 'living' way for his generation, or that it served as the hallmarks (stigmata) of Messiah's suffering stamped, in a dynamic way. For this reason, Paul is said to have had an acting prophetic role besides his other major ministerial offices.

Moreover, Paul's affliction has been discussed as a prophecy, a foreshadowing, of what will take place among believers who enter the fellowship of Christ's suffering. In this case, Paul is taken as a transitional or intermediary figure between the passions of Christ and the church. It has been argued that this kind of fellowship will be most visible particularly in the end-time church, which is destined for the Throne.

In all what was said, the discussion broadly set the basis for the next section of the article, Part III. The nature and significance of Paul's bodily affliction, as well as the mystical union between Christ, the Head, and the Church as His Body, all will be taken together in order to give us a new insight into one of the signs of the last days, that of the abomination of desolation.

Appendix: The Anatomy of Shame

Charles Spurgeon: The Treasury of David (Psalm 69:7)

"Shame hath covered my face. It is a great question whether shame or death be the greater evil. There have been those who have rather chosen death, and have wiped off a dishonour with their blood. So Saul slew himself rather than he would fall into the hands of the Philistines, who would have insulted over him, and mocked him as they did Samson. So that king (Jeremiah 38:19) rather chose to lose his country, life and all, than to be given to the Jews, his subjects, to be mocked of them... Confusion of face is one of the greatest miseries that hell itself is set forth unto us by. There is nothing that a noble nature more abhors than shame, for honour is a spark of God's image; and the more of God's image there is in any one, the more is shame abhorred by him, which is the debasing of it, and so the greater and more noble any one's spirit, the more he avoids it. To a base, low spirit, indeed, shame is nothing; but to a great spirit (as to David), than to have his "glory turned into shame," as Psalms 4:2, is nothing more grievous. And the greater glory any loseth, the greater is his shame. What must it be then to Christ, who because he was to satisfy God in point of honour debased by man's sin, therefore of all punishments besides, he suffered most of shame; it being also (as was said) one of the greatest punishments in hell. And Christ, as he assumed other infirmities of our nature, that made him possible in other things -- as to be sensible of hunger, want of sleep, bodily torments, of unkindness, contempt, so likewise of disgrace and shame. He took that infirmity as well as fear; and though he had a strength to bear and despise it (as the author of the Hebrews speaks), yet none was ever more sensible of it. As the delicacy of the temper of his body made him more sensible of pains than ever any man was, so the greatness of his spirit made him more apprehensive of the evil of shame than ever any was. So likewise the infinite love and candor of his spirit towards mankind made him take in with answerable grief the unkindness and injuries, which they heaped upon him..."

(The article will be continued and finalized with part III, which will examine the last days' sign of the abomination of desolation from a new perspective.)

Glory to God.

Joseph: An Alternative View to the Rapture

Though innocent and pure, they accused you for naught. A woman framed you; and her lies caught you in the snare. As you stood charged by her lies, you did not open your mouth; you did not defend yourself. You did not protest your innocence, but as a lamb before its shearer, you were quiet before your accusers.

They stripped you off your innocence; they left you bereft of your honor. They subjected you to abuse, and treated you like the vilest of men. They denied you justice, and by the dint of force, they led you to the pit. They put you in chains, and consigned you to the deepest dungeon. They treated you as a malefactor, as one of their most dangerous offender. They made your lot with the off-scour of the earth, and nobody cared about your innocence. The door was shut behind you, and you were left to rot in jail.

You labored in the darkness; you served them as a slave. You were subjected to indignities; to hunger and to discomfort you became a friend. Your beauty was marred beyond recognition; and your youth languished in filth. Your hope dimmed by the day; your future looked dark and bleak. There was no one to consider your case, neither to recount your generation. There was no one to care to know who you were, where you came from, and what you were meant to be. But like a broken cistern, a shred of pottery, you were discarded and abandoned to rot and to die.

But Joseph, all this happened to you because I willed it for your good. But when I was through preparing you for My purpose, I stirred the heart of the king and sent him the nighttime dreams. Therefore, he sent his envoys to fetch you from your pit, and they rushed you to the king's presence.

But to you that day, did it not begin just like any other day – as a drab, bleak day? As another day, which you said, you have to endure, in patience and despair? But suddenly a knock came on your cell door, and your name was called out. They took you out, and washed you and shaved you clean. They stripped off you your ragged, filthy garments, and clothed you with shiny apparel. As you wondered, conjectured, and feared, they perfumed you and transformed you into a shiny person.

Then they rushed you to the presence of the king, they ushered you in to the most powerful potentate of the earth. You stood before the king; and were asked to interpret his dreams. For the gift I bestowed on you, and the preparation you received from Me, you solved his dreams and counseled him what is to be done. As My wisdom shined though you, it opened doors wide for you. It paved the way to your honor; it laid the stairs of ascension to the throne of glory.

The king honored you; and lifted you up exceedingly. He bedecked you with glory and draped you with splendor. He gave you his own ring and changed your name. You were bestowed with power and authority; and you were proclaimed next to the king. You sat on the throne of the most powerful Empire on earth, and your transformation became for fame in the world. Many stooped before your presence, and did homage to your honor. Even your enemies, saw your vindication, and they shriveled in shame.

All these I did for you, Joseph in one day, in a twinkle of an eye, as I AM a faithful God who keeps His promise to His servants; and a most powerful God, before whom nothing is impossible to perform.

Therefore, in one day, I took you up from the lowest parts of the earth - from the dungeon and from the pit, and lifted you up to the clouds of glory. In one day, I rolled away the boulder at the mouth of your grave, and called you out to resurrection light. In one day, I washed away all your filth and grime - the shame and the humiliation of defeat; and transformed you and bedecked you with honor and splendor. In one day, I broke the yoke from your shoulder and smashed the chains from your feet; I wiped away all tears from your face and made your wailing to cease. In one day, as your enemies watched in disbelief and gazed in stupor, I lifted you up in breathtaking speed and sat you on the throne next to the king. As the earth wondered and reeled, this alien, this exile, I enthroned and empowered as ruler of the earth.

[1] Paul's missionary journeys were always nearly accompanied by persecution and hardships. See for example, Acts 13: 44, 19: 23-41, 21; 16: 16-24, 2 Cor. 1: 8-11, 6: 4: 10.

[2] For example, F. J. Dake, author of Dake's Annotated Reference Bible, argues that for an apostle who had a healing ministry, it is impossible for Paul to suffer from any chronic ailment.

[3] For a good summary of what many theologians and Bible scholars suggested on the nature of Paul's 'thorn in the flesh', see W. Barclays' commentary on 2 Corinthians, in his Bible Study Series.

[4] Cf. Job 17:6, 30:9-10; Ps. 69: 12.

[5] A*stheneia (Greek)* translated here as unimpressive. As used here and in Gal. 4: 10, the word has the cognate meanings of native weakness or frailty, or feebleness of health or sickness.

[7] Exoutheneo (Greek) to regard with contempt, despise utterly, or to make of no account. Cf. Ps. 22:6.

[8] Ekptuo (Greek) to spit out, reject, spurn, or loathe. Cf. Job 17: 6; 30:9-10.

[9] Here we can see similarity in what Paul describes and Job experienced. Job's affliction was through the agency of Satan (Job 1:7), and Job suffered humiliation, rejection, pain, mental anguish, etc. because of his sickness.

[11] Can sickness cause persecution? The answer is yes. It has been well noted among many cultures that diseases, which are considered contagious, repugnant, incurable or the consequence of sin, etc. could incite community's sanction, rejection, which all can sum up to persecution. The OT is full of such examples. For example, recall, Job's experience with is 'comforter' friends and his community (Job 19: 15-22). See also Psalm 31: 9-13; Ps 38; Ps 41; Lam. 3: 27-30, etc.

[14] According to Peter (1 Pet. 4: 12-13), a 'fiery trial' befalling believer can be an odd or strange (Gk. Xenos) in its nature and such a company to be regarded as a fellow traveler (Gk. Sumbaino). Such a charatetistic to a trial, according to Peter, has then the hallmarks of partaking in Christ's passions.

[15] Paul's exposition on the cross is two pronged. Firstly, the cross of Christ is God's means of salvation by grace to humanity. It is the instrument God used to break the cords of sin and the power of Satan. Secondly, it has a mystical significance. The cross which appears to be 'weakness and foolishness' personified to the the world, is God's wisdom and power hidden. It is used of God later to confound the wisdom and power of the world. Thirdly, it is a pattern of suffering for the church to embrace. It is a mystical instrument of communion between the head and the body, tying the believer in deep union with the Lord.

[17] Gk. Bastazo, means to bear, to carry on one's person, to sustain, i.e. uphold, support. To bear what is burdensome.

[19] Did Jesus suffer from any bodily affliction? The OT prophecies allude to that, but the NT does not give us any direct evidence. The only reference in the NT to give us any clue whether Jesus had an affliction comes from Luke 4: 23, even that is not a strong evidence. Therefore, we have to argue either that the OT references to sickness and affliction do not relate to a malady, but to the sorrows and pain Jesus endured at the cross. But, on the other hand, if the OT prophecies refer to bodily affliction (sickness) and Jesus did not suffer from that, then Paul's words in Col. 1: 24 should be viewed in a new light.

[20] Happened (Gr. Sumbaino) meaning to walk with the feet near together, or to come together, meet with one. Literally, to fellowship.

[21] Fellowship (Gr. Koinonia) meaning fellowship, association, community, communion, joint participation, intercourse, or the share which one has in anything, participation.

[22] Phero (Greek) meaning to carry some burden, to bear, i.e. endure, to endure the rigour of a thing. The allusion here is the believer should follow the example of Christ in patient endurance of suffering and rejection. Note the parallel between Jesus' carrying His cross outside the city gates and the believer carrying the reproach of Christ outside the community.

Action or Reaction?

Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 3rd, 2004
For every action there is an equal and opposite reaction people say.
But in My kingdom, there is a different rule.
Reactions are to be according to MY will and not always equal to the original action. I ask that if a man asks you to with him a mile, that you go two! I ask that if someone hates you, that you love them.

I ask that if someone uses you , that you pray for them.
I ask that you love those who don't love you. So in MY KINGDOM, there are different rules than in the world and it's way of thinking. Unfortunately, so many in the world have seen My own react in the same way they do! I AM changing that. I want to heal the places in your heart that have been bludgeoned.

I don't ask you to hide your emotions, but to control them, and to bring them to ME and let them out to ME. I am big enough to handle them. I have broad shoulders and I can ease the burden. I didn't ask you to hide them under a rug. I only ask you to bring them to the CROSS. To bring them to ME, and let me heal your heart and soothe your wounds that you can then forgive .
The only way you can be filled with MY LOVE is if the old garbage is eliminated. The old must be extricated so that the flow of MY LOVE will not be hindered by the darkness within. YES, I said the darkness within.

34 The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is good, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is bad, your body also is full of darkness. 35 Therefore take heed that the light which is in you is not darkness. 36 If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, the whole body will be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light."

Wherever the enemy has a stronghold in your life based on a lie you have believed, then there is a demonic infestation, because there has been allowed the growth of a lie that alters one's attitude. In order to be released from that stronghold, the lie must be broken. TRUTH must have a way in and be received and BELIEVED. The lie must be renounced and repented of, and then the demon has to flee. I AM bringing some freedom carriers; angels of deliverance, who will speak TRUTH to your hearts and release you from the lies of the enemy. The sword of righteousness is in their hands and you will be changed and your will brought into alignment with MY WILL. As long as your will is occupied, you cannot obey ME fully. I must completely destroy the works of the enemy over your will so that you can be free to do entirely MY WILL.

As you hear their voice and understand what they are saying, pain will be released, and tears will be unstopped, and freedom will have it's reign in your hearts, minds, and emotions. You will then be free to counter the enemy's taunts without reacting inappropriately. You will be able to LOVE your enemies despite their wickedness towards you. You will respond in looking to ME for wisdom instead of your own ways. NOTHING will be impossible for you and MY GLORY will shine within you and without. People will begin to be drawn in ways they have never been before because of the LIGHT of MY glory in you and around you.

John 1:4-5 AMP In Him was Life, and the Life was the Light of men. And the Light shines on in the darkness, for the darkness has never overpowered it [put it out or absorbed it or appropriated it, and is unreceptive to it].

When I come, and when my angels of deliverance come, it will surprise and delight you at the same time. This will happen over and over until the perfecting is complete. I am coming also to make MY WORD in you complete. I am coming to bring MY LIFE to shine in you and MY LOVE to overwhelm you, and you will never be the same. Be not afraid MY BELOVEDS, for I am coming to apprehend the enemy and destroy his hold completely, and to empower you for the days ahead. Worship ME and rest in MY LOVE. Delight yourself in me and I will give you the desire of your heart.

KNOW that My plans for you are good and not of evil. I have come to bring abundant life. That is not a worldly kind of abundant life. But a KINGDOM abundance of life and light that will translate you into another dimension of MY LOVE and LIFE. Cling to ME, for I am making all things NEW!

Brotherly Love

Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.
4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them. 6 We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.
7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. 8 He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. 9 In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. 10 In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.
12 No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us. 13 By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit. 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 16 And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in him.

“My beloveds, it is time for a great delusion to come from the world that will try to encapsulate every heart to the heart of antichrist. You must know one another by the Spirit, and not after the flesh. I have said that whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and HE IN GOD.

Read carefully the words of TRUTH. It does not say that anyone who says he is Christian is a Christian. My word says, he must confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and also, that he abides in him, and he in GOD. This abides in means to make his place in MY HEART. So the heart is key. Out of the heart come all sorts of evil things.

Mark 7:21-23 NKJV For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22 thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness. 23 All these evil things come from within and defile a man."

I’ve said that a good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. So you must judge not according to the gifts of the Spirit of God, nor what the man or woman says they are, but what they LIVE. Do they bear fruit in what comes forth from their hearts. Do they give to the poor?
Do they honor the humble in heart or do they associate with the proud? Do they have MY compassion for those who are wounded and tormented? Do they exhibit selfishness or generosity of spirit? Are they willing to lay down their lives for the sake of taking up MY LIFE? How much do they exhibit LOVE to those around them? Or are they always judging and condemning? Do they know how to listen, or are they always expressing their own opinions and not leaning on ME for My opinion? Do they forgive an apologize quickly? Or do they hoard their unforgiveness and hatred? Do they value LIFE and all I have created, or do they only think of themselves?

17 Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. 20 Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

Matt 12:33 NKJV A Tree Known by Its Fruit "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit.

Matt 13:23 NKJV But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and produces: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

Mark 4:20 NKJV 20 But these are the ones sown on good ground, those who hear the word, accept it, and bear fruit: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."

Pruning in the person who is a believer and ABIDES in Me will bring forth more abundance of fruit in their lives. ONLY I KNOW THE HEART OF MAN. That is why I have asked you to leave the judging to ME when it comes to your brothers and sisters, yet you must know enough in your heart to stay away from those who lead others captive into vain philosophies of men, and who pervert the gospel for their own gain. The lack of fruit in My church has caused My prophets and many others to walk away from association with wicked schemes of men. Others have separated themselves from the body of Christ because they cannot see the fruit.

So wide is the chasm between what is good and what is bad in My church. So many are unhealed and now that glory is shining on their hearts and they are being tested. Many are not humble, but turn in wrath from ME. THAT is key. I said, the one who is of Me will ABIDE in Me. KNOWS to abide in ME, because they know apart from ME, they can do nothing. The church is not a building. It is not a place. It is the fellowship of true believers . Wherever two or more abide in Me and worship ME, I come and abide with them. Some are afraid when they see such lack of fruit, such pride in others. Do not judge what I have not judged. I AM THE SUPREME JUDGE of the universe.

When you have an issue with your brother or sister…COME TO ME. ASK OF ME and I will give you understanding. LOOK TO ME for all you need to know.
And do not depart from the TRUTH of My Word. For my Word is LIFE to your body and healing to your bones.

John 15:2-4 NKJV 2 Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit. 3 You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. 4 Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me.

I did not say that the tree that doesn't abide in the building, doesn't bear fruit. I said that the vine must abide in ME. I said, to LOVE ONE ANOTHER AS I HAVE LOVED YOU. I have said, MY LOVE NEVER FAILS.

I do not get weary of your imperfections and kick you out. I AM LONGSUFFERING towards you and PATIENT. When I see all that is in your heart and all that you have suffered, I don't say " buck up , straighten up, or I'll kick you out!" I continue to love. LOVE LEADS TO REPENTANCE.
LOVE that is SHOWN is one of those fruits you look for in people. LOVE is patient. LOVE is kind. LOVE FORGIVES. LOVE ENDURES ALL THINGS.

Sudden Birth

Mal 3:1-3 NKJV "Behold, I send My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming," says the LORD of hosts.
2 "But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like launderers' soap. 3 He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness.

6 The sound of noise from the city! A voice from the temple! The voice of the LORD, Who fully repays His enemies!
7 "Before she was in labor, she gave birth; Before her pain came, She delivered a male child. 8 Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion was in labor, She gave birth to her children.
9 Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?" says the LORD. "Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?" says your God.
10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad with her, all you who love her; Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her; 11 That you may feed and be satisfied with the consolation of her bosom, That you may drink deeply and be delighted With the abundance of her glory."
12 For thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream. Then you shall feed; on her sides shall you be carried, and be dandled on her knees. 13 As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; and you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."
14 When you see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like grass; The hand of the LORD shall be known to His servants, and His indignation to His enemies.
15 For behold, the LORD will come with fire and with His chariots, like a whirlwind, to render His anger with fury, and His rebuke with flames of fire. 16 For by fire and by His sword the LORD will judge all flesh; and the slain of the LORD shall be many.
17 "Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves, to go to the gardens After an idol in the midst, eating swine's flesh and the abomination and the mouse, shall be consumed together," says the LORD.
18 For I know their works and their thoughts. It shall be that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and see My glory.
19 I will set a sign among them; and those among them who escape I will send to the nations: to Tarshish and Pul and Lud, who draw the bow, and Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands afar off who have not heard My fame nor seen My glory. And they shall declare My glory among the Gentiles. 20 Then they shall bring all your brethren for an offering to the LORD out of all nations, on horses and in chariots and in litters, on mules and on camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem," says the LORD, "as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. 21 And I will also take some of them for priests and Levites," says the LORD.
22 "For as the new heavens and the new earth which I will make shall remain before Me," says the LORD, "So shall your descendants and your name remain. 23 And it shall come to pass that from one New Moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all flesh shall come to worship before Me," says the LORD.
24 "And they shall go forth and look upon the corpses of the men who have transgressed against Me. For their worm does not die, and their fire is not quenched. They shall be an abhorrence to all flesh."

I am coming again like a mighty rushing wind and nothing that is now in a certain order, will be the same after I come. Behold I am coming to make all things new, and every knee will bow, and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is LORD OF LORDS. I will displace those who have sought to promote their own kingdoms, and I will make MY NAME preeminent! I will establish MY order, and MY KINGDOM above all others!

Do not be dismayed. Do not be discouraged. I am coming to break the chains that bind you! I am coming to raise up an army and to walk with you during this last days battle! You will NOT walk alone. You will not suffer alone! You will do great exploits in My name and many will come to the brightness of My glory! Everything is being prepared. Heavenly emissaries are awaiting their orders. You are awaiting. The saints are anxious to see all that will be played out in these times. Many things have remained a mystery. But the days ahead will bring revelation of all that was meant by the prophets of old.

I am pruning and I am refining, and I am rerooting many trees in My garden.
Nothing will be the same for any who are truly Mine! I will not disappoint you! I will not leave you out. I know your weaknesses and I know all about you. I know what the enemy has done to deceive and delude. But I am coming with power and might to set things in My order!

Suddenlies are upon you and will OVERTAKE you! You must walk in FAITH My children! SPEAK MY TRUTH! Do not give in to the wiles of the evil one who will set his face to dissuade you from the truth! He will bring such doubt and such condemnation to undermine what I have told you. He will try to confuse you and separate you from those I am calling you to be aligned with. He will send his minions to bring others NOT called to be by your side, just to try to confuse you. BUT I WILL GIVE you the keys to discernment that you will recognize his tactics and ways, and you will know what is from ME, and what is not.

Many of you are in transition. I have uprooted you from where you were standing. And I will re-route you to where I want you to stand. I have been tearing down those things that keep you comfortable in your old ways, that you would come into MY WILL and stand where I want you to stand within the ranks of My end times army. Some who thought you were only privates will be generals. And some who thought yourselves to be generals will be called to serve others in a lower rank. I am not demoting you as much as causing you to rethink your PRIORITIES. The servant of God, must be servant to ALL. I will lift up the humble. But the proud, arrogant and boastful will be humbled and brought low in these times.

For many humbled by years of rejection, this sudden shift will catch you off guard. Do not be dismayed. Do not be surprised when I give you FAVOR. For I am changing the old guard and replacing it. I am mixing and I am fixing! I will use whom I CHOOSE! I will send whom I WILL! I am the head of My church! I ask you to listen for the still small voice and to obey ME. And if you are not listening, then you may hear the loud, audible voice.
And it will SUDDENLY come to set things straight and in order.

I will apprehend the younger generation in startling ways. Do not think I have X'd them out! I will not pass by anyone. I will not abandon My turtledoves to the wild beasts of the earth. I will pour out My Spirit in unprecedented ways and SUDDENLY you will find yourself catapulted into a whole new realm of living and walking with ME. GET ready! GET READY! EXPECT SUDDEN CHANGES.

Some of these changes will come in unusual ways. You may think you have lost everything, but in fact you will find yourself gaining everything that is eternally important. Job lost everything, but then regained DOUBLE everything he had lost. WALK IN FAITH. WALK IN HOPE. BUT do NOT walk in lust of the flesh and the world. Seek ME and MY righteousness and all you need will be provided you.

I have SUDDENLY also loosed My judgments in the earth. The arrows have begun to be loosed. SUDDEN judgments will bring opportunities for My people to give and to be generous, and to share what they have with others. It will be an occasion for comforting those as I have comforted you. It will be occasion for sharing your testimony. Remember that I said, If you deny Me before men, then I will deny you before the FATHER. The days are here, and now are, when you will be tested on this. DO NOT COMPROMISE MY TRUTH! Look to Me for how to answer! Demonstrate My love to others and nothing will be impossible for you!

Ps 64:7-9 NKJV 7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; Suddenly they shall be wounded. 8 So He will make them stumble over their own tongue;

All who see them shall flee away. 9 All men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider His doing.

Prov 28:18 NKJV Whoever walks blamelessly will be saved, but he who is perverse in his ways will suddenly fall.

Prov 29:1 NKJV Happy Is He Who Keeps the Law
He who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck, will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

Isa 48:3-5 NKJV "I have declared the former things from the beginning; They went forth from My mouth, and I caused them to hear it. Suddenly I did them, and they came to pass. 4 Because I knew that you were obstinate, and your neck was an iron sinew, and your brow bronze, 5 Even from the beginning I have declared it to you; before it came to pass I proclaimed it to you, lest you should say, 'My idol has done them, and my carved image and my molded image Have commanded them.'

Jer 4:20-22 NKJV 20 Destruction upon destruction is cried, for the whole land is plundered.
Suddenly my tents are plundered, and my curtains in a moment.
21 How long will I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?
22 "For My people are foolish, They have not known Me. They are silly children, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge."

Ezek 37:7-11 NKJV So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and suddenly a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to bone. 8 Indeed, as I looked, the sinews and the flesh came upon them, and the skin covered them over; but there was no breath in them.
9 Also He said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live."'" 10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army.

Dan 8:5 NKJV And as I was considering, suddenly a male goat came from the west, across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

35 Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming — in the evening, at midnight, at the crowing of the rooster, or in the morning — 36 lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping. 37 And what I say to you, I say to all: Watch!"

Acts 2:2 NKJV And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

Acts 9:3-4 NKJV As he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven. 4 Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?"

Acts 16:26 26 Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed. NKJV

To India
Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 3rd, 2004

To My daughter India,
I AM coming to you, for I have heard your prayers and petitions.
I have seen your fastings and self sacrifice.
I am sending relief. I am sending those who will help you build.

I am sending those who will teach you to walk together hand in hand.
I am wanting concerts of prayer and worship and for MY people who are one family in the Spirit to come together without competition, and without jealousies. UNITY is where the blessing is:

Ps 133 AMP A Song of Ascents. Of David.
BEHOLD, HOW good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! 2 It is like the precious ointment poured on the head, that ran down on the beard, even the beard of Aaron [the first high priest], that came down upon the collar and skirts of his garments [consecrating the whole body]. [Ex 30:25,30.]
3 It is like the dew of [lofty] Mount Hermon and the dew that comes on the hills of Zion; for there the Lord has commanded the blessing, even life forevermore [upon the high and the lowly].

If you want to see Me move in your city, then you must come together in love and unity. Come and worship Me with abandonment and I will meet you in that place of UNITY and I will tear down the witchcraft. I will destroy the idolatry. But you must not idolize your own ministry over what I want to build. You must love one another as I HAVE LOVED YOU! I will not honor jealousy or competition between churches and ministries. This is only insecurity. I LOVE YOU, and you must believe that I love you all. I am so proud of you. I know the sacrifices you have made. I know the price you have had to pay. I know the times you have endured such great hardship and pain. I know the times you cried over your family and watched your children go without everything they needed. But I have given you a great gift of FAITH, that many in the western world have no knowledge of!

And I am coming with MORE POWER and the Spirit of MIGHT, that you will not cringe at the enemy of death. You will look him in the eye with confidence that I AM GREATER. For MY LOVE for you is as strong as death. Death is the last enemy. I will overcome if you will only believe that I love you SO much.

Eph 3:13-19 Amplified 13 So I ask you not to lose heart [not to faint or become despondent through fear] at what I am suffering in your behalf. [Rather glory in it] for it is an honor to you.
14 For this reason [seeing the greatness of this plan by which you are built together in Christ], I bow my knees before the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
15 For Whom every family in heaven and on earth is named [that Father from Whom all fatherhood takes its title and derives its name].
16 May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the [Holy] Spirit [Himself indwelling your innermost being and personality].

17 May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love, 18 That you may have the power and be strong to apprehend and grasp with all the saints [God's devoted people, the experience of that love] what is the breadth and length and height and depth [of it];
19 [That you may really come] to know [practically, through experience for yourselves] the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge [without experience]; that you may be filled [through all your being] unto all the fullness of God [may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself]!

LOVE is the GREATEST I said. Because when you know My love, when you realize how GREAT it is for you personally, then you can receive from ME all that I AM. You can be filled with the fullness of ME!!!! I am sending apostles and prophets that You might EXPERIENCE this love in greater measure than you have before. REVIVAL is going on in other places and I want to bring it to you! Prepare your hearts and repent of any division or bitterness toward your fellow Christians, toward the lost or those who have maligned or used you. Surrender to me the pain of those things and lay them down at the cross. I WILL HEAL your hearts of any hurts and abuse. I will Make you to experience the fullness of MY LOVE and COMPASSION.
I AM loosing MORE of My Spirit in powerful displays and it will defy your ideas of what church should be, but it will bring much healing to the souls of many people. You will laugh and you will cry, you will SHAKE and you will roll.
But I am shaking off rejection. I am shaking rebellion and idolatry and witchcraft. I will shake off

DEATH that has been over many people because of those things. But do not fear, for I AM coming like a mighty WIND upon the land and I will set MY PEOPLE FREE! MIRACLES will abound. MIRACLES like Moses performed and Elijah if you will only BELIEVE!

It is time for ancient spirits to be dealt with MY WAY. WORSHIP is key in this revival and I will raise up those worshippers who will SHAKE the nation with their sincere love and adoration of ME. I will give to them creative ideas for invading the music industry. I will supply all that is needed for I want to shake this nation loose from it's pagan foundations and I will do it in this hour! Your sacrifices have NOT been in vain. I have heard all and seen all. I will come and I will change the face of your nation.

I LOVE YOU and will come fight beside you and FOR you.

Virtual Reality

The reality of My Kingdom is coming full force upon the earth.
The reality of My SON will be evident in the works of the Kingdom that you will do on My behalf as My ambassadors of peace.
The reality of GOOD vs EVIL in the world will be apparent to all.
Darkness is rising, and My LIGHT will also rise in YOU!
And MY GLORY WILL BE SEEN UPON YOU. (Is 60)
Those who think it is amazing to watch things in holograms or virtual experiences have not seen ANYTHING compared to what I am going to do.
Those who are enraptured with the wrong kind of power; powers of demons of witchcraft, like hypnosis, and séances, as if that were really something special, will be clamoring to figure out what is going on.

Isa 44:24-25 NKJV Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, and He who formed you from the womb: "I am the LORD, who makes all things, Who stretches out the heavens all alone, Who spreads abroad the earth by Myself; 25 Who frustrates the signs of the babblers, and drives diviners mad; Who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolishness;

MY POWER is not to be bought or transferred to the mocking and unholy.
I have said, DO NOT TOUCH MY GLORY! And glory is coming that will strike FEAR in the hearts of men! I will dazzle you, and I will astound those who already know ME. So imagine what it will be like for the lost? Those things they felt SO strongly about will be overturned. Those things they put their trust in will utterly FAIL. Men will go MAD for they have chosen to trust in their own strength and knowledge instead of looking to ME, the Author and Finisher of your faith! They will be tormented because they have put their trust in what THEY could do, the money they could make.

Infirmity and Torment are consequences of dabbling in witchcraft for many. And as it rises, it will seek to take out many who have given themselves to it, in an attempt to steal as many souls as it can. BUT I HAVE MY PLANS. I have MY WARRIORS, that I have trained and empowered for such a time as this. I fed them on the BREAD of LIFE, and trained them for confrontation with darkness in ways that many do not yet understand. They will emerge from their caves and I will empower them even more greatly than they have imagined. There will be shockwaves through the Christian world and the secular news. What I do will astound many, and MANY will come to the brightness of My GLORY.

Those who have been in training KNOW and understand , and have been waiting. And you will not be disappointed in all the sacrifices you have had to make! The power of the enemy is nothing compared to MINE. My church has not seen ME as BIG enough. You've only TASTED a tiny bit of My power. Even those in revival churches have not seen the fullness of the power of MY GLORY as yet. Many have been satisfied with little. BUT I am increasing your thirst, and your hunger, that you will WANT ALL that I have for you.

I am creating a longing in My bride for the fullness of intimacy with the Bridegroom, so that just a little will no longer do. Just a tidbit will not satisfy your souls. GLORY is like that, a touch will make you HUNGRY for MORE. For in that MOMENT of time, you have tasted a bit of heaven on earth, and nothing can compare again to that beauty realm.

I will satisfy the hungry soul. I will fill those who are thirsty for ME. I will give all that you need for all that is ahead. BE ASSURED, I will defend My BRIDE as a natural bridegroom would defend his bride. The thief comes to kill, to steal, and to rob, but I am coming with MORE of MY resurrection life and you will become living flames of fire in My hands. And I will ROAR over My own, and protect them from the lies of the enemy. They will lay down their lives willingly in the day of MY POWER!

Acting Prophecy

Acting Prophecy, The Apostle Paul And The End-Times

This paper is a discussion on the much-overlooked subject of acting prophecy in general and its New Testament and End-Time manifestations in particular. In order to define concept and to provide illustration, the lives and ministries of both Old Testament and New Testament prophets are examined. For the New Testament period, it will be the life and ministry of the Apostle Paul, which gets the focus. First the nature, then the theological and the eschatological dimensions of Paul's acting prophetic ministry is looked into with depth. Based on the preceding discussion, one of the most obscure end-time signs, that of the Abomination of Desolation, is examined with a new perspective.

I. Introduction

1.1 The Prophetic Call

Prophets are called of God for a two-fold ministry: To forthtell and foretell. They are anointed to expose and rebuke sin, impart knowledge and build up faith, and console and inspire hope (Mic. 3:8; Is. 40:1;1 Cor. 14:3). Theirs is a ministry of paradox - in the midst of luxury and national success, they diagnose pride and sin; and in the midst of disaster and ruin, they preach restoration and hope. As careful reading into the life and ministry of Biblical prophets reveal, serving God in the prophetic office required of nothing less than eagle-sighted faith, extreme moral courage, love of people and country, long suffering, and even death to self.

In the Old Testament period, if the priest was God's instrument to maintain godly order and ritual in the daily life of the nation, on the other hand the prophet was the national moral barometer. Whenever God saw His people veering off course and abandoning holy covenant, or languishing in a merciless captivity, He sent them a prophet for an answer. A prophet would be sent of God with a fiery message to rebuke and call the people back to their original faith, so that God would avert His judgment, or liberate them from their oppressors. However, in much of the Old Testament period, Israel chose most often to gag or even to kill a prophet rather than reform her evil ways. Therefore, often the prophetic call involved rejection, persecution, and even death.

When we come to the New Testament period, as compared to the preceding period, we note some changes in the message, as well as in the composition of the people preached to. In the NT period, faith in Jesus replaced obeying the Law, and God's covenant message now extended to all nations rather than to Jews alone. However, since God's ultimate purpose to call individuals and nations from sin to holiness, from perdition to salvation has not changed, the ministry of the prophet has not become less demanding in the NT period than it ever was. As the result, God's NT period prophets have not suffered less hatred and risk than their OT compatriots.

1.2 The Prophetic Message: Its Risks and Mode of Delivery

In particular it was the call to confront sin and corruption in the soul of the nation, which usually proved a risky task to the prophets. As prophets are called to deliver God's message to their generation undiluted, their message has rarely been mainstream and hence popular. Since the prophet's call is a commitment to God to call sin 'sin' wherever and whenever he sees it, the risk could have come from any quarter – king, priest, or common man. As individuals and nations usually gagged the prophet than reform their evil ways, most often, prophets faced ridicule, persecution, even the risk of being killed. They have to wait for another generation for their vindication (Matt. 23:29-30).

However, the level of risk the prophet faced depended much on the mode employed to transmit God's message. Down the centuries, prophets have conveyed their messages in three main modes: preaching, writing, and prophetic action or lifestyle. In terms of risk, to write down God's message can be considered the safest of the three methods. However, the most usual mode of delivery has been that of preaching (proclaiming) the Word of God. Nonetheless, as Scripture amply attests, when God's prophet confronted the public or its leaders through preaching, reception has been rarely warm and open. Rather rejection and persecution was the common lot of the prophet (1 Chr. 16:7-10, 18:23-27, 24:20-22, 36:15-16; Is. 50:5-8; Jer. 28:10-11, 29:26-28, 37:11-21, 38:6, 28; Am. 7:10-17; Mk. 6: 16-29).

On the other hand, the third mode of delivery that of acting prophecy was a less used and a less known method. It is this less known mode that we will look into in some detail in the following sections.

II. Acting prophecy

2.1 Acting prophecy: What is it?

On occasions, God told His prophets to carry out a strange action or to enter into a bizarre lifestyle in order to reach the ears and hearts of His people. The intention of such a bizarre act or lifestyle on the part of the acting prophet, therefore, was to arouse puzzlement and questioning on the part of the community to the point where they will be forced to seek meaning and explanation from the prophet. Acting prophecy seemed to be God's radical way of grabbing the attention of His people. God employed this style of communication for three main purposes. First, to symbolize sin, hence convict people of their sin (Jer. 19). Secondly, to prefigure a coming event, so that the people can avoid judgment (Is. 19; Ezk. 12:1-11). Thirdly, to communicate some hidden spiritual truth (Is. 7: 13-14; Zech. 11:7-14).

To preach an unpopular message may require extraordinary courage and faithful delivery of the words of God. But to obey God in acting (fleshing) out His message, as it involved enacting a bizarre looking act in full public view, can prove a most agonizing undertaking for the prophet. It could entail, misunderstanding, rejection, and even persecution. As the following sections show, serving God in the area of acting prophecy, whether in the OT or NT periods, therefore, required denial of the self-bordering on the heroic.

2.2 Instances of Acting prophecy in the OT Period

- The Prophet Isaiah walked naked and barefooted for three years to prophesy a coming captivity (Is. 20).
- Jeremiah was ordered to buy a piece of property in the land soon to be overtaken by the enemy (Jer. 32: 6-15). God told Jeremiah to remain single for life (16:1-4), to bury his linen belt by the river Euphrates and fetch it after many days (13:1-11), to break an earthen pitcher in front of the people (19), and to wear a yoke on his neck to signal a coming captivity (27, 28).
- God made Ezekiel dumb for a season (3:22-27). God also made him to lie alternately on his sides on the ground, in full public view, for about a year. In the meanwhile Ezekiel was ordered to eat a famine ration (4:1-17). We read also how Ezekiel carried his baggage as a refugee would do and leave town (12:1-16). Ezekiel lost his wife by a sudden stroke of death (24:15-24). All these happened in Ezekiel's life by the order of God so that the Jews in exile would know what awaited their compatriots and their temple back home.
- God told God ordered the prophet Hosea to marry a prostitute and ransom her back from her desertions (1:1-9, 3:1-5), in order for God to illustrate His long forbearance with disloyal Israel.
- God directed the prophet Zechariah to break his shepherd sticks, and to put his wage, the 30 units of silver, in the temple (Zech. 11: 7-14). This was to symbolize the yet the future rejection of Jesus, the Great Shepherd and his betrayal for 30 units of money (Matt. 27: 1-10), etc.

As the above-mentioned example show, serving God in the capacity of acting prophecy exposed the prophet to misunderstanding at best and to open ridicule and vehement persecution at the worst. If preaching and prophesying to confront national sin needed boldness and courage, acting prophecy required much more. For Isaiah to walk for three years naked and barefooted, or for Jeremiah to wear a wooden yoke on his neck for weeks, or for Ezekiel to lie in catatonic position for many days, might have made them a laughingstock of their generation. Neighbors might have spoken behind the back of Hosea saying that he was a false prophet who indulged his lust under the cover of the prophetic. Friends might have ridiculed Jeremiah or Paul for remaining single for life.

In summary, as the above-cited examples intimate, ministering through acting prophecy could easily prove highly agonizing to ones soul. As it involved the willingness to forgo ones good standing in the eyes of the community in order to obey the voice of God, acting prophecy, therefore, was tantamount to committing an ethical suicide. The cost of incarnating (fleshing out) God's prophetic message was immense. It meant accepting the death to ones ego and mind (soul), or the crucifixion of the self. To paraphrase Jesus in this case, the prophet in order to minister to God faithfully in this way has to hate himself and carry his cross on a daily basis (Matt. 10: 38, 16:24). Or to quote the Apostle Paul, the prophet should be crucified to the world and allow the world to be crucified to him (Gal. 6:14).

2.3 Instances of Acting prophecy in the NT Period

For those who know the Bible well, acting prophecy seem to have been more common in the OT period than it has been in the NT period. The only readily cited exception from the NT period could be just the following two,

- The occasion where Jesus rode on a donkey when He entered Jerusalem before His passion. That symbolical act depicted Jesus as a Prince of Peace (Zech. 9:9-10; Jn. 12:12-16).
- The prophet Agabus tying himself with a rope while prophesying about the Apostle Paul's imprisonment in Jerusalem (Acts 21:10-12). This act was used of the Holy Spirit to accentuate the suffering that awaited Paul.

However, in the following sections we will focus on the less recognized and much-overlooked acting prophetic ministry of the NT period, that of the life and ministry of the Apostle Paul.

III. The Acting Prophetic Ministry of Paul

3.1 Apostle Paul As a Major Prophet

If the Lord Jesus Himself established the new covenant by His blood and gave rise to the new covenant community, the church, and that during His earthly ministry that He laid down the foundation of church life; however, it was His Apostles that he used to expound the matter of church doctrine and life style. The Lord, in this regard, used the Apostle Paul more than He did anyone else. Paul expounded the mysteries and doctrines of the church, delineated the church's normative behavior and its prophetic call to the world, and outlined the church's glorious destiny in the ages to come. Paul in his writings clearly indicated the connection and continuity between the two testaments, at the same time without losing sight of the discontinuity of the New introduced by Jesus. In summary, the contributions of Paul to NT doctrine and praxis can be listed as, he

- Reaffirmed the doctrine of God
- Expounded on the cross of Jesus and its covenant making power with the church.
- Outlined the nature and ministry of the church.
- Laid down the ethical standards of the church.
- Revealed the mysteries of Christ and expounded on the Last Days.

For his extensive writing in the area of NT theology and praxis, therefore the Apostle Paul can be considered a Major Prophet of that NT period. As much great his contributions are in the above-mentioned areas, our focus in this paper however will be on his barely recognized role and ministry in acting prophesy, which as to be shown has also a profound theological and eschatological significance.

3.2 The Apostle Paul as an Acting Prophet

Paul’s ministry and life as an acting prophet has hardly attracted the notice and recognition of students of the Bible. Such an oversight has its reasons. Scriptural passages dealing with this aspect of Paul’s life and ministry either have been interpreted in isolation to each other, or else were given quite a mundane explanation. Therefore, Paul’s acting prophetic role with its immeasurable theological and eschatological significance has been obscured from the view of the church down the centuries.

Paul, perhaps soon after his salvation and before he left for the seclusion of the deserts of Arabia, by his own words, ‘God wanted to reveal His Son in him, that he might preach him among the gentiles’ (Gal. 1:16).

What does this ‘revealing of Christ in him to preach Him to the gentiles’ mean? Does that refer to Paul’s preaching and writing career making Jesus known to the world? Or does it refer to Paul showing Christ in characteristic holiness and endurance in persecution? Definitely, Paul revealed Christ to the world by all those means. But as to be shown in the following sections, the import of his above quoted words goes beyond word ministry or exemplary life style.

Paul’s words quoted above carry a deeper meaning than what has been ascribed to them up-to-now. As cross-reference to other similar passages will show, Paul’s above quoted words can refer also to his acting prophetic ministry, by which he proclaimed Christ to the nations. Paul’s life (body) could have been used of God to incarnate (flesh out) an aspect of the life of the Messiah to constitute an acting prophecy on Paul’s part. For example, Paul writing to the church in Galatians reminded them, ‘…Before whose eyes Jesus Christ has been evidently set forth, crucified among you’(Gal. 3: 1).

Let us stop and ponder the above words. Was Paul referring to his detailed and passionate preaching which made the Galatians to see in their minds’ eyes Jesus suffering and dying on the cross? Possibly that the Apostle may be referring to his skill to make Christ’s suffering graphic. But as the following words of Paul make it indicative, we are forced to think in terms of acting prophecy. Paul wrote to the Galatians church reminding them,

“You know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. And my temptation which was in my flesh you despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus” (Gal 4: 13-14).

In relation to the above-mentioned words, Paul also had written to the believers in Colossi, saying, ‘I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and make up that which was lacking in the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body’s sake, which is the church’ (Col. 1:24). Moreover, commenting how others perceived his bearing Paul noted, ‘For his letter, say they are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible’ (2 Cor. 10: 10). It is this same idea that Paul also expressed when he wrote about his thorn in the flesh, that messenger of Satan given to him to keep him in a humble and weak state. This was the affliction, which opened his life to weakness, reproaches and persecution (2 Cor. 12: 7-10).

Paul must also be referring to this bodily infirmity when he wrote about the mark (stigmata) of Christ, which he said he carried in His body as a great burden (Gal. 6:17). He called it a brand/ mark of Christ implying as if this ‘mark’ was meant to identify Christ in His suffering, as no other thing would do. It is as if this ‘mark’ fulfils what has been said of the Messiah, and hence its observation as in Paul’s body, was meant to serve as an incontrovertible identifier, a prophetic signature, or marker of the Messiah and his suffering.

‘He shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as root out of a dry ground; he has no majesty nor comeliness; and when we shall see him there is no beauty that we should desire him. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with sickness (grief); and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised and we esteemed not. Surely he has borne our sicknesses (griefs) and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God and afflicted…' (Is. 53:1-4).

For example, according to some commentators on the humiliation of the Messiah their remarks are poignant. Keil and Delitzsch in their commentary on Isaiah 53 made the following remarks,

- 'The impression produced by His appearances was rather repulsive, and, to those who measured the great and noble by a merely worldly standard, contemptible.'
- 'They saw in Him 'one stricken' i.e., afflicted with a hateful, shocking disease.'

Barnes in his Notes on the Old Testament contains the following observations on the despising and rejection of the Messiah (Is. 53:3).

- The Messiah was regarded as the last of men, that is the most abject and contemptible of mankind (Jerome). He was one who ceases from men, who ceases to belong to the number of men; i.e., the most abject of men (Hengstenberg).
- 'From the sight of his suffering, as it being so offensive that people would turn away in pain – as in the case of a leper; or it might be, that he was so much an object of contempt, and so unlike what they expected that they would hide their faces and turn away in scorn.'
- He was crushed, broken into pieces by calamites and trials, indicating his severe inward and outward sufferings. As the LXX renders it, 'He was rendered languid,' or feeble. He was as if crushed to the earth.

In short, the unique afflictions, sorrows, disdain, and rejection, which the Messiah carried, was to be mirrored in Paul as an acting prophet (cf. 1 Cor. 4: 9-13; 2 Cor. 4:10-12, 12:6-9; Gal. 3: 1; 4: 12-14, 6:14,17; Phil. 3:8-11, 21; Col. 1:24; 2 Tim. 2:9-11). Therefore, Paul did not only preach Christ by word also by manifesting the Messianic sufferings bodily. Paul's bodily affliction was a 'revealing of Christ,' or part of Paul's 'fellowship of His suffering,' or him 'carrying the death of Jesus in his body.' Paul's affliction etched out and fleshed out the Messiah in His sickness and humiliation for all to see. Therefore, for the churches he preached to, to see Paul in his sickness was as if they were watching 'in real time' the shame and rejection of the Messiah.

3.3 Paul's Acting Prophecy: Its Theology and Eschatology

i). It signified the ultimate obedience in foregoing ones reputation to carry out God's will. It constituted the crucifixion of the soul in a mystical way (2 Cor. 12: 7-10, 10: 10). He wrote, "But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world' (Gal. 6:14). For Paul, his bodily infirmity, which invited despising and rejection, he equated with being crucified on the cross of Christ.

ii). For Paul it was a school of the crucible where He learned much about the mysteries of Christ (Eph. 3:8-9). For example, God has chosen to use such despised, weak and 'moronic' things to shame the wisdom and power of the world. The cross of the Christ is the power and wisdom of God (1 Cor. 18-31).

iii). Paul also compares his infirmity, to death and burial experience. Writing to the Corinthians, he said, 'Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which we live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death works in us, but life in you' (2 Cor. 4: 10-12). As much as the resurrection glory of Christ came about from the depth of his obedience, Paul also expresses the desire for a foretaste of Christ's resurrection glory.

'That I might know him and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his suffering, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead' (Phil. 3: 10-11).

It is a prayer for that he might have a foretaste of the resurrection glory which awaited Messiah after the ordeal of his affliction (Is. 53: 10-12; Phil. 4:9-11; Eph. 1:19-21; Heb. 12: 2).

As the Apostle Peter observed, to the degree to which we partake of Christ' suffering, to that extent we share in His glory (1 Pet. 4:13). The ultimate 'fellowship of His suffering' will be mirroring the suffering of the Messiah as described and prophesied in Isaiah 53.

iv). Paul's afflicted and humiliated body has an eschatological significance as the following words intimate.

'Our citizenship is Heaven, from where also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body' (Phil. 3: 20-21).

'For you are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ who is our life, shall appear, then shall you also appear with him in glory' (Col. 3: 3-4).

(Dear Reader: Part II of this article will examine the nature (identity) of the Messianic (and apostolic) affliction. Based on the forgoing discussion, it will also present a new interpretation on one of the most obscure signs of the end-times, that of the 'abomination desolation'.)

A Continuous Work

Mary Clark

In a vision, I saw Someone shake out a pink shirt. I could see that the stains that had been on the shirt were fading. Why did You show this to me, Lord?

I want My beloved to see clearly that I am at work in your life. I am moving you along into that place in Me of purity and hope. Never doubt it!

I also want you to see that the work that I do is continuous. It is a process that takes time, beloved. So be patient with Me. Be patient with the work that I am doing in you, for I will succeed. I will accomplish all that I have set My heart to do. You may be sure of these words.

I want to tell you this also, beloved: I am doing something deeper than you realize. I am going deep and bringing things up that you did not know were in your heart. I know that this is a surprise – a shock – to you, but rest in the knowledge that this thing that I am doing is a GOOD thing, and it will purify you deep within as it goes forth.

Know also that I make promises and I keep them. So never doubt My word. Never doubt the living God, for His word is good. I am able to do all that I speak to My beloved, and I will do it with an expertise that will astound the watchful eye.

I want you to know that I have plans for you. I want you to know that I am in the process of fulfilling all of those promises. So be of good cheer, knowing that your destiny in Me is secure.

I have made a proposal to you. I have told you that one who follows after the heart of the living God will never be disappointed. I have asked you to turn from the world, and seek My heart, and you will know the wonder of a new day in Me. I have wooed you gently into a deeper place of My abiding love and presence. Now is the time for you to drop some things that are keeping you stagnant, and follow Me. It will not be easy to comply with everything that I ask, but be that is it may, I will enable you to walk in this new place, if you look to Me. If you call out to Me your desire to move forward, I will enable you to move into that new territory of delight. Let not your heart be troubled, beloved. I am with you. I will sustain you. I will remove those things that are a blight to your walk. Just show Me that you are willing to advance into that place, leaving all behind that is tainted with the world, and I will work on your behalf. Just let Me know that you delight in the knowledge of My love for you, and I will reach forth My hand and give you a gentle nudge in the direction of My heart. Rely on Me, dear beloved child. Rely on Me is all that I ask, and you will see and know the success that lies in walking and seeking after the Beloved.

I have wooed you tenderly into a new place in Me. I have asked that you drop your eye for the world, and look to Me to move you into a new place of hope. You have complied. You have eagerly sought to be rescued from the world and the world’s advancing doom. I, beloved, have sought you with a heart to bless. You have received only a smattering of My blessings. There is much more to come. So rely on Me. Rely on Me to move you forward. Rely on Me to remove those ugly stains that are a blight to your walk, and then, dear one, you will walk in a new freedom in Me. You will know the joy of your salvation, and rejoice with all that is in you.

That is My promise to you. That is a promise – a sincere promise – that comes from a loving Father’s heart. So rely on its truth to take shape in your life, and know, beloved, that I have singled you out for this hour for a purpose, and that purpose will be fulfilled. It will be fulfilled to the nth degree, and you will know success in your walk, and you will know that certain victory that comes with walking with the King of glory – the Lord of Hosts – the high and exalted One – your God, and your Creator!!!

Alive
Mary Clark

I want My children to truly know My power and walk in it. The hour is coming when mighty demonstrations will be prevalent in your lives. The hour is coming when you will recognize the will of your God, and walk in it undaunted by the enemy. But in the meantime, keep your focus on Me. Keep your eyes fixed on Me. I have a plan – an exciting plan – and I do not want you to miss out on a moment of My fulfilled surprises.

I am calling My beloved to step into a lovely new arena. It is an arena ALIVE with excitement. It is an arena that you will LOVE, because I am in it in a wonderful way. This way is ALIVE, beloved, with My interest developing solidly in your life. It is ALIVE with every aspect of My being, glowing and offering sweet contentment in your heart.

I am sending something ALIVE your way. You will recognize it as coming from My hand, beloved. You will recognize the wonder-working will of your God, coming to play in your life in a dramatic way. When this occurs, don't try to catch it, beloved. Just go with it. Just follow it into that arena that I have for you. For this is truly an arena that is ALIVE with the presence of your Lord. It is an arena filled with excitement and wonder. So follow your heart into all to which I am leading you.

I am taking you rapidly into a sweet hour of success in Me. Don't let the enemy cause you to stray. He is out to lead My children off the path that I have beaten out for them. Keep your focus, beloved, and see that the redemptive power of your God is ALIVE and holds many wondrous events for your enjoyment. But when this hour comes – when you step into that arena – follow the flow of My Spirit. Don't try to maintain a fixed position, beloved. Follow where My Spirit takes you. Don't try to capture that wondrous creature that is so ALIVE, follow it – follow it into the design of My heart, and see the world's ways fade. See the light of My glory grow brighter, and know deep within that inner peace that sanctity in Me can provide, and will, as you will to follow the light of My glory into this new arena – this new arena that is ALIVE with the presence of your God – the living presence of your Holy Master. This is vitality at its finest, beloved – its finest!!!

A December To Remember
Julie Volby

December 1, 2004
While worshipping with a friend on 11/29/04, the Lord gave me a vision and spoke a prophetic word regarding the month of December. I believe that what was revealed was not only for my friend and I, but was a Corporate message that is to be shared with those who have ears to hear and eyes to see Him. This writing is given as an encouragement for those who have remained hidden deep within the earth, waiting on the Lord for His perfect time of release. It seems the time has now come and the Lord would provide us with wisdom and understanding as we step out fully into the Light of the New Day or the Third Day.

The Lord said that this would be a “December to Remember”. He did not give a lot of details, but did give a vision that was released through prophetic song. In the vision I saw the Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger. The Lord revealed to me that what most could not see was that the Babe was wrapped in an unseen blanket of God’s everlasting love and clothed in His glory. It was His love that was surrounding, protecting and keeping the Babe warm. As we enter into the season of Hanukkah or the Festival of Lights, I believe there is a profound significance in relation to kairos or the appointed time overtaking the chronos time. This festival lasts eight days, eight being the number of restoration, and commemorates the miraculous supply of oil that lit the menorah. Perhaps during this time a miraculous supply of heavenly oil, which we know as the Holy Spirit, will flow in and through the Body of Christ to bring restoration to His temple and upon the earth.

As I continued to ponder what the Lord was trying to say through the vision, it became clear that the fullness of time for the birth of the Manchild of destiny is here.

Luke 2:7 - And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

The Greek word describing Jesus being wrapped in swaddling clothes is sparganoo. It means to wrap (in cloth) to bind a newborn infant in strips of long cloth, a normal act of childcare for warmth and security. I believe that just as Jesus came into the world and was wrapped in swaddling cloths, so the Father would desire us to see that we too are wrapped in layers of His love and glory. It is His presence, wrapped around us, that provides the warmth and security we need to live. Those who are wrapped in Him have died to their carnal nature through identification with Jesus’ Finished work on the Cross and their lives are now hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is their life appears, they shall also appear with Him in glory (see Colossians 3:3-4).

As we remember how Jesus first came to the earth, we are also reminded that He did not come in the way that many thought He would. He was not only wrapped in swaddling cloths, but His life was clothed in humility. He came in the humblest of circumstances, where one might least expect, in a lowly stable in the midst of some animals. Jesus, the firstborn of many brethren, was also the Light of the world who humbly came ‘hidden’ in a body of flesh. As Zion is giving birth, it seems that perhaps the King of Glory has once again hidden Himself within a humbled people that have been set aside for such as time as this.

I believe that this December to Remember marks not only a season of Divine release, but also one of Divine judgment. For those that are being released in this season, many have been marked as forerunners and have already passed through the Lord’s purifying fires of judgment. But for those that have yet to pass through or are passing through, the shaking will only increase.

So, what will this impending season of judgment look like? Many look for the day that all evil men will be slain or killed. They wait for justice to be served to those who have committed unforgivable acts. For many this is what judgment is all about. Yet, those who know the Word of God know that judgment does not start in the world, but in the House of God first. Many believe that surely God will judge His own people first. They seem to have no excuse, especially those mesmerized and serving the religious church system. Surely, they will be judged first! However, if you are waiting for fire and brimstone to strike the organized church, I am afraid that you may still be looking in the wrong place.

Many know what I am talking about when I say that the shaking has already begun. However, it has not necessarily begun within a church building, but instead has begun within individual Christians who make up the true Church or Bride of Christ. Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 6 that our bodies are the Temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in us and that we are not our own. Based on this, I believe it is safe to say that the House of God that is coming under judgment begins personally, which inevitably flows Corporately as His Spirit unifies us as One in Christ.

25 See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven, 26 whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, “Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also the heaven.” 27 Now this, “Yet once more,” indicates the removal of those tings that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain. 28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. 29 For our God is a consuming fire.

If you think God rocked your world when you first placed faith in Jesus Christ, that is not all He had in store for you. God wasn’t planning only to shake your earth, but also your heavens. The shaking that is spoken of in these verses is a shaking of every work of the flesh that has been borne out of the carnal thought life or Adamic nature. The Word tells us that we already have the mind of Christ (see 1 Corinthians 2:16), but it is through the power of God’s Word that our minds are renewed to see Him as He is and to learn to walk according to the Spirit, rather than according to the flesh. It is the Truth that sets us free. Those thoughts and actions that have been borne of the flesh life must be shaken, so only that which is of God remains. This is part of the purification process of the Bride of Christ. She must pass through the fiery passion of God’s love. He must increase within us until He is everything and we must decrease until we (our carnality) are nothing. This is the process in which Christ within us the hope of glory will be revealed!

If you are going through a great shaking in any area of your life such as relationships in the home or work, health, finances, emotionally stability, broken dreams, broken promises, or the like I encourage you to recall these words.

12 Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you; 13 but rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ’s sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy. 14 If you are reproached for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is glorified. 15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as a busybody in other people’s matters. 16 Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this matter. 17 For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God, and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?

The Lord would say to those that are suffering to, “Look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draweth nigh.” Do not focus on your problems, but instead on the answer to every problem. His Name is JESUS and He holds the answer to everything. Escape the pit of self-pity, unbelief and doubt by using all of the energy you once spent worrying to instead worship and praise the King of kings and Lord of lords! It is through partaking in Christ’s sufferings that He is moving us from glory to glory and faith to faith. Now is the time to invest all of your heavenly currency, which is faith, into the storehouse of God. Let us not be double-minded and suppose that we will receive anything if we are not placing our faith in God alone. But let us instead see a double portion of His power and presence manifested in our lives by trusting in Him to see us through!

The Lord recently took me through my own personal season of Divine judgment. Many believe judgment is a bad thing, but for those who know their righteousness comes from Christ alone, judgment is God's mercy. The things that transpired can best be described as a whirlwind. It took me by surprise and was not at all what I expected. It came very quickly and very forcefully. There was nothing I could do to control it. It quickly became clear that there were certain areas of my life that had not been fully turned over to God. So, the whirlwind came and blew my little preconceived world apart. In that time I had a vision of a mound of dirt. I believe the dirt represented the carnal nature or earth, as man was made of the dust of the earth. The mound I saw could be considered a prison, a cave or even a tomb. It was a place where all man-made ideas, presumption, and hope in any work of the flesh had sat and eventually died. It was there that I realized that no work of the flesh could have any part in what God had promised. The dreams of destiny had died and I died (my flesh life) with them. Even my idea of how God would resurrect these dreams was completely wrong. In His perfect time and way He sent the whirlwind of judgment to blow the tomb of my carnal reasoning or veil of flesh away completely. In the vision I saw that, as the dust was taken away by the whirlwind, what remained was a beautiful red stone. It was not in its raw form as one might expect a newly uncovered gem to be, but it was already perfectly cut in the shape that would reflect the most light in order to display its inner beauty the most. It was already buffed, polished and shined. It was ready to be placed in the King's crown. This jewel is spoken of in Malachi 3.

16 Then those who feared the Lord spoke to one another, And the Lord listened and heard them; So a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the Lord and who meditate on His name. 17 "They shall be Mine," says the Lord of hosts, "On the day that I make them My jewels. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him." 18 Then you shall again discern between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

It is in this season of Divine release that God will reveal these jewels that He has been carefully preparing and has kept hidden under the earth or veil of flesh. They have passed through the Refiner's fire, and have been cut, polished and shined. They are vessels of honor, meet for the Master's use, prepared for every good work. They are now being positioned or set in the King's crown to be displayed for the world to see. Just as in Malachi 3:16, the Lord has looked upon the pages of His book of remembrance and knows these are those who fear Him and meditate on His name. They are called by His name and are His alone.

So, where's the judgment in all of this? We have talked about God shaking our world up and sending the whirlwind, but how can that be judgment? I believe the idea of judgment can also be seen in Jesus parable of the wheat and the tares. Matthew 13:24-26 says, "24 Another parable He put forth to them, saying 'The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field; 25 but while he slept his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way. 26 But when the grain had sprouted and produced a crop, then the tares also appeared.'" He continued to say that the wheat and tares were allowed to grow together until the time of harvest.

Jesus later explains the parable to His disciples in Matthew 13:37-40, "37 He answered and said to them: 'He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. 38 The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are the sons of the wicked one. 39 The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. 40 Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age.'" It is clear from these verses that the end of the age is not only a time of harvest, but also a time of separation.

I believe the only way to truly understand what is happening Corporately is to understand it personally first. I believe the primary seed is the Word of God or the incorruptible Seed of Christ that has been planted deep within our hearts by His own hand. He waters and nurtures the Seed through the power and presence of His Holy Spirit. He warms the fertile ground of our hearts or the field made of the dust of the earth with His love. These good seeds produce wheat or the offspring of righteousness also known as the sons of the kingdom. They in turn reproduce more wheat or good seeds. This circle of life is the fulfillment of God's initial command to be fruitful and multiply as given to man in Genesis 1:28. The wheat, or those things birthed through faith in God's Word, is gathered into God's barn of storehouse.

In contrast, the tares are those things borne out of the flesh. The deceiver comes when we are spiritually 'sleeping' or not keeping watch. It is while our eyes are not on the Lord that the enemy takes opportunity to try to plant his lies in our minds and what is harvested is a work of the flesh, also known as sin. James 1:13-15 explains this clearly, "13 Let no one say when he is tempted, '13 I am tempted by God'; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone. 14 But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed. 15 Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death." Here we see that the offspring of deception and carnal desire is sin, which ultimately results in death. Thankfully, God's grace is sufficient and He has made a way to escape death. That way is the Cross of Jesus Christ! Paul explains this in Romans 6:6-9, "6 knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin. 7 For he who has died has been freed from sin. 8 Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, 9 knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over Him."

It is in the time of judgment or harvest that the wheat and the tares are separated. The tares, or those things borne out of our flesh life, are harvested. It is at 'the end of the age' or the end of our flesh life that these tares are gathered together and bound into bundles. They are then thrown into the fiery furnace to be burned. All the wood, hay and stubble of our Adamic nature are consumed in the fire of God's passionate love for a Bride pure and without spot.

It would seem that the appointed time has come for judgment to take place in a global way as the Lord prepares to reveal the sons of God that creation itself has been groaning and laboring with birth pangs together until now. They have been redeemed by the Blood of the Lamb and have safely passed through the Baptism of Fire. They have undergone the great tribulation of the crucifixion of the self-life or Adamic nature and have not been found wanting. The wheat and the tares have been separated in their lives. The tares or works borne of the flesh have been taken away and burned up, while the wheat or fruit of God's righteousness that remains is kept. That which cannot be shaken is gathered into the storehouse of the Son of Man or the heart of God. The choice is ours to make. Will we choose to try to save our flesh lives or will we lose our lives to gain His? In this December to Remember let us "Remember Lots wife". She looked back upon her flesh life in Sodom and Gomorrah and her mortal life ceased. Let us instead choose to move forward in this critical hour and choose life - His eternal life!

What about judgment? Perhaps you are wondering if I am ever going to get to the part about the unbelievers being judged? Surely there must be some justice that needs to be served to them! If you are waiting for the world to be judged, you don't have to wait long. Jesus explained in John 12:31 when this judgment would take place. He said, "NOW is the judgment of this world; NOW the ruler of this world will be cast out." So, when will judgment take place? NOW! The ruler of this carnal world is the Adamic nature or self. The only power Satan and his demonic hordes have is the power the flesh life gives him to operate. His authority was completely stripped at the Cross and his only weapon is deception! Public enemy number one is not Satan, but instead the carnal nature of a man or woman who does not know Christ or has not fully submitted to His rule and reign in his or her life. The truth is that those who do not know the Lord are already walking around condemned. They are the walking dead, who have yet to be born again. Therefore, to pronounce fire and brimstone upon them will have little affect, except to perhaps scare them into believing that they are bound for hell, which they may already be experiencing a measure of as they walk the earth. In Romans 2 Paul warns those who judge others that whatever they judge another in they condemn themselves. Let us not despise the riches of God's goodness, forbearance, and longsuffering, and remember that it is God's goodness that leads us to repentance.

Even Enoch prophesied of this coming judgment. Jude 14-15, "14 Now Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men also, saying, 'Behold the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints, 15 to execute judgment on all, to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.'" The way that judgment will fall upon the corruption of man's systems will be through a people who have already passed through the refining fire of God's judgment. These are a people who are no longer governed by the law, but who have learned what it means to walk in God's love, which is the fulfillment of the law. They are a Corporate Body that is empowered by the Holy Spirit to walk in the FULLNESS OF THE GOSPEL, who is Jesus Christ. They are the Firstfruits Company who have died to self and it is no longer they that live, but Christ who lives in and through them.

In this season of release this Army will begin to walk in the full power and manifest presence of the Lord. They will bring judgment upon the religious system in what is considered the Church on earth today. Not only will the Babylonian system be torn down in the organized Church by the manifest presence of God within this people or holy nation, but this order of corruption will also begin to crumble in all world systems. All works of the flesh will come tumbling down at the revelation of CHRIST IN US the hope of glory, rather than the hope for His glory to fill a building or a program or system. This Company has moved past a desire for visitation and have become a habitation of the Holy Spirit. While there is no room at the Inn of Carnality for Jesus to lay His head, He and His Father have made Their home within the hearts of those who truly love the Lord. Through the indwelling Holy Spirit, They are seated on the throne of these hearts ruling and reigning over all the earth of these earthen vessels.

The time of harvest is also the time of restoration. It is through this Firstfruits or Manchild Company that many will come to know God's love and forgiveness. Multitudes will leave of the Valley of Decision and step through the gates into the Kingdom of God. No flesh can stand in God's presence. Therefore, every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord! Divine Order will be re-established within the earth. But we must remember that this happens one life at a time.

So how are we to move as we are released into this season of Divine destiny? I believe Isaiah 52:12 has God's answer for us, "For you shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight; For the Lord will go before you, And the God of Israel will be your rear guard." Just what is your rear guard? It is God's glory!

Isaiah 58:8 – Then your light shall break forth like the morning, your healing shall spring forth speedily, and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard."

I believe these two verses are parallel and that it is our righteousness, who is Jesus Christ, that has already gone before us to pave the way because He is the way! The Hebrew word for rear guard or rereward is the word 'asap'. It means to store, gather, harvest, bring in, collect, or assemble. It is clear that is it GOD'S GLORY that will bring in or gather the end time harvest that generations have waited to see. No work of the flesh will be allowed in this move of God. It will be His light so shining through us before men, that they will see our good works and glorify our Father in heaven! This sure sounds like a no sweat or priesthood ministry to me. The good news is that it is!

One last thing that the Lord desires for us to remember about the Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger is His position. Jesus' position was a state of complete rest and trust in God. This rest is spoken of in Hebrews 4:9-10 "There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. 10

For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.” The Babe lay peacefully in a manger, not doing His own work, but depending fully on His Father for everything. If Jesus, who was fully God and fully man, was found in a manger resting after being birthed, how much more do we need to follow His lead and rest in Him as He releases us into our destinies? This is the type of childlike faith the heart of God is after in this appointed season. It is the Sabbath rest that is also spoken of in Isaiah 58:13-14, “13 If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on My holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy day of the Lord honorable, and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words, 14 Then you shall delight yourself in the Lord; And I will cause you to ride on the high hills of the earth, and feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father. The mouth of the Lord has spoken.”

In this ‘December to Remember’ we have many things to remember. I pray that each one of you will remember first and foremost how Jesus humbly came to earth to pay the price for your sin on the Cross out of His everlasting love for you. Remember all of the trials and tribulations that He has brought you through to mature and strengthen you. Remember how He has never given you more than you can handle through Him. He has never failed you and never will. He is more than able to supply all your need according to the riches in glory by Christ Jesus. I pray that unlike the rebellious Israelites in Psalm 78, that you may set your hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments. These commandments are to love God with all of your heart, mind, soul and strength and to love one another. By obeying this, the rest of the law is fulfilled.

May this be a December to Remember for each one of you! May your hearts swell with the joy of your salvation who is JESUS! To God be the glory! Hallelujah!

Another Look at Daniel 2

I. King Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream

This is what the Prophet Daniel recounts on King’s Nebuchadnezzar’s dream and its meaning.

"You were looking, O king, and lo! There was a great statue. This statue was huge; its brilliance extraordinary; it was standing before you, and its appearance was frightening. The head of that statue was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its middle and thighs of bronze, its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. As you looked on, a stone was cut out, not by human hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and broke them in pieces. Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, were all broken in pieces and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.”

"This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation. You, O king, the king of kings—to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the might, and the glory, into whose hand he has given human beings, wherever they live, the wild animals of the field, and the birds of the air, and whom he has established as ruler over them all—you are the head of gold. After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to yours, and yet a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over the whole earth. And there shall be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron; just as iron crushes and smashes everything, it shall crush and shatter all these. As you saw the feet and toes partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but some of the strength of iron shall be in it, as you saw the iron mixed with the clay. As the toes of the feet were part iron and part clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly brittle. As you saw the iron mixed with clay, so will they mix with one another in marriage, but they will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with clay. And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed, nor shall this kingdom be left to another people. It shall crush all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand forever; just as you saw that a stone was cut from the mountain not by hands, and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold. The great God has informed the king what shall be hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation trustworthy" (Dan. 2: 31-45).

I. Traditional & Current View

Nearly all the interpretations provided up to now on the meaning of the dream agree on one point. They agree that the statute seen in the dream is a metaphor of the successive world empires that will rise one after the other until the appearance of the Kingdom of God on earth. The following summary presents the details of the interpretation, which all agree about.

(i). Gold head: the Babylonian Empire (circa. 606 – 536 BC)
(ii). Silver arm and chest: The Medo-Persian Empire (c. 536 – 330 BC)
(iii). Brass belly and thigh: The Greek Empire (c. 330- 27 BC)
(iv). Iron legs : the Roman Empire (c. 27 BC – 395 AD)
(v). Iron and clay feet: The revived Roman Empire destined to rise in the last days, which the antichrist will take over subsequently.
(vi). The Stone: the Messiah and the rise of the Kingdom of God.

The beauty of this prophetic interpretation is that it is simple. It snugly fits with the details of much world history, particularly as it has been since the rise of the Babylonian Empire (c. 600 BC) to the fall of the Roman Empire (495 AD). However, all the interpretations fail to clear one hurdle presented to them by this dream. Each of them, if we follow their schema, leaves a gap of some 1500 years of unexplained and unaccounted of human history after the fall of the Roman Empire until the rise of the 'revived Roman Empire' in the 'last days'. Such a long time gap cries out for a credible explanation. If we leave it alone, it appears as if it no political (imperial) activity of prophetic significance has ever taken place in the meantime. Of course, the justification for such a gap is given through the theory of the suspension of time that is said to occur between the prophetic 69th and the 70th weeks of Daniel (9: 24-27). But as to why such a gap God allows, no credible explanation has been given.

Truly, the gap is long and quite serious, and it has to be closed by any means. The following account is an attempt to close this breach. In its attempt to overcome this shortcoming, the alternative view, presents an outline of the political history (experiences) of the human race from the ancient to the modern period with a new perspective. It represents developments and phases in statecraft, world political configurations and the nature of world empires. It tries to make a sensible interpretation of the dream that will help us to understand the progress of events as God sees them.

II. Alternative View

(i). The Golden Head

The gold symbolizes great glory and splendor, and the head that of absolute power and leadership. This is the symbol of the era of the absolute monarch and the imperial warrior-king.

It is a representation of the uncensored and unlimited power of the 'ancient' monarch. Political rule is highly personalized, hence, autocratic. All the glory and splendor of the state is concentrated in the hands of the ruler. Empire means unbridled war and conquest, booty and slaves. Grand ancient civilizations, like the Egyptians, Assyrian, Babylonian, Medo-Persian, Greek, Roman, etc., reflect this principle. King Nebuchadnezzar and his Babylonian empire is a good example of such empires and monarchs/ rulers.

(ii). The Silver Chest and Arms

This reflects the era of the latter-day 'Medo-Persians'.

The silver symbolizes lesser glory and splendor as compared to the previous gold. Chest and arms, symbolize power, but the existence of two arms can be used to indicate that power will be divided between two branches of the state.

Hence, this part of the dream represents the rise of less powerful and less glorious monarchs. In its historical parallel, this is seen during the political arrangements of the middle ages and the dawn of the modern era. During the middle ages, powerful regional lords and knights attenuated the king's power and shared the glory of the battle with him. And at the dawn of the modern ages, the monarch's supreme rule was balanced off by an elected or appointed parliament. Hence the monarchs of this era, did not have the full splendor or the absolute power enjoyed by their predecessors. Equally, this period's monarchs were not less expansionary and imperial, but they were with much less success and glory as compared to their ancient counterparts.

As the Medo-Persians kings who succeeded Babylon had with them the fear of God and were more religion inclined, so were the kings of the middle ages. The Medo-Persians also practiced delegating/ devolution of power, as well as having influential counselors to advise them (Ez. 1: 2; Esth. 1: 13; Dan. 6:1-2). Such was the case with the kings of the middle ages.

(III). The Brass Belly and Thigh

The era of the modern-day 'Greek.'

This part of the dream is traditionally associated with the rise of the Greek empire. In this new interpretation as well, it is made the symbol of the rise of the modern ‘Greek’ political power.

This period roughly covers the era, 1650 to 1914. It canvasses the ages of the industrial revolution, discoveries, colonialism and democratic revolutions. In the latter regard, in many ways, the French Revolution in 1789, is considered a watershed event.

Through the influence of the Enlightenment thinkers of the 17th and 18th c., the era of chivalry and the divine kingship was increasingly overshadowed and overcame. Rule by hereditary kings and nobles was replaced by the political ideals of social contract and rule by consent. Through much struggle, the common people, inspired by the enlightened philosophers and led by the liberal politicians, made their voices to be heard, and later came to assume indirect state power through their representatives. Thus faded away the power and glory of the monarch and the nobility by the rise of popular politics.

During this period, the rise of representative government was much helped by the rise of the capitalist mode of production. The bourgeois state - sometimes which had a figurehead of a monarch at the top, was no less imperial and predatory than its predecessors. Modern-day ‘Greek’ states, like Spain, Portugal, UK, France, etc., much assisted by technological advances, particularly in weaponry and transportation, achieved worldwide colonies and empires.

(IV). The Iron Legs

This is a symbol of the era of the modern ‘Romans’, where Caesar is Lord and god

This ear of the iron legs represents the age of the self-made Caesar. Here the leader has absolute power and is given total allegiance by the ruled. Here, the State is made above all and its laws are made binding on all.

This era in its modern sense represents the ‘iron’ rule of dictatorship - of the military and the strongman. It represents the era of the totalitarian state, where the state takes total control of everything, where it controls and manages the life of its citizens. In the process, the individual is made totally subservient to the dictate of the state.

In such lands, the leaders hold absolute power and develop a personality cult. They demand that that and the state are worshiped and obeyed like gods. Such leaders at the end turn out to be quite repressive, war mongering and despotic in behavior. Hence, wherever such a state existed massive havoc was wrecked on its own population, and on other lands the state may happen to invade.

In its historical parallel, such a state of unlimited power we encounter in the form of the totalitarian state which made its first appearance in Europe beginning the 1920s. In the years between the two world wars, statist ideologies like Fascism, Phalangism, Nazism and Communisms came to power in Europe, sweeping away more representative types of governments. Such totalitarian regimes brought an abrupt end to liberal democracy and the rule of law, which were beginning to take root in many countries.

This repressive totalitarian era lasted about 70 years (c 1920 and 1991). It has been the era of Phalangist Spain, Nazi Germany, Fascist Italy, Communist USSR and China, etc. It has been the age of Franco, Mussolini, Hitler, Lenin, Stalin, Mao and Pol Pot, etc. The fall of communist USSR in 1991 brought to a major close to this era of the repressive state.

(V). The Iron/Clay Feet and Toes

This symbol reflects fractured world political configuration, and it hints at the presences of some weak and some powerful states at the close of human history.

The historical parallels to this are the post-Cold War years, since the 1991, where we saw the demise of the superpower totalitarian state. Today we live in the era of diffuse world political power. Some of the power brokers in this era are powerful nations such as USA, other NATO members, Russia and China. However, the smaller nations have not been insignificant in affecting the state of the world either.

This is also the era of ethno-nationalism, where we have seen the break up of once powerful nations into smaller entities. In this era, we increasingly notice the ‘clash of civilizations’, where culture matters more than ideology. There is now much diversity, non-agreement and conflict in world politics. Consensuses are proving hard to achieve. It is no longer one imperial power imposing its will on all as in the old days. Today we live in a multi-polar world with power being spread over many states, alliances and regional blocs.

(VI). The Boulder

The stone that dislodges from the mountain and rolls down to hit the statue at its feet - to crush and destroy it, represents the kingdom of God that will appear in the last days.

It is to this splintered, fractured world, where one state is weak and another strong, that God would suddenly send His Boulder. The Divine Government will come suddenly to crush the human-made political set ups of the present time. Unlike any empire before it, God’s kingdom will encompass the ends of the earth, and more importantly, it will last forever. Unlike its human-made predecessor empires, it will not have partial world domination or last only for a limited number of years.

Conclusion

The alternative view we presented above attempted to cover the major political systems mankind have set up throughout its history. We have tried to account nearly for all the major and important political systems, which appear to have any worldwide importance.

Secondly, we tried to close the loophole (the time gap) that exists in all the traditional interpretations given on the dream of the statue. Once that gap is close, now there is a seamless transition from the political era represented by the legs to that represented by the feet.

Glory be to God.

A Date With Father

David Mitts

Sep 3, 2004

Halleluyahhhhhhhhh!

Shalom and thanks to ALL whom have been attending the "extended meetings". I want to share the updated word from the Holy Spirit with you and let you in on the "next steps" to revival! Last night we had a meeting where the attendance was lower than usual. As I began worshipping in a somewhat exhausted state, the Lord spoke to me and shared the scripture for the night, Mathew 25.

He specifically spoke about getting our lamps filled with oil and to be in a state of alertness for His Coming. He is the reviver and the Source of Revival. I noticed myself looking around at others worshipping and the relatively smaller size of the meeting and the Lord spoke to me and asked: "why was I concerned with this?" He gave me two illustrations to help me see the backwards nature of my thinking. The first was an illustration of my children wanting to be with me, their father. The Lord asked me if they like sharing me? I answered, Not AT ALL. In fact, they would be extremely happy if they each were the only one who got my attention. I suddenly realized, that the size of meetings, or the "ministry" was a distraction to having his attention to myself. The Lord wanted me and I needed to want Him. I began to understand the jealousy of the Lord. I realized true love is protective of the one being loved and wants to have their attention. God showed me that my kids were exhibiting love when they wanted me to themselves. I realized He wanted me to want Him that way and not be concerned about what He did for others.

Next He showed me a restaurant and said we were to have a date night. I saw that when I have a date night with Lisa, I'm not concerned with how many are in the restaurant, or how the waiter (minister) is or really even how great the food is (the teaching). I mean I want all those to be great; but really for her. I want her to love the food and the atmosphere, but my attention is on her! The Lord said we were to have date nights with Him in these meetings. We were to have great food (the Word), and great atmosphere (worship) and great waiters (ministers), but the most important is the One across the table! It is that deep Oneness of sharing our spirit with His Spirit that brings His Reality into the room. So revival is about our passion for Him and the rest is in His Hands.

Finally, the Lord told me that this revival would be generational and about restoring the generations to the Lord. This is why it is prophetic! It will fulfill the prophecy of Malachi:

"Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD. "He will restore the hearts of the fathers to their children and the hearts of the children to their fathers, so that I will not come and smite the land with a curse."(Mal 4:5-6).

There is coming forth an "Elijah" company who will bring forth the restorative Word to the generations. It why God calls Himself, The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He told me that on behalf of the fathers He would bring denominations into healing including the children of Israel, the original denomination. He will have One Bride, not a fractured household!

A Divine Encounter
Paul Cain

Preached by Paul Cain
9-26-04 at Morningstar Church - Wilkesboro

Have any of you been discouraged, disillusioned or disheartened lately? I think most of us have been. God's people are being prepared right now for His next great move. I believe that a large percentage of us have been facing at least one of these things. It is time that we have a divine encounter with God.

We can sometimes think that we prepare ourselves for these, but it is really God who initiates these encounters. I've gone through many personal struggles and wrestled with my own weakness and failures and faced my own sins, but I am taking comfort from Moses, who even after he went through all that he did, that God is still dealing to restore me.

I take comfort in the fact as I am almost at Moses' age of 80, when being on the back side of the desert, he found that God could still use him and restore him, after feeling that he had totally failed.

You know the Bible says be sure that your sin will find you out. Moses thought he had buried the Egyptian that he murdered in the sand when he was trying to defend God's people, but then one of his big toes stuck up out of the sand and Moses was found out, and so he ran because of his guilt.

And so he ran to the desert and tended sheep with Jethro his father-in-law, but really it was God setting him up for a move and a divine encounter. I have another name for God. You know we call him Jehovah Jireh and Jehovah Rapha and Jehovah Shalom, and all these things, but I have a revelation of his new name, it's "Jehovah Sneaky!" He will sneak up on you!

There on the back side of the desert, feeling as far away as he could get, Moses saw an unusual thing. Many bushes burned in the desert, but this one he saw was different. We have to keep our focus on the right things if we are going to hear from God. Moses had to keep his focus on this to hear from God.

Exodus 3 is a significant chapter for me. I have read it many times over the years, but lately the Lord has been showing me a lot more out of it.

Exo 3:7 And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows;
Exo 3:8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
Exo 3:9 Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.
Exo 3:10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.
Exo 3:11 And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

Here you can see that God sees all the oppression and sorrow that we have gone through. The Israelites groaned under the Egyptian bondage and cried. But God saw, because there is nothing going on that God does not see.

And He hears. He hears every word and He sees every tear. And you will see here in verse 7 that God also knows. People don't always know you or how you feel, but God does. He knows everything that you are going through and how you feel about it.

And He is the All-Sufficient One for us. No matter how impractical or impossible it seems, just keep on believing Him.

God is sending today. Like Moses in verse 10, He is using the young and the old and empowering them, just as He sent Moses this great prophet to Pharaoh. He is about to empower us to do His great work through His divine enablement. Give us courage, Lord, to receive this divine enablement.

We have a destiny and future that will fill the stadiums. The power of God will come and we will see people falling on their faces saying, "Jesus is Lord! Jesus is Lord!"

He is bringing us out to bring us in. There will be dramatic healings, and crutches and canes and wheelchairs will be discarded. And there will even be the raising of the dead! It will be in such fashion that even the media, like ABC, NBC, CBS and CNN will report it. Maybe even FOX will report it. It will be the greatest show on earth!

They will say, "Ladies and gentlemen, there is no news to report tonight, seemingly only good news! There are no sporting events to report because all of the stadiums and ball parks are filled. There are miracles taking place all over the place, even the raising of the dead! We see crutches and wheelchairs cast away and we aren't sure who these people are ministering, but they have been there for days!"

People, this isn't hype. I know hype and this isn't hype. How many of you remember the Jesus People Movement of the 70's when all those people and young people came in? It was really something. There were all these hippies coming into the church and it was really distressing to those of us who were raised up in the holiness movement. God has great grace.

I remember at the height of it, I was ministering with Chuck Smith in San Bernandino, where thousands, maybe a million people got baptized in the Pacific Ocean. We in the "holiness" camp just had fits with this new expression of God.

These people were sinners, with their long hair - and long hair was a sin in those days - but some of the folks had tongues that were longer than their hair! Finally I realized that I would rather be a hippie than a hypocrite!

One night at this campmeeting when so many of us were upset in this controversy, God spoke to me and said that He was going to do a creative miracle the next night to prove this meeting was of Him. I prophesied it and then heard Him say not to say another word about it.

I felt He told me that it would happen on the left side of where I was preaching, in that section. These kids were a mess. They were doing drugs in the parking lot, smoking their dope and popping their beer cans and we just hated it. It upset me so bad that I just wanted to dangle them over hell on the end of a rotten stick, you know?

But the next night the crowd gathered and I didn't say a word, but as it commenced, I saw some people bring in a young man whose brain had totally fried on drugs, like from acid and the like. He had to have two people bring him in, one on the right and one on the left. He couldn't walk or dress or bathe himself and he even had to wear a diaper because he was so disconnected in his brain from those drugs.

He sat in that left section and I knew that is where I felt God told me the miracle would take place, and I wondered if he was the guy. He was totally helpless, but he had been from an affluent family. Affluent, if you don't know, means filthy rich. Apparently he had a music type background, of a show biz type.

As I was preaching and ministering, I looked out into the crowd and I saw this glow around him, like a shining light on him, and suddenly before I knew what I was doing, I prophesied, "Brian, the Lord gives you a new brain right now in Jesus' Name!"

He got up and the others got up to help him but they all fell out in the Spirit. There was a Baldwin kind of grand piano in there and he went over to it, fully connected together, and in concert style, he pulled back his old dirty tee shirt, and like a concert pianist began to play a Bach lullaby perfectly.

I wasn't always so hot on that type of music in those days but it was just beautiful that night. Everyone just cried and wailed.

Even the hippies got convicted. They were almost delirious. They came up and said "We shouldn't be doing these drugs in the parking lot, should we?" And I said, "I didn't say that," because God told me not to say a word.

They said, "We need to be saved, don't we?" And I said, "I didn't say that either." And they said "We aren't saved, we need to be saved!!!" And so a whole slew of them came forward and repented, convicted by the Spirit of God without man saying a word.

We need to see the bush burn again in the desert. It's time to do business with the King. And God says, "I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh and your sons and your daughters will prophesy..."

A Desperate Situation A Victorious God

Olivia Long

faithbuildersministries@the-i.net
February 2, 2004
So many of My Beloved ones have been in a desperate situation and time. You have been made to taste the mire and the desperation that many of My own and those that I AM calling are living in and have lived in for much of their lives. You have felt the desire to give up and you have experienced the feeling of going under. Oh, My sweet Beloved servant, you have tasted what many are living under and through this, I have equipped you to minister to those, the downcast. Just as Jesus took on the sins of the world, so you, My Beloved, have tasted and taken on desperation. But hear your Lord, just as you have experienced the desperation you will experience My deliverance of this desperate situation and place. This is your testimony!

My Beloved, I have called you but because of this desperate situation and time, many question My call upon your lives. Have I forgotten you? Would I forget My Son? No... You are a joint heir, therefore I cannot forget you. Be strong and very courageous. You Will possess the land and all it's riches. Satan is defeated and you shall take back all he has stolen from you. You are the victor through My Son. The I AM has declared it and you will stand victorious.

My Beloved, if you could see the whole picture, as I do, you would see My hand IS working IN your situation. Soon, very soon you will see what I AM accomplishing in the Spiritual realm and you will say, AHA, AHA, My God was in this situation. KNOW that you are very precious to ME and I will never allow one thing to touch your life without My hand being in it. Nothing, I say nothing, will pass through your life without My knowing. You are in the palm of My hand. I hold you as a delicate bird who I have placed in My loving arm where you are safe and secure. I hold you in one hand while feeding you with the other, cupped in My hand, safe and secure. Nothing will touch you because I have placed My seal upon you and you are secure. The enemy will try to pluck at your feathers but he cannot harm you because you are MINE! I have been feeding you from My hand, I will take care of you and understanding will come.

You must look to your source, your Redeemer, the One Who loves you and cares. "In the twinkling of an eye, I will move on your behalf. In the fullness of time, I will move." I have much in store for your life and I have not forsaken you or forgotten My promises to you. Draw closer to Me for I AM moving in a mighty way and I will not delay. Stand close to ME, stand on My Word for I will not fail you. Do not lean on man, do not lean on the world, do not lean on your own understanding - and you will see through the eyes of your God who loves you far above your own understanding. Wait on the LORD and I will give you the desires of your heart and you will see A DESPERATE SITUATION turned around by A VICTORIOUS GOD!!!

I speak WORDS OF LIFE AND LOVE to you this day! LIVING WORDS and they shall not come back to me void. If you ask for bread, I will not give you a stone. Speak encouragement to others and encouragement comes to you! Sow into them and reap the harvest! As you have given, continue to give...your harvest is coming. As you have sowed out of each need, you will reap taking care of each need.

Beloved, KNOW that your pleas and your cries have touched My heart. I have heard each cry of give Me a sign, of when, of where or why? Know that MY plan is perfect and I have had to work out the details that could only be accomplished by ME, your Father and your God. Details that could not possibly be seen by the human eye or the human mind. Beloved, I will not allow you to fall. I will not allow your life to get out of My plans, no-one can stop it, not man nor any demon from hell. My plan is perfect! Your finances, each need, each commitment, each responsibility is in My hands and I have the way to meet them all. I will not delay for I have the timetable and plan in My hands. Do not give in to unbelief, stand steady in each word spoken and given to you. When discouragement comes take authority over it in My Name and speak the word ..."It is Written!" Take courage, My Beloved, My eyes have never been taken off you - My hand is ever upon you and know that if all else fails in the world, that My Word will never fail...

Take heed in the little things I AM doing and that are happening in your life. It is through the little things that the mighty plans come forth. It is still through that still small voice that I speak. It is a little thing yet it is a mighty powerful thing! Listen to that still small voice for I have mighty things to say to you. These little things will fit together to make a powerful impact on your life and ministry. Some of you would say "I don't have a ministry" but My Beloved, yes you do!

Beloved, I have called you to a life separate from the world. A life the world, or even other believers, do not understand. They will not or cannot understand what I AM doing in your life but it will we be a sign to all when it is manifested!!!! It will amaze all who see and hear of it... It will amaze those close to you... They will say "How did this happen and come about?" Those who know ME will say "It can only be the Lord." YOU WILL SAY "It can only be the Lord. He took My Desperate situation and turned it into a victorious situation. All the Glory belongs to My Lord and My God for it was a desperate situation." Many will hear this testimony and KNOW that I AM GOD. Many will turn their lives of desperation over to ME for I AM a Victorious God.

A DESPERATE SITUATION - A VICTORIOUS GOD !!!

A Door Of Authority

Victoria Boyson

A Door of Authority has Opened in the Heavenlies

Much is said in the church today about Christlikeness and we all want to be like Jesus. But what does Christlikeness really look like? If you examine the life of Christ, you will see that He was loving and compassionate; but, also, He did not coddle demons, He rebuked them. When He encountered demonic forces, He took authority over them. He did not try to reason with them, He just commanded them to leave. He had zero tolerance for the enemy!

The Terror of Hell!

Wherever Christ went He spoiled the works of darkness and caused chaos in the enemy's camp. He was relentless against the powers of darkness. Where there was sickness, He brought healing. Where sin had taken hold, He blasted it with deliverance. No demon was safe wherever Jesus went, because He took authority over the demonic realm. Demons trembled when He approached them. He was the terror of hell!

Yes, because of the authority He walked in, hell feared Him and they had every reason to. Jesus knew who He was and Whose He was!

Jesus lived in the realm of the miraculous; His life was hemmed in by one miracle after another. He did amazing, incredible things. Wherever He went, blind eyes were healed, lame men walked, the dead were raised, demons fled, and lepers were cleansed. He astonished the world and then He set the stage for you and I to walk in the same power and authority that He did. He prophesied, "Greater works shall [you] do!" (John 14:12).

Christ's Plan for Us: Greater Works!

He said that we would do even greater works than He did. He wants us to do greater works; that's His plan for us. It was His idea for us to do great, incredible, amazing things. He wants us to dwell in the realm of the miraculous. He wants us to cause as much trouble for the kingdom of darkness as we can.

Where there is sickness, He wants us to bring healing! He does not want us to beg Him for healings to take place, He wants us to command sickness to leave and healing to come in its place. And where there is demonic activity, He desires for us to cast it out. He wants us to tear down, rip apart, and ravage the strongholds of the enemy.

A door to a greater level of authority has been opened in the heavenlies, and the church must walk through it. No longer should we hang our heads in shame or let self-pity wear us down. No, we must walk in the authority of Christ! It's time for the church to operate in the authority that Christ purchased for us with His life. It is time to walk in true Christlikeness, not false humility, but to truly live like Christ in every respect.

The enemy has been busy harassing the Body of Christ. He has tried to weigh us down with accusation and condemnation until we feel weak and incapable. But why has he done this? What is he afraid of?

He is trying so hard to condemn us and convince us we are powerless, because he is absolutely terrified of us!!! The thought that we might actually discover just how powerful we are is horrifying to him, so out of his fear of us he hounds and harasses us.

What Does the Enemy See When he Looks at Us?

What does the devil see in us that is so terrifying to him? He sees the righteousness of God in us (see 2 Corinthians 5:21)! He sees untapped resources of the power of heaven! He sees the prophecy of Christ looming before him and that, at just the right moment, the church is going to break forth in the power and authority of Jesus Christ!

He is petrified of you, beloved. That's right, you may see yourself as insignificant, but believe me, you are what hell fears! When you stand to your feet, hell trembles. When you kneel to pray, it panics. And when you speak forth the truth of God in the authority of Christ, demons run screaming.

Sickness knows it must flee when you tell it to. Death knows you have power to conquer it. The enemy knows that Jesus Christ has given you the keys to the kingdom to unlock the power of heaven on the earth. The consumable, ferocious, devouring power of Almighty God is in your mouth. When you walk in the authority of Jesus Christ and command the enemy to BACK OFF, they know they must obey you.

For too long we have believed the lies of the enemy - we have tried to co-exist with him. But we can no longer tolerate the activity of the enemy in our hearts, minds, bodies, families, churches, cities, and nations.

There are no little saints in the kingdom of God; no second-hand anointings. Each one of us play an important role in the army of heaven. We must all do our part in fighting the enemy and take the ground where the Lord has placed us. You are important to the kingdom of God! He needs you!

"Stick Up for Yourself!"

I recently prayed for a brother in Christ and, as I did, the Holy Spirit spoke through me, "Stick up for yourself, boy!" The words came with power, and such wonderful revelation, too. We have to stick up for ourselves; we must not let the enemy get away with his harassment of us! It is time we stick up for who we are in Christ and not let the enemy torment us with lies of accusation and condemnation.

It's time for the past to stay in the past! Do not let the enemy get away with reminding you of it in order to keep you chained to it. Rip off the chains of condemnation and guilt and use them to strangle him. Make him pay for harassing you and your loved ones and make him fear attacking you again. You ARE the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus, and great works shall you do.

I Hate Hell!

I hate hell! I hate hell having access or admittance to any member of the kingdom of God. I see a child of God as the greatest treasure on earth, and that treasure belongs to my God! How dare the enemy touch anything that belongs to Him. How dare he be so bold to think he can bring harm to the bride of heaven. His blatant audacity inflames me.

Beloved, it is time to get mad at the devil. He has tried to keep us focused on hating one another, but his onslaught against us must only rally us together to fight against him, and fight him we must! We must convince him we do mean business.

Saints, we have been too passive with the enemy for too long. No more! Grab hold of the authority of Jesus, man your battle stations and prepare for war!

Please pray this with me:

Dear Jesus,

I repent for not using the gift of authority that You purchased for me with Your precious blood. Make me the terror of hell and the joy of heaven. Lord, I thank you that I will walk in your fearless faith. And may I cause as much harm to the kingdom of darkness as it has caused me!

In Jesus' name, AMEN!

A Day Of Deeper Consecration
Yolanda Ballard

Apr 3, 2004Word submitted for your discernment By Yolanda Ballard

A DAY OF DEEPER CONSECRATION

Rest your weary head upon My brow and draw close, My little lambs, for I come to lead you by streams of living water where I will reveal My grace and truth to you to prepare you for what is ahead. Let go and allow Me to be King of all kings and Lord of all lords to you. Let Me have total control of all that concerns you, and rest in My faithfulness to provide all your needs. Seek Me and worship Me in the beauty of holiness for this is the day for new beginnings. Let the past melt away.

Forgive all who have offended you, and bless them with My peace. Yes, bless them that they may know Me and My ways. For when you forgive, you release them from the snare of the evil one, and you commit them into My care. And bless them that they may know of My saving grace that I AM their Savior and their Lord and that I came that they may have life abundantly.

Now, My children, I want you to receive My blessing of peace and prosperity. Receive My healing power that you may be whole. And step aside that I may live My life through you. Yes, let Me show you how you should live where you can have joy unspeakable and be full of My glory. For I AM ready to ascend on high to pull down the strongholds of the evil one. For you have remained faithful to worship Me enabling Me to be first in your lives. This gives Me great power to overcome the evil one over your home and communities and yes, over your state and nation. For when you praise Me, you crush the evil one under your feet, and allow him to be My footstool, for we are one and we work together when you obey Me and My will.

I can do nothing to overcome the evil one without you being by My side for you are My bride, and forevermore we shall be together. But now is time of great warfare, and there will be great loss for those who try to make it on their own. You cannot have great faith without relationship with Me. Yes, I have defeated the evil one at the cross, and it is finished. We have the victory by faith, but you must apply this to your life. Be sanctified unto Me. Walk in My holiness and obedience to My will. Worship Me as a way of life. Love Me, My holy ones, by loving the brethren. Die to your flesh, and allow My resurrection power to flow out, and My love will surely repel the evil one.

For this is the day of salvation, and the choice is yours to make. I came to save your whole man, and make My life a reality to you every day. Without My love you are nothing. Without My Spirit you have no life. Without My breath, life will end, so draw near, for there is no life outside of the Vine, so consecrate yourselves unto Me this day. No turning back for this is the time to reap the harvest, and a bumper crop indeed!

So rejoice and be glad for I give you the victory. Don't look in the natural, but continue to press in and believe, and I will keep My promise to you if you remain faithful to the end. Keep covered with the armor of light. Stay behind your shield of faith, and wield your sword against the evil one, and I will continue to bless you with the grace and the strength that you need. Stay united and continue to march in taking back what is yours as a mighty army. You are My bride, and I love you, says your King.

The Day For Restoration

Mar 27, 2004
From the heart of the Father to the heart of His people the Lord expressly gives a warm welcome that you envelope yourself in His love and grace and that you visit the lost as if they were your very own family. Love your neighbor as you would your very own family, but in this day and time many families are not close, because the enemy was allowed to steal, kill and destroy relationships, because they were not grounded in the love of the Father. But I tell you today to not allow it to happen any longer.

Be open and ready for the Lord is pouring out His grace in restoring all that the enemy had set out to do. And that includes relationships between those in the body of Christ that had been divided through the deception of the enemy in pouring out heresies, yes, lies, doctrines that were from demons, and legalistic encounters to control and manipulate My people. Yes, this is the day for restoration. My heart cry is that we be one as I and My Father are one.

Yes, join together in My truth. Cry out for Truth and restoration, for unity, for without it you will not make it against the enemy of your soul. Join together, My beloved, and open your hearts that I may teach you even the basics of My word once again to gain a sure foundation. Yes, this will be a refresher course in My word, and we will breeze through this undoing the lies of the evil one and gaining the knowledge that had been lost in the turmoil, and you will come out stronger than before, and we will build upon a sure foundation of My truth and love, and we will go out and spread the gospel of My love to those I gave My life for.

Be ready for a breakthrough, for the revelation of My light, for the purging to begin, for I AM pouring out My fire and My rain, and I AM readying My people to go out to reap the harvest like never before. For this is the time I AM pouring out My grace and glory and My love upon My Bride, and I AM restoring all that the cankerworm has destroyed, and the palmerworm, and the locusts. For you have no part of the curse that is poured out on the disobedient.

I have promised you life abundant. And those who have suffered great loss and have endured long, this is the time I will reward you for your faithfulness for staying by My side. You have looked past the loss with the hope and expectancy of restoration. And the promise is yours. For I AM the Lord of the breakthrough and of new beginnings. Let the past melt away. Keep your eyes on tomorrow, the day of new beginnings. Look past the threshold and see the open door of blessings for it is yours to take for you and your household, for the nations. Reach out and take what is yours.

All My promises to you are yes and Amen if you hold first in your life My will and My kingdom, if you will reach out to the lost, and love your families. Yes, if you meet My conditions, you will prosper and be in health as your soul prospers. And as you step out and ground yourself in My word, your joy and peace will return, and My love will flow like a river through you.

Yes, this is the day that My people rise up and be all that I've called them to be.....a worshipper, a warrior, one that will not settle for less than the best. My will be done, My kingdom come, on earth as it is in heaven!

A Door Of Grace Is Opening
Johan Boot

bootj@mweb.co.za in Cape Town.

For many years many from all over the world have heard about the revival that would start in the south of South Africa and spread northwards. Many have prayed and cried out to the Lord to bring this about, yet it has tarried. In 1993 I received a detailed prophetic word from the Lord, revealing the plans and purposes of the Lord for this nation. The time span for that vision is 21 years, which commenced with the elections during 1994. September 2004 is the halfway point (10 and half years) into this prophetic vision and we are currently entering an extremely significant time and season in the Lord. We do not say that this prophetic vision is the fulfilment of the 'great fires moving from the south to the north', but we do believe that God is moving powerfully in preparation for His reign to come upon His church in a very powerful way.

The past 10 and a half years

The overriding impression we have of the Lord is His desire to come and dwell amongst His people. Yet, many do not understand the importance of a season of preparation before the Lord moves amongst His own. Although the Lord has a burning desire to dwell with His own bride and children, we must prepare ourselves in repentance, prayer and humility. The Lord not only desires to dwell amongst His own, but also to reign in power and to establish His kingdom. It is here that much preparation is required. In order for Christ to reign in our midst, we need to acknowledge and receive Him as our only King. The real preparation for Jesus' reign lies in our hearts. It is in our hearts that we need to surrender all our idols and rebellion to the Lord. As long as we still desire to remain in control of our own destiny and future, we are not really ready to acknowledge the reign of Christ.

Many will say that they have acknowledged Christ's lordship and desire His reign, yet unless we understand the power of surrender and the work of the cross, we are not ready for the habitation of the Lord. There is a great difference between a visitation by the Lord, and the Lord choosing a corporate place and people for His habitation. Whereas the Lord may visit many people in their need, He does not often find a place for His habitation.

We believe that in the past 10 years the Lord has been preparing the hearts of His people to be knit together in order to become a dwelling place of God in the Spirit (Eph 2:19-22). From 1994 to 2001 a great movement of prayer has been established in this nation, and today we have great stadium prayer events all across Africa. Yet, something is still missing! Simply organizing prayer vigils will not move the Lord to come and abide with His people. He desires brokenness. He desires spiritual thirst and hunger. It is only through spiritual hunger and brokenness that the heart is prepared for the reign of the Lord. Without this desperate hunger, many will simply 'play the harlot' with the Lord, and use Him for their benefit in the day of His coming.

Therefore the Lord has caused a spiritual drought in this country for the past 3 and half years. He has called many to come up to the mountain of His presence to seek His face and heart. He has caused many to do great soul searching and to acknowledge their own pride and foolishness. He has been forcing the hungry at heart to seek Him in a dry place. Although many have been called to seek Him outside the established realms of 'success and significance', only a few has heeded the call. Also many mighty men have fallen, and other faithful ones have been torn between the old and the new. Yet, there is a remnant that has pressed through the fear of isolation and ridicule. It is this remnant that is about to see the face of the Lord in a powerful way.

The next 3 and half years

There is now an invitation from the heart of the Lord to enter the secret place of intimacy with the Lord. In the next season of the Lord, those who have pressed through the desert, will suddenly find the favour of the Lord. But more than the favour of the Lord, they will find Him! He will share His secrets and heart, and give all who will truly seek Him in humility and brokenness, a spiritual heart transplant. He will give them His heart to understand His purposes and plans, and to do great exploits in His name.

Tremendous grace is being poured out at this time and it will be the season of the Lord’s love raining down upon His people. This rain will begin to fall over the whole nation and the true church, as the Lord is calling His people to prepare themselves for Him. Much weeping, repentance and humility will be granted to the church. This is a season for the Lord to take His people unto Himself. He himself will become their Shepherd, and they will learn to walk with Him.

Yet, it is also a season of the birthing of a new breed of elders and shepherds. These men will be men of the cross and surrender, who have been dealt with by the Lord. They have all wrestled with the Lord like Jacob, and they carry the marks and testimony of a man crippled by the hand of God. They have lost their search for power, significance and wealth, and have learnt that the most significant place for them is in the Father’s house and doing their Father’s business (not their own).

It is a season wherein leaders will surrender their own crowns, robes and rings, and they will offer themselves as living sacrifices unto the Lord. They will exchange their individual anointing for the corporate anointing of the Lord. Fresh fire will fall from heaven as the Lord receives their sacrifice of humility, brokenness and repentance, and they are transformed into workers amongst God’s people as true servants of the flock of the Lord.

This will usher in a new season for those who will hear and obey the Lord. Also many of the old structures and methods, the Lord will no longer anoint and bless.

The last 7 years

We believe that the last 7 years in the 21 years prophetic vision will be the time of the army of the Lord arising in our nation. Those leaders who have allowed the Lord to mould them into what He wants them to be, instead of what they want to be by themselves, will be mightily used by the Lord. They will train and equip the army of the Lord that will arise from dwelling in the Lord’s presence. His presence and fire will burn in their bones and they will be sent forth in great power and mighty signs and wonders.

24 & 25 September 2004

In Cape Town we believe that the long weekend of 24 & 25 September 2004 is going to be a very significant time (Friday - Heritage day and Saturday). The Jewish feast of the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) falls on Saturday 25 September, and we see this as a significant day for the commencement of the season of grace. We believe that it will be a time of God's presence and fire coming down in a fresh way, as He desires to take us into His chambers of love and grace. It will be a time of brokenness as we trust the Lord to transform many leaders, into the servants he desires and will use in the future acts of God in our city, nation and unto the ends of the earth.

There will be 2 open meetings (for anyone to attend) on Friday and Saturday night (24, 25 September).
Venue: Brooklyn Community Church (old Oranje cinema)
Locality address: 217 Koeberg road (extension of M5 north of N1), Brooklyn. Corner of Koeberg and Forridon roads
Dates: 24 & 25 September 2004
Time: 7:30 pm
There are no costs involved in attending these meetings and security for vehicles will be provided.

Shepherd's meeting
There will also be two elders' and shepherds' meetings on Friday and Saturday afternoon. If you are an elder (older man in the faith) or a shepherd amongst God's flock, and you feel the Lord urging you to attend these meetings, please contact me regarding these meetings.

Personally I am excited about what the Lord is doing amongst the different streams in His body. We are excited to see people involved in home fellowships and more traditional congregations coming together to share and learn from one another.

Apostolic Decrees Of Justice

Todd Bentley

October 20, 2004

Apostolic declarations, that are commissioned in heaven and sent by God, have tremendous authority to bring about His justice. The Lord will release significant breakthroughs when we declare, decree, and proclaim His will and His word. An apostolic declaration is a powerful weapon that shatters destructive plans of the enemy! It's even like a pre-emptive strike!

DECLARE, DECREE, PROCLAIM

GOD'S MANDATE FOR THE YEAR - ISAIAH 61:2

God began speaking to me about apostolic declarations at the beginning of the year. He highlighted this key scripture, "To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn" (Isaiah 61:2). Next, He revealed that one of His (five) mandates for 2004 and beyond is: to declare, decree, and proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, the year of the Lord's favor, or Jubilee. He is anointing us to carry out this mandate! When we make a decree like Moses and the prophet Isaiah, it's like we're saying, "Hear O heavens and earth...let heaven and earth give witness!" "Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak; and hear O earth, the words of my mouth" (Deuteronomy 32:1). "Hear O heavens, and give ear, O earth! For the LORD has spoken...'" (Isaiah 1:2)

JUBILEE AND FAVOR

Did you know that Jubilee means total deliverance for us, cancellation of debts for each of us and our family, and liberation from any kind of a bondage, taskmaster, or oppression over our lives? In the anointing, we can proclaim "Jubilee!" and set into motion, like the laws of gravity, a power, or a force of power that causes everything in our lives to begin to come into divine order. Now, that's an anointing! We don't have to wait for the year of Jubilee! When God's word is declared, the angels of heaven act upon that decree, and a supernatural endowment of power comes into our lives that we never had before.

There's more! When the Spirit of the Lord God is upon us to proclaim "Favor!" everything around us will begin to change because of the favor of God. One moment we don't have this power, and then in the next moment, under the anointing, we can proclaim, "Favor, favor, favor!" Suddenly, a download of favor comes that was lacking two minutes before, like a tangible 'coat of many colors,' dropping out of heaven as an anointing. We will see the results!

Did you know that the same word for 'grace' is 'favor' and both words can be used in the same way? How many of us would just love a spirit of grace to come upon us today? God not only wants to give us favor, He wants to release the spirit of grace upon us, through a supernatural endowment of power.

GROWING IN FAVOR WITH GOD

It seems like everyone is trying to get favor, but there are principles involved that release favor upon our lives. First of all, God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him (Hebrews 11:6). Listen guys! God loves everyone the same, but the one who loves and seeks Him the most, is the one He will favor the most. God loves the wickedest, vilest sinner just as much as He loves us, but more of His favor is released to the one who deeply loves Him, who hungers and thirsts for Him. When we fail to seek God passionately, our favor level might not be the same as other believers who are pursuing the Lord with all their heart. Jesus said to "...seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). We can actually grow in favor by obedience and by diligently seeking Him.

When we think about getting the favor of God, so often we think it's a process of 'getting into' the favor. But levels of favor grow. Jesus grew in favor with both God and men (Luke 2:52). When our favor with God grows, our favor with man grows.

King David's life of devotion to the Lord attracted the heart and favor of God even though at times there were some areas of his life that were quite messy. It was like God looked at David and said, "But this guy has a heart of passion for Me!" When David became captain over about 400 discontented men, the favor of God became evident, and this favor grew until the people made him King over Judah and all of Israel (1 Samuel 22:2; 2 Samuel 2:4).

So, growing in favor with God hinges on our intense pursuit of Him. When God sees our love for Him and our determination to chase after Him with all our heart, He not only releases favor over our lives, He releases an anointing to proclaim "Favor!"

DAY OF VINDICATION

You know, there's more than Jubilee and favor coming! Our day of vindication is coming, too! Now, let's go back in Isaiah to, "proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn" (Isaiah 61:2). The second part of that verse is to declare and decree the day of the vengeance of our God. He will release an anointing upon us so that we can actually call court into session and call heaven to be our witness, when there is injustice. It's an anointing to declare God's vindication (Definition -- vindication: defending against criticism or censure [Webster's Dictionary]). We can access the heavenly court system where the Holy Ghost presides as our advocate and counselor in matters concerning our lives, destiny, inheritance, and death.

How many of us would like God to take up our cause right now? There are circumstances in our lives -- sickness, disease, death, poverty, bondage, oppression, false accusations -- that we know are not God's will for us. Yes, we can think of all kinds of injustice, but the Spirit of the Lord is upon us to declare vindication. We know the scripture where God says, "'Vengeance is Mine, I will repay,' says the Lord" (Hebrews 10:30), but He has invited us, as saints of God, into a place of the power of the decree.

We can actually approach the heavenly court system, not only to gain justice on our behalf, but also to petition God for divine judgment against our enemies. God will plead the cause of His people, but we have to learn how to ascend the courts of heaven. As children of God we have a right to see injustice removed and it will be removed when we declare and proclaim God's word, His truth. God's word prevails and disarms injustice!

THE HEAVENLY COURT

Now, let's examine some background scriptures so we can more fully understand how our decrees disarm injustice in the heavenly realm.

BACKGROUND

Recently, I prepared an in-depth teaching series on 'encounters with the throne,' after spending an extensive period of time studying 64 scriptures about this topic. Due to time and space limitations here, we will examine just a few of these scriptures in this teaching.

The heavenly court system is known by other names in scripture:

a) Divine council -- Psalm 82:1
b) Counsel of El (God) -- Job 15:8
c) The council of Yahweh -- Jeremiah 23:18
d) Council of the holy ones -- Psalm 89:7

I'd like to define divine 'council' and divine 'counsel.' When a group meets together like an administrative, advisory, or legislative body for discussion and advice, we call this grouping a council. So, when the heavenly court is in session, the members of the court form a body called the 'divine council.' But, when these members of the divine council listen to the Lord's message and engage in discussion, the members are hearing God's advice and wisdom -- His 'divine counsel.'

Below, I will list some of the members of the divine council:

a) God
b) The hosts of heaven -- also called the stars of heaven: "They fought from the heavens; the stars from their courses fought against Sisera." Judges 5:20 (The hosts of heaven include: the angels; the Cherubim and the Seraphim; Michael, the archangel, who is the leader of angels in battle and the archangel over the nation of Israel; and Gabrielle, who brings interpretation of divine revelation concerning times and seasons of the church.)
c) The cloud of witnesses: the apostles, prophets, and saints of old
d) The prophets that are alive on the earth, and believers
e) The twelve disciples who judge the nation of Israel
f) The 24 elders
g) Devils

The divine counsel of God is described differently in several places in scripture. The heavenly courts can be found on earth or in heaven, and both the counsel and council of God are always linked to the dwelling place of God. It can happen in the mountain -- it can happen in the temple setting:

a) The mount of the congregation:
"For you have said in your heart: 'I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation on the farthest sides of the north.'" Isaiah 14:13

b) The holy mountain of God:
"You were the anointed cherub who covers; I established you; You were on the holy mountain of God; You walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones." Ezekiel 28:14

c) An earthly picture linked to the tent or tabernacle of God:
"Look upon Zion, the city of our appointed feasts; Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet home, a tabernacle that will not be taken down; Not one of its stakes will ever be removed, nor will any of its cords be broken." Isaiah 33:20

THE THRONE ROOM

A GLIMPSE OF THE THRONE

When he comes before the throne in the spirit, the apostle John sees God, sitting on the throne, like jasper stone and sardius in appearance. He sees a beautiful scene of worship (Revelation 4:1-11). Later, in the book of Revelation (chapters five through eight), although the setting remains the same (the very throne of God), the scene changes to a courtroom that releases judgment.

As Christians, we often have a mental picture of two distinct places in heaven: one, the throne room where the saints worship and, two, the courtroom of God where judgments are made. However, in the book of Revelation, it appears that both worship and judgment happen in the same place, just at different times. In the throne room John sees and refers to each member of the Trinity. Firstly, he identifies God as "One sitting on the throne" (Rev. 4:2). Secondly, he describes seven burning lamps which symbolize the Holy Ghost (v. 5). Lastly, we see Jesus Christ revealed in the throne room (Rev. 5) as the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, the great overcomer. There it is -- the Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, in the throne room!

The prophet Daniel gives one of the best descriptions of the throne room to be found in scripture; both the Ancient of Days and the Son of Man are seen together in their governmental authority:

"I watched till thrones were put in place, and the Ancient of Days was seated; His garment was white as snow, and the hair of His head was like pure wool. His throne was a fiery flame, its wheels a burning fire, a fiery stream issued and came forth from before Him. A thousand thousands ministered to Him; Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The court was seated, and the books were opened." Daniel 7:9-10

"I was watching in the night visions, and behold, One like the Son of Man, coming with the clouds of heaven! He came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him."

Daniel 7:13,14

In the above passage, Daniel identifies the Ancient of Days as the One presiding over judgment and the Son of Man, Jesus Christ, receiving His glorious kingdom. Both Daniel and John describe the presence of the Lamb of God.

Revelation 4, and Ezekiel 1 and 10, both describe the throne, but in two different ways. The apostle John refers to a throne on the ground, on the sea of glass like crystal. On the other hand, in his vision, Ezekiel looks up to the throne through the firmament. He sees the throne, moving on wheels within the wheels and covered in eyes. Again, both prophetic books speak of four living creatures, but in different ways. Although Revelation doesn't speak of a throne with wheels, Ezekiel describes four living creatures that actually create a celestial chariot for the throne to ride on. That's why the throne has wheels, it moves. Did you know the throne of God rides on a chariot with wheels and that the four living creatures actually form part of the chariot that carries the throne? It's a prophetic picture of the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant, which was a symbol and actual sign of God's presence (1 Chronicles 15:2). Where the ark went, so did the presence of God.

Whenever we talk about the throne room we should picture it like the tabernacle of Moses (Exodus chapters 35 to 38) and the temple of Solomon (1 Kings chapters 6 to 8) -- all the tabernacle imagery. We can think of every reference to the throne of God as a reference to the ark of God as well -- both symbolize the presence of God, the place where God was. Also, both the ark and the throne moved as God's presence moved.

OPEN VISION IN KANSAS

In Kansas City, in November 2003, I experienced an open vision during a prophetic round table. In this vision, I was taken into a court scene in heaven that reminded me of our Canadian parliament when it's in session, with the Speaker of the House and members of parliament present. The scene followed the parliamentary procedure in which members speak in an open forum and discuss policies back and forth until Mr. Speaker says, "Enough!" Then everything goes quiet. He administers the entire session, but he's not the only one active in the proceeding.

Now, our image of God on the throne, in the heavenly court, may be that He is the only participant. But after I was caught up into the throne in heaven, I saw God on His throne flanked on either side by 12 thrones, making a circle, totaling 24 thrones. And then, as I looked beyond this circle, I saw more thrones as far as my eyes could see, arranged in tiers the way seating is set up in a stadium. There were thrones and thrones, and more thrones! In my spirit, I knew that the outer thrones were filled with angels and the cloud of witnesses, also called the cloud of testifiers: apostles and saints of old. They were like a jury. The apostle John reports in the Book of Revelation, "And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them..." (20:4a).

The heavenly court was in session. Then I realized that cherubim, seraphim, and the devil and demons, were a part of this divine council meeting. Below, I will discuss in greater detail one example of demonic involvement in the heavenly court room.

ACTIVITY IN THE THRONE ROOM

The divine council room, also called the heavenly court, is situated in the Throne Room. Remember, it's a place where judgments are decided upon, but it also functions as a throne room of worship. Let's keep in mind that the devil can come before the throne of judgment, bringing accusations against believers, but he doesn't have access to the throne room of worship.

One descriptive scene of demonic involvement in the council room is found in 1 Kings 22:19-23:

Then Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by, on His right hand and on His left. And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner. Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' The LORD said to him, 'In what way?'

So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'You shall persuade him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.' Therefore look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

This portion of scripture gives us a picture of a court session going on in heaven. Micaiah, the prophet, begins by describing the Lord sitting on His throne, surrounded by the host of heaven. We read that an evil spirit answers the Lord's question: "Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?" The demon comes forward, replying: "I will persuade him...I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of his prophets." Then the Lord gives permission to the evil spirit: "You shall persuade him and also prevail. Go out and do it."

So, even evil spirits, at times, can be a part of the divine council of heaven to accomplish God's will! But evil spirits don't have the last say! We have a part in judgment against our adversary the devil, who is constantly battling against prosperity coming into our lives. Although we need God to bring judgment, He invites us to be involved in the divine counsel concerning our life and death, our fate and inheritance.

STANDING IN THE COUNSEL OF THE LORD

As well, past biblical and spiritual leaders had access to the divine council room. Joshua, one such leader, was seen by Zechariah standing before the Lord in the heavenly courts. After Satan's unsuccessful attempt to oppose Joshua and after his filthy garments were replaced by rich robes, here's what the Lord said to him:

"Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'If you will walk in My ways, and if you will keep My command, then you shall also judge My house, and likewise have charge of My courts; I will give you places to walk among these who stand here.'" Zechariah 3:7

Joshua was given access to walk among the heavenly council.

Also, we can see, after examining the life of the prophet, Jeremiah, that he was a godly, righteous, man of God who stood in the counsel of the Lord and then pronounced God's judgments. In the following verses, even though God is asking the question: "For who has stood in the counsel of the Lord and has perceived and heard His word?" -- we can safely identify Jeremiah as one who stood in the counsel of the Lord while God's judgments were pronounced on the wicked:

"For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD, and has perceived and heard His word? Who has marked His word and heard it? Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury -- a violent whirlwind! It will fall violently on the head of the wicked. The anger of the LORD will not turn back until He has executed and performed the thoughts of His heart. In the latter days you will understand it perfectly." Jeremiah 23:18-20

In the last verse: *"The anger of the Lord will not turn back until He has executed and performed the thoughts of His heart." T*he word "heart" also means "counsel."

Now that you've taken a good look at all the action in the Throne Room, you will be ready to learn how to make decrees of justice for your life.

Apostolic Revolution
Todd Bentley

Apostolic Centers

God is not just planting churches, He is planting apostolic centers! During the last few years of ministry, I've been in numerous cities and regions where the Holy Spirit said, "Todd, I want you to prophesy about the emerging apostolic centers and what they look like." In this strategic hour, a call is going out to many believers to take their place in this sphere. You, yes, you, may be led by the Holy Spirit to join with others, corporately, to focus on facilitating this whole new thing that the Holy Spirit is wanting to do in the Body of Christ today. A center may well be located in your city or region, or in your nation!

The Apostolic

I must ask this burning question, "Are you aware that we are in a move of God?" I think it's surprising, the number of believers today, who are still waiting for this move to begin. Listen! I am making an announcement: "We are in one. It's still coming, but we are in it." The moment we begin to accept this, even before we can really give "language" to what it all means, is the moment we are in a better position to take more responsibility for it. Therefore, what I am attempting here today, is to begin laying a prophetic grid or framework, to describe this move, so that we can take more responsibility for it.

I'm seeing it like the crest of this next wave -- tsunami wave. The healing and the prayer movements are in this wave, but it's bigger than this. What's happening today in evangelism and the great harvest doesn't complete the picture either! I believe these three major moves of God (healing, prayer movement, evangelism/harvest) will come together and constitute one, global move. This fusion gives life and substance to the tsunami wave or move of God, but we mustn't box God in; we have to give Him freedom to speak/release more into this wave.

I want to also add that this move of God probably comes under the umbrella of the apostolic. But what does that mean? There are so many variables that take place within this context. Also, we hear so much "buzz" about apostolic churches, apostolic networks, and the apostles; we have so many buzz words in the church today.

However, a strong sense of anticipation is stirring within us about this whole new model/face that is coming to the church. But, we need a true understanding of what this is going to look like because it's going to influence and change how we will do church. Plus, when the anointing comes to activate this new thing -- and it's not even here in maturity right now -- there are going to be some specific anointings released with it.

At this point, I would now like to continue with an overview of several characteristics of the apostle and highlight nine true signs of what qualified, genuine, apostolic anointing and authority looks like.

Definition of an Apostle

An apostle is the missionary who first plants the Christian faith in any part of the world and one who initiates any great moral reform, or who advocates any important belief. An apostle must be chosen and appointed by God. There are God-made apostles, but unfortunately, there are man-made apostles, too. We need God-made apostles who are prepared, anointed, authorized, and sent by Him. Therefore, an apostle must never be appointed by any man or college, institution or church, that might want to do so based solely on their own initiative, separate from the direction of the Holy Spirit; and an apostle must not be self-appointed.

God is restoring apostles in the church today, but I would like to pause and bring a word of caution. Those who say, "I am an apostle," are the ones that we need to be careful of. Usually the ones that really are apostles don't say anything about who they are. The anointing speaks for itself. And when the anointing is there -- that's it!

Also, there are those who may have the anointing on their life for the apostolic, but it may only be for a group of ten in their apostolic sphere. Therefore, they wouldn't carry themselves as an apostle into the world at that level. In addition, there is another principle I will attempt to explain when a prophet is not received (as a prophet). "He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward. And he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward" (Matthew10:41). Whoever does not receive the true prophet will forfeit the reward that comes with the gift the prophet bears; but, having said that, everyone is not going to receive the prophet in that office, because the prophet is not meant to be everyone's prophet (just as the apostle is neither everyone's apostle, nor the evangelist everyone's evangelist).

In addition, it is my belief that to even qualify to use the name "apostle," every person who has an apostolic network should be moving in some kind of miracles, signs and wonders, and mighty deeds.

Apostolic Anointing and Authority

I want to share with you nine true signs of what qualified, genuine, apostolic anointing and authority looks like:

1) Separation

Believers are instructed by God to abandon themselves to a lifestyle of consecration; those who will be totally separated to His purpose and call. Consecration demands a high commitment to holiness, and true apostles will reflect this way of life. "Paul, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated to the gospel of God"* (Romans 1:1).

2) Fathering

True apostolic anointing is like being a loving father and is reproductive, producing mature sons and daughters. "For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers..."* (1 Corinthians 4:15). I have a strong desire to emulate this, and by the time I'm 32 years old, my goal is to release directly from our loins and influence, 100 preachers into ministry. (I'm not talking about just taking people oversees where they receive impartation -- we've done that already.) We want to be loving fathers who are ready to send laborers/preachers that carry a very high level of anointing in preaching, ministry, character, signs, and wonders. Already, we have 11 or 12 such people, and we just ordained three and have plans to bring three new ones in.

3) Team Counsel

An apostle has a team spirit and gathers with other apostles and elders for counsel at prophetic round tables in various cities, regions, and nations. Apostles maintain an attitude that welcomes the wisdom of other apostles from different spheres and locations. "Now the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter"* (Acts 15:6).

4) Signs, Wonders, and Perseverance

Many who walk in a true apostolic anointing can even raise the dead! (This is the most spectacular sign and wonder.) Here's what Paul said, "Truly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and wonders and mighty deeds"* (2 Corinthians 12:12). Notably, true apostles never give up easily; they persevere in signs, wonders, and mighty deeds, not getting disappointed and discouraged. They just keep going. If they pray for one thousand and nobody is healed, then they pray for another thousand. Perseverance!

5) Humility

An apostle walks in humility; Paul models humility: "Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself"* (Philippians 2:3).
He also said, "For I am the least of the apostles who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God"* (1 Corinthians 15:9).

6) Servanthood

"Imitate me just as I also imitate Christ"* (1 Corinthians 11:1). That's a pretty big statement for Paul to make. I've been really challenged by that verse. I've also wondered how that one would look in my life. If I really said to all the people who follow me, "Imitate me," what would that look like? Everyone in fire shirts, blond hair, trucks with flames and Harley Davidson's?! It would be awesome! The first church of the Harley, yeah! Everyone would have a bike, a truck, and an earring. Once, I actually said to my staff, "All the guys have to get their ear pierced if they are going to work for me." Well, as much as I would like to interpret Paul's statement this way, he didn't really have Harleys and earrings in mind.

Paul was telling the Corinthians to follow Christ in everything they did; they were to imitate him in living solely for the glory of God. He urged the Corinthians to have servant's hearts: "Give no offense, either to the Jews or to the Greeks or to the church of God, just as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many that they may be saved" (1 Corinthians 10:32,33). The passion of Paul's life was to serve Christ and to serve others -- that humble commitment of love is a mark of the apostolic anointing. An attitude of servanthood always seeks "the profit of many that they may be saved."

7) True Revelatory Gifting

This is such a significant gifting, and true apostles receive the anointing to preach the gospel through the revelation of Jesus Christ just like Paul did.

"But I make known to you, brethren that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ."
Galatians 1:11,12

Remember, for quite some time Paul was persecuting the church of God and he wasn't one of the 12 disciples. So in effect, Paul is saying something like this: I didn't get what I got the way you got it! I wasn't with Jesus like you, and hanging out with the apostles. I haven't even been with the apostles. I got it in the wilderness. I was hanging out for months in the Arabian desert, and for months, by revelation, by visions, and dreams, and angels – who knows how it came? I got what I got! Also, Paul emphasized that he saw the Lord just like all the other apostles did. "Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time" (1 Corinthians 15:8).

True apostles, most of the time, possess a strong anointing that is revelatory and prophetic. They can actually change their "apostolic hat" to the "prophetic hat," but also step out into ministry with both hats, and like Paul, shake entire cities and plant churches with signs and wonders.

An accurate revelatory gifting will accompany a true apostle. There is a frequency of heightened supernatural experiences that come with the apostolic. Apostles have visions and dreams, receive the word of the Lord, and they experience open heavens.

8) Character

God wants to raise up apostles with impeccable character who can be completely trusted. His strategic assignments often involve life and death issues that can affect multitudes of people. So, God is always examining an apostle's character. But God doesn't just do character checks, He has a plan to build character. This plan is often an excruciating process. God repeatedly tests apostles, using trials and tribulations to reveal their real level of character. Apostles-in-the-making willingly go through this maturing process because they want to please the Lord and to fulfill His call on their lives.

Not only do tribulations help build character, they also produce perseverance and hope. The apostle Paul preached about this: "And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character; and character, hope. Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us" (Romans 5:3-5). Apostles that patiently allow God to refine their character will be fully equipped and carry a strong authority to bring a message of hope to the world -- the message of salvation through Jesus Christ!

Exceptional character and a good reputation go hand in hand. True apostles who submit to the Father's dealings will receive grace, favor, and a good name from Him. "A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, loving favor rather than silver and gold" (Proverbs 22:1) Favor comes from God and is something more precious than money.

9) Breaking Out

Like Paul, modern-day apostles pioneer into new territory; they don't want to build on anyone else's foundation. They boldly enter dangerous places and they live to break uncharted areas wide open with the gospel. Here is what Paul said, "And so I have made it my aim to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build on another man's foundation, but as it is written: 'To whom He was not announced, they shall see; And those who have not heard shall understand'" (Romans 15:20,21). Apostles actually enjoy the adventure of new frontiers; their hearts are set on a pilgrimage. Apostles, operating in their kingly authority, will always "break out" into new territory and discover new ways of extending the kingdom of God with power.

I'm praying that this teaching on the move of God and the apostolic is stirring up your desire for more of what God is beginning to manifest.

A Dream of New York

Mike Tucker

Preface: The first dream or word I ever received from the Lord was in 1986 when I was but a babe in Christ. This dream concerned New York City and a coming day when it would be overrun by enemy forces. I have held onto this dream for all these years, primarily because it seemed out of place for so long, but in the last couple of years I did not feel permission from the Holy Spirit to release this dream even though the dream was confirmed in my spirit. Only last week (08/2004) did the Lord tell me to release it. I believe some dreams or words from the Lord are conditional and some are absolute judgments. By releasing this dream, I believe these future events have passed from conditional to judgment.

I was standing in a street with many tall buildings around and chaos was breaking out everywhere. People were frantically running to and fro trying to get away from something but knowing not where to go or where any safety was. I stepped into a hospital and as I was looking around the lobby, I then saw what was causing the great terror and commotion. Busting through the glass doors from the outside were soldiers shooting every person in sight, having no pity or concern for civilians. Nurses were being slaughtered before my very eyes. The soldiers had desert fatigues on with brown skin, thick mustaches and black hair. I ran out of the hospital and through several back alleys and across several blocks towards a bridge. As I ran people were being cut down everywhere, these soldiers had spilled in all over the place and were shooting everyone they could. I made it up on top of a bridge and there were a few US military personnel on the bridge with an artillery piece, but they were totally out of communication with anyone else and completely at a loss as to what to do. I told one of the soldiers to point the piece at a certain block in the distance because many of the enemy soldiers were concentrated there. They turned their artillery piece in that direction and begin firing. As I was on the bridge, I could see the skyline of the city and then knew it to be New York. I was compelled to gaze long and hard at the skyline for some reason, even though I had quickly determined what city it was. For the longest time I looked slowly from one end to other, taking in all the scenery I could remember. Then I woke up.

Having never received a recognized word or dream from the Lord before that day, I must say I was quite excited when I woke up (not gleefully excited, but a bit on the frantic side, for it seemed so utterly real and shocking). Later that day, I felt compelled to jot some of the events down and felt in my heart I should draw the skyline out to be sure of what city it was (I had never before had the slightest inclination to remember or record a dream). I took some large art paper and drew everything I could remember of the skyline.... bridges, significant buildings etc. When I was done I was once again certain it was New York, except one thing, there were no Twin Towers. Because of this omission, I hastily put the dream away on a mental shelf (so to speak) and gave it little consideration for many years. With the Twin Towers absent how could this dream be accurate or anything important I reasoned to myself at the time.

Certainly after the tragic 9/11 events this dream became prominent in my spirit. I now find it ironic that the very thing that caused me to put away this dream turned out to be the most compelling confirmation. And last week I heard the Lord tell me to release it. We must not think that any of our cities or lands are immune to hostility, even a plundering by enemy forces. Recently, Michael Bloomberg, the Mayor of New York, boasted that, 'New York will never be defeated!'. This arrogant proclamation makes me shudder. Was nothing learned from 9/11? We all know the scripture... "Pride cometh before the fall". The day and the hour is in the hands of the Father. I pray New York will clothe itself with humility before the day comes.

Giant Liberty

08/2004 I dreamed I saw New York City and in the place where the Twin Towers once stood the Statue of Liberty now stood. However, the statue was about 10 times larger than any building in the city and it dwarfed the skyline.

Meaning: A bloated, perverse form of 'Liberty' is the greatest idol of New York (and much of America). American Liberty, that is, the desire to do what I want, when I want, as oft I want has become the great idol of idols. True Godly liberty is freedom from iniquity and freedom to rest in the Lord at his feet. This dream is in connection with a dream I had in 02/1991 where I saw the Statue of Liberty fallen from its pedestal and laying on its back in the ocean. While I watched it a song was being sung over it with only these words being repeated..."The god of America..." and it was sung to the tune of "God bless America".

Agony, Ecstasy, And Endurance

Mary Lindow

Jun 23, 2004

DO YOU FIND YOUR SELF ASKING THE QUESTION,

"WHY IS IT THAT THE LORD IN THIS HOUR IS SEEMINGLY STRETCHING OUT AND ELONGATING HIS PROMISE TO FULFILL SO MANY HEARTS DESIRES OF THOSE NOW CRYING OUT?"

MANY APPARENTLY "GIFTED INDIVIDUALS" ARE GOING ABOUT THE REGULAR BUSINESS OF SEMINAR AND MINISTRY GATHERINGS, declaring that the "New Wine" has begun to pour out upon the earth…and yet it tastes and smells like old wine camouflaged by attempting to serve it out of a new wine skin. BUT! The wine tastes like nothing sweet, nothing new, and has the flavor of the old container it fermented in.

ARE YOU LONGING FOR NEWNESS IN SPIRITUAL THINGS FROM THE THRONE OF GRACE?

ARE YOU IN A PLACE WHERE YOU RISK LAYING DOWN WHAT MIGHT COST YOU YOUR PAST HISTORY AND WHICH WILL CREATE A NEW AND FRESH BEGINNING IN THE WALK OF THE SAINT ON EARTH?

SADLY….MANY CHOOSE TO RETURN TO THE SAFE PLACE OF FAMILIARITY AND CONTROL TO GAIN PERSPECTIVE…AND LOSE THE JOY SET BEFORE THEM.

THE FATHER IS LOOKING, LIKE A SEARCHLIGHT BEAMING AND SWEEPING ACROSS THE LAND FOR THOSE WHO ARE NOT CREATING AGENDAS AND PROGRAMS TO ATTEMPT TO HAVE AN "EDGE" DURING THIS LONG SEASON OF TRANSITIONING.

HE IS ALLOWING THE BREAKING AND "COMING TO THE END OF ONES' SELF" TO CONTINUE.

FEW HAVE STEPPED OVER THE LINE INTO THE ABANDONMENT HE DESIRES FROM THOSE WHO CLAIM THAT THEIR LIVES ARE FOR HIS USE. Others still promote, compete, and posture with well-oiled machinery and full control of so-called "godly inspired events."

IN THIS CRUCIAL HOUR…
YES…. RIGHT NOW EVEN AS YOU READ AND CONTEMPLATE, THE LORD IS NOT REQUIRING ACTS OF GREATNESS AND PROFOUND GATHERINGS TO BRING GLORY TO HIS PLANS.

THE LORD SAYS THESE WORDS TO THOSE WHO WILL CHOOSE HEAR:

"THE SACRIFICE I WANT IS A BROKEN SPIRIT. A BROKEN AND REPENTANT HEART, THIS MY BRIDE, I WILL NOT DESPISE. (PSALM 51:17)
IT IS NOT ABOUT THE END RESULT…IT IS ABOUT THE OBEDIENCE TO DO THE SIMPLE, AT TIMES MUNDANE ACTS OF SILENCING YOUR FLESHLY NEED FOR ACTION AND COMFORT."

"ARE YOU PRESSED IN ON EVERY SIDE CHILD? ARE YOU SEEING THAT NO ONE WILL HEAR YOU CRY FOR LOVE, SUPPORT, COMFORT AND KINDNESS?
THEIR INSULTS HAVE BROKEN MY HEART, AND I AM IN DESPAIR. IF ONLY ONE PERSON WOULD SHOW SOME PITY; IF ONLY ONE WOULD TURN AND COMFORT ME." (PSALM 69:20)

"THIS IS THE AGONY THAT TURNS TO A GODLY ECSTASY WHEN YOU FULLY REALIZE THAT ONLY I, GOD, CAN BE THE FULL AND WELL TRUSTED REDEEMER AND RESCUER IN YOUR SITUATION RIGHT NOW! I AM DEALING WITH THE HEARTS OF THOSE WHO STILL CLING TO HIDDEN CONTROL OVER THEIR BROTHERS AND SISTERS, ESPECIALLY THOSE WHO ARE CRYING OUT DAY AND NIGHT IN THE EARTH FOR SOMEONE TO "SEND THEM" TO THE NATIONS, THE CONTINENTS, WHO ARE NOW TRAVAILING FOR AN APOSTOLIC AND PROPHETIC FRESH RELEASE AND RUSHING WIND OF THE POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT! I YOUR LORD AM CHALLENGING EACH HEART WHO CALLS ME KING AND I AM ALLOWING A DIVINE DISSATISFACTION AND HOLY IRRITATION TO STIR UP ALL HEARTS UNTIL THEY BEGIN TO WAIL OUT LOUD, "FATHER! WHY AM I NOT FILLED WITH THE PEACE AND DELIGHT I NEED? WHY ARE YOU NOT HEARING AND ANSWERING ME?"

"MY REPLY TO YOU CHILD IS QUITE SIMPLE:
I HAVE SAID THESE WORDS AND HAVE SPOKEN THEM TO YOU EACH IN THE WAY I KNOWS WE HEAR."

"HAVE YOU REPENTED OF SHUTTING OUT MY VOICE WHEN I HAVE COMMANDED YOU TO GIVE FROM THE TREASURES YOU NOW POSSESS? IT COULD BE JEWELS YOU COULD GIVE TO SHARE AS A RELEASE FOR ANOTHER TO BE FILLED WITH AWE IN THE GOODNESS OF MY HAND OF BLESSING. IT COULD BE THAT YOU KNOW OF THOSE NOW SUFFERING FOR HAVING STOOD FOR TRUTH AND HAVING PAID AN ENORMOUS EARTHLY PRICE, NEED YOUR HEART TO BE A GOOD SAMARITAN, ONE WHO WILL ASSIST AND BRING REST AND HEALING AND SUPPORT UNTIL THEY FIND THEIR WAY AGAIN. "

IS THE LORD SHOWING YOU YOUR TENDENCY TO BE TIGHT WITH FINANCIAL OFFERINGS AND GENEROUS HEART RELEASING GIVING?

ARE YOU DRAINING AND SECRETLY TESTING THE APOSTLES AND PROPHETS WHO APPEAR TO BE HIDDEN AWAY IN OBSCURITY RIGHT NOW BY HOLDING BACK THE JOSEPH BLESSING? How long will you use your concepts of assuming they never need and hunger as they freely give to you without asking in return?

AH! THE LORD IS BREAKING YOU! And if you wonder why there is such a limited level of joy and rest in your heart, it is because until you have a heart broken, and repentant, for assuming you are allowed to call the shots in your decision making in this life…He will not expose you to His full measure of Glory! Once you have conceded to OBEY…He will return with His Fresh and sweet anointed Presence!

Oh, give me back my joy again; you have broken me-- now let me rejoice. Psalm 51:8

IT'S AN AGONY TO CHOOSE TO BE BROKEN AND LAID BARE BEFORE GOD but the ecstasy of allowing nothing of the soul to influence your decisions when the Lord speaks and gives command, far outweighs this present suffering between spirit and flesh!

MANY WHO ARE NOW HIDDEN AND YES, BEAT DOWN, TESTED, RIDICULED AND SEEMINGLY FORGOTTEN WILL SHORTLY AND SOON PASS THROUGH THE OPEN DOOR OF NEW BEGINNINGS AND THE START OF AN ENORMOUS KINGDOM PUSH.

THOSE WHO CHOOSE TO HEAR THE LORD'S VOICE TELLING THEM TO ASSIST AND NURTURE AND SUPPORT THESE EMERGING APOSTOLIC AND PROPHETIC GIFTS WILL BE REWARDED with the joy of knowing that they too, have passed the test of brokenness and repentance for withholding, when it was within their power to give, to bless, to sustain.

THOSE OF YOU WHO ARE SLOWLY EMERGING FROM THE HIDDEN PLACE where you have been struggling to grow in wisdom, understanding and dying to self-love.

DO NOT QUIT NOW. We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed and broken. We are perplexed, but we don't give up and quit. (2 Corinthians 4:8)

THE LORD OF PROMISE AND VINDICATION IS COMING NEAR TO YOU…WITH HEALING IN HIS WINGS!
He heals the brokenhearted, binding up their wounds. Psalm 147:3

HE HIMSELF WILL BIND UP EVERYTHING BROKEN IN YOUR HEART, YOUR DREAMS, AND YOUR REPUTATION, WITH HIS OWN HAND, AND HE WILL RESTORE YOUR JOY.

Arafat Era Ends 11/11

Timothy Snodgrass

Arafat Era Ends 11/11 - AN 11th Hour Warning

November 11, 2004

At exactly 4:30am Paris time on 11/11, Yasser Arafat was officially pronounced dead in French military hospital, fulfilling a significant series of prophecies concerning the "removal of Arafat", and how this relates to our current timeline. For the last several years we have received numerous prophetic words from people around the world, in many cases which the Holy Spirit has verbally spoken to them that the "removal of Arafat" would be a clear sign of the Lord's soon return, and indication that major judgments were about to explode on the world scene.

The timing in which Arafat fell into a coma, November 3, Paris time (November 2, U.S. time: Election Day) is also extremely significant (read our September 15, 2004 Rosh Hashana Report). Shortly after Yasser Arafat fell into a coma on November 3, the Holy Spirit spoke to me that 11/11 would be a very significant date in history. (I mentioned this to my wife and several other ministry associates in the Philippines.) One week ago, we felt prompted to enter into a time of prayer and fasting from 11/11/04 - 01/11/05; a 3-month period of cleansing and preparation for the new year (chiefly a Daniel fast, fruits and vegetables).

On the early morning of 11/11 before the sun rose in the Philippines, I received the following vision: I was climbing a large mountain somewhere near the Indonesian coast, traveling upwards into a place of refuge. Upon reaching my destination in the mountains, I found a small city with a large population of Christians, and begin to prophesy to them about approaching judgments; but the inhabitants were spiritually blind, and could not receive the word. Suddenly, the gound began to shake, and every eye looked towards the coast. Like a small ripple in the crystal blue sea, the first tidal wave approached and had little impact. Those watching said, "Is that all!?". They began to mock God's grace and mercy demonstrated in the first judgment. But while they were mocking yet another wave approached, slightly larger; and then another, and another. Until finally one large ripple appeared on the horizon, so large that as it struck the hills on the coast the impact left a thunderous splash, towering perhaps a thousand feet into the air. Below us the water from the tsunami traveled along the river inland for nearly a hundred miles, destroying everything in it's path.

It is interesting how God always confirms major prophetic words with signs for those who are watching. On the evening of November 11, seismic activity in the Asia-Pacific region suddenly went off the scale; with a 7.5 quake in Indonesia, followed by a 6.4 aftershock; a 6.5 quake in the Solomon Islands (Solomon representing the Temple Mount, where Arafat requested to be buried), a 6.4 quake in Japan, and a 5.8 quake in Taiwan. Tsunami warnings were briefly issued in Indonesia, and the seismic jolt was felt so strongly by ships in the region that it literally knocked sailors off their feet. The jolt caused at least one shipping accident, throwing a small boat from East Timor into the path of a passing freighter in Deli Harbor.

The first wave on 11/11 was small, but other waves are coming. As the US, UK, UN, and countries around the world continue to pressure Israel to concede covenant land promised to her by God, I prophesy to you that we are now entering into some troubled waters as we approach the new year. It will only be through God's grace and mercy that we do not see these large ripples in the sea crashing against our shoreline in 2005. But nothing is impossible with God!

Blessings,

A Falling Away

Angel Dahilig

The Lord spoke this to me as I was sleeping:

"Many have said there is coming a harvest. Yes, but there is also coming a falling away, because of Me. These [who fall away] will be those who had no root and could not stand firm in the coming persecution."

Matthew 13:20-21
The one who received the seed [the gospel of Christ] that fell on rocky places is the man who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. But since he has no root, he lasts only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, he quickly falls away.

Search and study New Testament scriptures about "stand firm" (NIV) or "stand fast" (KJ).

1 Corinthians 16:13-14
Be on your guard; STAND FIRM in the faith; be men of courage; be strong. Do everything in love.

Galatians 5:1 (for understanding of the context, please read Galatians chapters 3-5):
It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. STAND FIRM then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

Philippians 1:27-29
(27) Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you STAND FIRM in one spirit, contending as one man for the faith of the gospel (28) without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved - and that by God. (29) For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for him.

A Final Hour Outcry

Yolanda Ballard

"Return Unto Me!"
(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)
Resume the responsibility of a dedicated servant, one who has chosen to give his life for the service of sharing the gospel. Have you allowed the cares of this life distract you from ministering in the calling that I have even raised you up to have? It is not just having meat or drink to be in My kingdom, but to be full of My peace, joy and righteousness.

But many have gotten distracted to where making a dollar is your main priority. Didn't I say that if you put Me first and My righteousness all these things will be added unto you? But you haven't been putting Me first, and you are striving after these things along with the world.

What do I have to do to wake you to the seriousness of the hour? You must know that nurturing yourself with My holy word and drawing close to Me in the secret place is what you need to be able to make it through in this hour. for the enemy is coming on strong to try to snatch you away from My intimate presence. He knows that when you are close to My side and loving Me and walking in My perfect will that he cannot harm you. He can't even break your focus upon the Lamb when you are wholeheartedly loving Him.

But many have allowed their hearts to grow cold, and they no longer desire My presence. They have allowed themselves to become beat down because in the fight they were relying on their own strength. If you do not delight yourself in My presence, you do not have My anointing and power to combat the enemy and pull down his strongholds.

Instead of running into the refuge of the Lord and His fortress, you give yourself captive to the enemy's devices. You feed your belly like there is no tomorrow, and feed on every tidbit of nastiness and evil that he puts out for you.

Wake up before it is too late! This is a final warning, because the storms are getting even stronger. If you can't hear My voice now when you are running against men, what will you do when the horses are loosed? Why don't you hear My voice? It's because you don't seek My face and quiet yourself down.

My people who are called by My name will humble themselves and pray and seek My face, and I will heal their land. But those who continue in their sin and disobedience, I will pour out My fire upon you. Yes, My wrath and judgment will fall upon My people for I love them and want to see them returned unto Me.

I pray healing and restoration upon My people that they would rather fall upon the Rock that they would become broken rather than the Rock falling on them and crushing them to powder. Which will it be? The choice is yours to make. Do not be satisfied with less than the best which is in My intimate presence. Awake to the seriousness of the hour. I AM calling you back.

Blessings to all!

This is my personal response to this message.

What I feel the Lord is saying is that many have allowed the distractions of the world to get before seeking and walking in the perfect will of the Lord. It seems like many have walked in a partial commitment in serving the Lord and in the majority of their time they are serving self. I am not pointing my finger at anyone because I know this word is directed at me. I know in my heart that I allow myself to waste much time before the television set. Mainly because I allow myself to get stressed out with the trials of life and get very tired. But the Lord wants us to overcome in these attacks and cast off all complacency once again and delight ourselves in His presence. Only then will be lifted up and strengthened and restored to the position that we are to walk in and that is seated at the right hand of the Father far above all power and principalities. We need to get behind the shield of faith and stand on His promises alone and get in His word so that we have faith in our hearts so we can use our swords effectively. We need to be more sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit in praying for others because many are walking through things that they don't share with anyone and are under great attack. God promises that if we put His will first and His righteousness He would supply all our needs. We need a strong word and we need His fire to fall to wake us to the seriousness of the hour. The fire is His love coming to purify us and it is by His grace and mercy because He loves us. Be open to the strong rebuke of the Lord. Be open and teachable and cry out for greater grace. We all know who we are that need a strong word, not just a strong word but the fire of His love. Because only then will we be able to stand!!!

Love in Christ, Yolanda

A Fire Burning

Lars Widerberg

Prophecy finds its birth in fire. The prophetic dimension is sustained by fire. The prophet brings fire. A prophetic utterance demands a listener to give himself to the fire on the altar. Prophecy brings separation - eternal values are one with the fire, earthly desires cannot share this communion.

"The words of the Lord are pure words; as silver tried in a furnace on the earth, refined seven times." Ps 12:6. Apprehending a word from a furnace requires a heart willing to adjust to intense temperatures and pressure. The first requirement of the prophetic realm is a heart which is willing to bear the ferocity of the aliveness of heavenly realities. The fire of the furnace produces a mind perplexed and shattered by the complexity and otherness of the thoughts of God; a mind ready to violate common codes of the self-sustaining structures which defines and defends manageable religion.

Micah, a "minor prophet", had taken the necessary steps into the fire, and he knew the reality of heavenly heat and pursuit, and wrote: " But I am full of strength and skill and courage, inspired by the Eternal, to let Jacob know its crimes, and Israel its sins. Leaders of Jacob, listen to this, you judges over the house of Israel, who spurn at justice and twist equity, who build your Sion up with bloodshed and Jerusalem on crime, judges passing verdicts for a bribe, priests pattering oracles for pay prophets divining for money, and all the while relying on the Eternal." Micah 3:8-11 - Moffatt.

What kind of man dares to go; what kind of inner constitution will carry a man into the presence of men of authority of this world as well as before the revelling, raging mob bringing words with fire? What kind of burden, what kind of inner pressure produces enough bravery to allow a man to reduce himself to mere sacrifice, a burnt offering, an offering by fire? What happens in the secret place, what is wrought in the inner parts of man to for the sake of bringing forth moral stamina corresponding with the words from the furnace of Heaven?

Too many among us dismiss the burning bush as yet another thorn bush devoured by spontaneous combustion. The prophetic mind is occupied with the maintenance of and the operations of the fire of God. A prophet's heart is set on fire, it burns because God speaks. A word purged seven times will bring fire. A word from the Lord reveals what His fire is like.

The main concern of the prophet is the fire itself. Fire is the driving force in his life. The fire on the altar shall be kept burning, it may under no circumstances be quenched - and the prophet is there, brought into office, to keep it burning. This fundamental necessity has taken him into the priestly realm, into the business and ministry of priesthood. A mind set on fire, occupied with the fire, is a mind given to priestliness. A priest cannot allow the fire to fade, to be quenched, to go out. A priest cannot allow the realities of Heaven to fade; the testimony may never fade.

A testimony of the heavenly realities carries the fire of the altar at its core. The fire ignites words - a testimony is not words, a prophecy does not consist of words primarily but is an outburst of heavenly fire. Baptized with fire. Baptized with passion for reality. A prophetic word brings purging. A word from the furnace brings separation. It never leaves the people slumbering with an "All is well". It reveals necessary pursuits of holiness to be made by a righteous people. The fire provokes positively where righteousness is already rooted. The very same fire disqualifies and destroys where unrighteousness has established inroads.

The disposition of the prophetic man is to be defined by the fire itself. It is not generated by sternness - holiness is not harsh, not stirred by lively imagination or a bright intellect, not produced by strange moodiness or altered states of perception. Coming out from the presence, having been at the furnace, having had an opportunity to look into His face - all this, and nothing but this makes a heart burn and sets a mind on fire.

Why is the prophet of the Old Testament times so alive to, so direct and immediate in his approach as to moral issues? Why is he dramatically on target in relation to dealing with malicious practices among his people, even among foreign nations? Why do we suffer from charismatic shallowness regarding sin, regarding evil in general? Why do we suffer from a common charismatic shallowness regarding prophetic negligence in this realm? Baptized with Spirit, but not with fire. Baptized into spiritual pragmatism and religious conformity, but not with the Holy Spirit and His fire.

The fire is gone from the altar. The priest and the prophet are not present and in proper position for its maintenance. There is no passion for heavenly realities. The state of affairs is worse, much worse than when a minor prophet stood up to speak to a nation gone astray. How did he dare to speak? How long do we have to wait for a prophet carrying a burden of that kind again? Is there anybody ready to give himself to the altar? Is there anybody out there ready for that fire?

A Flash In The Pan

Mary Koons

The Institutional Church
Article II

June 29, 2004

The word history of the phrase "a flash in the pan" is unclear, but it does apparently refer to a gold rush when miners would mine for gold and see flashes in their pans, thinking it gold. What it actually was – was pyrite. Pyrite – fool's gold – will also "flash brightly" in the light and what a miner would first assume to be a gold nugget, would turn out to be worthless. The Lord gave me the title, "A Flash in the Pan," for this article in conjunction with "revival."

The first "revival" happened on the day of Pentecost – not only to the individuals who were gathered together that day but later to about three thousand others (Acts 2:41). We know from earlier in this same chapter that people from a multitude of countries all heard about the mighty works of God in their own language(s): individuals from Parthians, Medes, Elamites, some inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus, some from the province of Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt, Libya, Rome, Cretans and Arabians, (Acts 2:9-12). We can gather from these passages then that at least part of the above list included Spirit filled believers after Pentecost who no doubt at a later date returned to their own countries… places where the name and works of Jesus would have been completely unknown. Yet – there is no indication in these passages that any of these individuals did so. The "revival" remained in Jerusalem – almost entirely – until the combined persecutions of the early Christians by Jewish religious leaders and the Romans, would cause the Jerusalem believers to leave the city.

Early in the 20th Century, almost two thousand years later, two massive revivals broke out – one in Wales in 1904, and as a direct result of the Welsh revival, at Azusa Street in Los Angeles in 1905. As you study what occurred during both of these revivals you are struck by the fact that both resisted and lacked "organization," and that both flowed by and through the work of the Holy Spirit, just as the First Century church had. The individuals intimately involved in both of these revivals, Evan Roberts in the Welsh revival, and Frank Bartleman at Azusa Street were both humble, obedient servants of God who choose to be led by Him – rather than by any type of regimentation. As a result, the Holy Spirit flowed through the meetings they held and multitudes were saved. It wasn't until both of these movements eventually succumbed to mounting pressure by others to establish structure, i.e., organization, that both revivals began to fizzle out.

Listen then to the parable of the sower.

> While any one is hearing the Word of the kingdom and does not grasp and comprehend it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in his heart. This is what was sown along the roadside. As for what was sown on this (rocky) soil, this is he who hears the Word and at once welcomes and accepts it with joy; Yet it has no real root in himself, but is temporary – inconstant, lasts but a little while and when affliction or trouble or persecution comes on account of the Word, he is repelled and begins to distrust and desert Him Who he ought to trust and obey, and he falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is he who hears the Word, but the cares of the world and the pleasure and delight and glamour and deceitfulness of riches choke and suffocate the Word, and it yields no fruit. As for what was sown on good soil, this is he who hears the Word and grasps and comprehends it; he indeed bears fruit, and yields in one case a hundred times as much as was sown, in another sixty times as much, and in another thirty. (Matthew 13:18-23)

The Lord has clearly shown me that these are four "stages," in ones Christian growth and that a believer will – more than likely - go through each of them in the order they are listed. If you examine these passages you also can see how "organization" and "revival" are not co-existent.

Each one of these verses deals with an individual, not a group and each one of these verses discusses a "stage" in our Christian walk. A revival is only as good as its LASTING results. In other words – we can see and understand from verse 19 above that immediately the enemy will attempt (and in many cases be successful) in removing what has been sown in ones heart, i.e., the Christian equivalent of "a flash in the pan." If that fails, satan will next begin persecution(s), along with trials and temptations (Luke 8:13) to cause the person to withdraw from the Lord and His Word. If an individual is successful in overcoming those obstacles, then "cares of the world," "anxieties" and/or (to paraphrase) "fame and fortune," "glamour and pleasure" and "delight in worldly things" are another method the enemy uses to subvert an individual so that they remain "fruitless," and unproductive for the Kingdom of God. However, if the person makes his/her way through all of these areas, ever maturing in knowledge and obedience, eventually that individual will be used to "increase" what has been sown into their own heart. At that point – that person has become a "revival" meeting all by themselves and their church affiliation has probably had little (if any) impact on their own personal experiences/encounters with God and their witness to others of how He has brought them through it all.

Within the last ten years there have been two revivals: at Toronto Airport Christian Fellowship and at the Brownsville Assembly of God in Pensacola, Florida, that have garnered a lot of attention. We should note, however, that the Toronto Revival appears to be that of an individual church group, one not affiliated with any "organized" religious organization and that in the case of Brownsville, it is not the entire Assembly's of God that has had revival – but only this one specific church. That makes the Brownsville revival in particular very interesting. Since it does belong to a very well known thoroughly organized denomination, you have to wonder "why" revival did not occur – and has not spread - through every Assembly of God church. And when revival(s) do occur – are those individuals who come forward genuinely saved – a "real gold nugget," OR are they the other kind – "fool's gold?"

A major problem that was a direct result of the Welsh revival was that so many individuals came forward for salvation that the churches were overwhelmed. There was not enough pastors and teachers available to instruct those who had been newly converted! Let's quickly review Matthew 13:19.

While any one is hearing the Word of the kingdom and does not grasp and comprehend it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in his heart.

It is very easy to understand how this could happen when there are not enough instructors/mentors available to teach/mentor a "baby Christian." That is why God is currently raising up spiritual father's and mother's now, for the greatest revival the world will ever see. If the "evil one" comes to snatch out what has been sown under even normal conditions, how much more do you think he will try in the "last" of the "last days?" True, God's Spirit will be abundantly poured out during this time, but let's not forget that there will also be ongoing spiritual warfare of an unprecedented scale.

Therefore be glad (exult) O heavens and you that dwell in them! But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in fierce anger (fury), because he knows that he has [only] a short time left. (Revelation 12:12)

A study of revivals shows that in almost every case what precedes the event, is individuals humbling themselves before God – and praying in the will of God – that revival take place. To illustrate the Biblical precedence for that, the Lord led me to these scriptures from the Old Testament.

…So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with rejoicing; And when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. And David danced before the Lord with all his might, clad in a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. (2 Samuel 6:12-15)

The first thing to notice from this passage is from verse 13*.* Every six paces a sacrifice was made! Whatever the distance from where the Ark had been at Perez-uzzah to the City of David, every six paces - sacrifices were made… this means of course that an altar had to be prepared every six paces also! Although we are not told in these passages how much time it took to do all of this, I would think that, at the least, we're talking a number of days. After the first botched attempt by David to transport the Ark (please read 2 Samuel 6:1-8) which had resulted in the death of Uzzah, David went about it the right way this time, using the Levites (the priestly tribe) to transport the Ark on their shoulders, in deeply reverential awe, careful not to give offense again - "interceding."

We then read in verse 14 that David "danced before the Lord," with all his might. David humbled himself, as King of Israel, by removing his kingly garments. This is verified later in the same chapter in verse 20.

Then David returned to bless his household. And [his wife] Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel today, who stripped himself of his kingly robes and uncovered himself in the eyes of the servants' maids, as one of the worthless fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!

And lastly we find that David and "all" the house rejoiced and were offering up high praise to their God! So to summarize, revivals are:

1) First and foremost praying in the will of God. Praying for revival outside is will and direction [i.e., attempting to do it on our own] might well cause more harm than good. Expect it to take time, don't try to "rush God!"

2) Intercession, (again "if" IN the will of God) from a humble heart. Intercession offered up in the reverential fear of the Lord, in awe of WHO HE IS.

3) All moving in agreement as one, under the direction of the Holy Spirit and offering up our high praises to God.

All of us cry out to God for revival – to help us reach the lost, as we should. But true revival is a personal, life-long, lasting experience that brings an individual closer to God in a moment-to-moment relationship. Revivals that produce individuals that are no more than "a flash in the pan," are not God's will, nor should they be ours.

True discipleship means learning perfect obedience and walking in harmony and love with others and our Creator.

True mentorship means instructing others how to do the same.

True revival can be based on nothing less.

In His Love,

Anxious For Nothing

Priscilla van Sutphin

Sept 24th, 2004

“Many of My children are anxious in this hour. They are fearful of losing things. But I have come to blow on My garden that the dead dry leaves may be removed. I have come to blow on my garden that seeds may scatter and reproduce. I have come that your hearts may be cleansed of all idolatry to the things and ways of this world. I am blowing and blowing and I am washing away all the filth that has accumulated in My church. I am testing and trying, excavating and rebuilding. What I do is a good work. It will bring a great harvest in the end.”

Phil 4:6-7 NKJV Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; 7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Luke 12:25-28 NKJV And which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature? 26 If you then are not able to do the least, why are you anxious for the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28 If then God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith?

Luke 12:29-34 NKJV "And do not seek what you should eat or what you should drink, nor have an anxious mind. 30 For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father knows that you need these things. 31 But seek the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you. 32 "Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. 33 Sell what you have and give alms; provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

“Do not worry what you will do. For I am with you. There is nothing I won’t do for those who truly fear Me and who are intimate with Me. I WILL ARISE, and when the hem of my robe unfolds, and moves in the wind, I will loose My anointing oil, and pour out such a blessing that it cannot be contained. Come and buy gold refined in the fire! Come to ME and allow me to fill you with My love and to purge your heart of all unwarranted suspicions of My faithfulness. I will remove all doubt of My love for you…just come My beloveds and drink from the Living Fountain of Life! Listen for My voice. My sheep hear My voice and they follow ME. “

Rev 3:18-21 NKJV I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me. 21 To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

“ I have come to bring life and that abundantly. My life in you will reproduce life in those who don’t know me. How reproductive are you. How many have you spoken to this last year about My love? How many seeds have you planted by being loving to those who don’t know or love you? For your love must be greater than that of the Pharisees! I called you to love your enemies, to be good to those who hate you, and to pray for those who spitefully use you!

I am the Bread of Life, and I am the Living Water that the lost of this earth need. I want you to live your life like you KNOW that I am coming soon! Can you see the souls who need Me? Can you feel their pain? YOU will. For when I come and make your heart as Mine…you will feel the pain I feel for those who are lost in the world. You will feel the pain of the alcoholic, the homeless, the single mother, the fatherless, the prostitutes, the angry murderer, the gangsters, the crippled and sickly. My heart is broken and I am longing for a Bride who loves as I love, and sees as I see, and hears as I hear. I will empower you with boldness and confidence to do My will alone. Ask and you shall receive, knock, and the door will be opened to you . Rejoice and be exceedingly glad for your Lord is at hand!

I will provide all you need to get through the days ahead. You may not have the luxury you have enjoyed in the past, but you will know that your needs are met, while those who spit in My face will find their needs are not met.
They will struggle and you will become the object of their wrath, because you are cared for and they are not, because they have refused the Lord of glory. Know that I will always care for My own. But REFUSE to get into complaining and discontentment that would rob you of the blessings of the Kingdom. I love you and I have a different kind of RICHES I am about to pour out. And so you will be RICH in the things of the Kingdom, the things that count for eternity. Stay close to My heart My beloveds. Stay under the shadow of My wings."

Jer 17:7-10 NKJV "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, And whose hope is the LORD. 8 For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters, Which spreads out its roots by the river, And will not fear when heat comes; But its leaf will be green, And will not be anxious in the year of drought, Nor will cease from yielding fruit.
9 "The heart is deceitful above all things, And desperately wicked; Who can know it? 10 I, the LORD, search the heart, I test the mind, Even to give every man according to his ways, According to the fruit of his doings.

Challah
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 19th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org

Again I was sitting at the computer, playing one cell and relaxing, and the Lord spoke to me " Challah" I am familiar with the fact this is a Jewish bread used for celebrating holidays, and I have eaten it before. But I looked around on google and found some interesting things. The rest I'm posting at the bottom for those who are interested to read more.

One of the three commandments incumbent upon women, "taking challah," evolved sometime following the destruction of the Temple by the Romans in 70 C.E. Following the rising of the dough, women would separate a piece and burn it to remind them of the offerings to the Temple. For nearly two millennia challah has symbolically replaced the sacrificial offerings.

Wendy Hecht says in her article:
"D. Before separating the "Challah," the following blessing is recited:
Baruch atta Ado-noy Elo-hai-nu Melech ha'olam asher kid-e-sha-nu b'mitz-vo-tav v'tzi-vanu li-haf-rish Challah.
[Blessed are you, Lord our G-d, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us to separate Challah.]"

The thing is, the sacrifice has been made that is the sacrifice of all sacrifices. Jesus sanctified us with His blood shed on the cross for our sins, once and forevermore. So I was seeing that the destruction of the Temple was His way to assure removal of any further sacrifice no longer needed. At least in the natural…no one sacrifices animals anymore. But Rabbi's have reinstituted Challah as a substitute.

Heb 10:12-14 NKJV
12 But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God, 13 from that time waiting till His enemies are made His footstool. 14 For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.

Jesus became our "substitute" sacrifice on the Cross. So we no longer have to sacrifice. We don't have to take the punishment either because HE took it.

Isaiah says:
Isa 53: 5 NKJV But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, And by His stripes we are healed.
Look at this in the Amplified:
But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our guilt and iniquities; the chastisement [needful to obtain] peace and well-being for us was upon Him, and with the stripes [that wounded] Him we are healed and made whole.

True guilt was erased, inherited sins [iniquities] were erased. And chastisement, which is the punishment due, & needful to obtain peace of mind and well being, was upon HIM. We don't have to go through hoops anymore to obtain forgiveness. We don't have to SACRIFICE or WORK to obtain forgiveness.

So many of us are still striving to be perfect instead of relaxing in the knowledge that HE has paid the price completely. I think a lot of us who have been abused or neglected, still feel this need to compulsively please others because of our guilt. Also because of the performance based expectations in much of the church that is lacking in GRACE. We have not fully appropriated the fullness of the LOVE GOD had for us, by the sacrifice made on the Cross. It seems it is hard to believe that He would have died for ALL sins, for every sin we commit. How could HE be that generous, that endearing, that loving, that He would wipe away even those things we continue to do out of an unsanctified soul? It is especially hard for the new believer so bruised and broken to fully understand the LOVE that was poured out for him.

Romans 5:18-21 says this:
18 Well then, as one man's trespass [one man's false step and falling away led] to condemnation for all men, so one Man's act of righteousness [leads] to acquittal and right standing with God and life for all men.

He's speaking of ADAM…the one man's offense led to condemnation for all men.
So ONE MAN's sacrifice, has acquitted and made all men in right standing with God if it is appropriated! HOW AWESOME IS THAT? I saw this in a new way last night as I read it. ALL the sins, and all their consequences…like all the curses for what was done, was reversed in that sacrifice Jesus made.
He is saying the results of the first sin were all washed away! When we don't see the fullness of that, we believe that original curse is still active, or we don't see that no matter what God will love us if we say YES to Him.

19 For just as by one man's disobedience (failing to hear, heedlessness, and carelessness) the many were constituted sinners, so by one Man's obedience the many will be constituted righteous (made acceptable to God, brought into right standing with Him). 20 But then Law came in, [only] to expand and increase the trespass [making it more apparent and exciting opposition]. But where sin increased and abounded, grace (God's unmerited favor) has surpassed it and increased the more and superabounded, 21 So that, [just] as sin has reigned in death, [so] grace (His unearned and undeserved favor) might reign also through righteousness (right standing with God) which issues in eternal life through Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed one) our Lord.

The law only POINTS OUT how far short we fall. But GOD's GRACE is so much greater in what He did to restore relationship, that there is NOTHING that can separate those who believe, from HIS LOVE. He does NOT get tired of loving us even when we fail again and again. He does NOT get tired of forgiving us. He only always has our best interest in mind. He sees the reasons for the sins still being there. He sees the bruises on our soul that still need to be healed. He sees the abuse and neglect that was done that left an imprint on our soul, and demons still harassing us. He is SO COMPASSIONATE! He is ever forgiving and wise. He knows just how to get to that hidden place in your heart where you have covered over emotions that you didn't want to look at again. He will take you deeper and deeper, individually in a manner that HE knows is best to heal the woundedness as there are many levels of forgiveness. And His GRACE never runs out. Only man's grace runs out. We get tired of people continuing in sin, but for Him, it hurts Him. He is saddened by our misunderstanding the greatness of His grace. He knows whose hearts are right. We think we know, but we don't!

He is our "CHALLAH" He is our sacrificial BREAD OF LIFE. He has infinite wisdom for excavating the crevices of hearts that He knows fully. He knows how much each of us can stand to bear. And He is WITH US, Emmanuel, to help us get through every step of the way, in this ultimate lesson of life to learn to LOVE.

He has been doing things to go deeper, to get to the absolute bottom of our pain, and to instill MORE TRUST, that no matter what we know we can trust Him. He WILL be with us through everything. GRACE by definition is UNMERITED favor. It's HIS LOVE that leads to repentance. LOVE is the greatest weapon. We tend to run out of it. But His heart is greater than ours, and never runs out. His love never fails. We are all on this continuum of healing and sanctification, little by little, week by week, month by month, year by year of growing in HIM…going from glory to glory and grace to grace. And those who have gone astray are never beyond His GREAT GRACE to be restored! It is ONLY when we know the depth of His LOVE that we can be fully restored and empowered and filled the FULLNESS of His glory.

16 May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the [Holy] Spirit [Himself indwelling your innermost being and personality].
17 May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love,
18 That you may have the power and be strong to apprehend and grasp with all the saints [God's devoted people, the experience of that love] what is the breadth and length and height and depth [of it];
19 [That you may really come] to know [practically, through experience for yourselves] the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge [without experience]; that you may be filled [through all your being] unto all the fullness of God [may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself]!

Many of us have not been rooted firmly in LOVE because we have not received it, except from Him, as we worship and pray and read the Word, etc. Many have not received it from other Christians or from others of our family or however. That Love given by other human beings is the main mode God uses to help us overcome obstacles which is why HE made us interdependent as the body of Christ, just as a human body is a system dependent on all it's systems to function normally. So we need each other to grow in love. If we have never seen an example of true love, how do we learn? One we learn from being dependent on Him, and that is the first and greatest. But we must have a fulfilling of the second commandment HE gave . That was to love your neighbor as yourself! That means we need other HUMANS to love and to love us in order to be whole. Despite our protective mechanisms to keep from the hurts we have received from humans, through isolation and rejection, we truly need other loving human beings. From the moment God made Eve for Adam to make them more complete we have needed each other. Some of us get so hurt that we begin to think, will there ever be anyone who tries to understand me?
Will there be anyone who ever just accepts me or encourages me?

That is NOT a bizarre expectation. Jesus said, to love one another as I have loved you. SURELY He meant it! Three times Jesus asked Peter, Peter, do you love Me? – First using the friendship kind of love verb. Then in the last time he used the agape – the highest form of love. That kind of love is the kind Jesus set an example for in laying down His own life. Then HE tells Peter, then FEED MY SHEEP. CARE for my sheep. LOVE my sheep He was saying. Will you lay down your life for each other? Will you truly love?

For some, God has given them family to love, or friends, if we will just at least love on other human being, outside our sphere of family, it could make a huge difference. I remember a story someone once told of a woman who spent herself on some foreign students…year after year. But like the money that multiplied in the stewards hands, she gave and gave to them what she knew…and many of them went on then to steward and disciple many others, and in that way her gift of love was multiplied. That is the method Jesus used.
He started with the 12 and was intimately acquainted with them…and they in turn loved others and discipled others, and so on and so on. Each of us have different callings and different people to affect. Some are given one talent, or two talents, or five talents or ten talents. We just need to be faithful with what He shows us. And to be looking to HIM for the love so that we have it to give to each other. As we reach out to others, He reaches out to us.

Challah
Any traditional Jewish meal begins with the breaking of bread. Challah is a special kind of bread used for Shabbat and holidays. It is a very sweet, golden, eggy bread. The taste and texture is somewhat similar to egg twist rolls (those little yellow rolls that look like knots). The loaf is usually braided, but on certain holidays it may be made in other shapes. For example, on Rosh Hashanah, it is traditional to serve round challah (the circle symbolizing the cycle of life, the cycle of the years). A local deli makes French toast with challah. I highly recommend this. Challah is also wonderful in sandwiches with roast beef or corned beef. Traditionally, however, it is simply used as you might use rolls with a holiday dinner. The word "challah" refers to the portion of dough set aside for the kohein (See the List of Mitzvot, #394) ; that is, a portion that is taken out of the dough before it is baked. I am not certain how the term for the removed portion came to be used for the portion that is left over after it is removed.
There are two words for bread in Hebrew: lechem and challah. Lechem is the everyday bread and challah is the special, usually white egg bread reserved for the Sabbath. Challah is also the word that refers to the portion of dough set apart for the high priests in the Temple of Jerusalem.

One of the three commandments incumbent upon women, "taking challah," evolved sometime following the destruction of the Temple by the Romans in 70 C.E. Following the rising of the dough, women would separate a piece and burn it to remind them of the offerings to the Temple.

For nearly two millennia challah has symbolically replaced the sacrificial offerings. All challah that is baked today is kosher only if "challah has been taken." You'll often see that sign in a kosher bakery. Jews seem to be masters at imbuing ordinary acts with symbolism - or creating symbols out of almost anything.

Some words about Challah (or Hallah for some). Challah means dough and refers to bread made from dough that has undergone separation. There is a mitzvah (religious law) that requires the head of the dough to be separated and given to the priests as tithe. Since the destruction of the Temple, this mitzvah has been satisfied by separating a portion of the Challah (a piece about the size of an olive) and burning the separated piece in the oven. The preference is to separate the dough before baking but it may be done after. Burning the separated piece is a symbolic sacrifice. Only breads made from wheat, barley, maize, spelt,and oats require separation.

Challahs are normally eaten on the Sabbath (Shabbos). The five grains mentioned above were beyond the economic means of many of our ancestors, i.e., considered "rich man's food." To make us all rich on Shabbos, we eat Challah. Challahs are always served in pairs on Shabbos and Yom Tovs (Holidays). This is symbolic of the showbreads of the Temple and the double portions of manna received in the desert on Friday. None was received on Shabbos.

WHY ROUND CHALLAH? by Aliza Bulow
All year long our challah is braided, but it is round for Rosh Hashana. What does the challah's shape teach us about this special time of year?

Rosh Hashana is a holiday filled with physical doorways into the spiritual world. The blasts of the shofar are the prime example of this (see: Symbolism of the Shofar). But there are many others as well All year round, we dip our challah in salt before distributing it; during the High Holiday season, many use honey so that we may have a sweet year. For the same reason, many make a sweeter challah dough as well.

We also begin the evening Rosh Hashana meals by dipping apples into honey and reciting a prayer for a good and sweet year. Some continue with a Rosh Hashana "seder," sampling many different foods and reciting a prayer that contains an allusion to the food's Hebrew name.
Every Jewish custom is significant on a very deep level. Some have levels that we can access; others are beyond our grasp. Even the shape of the loaf of challah can teach us something deep about the holiday on which it is consumed.

Creative Energy

The Shabbat challah is braided. "Six days shall you work (engage in creative activity), and on the seventh shall you desist" (Exodus 34:21). Part of the preparation for the Shabbat is engaging in melacha, creative activity. Braiding is creative activity. The braid is a shape that does not appear in nature. (Ficus trees are hand-braided.) It is a shape that is made by humans and it is representative of the human ability to manipulate the raw material of the world. Braiding the challah strands helps us harness our creative capacities for the purpose of observing the Shabbat.
But braiding is more than that. The Talmud tells us that God Himself braided Eve's hair in preparation for her wedding to Adam (Brachot 61a). Was He merely beautifying her? Rabbi Avraham Chaim Feuer teaches that God's braiding of Eve's hair was His wedding gift to the couple. He was arranging her creative energies, channeling her imagination into an ordered form that would allow her to maximize her potential as a wife. He was both charging her and gifting her with the ability and the task of channeling the energy of the couple into positive and creative directions. The braid represents that directive, to focus and give order to the energies of one's household.
Significantly, many loaves are braided out of six strands. Six represents the days of the week that are not Shabbat. My mother-in-law taught me that braiding six strands into one loaf represents the six days of the week that are bound up in the one Shabbat. Six directed toward one, weekdays manifesting on Shabbat, this world bearing fruit for the next. The six-stranded braid offers us the direction of the channeling that we are enjoined to accomplish.

70 Faces of Torah

Round challahs are unique to the High Holiday season. Some say they represent a crown that reflects our coronating God as the King of the world.
Others suggest that the circular shape points to the cyclical nature of the year. The Hebrew word for year is "shana," which comes from the Hebrew word "repeat." Perhaps the circle illustrates how the years just go round and round. But Rosh Hashana challahs are not really circles; they are spirals...
There are 70 faces to the Torah, or in Hebrew, shiv'im panim la'Torah. This means that there are 70 ways to understand every facet of Torah. The word "panim" can be translated either as "face," or as "innerness." Thus the Torah presents 70 different "faces," appearing differently depending on the psychological, intellectual and spiritual angle from which it is examined. It also means that there are 70 different inner realities for every facet we can see.
King David lived for 70 years, and, in our tradition, that is considered to be the "average" lifespan. Each subsequent year of life makes a person into a different creation than the year before. So if one lives the average lifetime, another understanding of "70 faces to the Torah" could mean that we, through living 70 years, have our own 70 faces that we can turn to the Torah. That is why we often have "aha!" moments even as we study the same concepts we studied last year, or hear the same weekly Torah portion we have heard for years in a row. Turning a different one of our faces to the Torah means that our "receptor sites" are different, and we are able to tune into a new aspect each year.

Climbing Higher

The word "shana" has a double meaning as well. In addition to "repeat," it also means "change". As the year goes go round and round, repeating the same seasons and holidays as the year before, we are presented with a choice: Do we want this shana (year) to be a repetition, or do we want to make a change (shinui)? Hopefully, each year we make choices for change that are positive, and each year we will climb higher and higher, creating a spiritual spiral.
The shape of the Rosh Hashana challah reminds us that this is the time of year to make those decisions. This is the time to engage in the creative spiritual process that lifts us out of the repetitive cycle, and directs our energies toward a higher end. Have a sweet new year!

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

In some Jewish communities, holiday challah is also shaped like ladders and hands: the ladder to help us reach great heights and the hand as a symbol of the desire to be inscribed in the book of life for the coming year. (Some also believe it is an amulet against the evil eye.) Among Jews originating from Tripoli, it is customary, particularly on the New Year, to make challah with caraway seeds, a symbol of fertility. Among Moroccans, challah is made with raisins, nuts and anise in the dough and served with a hard-boiled egg placed on top. These are all symbols of sweetness and fertility. Many Central European Jews also add raisins to their challah dough and serve it with a little bowl of honey in the center.

What is Challah?

A. The pure, simple, unadorned word “Challah” means “a loaf of bread.” However, in Halachic terms, the word Challah has a very specific definition, and colloquially, it came to mean a certain type of bread thousands of years later.

B. The Halachic definition of Challah is a reference to Positive Mitzvah #133. It entails separating a section of dough from your kneadings and giving it to the Kohain. This piece of dough is called "Challah." Any dough which is made of wheat, barley, spelt, oat or rye is obligated in this Mitzvah. The Kohain and his family would eat the Challah while in a state of ritual purity. The Rabbis determined that the the home-baker give 1/24th of the dough to the Kohain, while the commercial baker has to donate 1/48th of his dough.

C. Biblically speaking, the Mitzvah of Challah is only observed in the land of Israel. Furthermore, according to most Halachic authorities, the Mitzvah of Challah was a requirement only in the times of the Temple. Today, no Temple, no Challah. But the Rabbis re-instituted the practice of Challah -- even outside the land of Israel -- to commemorate this special Mitzvah. However, since today we are all considered ritually impure, the Kohain cannot eat the Challah. Instead, Jewish women through the centuries knead homemade dough and then separate a piece of the dough and burn it. All kosher bakeries so the same -- they separate a piece of dough from each batch, and throw it on the floor of the oven. Today, only a small piece of dough is separated for Challah -- since the Challah isn't eaten, it would be wasteful to separate 1/24th or 1/48th of the dough.

D. Before separating the "Challah," the following blessing is recited:
Baruch atta Ado-noy Elo-hai-nu Melech ha'olam asher kid-e-sha-nu b'mitz-vo-tav v'tzi-vanu li-haf-rish Challah.
[Blessed are you, Lord our G-d, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us to separate Challah.]

E. Eventually, the soft, sweet bread loaves customarily eaten by the Shabbat meals became known as Challah .

Ps 93:3-4 NKJV The floods have lifted up, O LORD, The floods have lifted up their voice; The floods lift up their waves. 4 The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, than the mighty waves of the sea.

“The tide of tumult and upheaval is rising in the earth. But I am the Great Dispossessor and Deliverer. I will cause many who have struggled and been worn to be refreshed and I will dispossess the enemy of your soul from the ground he has stolen. And I will DELIVER many who have been in darkness, into the light of My glory!

There is NOTHING that I cannot do!
There is nothing I cannot change!
There is noone that I cannot save and change!
How small so many of My people make me!
How small and impotent they think I am.
Have you not seen? Have you not heard?
Do you think the blood I shed so insignificant?
There is NOTHING that can stop what I purpose to do!

Isa 40:21-24 NKJV
21 Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? 22 It is He who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers, Who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in. 23 He brings the princes to nothing ; He makes the judges of the earth useless.
24 Scarcely shall they be planted, Scarcely shall they be sown, Scarcely shall their stock take root in the earth, when He will also blow on them, and they will wither, and the whirlwind will take them away like stubble.

It is I Who plants, and I Who reaps in this harvest of all harvests. I am perfecting My Bride, and when I am finished, there will be a whole new church, a living, breathing organism with a heart again like Mine. AM I SO WEAK, that I cannot accomplish this? Do you have so little trust in My ability to change that pastor, that neighbor, that addicted person, that perverted person, that child, that teenager, that homeless person?

THE GLORY OF THE LORD WILL FILL THE EARTH I'VE SAID! Do you believe it? Will you die to your opinions? Will you ask Me for MY OPINION? Will you PRAY for the ones who have hurt you? Will you ask ME for the measure of love you need to love those who have used you and hated you? I love all mankind. I love that one that annoys you! I love that one that has rejected you! I love that one that has hurt you! I love that one that has rebelled against you! I know all things. I alone know the heart of that one, and all it has had to bear! Come to ME when you have a problem with someone and ask for MY EYES to see with! Ask to see them with My heart, to feel their pain. Ask what has come against them to make them that way, and I will give you the heart to pray effectively for them.
I will supply the compassion you need to understand them!

Ask and you shall receive! Knock and the door will be opened to you!
Lay down all your own ideas and come and ask for MINE! I'm not interested in your opinion. I know from whence it comes! I know the hurts. I know the pain. I know the oppression you have suffered and I know the oppression they have suffered. I know what you DON'T know about that other person. So come. Come and I will give you MY heart if you will only ask for it! And you will weep, and your heart will be broken, like Mine is for all those who are unhealed and undelivered. And now when you pray for them, you will see change!

I AM the MIGHTY ONE OF ISRAEL. NOTHING is too hard for ME!"
Yes, there will be those who refuse My love, and My ways. Ask Me and I will show you the reprobate heart. Ask and I will show you who to pray for and who not to pray for. I know all things. I know the very thoughts of your heart. So lean on ME for understanding and wisdom. I love you and you will see your joy made complete in this hour. Sons and daughters will return.
Children will have visitations and be taken to heaven. You will see great and mighty wonders in heaven and in the earth. I will make a DISPLAY of My power that the world will have no excuse for ignoring. For those who choose to go their own way, do not gloat or disdain them. I have no joy in the demise of their souls. Be thankful that your name is written in the Book of Life!"

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way. 28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters. 29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away. 30 Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting;
29 being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness; they are whisperers, 30 backbiters, haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, unforgiving, unmerciful; 32 who, knowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things are deserving of death, not only do the same but also approve of those who practice them.

Titus 1:15-16 AMP
15 To the pure [in heart and conscience] all things are pure, but to the defiled and corrupt and unbelieving nothing is pure; their very minds and consciences are defiled and polluted.
16 They profess to know God [to recognize, perceive, and be acquainted with Him], but deny and disown and renounce Him by what they do; they are detestable and loathsome, unbelieving and disobedient and disloyal and rebellious, and [they are] unfit and worthless for good work (deed or enterprise) of any kind.

Springtime and Harvest

Sept 26th, 2004

“On this day of atonement I have gone throughout the earth. I have looked upon My children and the conditions of the world in earnest desire to see if there has been change. I see much that I am proud of. I see many struggling to get the healing they want. I see many suffering through year after year of affliction and rejection and still clinging to ME. I see many still grateful and thankful, when all around them is unthankfulness and ungratefulness, complaining and discontentment. So don’t think that I don’t see the awesome effort that you My sons and daughters are putting forth to change.

For many more there is still apathy, complacency, and a spirit of stupor still over you. For many run to and fro, hither and thither doing all sorts of things, and busy with life, with no time to give to the Creator of Life. Many have compromised their walks because they no longer consider My Word, the WORD OF GOD. Many think they can form ME into their image of who they want ME to be. Many do NOT repent for their sins, and do not listen to their conscience as their hearts have become hardened by all the sin around them, and in them.

You will no longer be able to straddle the fence of life, with one foot in the world and one foot in Me. It is impossible to continue this way because the cost will be too high, and it will take you too far away from My protection to protect you from the increase in evil. Have you read My Word? It does not change. It is immovable. It will be fulfilled. The knowledge of ME will fill the earth as the waters cover the seas, and I will have a people who trembles in My Presence! You will see ME coming in the clouds with great glory not long from now, so things are escalating in the world that you have read about. HARVEST TIME IS HERE. It is FALL in one half of the earth, and SPRINGTIME in the other. So it is a time of planting seeds and gathering the fruit of seeds planted. And it is a time of burning up the chaff. It is a time of SEPARATION. Separating the fruit from the vine, as when squash are gathered, and the vines wither after being harvested. It is also a time of NEW LIFE coming forth…My LIFE!”
“Those who are wise will sow and will gather. Those who are not wise will continue with business as usual. Those who are wise will make themselves available to ME for the work of My Kingdom, as I call to them. And those who are unwise will procrastinate and hesitate instead of supplicate. I tell you that time will not be halted for those who hesitate. When I tell you to do something now, be quick to do it. Be assured that I will give you all you need to do it as well. Do not look back! Do not look at what has been done, but to what I WANT DONE AND HOW. The new thing I do will require you to be DEPENDENT on ME for wisdom and understanding, and for the love and power you need to do it!

You cannot neglect your time with me without being led away. UNION with ME is the only way to keep your sanity in a world that is spiraling towards lawlessness! So when the Harvesting begins of souls in awakening. DO NOT GET SO BUSY that you neglect getting what you need from ME! LIFE begets life. If you receive life from ME, then you will be able to give it out to others. I caution you to come buy gold now of ME, while you have time!

There will be a universal ESCALATION. It will be worldwide and the harvest will suddenly abruptly erupt all over the world in many places where prayer and worship have sown into the heavens and will reap a great reward for the Kingdom. AWAKENING draws near. YOUR LORD is nigh! Come and drink of the new wine I am pouring out. Come you who are thirsty and drink of ME! For unto you a Son is given. Unto you glory will no longer be hidden!”

Zechariah 10:1-2 NIV
1 Ask the LORD for rain in the springtime; it is the LORD who makes the storm clouds. He gives showers of rain to men, and plants of the field to everyone. 2 The idols speak deceit, diviners see visions that lie; they tell dreams that are false, they give comfort in vain. Therefore the people wander like sheep oppressed for lack of a shepherd. 3 "My anger burns against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders; for the LORD Almighty will care for his flock, the house of Judah, and make them like a proud horse in battle.

Hos 6:11 NKJV Also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed for you, when I return the captives of My people.

Joel 1:11 NKJV Be ashamed, you farmers, Wail, you vinedressers, For the wheat and the barley; Because the harvest of the field has perished. 12 The vine has dried up, and the fig tree has withered; The pomegranate tree, The palm tree also, And the apple tree — All the trees of the field are withered; Surely joy has withered away from the sons of men.
13 Mourning for the Land
Gird yourselves and lament, you priests; Wail, you who minister before the altar; Come, lie all night in sackcloth, You who minister to my God; For the grain offering and the drink offering are withheld from the house of your God. 14 Consecrate a fast, Call a sacred assembly; Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD.
15 Alas for the day! For the day of the LORD is at hand; It shall come as destruction from the Almighty.
16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes, Joy and gladness from the house of our God? 17 The seed shrivels under the clods, Storehouses are in shambles; Barns are broken down, for the grain has withered. 18 How the animals groan! The herds of cattle are restless, Because they have no pasture; Even the flocks of sheep suffer punishment.
19 O LORD, to You I cry out; For fire has devoured the open pastures, and a flame has burned all the trees of the field. 20 The beasts of the field also cry out to You, For the water brooks are dried up, and fire has devoured the open pastures.

Matt 13:30 NKJV Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.""
Matt 13:39 NKJV The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels.

Luke 10:2-3 NKJV Then He said to them, "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

John 4:35-36 NKJV Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes the harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest!

Rev 14:14-18 NKJV Reaping the Earth's Harvest
Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle. 15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "Thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the time has come for You to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe." 16 So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Reaping the Grapes of Wrath
Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.
18 And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe." 19 So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20 And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, up to the horses' bridles, for one thousand six hundred furlongs.

Prov 10:5 NKJV He who gathers in summer is a wise son; He who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.

Jer 50:16 NKJV Cut off the sower from Babylon, And him who handles the sickle at harvest time. For fear of the oppressing sword everyone shall turn to his own people, and everyone shall flee to his own land.

The Heart of the Matter
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 21, 2004 11:11 pm

"Juxtapositioning is going on in My Kingdom in many areas. I am putting those together who will work together for My glory. I have alignments that are important to these times, that will bring in much harvesting, cleaning of that harvest, and training for that harvest. It is important that you listen for the still small voice to lead you into alignment with only those I tell you to! I sent the apostles out two by two. There was purpose in that! Look now at what I will do to balance out those in My Kingdom that are alone! For some, they will be married to those they go with, and for others, they will have friends from other nations, and youth that will go with them, to demonstrate My love and unity of the brethren. The apostles went in two's, but for many of you, I will send you in fours, and larger groups and more diverse to shake cities, and to shake nations. I am mixing and I am fixing, to make teams that will have diverse gifts and authority in prayer to dispel the darkness!

Harvest is on My heart! That is why I am working on you to take out all that is not of Me, and to get you to be still and listen and receive the love that will break the yoke over others. I want a pure and spotless Bride, and I will make her so! I will continue to heal and deliver, to purge and to test until you learn to work together more amiably and without competition, and sibling rivalry. I am breaking down walls of division. I am breaking down walls of intimidation and I am breaking down walls of separation. I WILL make My Bride HOLY! Steadily and surely, I have purposed to complete this work, and NOTHING can stop it! I will send forth the peacemakers and they will bring forth truth that will build unity through INTIMACY with ME. Intimacy with ME is the CURE for what is wrong with the church. If you don't KNOW ME, and spend time with ME, and neglect or ignore ME, then how can you possibly get through the tribulation that is coming? I will fulfill the prayer of My Son to make you ONE as We are one! I WILL RESTORE the true sheep of My pastures.

Matt 7:22-23 NKJV Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

There is a wind blowing that will bring the KINGDOM upon you. This wind is not the kind you can harness or control. THIS Wind will bring power as you've not seen before. This GLORY will not be able to be "managed" or "limited". This is MY GLORY, and it will go forth and through whomever I WILL. If you try to oppose it, you will be opposed by ME. FOR IT IS I WHO am in it! I AM the Wind that is coming. I WILL empower My bride to overcome, and to do the works of the KINGDOM, and for the KINGDOM, and by MY LEADING. This Wind is not something you can "TAME". The Wind blows where it will!

John 3:8 NKJV The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

juxtaposition Function: noun
Etymology: Latin juxta near + English position -- more at JOUST
: the act or an instance of placing two or more things side by side; also : the state of being so placed

Lawlessness – (Webster) 1 : not regulated by or based on law
2 a : not restrained or controlled by law : UNRULY b : ILLEGAL
You could say…a lack of being under the Rule of the King. In other words, doing what you think is best, instead of submitting to Him.

NT:458 anomia (an-om-ee'-ah); from NT:459; illegality, i.e. violation of law or (genitive case) wickedness: KJV - iniquity, transgress (-ion of) the law, unrighteousness.

NT:459 anomos (an'-om-os); from NT:1 (as a negative particle) and NT:3551; lawless, i.e. (negatively) not subject to (the Jewish) law; (by implication, a Gentile), or (positively) wicked: KJV - without law, lawless, transgressor, unlawful, wicked.

NT:3551 nomos (nom'-os); from a primary nemo (to parcel out, especially food or grazing to animals); law (through the idea of prescriptive usage), genitive case (regulation), specifically (of Moses [including the volume]; also of the Gospel), or figuratively (a principle): KJV - law.

I was asleep and I had this dream. I dreamt that I was in like a third world place, and it was so poor, and it was just so 'low' and awful. Anyways, I then saw there were children everywhere, and they were dark skinned children so maybe I was in Africa or something...

But they were in cages, and my heart was screaming and something in the core of me was screaming I needed to get them out. I can't remember HOW I helped them, but I helped them in some way, yet I don't remember if they actually got out of the cages or not. I remember something in the core of me screaming I needed to get them out. This gut wrenching something...that was absolutely taking over me so much I wanted to double over and scream.

The next thing I know, I reach up and see a gorilla looking at me, and I hold the hand of the gorilla. Yet some of the kids looked like baby gorilla's. That was it. Then I tell people in my dream out what had happened and I just couldn't stop crying.

I have now woken up with this gut wrenching tug in the core of me, I am screaming inside to get them out. Something is happening to me, and I don't know what it is.

African Dreams

Dennis Peacocke

Africa, the "Dark Continent" of Western literature, is easily romanticized. It is raw, often primitive, and hauntingly beautiful. Like all of humanity, the people are full of virtues and full of vices. The culture is emotionally infectious and yet simultaneously filled with tragic flaws. Short of a miraculous turnaround in its continental sexual and economic practices, AIDS and other related maladies are predicted to reduce its population by more than twenty percent in the next ten or fifteen years. Most of that death will decimate the current under thirty-five population. We're talking multiple millions of people here. This crisis is easily comparable to the Plague, which reduced Europe's population in the 14th century by one-third.

Culturally, tribalism is still a dominant force in Africa. Tragically, over the last decades, it has given rise to tribal "ethnic cleansing" in the millions. Sudan, now under global scrutiny after twenty years of the ethnic-religious extermination of black Christians in the South by Arab Muslims from the North, follows on the heels of the Rawandan holocaust of the 1990s. Warring factions are active in numerous other regions throughout the continent. While these realities are often high-lighted, the truth is that Europe has been even more destructive of its own people in the last hundred years. In the main, the African populations are hard working. Considering the harsh realities of survival there, they are amazingly full of life.

The Colonial West brought to Africa: Christianity, medicine, schooling, roads and infrastructure, Western culture and order, and of course a heavy dose of patronizing exploitation. When the "free African" movements emerged in the 1950s and 1960s, hope and "freedom" promised a new era of dignity and self-determination. That dream today has turned, in many places, into a painful nightmare of slow disintegration. Removing the "exploiters," while necessary, revealed how unprepared many people were to make the Western modern world system truly work in Africa. Race is not the issue; skill sets and worldview are. To make it all the worse, Africa, rich in resources, has been repeatedly exploited by one corrupt leader and government after another. Black greed has proven as ugly as white exploitation. Welcome to fallen humanity, no matter what the color of the skin.

What seems most obvious to me in my recent visits to both East Africa and West Africa is this: What must change is the maddening exploitation of the people by a spirit of corruption, bribery, and self-serving power manifested in so many places. Indeed, a culture's philosophy of power is the single most important indicator of how justice and resources are dispensed amongst its people by its leaders.

Power is either used to empower others or exploit them. It's either about "me" or "us." The clearest example of this is Christ's legacy of the power He demonstrated at the Cross. He modeled for us all, in a totally consistent manner, that power and love must co-mingle absolutely. They do in the heart of God. Showing what "your good at my expense" looks like, Jesus set the highest of examples for all to see. Human nature in the West is no different than human nature in Africa. What is different is the hundreds of years of pre-democratic and democratic institutions that have grown up in the West, making blatant corruption more easily detectable and therefore more difficult to practice. The question is how quickly Africa can begin to win its race against disillusionment and a quiet desperation which says, "This is the way it must be."

My hope is in the message and power of the Kingdom of God. Africa has more than enough Christ-loving Christians to turn it around. The issue, as in the West, is whether or not their view of the gospel focuses as much on revealing Christ's Kingdom on Earth in the present as it does on getting our souls to heaven in the future. Africa and its people are deeply loved by God. I believe in Africa's future because in the long run I'm betting on God, and His here-and-now Kingdom focus, and that is . . .THE BOTTOM LINE!

Arise From The Ashes

Eze 37:9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

The Lord will breathe an increase of anointing on those who have been through the fires of purging and feel as though they are slain, feeling like they are never to rise again from weariness of their soul.

Eze 37:10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

Now is the time for destiny to come forth and we are knit together in spirit as a great army upon the earth. The Lord will bring burdens of prayer and intercession that will rise as one voice before Him, a sweet incense and as a smoke in His nostrils, to bring about the birthing of the New Jerusalem upon the face of the earth. Listen to My voice as I whisper to travail in prayer, in groanings and utterings that cannot be uttered. Gather in twos and threes and lift up your voices in prayer for the coming season. But know this my Beloved, that in the time of coming judgment upon the face of the earth, my Eagles will soar high above it and fulfill their commission. Great joy will be theirs as I move them, yea and even translate them by My spirit, to reach the lost, the hurting and the broken. This is the season of the Great White harvest and my reapers are being prepared even now.

Eze 37:11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

Not so saith the Lord, this is just the beginning. Lift up your eyes and see the salvation of the Lord. The Lord strong and mighty in battle will go before you to make smooth the path and to remove the stones. I have called you and created you for a purpose and that purpose is now to become apparent. You will greatly rejoice Beloved and you will even thank me for the fires of purging and the great preparation I have done in you for this coming season, a season when My Glory shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea. Be obedient, listen to my still, small voice and you shall see great and mighty things.

Eze 37:12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

There is soon coming a releasing from the wilderness, the season of death and dying to self and you will rise as a Phoenix out of the ashes, a people strong and mighty in battle. Prepared to rule and reign over the evil one, to reclaim the peoples, yea even the earth itself, for all creation is to be redeemed back to My Beloved one, My Son.

Eze 37:13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, Eze 37:14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

Yea I shall place you in your own land. Some will run Places of Refuge, some will walk the highways and byways in search of the lost and hurting. Some will rise to great heights in the prophetic, hearing

My words in greater depth, clarity and in the revelation of My Word. These prophets, under My mighty anointing of power, will proclaim prepare you for the coming of the Lord, to My body and to the lost. Words of judgment will come forth like a two edged sword, cutting asunder the soul from the spirit and causing great repentance and grief in those who have for so long neglected the promptings of My Spirit and have walked in their own discernment and in the knowledge of men.

Isa 32:15 Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

Prepare My people for My Spirit is coming like a mighty wave, a Tsunami, to push you into the plans and purposes I have ordained for you since before time began. I will not be thwarted and neither will you My Beloved for My plans and purposes will come to pass. Neither that which is the heavens and neither that which is under the earth will prevent it. So lift up your voices and begin to praise Me this very day.

Isa 32:16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field. Isa 32:17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever. Isa 32:18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

That peaceful habitation, that quiet resting place, is in Me Beloved. As I send you forth you will know that nothing can harm you or move you, as you fulfill all that I have called you to. I will sustain you as I pour out My Sprit upon you and through you. Everywhere you go My Cloud of Glory will surround you, envelope you and they will fall in the streets and say surely God is with you. This Cloud of Glory is not for you Beloved but for My purposes, to bring in the lost and so that My Justice and Righteousness will go forth in the Earth. Great things are on the way Beloved, great things so do not give up now and say I am too weary!

From the heart of the Father.

Amen

Rev 12:9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. Rev 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. Rev 12:11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Rev 12:12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. Rev 12:13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. Rev 12:14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. Rev 12:15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. Rev 12:16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. Rev 12:17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Know you not my people what season you are in? The devil is cast down and will increase his abominations upon the face of the earth. The season is late and yet there are many who perceive it not. Hear Me again Beloved, the Devil is cast out and is upon the earth. There are persecutions coming, even against My very Beloved but take heart I will sustain you and great will be My Glory upon you as they come against you. They cannot endure sound doctrine, they will clasp their hands over their ears and shout "stop" for they are led away with the lusts of the flesh and the pride of life.

Many that have perceived the season have let their hearts tremble with fear. These things have been foretold of old and the season now is, but take heart Beloved, have I not sustained you thus far, have I not held you in the palm of My hand, have you gone short of anything, has anything overcome you that you still do not stand this day? Yea you are still standing, even through the fires of refining, and you will stand in the day of persecution.

The world sees My Beloved as failures, as not amounting to much according to the world system but I see you as My precious Beloved, refined and made pure for this season, a season that in the midst of the persecution, the world will see My Glory upon you!

I am birthing My New Jerusalem in the midst of the coming persecution, a glorious Bride, refined and made pure through the fires. This is a day of rejoicing Beloved for all that your heart of hearts has desired is coming to you. A time of signs and wonders, a time of walking in My Glory, a time of divine provision and promotion (spiritual promotion). My faithful ones have stood through the fires and the tribulations and have been made strong for such a time as this. Oh how I long so show forth My Glory, how I long for the time where I catch you up into My everlasting, ever loving arms, My Bride, My Glorious Bride, I so long for that time! The time is soon Beloved but for now come unto Me and I will give you rest. I will whisper into your ear of things you do not yet know, deep, wonderful things, deeper revelations of My Word to your heart so that you may be strengthened even more and know that you can stand on My Word , even in the midst of the fires of persecution.

Know this Beloved, these things must come to pass but in all your afflictions I am afflicted, in all your sorrows I have sorrow and My Presence will be with you, My Glory will be upon you and I shall be glorified upon the face of the earth.

THE Beloved signs off for now.

AMEN

Psa 32:7 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah. Psa 32:8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.
For those of My children who feel that they are straining at the bit, pacing the floor and wringing their hands, that pressure that you feel is of Me says the Lord. There is a baby about to be birthed; you are in labor. Much has been placed in you through the years of refining; My seeds have been placed in you and now it is time to bring forth. I will surround you with songs of deliverance. I will place you in My ark of safety as you go through the uncomfortable labor pains.

What am I birthing through you, My beloved prepared ones? I am birthing My new church, a church made up of many parts of the body and the ligaments that hold these parts together is My love. You are in an uncomfortable season. As a woman's body undergoes many changes through her pregnancy, so you are feeling uncomfortable.

What is this new church I am birthing? It is a church where the plumb line is of Me! My standard of Holiness, My standard of Love, My anointing and My Son will be the head. Those who do not submit to the headship of My Son will be chastised by Me and some will be chastised publicly, for long have I spoken to their hearts and long have I spoken through My prophets, but they regarded it not.

What will the new church look like? It will look like My glorious Bride covered with the glorious apparel of My Glory and My Love (love is part of My Glory).
How can I bring in the masses? How can I bring in the lost, to a church in the state she is now in. The constant bickering, the jostling for position, the spirit of judgement that exists there, the unkind words spoken and the false foundations.
I am sending My Apostles and Prophets to you, to put My axe to the roots of unrighteousness, to the roots of slander and gossip, to the roots of pride and self suffiency. To break up and dig up the false foundations upon which you have built YOUR church and to rebuild the church UPON MY FOUNDATIONS. My foundations of truth, the way of the Cross, of dying to self and of giving ALL THE GLORY TO ME. Time is short and I will do a swift work. Will you receive them Beloved? Will you receive them?

To My prepared ones, push through this time of birthing. I will strengthen you, I will uphold you in the time of your labor pains, then I will show you the way that you must go. I am birthing a new baby, a baby that will go out to do My perfect will, to go out BY MY SPIRIT AND IN LOVE, to perfect others. Love from the Father.

Released From The Wilderness To Proclaim "Prepare The Way Of The Lord"

Mal 3:1 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. Mal 3:2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: Mal 3:3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. Mal 3:4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

I have nearly completed the refining, the purging of My prepared ones. Now I am coming to those of My children who have ignored the voice of My prophets and the promptings of My Spirit to lay down their lives for Me. They have carried on as usual; church as usual, business as usual, not discerning the times and the season. Whoa to My stubborn ones, My hard of hearing children for the time is short and I must use drastic measures to catch their attention. I do not want to loose even one of My precious sheep but many of My sheep are not hearing My voice. Without hearing My voice they can be led astray by the many deceptions purposed by the deceiver.

I am sending out My called out ones, those who have already been prepared by My hand in the fires of affliction. They have heard the call of My Spirit early and have been through much preparation by My hand. These are the ones I am now releasing out to the marketplace, out to the Churches, out to the fields of harvest, to do My bidding and My bidding only. Won't you hear them now Beloved, won't you hear them now? Before the day of great darkness descends upon the earth, won't you hear the voice of My beloved prepared ones?

There is a voice as one crying out in the wilderness "Prepare the way of the Lord". These are My wilderness people, those you would consider "odd balls". They don't fit into your churches and neither do they fit into the world. They are those you consider odd, consider intense and at odds with what you consider normal and acceptable. My people, so was John the Baptist considered in his day!

I have those that are weeping at My feet for they discern the times and the season. They are weeping for their release, to go forth and proclaim My Word in truth. They will go forth with a two edged sword in their mouths. Will you persecute them as My prophets of old were persecuted, or will you hear them?

Today when you hear My words, do not harden your hearts! There is a voice crying in the wilderness repent for the Kingdom of God is at hand.

From the hurting heart of the Father. There is more says the Lord but that is all for now.

After The Passion

Don Hawley

Mel Gibson's "Passion" should be recognized as a most singular and important event. First there was the heated debate about the film. It was nearly impossible to pick up something in print without finding an impassioned article. And I don't recall seeing anything so thoroughly discussed on the Internet.

Then there was the unprecedented flood of viewers as soon as the movie became available on the screen.

But what about after the "Passion?"

There have to be some advantages to being 80, and one of them is having a long-range perspective. I do not recall, in past decades, any other period in America when Christianity was so rabidly under attack by the forces of secularism. There is a virulent new hatred against all things Christian.

Many of us were surprised at the vehement anger leveled at this portrayal of the passion of our Lord. But should we have been? Have not the forces of darkness always done their best to keep humankind ignorant of what happened on Calvary, and why?

The organized church, of course, is not nearly so energized as the forces attacking it. Apathy is the general order of the day, but I believe that is about to change. I'd like to suggest that the film "Passion" may be the catalyst to awaken the slumbering church, and precipitate all-out religious warfare. What we likely will end up with is bitter warfare between the secular/Laodician left and the zealous religious right.

The fact that this is a presidential election year will also add considerable fuel to the fire. The abortion issue is still hot, and the same-sex marriage battle is sure to be big. Personally, I do not intend to cast my lot with either faction. Rather than line up behind intense human religious organizations, I think it wise to go with the Body of Christ. Although this invisible entity is not organized in the human sense, it is headed by the Holy Spirit.

Remember what happened in the Book of Acts. Open hatred and antagonism erupted between the secular Romans and the religious Jewish leaders. God could not accommodate either faction, and the Holy Spirit led out with signs and wonders that galvanized everyone's the attention. That kind of warfare proved to be highly effective; a relatively small group of nobodies, with no significant funding, "turned the whole world upside down." I'd like to see that happen again.

Personal Thoughts on the "Passion"

I'd like to comment briefly concerning my own thoughts on the "Passion" film, which I saw just today.

Was this film violent? Yes.

Was there gratuitous violence? No. I have studied quite a bit through the years concerning both Roman scourging and crucifixion. My opinion is that, horrible as the depiction was, it still fell short of what Christ actually endured. Many victims died as a result of the scourging itself.

Isaiah had a vision of what Jesus would experience at the hands of the Romans.

"See, my servant will prosper; he will be highly exalted. Many were amazed when they saw him--beaten and bloodied, so disfigured one would scarcely know he was a person." Is. 52:13, 14.

"But wasn't Gibson's portrayal truly ugly?" Yes, it had to be in order to make a truthful statement. What happened to the Savior during his final 12 hours was the ugliest experience in human history.

"OK, so it was realistic. Did we have to see it that way?" Yes, because most of the passion portrayals of the past have been highly sanitized. Some of them were almost poetic. There is a serious need for Christians to better comprehend the cost of our salvation, the price Jesus paid for our rescue. Only then can we properly evaluate the worth of redemption and eternal life.

"But it seems just too much to ask us to watch." If Jesus, in his innocence, could go through the pain and the shame, then you in your guiltiness ought to be able to watch it.

A Continuing Need

One of the most indignant articles I read condemning the "Passion," compared it to the "needless violence" portrayed in the movie "Schindler's List." The truth is that this film also held back some of the actual horror in the extermination of the Jews. I think it would be good for each of us to view "Schindler's List" annually, lest we forget and end up repeating the terrible error once again.

The old hymn had it right.

Lest I forget Gethsemane,
Lest I forget thine agony,
Lest I forget thy love for me,
Lead me to Calvary.

2005...The year of Abundant Grace

My grace is sufficient for you; but now I AM pouring out a greater measure of Grace upon My children who wait upon Me. I am giving a measure that is more than sufficient, Yes, More than enough to sustain you, supply you, support you, strengthen you, and to send you. I have seen your arms lifted and yet your heart is weighed down. I say unto you now, I AM giving an abundant measure of Grace that will be more than enough to take you through, to help you, to keep you, to lead you, and that I might use the Life I AM within you in greater ways and in greater measure.

Come to Me and you shall see that I AM the great I AM and I AM is able to fulfill all things that have been revealed unto you and spoken to you. For in this time of season, you have struggled in your faith, you have prayed yet you have doubted and you have been weary and heavy laden. You have started and not finished. I have not left you but desired that you would seek me to find me waiting for you and that you would know My heart and know My voice. WATCH as I move you into position under My authority that has been given unto you as My children. I have given you all the necessary requirements that are needed and now I will give greater measure to those who desire to fulfill the will I have set for you.

In this time, My grace is coming to you and for you in Me. My child, My child, My precious child, I have much for you to do in My Name. Rise up and know that I have prepared you for such a time as this. Oh, that you would see Glory in the things that you have endured in My strength. It is the Grace I have given unto you to fulfill the things that you would not have nor cannot attain naturally.

For I AM making use of all that you endure and all that you have been, and all that you are. Come to Me, for I will be your rest. The grace that I have given unto you in times that have past is nothing like the Grace that I AM is about to pour upon you in this coming season. My Grace is sufficient for you and it is here for you, and now there will be more Grace, more in Abundance unto you. This grace will be more than sufficient, more than enough and it will sustain you through this hour and the season that is coming forth.

For many have gone ahead without seeking clear direction and have moved without seeking Me for Grace. Things were not accomplished, many have fallen, many have lost the Hope that I AM has given you through My son Jesus Christ. Oh, my Child if you will open your heart, renew your mind with who I AM, make way for this Abundant Grace that will take you through and enable you to stand in ways and in places you have yet to stand.

I love you dear child, know that I know what your deepest sorrows, desires, and prayers are unto Me. For I set angels that gather your songs, gather your prayers, gather your desires and they dance with them before Me. I have set them to guard you and keep you in your darkest of hours, though even in the darkest places that you sense, I am still Light, for where I AM there is no darkness. I AM the Light for you; I WILL show you the way in which you are to go. Be still and know that I AM God. My Grace will take you there.

There will be a surge within your Spirit and I will touch you with an Abundant Grace that is about to be poured upon you who wait upon Me. For in this Grace will be measures as never seen before in the earth. There will be those who doubted their abilities, questioned their faith, their confidence, their boldness, and even the gifts I have given you. These will begin to rise up leaving others astounded. A day to remember, A day to stand up, A day to arise, A day to be revolutionized, A day for revelation, A day to be One with Him as He is One with you, A day to say I can, A day to say He is the Great I AM, A day to push, A day to press, A day to say yes and Amen, A day to know, A day in which our Father has created for you to know His love for you, A day in which our Lord is alive in you, A day in which the enemy no longer has chains around you, A day for a new beginning, A day that you will be set free, A day that God Almighty has made a way, A day that was created for you to say He lives in me with Dominion and Power and Majesty and Glory and Life and Wisdom, A day to put one foot in front of the other and move toward your destiny in Jesus Christ of Nazareth who dwells in you, for you to walk in Him , in the Spirit, in Love, in authority, A day of new mercy, A day to be forgiven and A day to forgive others, A day to forgive yourself, A day to love, A day to let yourself be loved, A day to reveal who HE is within you, A day to say I am coming out, A day to say I am coming in, A day to say I am coming up, A day to say I am healed, A day to declare Jesus is Lord, A day for salvation, A day to shout HE IS RISEN, A day to say I can see, A day to shout I AM rich, A day to say I AM is strong in me, A day to remember that you are no longer a victim but victorious, A day to let go of the past and live in the present that God has given you, A day where you know you are the apple of His eye, A day your marriage is restored, A day your heart is made whole, A day that you will know if you are single that God is your husband, your provision, your protection, A day to know your children will come in, A day to let go and let God, A day to soar, A day to say IT IS TIME!!! A day to be revolutionized in Him and through Him and for Him. It is Time!!

Go forth; for it is high time to stand up , rise up, push forward, press on , look to Him, follow His steps, listen to His voice, look to the Lamp that lights the Way before you.

It is high time to be revolutionized. It is time to reflect on the revelation that He has shown, that He has spoken from the beginning. All things that He has spoken shall come to pass in due time. His spoken word became flesh...you were called upon before entrance into your mothers womb. You were not a mistake, you were not an accident, you were called here by God to fulfill a great purpose for Him in this earth. You were created beautiful in His eyes. Your name was spoken by God and you were brought into existence for such a time as this. There is nothing that can keep you down because the Lord Jesus Christ is holding you up. There is nothing you can not do because you can do all things through Him who gives you the strength to do so. You are not defeated because He is victorious in you.
You are not broke down but being built up.
For those who are crucified with Him live with Him.

2 Corinthians 4:7-11
[7] But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us. [8]We are hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; [9]persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed-- [10]always carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body. [11]For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.

IT IS TIME....The Lord is saying, IT IS TIME!!!! We must come up higher now , for the time of this season is drawing to an end and one that is coming will be one of great and tremendous and mighty, and strong growth. For this season has been a difficult one for many; but the Lord God Almighty has set forth a word for HIS remnant and He is saying;
IT IS TIME!!!

There is purpose in all that I have set out to accomplish in you and through you. There is nothing that you have endured that I have not seen. It is MY strength saith the Lord that has held you during this process of elimination of self, of motive, of agenda so that I could arise within you. For in this hour to whom much is given much is required. I have looked to and fro for those who have stood in the fire and have not run. I have watched where you could have taken the easy road but chose the narrow, the difficult , the humbling way to Me. I am calling for a chosen and faithful people who will lift up and hold MY banner unto all nations to declare MY name and reveal MY glory that has come from all that you have endured through, unto all people. IT IS TIME!!!!

Be ready!! Know your place, Know your position, Know where I have called you to stand. For I alone will do this great work through you and My glory will shine in darkness and MY light will remove darkness. For where I AM saith Adonai, there is no darkness. Let us go for as you abide in ME, I shall abideth in you. I will speak through you, I will heal through your hands, I will deliver through my authority and dominion through a spoken word that will breathe upon My people who call upon MY name and to every dry bone will come life. For I am calling a great and mighty army into place. I will hold you up, I will strengthen you, I will sustain you and keep you in places you would never imagine you could stand. You will know that I AM that I AM has sent you and kept you through this commission (co-MISSION). This CO-Mission is one in which we will walk together.

This is... the great C0-Mission.

IT IS TIME!!! Greater Revelation, Great Revolution, to fulfill the Great Co-Mission in Jesus Christ. You may not be understood, its all right, you may think your alone but it is a mission between you and Jesus. He is there with you right now. Walking with you. Yes, He is the One who enables you to walk in Him. Don’t try to explain it, don’t try to justify it, don’t try to even understand all of it. Just do it!! Fulfill all that He has called you to do.

IT IS TIME!!

IT is the Day!!!

Abundant Blessings,
Jeannette Rodgers

ft back, or overlooked, prepare to be launched into areas you have never even imagined through the Grace that I am giving you. It is My grace that will bring you there. For surely, It is My desire that you will move in Me and that all will know My grace, My love, My mercy, My Hand, My heart, My voice, and the Way. It will be evident that it is only by the Grace given unto you that enabled you to fulfill that which I have set for you.

Come, Come, Come, For Grace, Grace, Grace, Grace, Grace is here for you. It is My Love filled with dominion, authority and strength, for you, that you would walk and not faint and accomplish all things that I have predestined with your Life.

A Great Divide

All restraints have been removed . . . Do you not see and discern the time of the ages you have now entered? Defilement floods the earth - the airwaves owned by demonic forces are flowing into the houses of those that call themselves by My name. The free flowing defilement on your TV idols of Harry Potter, Lord of the Rings, Desperate Housewives, etc. . . And My people open this flood up just to see! Set no evil before your eyes, that is what My commandment speaks.

The line will soon be drawn - one side stands for Me - the other side is filled with defilement. They no longer look to Me. Party and play is still the order of their day.

One shepherd has been recently exposed (Paul Cain) - some were appalled; some were religious Pharisees with their remarks saying no one should have exposed this sin before man. Do I not command to expose that which is done in secret and in darkness to be brought to the light for all to see? (I Tim. 5:19-21; Eph. 5:11; III John 9:10) Yes, there are sins that are not to be exposed until I return . . . For surely you cannot judge the intents of one’s heart. Defilement is obvious and this you are commanded to judge (Eze. 3:20; I Cor. 5:9-13) and reprove, giving such a one over to satan for the destruction of his flesh, that perhaps his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. This man (in Corinth) was exposed to the whole of the congregation.

Yea, one of large countenance and authority shall soon be exposed for all to see (as in the day of Jimmy Swaggart). On what side will you be? Surely I will then say, "who is on the Lord’s side, let him stand with Me". As Moses had said, so shall it be once again. For that was a foreshadow, don’t you see?

A great separation and divide at this time there surely will be. You will no longer wonder who is of Me; as with Moses, a separation he did call. Who responded out of the camp of Israel? Only the sons of Levi! Who are the Levites today? Those that are separated, sanctified and purified; vessels of honor and prepared for every good work (II Tim. 2:21)! They are the ones that will soon be commissioned to GO.

The sons of Levi were sent to the gates to bring forth judgement by the sword. From gate to gate throughout the camp, they slew those that did not repent! In that day, you shall be sent forth from gate to gate (doors of the church buildings) to bring forth My judgment upon the defilement that now resides within the camp (church). Your sword is My Word, two-edged it is, to bring forth this divide. Words of knowledge shall prevail, sins revealed as with Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:10-11). Slain they surely will be and great fear, once again, you shall see.

After the divide of Moses’ day, I told them "now GO unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee; behold, Mine angel shall go before thee . . . " Hallelu Jah! Do you now see? This separation shall cause you to be led into your promised land; promises and prophecies fulfilled; pouring out of My Spirit as yet to behold.

The waters (Holy Spirit), as at the Pool of Bethesda are stirring and with help only from Me, you shall receive the healing from the death (separations, isolations, brokenness, loneliness) in the wilderness; emptied out you were for Me . . . Now you are satisfied only with Me; none other will you follow; you‘ll look only unto Me. You know the time is short when this Word shall surely be. An unction you have and preparations you are making - for the command to GO will shortly be heard. Out of the chambers you soon shall be.

A Giant Leap for Mankind

Luke 18:8 NKJV I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?"

One for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to go…

Words from an old song came to mind after hearing “ a giant leap for mankind” .

Are you ready for the “advances of mankind”? Are you ready for their giant leaps for mankind? They have all the answers planned. They have all the solutions for the world planned. They think they can do anything. I have said before, they have their plans…but I HAVE MINE!

I know your coming out and your going in. I know the hairs on your head. There is nothing I have no knowledge of. Man is interested in the MONEY and in the SHOW – wanting glory for himself and all the riches of this world to hoard for himself. But I have a different plan. My plan is far superior to the plans of mere men. Just when you think you have it all figured out, things change. They change because I AM is in control, not man.

The IDOLS of this world will fail. They will not keep anyone from the judgments my heart has planned. Call for the crying women! Call for the men who know how to WAR in MY WAY! Call for the priests and may you weep between the porch and the altar for the souls of this world who are lost in darkness! My heart is not willing that ANY should perish. So weep My daughters and weep My sons! I am calling you to compassion. I am calling you to WAR in MY way. Will you do it on your knees? Will you raise your voices in praise in the waste places and on the hills of the earth? Will

You ARISE to the occasion? For it is NOT by MIGHT, and NOT BY POWER, but BY MY SPIRIT, that the world will be won. It takes God to worship God. It takes God to do anything right! So listen for ME to tell you what to do! Meanwhile rest in My arms of love that I may FILL YOU UP.

I have a secret store house of gifts and talents, riches and glory. I am looking for those who are willing to pay the cost. Many have already paid their “cost”. Many have gone through so much abuse and rejection and they have been willing to suffer WITH ME…and NOW I will launch them into the destiny I have had for them. Many have thought it’s too late. But it is NEVER too late with ME. Sarah gave birth at a ripe old age, and it was miraculous. I have those that many consider too old, too weird, too uneducated, too sinful, too impoverished or too young to be useful to the kingdom. But I tell you that it is EXACTLY THESE THAT I WILL USE.

I the LORD your God, LOVE A CHALLENGE! Yes, I have chutzpah! I AM BOLD like a LION! I do NOT back down from a fight! I KNOW My enemy, and I know his weaknesses and his strengths and I know his end. And I am ALL POWERFUL, so nothing can quench My boldness or strength in battle!

I WILL FIGHT FOR YOU! I SAID, I WILL FIGHT FOR YOU! BUT YOU MUST EXPECT MY INTERVENTION! YOU MUST EXPECT ME TO FIGHT

FOR you. You can rest in knowing that the battle belongs to the Lord when it seems beyond your ability. When it seems beyond your ability then it is when I will wield MY SWORD. Do I now have thousands of thousands of legions of angels at MY command? BELIEVE My beloveds that I AM able, and I will DO IT! Remember the angels are waiting on your prayers and worship for assignments?

YES, they are waiting and listening…hoping for orders!

SO YOU TAKE A LEAP for MANKIND! TAKE A LEAP OF FAITH and believe for what SEEMS impossible. What is impossible for you? PRAY for that! And watch what I can do! TAKE A LEAP OF FAITH, and BELIEVE for the unbelieving son or daughter! BELIEVE for the unsaved brother or sister, for the unsaved husband or wife! BELIEVE for the boss who is unsaved. BELIEVE for the most wicked to be convicted! ONLY I KNOW the heart that will turn to ME! So you do your job, and walk according to the Spirit and not according to your flesh and DEPEND on ME, and I will show you the soul that is to be transformed. DANCE on INJUSTICE. DANCE on the nations! DANCE with JOY and exuberance in your heart for what I am about to do in you and through you! REJOICE I SAY! REJOICE! For the Lord Your God is coming to you in an unprecedented way, and I need you to walk in a higher level of FAITH and expectation when the world is moving in the opposite spirit of hopelessness and DOUBT! AWAKEN you who sleep and COME FORTH! COME FORTH! I am calling forth My dread champions. I am calling forth the youth who seem so unbelieving and rebellious and I will make the OUTCASTS a MIGHTY NATION!

Mic 4:6-13 AMP

6 In that day, says the Lord, I will assemble the lame, and I will gather those who have been driven away and those whom I have afflicted.

7 And I will make the lame a remnant, and those who were cast off a strong nation; and the Lord shall reign over them in Mount Zion from this time forth and forever.

8 And you, O tower of the flock, the hill and stronghold of the Daughter of Zion, unto you the former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the Daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king among you? Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken you like a woman in labor?

10 Writhe in pain and labor to bring forth, O Daughter of Zion, like a woman in childbirth; for now you shall go forth out of the city and you shall live in the open country. You shall go to Babylon; there you shall be rescued. There the Lord shall redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

11 Now many nations are assembled against you, saying, Let her be profaned and let our eyes gaze upon Zion.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither do they understand His plan, for He shall gather them as the sheaves to the threshing floor.

13 Arise and thresh, O Daughter of Zion! For I will make your horn iron and I will make your hoofs bronze; you shall beat in pieces many peoples, and I will devote their gain to the Lord and their treasure to the Lord of all the earth. [Zech 12:1-8; 14:14.]

Zech 12:1-8 AMP

1 THE BURDEN or oracle (the thing to be lifted up) of the word of the Lord concerning Israel: Thus says the Lord, Who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundation of the earth and forms the spirit of man within him:

2 Behold, I am about to make Jerusalem a cup or bowl of reeling to all the peoples round about, and in the siege against Jerusalem will there also be a siege against and upon Judah.

3 And in that day I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all peoples; all who lift it or burden themselves with it shall be sorely wounded. And all the nations of the earth shall come and gather together against it.

4 In that day, says the Lord, I will smite every horse [of the armies that contend against Jerusalem] with terror and panic and his rider with madness; and I will open My eyes and regard with favor the house of Judah and will smite every horse of the opposing nations with blindness.

5 And the chiefs of Judah shall say in their hearts, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are our strength in the Lord of hosts, their God.

6 In that day will I make the chiefs of Judah like a big, blazing pot among [sticks of] wood and like a flaming torch among sheaves [of grain], and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left; and they of Jerusalem shall yet again dwell and sit securely in their own place, in Jerusalem.

7 And the Lord shall save and give victory to the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be magnified and exalted above Judah.

8 In that day will the Lord guard and defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and he who is [spiritually] feeble and stumbles among them in that day [of persecution] shall become [strong and noble] like David; and the house of David [shall maintain its supremacy] like God, like the Angel of the Lord Who is before them.

Zech 14:14 AMP And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together--gold and silver and apparel in great abundance.

Breaches in Communication
Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 11th, 2004 2:32 am

Matt 12:34-37 NKJV

34 Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. 35 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. 36 But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. 37 For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

Ps 12:3-5 NKJV May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaks proud things, 4 Who have said, "With our tongue we will prevail; Our lips are our own; Who is lord over us?" 5 "For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, Now I will arise," says the LORD; "I will set him in the safety for which he yearns."

Many want to speak for Me, but their preconceived ideas of how I would speak and what I would say get in the way of truth I want to speak from them. I warned My prophets over and over to seek healing that they need, that what comes out of their mouths will not be a misrepresentation of My heart. When your heart gets in the way of the heart I want to manifest to My people, then mixture is born and much that is said in these times is according to understanding mixed with pride. I am warning you to not be so proud about what you speak that you miss the truth of what is in MY HEART.

For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. If you want to speak MY words to the people I love, then you must attain to the fullness of the measure of love that I desire for you. That means that you must seek after ME with all of your heart and all of your mind, and all of your soul.

If you still have envying and bitterness and pride in your heart, then it will taint the message that comes forth. I have called you to wash your feet daily. Repent and seek My face daily. If you will spend time in MY presence, then you will get the healing and the love that I have to share with others who are so love starved and needful of words that come forth in TRUTH but also in LOVE. TRUTH without love kills. It is unbalanced. When the Son of Man spoke, He spoke with LOVE in His heart for the people he healed and cared for. The only people you see Him getting angry at were the Pharisees; the pretenders. Even then, those His words were hard, they reflected His desire to love them…Matt 23:37-39 NKJV

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing! 38 See! Your house is left to you desolate;

My lovingkindness endures FOREVER. My mercies never fail. So I am telling you now, that if you will lay down all your pride, and all your pain that has not been fully forgiven, that you will save your soul from the coming judgments on the earth. But if you will not renounce your pride and arrogance, then you will be humbled. The Lord does NOT delight in the derision of His enemies! It does not give me pleasure to have to bring judgment. NOR should YOU delight in it, but rather pray to be kept from it.

Ps 106:1 NKJV Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!

For His mercy endures forever.

[chesed is the same word for mercy and lovingkindness]

[OT:2617 checed (kheh'-sed); from OT:2616; kindness; by implication (towards God) piety: rarely (by opposition) reproof, or (subject.) beauty:

KJV - favour, good deed (-liness, -ness), kindly, (loving-) kindness, merciful (kindness), mercy, pity, reproach, wicked thing.

OT:2616 chacad (khaw-sad'); a primitive root; properly, perhaps to bow (the neck only [compare OT:2603] in courtesy to an equal), i.e. to be kind; also (by euphem. [compare I OT:88], but rarely) to reprove: KJV - shewself merciful, put to shame.

The greatest commandment is to LOVE the Lord Your God with all of your heart, mind, strength and soul, and to love your neighbor as yourself.

Who I ask is your neighbor? Is it only the people you like? Is it only the people at church? Does it mean to only love the Christians? Did I not say that if you only love those who love you, then what credit is that to you?

I said to LOVE your enemies, to PRAY for those who hate you, and to bless those who spitefully use you. If your speech does not comply with this, then is it not a breech in what I have taught you? Have I not taught you that the greatest is LOVE? Love is the greatest tool in your arsenal of warfare tools. Love is as strong as death! Love covers a multitude of sins. Love NEVER FAILS. Is not the problem with rebellion and rejection in the lives of people mostly because they never received the appropriate kind of LOVE that they needed? So if you want to overcome, then you must receive of ME, MY HEART, and MY LOVE for the lost and hurting of this world.

You cannot get what you don’t ask for. I said ASK and you shall RECEIVE.

My love is about to overwhelm those who have longed for it and asked for it.

So I urge you to ask for it; to really get in a place of worship and prayer that you might receive from ME all that I have for you. I am eager to change your heart and give you mine. But you must decrease, that I might increase. You must lay down me, myself and I. Selfishness is opposite to love. Self centeredness is opposite to loving others as yourself. Incline your ears to TRUTH and put away worldly wisdom. Come away with ME and let me share with you My heart and My secrets My beloveds! Get away from the busyness. It is the enemy’s strategy to get you so busy that you cannot have time with Me. It is his strategy all the way to undermine your trust in ME. Come and find your strength in ME! For

I am gentle and lowly of heart. My burden is light.

I spoke to MOSES face to face. I have many I WANT to speak to face to face in this hour and I WILL speak to you. Moses was known as the most HUMBLE man on the face of the earth. He was dependent on Me. Yes he made mistakes as all men do. You are under the dispensation of GRACE.

But I want this dependency in you as well. I am molding you to be more dependent on ME, that I can do all I want in and through you. If you are not listening to My voice in the days ahead it may mean the difference between life and death. I live in the center of your being if you are My child. I never leave you nor forsake you. Nor will I. I am with you forever and ever. I am going to pour out such GLORY and I don't want any of you to miss out on what I wish to pour out in you. So keep your heart humble. Keep your heart soft and ready to receive from ME. LISTEN for the still small voice and know that I LOVE YOU and will not pass you by. My heart longs to love you more and to bring complete healing to your soul and body. I am not slack concerning My promises. I will quench the thirst of those who are dry and thirsty for more of ME. Come, Come to Me My beloveds…turn aside to see what I have for you.

11 So the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp, but his servant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tabernacle.

Ezek 10:4-5 NKJV 4 Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and paused over the threshold of the temple; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory. 5 And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even in the outer court, like the voice of Almighty God when He speaks.

Ps 15:1-4 NKJV The Character of Those Who May Dwell with the LORD

LORD, who may abide in Your tabernacle? Who may dwell in Your holy hill?

2 He who walks uprightly, And works righteousness, And speaks the truth in his heart; 3 He who does not backbite with his tongue, Nor does evil to his neighbor, Nor does he take up a reproach against his friend;

Prov 2:11-13 NKJV

11 Discretion will preserve you; Understanding will keep you, 12 To deliver you from the way of evil, From the man who speaks perverse things, 13 From those who leave the paths of uprightness To walk in the ways of darkness;

Lam 3:37-45 NKJV Who is he who speaks and it comes to pass, when the Lord has not commanded it? 38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High

That woe and well-being proceed? 39 Why should a living man complain,

A man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search out and examine our ways, and turn back to the LORD; 41 Let us lift our hearts and hands To God in heaven. 42 We have transgressed and rebelled; You have not pardoned.

43 You have covered Yourself with anger And pursued us; You have slain and not pitied. 44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud, that prayer should not pass through. 45 You have made us an offscouring and refuse in the midst of the peoples.

46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us. 47 Fear and a snare have come upon us, Desolation and destruction. 48 My eyes overflow with rivers of water For the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 My eyes flow and do not cease, without interruption, 50 Till the LORD from heaven Looks down and sees.

Dramatic Deliverance

Gen 45:7 NKJV And God sent me before you to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

Obad 17-18 NKJV Israel's Final Triumph

"But on Mount Zion there shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; The house of Jacob shall possess their possessions. 18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire, And the house of Joseph a flame; But the house of Esau shall be stubble; They shall kindle them and devour them, and no survivor shall remain of the house of Esau, "For the LORD has spoken.

“I have a message for those of you whom I will raise up like Joseph. I am bringing forth many changes in your lives, that I may position you for great deliverances. Many of you have been used as catalysts for revival and sown many seeds for Me in a number of ways. But now I am changing the course of direction for you that you may be in a position to help MANY more be delivered from the times of great destruction coming on the earth.

So you need to draw near Me to get My plans, day to day. I have new alignments I am making to bring forth the finances that will fund the end times army and I have great ideas for making wealth for many who have a marketplace anointing. I am LOOSING those in the earth now, that you will be prepared. But know this, that I am doing this for the benefit of MY PEOPLE…not just so you can hoard and spend it as you wish. This is for the deliverance of others, not only yourself. I will invest much into your hands that you can distribute it as I will. So many lives will depend on your obedience in this matter. So do not neglect the secret place in Me. Do not fail to spend time with ME so that you can get My will translated into your hearts.

Many of you will have homes of refuge. Many of you will have communities of refuge. Many of you will have resources of gold given you, and some of that will be supernaturally provided, as you put your trust in Me. I have many plans to bless you and to bring you to the place of death to self, that many others may live and not die, but go through to the end. So many are looking for deliverance from this earth, when what I want is deliverance from your flesh and the enemy, and the world. Who will GO for us? Who will lay down their lives and pick up MINE? Foxes have holes and birds have nests, but the Son of man had no place to lay his head. He had to depend on others for support and hospitality. Many of you have too much pride yet inside of you to be that flexible. Can you give up NOW at this point, your idea of what you want to do and put it in My hands? I will give it back and provide all you need. It is a heart transition that I am calling for. I want you to be willing at any moment to change direction or roles as I lead you to. But if you are stubborn and unyielding, how can I ask you to do anything on the spur of the moment? You will then hesitate. Hesitation can get you killed in a perilous world. You must be willing to OBEY and ACT when I say to do something.

That is the kind of obedience I am calling for. Are you willing to lay down all your addictions to the things of this world and to lay down your will for Mine? If you will, I will use you as My mouthpiece and I will wreak great deliverances through you for many who are My own, or who WILL be Mine!

I will break the power of spirits of bondage to sex, drugs, alcohol, entertainment and all forms of idolatry…if you will lay down all the idols in your own heart. But as long as you cling to your OWN opinions and your own ideas for your life, how can you be free to do what I WANT? Don’t you know how much I LOVE YOU? There is nothing that you will lack if you are willing to love Me in this way. I am asking for TOTAL SURRENDER. No more me, myself or I in the picture. Just obedience to My will. If you will love ME back in this manner. I will use you to terrify the forces of hell, and NOTHING will be impossible for you. GREAT miracles will follow you wherever you go. Great deliverance from all forms of evil will happen as you encounter the forces of the enemy.

Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you. 2 For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the LORD will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you. 3 The Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. 4 "Lift up your eyes all around, and see Prominent leaders in business and industry will be saved and bring great change in influencing many others for the kingdom of God. For many do not see ME as BIG as I really am. To many I am still a weak, impotent God, even within My church who calls Me by their name…yet at the same time they blaspheme My name by making me a mere man in the eyes of others.

I am not a God afar off, but close at hand! There is nothing impossible for Me. NOTHING is impossible with ME. NO-THING is impossible for ME!

My love never fails, and I will not fail My church in this hour. But I AM preparing her for her finest hour and I will have a SPOTLESS BRIDE. I have loosed many more angels for this end times scenario and I will accomplish all My heart longs to in the preparing of My Bride. You are on the precipice of revival and many are looking for me in the clouds when there is still so much more to be done to accomplish the preparation of My Bride.

Many of you are unawares of the violence that fills the lives of many of My children all over the world. They are MORE PREPARED THAN YOU ARE!

They are more prepared because they have been through much lack and pain, and they know how to seek My face and how to suffer with ME, that their pain would be accounted to them for the GLORY that is to come. I told you that if you share in My suffering , you will share in My GLORY. But that glory exposes your weaknesses, and brings awareness of your fallibility and utter nothingness without ME.

THAT IS WHAT IT IS SUPPOSED TO DO. BECAUSE IT IS NOT ABOUT WHAT YOU DO, IT IS ABOUT WHAT I DO THROUGH YOU! IF YOU COULD DO IT ON YOUR OWN, THERE WOULD BE NO REASON FOR ME. BUT YOU CANNOT GO THINKING “ Oh now I’m ready, because I am more perfect! “ NO, that ‘s not the way it works My beloveds. You are not to strive to be as perfect as the big name evangelists and teachers. You are to put all your trust in ME to move through you. In your WEAKNESS, I can be shown to be STRONG. When you are absent of pride in what you can do, then you are more ready for Me to move through you. You must become empty of yourselves to be filled with ME. Thank ME for your weaknesses. For in your weakness, people can see that it is not YOU doing the miracles and healings. It is ME.

When you think yourself the least capable, then that is when I can use you, without you taking the glory for yourself! THAT is the KEY. You can not think, only if I reach this place of perfection, then I can be used. NO! That is the voice of religious striving! I just want you to OBEY Me as I tell you what to do.

I don’t use the perfect. Not many wise are chosen, remember?

Remember always that My love NEVER fails for you. I am not here waiting with a hammer to beat you down. If you will just OBEY…then I will loose all you need to do what I have told you. BUT YOU MUST TAKE THE STEPS OF FAITH.

1 Cor 1:26-30 NKJV Glory Only in the Lord

For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called.

27 But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty;

28 and the base things of the world and the things which are despised God has chosen, and the things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are,

29 that no flesh should glory in His presence.

1 Cor 1:25-29 AMP

25 [This is] because the foolish thing [that has its source in] God is wiser than men, and the weak thing [that springs] from God is stronger than men. 26 For [simply] consider your own call, brethren; not many [of you were considered to be] wise according to human estimates and standards, not many influential and powerful, not many of high and noble birth.

27 [No] for God selected (deliberately chose) what in the world is foolish to put the wise to shame, and what the world calls weak to put the strong to shame. 28 And God also selected (deliberately chose) what in the world is lowborn and insignificant and branded and treated with contempt, even the things that are nothing, that He might depose and bring to nothing the things that are, 29 So that no mortal man should [have pretense for glorying and] boast in the presence of God.

My Sufficiency

2 Cor 3:5-9 AMP Not that we are fit (qualified and sufficient in ability) of ourselves to form personal judgments or to claim or count anything as coming from us, but our power and ability and sufficiency are from God.

6 [It is He] Who has qualified us [making us to be fit and worthy and sufficient] as ministers and dispensers of a new covenant [of salvation through Christ], not [ministers] of the letter (of legally written code) but of the Spirit; for the code [of the Law] kills, but the [Holy] Spirit makes alive. [Jer 31:31.]

7 Now if the dispensation of death engraved in letters on stone [the ministration of the Law], was inaugurated with such glory and splendor that the Israelites were not able to look steadily at the face of Moses because of its brilliance, [a glory] that was to fade and pass away, [Ex 34:29-35.]

8 Why should not the dispensation of the Spirit [this spiritual ministry whose task it is to cause men to obtain and be governed by the Holy Spirit] be attended with much greater and more splendid glory? 9 For if the service that condemns [the ministration of doom] had glory, how infinitely more abounding in splendor and glory must be the service that makes righteous [the ministry that produces and fosters righteous living and right standing with God]!

Many of you are struggling with things because for so long you have depended on YOU for getting through things, thinking somehow, I'd be disappointed or angry with you if you didn't perform well enough. I want you to know that I am not the harsh task master! I am not the one that drives people to strive. I AM THE ONE WHO WANTS TO HOLD YOU IN MY ARMS like a Father does his child, doting on you with love and affection.

I help you through whatever you must do…but if you will learn to lean on Me, then all your sufficiency can be in ME to hold you up, to get you through, and to direct you in what is from ME and what is not. Do not be in a hurry! I am not impatient, nor intolerant. Love is PATIENT. LOVE is KIND!

Cast ALL your cares on ME, so I can care FOR you! The Kingdom of God is so different from the kingdom of man. Drivenness is so common these days, that people do not any longer know how to REST in Me, and to just let Me help them to get through. When trouble comes, immediately they begin to analyze and work on a solution, when what I expect is for you to RUN TO ME and lay it at My feet and ask ME what to do! What do I want?

I do not want you in a frenzy over circumstances that you cannot control! Nor do I want you to take control of situations I should solve and control!

I am the RESOURCE of anything you need, so come to ME. Allow ME to take control! Acknowledge I am the One in control and allow Me to be, and watch what I can do!

Prov 3:6-8 NKJV In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. 7 Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the LORD and depart from evil. 8 It will be health to your flesh, and strength to your bones.

This is one reason many are suffering in their bodies, is that they do NOT know how to rest and LET ME be in charge. TRUST has been damaged if not destroyed by abuse and rejection in their lives, and they are suffering greatly, because they do not know how to put the WHOLE OF THEIR TRUST IN ME!

Rom 10:14 AMP But how are people to call upon Him Whom they have not believed [in Whom they have no faith, on Whom they have no reliance]? And how are they to believe in Him [adhere to, trust in, and rely upon Him] of Whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without a preacher?

This word basic to many scriptures, BELIEVE, means to put the whole of your TRUST in ME. I know that you try to put as much as possible of your trust in ME. But some of you do not even realize you are untrusting, and therefore UNBELIEVING!!! TRUST is BUILT. It is not automatic. And for those whose trust has been trampled by the conditions of their life…they must GROW in trust. Little by little as they see ME answer the problems in their lives, and change them little by little…and LOVE on them, little by little trust is again built up in them. A parent who meets the needs of their infant, builds trust in that child. The child learns by his needs being met, for food, for being changed, by being held and loved, that the parent is someone that they can trust to be there for them. This is a gradual process.

So I UNDERSTAND those whose trust has been defiled by man's rejection and betrayal, much more than most other human beings do. I know what it takes for each person to grow in TRUST and FAITH. Do NOT JUDGE the brother whose faith is weak. Only realize that the wounding the enemy does in the lives of My beloveds will alter their ability to TRUST. And continue to love that person and to speak the truth of My Word in LOVE. As YOU love on others, their faith and love will grow. Some people will ONLY blossom, as they are loved by another special person.

2 Cor 9:8-9 AMP And God is able to make all grace (every favor and earthly blessing) come to you in abundance, so that you may always and under all circumstances and whatever the need be self-sufficient [possessing enough to require no aid or support and furnished in abundance for every good work and charitable donation].

9 As it is written, he [the benevolent person] scatters abroad; He gives to the poor; His deeds of justice and goodness and kindness and benevolence will go on and endure forever! [Ps 112:9.]

Some of you are concerned about your finances and how in the world I could ever provide for you all you might need when all you see is LACK. But that is WHAT FAITH IS…to believe something when the evidence is NOT THERE!

For some of you, you need self-control which is a FRUIT of the Spirit. You cannot love perfectly unless you have self-control. So I have been working discipline in your lives that I could trust you with MORE. Some of you need to be MORE concerned with the lives of others, than with YOURSELF! Yes My beloveds, YOU ARE YOUR BROTHER'S KEEPER. There will always be those who are weaker. There will always be the poor with you. But the poor are weaker and they are NECESSARY. Otherwise the church becomes complacent and hard. And unfortunately, the church has become complacent and hardened because of their wealth. In other nations, they know what hardship is, so they are more compassionate and kind than here. They know more about sharing than the church here! So open your eyes, and open your hearts and let the SON shine in and show you His WISDOM. Let the Holy Spirit guide your steps and your heart. Do not consider what you have as YOUR OWN. FOR I AM THE ONE WHO GIVES FAVOR TO MAN TO GET WEALTH! Be dependent on ME, for what to give, and who to give to! Be faithful and generous in giving and I will be faithful and generous to YOU.

Receding Hairline
Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 8th, 2004

I heard "receding hairline" and thought I'd gone bonkers…but then asked,

What do You want to say about that Lord…and began to get an impression of the church as a body/person, and that person having a receding HAIRLINE…meaning that the covering of the Lord was receding a bit.

And hearing the Lord say:

In warfare of the nature that is coming and is here, because of the rise of witchcraft / lawlessness in the world , I AM raising up the Tabernacle of David to counter the growth of this witchcraft.

Acts 15:16-17 NKJV 16'After! this I will return and will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up; 17 So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD, even all the Gentiles who are called by My name, says the LORD who does all these things.'

You cannot do warfare the same as in the past. You must seek MY wisdom, and MY strategy for this hour. And I am telling you that if you will lift up PRAISE and WORSHIP in this hour, as you sow to the heavens, I will rain down on the earth and as you speak what I give you to speak in prayer mingled with this worship, and speak My Word, I will rain down MY judgments and MY KINGDOM will be established; My will, will be done on earth as it is in heaven. I am seeking those who ABANDON themselves to ME in worship that I might counter the worship that goes down to satan, and that it will be overcome.

How many times in My Word, did the worshippers go forth FIRST into battle? How many examples can you find? Why did David dance naked and unashamedly before ME? Why did he establish so much worship in the temple? HE KNEW ME. HE KNEW MY PRESENCE. And he knew that I abide in the PRAISES of my people, not the complaints and not in the begging prayers, but in PRAISES, and in DECLARATIONS of My will and My righteousness.

When Gideon's men won the battle, they won against tremendous odds. Why did they win? Because he listened to ME. HE obeyed MY STRATEGY. It took a paradigm shift for them to do it. But they did it and in the obedience to MY WILL, confusion came at the blowing of TRUMPETS! And in the crashing of pitchers…representing the DEATH to the outer shell of a body I've given you…DEATH to FLESH. DEATH to YOUR OPINIONS. DEATH to YOUR WAYS of doing things. So I am asking you to WORSHIP ME in the beauty of holiness. I am asking you to use PRAISE and WORSHIP to sow to the heavens and as you worship, you will be led of the HOLY SPIRIT in prayers that will shake nations. You will exercise authority even in the DANCE that will execute JUDGMENT on the enemy of your soul. So take up these weapons of warfare and do as I ask and know that you cannot be too busy to get My instructions, and then BE in obedience. You MUST take the time to listen for the still small voice and to get your strategy from ME, then you will be able to be EFFECTIVE against the enemy of your soul. INTIMACY with ME is more powerful than any other weapon. So COME and learn of ME. LEARN TO DO THINGS MY WAY…and your way will be successful.

I have said LOVE is the greatest, and to LOVE one another as I have loved you. This is another weapon of great destruction to the enemy in this hour.

If you abide in My love, then I abide in you and there is NOTHING that you cannot do. There is nothing that will be impossible for you. How do you get My love? By coming into MY PRESENCE in PRAISE, WORSHIP and PRAYER…and then you receive all that I have to give you, in the quiet place of intimacy with you.

Some of you come to the place of warfare and praise and celebration but go not further into the place of high praise where the intimacy with me takes you high up, to soar with me in the heavenlies. I want My worshippers to have discernment to know what I AM calling for in this hour, in each time of praise and worship…to be LED OF ME in all that you do. Do not NEGLECT time with ME so that I can tell you HOW TO LEAD the WORSHIP! Do not take for granted the anointing.

I want pastors to listen to worship leaders, and to LEAN ON ME for when to stop the worship. If every week you sing the seven songs and quit…is that being led by the Spirit? WILL YOU ALLOW ME to come into the worship and to change what I WANT TO DO? Will you allow ME place to SPEAK to you in the worship, or in prophecy, or whatever way I want to speak? Do you have time for fellowship with ME? Or do you just want to hear yourselves speak? Do I have the OPTION TO CHANGE the service being that I know everything about everyone who is there. Will you allow ME to orchestrate how church is conducted? For I tell you I WILL HAVE MY WAY!

If you won't take the time to ask Me, or to listen to what I want to do, or to give ME the option to change things at the last moment, then are you being obedient? Are you depending on ME? FLEXIBILITY is something I treasure in the character of disciples. For when you are FLEXIBLE, then you will do MY will and not just what you feel like doing, or what you think is right. Do not give in to presumptive sin. DEPENDENCY on ME is another characteristic I desire in My followers. IF YOU ARE A FOLLOWER OF ME, THEN YOU HAVE TO FOLLOW WHAT I TELL YOU, RIGHT? IF YOU DON'T FOLLOW ME, THEN YOU ARE DOING WHAT YOU WANT, AND THERE IS NO DEPENDENCY ON ME, BUT RATHER A SPIRIT OF INDEPENDENCE AND REBELLION. PRAY that you may be led by MY grace and not by your own will. Sensitivity to the Spirit is born out of obedience to MY WILL. If He asks you to do something and you don't obey…then why should HE tell you anything more, if you won't listen?

I love you and I know what is best for you, My beloveds…so listen to the beat of MY HEART. Listen for the still small voice, that you may hear all I am wanting to speak to you. LEAN ON ME and I will bless you. Taste and see that the Lord is good. I am Faithful and True and I will never let you go.

So come to ME, and be not afraid to let My Spirit have rule in your life.

Father knows best.

A God Most People Cannot Handle

Connie M Giordano

Aug 17, 2004

"With us nearness and distance make a great difference both in our observations and in our operations, but it is not so with God; to Him darkness and light, at hand and afar off, are both alike." - Matthew Henry

In the Book of Jeremiah, we find three rhetorical questions from God, inquiring -

Jeremiah 23:23-24 - "Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see Him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD."

We are all familiar with the blasphemous title - "the Man upstairs" - used by many sinners when addressing God.

First of all, we would like to qualify that the Lord Jesus is not "a man" as some would like to think. He is the God-man - and that makes a world of difference. He is the very Son of God and Son of man.

Secondly, He is not "upstairs" or in some distant place where He cannot see, observe, or know what is going on in people's lives.

Most sinners would like to keep Him "upstairs" - at least out of their "sinful mess" - so that they could live their lives of pleasure uninterruptedly.

But, we would like to pause in this message to give the Good News to some as well as the Bad News to others that He is not only "upstairs" but He is "downstairs" as well.

In fact, to bring it down to where we live - He is in the bedroom, living room, kitchen, basement, attic, bathroom, laundry room, storm cellar, as well as the garage.

He can be found in the Church House, prayer room, courtroom, operating room, grocery store, barber shop, job facility, barroom, crack house, whore house, porno shop, casino, etc. and knows what comes across every computer screen and reads every e-mail that enters everyone's Inbox.

Somehow the devil has convinced some into believing that He is a God Who is only in one place - afar off somewhere in the blue yonder - and cannot see what they are doing.

Nothing could be further than the Truth!

In Jeremiah 23:23-24, the Lord spoke through the Prophet, saying - "Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see Him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD."

In other words, what He was expressing here was this - Am I a God nearby but not far away? Am I not everywhere - filling the entire universe? And if that is so - which it is - then where did you ever come up with the idea that you can hide from Me? What "secret place" can you find that can conceal you from my gaze?

This idea of God being everywhere scares some but comforts others. Into which category do you fall?

As already implied, many do not want such a personal God because they don't want Him "messing" with their business. He is liable to spoil their fun or ruin their party.

So what they do is fabricate a God - "the man upstairs" - a god of their imagination - who is in some distant place and happens to be senile and blind.

This is definitely not the God of the Bible!!!

Deuteronomy 4:39 tells us plainly what kind of God He is - "Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the LORD He is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else."

Did you catch what was said here? He is not only "God in heaven above," but He is God "upon the earth beneath."

Moses, the writer of the Book of Deuteronomy, stressed - "Know...this..." and "consider it in thine heart..."

We cannot ignore this basic truth that God is situated in heaven above - clothed with all glory as the Lord of all hosts and Creator of all. But He is also God upon earth - at all times cognizant of the various happenings of His creation.

This truth should make us fear as well as offer us great comfort.

Nothing can be hid from Him and nothing goes unnoticed from His watchful care.

No matter how ingenious and industrious men are to disguise their own schemes, character, and counsels - He sees it all! His eye is the same in heaven as on earth - it "runs to and fro"(2 Chronicles 16:9). "Nearness" and "distance" "make no difference" in His "observations" or "operations."

For King David, having a God Who was so near to Him offered him great hope - as exemplified in the words of Psalm 56:8 - "Thou tellest my wanderings: put Thou my tears into Thy bottle: are they not in Thy book?"

Here we see that the Lord took notice of His servant's grievances and griefs. He wasn't so distant from him where He could not take a particular interest in David's every pain.

"Thou tellest my wanderings" - God is so mindful of him that He numbers, records, or keeps an accurate account of every weary step - every time that he was driven from one place to another...his various moves...his wanderings, fitful flittings, and unexplainable motions when in trouble or in pursuit by his enemies.

"...put Thou my tears into Thy bottle..." - David shed so many tears in his wanderings and he did not want them to fall to the ground, be wasted, or be forgotten. He desired that they would be gathered together by God and placed in a vessel of some sort so that He could look upon them with compassion and tender concern. When it was time for justice to be served, the Lord Almighty would have these tears of sorrow as a reminder to Him of all that David suffered at the hand of his enemies.

There is a beautiful allusion drawn here to a custom in the East which entailed a person being ill, in great distress, or facing a time of calamity, sorrow, and pain and having his friends gather together with a tear bottle called a lachrymatory. As the tears rolled down their suffering friend's cheeks, they would catch them in this bottle - then seal and preserve them as a memorial of this event.

The Romans had a custom whereby in great mourning - due to a death in the family - they would wipe away the tears from their friend's face with a piece of cloth and then squeeze them into a small glass bottle to be carefully preserved as a memorial of this sad event. Some would even take the tears collected in bottles of glass, pottery, or skins and offer them afterwards on the tomb of the deceased.

"...are they not in Thy book?" - Here we see that God actually has a Book of Remembrance where He records every moment of sorrow and pain which His people experience. He will remember and review them at a given time and call their enemies to account for every tear shed.

To some, it bothers them that He is a God Who is everywhere - knowing all things. They would rather have Him "afar off" in the distance somewhere. To others, you can hear them wholeheartedly singing the famous words of the chorus - "Draw me nearer, nearer, blessed Lord..." They desire to have God so close to them at all times - recording their every step and knowing their every thought, word, and deed.

What kind of God do you desire the Lord Jesus to be? One that is "afar off" or One that is "at hand"?

Perhaps we should ask the question in this way - The "secret places" which you frequent - are they ones of your own making - fashioned to hide you from His sight because you are living in sin and don't want Him to know what you are up to? Or are they the "secret places of the Most High"(Psalm 91:1) where you constantly run in order to abide in His Holy Presence?

A God Who is "at hand" is One most people cannot handle. How about you?

May God Bless His Word.

A Garden Of Grace

Becky McLendon

It is some thing how man has forgotten where he came from. There is a spirit in man that makes itself as God. The leaders caged in by this spirit say, “Hey you are a god; just meditate.” They talk about the light within, but without Jesus it is an artificial light. It is a false light.

They are like just hitchhikers like Saul was: in some one else’s anointing. Those hitchhikers end up full of delusions. Serpent preaching beguiled Eve. And there certainly are a lot of “Eves” under grace, so they say. They have it all backwards. We are in the garden under grace and out of the garden under the law. Eve is under law! She is out of the garden. When we put ourselves under false “light” preached by snakes, we are told to “Go away, leave the garden, for I, the Lord, do not know you.”

Adam believed he had a good excuse for being out of the garden: He cried, “That wife you gave me.” Some how we have to make GOD feel like He is to blame for the mess we are in. Poor Adam, if there had been NO Eve, who could he blame besides GOD. However, if we are honest we will say, “Have mercy on me, Lord; I did it.” There is power and boldness in coming clean before the Lord. True repentance does that, and very quickly.

You know how the song goes:” Reach out and touch the Lord as He passes by.” However the problem is this: Hitchhikers try to reach out and touch Him and He DOES pass them by. Believers want to reach out and LAY HOLD of Him and never let Him go. Thus He carries them along with Him and they willingly go.

A man who has laid hold of Christ is in the garden by the grace of God, while OTHERS who cling to their own righteousness, their snake preaching and their own ministry, are driven OUT of the garden by the law of God. The Law of God is JUST and therefore the UNCLEAN cannot remain in the garden. The LAW drives them out.

Instead of coming into Christ’s life and His ministry (in the garden by grace), they are turned to perfect their ministry. My ministry! I will perfect it. I will turn from His life, and I will perfect my own. I have a name, and I will exalt it above the heavens. I will be remembered, and besides that, I am going to heaven! Yes I am! And I will be like the Most High God. I won’t ever have to suffer tribulation, nor will I ever be persecuted, ‘cause I’m getting ready to leave this place.” Little do they know their life becomes spilled milk, rather than the pressed oil of the anointing. Little do they know the only place they are getting ready to leave is the Garden!

When we cease building ourselves up, we can say we quit studying, and when we say we have quit “studying” (Bible schools, courses, curricula of men, we are saying we quit working on our ministry. Most Bible schools do not offer the Lord's ministry to a people. They advertise: “Come see what we can do for your ministry. We will shine it up, and sponsor you in our denomination if you promise to tithe to us and teach only what we have taught you.” I truly believe that is not what the Lord meant by "study."

To STUDY, from the standpoint of the Word of God is to PRESS IN and LAY HOLD of Christ and never let Him go! The Hebrew word for “study” indicates beating a path to. When we STUDY, we are to beat a path to Jesus by way of the Holy Spirit. Study Jesus and He will reveal Himself to you. Thus, we watch Him build HIS ministry!

What a great trade off: we trade our puny ministry for His. We get undressed and take off our ministry and become clothed upon by Christ Himself, and His anointing: HIS ministry. To put on the whole armour of God is to put on His whole anointing and His whole ministry. We can only do that when we have been stripped of our own ministry and our own righteousness. We can only be clothed upon by Him in the GARDEN and that by GRACE. Outside the garden we cannot walk this way! The world of sin and religion would point and say, "Look! They are naked. They should be ashamed, for they have no 'covering'." Christ is invisible to them. They cannot SEE that to be in Christ is to be in the Garden and to be in grace. They cannot see that they are outside that Garden and are under the law.

Any false teaching or false ministry has to leave the garden. When we see Him telling them to go away from the Garden, we cannot try to “hang on” to them and try to strike the rock a second time for them. They are not in holy agreement with the Lord. When He says, “depart from Me,” we have to be in agreement with Him, and feel the same way.. It will be sad, but perfect faith is perfect agreement.

Jesus is the Lord's perfect holiness. To have faith we must agree with Jesus. False teaching comes from unbelief. Pure agreement is precious. Holy love agrees with holy love. Carnal love is shallow, but holy love is very deep That which has driven others away has brought us into this. His Holy love drives the unholy and false out and brings IN the holy and true who have trusted Him all along. It takes the Lord to bring us to what the Lord has for us. Once we have finally learned this, we can hear Him say, “Enter in, thou good and faithful servant. For I am well pleased.”

Amen and Amen,

Becky

The Willing and Obedient
Becky McLendon

Matthew 16:23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

It is yet that way today. Men prefer not the things of God, but cling to the things of men. It’s more expedient. It’s “tastier” to taste the onions and garlic and leeks of the world. Egypt’s seductive call is powerful.

This also sounds like when He says "Go away, ye doers of iniquity, for I never knew you." I would not want the Lord to ask me who I am? If we savor the things of man and his systems, we are candidates to be “disfellowshipped” by the LORD himself.

It would be awful to know we were an offense unto God. That is why He has put it in to us to confess our sins immediately so that we would NOT be an offense to Him. He loves a repentant heart that does not want to offend Him in any way.

It is our prayer that we never want to be an offense unto God. The burden of the Lord is upon us. We have only new cloth to share. And we WAIT to be clothed upon by Him. No other cloth will work for us.

The willing will wait...however long it takes for Him to complete us.

After so much “trying” to make it happen, I am now willing to wait for the promise of God and not try to make it happen too soon. We have to be willing to be one lone corn stalk in this world. We have to be willing to take up the cross He said to take up. The whole earth is going to be filled with crosses: Crosses that He told us to take up and then follow Him. After all, His glory is in the cross.

And the CROSS taken up is the willingness and obedience of those who will eat the good of the land. Therefore He hath said obedience is better than sacrifice. Obedience submits to Him In all things. It submits for correction. It submits for impartation. It submits to wait for Him. And then it submits to go where He is, without complaint or argument. Obedience brings a crying and weeping in us between the porch and the altar. We will never get too much of God to weep and cry. Being willing and obedient, we become a place for His perfect plan, even the habitation of those things nations need.

Blessings and shalom,
Becky

The Church that Walks with God: A Walk on the Narrow Way
Becky McLendon

The true church of God is an Enoch church. This church walks with God. It doesn't stay in one place. It walks with God and grows on a green vine. The green vine is a vine of the revelation of Jesus Christ. You have to have a revelation of Jesus Christ to walk with God. Without revelation you will still be where you were yesterday. So by revelation you are leaving this world and those around you who do not walk with God, and they don't know you have left them. This church prays: “May all the nations in the world become Enoch nations. And let us walk with God.”

Nations walk together as a body. To walk with each other we have to hear what the Lord is saying. “Our” life as we know it is the death that must be abolished to make room for His life. Then there is room for His love.

To walk with God you have to hear from Him every day. We don't get it all at once but one day at a time. It keeps us trusting Him and totally depending on Him. If we "got it all" at once we would run out and make a mess of it. Part of the burden is to hold what He gives us until He releases it. We have to grow from one revelation to the next one we don't want to miss any as that one gets us ready for the next. It is always a new love.

The saints of old knew this well, and we are learning it well. It is amazing what He has taken His saints through and where He is taking us each day. It’s always handfuls of purpose in the fields of gleaning.

Instead of many getting hearing, however, they are expelled from the green vine, bundled for discard. He has said to them: “Depart from Me.” He has said it and is saying it. Some don't even know that is what He is doing. They think they are "rejecting" people who they think are "wrong" when all along it is the Lord telling them to depart from Him. So often we think people are "backing away " from the Lord, but in reality it is much worse. HE is saying: depart!! I don't know you. This ties into the story in the Bible of the one who arrived at the wedding with the wrong garment on and he was asked to leave.

It would awful to hear Him say get out and leave.

In Christ, the green Vine, we grow from one revelation to the next one. The life in this Vine makes us not want to miss any of it. As one revelation gets us ready for the next, It’s like cooking up some thing and only His recipe is used. Nothing is added to this. In ourselves as humans we are dumb. He didn't create us to make it without Him. Revelation is the oil the foolish went out to buy when it was too late. The wise already have it. It keeps their lamps burning. Where does the oil come from but the crushed olives of the olive trees?

The self righteous are saying “My life, My ministry, my name, my IQ. But the olive trees of His testimony are saying depart from me our oil is for the wise virgins. It takes some crushing tribulation to bring this oil to the nations. So the foolish go out to try to buy the oil of revelation from the wise virgins, because they were out trying to build their ministry, not knowing that their ministry is a broken cistern that cannot hold any oil.

The power of God makes up for what we are not. When we become weightless we will be like Enoch. As he “was not,” so we will be “has-beens” but “are not” also.
When Moses smote the rock for the people he was smiting for his own water too. We will not smite for our own water either. We cannot rest. We cannot spare ourselves. We must become what they need. We get out of the way of all of God’s power in judgment.

He is asking of all: what have you done with my life? Why have you neglected what I made you for? For a church to be what the Lord wants, the church should be walking with God.

To walk with God there must be flowing out from God revelation we must be on talking terms with the Lord. It’s bad when we have to have some one do our talking for us. Forget those phone numbers on the TV screen, do your own talking.

To live in the spirit and walk with God would be the same thing. Walking with God does away with the letter that kills. You can even hear a small voice walking that close. Can you imagine what the church would be like walking with God and not missing a step? Why oh why hasn't the ministry loved the Lord enough to bring this life to a dying suffering world?

Men and women have pushed the Lord out of it to make a name and feel big. Vanity of vanity.
Men have no idea how much noise they make. And how it stinks. What we love they hate. The Lord says, “in quietness shall be your strength.” Weakness makes man noisy. So God is hearing man’s weakness railing against Him. They are driven by fear and anger. And they rail against His people.

As we get stronger we come into His quietness. Its not what people want. We are committed to what the Lord wants. As we trust the Lord we become quiet. We in our quietness hear Him and not man’s noise. So you have a choice to go to huge religious activities and endure the noise, or get with a few who truly believe and hear Him. There is a church that walks with God, not missing one step in those very small get-togethers. For it says in the word:

Matthew 18:20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

We simply become vessels for his preaching and His working the works of God.

The love of God is quiet and it is strong. Hate, pride and fear is noisy, but His love is not nervous. It’s not confused. It’s not weak. It’s not afraid.

THE CROSS AND ITS WAY

There is room AT the cross for everyone, but the way of the cross is very narrow. Straight is the gate narrow is the way. Just enough for one body: His! There is only room for the righteous: Jesus There is no room for the ungodly in the way of the cross; only the chosen can make it. This is the greater works.

However, greasy grace says, "Go on, the same as you were, you are ok and so is everyone else, but don't forget the tithes! You'll go to hell if you don't tithe and remain loyal to us. You don't need to carry a cross; Jesus took your place.” It doesn’t matter to these that Jesus himself said take up your cross and follow Him. The devil has a Bible. He knows the scripture very well. He knows it well enough to be able to twist it to fulfill his purposes. And his preachers have degrees, and are well off, living in their prosperity mansions. Preachers know Eve goes by the sight of her eyes. So guess what? They dress in robes to kill, and preach, “Hath God REALLY said?” And Eve falls for it over and over again, dragging her “Adam” with her.

2 Thessalonians 2:3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

It is still the man of sin, or the man that sins. It is still the trials of the few that are chosen that cause their falling away. By the real being tried, the unreal falls away and the real remains. The trial Jesus went through left only the Him. All the others had to drop out. They had their “falling away.” So all would-be witnesses will have to fade away and leave only the real remains. After all Jesus went through, the Jews are still saying He wasn't the one. And when the real Jesus is revealed to many “Christians” they say the same. They all have in their minds what He should be, but He isn't.

To the carnal, the Love of God “needs to get the love of God”, because the true “love of God” cannot reveal Himself to the carnal. The Lord's corn doesn't belong on carnal ears carnal corn goes with carnal ears. So to the carnal ear God's corn is false. But the carnal shout: “now if that was so my preacher with degrees would be preaching it!”

There are not many wise and not many noble. All of God's wisdom is foolishness to man, so we who believe are asking for what is foolishness to man. If we see that ungodly men are mocking it and setting out to devour it, we can rest assured it is God’s wisdom. Fools despise wisdom and instruction. Fools say in their hearts “there is no God!” If we look around us in the world the Lord is showing us by discernment who are the fools. We can look at the TV and read the papers and see it loud and clear. But if we point it out, we are not showing “love.”

He came in one body, now He comes in “two or more gathered in His name!” Then He will come in hundreds and then thousands. And then He will COME! His glory WILL cover the earth. Instead of what was meant to feed a small boy, Jesus came and fed thousands, with that small lunch.

It is none of our talents that will feed the thousands. What happens will be the supernatural ability to play or sing, or preach in a language not our own. It will be Jesus preaching, playing and singing, and not us. And the thousands will hear with a big ear. He is says this is the way and then shows us His plan. The Lord has put this together. Nothing can change it.

Blessings and shalom,

Becky

"And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves; for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you." Joshua 3:5

Beloved, I have been calling My Faithful Ones aside to rest at My feet and to listen for not only My Words of Wisdom but also for My instructions which will ultimately follow. I have also been calling you to sanctification, a cleansing in preparation for what is to come. I have asked you to see the sin in your life and to repent bringing every area of your life, both in your outward life and in your inward life, before me cleansed. Examining every recess of your life, even to secret sins. All preparing you to hear the 'going' but before this could be, you had to sanctify and ready yourselves before Me. Called to repentance and sweeping clean every area of your house removing any Achans that would jeopardize in your final hours of preparation. This is not the time to allow anyone or any thing to hinder what I AM doing and as always - being willing and obedient, open to MY instructions as to your moving out and 'doubt not' for the I AM is always and forever with you!

See entering My favor, restoration and blessings for you will! See visions and dreams that I have given you coming to pass, for they are! See the anointing that I AM about to bestow upon you, for I AM! See doors open that have been closed, for they will! See walking in signs and wonders, healing sickness/disease and raising the dead, for you will! As you remain at my feet, see it all and listen ..... Do you hear the sound of marching? Do you see that the Presence of the I AM is beginning to manifest itself?

My Beloved,you will hear the sound! You will hear the sound in the mulberry trees! You will hear the sound of the "going!" A Going in the Mulberry Trees! You are about to hear the sound of the going in the mulberry trees for your God is on the move!!!

A Green Iridescent Bird

Priscilla Van Sutphin

June 14th, 2004
Ps 87:7 NKJV Both the singers and the players on instruments say, "All my springs are in you."
Ps 87:7 AMP The singers as well as the players on instruments shall say, All my springs (my sources of life and joy) are in you [city of our God].

In the morning when awaking, I talked to the Lord, then received a vision of a green bird, seemed to be a bit larger than a parakeet and it had beautiful
Green iridescent feathers.

So in asking why He showed me this, I got the impression it had to do with what the Lord would call His “songbirds”. I sensed that He was about to do something new in bringing forth new prophetic songs.

Ezek 40:44 NKJV Outside the inner gate were the chambers for the singers in the inner court, one facing south at the side of the northern gateway, and the other facing north at the side of the southern gateway.
[The singers and the priests lived in the inner court !]

“ I have some new songs on My heart to sing to My beloveds. I have some new things to do in bringing salvation and healing to the lost. I am sending forth singers into the marketplace and raising them up in the media to sing songs that will glorify ME, and not just themselves. The heart of WORSHIP is to glorify the King. So I am taking those who will give all the glory to Me, and I am sending them out to WAR. I am sending them into the marketplace to sing, and to be unashamed of what is in their heart for Me.

I am taking dancers, and instrumentalists, and I am going to send you forth ahead of others to lead My armies into the streets of the cities. I am calling out for you. Listen to My instructions My beloveds, for when you sing as you are obedient to My leading, this time, there will be a new sound that rings forth. There will be a new thing that I will do in your midst. I am calling some of you to go to places you have never been. I will call some of you to go into bars and poolrooms, and places where you normally would not congregate, because I want you to call to those that need their hearts healed from abuse and torments of the enemy.
Ps 68:25 NKJV The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; Among them were the maidens playing timbrels.

Josh 6:20-21 NKJV So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

It is not the well that have need of the Great Physician, but those who are broken and weak, and sick. I will send some of you into hospitals and retirement homes. I will send some of you to the streets of the nations to stir up worship.

I will release new sounds in the earth. And the Holy Spirit will come at your beckoning and in the midst of song, and many will be healed and saved as you reach out in love to them. I will have “service” in new places and obscure dwelling places. I will descend upon coffee houses and restaurants where live music is played. Many of you have been awaiting this hour, and it is time now to go forth. Watch how I will give you FAVOR ! I will give many new ideas for how to demonstrate worship and their giftings in malls and outdoor parks.

In those places, no one will say, play this, or play that, or only do this, or only do that. I WILL LEAD

YOU, and I will bless you as you go. I will empower you as you listen and obey ! Come and let me show you My plan. There are many who will sing, but in the middle of what they are doing, I will come over them and they will get a spontaneous song to sing over someone in the crowd, and that person will be so affected, that they will turn their life over again to Me. People who have had hard hearts, will have changes of heart. I will give them a new heart through the wooing of My Spirit through you !

Some of you who prophesy, but are worshippers, will get songs to sing over people while you minister. Some of you will get songs to sing just talking to someone, and suddenly you get a song to share, and I will give utterance through you to give them a word of encouragement or comfort. And they will know that the God who they think sits only in the heavens, has come down to earth to touch them ! There will be times when I give you something to sing over someone, and it will be their favorite secular song, something that means something special to them, that they alone knew. And by doing so, they will know that I KNOW them, and that I love them, and it is I singing over them.

I will sing love songs, and I will sing silly songs to cause laughter and to lift heaviness off their hearts. I will sing in a variety of ways to a variety of people. Trust Me for how to minister in song, when you get the prompting of My Holy Spirit to do it. People love music, and for each person out there, there are a variety of ways to reach them, and I know them personally. I know their in’s and their out’s. I know where they have been, and what they have done. I know their brokenness and their lives inside and out. So look to ME to guide you in all that you do.

And I have love songs to sing over you My beloveds. I am singing over My Bride and I am wanting to have that intimate time with you, like two people in love want time just to gaze at one another, or to talk. I want that with you My children ! I want that time to just talk to one another and to woo you to Myself. I want you to gaze into My eyes and see the love that I have for you, that it will change you and that it will change others who see it in you. Fix your eyes on ME that I may bless you and fill you with My love !
For I am in love with you My bride, and I am longing to hold you in My arms and caress you. I will comfort you, and I will wipe away your tears.

"Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock: and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock. "But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand: and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall."

“I am the Living Testament and the Ruler over all things. I am not made in the image and likeness of man ! He is made in the image and likeness of Us.
However it seems that even in My church some persist in building a god who is like they want him to look. I AM that I AM ! I AM Elohim, Creator God, and all that is made is made by My hands.
Who created the heavens and the earth ? Who threw the stars into the heavens ? Who knows all things ? Surely, the God of the Universe is not too small to handle the children in His camp that are out of order ! I know what is needed to restore My bride and My church. I know ALL things. I know the very hairs on your head. So how could it be impossible for ME to do anything ?

I have said it, and I WILL ESTABLISH IT ! I will have a church without spot or blemish. And though many will not listen when I come with power, many will be restored and change. So be careful who you write off of your sisters and brothers. Take heed that the fear of the Lord fills YOUR HEART ! I've told you that the form is not the problem. The lack of LOVE is the problem. I AM LOVE. So am I not able to restore ?

Did I not harden pharaoh's heart ? If I can harden a heart, can I soften a heart ? Can I change a heart ? Much of what has happened to many is the result of a faulty foundation. But I AM RESTORING the ancient foundations with what I am doing. And I will have a united church ! I will have also an apostate church that is not really a church, but those who speak of Me, but with no power thereof ! But it is My angels who will weed My garden at the end of the age. So be careful My children to PRAY and to forgive and not to judge ! You too could fall prey to mammon, and flesh without My GRACE ! You too, could get prideful and stingy, and self seeking were it not for My love and grace towards you !

Weep tears My children for those who have gone astray. Listen to My heart that is weeping. Are you willing to lay down your life as I did ? Are you willing to be a bearer of My love and grace rather than harsh judgment alone? There is always HOPE when there is REPENTANCE. And though many will not repent with the move that is coming, many will. How do you know who will and who won't ? Only I KNOW ! So be not like Jonah ! Do not give up, even if you have had to leave and have been free to leave those who call themselves shepherds, but who are hirelings. Remember that it is LOVE that leads to repentance. Not cringing fear, or unforgiveness and a desire for vengeance ! I never give up on people, although many of you give up.
I don't cast them aside like flotsam and jetsam ! MY LOVE NEVER FAILS.
So even if you are hurt, please come to ME, and let me soothe your wounds, and let Me handle the JUSTICE.

I am the source of all wisdom and understanding and knowledge. So come to My feet and learn of Me, that you can be changed into MY image more and more. When great anger and violence has ruled the life of another, they only know that format of living ! It is what they are used to, and what they expect ! But I am greater My beloveds ! MY BLOOD can heal the most destitute of souls ! MY BLOOD is greater than anything that has come against them in their lives. I am the CREATOR. Satan is merely the creature ! So have greater TRUST in My ability to heal the hearts of the wicked and violent, the broken and insane ! I am coming to pour out My love in greater measure than what you have known. Will you be found WANTING, My beloveds ? Or will you build your house, your temple on the ROCK that is higher ?

Travail Part 2
Priscilla Van Sutphin

www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

1 Thess 5:3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.
NT:5604 odin (o-deen'); akin to NT:3601; a pang or throe, especially of childbirth: KJV - pain, sorrow, travail.

This is a famous scripture for our times. Just when the world thinks it has some accomplished peace, suddenly comes destruction, even in the same way travail comes upon a woman. It comes SUDDENLY. You don't know when it is going to come. It just comes.

2 Thess 3:8 KJV Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

OT:2342 chuwl (khool); or chiyl (kheel); a primitive root; properly, to twist or whirl (in a circular or spiral manner), i.e. (specifically) to dance, to writhe in pain (especially of parturition) or fear; figuratively, to wait, to pervert: KJV - bear, (make to) bring forth, (make to) calve, dance, drive away, fall grievously (with pain), fear, form, great, grieve, (be) grievous, hope, look, make, be in pain, be much (sore) pained, rest, shake, shapen, (be) sorrow (-ful), stay, tarry, travail (with pain), tremble, trust, wait carefully (patiently), be wounded.

Travail has a physical meaning in the Bible also, of laboring hard to accomplish something. It also has to do with being in torment or great pain.

TEARS

2 Kings 20:5 NKJV "Return and tell Hezekiah the leader of My people, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: "I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; surely I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

The Lord responded to the tears and supplication of Hezekiah and healed him. Tears of desperation often get the most attention from the Lord, just like Jacob when he wrestled. He was pretty distraught at the news of his brother coming to meet him with a troop of his men. So he sought the Lord in prayer and wrestled with Jesus literally, till he got his blessing !

Est 8:3-6 NKJV Now Esther spoke again to the king, fell down at his feet, and implored him with tears to counteract the evil of Haman the Agagite, and the scheme which he had devised against the Jews. 4 And the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king, 5 and said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight and the thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to annihilate the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. 6 For how can I endure to see the evil that will come to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my countrymen?"

Here in Esther we see the tears that come, with the realization that she has responsibility for the death and destruction of her whole settlement of people in Babylon. So with tears she implores her king who in the story is a type of Christ the Redeemer, for the sake of her people ! And the whole nation ends up being given an option to fight for themselves !

Job 16:20 NKJV My friends scorn me; My eyes pour out tears to God.

Ps 6:6-10 NKJV I am weary with my groaning; All night I make my bed swim; I drench my couch with my tears. 7 My eye wastes away because of grief; It grows old because of all my enemies.
8 Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity; For the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping. 9 The LORD has heard my supplication; The LORD will receive my prayer. 10 et all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled; Let them turn back and be ashamed suddenly.
OT:8467 techinnah (tekh-in-naw'); from OT:2603; graciousness; causatively, entreaty: KJV - favour, grace, supplication.
OT:2603 chanan (khaw-nan'); a primitive root [compare OT:2583]; properly, to bend or stoop in kindness to an inferior; to favor, bestow; causatively to implore (i.e. move to favor by petition): KJV - beseech, fair, (be, find, shew) favour (-able), be (deal, give, grant (gracious (-ly), intreat, (be) merciful, have (shew) mercy (on, upon), have pity upon, pray, make supplication, very. OT:2583 chanah (khaw-naw'); a primitive root [compare OT:2603]; properly, to incline; by implication, to decline (of the slanting rays of evening); specifically, to pitch a tent; gen. to encamp (for abode or siege): KJV - abide (in tents), camp, dwell, encamp, grow to an end, lie, pitch (tent), rest in tent.

So here we see the meaning going deeper into the root of the word for supplication means to PITCH A TENT. So in the spirit we “pitch a tent” unto the Lord of Hosts, imploring Him for situations that we bring to HIM.

And in this case, it may be tears coming from our own heart and compassions, or maybe His tears coming forth through us…to move the heart of God. David is writing that even his bed is swimming in tears from his weeping. Certainly God is not irritated with this “emotional outburst “. Unlike men, or women, God does not grow impatient with us when we get emotional. He made us and knows all things about us. He is an emotional God filled with passions of His own. He understands our frame. If someone starts weeping or wailing in prayer meetings, don’t assume they are crying for themselves, they may be crying for YOU. Don’t go up to them and tell them to be quiet, when it may be the Spirit of the Lord moving through them, for the tears He has for the suffering of the earth.

Ps 39:12-13 NKJV "Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear to my cry; Do not be silent at my tears; For I am a stranger with You, a sojourner, as all my fathers were. 13 Remove Your gaze from me, that I may regain strength, before I go away and am no more."

Here the very thing causing the tears is the heavy hand of the Lord. He says REMOVE YOUR GAZE FROM ME, that I may regain strength ! Been here lately in God purifying my heart and showing me the ugly things in it.
God is awesome and MIGHTY to behold, and He is dedicated to making us more and more like HIM. And HE ALWAYS hears our prayers. Others with less heart may not understand but God understands us.

Ps 42:3-10 NKJV My tears have been my food day and night, While they continually say to me, "Where is your God?" 4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul within me. For I used to go with the multitude;
I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept a pilgrim feast.
5 Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him for the help of His countenance.
6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me; Therefore I will remember You from the land of the Jordan, and from the heights of Hermon, from the Hill Mizar.
7 Deep calls unto deep at the noise of Your waterfalls; all Your waves and billows have gone over me.
8 The LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime, And in the night His song shall be with me — A prayer to the God of my life. 9 I will say to God my Rock, "Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?" 10 As with a breaking of my bones, My enemies reproach me, while they say to me all day long "Where is your God?"

In the deepest despair that may come against us, or the ungodly prayers of even fellow “Christians” God sees all our tears, and feels our pain. It is a comfort that nothing escapes His eyes. He is El Rohi, the God Who Sees.
He knows there are times of oppression and He sees the times of travail and tears. He will answer the broken hearted. And DEEP calling unto DEEP is the deep heart of GOD reaching the deep issues of our heart, sometimes bringing healing, joy, laughter, tears, LOVE and goodness, release from oppression, and whatever else we need ! We are connected to Him forever, our spirit to His Spirit.

Ps 56:8-9 NKJV You number my wanderings; Put my tears into Your bottle;
Are they not in Your book? When I cry out to You, then my enemies will turn back; This I know, because God is for me.

Ps 116:8-9 NKJV For You have delivered my soul from death, My eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.

Ps 126:5-6 NKJV Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, Bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

There is reward for our hearts breaking for what breaks His, and for feeling the pulse of what is bothering Him. We will reap in JOY, as we sow in tears. For we will see He ANSWERS the cry of the desperate heart !

Isa 16:9-11 NKJV Therefore I will bewail the vine of Sibmah, with the weeping of Jazer; I will drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh; For battle cries have fallen Over your summer fruits and your harvest.
10 Gladness is taken away, and joy from the plentiful field; In the vineyards there will be no singing, Nor will there be shouting; No treaders will tread out wine in the presses; I have made their shouting cease. 11 Therefore my heart shall resound like a harp for Moab, and my inner being for Kir Heres.

Isa 25:8 NKJV He will swallow up death forever, and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces; The rebuke of His people He will take away from all the earth; For the LORD has spoken.

The good news is that there will come a day when we will no longer weep for the awful things we see wrought in the earth today. There will be a day when swords will be turned into plowshares ! There will be only JOY in His Kingdom !
Paul urged us in the Word to weep with those that weep, and to rejoice with those who rejoice. It takes true LOVE to do either. I've met very few Christians who would rejoice WITH ME, when God was doing great things in me. Sadly they usually have been jealous. Sibling rivalry reigns in the church, but it should not be so, if the hearts of people were more healed !

The weeping is for that you know. All the great revivalists were weeping men or women !
There are few Christians I know who see the weeping as a strength. Most pastors I know, have taken it to mean the woman is an emotional basket case, instead of realizing that it may be the tears of the Lord ! Others may be jealous, I don't know. But it takes discernment to know the true from the false weeping, that I do know.

Jer 9:1 NKJV Disobedience Brings God's Judgment
Oh, that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

Sometimes the prophets are weeping because they usually have a feel for what is coming down the road. They are given insights into future days so usually they are not in the same place the church may be. They may be crying while the church overall is rejoicing, because they see what lies ahead. They cry for the sins of the people when they see the desperate need for healing and deliverance in the church and the in the world.

The evangelist who wants to make an impact needs to have a heart at one with the LORD for the LOST he is reaching out to. REVIVALISTS WEEP.

Jer 9:18-21 NKJV Let them make haste and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run with tears, and our eyelids gush with water. 19 For a voice of wailing is heard from Zion: 'How we are plundered! We are greatly ashamed, because we have forsaken the land, because we have been cast out of our dwellings.'" Yet hear the word of the LORD, O women, and let your ear receive the word of His mouth; Teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor a lamentation. 21 For death has come through our windows, Has entered our palaces, to kill off the children — no longer to be outside! And the young men — no longer on the streets!

Ok, here we have the verse that tells us what the intense wailing and screaming that becomes a part of travail is about. " FOR DEATH has come through our windows, has entered our palaces, to kill off the children "
This is the point of the wailing and screaming. It is a terrible thing to see the violence in the world today. Last year in a few days time, people had sent to me three heart wrenching videos. One was on the Palestinians teaching their children to use guns, showed them gloating over a Jew they had murdered, and holding his liver in their hand and cheering. I began to wail and scream in the spirit. I am not that way naturally. I was an RN with a master's degree and for years worked in hospitals. This is not normal behavior for me. Compassion may be, but not wailing like an Italian funeral, ok ? So then I got another video, showing how fetuses are sold as a FOOD on shelves in Taiwan. And another photo showed a man cooking one ! I wanted to throw up, again wailing, weeping, screaming ensued….intercession for this atrocity. Then another came about the Sudan and what they were doing to Christian women there, raping and maiming them, leaving them to die. And again the same response. The LORD was wanting me in the wailing room in the Spirit because of all the violence in the world. It is stirring HIS heart, so should it not convict our own hearts ? He is weeping. He is so broken hearted for what His creation is doing to each other. Note that in the above scripture He is telling women…TEACH your daughters to travail !

He is not wanting us to be complacent. If we shut our eyes to all the horror of the world completely, then it will not change our heart. I know that nurses, after being just in a few rotations of medical surgical floors in nursing school, that we went through some heavy changes in our emotions.
We had one day a week for a couple hours where we had psych counseling session for us, because I was in a Christian program. And they recognized we would have to deal with our emotions of seeing people die, seeing difficult things happen to people. Watch children die. Nurses and doctors and other health professionals are exposed to things MOST people NEVER see. So it was important to us to be able to talk about the feelings we had to get through the change going on in us. I was very blessed to be in that program even before I was a real Christian !

What this taught me, is that God doesn't want us to completely turn our heads from seeing the bad things. He wishes we never had to see bad things/ or situations. But if we don't look at them, we will become complacent and apathetic. We will deny it even exists eventually, or become so hard that we blame people all the time for their problems, instead of seeing the overall picture, from a godly point of view. We need to be asking God A LOT of questions if we want to hear HIS view on things.

Jer 13:17 NKJV But if you will not hear it, My soul will weep in secret for your pride; My eyes will weep bitterly and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock has been taken captive.
Jer 14:17 NKJV "Therefore you shall say this word to them: 'Let my eyes flow with tears night and day, and let them not cease; For the virgin daughter of my people has been broken with a mighty stroke, with a very severe blow.

PRIDE comes before a fall the Word says. We have been very proud in the western world about our affluence and blessings. We have judged others who have not had it so well. When you travel and see the reality of the world others live in who don't have it so well. It jars you, but it is still too easy to become complacent when all our needs are met. It is too easy in American society to forget about the poor of the nations, or even of our own nation. Comfort always seemed to cause Israel to go in that same direction also. So I know it is true. Every time they got wealth and comfort, they backslid ! So we need to recognize our true spiritual lack and be sure we have a reality check on our hearts from time to time. Asking for HIS heart is key to keeping ours in check.

Jer 31:16-19 NKJV Thus says the LORD: "Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; For your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD, and they shall come back from the land of the enemy. 17 There is hope in your future, says the LORD, that your children shall come back to their own border. 18 "I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself: 'You have chastised me, and I was chastised, Like an untrained bull; Restore me, and I will return, For You are the LORD my God. 19 Surely, after my turning, I repented; and after I was instructed, I struck myself on the thigh; I was ashamed, yes, even humiliated, because I bore the reproach of my youth.'

Like Ecclesiastes indicates, there is a time for weeping and a time for laughter. There are times to weep, and times NOT to weep. We cannot have false compassion either when people have been so rebellious that they walk all over others.

Lam 1:2-3 NKJV She weeps bitterly in the night, Her tears are on her cheeks; Among all her lovers she has none to comfort her. All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; They have become her enemies.
3 Judah has gone into captivity, under affliction and hard servitude; She dwells among the nations, she finds no rest; all her persecutors overtake her in dire straits.

Lam 2:11-12 NKJV My eyes fail with tears, My heart is troubled; My bile is poured on the ground because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the children and the infants faint in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?" As they swoon like the wounded in the streets of the city

Lam 2:18-19 NKJV
Their heart cried out to the Lord, "O wall of the daughter of Zion, Let tears run down like a river day and night; Give yourself no relief; Give your eyes no rest. 19 "Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches; pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord. Lift your hands toward Him for the life of your young children, who faint from hunger at the head of every street."

POUR OUT YOUR HEART like water before the FACE of the LORD Jeremiah says. It reminds me of David and how he had sinned and when his baby took sick, the first one born to him and Bathsheba, he cried and covered himself in ashes, hoping the Lord would refrain and have mercy.
But once the baby died…he ate and stopped praying. And the people were puzzled. And he told them, he was hoping for mercy from the Lord. But once the baby was dead, what more could he do ?
The weeping and travailing is the utterances and groanings of the Spirit spoken of in Romans:

Rom 8:26 NKJV Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

Ezek 24:16-17 NKJV
16 "Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with one stroke; yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, nor shall your tears run down. 17 Sigh in silence, make no mourning for the dead; bind your turban on your head, and put your sandals on your feet; do not cover your lips, and do not eat man's bread of sorrow."

Here the Lord tells Ezekial NOT to weep, NOT to bemoan the dead.
The wickedness of the dead was terrible to the Lord.

Mal 2:13-17 NKJV And this is the second thing you do: You cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping and crying; So He does not regard the offering anymore, Nor receive it with goodwill from your hands. 14 Yet you say, "For what reason?" Because the LORD has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, with whom you have dealt treacherously; Yet she is your companion and your wife by covenant. 15 But did He not make them one, having a remnant of the Spirit? And why one? He seeks godly offspring. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously with the wife of his youth.
16 "For the LORD God of Israel says that He hates divorce, for it covers one's garment with violence," Says the LORD of hosts. "Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously." You have wearied the LORD with your words; Yet you say, "In what way have we wearied Him?" In that you say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them," Or, "Where is the God of justice?"
One of the things the Lord showed me about this verse is that when men neglect the wife of their youth, and do not see to it the children are cared for by a father, that is SO grievous to Him. He didn't seem all that upset with Jacob having four wives…technically two wives, and two concubines.
What is upsetting to the LORD is NOT TAKING CARE OF THEM. And when men's hearts are clothed with the violence of hating their wives, it will limit the answers they get to prayer. It is a good thing to forgive the actions of others, as if you don't, that violence of hatred in your heart will cause you much harm. Bitterness is a terrible thing in the human soul. And if you want the gift of God's heart, you cannot remain bitter, hateful, or vengeful if you expect to know His heart. God is LOVE. And he who hates his brother [or sister] does not know the LOVE of the Father. Many people are locked up from hearing HIS VOICE, or having their prayers answered because of this.

Mark 9:24 NKJV Immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe; help my unbelief!"

Here is another important aspect for having prayer and travail be effective.

You have to BELIEVE that you will RECEIVE an answer. There is a saying that he who expects nothing will not be disappointed !

Luke 7:36-39 NKJV A Sinful Woman Forgiven
Then one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He went to the Pharisee's house, and sat down to eat. 37 And behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of fragrant oil, 38 and stood at His feet behind Him weeping; and she began to wash His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head; and she kissed His feet and anointed them with the fragrant oil. 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, "This Man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner."

Luke 7:44-49 NKJV Then He turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head. You gave Me no kiss, but this woman has not ceased to kiss My feet since the time I came in. You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with fragrant oil. Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little." Then He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." And those who sat at the table with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

Even if the tears of the intercessor were her own in a prayer group, it is a very private thing between her and God. If they ASK for prayer, great, but if not…let them work it out alone with God. The key is DON'T assume anything. And don't go up to them and say PEACE, PEACE, when there is NO PEACE.

Acts 20:18-24 NKJV And when they had come to him, he said to them: "You know, from the first day that I came to Asia, in what manner I always lived among you, 19 serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears and trials which happened to me by the plotting of the Jews;
Acts 20:31 NKJV Therefore watch, and remember that for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears.

Here, Paul is admitting that his own life in prayer consisted of travail and weeping for the souls of others. And like the verse above these says, it is LOVE that gives us that heart that is able to weep for the souls of others.

2 Cor 2:3-4 NKJV For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you, with many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have so abundantly for you.

2 Cor 2:4-5 AMP For I wrote you out of great sorrow and deep distress [with mental torture and anxiety] of heart, [yes, and] with many tears, not to cause you pain but in order to make you realize the overflowing love that I continue increasingly to have for you. 5 But if someone [the one among you who committed incest] has caused [all this] grief and pain, he has caused it not to me, but in some measure, not to put it too severely, [he has distressed] all of you.
Like Jesus, Paul wept at the transgressions of the flock of the Lord. It pains the heart of God when we go our own way, instead of His way. It pains His heart when we don't get the help we need, when we don't trust HIM enough with our lives to allow for healing.

Heb 5:6-9 KJV As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. 7 Who in the days of his flesh, when HE had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;
8 Though he were a Son, yet learned He obedience by the things which he suffered; 9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;
Heb 5:7 AMP In the days of His flesh [Jesus] offered up definite, special petitions [for that which He not only wanted but needed] and supplications with strong crying and tears to Him Who was [always] able to save Him [out] from death, and He was heard because of His reverence toward God [His godly fear, His piety, in that He shrank from the horrors of separation from the bright presence of the Father].

WAILING

Est 4:3 NKJV And in every province where the king's command and decree arrived, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Jer 9:10 NKJV I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains,
And for the dwelling places of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that no one can pass through; Nor can men hear the voice of the cattle. Both the birds of the heavens and the beasts have fled;
They are gone.

Jer 9:17-19 NKJV The People Mourn in Judgment
Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Consider and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for skillful wailing women, that they may come. 18 Let them make haste and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run with tears, And our eyelids gush with water. 19 For a voice of wailing is heard from Zion: 'How we are plundered! We are greatly ashamed, because we have forsaken the land, because we have been cast out of our dwellings.'"

Jer 9:20 NKJV Yet hear the word of the LORD, O women, and let your ear receive the word of His mouth; Teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor a lamentation.
Jer 25:36-38 NKJV A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and a wailing of the leaders to the flock will be heard. For the LORD has plundered their pasture, and the peaceful dwellings are cut down because of the fierce anger of the LORD. He has left His lair like the lion; For their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the Oppressor, and because of His fierce anger."

Ezek 7:11 NKJV Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness; None of them shall remain, None of their multitude, None of them; Nor shall there be wailing for them.

Amos 5:16-24 NKJV The Day of the LORD
Therefore the LORD God of hosts, the Lord, says this: "There shall be wailing in all streets, and they shall say in all the highways, 'Alas! Alas!' They shall call the farmer to mourning, and skillful lamenters to wailing. 17 In all vineyards there shall be wailing, for I will pass through you," Says the LORD.

18 Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD! For what good is the day of the LORD to you? It will be darkness, and not light.

19 It will be as though a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him! Or as though he went into the house, leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him! 20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light? Is it not very dark, with no brightness in it? 21 "I hate, I despise your feast days, and I do not savor your sacred assemblies. 22 Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings, I will not accept them, Nor will I regard your fattened peace offerings. 23 Take away from Me the noise of your songs, for I will not hear the melody of your stringed instruments. 24 But let justice run down like water, and righteousness like a mighty stream.

Amos 8:2-8 NKJV And He said, "Amos, what do you see?" So I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me: "The end has come upon My people Israel; I will not pass by them anymore. 3 And the songs of the temple shall be wailing in that day," Says the Lord GOD — "Many dead bodies everywhere, they shall be thrown out in silence." 4 Hear this, you who swallow up the needy, and make the poor of the land fail, 5 Saying:
"When will the New Moon be past, That we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, That we may trade wheat? Making the ephah small and the shekel large, Falsifying the scales by deceit, 6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals — Even sell the bad wheat?"
7 The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: “Surely I will never forget any of their works. 8 Shall the land not tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it? All of it shall swell like the River, Heave and subside Like the River of Egypt.

Amos 8:9-12 NKJV "And it shall come to pass in that day," says the Lord GOD," That I will make the sun go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in broad daylight; 10 I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth on every waist, and baldness on every head; I will make it like mourning for an only son, and its end like a bitter day. 11 "Behold, the days are coming," says the Lord GOD, "That I will send a famine on the land, Not a famine of bread, Nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD. 12 They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; They shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the LORD, But shall not find it.

Mic 1:8-9 NKJV Mourning for Israel and Judah
Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the jackals and a mourning like the ostriches, for her wounds are incurable. For it has come to Judah; It has come to the gate of My people — to Jerusalem.

Zeph 1:10-12 NKJV "And there shall be on that day," says the LORD," The sound of a mournful cry from the Fish Gate, a wailing from the Second Quarter, and a loud crashing from the hills. 11 Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh! For all the merchant people are cut down; All those who handle money are cut off.
12 "And it shall come to pass at that time that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and punish the men who are settled in complacency, who say in their heart,' The LORD will not do good, Nor will He do evil.'

Zech 11:3 NKJV There is the sound of wailing shepherds! For their glory is in ruins. There is the sound of roaring lions! For the pride of the Jordan is in ruins.
Matt 13:41-43 NKJV The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, 42 and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!
Matt 13:49-50 NKJV So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth, separate the wicked from among the just, 50 and cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

Versatility

Versatile
1 : changing or fluctuating readily : VARIABLE
2 : embracing a variety of subjects, fields, or skills; also : turning with ease from one thing to another
3 a (1) : capable of turning forward or backward : REVERSIBLE  (2) : capable of moving laterally and up and down <versatile antennae> b of an anther : having the filaments attached at or near the middle so as to swing freely
4 : having many uses or applications <versatile building material>

I heard the word “versatility” and asked the Lord what He wanted to say about it.

“Versatility is one of the major qualities I look for in people I want to use.
Are they able to adapt ? Are they able to change with the WIND of My Spirit ? Will they flow in the Spirit, looking to Me for what and how to do things. Will they be willing to drop everything to do what I want when I tell them to ?

John 3:6-8 AMP
6 What is born of [from] the flesh is flesh [of the physical is physical]; and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.
7 Marvel not [do not be surprised, astonished] at My telling you, You must all be born anew (from above).
8 The wind blows (breathes) where it wills; and though you hear its sound, yet you neither know where it comes from nor where it is going. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.

CHANGE is inevitable in life. Change is difficult to your humanness. It is more comfortable to the flesh to stay in a certain comfort of knowing what is and what will be from day to day.

The people at Babel were not versatile or flexible, nor were they obedient.
I told them to spread out and multiply in the land. But instead of obeying Me, they built a city and a tower and refused to spread out as I'd told them.
So then they were forced to do so by the confusion of their languages from judgment on their idolatry to self. They thought they could aspire to My greatness and to do what I did. They turned the creativity I gave them into idolatry. This is also a serious breech of conduct in this hour in the world and in My church that calls themselves by My name. They are taking My Word and turning it around to suit their idolatries and their fear of man, and their unsanctified mercies !

While the world is trying to literally produce man in their own image. This abomination will not go long without being judged as I judged the people of Babel.

I am calling out for truth-tellers ! You have many soothsayers in this age, but not many truth-sayers ! You have many who want to not cause any waves.
So I will take a RADICAL generation who have been neglected and abused, and misled, and I will draw them to Myself, and fill them with My glory and My wisdom and My POWER, and they will speak the TRUTH in love to this end times age. I will take the truth-sayers of the older generations and put them at the head of this army I will form for Myself ! And I will make them the generals who have experience and wisdom I've given. And I will give them legions of soldiers who will not love their lives even unto death !

They will GO for US into the streets, into the nations, and they will NOT compromise My Word. They will RESTORE the ancient foundations of many generations and will lead multitudes into the Kingdom of GOD. They will not build their own kingdoms, for they are radical, and will not hoard money or belongings, but will freely share with others of like kind and heart. They will convict those who are walking in their own ways and bring down the idols in their hearts.

They will have the character of their Father, to reach out into the byways and highways to bring in all who have gone astray. They will follow the lead of the Good Shepherd ! They will walk with ME, like Enoch and Noah did !
They will not break ranks when they run through defenses ! They will LOVE their own brothers and sisters. They will not care for fame and finances as much as for obedience to Me. But because they seek Me with their whole heart, I will provide all they need to do all I've given them to do. And there will be spectacular deliverances from death. There will be spectacular provision and multiplication, and miracles of many kinds !

The Kingdom of Heaven is invading earth. You will see it in your time and be amazed ! Get ready to be RADICAL for you are the sons and daughters of a RADICAL GOD who loves you with a RADICAL LOVE. Nothing will be the same ! Nothing will ever be the same !

A Great Turn Around

This Is The Day Of A Great Turn-Around

March 6, 2004

Households of faith will rise up. Whole households shall be saved in a day! The movement of My Spirit is out into the highways and byways, out into houses and homes. I shall flood whole neighborhoods with My love and mercy and pour out upon them the oil of joy and spread out upon them the garments of praise.

This is a day like no other. This is a day when I shall move in to accomplish all I have promised. The poor wanderer shall find a home. He shall enter the gates of My Heavenly city and take up residence amongst My Elect. He shall thrive in an atmosphere where My presence resides. He shall be filled with the joy of the Lord and walk in wholeness. Is this too great a task for Me, My daughter? I shall set the prisoners free and set their feet to dancing. I shall, indeed, open prison doors, and out the prisoner shall walk! I will snap ancient bands and set at liberty those who were bound.

This is a day of joy and gladness, a day of opportunity, a day of fulfillment of promises, a day of rejoicing in the Heavens as the prodigals stream home to the Father's house. This is the day of My vengeance on all that has held My people captive. I will come with a sword to break loose every fetter. I shall triumph over injustice and set at liberty those who could not free themselves. Trust Me. Walk with Me and watch Me take down mountains as I march through the land unhindered. I am a great and mighty warrior. I am the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. I am the great I Am, the Lord of Hosts is My name. So you see I have arisen from My resting place and have made war with the enemy, to crush him beneath My feet, to rescue the perishing from his grip, and to establish the law of righteousness in the hearts of multitudes in this day. I am gathering in My Elect from the four corners of the Earth. The winds of My Spirit are blowing over all the Earth to bring in the harvest from the nations.

Sons and daughters shall sit and rule with Me. They shall acknowledge Me in all the Earth and every knee shall bow before Me. This is the day of a great turn-around.

I Will Fight For You

My ways are higher than your ways, My thoughts higher than yours. Those things you are experiencing are for a purpose. I purpose to bring you into the full revelation and counsel of God. You will see Me outperform any performance by the enemy.

I have not left you or forsaken you. I have not left you without hope. Hope in God and you will see the promises come to pass. Trust in Me and you will see that I have all things in My control. Hope is not far from you. Hope is what links you to Me. Hope is found in Me.

Help is on its way. I will establish you upon the heights and blow apart any attempts of the enemy to confuse you. I will make it clear that I have given My angels instruction concerning you, to lift you up and move you forward, and nothing can slow you down.

Be alert, always intercepting the attacks of the enemy. Understand that the battle rages, but I have already declared victory. I have already silenced the enemy and made a way whereby My word shall go forth from sea to sea. This is the day of battle, but shout the victory, for I have triumphed over every foe.

Press into Me and do not be pressured by those around you. Stand firm in your commitment to serve Me and I will fight for you.

A Great White Hospital

Mark Wattenford

I was “compelled” to chronicle again the following vision I had in about 1995-96. In the vision there was another person I had just met at that time named Joanne Sappington – author of the book “My Glorious Church Without Spot or Wrinkle”.

When I was a young boy about 11 I was in a secluded “hidey hole” in Disneyland when Walt Disney came up behind me as I was drawing cartoons. I heard a voice say – “Would you like to go to work for me someday”. (as I was just writing this NOW, after all these years, I just now remembered and now realized the significance of His question in relation to this following vision. After our conversation of some time I had always looked at Him as a father figure as I had none as a child). Now – here is the vision.

I saw an amusement park – it was Disneyland. I sensed I wanted no part of it and thought to try get people to leave it, but was not having any real luck at it. It was, for me, just an uncomfortable thing being there. But then after a little while I was brought to a hospital that had been built over many years in secret. It was next to Disneyland, but was not visible to any – especially to any who were so caught up in the Disneyland rides and all it had to offer. But there were these guys who came and got me – they were like “secret agents” in the vision – although I am aware they were angels. They brought me to the front of this Great White Hospital. It was huge and I saw at the door Joanne Standing as if to open the double doors for me. They were double doors and as I came close she opened the doors and we stepped in. Walt Disney was standing just inside and greeted us, but before He showed us any of the hospital He brought us to His living quarters that were a part of the hospital. Then He began to reveal to Joanne and me the truth of our lives that had been secret and hidden. He said that Joanne and I were His actual children and that Joanne and I were twins, although we were raised separately. He brought me over to what was like a fireplace mantle and took off the mantle a pair of baby shoes and turned to me and said – these were yours. I felt the emotions starting to rise up in me that I now had a father I had never before known in life. He turned one shoe over and showed me the sole of the shoe. The soles of the shoes on the bottom were not sewn on, but rather had been “nailed” on with tiny little nails made out of pure silver. (they are called “brads”). He pointed to a place in the sole where one nail had been pulled out of the sole. He said, look here – and I saw where the nail had been pulled out and then He put the shoe down and reached to pull out His walled. Inside His wallet He pulled out a tiny little silver brad and said – “I have carried this all of your life and have looked forward to this day that we could be united again”. When I saw this I burst out into tears like a flood. (Silver represents the blood of Christ – my soul had been secured by the blood of Christ). Then He proceeded to explain to Joanne and I that He had us both taken away at birth to be raised in secret. He said that He had first built Disneyland, but it was not what He intended it to be. It had grown into something that was not His intention, but instead of trying to stop it He just let it go on and let those who grew up to run it alone. They were also his children who were running Disneyland, but they grew up in that corruption and could not brake free or be trusted to run the hospital. That is why He said He had to have us taken away at birth and raised in secret – so we would not be corrupted by the “business practices” of our brothers who ran the amusement park, because we needed to be raised to run a hospital instead. I was still weeping as He spoke. I felt healing coming into me as He spoke. I could feel that void of not having had a father being filled and the Love of a Father so filling me as well. Also – when I was a young boy I loved my sister greatly, but at an early age she became mentally ill and I felt like I lost my sister who never came back. Now, here was my twin. I was feeling like I was being so healed and brought back to fullness. After awhile having spent some time in His personal quarters “communing” with our Father – He brought us out of His Chambers to show us this hospital. It was absolutely huge and was built large enough to accommodate the entire world’s needs for healing. It was not open yet, but soon would be. Now that I think about it I was thinking it would be opened the “Next Day”. This was 1995-96 (?) – so in prophetic terms that would be the “next day” as in the turn of the millennium or what is now being referred to as “the third day”. This hospital was equipped to heal every known illness, disease and disability. This meant EVERY ONE OF THEM, from physical, emotional and spiritual conditions. He began to acquaint us with our jobs and what would be our functions. This hospital WAS OUR INHERITANCE. This was very clear. Our brothers had inherited the amusement park and all that went with it. We had inherited this hospital and all that went with it. There were many other “siblings” who had inherited this as we did, but He was addressing Joanne and me at the time. He began to take me through the hospital and show me all of the equipment in the place. It was equipment that had been placed for the sake of healing any condition that would come in. It was equipment that was not recognizable by me. There was nothing I could compare it to, because I had never seen anything like it before. He told me it was my job to familiarize each person with the equipment they would be running when the hospital opened. What a great place this was. We were dressed in the whitest of white uniforms that you could ever imagine. He also took Joanne aside and was giving her an orientation on what it was that she would be doing. It was a different job then mine was, but since we were twins I rather thought it would not be all that different. I saw the place had become very “geared up” in preparation for opening and I saw what I knew to be many angels as well as brothers and sisters working in this place, but they were working in harmony and as equal laborers although we had an inheritance that did not apply to them. We were equal laborers, but we were Sons of Our Father. (be clear here, when I say Sons it is not a “gender” term). There were other details to the vision I may remember at a later date. As the light of dawn of the next day began to rise we knew we were going to be opening up. Then at a certain time, when the Son rose to a certain position and brightness – the doors to the place were flung open and people from all over the world were lined up to come in. Everyone one of them – without exception, were healed and without effort of any sort. I saw lines outside of people lined up and it seemed like each line stretched out to a separate nation in the world. No one had a sense of “having to wait in line” as if the doors or passage into the hospital were inadequate to handle the flow. It was in fact adequate and exactly filled the need for which it was created. I wept for joy and I wept for relief to see the multitudes that were finally healed as they were and to be freed from the chains of oppression they had endured for so long. We were our Father’s children and this was our inheritance and a multitude came in.

Ps – I did see how when the hospital opened – those brothers and sisters of ours who inherited Disneyland and were running it became jealous and angry that we had inherited – “The better portion”.

A Hard Word

PART ONE

A Cry From the Wilderness!
Father WE CRY OUT!
September 27 2004
Father We Cry out to you for Justice in the Earth!
Why do the wicked prosper and your chosen ones go hungry?
Why do those who falsely prophesy in your Name
Have many who follow saying " Yes it is the Lord?"
Why is there such an abundance of false Testimony on the Earth?
Stretch out your arm Lord God and Defend Your Name
Speak the Word of Truth and Silence your enemies
Has your church gone Mad oh God? Come and contend with me
I desire YOUR answer! Are there really so few who Know You?
Are there really so few who serve you?
Speak Lord of Hosts into this earth!
My heart is grieved with the weight of wickedness that is before your People
Is there none who are serious about Your Love?
Is there none who are serious about Your Ways?
Are all in deception? Are there any true Prophets left oh God?
I have searched and found lack
I have none which to take counsel.
Lord My God! I Cry out to You
We cry out to you!
Those of us who are nothing
Those of us who have no standing
Those of us who have been counted Dung in the midst of your Congregation!
My God! My God! We require of you an Answer!
Unrighteous mammon has overtaken those who say they are serving IAM
They take widowed women, and fatherless children by the throat
Taking their bread and their substance for their professional gain in ministry!
My God have mercy on us and deliver us from this evil
Save us from the wrath of the Evil One
Save us from the wiles of evil men and women
Bring us into your Salvation and Leave us Not naked but Robe us with your Righteousness.
Forgive them Lord who Take your Anointing in Vain,
Forgive them Who use Your Holy Name for Selfish gain
PART TWO

It is Not Finished! It Has Just Begun
September 27 2004

Beware of those who prophesy from their own hearts in the Name of the Lord. For they will lead you and your household into captivity.

Jeremiah 5:31
The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?
(Whole Chapter: Jeremiah 5 In context: Jeremiah 5:30-32)

Jeremiah 14:14
Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

Revelation 2
[2] I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil:

and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:
[3] And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

I bring you into remembrance in this last hour. REPENT of the evil workings of your heart. For I am coming soon and My Rewards I bring with Me!

Revelation 21:8
But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.
Consider the Word of Your God. Do not consider it lightly. Consider it fully. Shake off the flashy lights of your religious eyes filled with spiritual stardom! You say you speak according to My Will. You say you speak as I have directed. I tell you now that you are in deception. For WHO can know the Mind of God? You are playing a game that you cannot win. You prophesy and tell yourself that you are doing so because you serve Me. You have been seduced and lured into deception of heart for vain glory! You have believed a lie and now you operate because of the lie! You love the power you feel when the eyes of men are on you. You love the importance and glory you feel when your name is lifted up because of the numbers you have attained in your fellowships. Can even these ones be in danger of the second death? I tell you the TRUTH….

[21] Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.
[22] Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?
[23] And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Mark 7:6
He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
I tell you these things because I wish none would perish. I tell you these things now that you may have time to turn around from the allure of earthly and religious rewards. My promises are Great! My love is never ending. I have given all of Me for you. Turn around from the pride that has gripped you because of your evil desire for spiritual stature to gain position with men.

2 Peter 3:9
The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.
There can be no other head, but Jesus Christ. There can be no other Savior save Jesus Christ! He is the Cornerstone. The VERY ONE the BUILDERS REJECTED! You must understand the Truth of My Kingdom.

Matthew 20
[1] For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.
[2] And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
[3] And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,
[4] And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.
[5] Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.
[6] And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?
[7] They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.
[8] So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.
[9] And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.
[10] But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.
[11] And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,

[12] Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.
[13] But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?
[14] Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.
[15] Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?
[16] So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

Matthew 19
[29] And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.
[30] But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

Matthew 21
[42] Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?
[43] Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.
[44] And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

Matthew 21
[30] And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.
[31] Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.
[32] For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

The Mystery of My Word
Carla Rickard

There are things that have been hidden for your sake in the mysteries of the Word. These things are revealed in seasons and times. If I didn’t not conceal such things, would they be not as dust? For if they are handed over to corruptness, what benefit is that to you? What Glory does that bring forth? Therefore I have concealed My Word within My Word. When you seek you shall find the Truths I have placed right in front of you.

For those who have eyes and cannot see

For those who have ears and cannot hear

To you who are desirous of Righteousness not made of man’s hands and doctrines but the Righteousness that can only be found in Me, will I unfold the mysteries. Because of the stiff necked-ness of many I have laid waste the fertile soils, and have made barren the springs of waters. There is a famine of My Word in the Land because they loved not the Truth but held fast to the doctrines of demons. But to those who would have ears to hear, I tell you the secrets that I have placed in my Word. I will continue to unfold these things to you. But be diligent and be careful not to cast these pearls before swine lest they tear you up and tread over you. I AM looking for friends who will keep my secrets Holy. I am looking for friends that will not betray the Trust I so desire to place in you.

I have called you to be the Keeper of My Word. Those who I speak now to are being stirred in their spirit. You know who you are because the Spirit testifies in you. I will pour out more, all I ask of you is to remain silent for in due season it shall come to pass for release. Walk in love with this revelation that I am allowing you to receive. Leave your pride at the altar. What you do in secret will be blessed of me. If you speak it forth now, you shall already have your reward. Watch over My Word.

Isaiah 6

[8] Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I,

Here am I; send me.
[9] And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.
[10] Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.
[11] Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate,
[12] And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.
[13] But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

Mark 4:11
And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

Romans 16:25
Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began,

1 Corinthians 2:7
But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

Matthew 6:2
Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

Matthew 6:18
That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

Matthew 7:6
Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

A Harvest In The Midst Of Turmoil

Dee Hoetmer

8th September 2004

Beloveds, times are a changing, the winds are blowing, the seas roar, lashing at your coastline. So you see Beloveds, the beginning of the end. My prophesied time of judgment upon the face of the earth commences. This is a cry from My Fathers heart for My people to return their hearts to Me. Long have I stretched out My hands, pleading with the Nations, but they would not hear, so now I am allowing storms and pestilence to come upon the land so that they may seek My face, repent and come back to Me, their creator, their Father.

I would not that it be so but it is because I LOVE MY CREATION that I allow the ravages of storms and pestilence. Some would lose all their worldly possessions before truly seeking My face. Some will come nigh unto death before seeking Me.

My Father heart delights in blessing, in caring, in loving, in nurturing, but their hearts have grown cold towards Me, so these things must come upon the face of the earth, so that they may seek Me in spirit and IN TRUTH.

The earth's axis will soon be moved and cataclysmic events will occur. People will stumble as if in the dark, seeking answers, seeking a place of refuge. Will you be a place of refuge for these storm tossed ones? Will you My Beloveds, show them the way to Me?

Things are winding down, even in the universe, so when the judgment is over and the harvest in, I will renew the heavens and the earth. It is My Beautiful Beloveds, My strong and mighty warriors, those that have stayed faithful to the end, that will rule and reign over My new creation with Me.

Much is beyond your understanding, much is beyond your comprehension, but as we walk and talk together My Beloveds, I will reveal more to you of things to come.

Guard your hearts Beloveds! Do not let the things you see come upon the face of the earth sway your heart. Do not harden your hearts, for in the midst of these storms, in the midst of the cataclysmic events is when My harvest will come in. I will reap a harvest of nations of people before the great and dreadful day of the Lord. I will do everything to save those who would be saved.

The Everlasting, ever loving Father
* There has been word from the Lord about a great star coming. Perhaps this is how the moving of the earth' s axis will occur, which will bring about the cataclysmic events. such in the ages gone by?

A House Divided

Matt 12:25-30 NKJV But Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. 26 If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? 27 And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. 28 But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you. 29 Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. 30 He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

“Division is a fruit of witchcraft. There is much that has divided My church, Israel, and your nation. The division is commensurate with the rise in witchcraft in the land and in the world. It is also in My church that is called by My name. But it should not be so. If I don’t control you and I am the Lord God Almighty, then why do you let others control you in an ungodly manner ? Where the Spirit is there is freedom. This is important for you to remember in the coming days. When people start controlling and dominating, and judging, then you know that witchcraft has somehow seeped in. Just what form of witchcraft is in My church ?

“Oh foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you ?” Paul said. Why was Paul admonishing them ? Why did he indicate it was witchcraft ? Because they had turned from depending on GRACE to depending on SELF righteousness and works mentality. Because they had stifled the move of the Spirit in that church. Many who had come out of paganism and witchcraft had resorted to another form of witchcraft – pretense and false teaching that promoted salvation through the LAW. He who is under the law is NOT under GRACE and therefore outside My grace, and attempting to achieve holiness by TRYING HARDER vs allowing ME to sanctify them with My glorious presence.

Many today are doing the same thing. They have veered off track by taking the road that seems right, but is far from the TRUTH of My GRACE AND LOVE. Holiness comes through sanctification in My presence. It is NOT by works and trying hard to follow rules and regulations.

This generation is needful of mothers and fathers in Israel who will LOVE them into repentance. They need those who will teach by EXAMPLE. You are to be My ambassadors of love. I didn’t call you to judge anyone. I’ve called you to discern, but not to judge. Love your enemies, be good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you I said. Love one another as I have loved you. Have I not loved you even when you have failed over and over again ? Have I left you and abandoned you when you failed ?

Have I not helped you and comforted you and steered you in the right direction and come to you in hours of trials ? Have I not encouraged you when you were downhearted and broken ? Then do not think that YOU have to be the ONE to correct everything wrong with someone else ! Sometimes just your silence and lack of sinning is in itself a strong enough message to the unbelieving or backslidden. My children are hungry and thirsty and scattered all over the earth wandering and without true shepherds. I am not looking for more hirelings. I am looking for those who will lay down their lives and encourage another – who will love and comfort the broken – who will befriend the outcast.

Will you go the extra mile ? Will you open your heart to be available to the lonely and forlorn, to encourage the homeless one with a meal or a night's sound sleep ? Will you LOVE ONE ANOTHER ? Or will you only PRETEND to be Mine ? Will you be pretenders to the throne or tenders of My sheep and lambs? Will you speak out against injustice in the land ? Will you no longer be apathetic and self protecting and reach out for the sake of sharing MY LOVE ?

My house is divided because of a lack of LOVE and kindness. My house is divided due to selfish ambition and pride. My house is divided due to pretense and arrogance and greed. Will you be one who speaks truth or who bows like a prostitute to the highest bidder ? Will you be a prostitute just so you can keep your position or have favor with one who is transgressing My laws?

Ezekiel 2 AMP
1 AND HE said to me [Ezekiel], Son of man, stand upon your feet and I will speak to you. 2 And the Spirit entered into me when He spoke to me and set me upon my feet, and I heard Him speaking to me.
3 And He said to me, I send you, son of man, to the children of Israel, two rebellious nations that have rebelled against Me. They and their fathers have transgressed against Me even to this very day. 4 And the children are impudent and hard of heart. I send you to them and you shall say to them, Thus says the Lord God

5 And they, whether they will hear or refuse to hear--for they are a rebellious house--yet shall they know and realize that there has been a prophet among them. 6 And you, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words; though briers and thorns are all around you and you dwell and sit among scorpions, be not afraid of their words nor be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house.
7 And you shall speak My words to them whether they will hear or refuse to hear, for they are most rebellious.
8 As for you, son of man, hear what I say to you; be not rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you. 9 And when I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me and behold, a scroll of a book was in it. 10 And He spread it before me and it was written within and on the back, and written on it were words of lamentation and mourning and woe.

Ezek 3:17-21 AMP Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at My mouth and give them warning from Me. [Isa 52:8; 56:10; 62:6; Jer 6:17.]
18 If I say to the wicked, You shall surely die, and you do not give him warning or speak to warn the wicked to turn from his wicked way, to save his life, the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand. 19 Yet if you warn the wicked and he turn not from his wickedness or from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered yourself. 20 Again, if a righteous man turns from his righteousness (right doing and right standing with God) and some gift or providence which I lay before him he perverts into an occasion to sin and he commits iniquity, he shall die; because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered, but his blood will I require at your hand.

21 Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man not to sin and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he is warned; also you have delivered yourself from guilt.

A Solemn Assembly

“Chains and bonds are being broken as I assemble My army for these times.
I AM the Lord of Sabbaoth, and I keep My promises ! I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change My mind. I do what I tell you I’m going to do.

I am bringing you OUT OF BONDAGE, and into an era of freedom for a short time before the final unfolding of all things. Keep your eyes on ME My beloveds. The days will fly swiftly by. Keep your hearts in ME. Recall the good things I have done for you. Keep your hearts from any roots of bitterness. For I am soon to bring a great awakening to this nation that will shake all the oppression off of those who will bow to ME.

I have heard your cries for unsaved family members, for your sons and daughters and I am coming to release a revelation to them of their call, and their future. I will sovreignly lift them out of the dust and mire of idolatry and bondage and into the LIGHT of My love. I am going to SHAKE all that can be shaken. So do not look at what you can hold in your hands, but what you hold in your heart is what matters ! Throw off the veil of the world, the flesh and the evil one. I will have a holy and united church. But the division which is here will remain. It will be squelched in the hearts of the MANY who will turn to ME. But many will not and will go their arrogant way.

Multitudes in the valley of decision. Multitudes will come into the church in this hour. Many nations will be gathered. Many tribes and tongues will be saved, delivered and healed. Come to ME and commune with Me so I can give you MY plan for the nations…so I can IMPART all that I want to give you.
I love you and will be with you through these tumultuous times !

It is a time also to GATHER, so you need to have more of ME so that your work for the kingdom will be effective. I am coming to you and I will give you ALL you NEED to do what I am calling you to do. Worry not ! Fret not !
Open your hearts and open your homes. Open your hearts for the KING OF GLORY TO COME IN. Ask and you shall receive.

It is a time to reap what you have not sown. It is a time for Jehu’s in the land to rise up and for the followers and prophets of Baal to be brought low.
Though they will chatter and prattle, they will NOT PREVAIL ! And just as Jehu needed wisdom from above, so you need to find out My strategy for defeating those diviners who wickedly spew forth dung from their mouths, as if I spoke these words ! There are also witches and warlocks who WILL repent and come to the Lord of Hosts. But YOU have to be strong and face them with courage and with TRUST in the Lord Your God ! I will give you the GRACE if you will but ask ! No longer will you yield to INTIMIDATION.”

2 Kings 10:18-28 NKJV Now therefore, call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. Let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal. Whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu acted deceptively, with the intent of destroying the worshipers of Baal. 20 And Jehu said, "Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it.
21 Then Jehu sent throughout all Israel; and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. So they came into the temple of Baal, and the temple of Baal was full from one end to the other.

22 And he said to the one in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out vestments for all the worshipers of Baal." So he brought out vestments for them. 23 Then Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab went into the temple of Baal, and said to the worshipers of Baal, "Search and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you, but only the worshipers of Baal." 24 So they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed for himself eighty men on the outside, and had said, "If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escapes, whoever lets him escape, it shall be his life for the life of the other."

25 Now it happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in and kill them; let no one come out!" And they killed them with the edge of the sword; then the guards and the officers threw them out, and went into the inner room of the temple of Baal. 26 And they brought the sacred pillars out of the temple of Baal and burned them. 27 Then they broke down the sacred pillar of Baal, and tore down the temple of Baal and made it a refuse dump to this day. 28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal from Israel.

Zech 11:7-14 NKJV So I fed the flock for slaughter, in particular the poor of the flock. I took for myself two staffs: the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bonds; and I fed the flock. 8 I dismissed the three shepherds in one month. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me. 9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. Let what is dying die, and what is perishing perish. Let those that are left eat each other's flesh." 10 And I took my staff, Beauty, and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples. 11 So it was broken on that day. Thus the poor of the flock, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD. 12 Then I said to them, "If it is agreeable to you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain." So they weighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.
13 And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter" — that princely price they set on me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD for the potter. 14 Then I cut in two my other staff, Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill; yes, My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them."
7 'Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: 8 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock became food for every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock" — 9 therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD! 10 Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall feed themselves no more; for I will deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them."

Dislodged

The Lord said “dislodged” so looked it up in Webster:
1 : to drive from a position of hiding, defense, or advantage
2 : to force out of a secure or settled position <dislodged the rock with a shovel> intransitive senses : to leave a lodging place

“ I am calling to those that have been hidden soon to come out, and to be dislodged from where they have been. There is a time for sowing and there is a time for reaping. There is a time for hiddenness and a time for exposure. There is a time for being quiet, and a time for speaking out !

The dislodging won’t happen till communion with the Holy One comes. So be expectant for changes, as they are coming. And when they come, there will be an escalation to My purposes for you.

You know who you are, because you have been doing things undercover, and that will continue to be your way of operation for many of you still. You will be hidden in the shadow of MY WINGS. You will come out and go forth and do great exploits in My name. But there is a work I am still doing before you receive your commission.

I am cleansing and I am imparting, and I am empowering. I have been testing and prodding, and cleaning and buffing. I have been molding mantles of HUMILITY on my apostles and prophets and many have grown and received that mantle and asked for that humility. Others have grown bitter and anxious, and angry. But as I come, I will break the chains for those who desire more of Me. I have needed to humble many for there is much pride in the church that must be confronted, but you must not do it with anger and resentment in your heart. You must be able to have MY heart and My compassion, My strength and My Holiness to execute My justice in the manner I desire. Your words must not come out of a bitter heart.

Righteous anger will come forth in many situations, but it is different from anger arising from impatience and hatred. Just as Paul got angry with those using the girl for divination, it was a righteous anger that motivated him to cast out the demon and release her. Some of you know the difference, and others are still a bit confused in the difference because you still have not the full revelation of My GRACE and My JUSTICE. Ask for MY heart for the lost, for the church, for the WORLD. I am bent on HARVEST and it is soon forthcoming.

I am LONGING for more time with you My beloveds. Worship and keep your minds STAYED on ME. Much blessing will issue forth in that communion with Me and My Word so that revelation will increase. Discernment will increase.
Holiness will come forth. Lay your head on My chest and learn of ME for I am gently and lowly of heart .

A Hole In The Wall

An Appointed Time

In March of this year, after ministering in Melbourne, Australia, I took a day off to visit some friends in Sydney. On the ride to Manly Beach from the airport the Holy Spirit began to speak a word to me concerning integrity for those in church leadership around the globe. Some eight months later I am sensing it is time to release the word. One of the lessons I have learned the hard way over the years is to not give a word prematurely. Often the Lord will give a word well before the appointed time of release. This may be because intercessory prayer is necessary as part of the preparation or it may be that it will take the hearer of the word a bit of time to get the whole word. On occasion, it is because the Lord wants the messenger of that word to grow into the reality of the word before it's released to others. For whatever reason, I have not sensed the timing of the Lord to release this until now.

Usually when we think of an appointed time we think of a long awaited break through of blessings. An example would be the Lord telling Abraham that at the "appointed time" He would return and the long awaited child of promise would be born to Sarah. Psalm 102:13 tells us that, at God's appointed time, He arises and has compassion on His people. Habakkuk, the prophet, encourages us to hang on to the visions God gives us because they will come to pass at the appointed time! Obviously God is good to His people all the time but there are certain appointed times of significant breakthrough. Certainly Jesus, the Messiah, came at an appointed time.

The basic understanding of an appointed time is very simple. It is a time that God has fixed, or determined to release, or impart, something at a very particular date or season, according to His sovereignty. Whether we are prepared or not, if we are the intended recipients of that impartation we either experience it, or as with Jerusalem, we can miss the time of visitation or blessing. However, not only are there appointed times of blessings but, on occasion, those appointed times are seasons of judgment. Psalm 75, verse 2, reads: "When I select an appointed time, it is I who judge with equity."

Often when the body of Christ considers judgment and repentance we make two crucial errors. First, we think that His judgment is only reserved for the lost, or those outside of the church. 1 Peter tells us, however, that judgment does not start first with the lost, or nonbelievers. Rather, it starts first with the church (1 Peter 4:17). Second, we often misunderstand God's intentions when He does release judgment on His sons and daughters. The Father's heart for us is always one of restoration rather than destruction. Sometimes He wants to break us down so that He can build us up! We fall into this second misperception because we really don't understand that God's heart is so very much for us. When God revealed a bit of His glory to Moses in Exodus 34, He stated that He was "slow to anger". Hebrews 12:11 reads: "All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness".

God is patient and longsuffering. There comes a time, however, when not out of anger but out of deep love and concern for us, He will release judgment for the sake of correction and healing. Usually, at that point, we (the sinners) are standing at a dangerous precipice. We can think of an extreme case of sin in the life of a Christian such as the man in the church in Corinth who was actually having sex with his own stepmother. Paul stated that he "decided to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of his flesh". It is critical that we realize Paul's motivation. He continued on in 1 Cor. 5:5, "...so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus". In such cases, God's purpose is not eternal damnation but rather to bring our hearts to repentance to come back to a place of wholeness in Christ. There is a certain sin Jesus spoke of that is unto eternal judgment - speaking evil of the Holy Spirit – but, generally speaking, this is a sin only a non-Christian would commit.

The Responsibility of Gatekeepers

Additionally, God will release judgment not only for the sake of the saint who has given himself over to a sin but also for the sake of the church. Jesus told us that to whom much is given, much is required (Luke 12:48). This is especially true for leaders in the body of Christ because in the place of their authority they become a filter, or grid, by which blessings and/or curses are released to the church. Because of their authority, they are, in effect, gatekeepers to the church. When they are practicing hidden sin, an open door for sin and/or the demonic is opened up. A little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough!

When leadership is right with God - living in love, grace and humility - they are an open door for the body of Christ to experience more and more of the fullness of Christ. As leaders, we can be either vessels of purity by which pure water can flow out or vessels with mud and debris within them, which in turn release polluted water. No matter how pure the incoming water, if the vessel is polluted, mixed water flows out. The messenger is the message; the teacher is the teaching; and the prophet is the prophecy. It’s not so much the mere words we speak to the church. It is who we are that impacts people the most.

The Lord spoke that He is going to begin to release judgment and exposure to leaders in the body of Christ who are practicing sin. This release of judgment unto restoration will be on a broad level. This is not to say God is requiring leaders to be perfect because only Jesus is perfect. The apostle Paul differentiated between those who occasionally commit sin and those who ‘practice’ sin (Romans 2:1, Galatians 5:21 & Ephesians 4:19). When someone practices something, they do it over and over again to the point of getting good at it. Because of their position and ministry, leaders in the church who live in sin, keep their sin hidden out of necessity.

God did not say He was demanding sinless perfection from His leaders, rather men and women who are true examples of humility (dependence on God), grace, mercy and love. They are free to abound in receiving God’s love because they are free to be transparent due to the lack of hidden sin and the ensuing lack of hidden shame.

When David rhetorically asked, “Who will ascend the hill of the Lord,” he answered, “Those with pure hearts and clean hands.” Purity and cleanliness are prerequisites for deep intimacy with God. The apostle Paul stated that many suffered needlessly because of hidden sin. He said that many are sick and have fallen asleep (died prematurely) because of hidden sin and not judging themselves correctly (1 Cor. 11:30).

Due to a lack of truly seeking the face of God and experiencing much of His glory in the contemporary Western World church, there has been a corresponding lack of a fear of God. Paul wrote to the church of Philippi to work out their salvation in “fear and trembling” because it is the living God within them who wants to work out His will and good pleasure. This lack of intimacy with the person of God has resulted in a low regard for holiness, which combined with the lack of intimacy, creates an impotency in regards to the power of God being manifested through the church!

God wants to pour out His Spirit in an ever-increasing way. However, just as the devil found it was very dangerous to stand in the midst of the mountain of the Lord with sin in his heart, so it is true for the saints today, especially leadership. If it is true that judgment starts first with the household of God, then it is more than likely that judgment starts first with leaders. After all, the hardest words Jesus spoke to the people of Israel were for the leaders, not the prostitutes or thieves. Among the seven woes Jesus spoke of to the religious leaders of His day was the admonishment that they were like cups cleansed on the outside but filthy on the inside. This is a picture of leaders in the church who look the part of a good leader but their hearts and secret lifestyles are unclean.

A Hole in the Wall!

Ezekiel, chapter 8, relates several powerful visions the prophet experienced. One of the most poignant is of God directing Ezekiel to dig through the wall of the temple only to find the elders in deep, hidden sin. Verse 10 reads: “So I entered and looked, and behold, every form of creeping things and beasts and detestable things, with all the idols of the house of Israel, were carved on the wall all around.” It goes on to say that in front were the elders who were burning incense unto the Lord in the midst of their sin. The passage is compelling in that it relates God’s intense disgust and hatred of the hypocrisy and impurity. If that was how strongly God felt about sin in the temple prior to men and women having the Holy Spirit live within themselves, how much more should there be a priority of personal holiness today!

There are going to be some who read this and react with a concern that I am promoting a return to legalism or a performance-oriented relationship with God. It is quite the contrary. I believe God is calling us to embrace holiness and to hate sin out of a relationship of grace, mercy and intimacy with Him that only the cross could achieve. One of the classic definitions of Biblical grace is that grace does not give us the freedom to do what we want and get away with it. Rather, true grace gives us the freedom to be the person God wants us to be. The cross has given us access to God but it is up to us to choose to walk in the freedom of the cross and the Holy Spirit! We are not trying to earn anything from God here, but out of love wanting to be imitators of our Lord Jesus. At the very least we need a revelation today that the Holy Spirit is the “Holy” Spirit of God!

I do not know how long this appointed season of cleansing and pruning will be. I do sense it will go more towards the deep part of the pool rather than the shallow end. Already, just in the eight months since the Lord began to give this word, three major leaders of international ministries I know personally, who live in three different continents, have had sexual sin exposed in their lives greatly to the surprise of those close to them. I am not saying this season is unto the immediate return or the Lord, although only the Father knows the time of Christ’s return. Rather, I believe this is a John 15 time of pruning because God wants to bring about greater fruitfulness for the Kingdom of God and greater purity in the Bride of Christ.

Davids & Sauls

After Psalm 75 speaks of an appointed time for judgment (verse 2), it goes on to speak of the Lord promoting people (verses 6 & 7). This, as well, has to do with the greater fruitfulness the Lord wants to bring about through this pruning. Normally, when a Christian leader has hidden sin in their life, the accompanying guilt, shame and insecurity render them very controlling - controlling to the point of keeping the younger Davids that God is raising up from entering into their potential. Right now, there are many Davids serving under Sauls. These Davids are being kept back and, often times, attacked as David was because of King Saul’s deep insecurity. It can be hard to read these present day Sauls because, like the Saul of old, they have an anointing in their life and know how to do the outward stuff. When the Holy Spirit opens a hole in the wall of their soul, though, there can be detestable things of every sort made visible. Often, everyone knows, or suspects, the problems with a Saul, but it is not until the Holy Spirit reveals it that action can be taken.

The sins God especially wants to deal with are the big three. Just as Africa has the “big five” game animals people on safari watch out for - the lion, elephant, rhinoceros, leopard and buffalo - there also are the “big three G” sins ministry leaders must especially watch out for. They are girls (sexual sin), gold and glory.

Stealing God’s glory by constantly drawing attention to self and building one’s own empire, or ministry, may be even a more serious sin to God than sexual or financial sin. God wants to share His glory with us but He will not allow us to steal it! Taking glory to oneself rather than giving it to God can be a much more subtle sin than the other two. As others before have pointed out, spiritual pride is only revealed (by the Holy Spirit). It is not usually detected (except by others around you). One of the boldest prayers in the Bible is David’s in Psalm 139. He writes, “Search my heart, O God, and see if there be any hurtful ways with me.” God is faithful. Just as He is quick to forgive when we are honest with Him (1 John 1:9), He is also quick to give us insight regarding sin in our hearts if we choose to truly be vulnerable with Him. The problem, however, is that when one is practicing sin, shame causes one to “cover up,” much like Adam and Eve in the Garden.

In closing allow me to reiterate the fact that God is not bringing judgment or chastisement out of wrath but out of love. To quote the writer of Hebrews again: “God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. Furthermore, we had earthly fathers to discipline us, and we respected them; shall we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live? For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He disciplines us for our good, so that we may share His holiness”, Heb. 12:7-10. In a nutshell, God calls us, provokes us and chastises us to holiness out of His great love for us. On the flip side, to pass off the warning signs could be costly. It could cost one’s marriage, family, ministry and even one’s health - emotionally, spiritually and physically. As 1 Peter 1:16 reads: “you shall be holy, for I am holy”! Holiness must be more than a mere confession of heaven to come!

Below I have listed a few simple steps that may be appropriate for those leaders who are in bondage and truly desire to get free. Sometimes when we, as leaders, are going through things we need the simple reminders of what we already know so well.

1. Find someone, a peer, with whom you can be vulnerable and truthful. When Jesus instructed the disciples to wash one another's feet He was speaking to a group of peers in relationship rather than the masses. Sometimes you need a peer to understand the unique battles you are facing. This may end up being someone who is outside of your church. It does need to be someone, however, to whom you can be accountable. They need to be someone who will blow the whistle on you if you do not truly proceed with steps of restoration. In Psalm 32:2 David said, "When I kept silent about my sin, my body wasted away." It may or may not be your body that wastes away but it will be your identity, balance and emotional health that fall apart because of the ravages of guilt and shame.

2. If your sin is "hands on" sin, such as sexual sin or financial impropriety, it needs to be brought out to the leadership team of your ministry. Most always you will need to step down from ministry for a time of restoration. Do not allow pride or fear of losing your calling get in the way. God's primary will for you is to become Christ-like rather than to simply use you in ministry. He loves you for who you are, not merely for what you do!

3. If you are a married leader who has committed adultery, you need to confess this to your spouse. The damage is already being done. Even though they may be ignorant of the actual sin, they are already being hurt. It is only through the process of confession, repentance and forgiveness that true restoration to a loving relationship of trust can be restored. It would be wise to first get good counsel as to how to confess this to family members and the church. Don't be surprised if the forgiveness is preceded by anger over the betrayal. Do, however, realize that the long-term goal of wholeness is worth the cost of bringing the darkness into the light.

4. Even if you are in a good state, work hard at building real relationships of heart to heart communication with your spouse and a few people in your leadership team or church. One of the easiest ways for the enemy to set us up is through isolation. Build relationships so we can easily take care of the "little foxes in the garden" before they turn into raging lions let loose in our souls. Building equity in relationships is like building equity in a home mortgage. It takes time and work. Once you have a lot of equity built up in a relationship, it's just as with your house. In a time of difficulty it is money in the bank and you can borrow on it if need be!

5. Lastly, and most importantly, learn, or perhaps relearn, the art of waiting on God. Many leaders are to be commended for their time spent in intercessory prayer. However, spending time simply gazing upon God, communing with Him and waiting upon His good pleasure is vital to fully walking in the Spirit of the Lord. Without this type of "watching" prayer, as Habakkuk practiced, it is easy to fail to see and hear the warning signs the Holy Spirit would give to us from the quietness of God's heart. It is in this place where we can receive from the Father those minor, easy to fix corrections rather than needlessly heading towards the big judgments that bring everything to a painful halt.

A Heavenly Sound
Cindy Allen

Some time ago, the Holy Spirit began ordering my steps towards those who operated in deliverance ministry and I began to see and experience how the Holy Spirit would operate through deliverance. This is also where He began revealing prophetic evangelism to me. This is simply where He begins a process of gathering a body of people for the sake of manifesting Himself in a way to cause the glory of God to be seen and revealed. When people see, they become and Christ is manifest in them and among them. When and where Christ is manifest, we can be sure signs and wonders will follow.

Even as the Holy Spirit was allowing me to experience how He ministers deliverance in this time, He kept me focused on a time ahead where these acts would cease.

NIV Luke 13:32-33 32 And He said to them, "Go, tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.' 33 Nevertheless I must journey today, tomorrow, and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem. NKJV

It was on Pentecost Sunday a few weeks ago that I had a profound encounter with God while in services this morning. As the worship team was leading worship, I had a vision of myself and "I saw" a blast of air or wind blow on me and into me. My only understanding was that God was about to breathe on me and I was ready! Oftentimes, when we step out in our obedience, we can't see our harvest of how Jesus will manifest or appear to us; we just know He will. This morning I was feeling a heaviness on me.

After worship, our Pastor began ministering through the gifts and something he said sparked my thoughts into another direction. I remember him calling the congregation to raise their voice in prayer, in praise and in worship. As the saints began lifting their voices, some were speaking in tongues, some praying in their natural language. Some sang, some praised. I began to focus on the sound of this and suddenly, I could hear a heavenly sound. It was as a low roar. When I was fully in tune to this sound, all the heaviness and sadness I was carrying before "flew away" from me. It was like a silent "whoosh" and it was all gone. The experience left me with a strong witness in the presence of God and a deep connectedness to Him and in Him. It was totally cleansing and totally pure. Rejoicing, my thoughts immediately went to Acts 2.

Acts 2:1-4 2:1 Now when the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. NKJV

As always, the Holy Spirit operates so far outside my own understanding of how I think He will accomplish a thing or how He will manifest Himself. My focus in this writing is on a vision I was given several years ago where I believe I was being shown the day of Pentecost "FULLY COME" within the church. There will be those who are still familiar with this vision because I've shared it a number of times. It is, by far, the most beautiful open vision I've ever received. The vision actually took place with my eyes closed, but it was so vivid and so alive, I can't call it a night vision.

I was with the Lord in the outer hemisphere of the earth; in space. We were looking on the earth and all the darkness that encompassed her. Suddenly, the Holy Spirit appeared through a very large, very white dove. He descended head first upon the earth. Before I could see Him completely touch down, there was an explosion of the brightest, most beautiful heavenly light I've ever seen. My whole vision was engulfed in this beautiful Light from God. This was the end of my vision.

From this time, the Holy Spirit would continually lead me through allowing me to see where the synergy of this "white light" could be manifest. Synergy is not the Koinonea fellowship I teach about, but synergy takes place within this fellowship. Actually, synergy may be a result of this fellowship. Everything that takes place in the Holy Ghost is not easily defined or expressed. It must be experienced and we just know.

Where iniquity abounds, God will give of His Light and the grace He extends will exceed what the darkness can swallow. Knowing this, we should be strengthened and encouraged to stand without wavering when God places us in the gaps as prophetic intercessors on behalf of His people. This is a time for the Body of Christ to be drawn together in love.

Just as the stars in the night sky bring forth a greater light within the cluster, so does the new wine come forth within it's cluster.

Joel 3:18 8'In that day the mountains will drip new wine, and the hills will flow with milk; all the ravines of Judah will run with water. A fountain will flow out of the LORD's house and will water the valley of acacias.

Be blessed,

Prophetic Intersession

Prophetic Intersession That Stands In The Gaps

I can't think of a single believer who is not called into a lifestyle of prophetic intersession, no matter what their calling may be or where they are placed within the Body. Because our faith is to be shared with others, God created fellowship as a means of allowing the Gospel of Jesus to be revealed within those we share with. Christian fellowship is the only restaurant in town that serves food and drink right out of one's own belly. The bread of God's presence and the living water that flows from before His own Throne to reveal God's Kingdom within those who are so hungry for Him.

In the wonder of the miracles of Jesus feeding the multitudes, I believe the small loaves and fishes were multiplied through the synergy of fellowship that was taking place with those who were gathered with Him. Because of the ranks that Jesus assembled the people in, I know He was revealing His order that was already present within them through His Word. It was as if to say, "See, I can increase you right here, right now. I can prosper you when you see my relationship with My Father." Maybe it was at that moment, He approved their foundations and revealed His glory within their framework.

Heb 11:3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. KJV

............but it is only through faith that we see these things.

Luke 9:14-16
14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company. 15 And they did so, and made them all sit down. 16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

The first thing I see in this miracle is how Jesus would have revealed the order between Father and Son to His people. Using a small amount of food, He revealed how His bread and fishes would be multiplied, even as it was distributed through the ranks. Beginning with His disciples, the bread being multiplied demonstrated how even the very least of those present would potentially receive the most through this order. Those who receive the most do so simply by become the very least.

My first visions of Jesus were of Him tasting the spiritual food that I ate and drank. He didn't partake of this food. Instead, He integrated the needs he discerned into His solutions and plan for my life. With this, He prepared another meal for us both to share in. The meals He prepared always satisfied His desire to heal and my desire to be healed. When the Lord prepares the bread of His fellowship, He sets it before us by invitation. It is through our own personal choice of identifying with Him and submitting ourself to His Lordship that we take and eat of His Body. In doing so, we lay down our own authority that defines how we have conquered life and it's circumstances through our own means and experiences. When we make ourself bare before the Lord by laying down own own Armour of self protection, we immediately expose all of our weaknesses and flaws t! o all who are watching this love relationship take place between us and the Lord. In this place of love and intimacy with the Lord, a trust in Him is formed that completely drives out all fear. From a foundation of trust, God desires to show us secrets of His kingdom that have yet to be known or told. God's desire is to birth the knowledge of these things out of our own heart so that the He is revealed to us through His Son, Jesus. Any other King would have given a written decree stating the terms and conditions of His covenant with us, but God gave His only begotten Son. A living Son who was willing partake of our sufferings and pass through death so that He could reveal His life within us.

As we share our heart with the Lord, He not only hears, but He truly does taste all we give Him. The table He prepares for us reveals our habitation in His dominion being seated at the right hand of God the Father as we are His habitation here on this earth. From faith to faith and from glory to glory, He establishes us in the Kingdom authority He came to impart to us to lead us in a victorious walk of faith. Through the experience of this revelation, the Word of God is written in our heart.

May the hearts of God's people be meshed together as one to prepare a greater habitation for our Lord Jesus.

In love,

Cindy Allen

Submission That Leads to Liberty
Cindy Allen

Hello all,

I wanted to share more of my experiences in true Godly submission that leads to liberty. Understanding more of how and when to apply the cross to our life leads us to walk more consistently in liberty. It's part of our process in growth and maturity to NOT always walk in our comfortable areas of expertise, strength and understanding. The true Christ fellowship of Koinonia flows where there is liberty, so we're first built up in how to walk in liberty consistently so that we can abide in the anointing and stay in true fellowship.

When the Holy Spirit moves on a body to expel and remove what has hindered, He will simultaneously move on the same body to release the spirit of Elijah within their testimony. In one dimension of faith, the crossing of the Jordan River purges us from thoughts and emotions that cause us to become imprisoned through our mind. Another dimension of faith at the same Jordan will expose patterns or traditions that have allowed access to the presence of evil where discernment is darkened. Still, there is another dimension that causes us to "cry out" or release a cry from the spirit that seeks the Holy one and His standard of Truth.

John the Baptist was a voice of one crying out in the wilderness. It is the presence of the one we seek that makes crooked paths straight to prepare us for the habitation of the Lord as a corporate Body. In the atmosphere of the prophetic, the apostolic realm is unveiled to us to reveal a place of consistent fellowship with the Lord. When we are in relationship with Christ, we're in relationship with the Body.

Corporate faith originates from personal faith. When we find ourselves in a place where we can't discern what is true, fear is usually the first thing that rises. The more confidence we gain through the cross, the more we understand how to abide in liberty even where we have no understanding or discernment. I'm not suggesting that we submit ourselves to abuse, but through yielding our heart long enough to allow ourselves to experience the emotions that are taking place where we are challenged, we quickly become free through our own accountability that the cross holds us to. Liberty can't stay yoked in bondage. Liberty takes on the yoke of Christ to cause us to taste the affliction of others in order to minister into their needs. When we understand how to stay liberated, we become less fearful. We first gain confidence in our relationship with the Holy Spirit and become more like Christ through this confidence. Through Christ and IN Him we gain discernment and understanding. Christ IN us releases us like helium causes a balloon to float upward. The higher we go, the more we SEE in liberty.

Godly submission is not yielding through reflex or reactions and it's never forced. Godly submission is always in the Holy Spirit to the Holy Spirit to cause us to identify with Christ (submit to Christ) in others. Godly submission reproduces the life of Christ in us. This takes place where we yield ourselves to those who mutually yield themselves to us for the purpose of Christ becoming manifest and exalted.

Blessings all,

Cindy

The Fear of the Lord

Rev 4:1-6:1 After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this." 2 At once I was in the Spirit, and there before me was a throne in heaven with someone sitting on it. 3 And the one who sat there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian. A rainbow, resembling an emerald, encircled the throne. 4 Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white and had crowns of gold on their heads. 5 From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder. Before the throne, seven lamps were blazing. These are the seven spirits of God. 6 Also before the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal.

Several years ago, in the beginning of learning how to walk in my faith, the Holy Spirit gave me a vision of the crystal sea spoken of in Revelation 4:6 as it pertained to my own personal faith. I was given this vision as well as the applications that the Holy Spirit would reveal so I could understand and experience the difference in "sitting at the gate called beautiful" (Acts 3) and rising up in my faith so I could walk and move forward (Matt 9:6).

In my vision, I was before the Lord and He was seated on the Throne. Between Him and me was a wall of crystal clear water and I discerned this water to be God's presence. When I received this vision, I was such a new Christian that I didn't even recognize that God was giving me a visual expression of His written Word. I had just began tasting of who God really is and was very hungry to learn and experience more of Him.

Through time, the Holy Spirit has progressively used this vision to reveal how deeper worship of God always clothes us in Christ as we tabernacle with Him to rise above any oppression that the enemy would seek to yoke us with. I have also learned that as we are moving "from glory to glory", we are simultaneously being schooled and educated experientially in spiritual things so that we not be ignorant. Knowledge of God through His covenant being revealed to us through Christ destroys the works of the enemy to allow God's people to be free.

As I was standing before the Lord in my vision, I asked Him if I could enter into where He was seated before me, and He responded, "yes". In "this place with the Lord", I desired to move my body and I wanted to come into His presence but found that I could not will my body to move forward. All I could do was stretch out my right hand and place it into the wall of crystal water and I'm sure this only came by the grace of God. I could feel that it was water. I could swish my hand back and forth and see that it was water, but I could not move the rest of my body to propel it forward. I soon learned that MOTION comes in being aligned within God's perfect will and once we are aligned in God's will, it is faith that launches us in God's purposes. Without understanding God's direction and purpose, we can easily become espoused into the enemies plans. In God's perfect will, we not only receive direction, but we know and experience His heart, motives and character in all that He purposes to accomplish. Being one with God in His will, we are released as one being sent in God's purposes as sons and daughters. The Holy Spirit will continually sharpen our discernment as we yield ourselves more and more to His promptings towards obedience.

Kairos times are revealed through the witness of the Holy Spirit and this discernment is sharpened through our relationship with Him. Kairos times are appointed times in the spirit and are very significant for our growth and moving forward in our faith. Forgive me for being repetitious here, but we should allow ourselves to expect supernatural encounters with God. This is part of His nature.

It has been my experience that when the Holy Spirit is in the process of gathering these chosen ones, transition always pulls us from one direction of motion, or order, into the new order of God's predestined purposes and plans. Stuff happens in the process, but discernment causes us to tune out the voice of the world so we can tune into the voice of God and stay completely focused on PURPOSE.

It was within these Kairos times that the Holy Spirit began teaching me that worship goes far beyond standing in a Sunday morning service with my hands raised. Our worship is expressed through obedience because God prefers this over sacrifice.

To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams. 23 For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. NIV

It is within the path of obedience that we are met with challenges and opposition, but staying aligned to God's will through the cross causes the us to be strengthened as we are being challenged. Through loosing our own life, we loose all fear and intimidation of man. Where the fear of man is removed, we gain the fear of the Lord.

Prov 9:10
10 "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

There is nothing like the experience of the fear of the Lord. There is such an experience of awesomeness and reverence in knowing Him and His love for us. A love that is so great that it has the power to produce a brokenness in us to cause us to be immediately transformed and conformed to the image and likeness of the one we are beholding and who is beholding us.

How and where do we find these doors in heaven spoken of in Rev 4 that will sharpen our discernment after the things of the spirit to cause us to be manifest sons and daughters rising to glory? At the threshold of it's counterfeit - the fear of man. When we no longer yield ourselves to the works of fear and intimidation of man, this door is permanently closed. In defining the works of fear and intimidation, we not only refuse to yield ourselves in fear of man, but neither do we operate in a way to intimidate others to bring control. In yielding our bodies only to the righteousness of God, heaven's door (Jesus) can never be closed to us and we find ourselves in a steady and consistent flow of progressing forward in our faith to flood the earth with God's glory. The living (crystal) waters that flows from our bellies will always serve as the plumb line of Truth that keeps us connected and directed to the Throne of God's grace.

38 Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, streams of living water will flow from within him."

Rev 7:17
17 For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd; He will lead them to springs of living water. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Blessings all,

Cindy

Prov 2:1-8
My son, if you accept my words and store up my commands within you, 2 turning your ear to wisdom and applying your heart to understanding, 3 and if you call out for insight and cry aloud for understanding, 4 and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure, 5 then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God. 6 For the LORD gives wisdom, and from his mouth come knowledge and understanding. 7 He holds victory in store for the upright, he is a shield to those whose walk is blameless, 8 for he guards the course of the just and protects the way of his faithful ones.

Prov 9:10
10 "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

Prov 14:27
27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, turning a man from the snares of death.

Prov 15:33
33 The fear of the LORD teaches a man wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

Prov 22:4
4 Humility and the fear of the LORD bring wealth and honor and life.

1 John 4:18
18 There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.

A Humble Submittal To The Saints
Vincent Xavier

Jan 3, 2004
"I want to share a dream with you that I had [a few] nights ago. The dream for the most part is obscured and scattered but at the end of it something appeared that has stayed fixed in my mind. I saw a black phone with the number 13 on it. (I did not eat Pizza the night before) I have been going over this for the past few days and seeing that phone over and over again. I shared the dream with my wife and her immediate response was WITCHCRAFT.

AS I have been thinking about it I have come to some pretty sobering conclusions about what I saw. I believe there is a CALL going forth to the realms of darkness that we have not yet seen before. A mischief of the darkest kind is brewing in the atmosphere, a mischief so dark and so subtle that most will only have a small perception of it unless one declares to them what they have sensed.

I have heard the words RECESSION and ASSASSINATION. I have warned this nation of a terrible storm called Euroclydon that is about to hit America. We saw the first fruits of this storm with the power outages on the East Coast, the hurricane that struck the Eastern seaboard of the U.S. and then the Fires that raged in Southern California.

We have experienced a measure of peace since early November, yet I sense another wind is about to blow. It may be due to the idolatry and commercialism associated with this time of the year, the war in Iraq and a host of other situations taking place presently. I have warned that this nation has crossed the line of no return since the Law Of God was removed from the halls of so called justice.

Since the winds have died down and a measure of peace has surface the Spirit has revealed to me the great month of MARCH 2004 as a time of ACCOMPLISHMENT. The Lord has shown me through His word that beginning in March there will come epic events that will cause the nations of the earth to reel to and fro, and that these events have everything to do with the Kingdom of God being manifested in the earth.

It was once said of the Apostles that they had TURNED THE WORLD UPSIDE DOWN, and I believe the world is about to be turned upside down once again by the Spirit of God through His people. However, there is an urgency in my spirit beginning to stir concerning the next few months. Obviously a special assignment has been sent out against the President of the United States to ASSASSINATE him. A vigilant prayer covering must be built up stronger than it has ever been for this man.

Another obvious plot against this nation is to bring further destruction in the realm of killing and death that will cause the Economic system to finally collapse, yes even amongst our greatest times. A RECESSION has been called for and certain events will usher it in. Now please understand that I am not standing as a United States representative, because I am not. I am not an ambassador for this country or any other country in this world, but I stand fully devoted to the Heavenly Country, the Kingdom of God as a representative and ambassador of HIS. As a representative I am compelled to warn this nation as well as all others of the coming establishment of the Kingdom of God in the earth.

To those who belong to it a great time of rejoicing has come, for those who have resisted it a great day of wrath has come. I believe that what has been feared is about to come upon this nation. This nation called America does not stand guiltless before the judicial throne of Justice in the heavenlies. America is guilty of many crimes and as she judges her sins too shall be judged. Be watchful for the judgment against Sadam Hussein. America's own politicians have and continue to break every law known to man and have walked in such deception that now their eyes cannot see the truth.

I am writing these things to you who have ears to hear so that you will not be led away with the error of the wicked. There is a darkness that falls greater than any other right before the dawn. And no doubt we have come to the dawn of a new day and the light of that day shall surely shine, hopefully quicker than we think. But at this very moment the darkness is thickening, not diminishing.

All are going to give an account before God whether they are Jews, Gentiles, Heathen, Barbarian or the like. I say all will give an account and first of all those in the Church. While I have sensed a great measure of prayer within this country during the past several weeks, and have witnessed the peace and seen the fruits of it, there still remains a Babylonian mindset and a self-sufficient spirit in the masses who live in this country. Sin is not being dealt with at a national level.

The Lord Jesus Christ said of Jerusalem that Tyre and Sidon would rise up in the judgment against her for her unrepentant ways and the Lord is saying to America that because you have refused to repent on a national level you too will come into judgment with Tyre and Sidon, or should I say Iraq and Afghanistan?

There is a darkness coming over the land. Be not afraid saints of God, Be glad and rejoice for the Lord will do great things in your midst, but do not forget the Lords Justice. I caution each one that is reading this or hearing this word to BE READY! Be on the watch! "

Twelve Stones

12-05-03

It is written in the Book of Joshua that there were TWELVE men out of the TWELVE tribes who were to carry a STONE into the Jordan River and were to build a monument so that future generations would understand the greatness of Almighty God. In the book of ACTS there are TWELVE Apostles, whose deeds have become a monument unto us.

A monument is
1. “SOMETHING SET UP TO KEEP ALIVE THE MEMORY OF A PERSON OR EVENT, AS A TABLET, STATUE, PILLAR, BUILDING, ETC.”

2. A STRUCTURE SURVIVING FROM A FORMER PERIOD.

3. A WRITING OR THE LIKE SERVING AS A MEMORIAL.

4. A WORK, PRODUCTION, ETC. OF ENDURING VALUE OR SIGNIFICANCE.

According to this definition of a monument, the Book of Acts has been written in order to KEEP ALIVE what God did do! The purpose of the Word of God is to remind His people of what he has done throughout the ages.

Today, as we are living in the BEST OF THE BEST OF TIMES, we are being prepared for the greatest acts of God ever known to Man. By understanding, perceiving, agreeing and believing in what God has done in times past, we will be more prepared to receive what he is about to do.

The Book of Acts is the territory for the Third Day Church! We are being called into a Book of Acts experience with the promise of greater works than what have been. We are living in the season of the DOUBLE PORTION and therefore need to be expecting greater acts now then when the book of Acts was first written. So, the book of Acts today is serving the Church living in the Third Day, helping us understand where we are going! It is, again, the TERRITORY of the Church today!

There are THREE witnesses to an exponential event that is going to take place in the month of March 2004. We have said that the year 2004 is the YEAR OF ACCOMPLISHMENT, or the YEAR OF SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION. During this year there is going to come a great RELEASE in the people of God. This RELEASE is going to take them (the church) to their HIGH PLACE.

The CHURCH refers to all people of every tribe, tongue and culture who have called upon the name of the Lord. This CHURCH is going to walk and ride upon the high places of the earth, and their release is going to come EXPONENTIALLY!

The THREE witnesses have come through the book of Joel, the gospel of John and the book of Joshua. In the book of Joel, chapter 2:21-32 the mystery is revealed. It is therein declared that in the month of March, according to our present calendar, the EARLY and LATTER rain is going to come upon the SEED, the CHURCH. This rain as we have said before is the Hebrew meaning for TEACHING! The Early and Latter rain are the teachings that are going to actually release Gods people from all bondage and corruption. New mindsets are going to be established, as old ones are undone. A new perception is going to come forth as the veil is taken away and the light of truth begins to shine in the deepest recesses of the heart of Gods people. The dawning of the new day is going to first appear in the heart of the CHURCH. The revelation of the Spirit of God and the Kingdom of God are going to catapult Gods people into their destiny and calling, as chains of death and decay are broken. The TEACHING that is coming forth is going to BREAK and DESTROY the YOKE of bondage.

The Book of Joel speaks to the CHURCH TODAY and is declaring the time of resurrection power. That which has died is coming back to life with greater power than before its death. A new environment is going to appear in the Church and in the cities of the world. The arising of the militant triumphant Church is going to be seen and witnessed by those who are left and inhabit the cities.

The Church is going to be gathering together in homes across the land. Home-fellowships will not be just a movement for the sake of doing something new but will be the houses of restoration. In the home shall the glory of the Spirit of God abide, as a special anointing for healing shall be released. God’s people will bask in HIS presence and all attempts at performance with old church mindsets will be gone.

The presence of the Lord shall be so precious that those who lead in those homes will have a special anointing of discernment as to who is permitted into the home. For some will come who have no pure desire for CHRIST and shall desire to come into the comfort of the Spirit but will not be allowed to do so, because the carnality of their lives.

The leaders shall perceive through the gift of discernment that this person will QUENCH the Spirit if allowed in and will therefore not allow that person to pass into the home. (The Spirit gave me a vision of this in 1993) The homes of chosen vessels will be open throughout the week and the teaching that goes forth, will be followed by signs and wonders. Lives will be radically changed and transformed and MANY will be brought into the Kingdom through the Witness of the CHURCH.

The leaders in these homes will be PASTORS. The PASTORS will be subject to the APOSTLES that are in each city. The Apostles will bring forth a RECONFIGURING WORD, which will bring about the FORM in each person, that FORM is CHRIST!

There will be no challenge as to WHO is in control, for once again, JESUS CHRIST WILL BE THE HEAD OF THE CHURCH. His divine order will be realized and accepted just as it was in the BOOK OF ACTS! The people will prosper under the unction and anointing of the APOSTLE, PROPHET, EVANGELIST, TEACHER AND PASTOR!

The Evangelist will go from house to house with an inspired message from the Fathers heart. The PASTOR will take care for the people. The Teachers will break down the message that is prophesied.

Understanding shall be quickened in the minds of the people. Questions shall be answered immediately and the lights will go on. Leadership will have great power and authority, for the Lord will confirm his presence upon and within them, however, the leadership of the CHURCH will be humble!

There will not be the push for position, recognition or reward. The new leadership will take the reigns of authority from those who have abused their power. The new leadership will not be arrogant, self-centered or self- exalted in heart or mind. The only agenda of this new leadership will be the PERFECTION OF THE ONE NEW MAN IN THE EARTH! The witness of true ministry will be effective fruit! The production of FRUIT will abound under their care! The fruit of the Spirit will be abundantly released and the CHURCH will be the tree from which the nations shall EAT and be healed!

The CHURCH shall be brought to her high place and all the nations of the earth shall see and wonder at the grace of God manifested in her! She will be pure and holy.

Understand that the CLEANSING WORD has already accomplished its work! The First TWO days of the CHURCH have been cleansing and refining days but this is the THIRD DAY, the DAY wherein GOD WILL COME BACK INTO THE SIGHT OF HIS PEOPLE! The Time has come for the CHURCH to arise to her destiny and calling! She is now washed! She is now cleansed! She is now sanctified! She is now complete and ready to enter into her appointed place of Governmental authority! The church has been called to rule and reign over all the powers of darkness and she shall with the Lord of Glory rule the nations with a rod of IRON! She shall break in pieces every nation that will not bow to the KINGDOM OF GOD!

The Prophet Joel also declares to us that a time of great joy is coming to the HOUSE! We are told to FEAR NOT, BE GLAD AND REJOICE! This is the present word for the CHURCH. No matter what things appear to be or whatever may take place in the next THREE MONTHS we are NOT TO FEAR! I know that fearful events are going to come during the months of DECEMBER, JANUARY and FEBRUARY! These events may take place in an individual way in peoples lives or they will take place in National and International ways.

Whatever the case may be, BE PREPARED NOW! Prepare your spirit with JOY AND GLADNESS! Everyday make it a point to release gladness and rejoicing in your spirit. Pray with gladness! Sing with gladness. Rejoice for what the Lord is ABOUT TO DO! Some may rejoice for what he has done, but many are to REJOICE for what he has promised to do in the month of MARCH! By learning to be glad and rejoice right now you will be prepared to receive what Father is about to give to you. Great measures of abundance are coming to you! You are going to get back the years the enemy has devoured! All the years of pain and agony, hurt and depression are going to be restored. In one moment! In one season all the years of pain and sorrow shall vanish! Your new reality will consume those years and you shall walk in complete victory.

It is at this time the miracles will begin to manifest. Many that have been bedridden and constantly sick are going to be set free and are going to leap for Joy at the works of Almighty God through whatever vessel he chooses to work through! GREAT, GREAT, GREAT miracles are determined! The blind shall see! The deaf shall hear! The lame shall walk! The lepers shall be cleansed! The dead shall rise! FREEDOM! FREEDOM! FREEDOM! DELIVERANCE! DELIVERANCE! DELIVERANCE! There shall be DELIVERANCE in the house of GOD!

Please refer to the word I sent to you concerning Joel’s Prophesy a few weeks ago. Please read it again and again. It shall surely come to pass! Remember when the Lord told the disciples to go to Jerusalem and WAIT FOR THE PROMISE? So now WAIT for this promise! Look at what the disciples were doing while they were waiting. They were gathering together, praying in ONE ACCORD! They were searching the Scriptures and looking for what needed to be fulfilled. The Lord Jesus said that ALL SCRIPTURES CONCERNING HIM in the PSALMS, THE LAW AND THE PROPHETS WERE FULFILLED, yet the Apostle Peter said in Acts that “THIS SCRIPTURE CONCERNING JUDAS, MUST BE FULFILLED”. There are many Scriptures that must be fulfilled at this time in order for the CHURCH to be prepared for what is about to happen.

Spend time in the word studying the scriptures. By doing so you may have the RECONFIGURING WORD for your local fellowship. This reconfiguring will enable the church to be better positioned for the things to come.

As you study Joel's Prophecy and break it down into its original meaning from Chapter 2:21, through 2:32, you will begin to see what has been determined by the SPIRIT OF PROPHECY for today. The next witness that came through the WORD was in John 19. While Jesus was hanging on the cross, IT IS WRITTEN THAT Jesus KNEW ALL THINGS WERE NOW ACCOMPLISHED. (John 19:28.) In verse 30 he said IT IS FINISHED! It says in verse 31 that this Sabbath was a HIGH DAY. The HIGH DAY was during the PASSOVER, which is celebrated in the First month, which according to the Hebrew calendar is MARCH. I declare unto you that MARCH is a FINISHING MONTH. Your labor, frustration, concern, and all cares are going to come to an end. The finished work, the ACCOMPLISHED WORK OF CHRIST IS GOING TO MANIFEST IN THE CHURCH!

As I have said before, because we live in the age of ENOCH, who was the SEVENTH from Adam, the TRANSLATION is before us. The Greek meaning for TRANSLATION as recorded in the Book of Hebrews, is THE DISESTABLISHMENT OF LAW. The law that was disestablished by Enoch was the law of SIN AND DEATH. We are speaking here of a generation who will fulfill the Scripture in 1Corinthians 15, concerning the CHANGE, or the TRANSFORMATION, or the TRANSFIGURATION! This generation will be CHANGED in a moment! The Greek meaning for MOMENT is AN INDIVISIBLE TIME! There is no dividing of this time. You cannot take a piece of this time away. You may be able to divide an ATOM, which is so small, but you cannot divide this MOMENT wherein the CHANGE will take place.

Since we are living in the SEVENTH DAY, it becomes clear that this CHANGE is speaking to us. For the change shall take place at the sounding of the SEVENTH TRUMPET! Is it possible that what is going to take place in March is going to radically cause our paradigms to shift? Is it possible that the SEVENTH MILLENNIUM PROMISE, wherein SATAN shall be bound and cast into a pit for a THOUSAND years and the DEAD shall rise and those who were beheaded shall come into their places of authority has come? Are we being moved into the fulfillment of Revelation Chapter Twenty?

If so, then the heavens will be opened and the ladder of God will be available for those who travel from one dimension to the next. In other words, through our Incorruptible bodies, which we will receive in a MOMENT, there will be no restraint! We will have the ability to travel like Jesus did after his resurrection. We shall appear in one place and vanish from another. Is it possible that these things are nearer than what we have thought? I know that the month of March is going to produce something great, but could the greatness of the season bring forth more than what we are presently expecting? What am I saying? I believe (not know) the fullness of the KINGDOM OF GOD is going to manifest without a veil in the year 2004, and that the months of March and June are going to be the producer months. IT IS FINISHED, said the Lord on the cross two thousand years ago!

The THIRD witness came to me through the Book of Joshua. I was reading the story of the great CROSSING from the wilderness to the PROMISE LAND. I found in the Fourth Chapter and the Nineteenth verse that the MIRACLE CROSSING took place on the Twenty Fifth Day of MARCH! Again, MARCH shows up as a time of TRANSITION! Are we prepared to CROSS OVER to the other side? Are we ready? Could our crossing be into another dimension? Could we be prepared to escape the power of gravity and go finally where no man has gone before? Could this be the time of our acceleration into all the promises of God? The Bible says it is!

The Bible, God's coded Book is being revealed and the message is becoming clearer every day that this is the time for the great transition of the Church! Perhaps it will be a simple thrust into greater effectiveness and ministry. Perhaps there will be an increase of anointing and power. But quite possibly what is about to take place is going to transcend what any of us has ever thought or dreamed! Are you ready! Are you FULL OF FAITH? You must be! You must be full of faith, for the man ENOCH was a man of Faith. It was said of Him that his testimony was that he PLEASED GOD! And what always pleases God? FAITH!

Can you believe for a mighty miracle in your life? How about a NEW BODY, a glorified body? How about a new body without sickness, disease and death? What about a body without corruption or decay? Can you believe for this now? Are all the witnesses being revealed in Gods word just for another religious experience or an average advancement into spiritual things?

NO! The Book of Joshua said that the MIRACLE CROSSING takes place in MARCH! What is interesting is that the verse that reveals the date is Joshua 4:19. It is Galatians 4:19 that the APOSTLE PAUL travails for CHRIST to be formed in YOU! Could the crossing over be from one form to another? Could the NEW MAN arise in the earth at this time, as an INDESTRUCTIBLE NEW MAN, one that can never die? Can we believe for the greatness of GOD?

The Book of ACTS, is about the witness of TWELVE APOSTLES. The WITNESS of the CROSSING in Joshua’s day were TWELVE STONES that were taken out of the Jordan River at the time of the crossing and Twelve Stones that were erected in the River. These TWELVE STONES were to be a MEMORIAL, a MONUMENT for the people that WOULD COME. We are the people that “would come” and our monument is the BOOK OF ACTS. Those Twelve Stones, the Apostles declare unto us what God did do and what God is about to do, yet GREATER!

Read it! Look at it! Explore it and pray it! Ask God to bring it to pass! Let your thirst and hunger grow! Jesus said I THIRST! For what? He thirsted for what LIE AHEAD OF THE CROSS and for what was beyond his present suffering. Will you thirst? Will you allow your spirit to groan for the things that have been written? Do it! You will never be the same!

An Invitation to The Bride

Mark Kaphaem

Friends, Fellow lovers of Jesus.

Please pray for the Bride of Christ this week.

I feel there is a supernatural invitation going out to the bride of Christ this week with the release of the movie "The Passion of The Christ". An invitation to enter into a level of Love that many have never even dreamed of. But it will come at great cost.

I ask that you intercede for those seeing the movie this week. I also would ask you prepare you hearts before you go. (Please keep me in pray also).

The invitation I see coming to the bride is being delivered by angel with a great sword in his hands. The sword has one side that is filled with flames of fire and is red hot but the other side of the sword is cold and covered in Ice.

This invitation is coming to call the church out of lukewarmness. For those who respond they will be returned to their first love and to a face to face relationship with the Groom as the Head of church. But for those who reject the invitation there will be no room left to be lukewarm.

Now is the time to fill your lampstands with oil and prepare yourselves to meet the Groom.

As I Have Loved You

JOHN 15 10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father’s commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.
12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.
13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

1. John 03
14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

My Children! Even if somebody gives everything, yet I see the heart! Even if somebody gives all he possesses, yet I look for the giver (for his undivided heart) and not for the gifts. At first, each one examine his heart, and not the deeds and gifts of the fellow man/ other one/ next one. Examine yourself that you will not be tempted, and the snare will not overtake you!

Do not look at what the other one is doing to you, but at what I would like you doing to the other one! Love one another with the love with which I have loved you! For when you do not love one another just as I love you, I cannot send you!

1. Peter 02
15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:
16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.
17 Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

Love For The Brethren
Olivia Long

(faithfuildersministries@the-i.neT)

"He that Loveth not, Knoweth not God."

There are those amongst you who speak of loving others but your ego depicts quite a different story. You "claim" to know My Word but you harbor offence against others if they don't adhere to every doctrine that you utter. You "claim" to know Me but your forsake My Word for if you do not love your brethren whom you do see, how can you say your love ME, whom you do not see? Love amongst the brethren is one of the most crucial tests for My Beloved but unfortunately many are not passing the test.

I ask you, is your heart filled with ME as you profess, or do your actions speak otherwise? I have given you My truth and it is My desire for you to live it!!! And My truth is that there is to be love, My love, amongst the brethren.

Hear Me, I will only tolerate My children operating in My Divine Love, not out of your own egos and having your own way. If you live in the Spirit then you must walk in the Spirit, not desirous of vain glory nor provoking or envying one another.

Many proclaim to be amongst My Chosen Ones but there is a tendency for many of you to fight your doctrinal differences to the finish and in doing so you believe that you are doing Me a favor. You want everyone to agree with you over every issue. Beloved it is NOT your place to force anything upon anyone. Some of you are like diamonds cutting glass. You will cut and scratch any of the brethren because of your hardness.

I will have My precious jewels, My diamonds but there "must" be character and integrity (Lauterkeit) even in your differences. I say it again "I WILL have character and integrity" amongst My Chosen Ones. Nothing less will suffice! My heart is sorely grieved over what is happening. It is like a cancer eating away amongst My own and believe Me I WILL cut out that cancer.

I WILL NOT allow offense.

I WILL NOT tolerate smear campaigns against the brethren.

I WILL NOT tolerate hypocrisy of any kind amongst My own.

I WILL NOT allow individual egos to hurt others of the brethren.

I WILL NOT tolerate betrayals amongst My children.

No matter your differences, I ask you, do you agree in the supreme (erhaben) love that you have for Me?

Beloved, you are all washed by the same blood, given the same grace and you all believe where your final destiny lies... Therefore ... you are to love each other with a pure heart ... A love for the brethren which is kind and compassionate.

I ask you to be ever watchful against tempers and doctrinal differences which "weaken" your brotherly love. Love, humility and brokenness, if these are not included in your doctrine then your doctrine is not sound. Some of you believe you possess good sound doctrines, BUT, if you don't have true love for your brethren everything you have built will collapse. The effects of a narrow, suspicious or a selfish spirit are much too evident amongst professors of Me and My gospel.

I AM the I AM and hear Me, I WILL NOT BE MOCKED!!! Many who profess to "KNOW ME" - "TRULY KNOW ME" are DECEIVING themselves with a form of godliness. You may abound in knowledge and gifts and possess much of My truth in which to enlighten others but it will come to not unless your desire is to be a TRUE FOLLOWER OF MINE. If so, you will seek one standard, the love of the brethren .... without this, all else will be to no avail.

Love for the brethren... You know you have passed from death unto life if you truly possess it. Do you truly possess it or are you full of yourselves wanting to have your own way? Love for the brethren, for My sake!! "By this shall men know that you are My disciples if you love one another."

I cannot make it any clearer than this and to take it a step further the consequences are equally clear that though you speak with the tongues of angels, have the knowledge of all mysteries, walk in miracles having zeal for the truth ... yet... if you do not have love for the brethren you are as sounding brass or tinkling cymbals. You may make a great noise in the quest for truth BUT IN MY SIGHT - your faith is dead !!!!

The I AM has given you truth and that truth is that the brethren are to dwell together in peace and harmony. You are NOT to bear grudges in your own heart against any of your fellow brethren!! You are NOT to retaliate (vergelten) with words spoken against them to others!!!

You ARE to love them as you love yourselves and to provide for their needs whenever it is in your power to do so for how can you have My love in you when you refuse to help your needy brother? If you truly love ME, then you will love the brethren, it's as simple as that.

I am about to usher in My Glory but do not be deceived My beloved, I WILL have love amongst the brethren. I say again, I WILL ABIDE NOT the contentions, discord and schisms in your hearts! I WILL ABIDE NOT your pride, jealousy or control over others!

I WILL ABIDE NOT the unrighteous judgment that works from your own flesh! You must learn to resolve differences without harboring bitterness, resentment or anger.

For those who have spoken out against their brethren, I SHALL EXECUTE JUSTICE!!!! Your mouth speaks forth blessings and cursings. For those who have spoken against any of your brethren to others, REPENT NOW for by your words you shall see My justice and I WILL EXECUTE JUSTICE!!!!

I am a Holy God, a God of Righteousness and Justice. I employ you now to seek righteousness in every area of your walk. Ask forgiveness and repent now for words spoken against any of your brethren and seek restitution where it is possible.

If My words are not heeded, you WILL see My Divine Justice! To those of you who have been maligned by your brethren, let it go, do not try to fix it! I Am your defender, therefore do not try to fix that which is MY responsibility.

I alone shall lift you up, I and I alone.... No one, I say it again, No one can stop the destiny that I have for those who truly follow Me in every way.

Unlovingness
By B. Schlink

The greatest thing of all-in time and in eternity-is love. That is why there is no greater guilt than the sin against love.

We were created in the image of God, who is Love, and after the fall we were redeemed to love through our Lord Jesus Christ. Nothing pierces God's heart more deeply than our not reflecting His image of love. Yes, the Apostle Paul states in 1 Corinthians 13 that we are nothing and that our supposedly loving deeds like "giving away all we have" or "delivering our bodies to be burned" are also nothing. All our words and actions, our whole being, have to be filled with love; otherwise, no matter what we do, we will constantly become guilty towards others.

What does unlovingness include? It is passing by one's neighbour's needs and gentle requests; it is the beginning of unmercifulness. We are not really interested in others; we are not merciful to them; we do not sympathize with them. We cannot rejoice with our neighbours and we cannot cry with them. We do not spoil them with our love, we are not kind to them when they are overlooked or humiliated.

Sometimes our forgetfulness, which we try to excuse by saying that we had so much to do, is nothing but our great unwillingness to love others. But even when we seem to be working for others and busily helping them, we may actually only be trying to satisfy our own egos. Then we do not hear the Holy Spirit, when He quietly admonishes us; and when it is really important, when others really need our help, we can be very unloving.

There are not enough words to express all the damage unlovingness can do. Without realizing it, we can drive sad and discouraged people into despair, we can crush their souls by taking away their last hope. And yet we think that we have not done anything wicked, we were "just a bit unloving". But if we try to make this sin of unlovingness seem harmless, we are deceiving ourselves. We have not seen our behaviour in Jesus' light and heard what He has to say about it. That is the only thing that matters and we will be judged accordingly one day.

One of the most amazing words of judgment that Jesus spoke, that hits us to the core, was directed at the unloving, who pass by the needs of others, "Depart from me, you cursed!" (Matt. 25: 41). Only if we have been "shaken up" by these words, will we no longer be able to persevere blindly in the sin of unlovingness.

Because it is so easy for us to deceive ourselves through self-righteousness, we ought to yearn to see our words and actions towards our neighbours in the light of God. He has to show us our unlovingness so that we will fight against it. At the end of our life we will be judged according to love. Then it will be of no avail to prove that we have not committed any coarse sins such as betrayal, blasphemy or slander.

For the Holy Scriptures include this sin of unlovingness in its list of serious sins (Rom. 1:31; 2 Tim. 3:3). And when Jesus pronounces His devastating verdict, "Depart from me, you cursed", it means "into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels" (Matt. 25: 41).

Whoever does not want God to pass this sentence on him has to get to the bottom of his unlovingness in order to deal with it. The root of unlovingness is self-love. We love ourselves so much, and are so involved in ourselves, that we do not have any interest or time left over for others. Why do we love ourselves so much? Because we are separated from God, the eternal Love. "By this we know we love the children of God, when we love God" (1 John 5: 2). We do not love God; that is the real reason for our sin of unlovingness. That is the first thing that we must recognize: our relationship to God is not in order. We have not given Him our first love; we are not at one with Him.

That is why love cannot stream forth from our hearts to others. Instead we are indifferent, or what is even worse, harsh to everyone or to certain people. We are living apart from Jesus, ignoring His commandment to love others. This is where we have to begin to repent. We must ask for a repentant heart, because we do not love God and our neighbour.

God, who has promised to answer earnest prayer, will let us repent of our sin against the first commandment, not loving God above all things and our neighbour as ourselves. If we come to Jesus' cross with a repentant heart, we will hear His words, "It is finished!", "Fear not, for I have redeemed you!" He has also redeemed us from our unlovingness so that we can love. Yes, these words, "It is finished", have opened a new fount; His love will flow into us through His precious blood. Love has been purchased for us. Whoever asks for it will receive it. He will receive eyes to see the needs and sufferings of others, hands which do good deeds, and above all a heart that is on fire and overflows with love.

Could there be any other prayer which Jesus would rather answer than the prayer for love? Scripture says that it is the greatest of all. He has redeemed us so that we may be remade in His image, so that we may bear the image of love, the most beautiful image that man can bear. By loving, we will learn how to love. Then we will receive grace at the end of our life, when we have to appear before the judgment seat of Christ. Instead of hearing the devastating words, "Depart from me, you cursed", we will hear the words of grace, "Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom!" (Matt. 25: 34).

O Jesus, since You are perfect Love, I will ask You: Do not tolerate anything in me that goes against love. Help me to hate my unlovingness and grant me a repentant heart, which will lead to new life. Grant me eyes to see when I have passed by others, when I have hurt them. Give me Your light and show me when I have let others wait in vain for a loving glance, word or deed. Because You have shed Your blood to redeem me to love, You must see Your redemption manifest in my life. I will not give up, until this change comes to pass in me, that Your love comes to life in me and flows forth from me. To the glory of Your name You will accomplish this and lead me to eternal salvation in Your kingdom.

AMEN.
God bless you all!
Your brother, Werner (from Germany)

Arise In My Compassion
June Sanders

"Hope deferred had made your heart sick and filled your life with pain. Promotion seemed far fetched as your accusers stole your gain. Your whimpering for deliverance and your faintest sigh; Have worked together for good, from groaning to full out cry.

Have you ever been abandoned? No, My Child, you have not! You cannot recall a time I did not show up when things got hot. For the Faith I placed within you will never prove untrue. It gives Hope to the hopeless, Sight to the Blind - Renews their View and Changes their Mind.

The process of your dying to each longing of your soul; Occurs each day as you turn loose and grasp hold of My goal. The Birthing of a Vision planned to Set My Captives Free; Is being stitched into tapestry, from your stance hard to see.

The threads are knotted and crisscrossed from your point of view; Until you choose to rise above to see things as I do. The radiance and beauty of your Faith displayed in Me; Has imploded your existence for all eternity.

My Life has burst inward into the essence of each cell. Expressing My Glory through you. All evil to expel. Seek No Longer Power That Lives Resident IN You. Arise IN My Compassion. Let Me Speak. Make All Things New."

My Suddenlies
June Sanders

"Search not for the things I have promised. They now surround you. My Grace to Cope, My Manifested Hope have brought you through. Your environment is changing, more Favorable and True. Rearranging years of pain, bringing My Joy into View. I have Removed the Stumbling Blocks of Lies and Double Talk That were strewn along your path to Trip Up Your Walk. You Were Ordained To Walk with Me, An Overcomer's Stride. Advance, My Child, Make Rapid Progress. I Am On Your Side. You Will Soon Behold A Revival - A True Renaissance. A Change of Mood Will Intrude - Filled With My Ambiance. My Suddenlies have just begun and yet you know tis true. That My Promises made to you are coming into view. Now step into the arena of your predestined role. Communication will bridge the gap. Enlarge and make whole."

Rejoicing In Our Brier Patch
June Sanders

COURAGE FROM THE THRONE

"Among grieving thorns and thistles, My child you have survived. Your eyes see and ears hear of rewards reaped by those who strived; To cut off the prophetic influence of the Soul of God residing in you and directing each step that you trod. You no longer feel the pricking briers of the Souls of Pride, who threw you in the brier patch, thinking I was on their side. Like `Brer Rabbit' you Rejoiced and came through their trap alive, for among the thorns and thistles My Children grow and thrive. 'Prick Proof Souls' manifest best when Old Self comes to it's end. Taking on the Mind of Christ and then choosing to depend... Upon My Resurrection Power Within; that sustains My Joy despite the pains, transforming Losses into Gains.

Rejoice in your Brier Patch, among the thorns you are a Rose to bloom and reap where you were planted in the place I chose. You will now demonstrate My Glory through a yielded life. Possessed by Me to be an 'Overcomer' of all strife. For years you have met the needs of many at My command. Needs that now are so great, I allow to flow through your hand Angelic Distribution to fulfill the great demand. The tears you shed are mine to feed the hungry in your land. The Storehouse I provided will be filled with food again. Three times you evicted imposters who could not remain. You are swift to do My bidding when I warn you in dreams. My dreams renew vision. All things are other than it seems. Your enemies were mine My child and they have been subdued. Uncovered and arrested that your life might be renewed. Now waltz into tomorrow in the Dance of Life with Me. Preserving Life and ending strife as We Set Captives Free." Blessed Be The Lord God of Our Salvation. Shalom, Love, Joy and Blessed Freedom in Him, June Sanders

All Is Not As It Seems

Carla Rickard

Oh Great Nation. Are you watching? Are you watching? All is not as it seems. All is not what you see with your eyes, and your desperate hope. There will be those who will fall, fall, fall. Can you stop it? No, because you have perpetuated it with your vain imaginations. Do you truly have Victory? You will see what I AM doing after it has come to pass and you will mourn for the foolishness of your vain imaginations.

Now to you Oh Canada. Pray for mercy for you're borders will be enlarged so fast you will feel more of an identity crisis. Oh through this, you will not look the same. You will be forced by the strange Invasion that will come upon you. You will be so perplexed. You will ask what is happening and the speed of the occurrences will be such that there will be a great declaration in the land that the end times are upon you. Many in the church will gloat as Canada is threatened but I warn you now, do not gloat for you will have what you have sown. To those quick to show mercy. Be ready. There will be many who will come to you, beg you for mercy from Your God. This is not a war that is typical of what you have seen. It is more deceptive. It is a war that determines to break the spirit of identity.

But the Lord laughs at the derision of the wicked. I hear His Voice Cry Out

"IT IS NOT AS IT SEEMS MY CHILDREN. IT IS NOT AS IT SEEMS. YOU ARE STILL SLEEPING, WAKE UP WAKE UP "

I HEAR THE LORD SPEAK.

"Stop declaring who is mine and who is not. Do you know the heart of man that you can judge it? I hear those of MY HOUSE speaking shall it be Paul Martin or Stephen Harper? Who is the Christian? The Catholic or the Fundamentalist? I speak to you now and say STOP! My ears are pricked by the wickedness of your judgmental tongues. For this cause I will move upon this government in a new way and show forth my glory by confounding the wise in the foolish things. You will call it corruption. I will call it vindication. You will call it unrighteousness. I will call it favor. Who are you to tell the Almighty Jehovah, the Lord of Hosts? Have you made man? Have you held the worlds together with your word? Wake up out of your stupor lest I come upon you quickly"

An Impartation Of Grace

Musa Opiyo

August 1, 2004

aguilamo@btinternet.com

There is an impartation of grace to My Body of Believers in this present time says the Lord. For the enemy has sent assignments against you in the form of weaknesses being attacked and the chances to fall over the same sin over and over again. He will tell you that you were never really delivered from the problem and have transgressed too far for My hand of redemption to draw you back.

Beloved they are ALL lies!!!!

If you will only wake up and realise that he is desperately trying to trip you up using condemnation and guilt in order that you would run from Me instead of TO Me. That is why I have imparted this season of grace. My grace is sufficient for you. Do not look upon your areas of struggling and despair, because My Grace shall cause you to rise above its power and exercise the authority of the Almighty God. Just come as you are. Do not hold back from Me for I do not come to condemn but I come to correct, and those I correct I do so with love. Anything apart from this is of the enemy. Let My love cover the multitude of your sins, rise up and know that the work I am doing in you shall be completed as promised. You cannot force this work for it is done by My Holy Spirit.

Receive My Grace for this hour says the Lord.

Romans 8:1
There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit

The New Song Of Praise

Musa Opiyo

July 19, 2004
aguilamo@btinternet.com

I have put a new song within the hearts of My people. It is called the song of praise. This song shall be sung regardless of what the outside circumstances of a person's life is, whether negative or positive. This song shall declare My attributes, that is joy, peace, grace and truth and will replace the "blues" that have droned the spiritual atmosphere of My people. No longer will the drones of doubt, unbelief and a negative report fill the ears of the Beloved Chosen. No longer shall My people tremble at the tune of fear which is the opposite of faith, for now as the song of praise is sung by the lips of My children, joy shall overtake them as they leap out like a calf out from a stall (Mal 4: 2). As My people sing the song of praise then My angels are dispatched to war on their behalf. As My people sing the song of praise My promises and My decrees are replayed before them and their faith and resolve is renewed to fight the good fight of faith.

This is a time of war! I will have soldiers who walk in the strength and might of their God and not that of their own. As they walk step by step to the beat of this new song, the enemy's tune of fear is drowned out. There is much value in praise. I have said before that if My own do not praise Me then I would cause the very rocks themselves to declare My wonders. Why such an emphasis on praise? Because I dwell in the praises of My people. The song of praise creates an atmosphere for My Glory to be made manifest to heal the sick, drive out demons, set the captives free and knock the enemy flat in his tracks.

The enemy thought he had the upper hand, but I the Lord make a declaration to him now that I have a new secret weapon. You brought out the big guns of fear and trepidation, but watch now as My Bold Warriors war with praise upon their lips.

Psalm 40:3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God; many shall see it and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

Word and Vision For England
Musa Opiyo

July 20, 2004
aguilamo@btinternet.com

I felt led to release the word and vision that I received a few months ago for our nation.

Word and Vision for England

An enlarged aerial view of England was before me. I was standing in mid air and I began to see fireballs falling from the sky toward the land.

As they fell, the part of the fireball facing the ground suddenly changed into an arrowhead, almost resembling a flaming arrow.

As the fireball/arrow approaches the ground, their form begins to change into black crows that begin to descend over the buildings below into what is now a darkened land.

Then I heard the Lord herald from heaven, "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, I will hear from heaven and I will forgive their sin and heal their land."

A shield then appeared over the nation and blocked the crows from descending. But as time progressed, the shield began to fade. I sensed that this was because people had stopped praying. As the shield disappeared, more of the crows descended over the land again but this time in greater magnitude.

Again I heard the Lord admonish his people to pray. As the people began to pray again I saw in the darkened sky another fire that was approaching. From far off this fire looked white and glimmering, but as the fire approached it turned into a violent red fire as it swept through the land, the black birds were scattered.

The clouds overhead began to disperse as it gave way to rain clouds and it only took a few moments before it started raining.

I then heard the Lord say, "I am coming down to this land as the former and the latter rain and the glory and the reformation it shall experience shall be greater than the former."

Interpretation
I believe the darkened skies and the crows represented the attack of the enemy on this land and the spiritual atmosphere it has created. I believe that as a nation we shall turn to God, if we ourselves pray and seek His face and turn from our own wicked ways.

I believe also with regards to prayer, we should be persistent in prayer even though we see a breakthrough or whether the opposite occurs.

I am reminded of the story of when Elisha the prophet was about to die and King Jehoash of Israel requested that their enemies be defeated.

Elisha asked the King to strike the ground with the arrows which would represent their enemy's defeat. The King was reprimanded by Elisha for striking only three times instead of 5 or more hits.

`You should have struck five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram utterly; as it is, you will strike Aram three times and no more." 2 Kings 13:19

What we should do

Pray as the Spirit leads. I realise that this will predominantly apply mainly for those who live in this nation and those to whom the Lord impresses and puts a burden on to pray.

An Infected Tooth

Judy Curmi

2-20-2002
I saw a Middle Eastern man. He was nothing unusual to look at, no beard, not fanatic, just a man. He had a severely infected tooth in his upper right jaw. The infection had gotten so out of hand that it had traveled up into his right nostril. His nostril was swollen, full of pus (so he couldn’t breathe) and dripping blood.

His dentist said the man’s condition was not bad enough yet to come into the dentist office and have his problem corrected.

The man was very, very sick. I knew if he didn’t get medical attention immediately the inflammation (poison) would go up into his brain and he would die. There was no more time, but the dentist had refused to help.

Then I woke up and understood the "dentist" to be Muslim Clerics or Mullahs....They were the ones causing the "problem" to begin with.

My people this is a Day of My Consuming Fire ! I am very jealous for you my Bride . This is a day and a season to continue to focus on Me and My kingdom . I warn you before hand that the enemy would desire to distract you away from my purposes in the time right ahead of you . Be determined to die daily to self life and know Me in the Power of My Resurrection Life . The love of many has already grown cold , but as for you I will burn in you hotter still with My Consuming Fire as you yield to Me. This is the hour when I am coming with My Refining Fire to purify you so that you may be able to truly be Preparers of My Way . Do not be surprised . More falling stars will soon be revealed in the leadership of My Church , for I will ruin the pride of My people . But to those who fear My name , the Sun of Righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings . Know that I am raising up a new governmental leadership who have humbled themselves under My Mighty Hand . I have anointed and appointed them for such a time as this . They have wept with Me over the unrighteousness in My Church and over the harvest not yet reaped . They have kept the watch with Me and drawn close to my heart .

Do not be discouraged oh my beloved , for the hour is right upon you when you will hear the trumphet of jubilee blown throughout the land .
I am coming to let My people go and release them into their divine destinies . The harvest will be reaped plentifully and the wine will overflow . So rejoice My people - for the Glory of the latter house shall , indeed , be greater than the former !!!

America's Josiah Season
Ron Wood

Two days after the U.S. election, the Lord twice gave me a Scripture which has two layers of prophetic application. Many Americans prayed in desperation for mercy for America and for God's will to be done in the selection of our president.
"Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before the Lord when you heard what I spoke...I truly have heard you..."* 2 Kings 22:19 (NAS)
These are the words of a simple prophetess spoken to a repentant king.

Josiah was the king of Judah when the book of the law was found in the house of the Lord. Due to tremendous apostasy and gross idolatry, great moral confusion had gripped the culture and unimaginable neglect of God's ways had become the norm in Israel.

Financial House in Order

From his youth, Josiah walked in the ways of David. In his tenth year of reign (he was only 18 years old) he started setting "things in order" by turning offerings over to the workmen repairing the house of the Lord. He said, "No accounting shall be made with them...for they deal faithfully." He delegated the work and released dedicated funds.

Financial reform is more than just reducing the national debt, or wisely using welfare, or governments eliminating roadblocks to small businesses, but it includes religious affairs as well. In the kingdom of God, we are seeing a return to entrustment of large sums to missional ministry teams led by pioneering catalytic leaders who implement effective transformations. These leaders can be trusted with financial responsibility due to their personal integrity and their proven track record of honest dealings. We need to take a lesson from Josiah: get the funds into the hands of people who can do the work, then get out of their way.

Financial reform started a spiritual reformation, for in the process of doing their job, they discovered the Scriptures. As Derek Prince used to say, "You treat God the same way you treat your Bible." In other words, we relate to God the same way as we relate to His word: either respect it and obey it, or neglect it and thus despise God's rule in our lives.

Josiah's response to God's Word was to humble his soul, tear his clothes, and seek the Lord. He repented for how ignorant and how wrong they had been. Huldah the prophetess answered the king and interpreted the times for Josiah. She revealed God's heart and showed how the Lord had been watching Josiah's reaction to His written word.

Respect the Scriptures

Josiah gathered the people and read them their sacred Scriptures. Josiah began to lead them in a process of national reformation. They tore down their high places, halted gross immorality, desecrated and destroyed the altars to alien gods, cleansed their land of defilement, and reinstituted the true worship of Jehovah. It is hard for us to imagine the depth of depravity their culture had embraced.

Great blessing and prosperity accompanied these reforms. This is always the case when the salt and light of God's superior society -- by living and upholding God's wisdom and God's ways as shown in the Bible -- is injected into any culture. Much later, Josiah foolishly went to battle with an Egyptian force and was killed in an unnecessary engagement. Perhaps the pride of success had gone to his head. But regardless, he had served his generation in an honorable way.

The righteous judgments that were due to Judah as a nation were forestalled for a generation due to the courageous leadership of a great reformer. Josiah took advantage of a season of a revival of values to institute necessary reforms to forestall divine wrath.

By turning to the word of God in repentance and by pursuing what was right (this is faith in action), they preserved the kingdom and blessed the people. In the next generation, sadly, leaders once again turned back to a failed policy of wickedness, immorality, and idolatry. They departed from God's truth and disrespected the consequences of sin. The nation of Judah became terribly oppressed and was then finally carried away into captivity.

God indeed deals with nations, not just individuals. Nations, like individuals, have divine destinies (prophetically envisioned opportunities) that can be achieved or thwarted.

As Josiah went about his process of reforming Judah, he deliberately destroyed the unholy places which had corrupted his nation. In a free society, sinful people will build idols or create institutions or foster movements that are like smokestacks streaming pollutants into the air. These strongholds of sin are often defended by foolish people in the name of liberty or personal rights. In America, some of these smokestacks are labeled "media." They are often sources of lies and deceit: casting spells, belching accusations.

On one campaign, Josiah encountered a memorial. Was it a place of false worship? He asked, "'What is this monument I see?' The men of the city told him, 'It is the grave of the man of God who...proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel.'" (2 Kings 23:17) Josiah determined not to desecrate the burial site of the prophets who had spoken against idolatry, saying, "Let no one disturb his bones."

The Bones of the Prophets

The bones of the prophets lead us to the second warning. When God gives a word concerning evil powers or wicked forces that are infecting our religious or national culture, spokesmen who are hearing and declaring God's word, the Lord's agents of change, need to be very careful. They need to be humble and careful to fully obey.

Many a hillside is littered with the bones of the prophets. It makes the soil crusty and hard to plow.

Jokingly, I used to say whenever I saw an old-fashioned country church surrounded by a cemetery with the graves of parishioners, "Those are the graves of the pastors they stoned." Some of that is undoubtedly true. Religious demons can inflame people to act like the devil. But the burial plot Josiah uncovered wasn't of prophets who had been killed by the people, but prophets who had only partially obeyed the Lord and were subsequently killed by God.

Any time a prophet is sent by God and has an assignment to take on, address, or confront an idol, a throne, a principality, or a dominion, or is told to rebuke a demonic horde which has become incarnate in a human being who has authority over people (perhaps a dictator), that prophet is walking into a dangerous place with a very specific mission with narrow parameters of safety. Picture Elijah as he confronted Ahab and Jezebel.

The only safe place for prophets of war is a posture of total obedience from start to finish. Not all prophets are called to engage in such front-line skirmishes. If they do, they need to be aligned with God's generals, apostles of transformation, and they need to be covered by a shield of intercessors.

Helping the Redemption of Christ Move from the Cross Into the Culture

The modern Josiahs and the prophets who precede them (or accompany them) are agents of God's kingdom helping the redemption of Christ move from the cross into the culture, beyond individual salvation to affecting degrees of transformation among the nations.

Sunday, I had a vision of Christ on the cross looking down at potential leaders being gathered for "investment" by His mantle. We had just heard of young ministers in Greece being prepared to plant churches and gospel schools in Iraq. I had just read of Chinese, house church leaders sending out missionaries to the Middle East in a "Back to Jerusalem" movement. I thought of the Scripture, "He stood and surveyed the earth; He looked and startled the nations." Habakkuk 3:6 (NAS)
The eyes of the Lord are still searching for those whose hearts are toward Him. He is still watching to see who will respond with conviction when they hear His word. He is looking from the cross for those who are unafraid of death in order to release life for the nations to be saved.

A Kairos Year

Elvis Iverson

2004 - Will Be A Kairos Year For The Church

Coming 2004 I since upon my heart certain prophetic words for 2004. I believe the years leading up to 2004 was building for this time. I hear these words, “Such has a time as this.” 2004 will be Kairos year for the Church and many. 2004 is specifically a period of time characterized by good fortune, urgency, and favorable opportunity; it is a kairos year which is typically one of duration which must be seized or it will be lost.

There is coming a divine push with divine pull of the Apostolic in the Body of Christ. Prophets hear the words of the Lord, give prophetic words, prepare, and then wait for them to come to pass. This year the Prophets you are to follow the divine push in the Apostolic and the Apostles.

2004 is the year of Nehemiah, it is a time to build, and it is the time for apostolic builders to build. It is the year of birthing, establishing and building the works of the Spirit. This is year of divine birth of the works of the Spirit.

2004 is the year of appointed time, this is the year to run with the vision and walking in the fullness of vision. This is the year of the release of the visionaries. This is a year of divine supply and resources. This is the year of Apostolic Resources. Many Apostolic Resources Center will be established in the Body and in the World.

2004 is the year to shout grace, grace to the foundations and visions in your life. This is the year of open doors. This is the year of the Lord’s faithfulness, which He will establish you and guard you from the evil one. This is the year when we must go to the mountains and bring wood and build the temple that the Lord may take glory in it and be glorified.

2004 this is year that many of the gods of man will fall. The god of sports will fall and many others. This is a year of turning to God, and worshiping him with a pure heart.

2004 is the year of the reveling and the release of the seven thunders upon the apostolic church, the Body of Christ, the World and governments of this world. This is a year of reformation heights...

A King Will Arise
Stephen Hanson

Nov. 24, 2004

"The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will say unheard of things against the God of gods. Dan. 11:35

He will attack the mightiest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge him. He will make them rulers over many people and will distribute the land at a price. " Dan. 11: 39 "He will also invade the beautiful Land. " 11: 41

“I tell you that the day is coming when men will look to the sky and wonder where their hope is coming from. For the days are hastening forward to my soon return. There are new developments that are coming to the promised land area. For as I have said, with the passing of Yassar Arafat, new things are coming. For he had a policy to gain possession of Palestine’s land. For his era has ended and with it, many things will be left behind. But what things will be new developments?   What leaders will come to the land and propose their new polices? I tell you that a leader will arise, and it will not be long before he is upon the scene. He will take all things unto himself.   He will be a military leader like no one before. He will lift himself up and set himself up on the highest place. The faith of his predecessors he will leave behind. He will desecrate the holy places. He will invade many lands but in the beginning he will promise peace, but peace will be far from his campaign. He will invade the promised land and will promise many his favor. "

"These days will come and you will know of them in the near future."

I Have Much To Teach My People
Stephen Hanson

Nov. 27, 2004

(This prophetic word that is a "teaching word." There are issues and questions that we all have concerning the prophetic and the many words that we are hearing and reading about in this hour. We have questions about prophets. We have questions about when the Lord will return for His church. Through this word below, I believe that God is wanting to answer some of these questions of ours. We perhaps have set ideas and concepts that we have carried with us for quite awhile concerning some of these things. May we be open to hear what the Spirit is wanting to tell us and teach us in this hour. May we go onto maturity and onto solid food rather than continuing to be satisfied with just milk.)

"Now, brothers about times and dates we do not need to write to you, for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, 'Peace and safety.'

destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape." 1 Thess. 5:1-3

"We have much to say about this, but is hard to explain because you are slow to learn. In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God's word all over again. You need milk, not solid food! Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness. But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil." Heb. 5:1-14

MT 24:32 "Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. [33] Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door. [34] I tell you the truth, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. [35] Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

"Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers, not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by some prophecy, report or letter supposed to have come from us, saying that the day of the Lord has already come." 2 Thess. 2:12

“What if anything, can be done to avert the events that are to come upon this earth? Can anything be done to change the prophetic time table? Is prophecy conditional or is it written down so that nothing can keep it from happening as it was predicted? I tell you that my word is infallible and nothing can keep it from happening as it has been predicted. But those that speak for Me are not infallible. The word that they speak, while coming from Me, can be averted. This means that through the prayers of the saints events are conditional. This means that circumstances are conditional upon the heart conditions of people. A message may have many ways of being understood. There is more than one level to a prophetic word. Look to my word and the message that was given to the seven churches. The apostle John was given a message to the seven churches that were present at that time in history. But these churches also represent spiritual conditions. On an even deeper level, these seven churches also speak to individuals. Are you lukewarm as a believer or is there an open door waiting for you in your life? There have been many abuses of the prophetic word that has been given to individuals. But I tell you, there have also been many abuses from those who have not received the prophetic words that have been given. You are not to be as children any more. You are to grow up unto the head which is my Son, Christ Jesus. Let there not be many disputes among you. While it is good to test the words that are given, it is not good to analyze things to death. It is good to test the message, but it is not good to harangue the individual. Be as mature men and women and not as babes in your understanding. Broaden your views of prophecy. Develop an intimate relationship with Me and my word, and then you will be better able to judge these things. I have said that there are dark things coming upon the earth. These things are written down in my word. I have said when they say, 'Peace, peace, then sudden destruction will come upon them. ' I tell you to be aware when people say these things. The purpose of many of the warnings that I have sent out is not to instill fear in my people, but to prepare them and to warn them for what is to come. These are the last days that are mentioned in my word. Do not try to figure out the days or the months, or even the year that I am to come back. I have said that of that season you will have no need for anyone to tell you about it, for it will be plain to your eyes. I have also said that when the fig tree's leaves become tender then you know that the time is near. I tell you that this generation began with the birth of Israel as a nation in 1967. A generation lasts for forty years. I have also said that one year is as a thousand years with Me. So, having said this, you know that the time is very near. Do not try and figure out the exact times and dates, but be ready; for you know not what time your bridegroom will return. Listen to my apostles and prophets. Compare what they have to say with what is in my word. Do not become stirred-up by certain prophecies, but weigh them and seek a balanced approach. There is much that my church still has to learn. I will continue to warn and to teach my people, but you must be as mature men and women and not babes. "

I Will Shed My Light
Stephen Hanson

ISA 30:10 They say to the seers, "See no more visions!" and to the prophets, "Give us no more visions of what is right! Tell us pleasant things, prophesy illusions.

AM 3:7 Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets.

Dec. 4, 2004

“The messages that have been sent out lately in this hour, have centered around many things. But I tell you that my spirit is raising the level. My spirit is bringing prophetic words to a new level. You will see these messages come to life. For there is a new breed of prophets in this hour. They will speak not what the public wants to hear, but they will speak what I will give to them. These words will speak to specific times and instances. They will cut to the quick. They will cut to the division of soul and spirit. For I will reveal things that have been hidden. I will bring to light those things that have been hidden in secret. No longer will there be a doubt about what I am doing. For you will see my light being shed upon the events that are taking place around you. These are the times that are leading up to my return. “

A Lucrative Business

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Nov. 20th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

“My church has become a lucrative business and like the business world, the focus has been on maintaining the church in the same way businesses are maintained: to make money is the highest goal, and to increase consumerism.

There is nothing wrong with writing books, or making tapes. Many are making their missions commitments this way, while others have gotten into the trap of greed, trying to accrue more and more. My house has become a house for thieves and a den of robbers, while others who refuse to compromise are ridiculed for their lack of insight. How the proud have increased !

I never made you wealthy to only bless you. I make my children wealthy to bless them, but also to bless the poor. I told you the poor you will have with you always. So I want you to help the poor, and minister to the poor more than just to blessing yourselves with entertainment. The worker is worthy of his wages. But a good steward does NOT forget the poor.

Walking around your streets in America and the western world are many who have not the ability to make wealth because they are bound by mental torments, or limited by lack of health and crippling diseases. Some of the crippling diseases are emotional. They are as real as anything else to those who bear them. I have called you to be deliverers of men. The wealth you possess as sons and daughters is not just for you. It is to be shared with the lowly. I had no place to lay my head and no permanent home once I started My ministry. Others took care of Me and were blessed. I am asking you to correct the focus of your eyes and to remove the veil of the world off how you see. In the other parts of the world lie masses of people with starving children, and miniscule wages, barely getting by.

I have much work to do, and I am going to take those you think so little of and use them to bless many. So I encourage you to buy eye salve and to see with My eyes and see with MY HEART what is to be done. The task is too great for one person or one ministry. It will take whole cities to come together…those that are Mine and to work together for the good of those who are in need. Strength will come in unity. And those who have the heart to do this work will be greatly blessed. Those who ignore the needs of the poor, or disqualify them due to their lowly positions will have their candlesticks snuffed out. What you sow, you will reap. So if you joyously pour yourself out, you will joyously reap great rewards. Freely you’ve been given to, so freely I want you to give whatever you have to give.

I will make a spectacle of the enemy in the lives of those who have sown and sown till they have nothing left, and for whom the enemy has blocked off finances in an attempt to stop the work of the Kingdom. I WILL bring all that is needed for those with the heart to give, to give in abundance. I will bless the hearts of the generous. I see all that is done. I see all that there is to do. I see the hearts who weep for the conditions of the lost. I AM coming to overturn the tables of the money changers again.”

Mark 11:15-17 NKJV Jesus Cleanses the Temple
(Matt 21:12-17; Luke 19:45-48; John 2:13-22)
So they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves. 16 And He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple. 17 Then He taught, saying to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But you have made it a 'den of thieves.'"

John 2:14-17 NKJV And He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers doing business. 15 When He had made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables. 16 And He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise!"

Luke 14:21-24 NKJV So that servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and the maimed and the lame and the blind.' 22 And the servant said, 'Master, it is done as you commanded, and still there is room.' 23 Then the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I say to you that none of those men who were invited shall taste my supper.'"

Luke 18:22 NKJV So when Jesus heard these things, He said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

John 12:5-8 NKJV "Why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor? " 6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it. 7 But Jesus said, "Let her alone; she has kept this for the day of My burial. 8 For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always."

Luke 9:24-25 NIV For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will save it. 25 What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, and yet lose or forfeit his very self?

Granting Favor

Acts 2:46-47 NKJV So continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved.

Acts 7:9-10 NKJV The Patriarchs in Egypt
"And the patriarchs, becoming envious, sold Joseph into Egypt. But God was with him 10 and delivered him out of all his troubles, and gave him favor and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

John 1:17 NKJV For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

“My hand is mighty to save. My ways are higher than your ways. And my delays are not nays but they are pathways to right-standing and perseverance. I am creating some divine reversals in the area of GRACE and that means a turn around in FAVOR for My beloveds for a time so that the KINGDOM may be established in the hearts of men. I am giving out great GRACE in this hour, great FAVOR to be and do all I want you to be and do. I will bless you to be a blessing. Do not think I’m doing it to make you look good however. I’m doing it to make MY GOODNESS KNOWN TO ALL MEN. If I will be lifted up, I will draw all men unto Myself. Be cautious beloveds not to give in to pride, vanity and arrogance. Giving you favor is not to be taken for granted, but it will show you My great love for you.

Be careful not to give in to selfish ambition or pride in what I've done for you, looking at others with disdain or in a superior manner. I've said to think of others MORE highly than yourselves and not to covet another's blessings or gifts. Learn to be content with the things that you have also, and to not depend on riches to pursue the Kingdom. The Kingdom of God is not gained through finances, though finances help in a practical manner. FREELY GIVE if you want to receive in this hour. For as you give it will be measured out to you. If you have sown freely from a pure heart, then you can expect great rewards in this hour. If you have been stingy and resentful in your giving. Then you will also reap in like kind. So learn to be generous like I AM.

Isa 32:8 NKJV But a generous man devises generous things, and by generosity he shall stand.

Do not underestimate the talents and favor of others. Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought to. Don't look at the imperfections in others and think that that weakness has anything to do with lack of My ability to use them. I will use whomever I WILL. I will do whatever I wish and those who are weak, can be assured that I will then be strong for them.
For if you are strong, then the enemy will tempt you to think it is because of your great ability that you succeed, or that because of your own wisdom that you have power. But in your weakness, I can be strong, and manifest My glory to show that it is in ME alone, that you can do anything at all. It is because of My LOVE for you, and not because you are so special and great, that I do this marvelous work that lies ahead.

I am pouring out GREAT GRACE upon My children who love Me and cherish Me, while the world languishes after worldly idols and mammon, My own will be kept in the shadow of My wings because of their choice to believe in Me wholeheartedly. Nothing will be withheld from those who love Me. I am grace and I am mercy and My love endures forever. I will take you through the fire and you will not be burned. I will take you through the waters, and though they mount up over your heads, you will not drown. For I will be with you until the end of all time. Nothing will separate Me from you – I am Your Beloved Father, and I will watch over My own. Stay close to My chest and listen for the beat of My heart.

Beware of wolves in sheep's clothing who smile while they seek to devour you and your sustenance, pretending to be what they are not. Keep in the WORD to keep up your discernment. Listen closely to the still small voice of My heartbeat. Quiet yourself and listen and you will hear My voice. Stay your mind on Me and I will keep you in perfect peace. And I will direct your path."

Prov 8:35 For whoever finds me [Wisdom] finds life and draws forth and obtains favor from the Lord.
Prov 12:2 AMP A good man obtains favor from the Lord, but a man of wicked devices He condemns.
Prov 3:3-4 AMP Let not mercy and kindness [shutting out all hatred and selfishness] and truth [shutting out all deliberate hypocrisy or falsehood] forsake you; bind them about your neck, write them upon the tablet of your heart. [Col 3:9-12.] 4 So shall you find favor, good understanding, and high esteem in the sight [or judgment] of God and man. [Luke 2:52.]

Ps 5:12 AMP For You, Lord, will bless the [uncompromisingly] righteous [him who is upright and in right standing with You]; as with a shield You will surround him with goodwill (pleasure and favor).

Ps 30:5 AMP For His anger is but for a moment, but His favor is for a lifetime or in His favor is life. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. [2 Cor 4:17.]

Est 2:17 AMP And the king loved Esther more than all the women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the maidens, so that he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

Est 2:9 AMP And the maiden pleased [Hegai] and obtained his favor. And he speedily gave her the things for her purification and her portion of food and the seven chosen maids to be given her from the king's palace; and he removed her and her maids to the best [apartment] in the harem.

Life Force
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Nov 21st, 2004

John 1:3-5 NKJV In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

Luke 14:26-27 NKJV "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. 27 And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

“There are many “forces” in the world. Pagans for generations have given laud to forces of nature and forces that were demonic. They worship nature and worship demons. I am the Light and in Me there is no darkness. I am the Source of life and the only “force” that gives life to you. Some in oriental religions give heed to ‘forces’ or ‘powers’ they have felt and seen that come from the earth and stars, but these are demonic forces that bring infestation and distraction away from MY LIFE GIVING FORCE. You cannot harness the power of demons and think to walk in the light. What fellowship has light with darkness ? I did not call you out of darkness into the light so that you could entangle yourselves again with forces of darkness.

1 Cor 10:20-22 NKJV Rather, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice they sacrifice to demons and not to God, and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons. 21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the Lord's table and of the table of demons. 22 Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

I see many of those who are called by My name entangling themselves with the things of this world, with the secular and pagan belief systems of this world. I see them consulting psychic hotlines when they could not get what they want or are curious to know the future, and yet they do not seek ME ?

Isa 8:19-22 NKJV And when they say to you, "Seek those who are mediums and wizards, who whisper and mutter," should not a people seek their God? Should they seek the dead on behalf of the living? 20 To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. 21 They will pass through it hard-pressed and hungry; and it shall happen, when they are hungry, that they will be enraged and curse their king and their God, and look upward. 22 Then they will look to the earth, and see trouble and darkness, gloom of anguish; and they will be driven into darkness.

People in times past have sought out other gods when they were tired of waiting on Me, or impatient to get what they want. The enemy lured them into mixture and the whole tribe of Dan was removed from the 12 because of their idolatry. Do you think I don’t see the mixture now. Is it not the role of the priest to teach the people right from wrong ? Is that not their responsibility ? Where are those who will teach the WHOLE of the Word and tremble at My name ? Where are those who will be the opposite of what is in the world and train My people to walk according to My Word and not err? I’ve also told My people that they will be taught of ME, yet few inquire of Me before doing some things that entrap them in the nets of the enemy.

I see the mixture in the church. And I am setting a plumbline. I will look upon those whose plumbline is in line with Mine and I will smile upon them and give them more grace. But for those who seek to go their own way and divide the church due to their mixture and willful sinning, delusion will be theirs, as they have chosen it. Yet once more I will shine my light into their darkness and give them a chance to repent before ME. For My hand is stretched out still towards those I love. I am patient and forbearing with those who are My own. And once this weight of glory comes to expose your hearts, it will change you, and it will seal you for the days to come, and you who are willing to receive it, will not turn back ever again to those entrapments of the evil one. You will have greater discernment and walk in the light as I am in the light.

I have called you to bear your crosses, but I will give you even greater GRACE and GLORY that you will be able to do as I've called you to do. Don't worry about what you can hold in your hands My beloveds, for I will provide all that is needed if you will seek My face and worship Me in Spirit and in truth. Come away with Me, and allow me to fill you with My love and grace.
Come and let me show you My secrets. Even now My Spirit is searching out those who are willing to sit at My feet and learn of Me. And I will kiss you with revelation and I will illumine the scriptures that you can explain them to those who don't know them in ways that capture their hearts. Trust Me to give you all you need in understanding and wisdom.Ask and you shall receive !"

1 Cor 15:53-58 NKJV For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54 So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory."
55 "O Death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?"
56 The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Other Scriptures
Luke 12:15 NKJV And He said to them, "Take heed and beware of covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses."
Luke 12:22-23 NKJV Do Not Worry (Matt 6:19-21,25-34)
Then He said to His disciples, "Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will put on. 23 Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.

Luke 17:32-36 NKJV Remember Lot's wife. 33 Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it. 34 I tell you, in that night there will be two men in one bed: the one will be taken and the other will be left. 35 Two women will be grinding together: the one will be taken and the other left. 36 Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left."
Luke 21:34-36 NKJV The Importance of Watching
(Matt 24:36-44; Mark 13:32-37)
"But take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that Day come on you unexpectedly. 35 For it will come as a snare on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth. 36 Watch therefore, and pray always that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man."

John 5:24-25 NKJV Life and Judgment Are Through the Son
"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from death into life.

John 5:28-30 NKJV Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice 29 and come forth — those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation. 30 I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me.

John 5:39-40 NKJV You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and these are they which testify of Me. 40 But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life.

John 6:35-37 NKJV 35 And Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst. 36 But I said to you that you have seen Me and yet do not believe.

John 6:48-51 NKJV I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and are dead. 50 This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world."

John 6:63-65 NKJV It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life. 64 But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would betray Him. 65 And He said, "Therefore I have said to you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by My Father."

Rom 8:11 NKJV But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

Injection of the "Self" Virus

By eating of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, by willing other than what God willed, man became unholy. Dying to the holy, heavenly image, he now lived in the awakened bestial image of the serpent. The animal being had swallowed up the celestial being, and Adam and Eve then had common flesh, brittle bones, bestial members, and needed bestial clothing.

Man was now separated from God: Lusting after the earthly, the holy anointing oil given of Christ, was dried up; he became shut up in a gross, bestial image, for his flesh now belonged to the earth and to death; the dominion of this world now dwelt within him.
(Jacob Boehme)

As the virus released by their actions permeated their beings, the light of the most holy place within the spirit of man grew dim. In the inner man, the power of the soul gradually began to subordinate the rule of the spirit. Cataclysmic shifts in the nature of man were set in motion that would not be set right till the coming of the Second Adam.
Critically Wounded

In the beginning there was only one will -- the will of Father -- and all creation lived in harmony under this solitary rule. The rebellious action of man now introduced another will into the universe -- the will of the flesh. As Adam's will supplanted Father's will, an eerie echo sounded throughout Father's created world. For the first time there was more than one will in the universe, and all nature began to groan. All creation immediately felt the impact of man's treason. Nature's silent sobbing sounds will not cease until man returns to the ancient garden and the many wills are once more merged into glorious union with the Father's will.

Critically wounded by the injection of the "self" virus, man became spiritually disabled. The focus of his life became inverted as he began to dwell on his needs and desires. The true direction of spiritual life was meant to be upward toward the heavenly atmosphere, but now man's life was turning inward and downward. As the memory of Father's presence began to slowly fade, man's spiritual energies irresistibly declined.

Scrambled in a maze of linguistic disorder, the spiritual speech patterns and heavenly grammar of the ancient language were disappearing. Sadly, the words of the old love language began to sink into a sea of forgetfulness. With a dulling of the ears and blurring of the spiritual perceptions, the language of Father was ultimately replaced by another language -- the language of self.

The Birth of Moralism

Religion became a partner in crime, seeking to control its members by moral legislation rather than helping, or at least releasing, them to find their own way back to the ancient garden and the empowering Presence.

Coupled with the emergence of this new and deadly language was the development of an evil and darkened consciousness. The serpent's promise became a reality, but not with the results the man and woman had hoped for. The shortcut down the dark back streets of self-will resulted in a new awareness of themselves. The result was immediately obvious. They had not become gods. In fact, they were being reshaped into a lower creation, their unique personalities damaged, and their consciousness coming under the domination of a new fleshly law.

A crippled consciousness would now be the rudder of man's darkened soul. For the first time, man knew good, and he knew evil. This knowledge would inexorably replace the loving voice of Father. On that day morality was born. Moralism became the substitute for spirituality. Living in the presence of Father, man had been sustained by Father's breath. His life had been based upon the power of the Presence; now it would be based upon the enforcement of the law -- the law of good and evil. He would now be defined by doing good and avoiding evil.

This new law would be the means of judging and evaluating oneself and others. Rather then seeing each other in the light of God's image, mankind would value and judge one another in the light of performance and conformity to the new fleshly law.

The Law of the Spirit vs. The Law of the Flesh

Man would forever experience the conflict between these two opposing laws -- the law of the Spirit and the law of the flesh. The law of the Spirit would always be reminding him, though dimly, of the ancient language and the Presence of Father. The law of the flesh would insidiously obscure that memory as it enforced its own rules of procedure. These laws of behavior and procedure would become the basis of all future religions.

Seeking to enforce this homespun morality on others, all future cultures would emphasize the need for humanity to live by imposed rules from without rather than being motivated by the inward life of the Spirit. In some ways these outward laws would serve as a temporary protection for man until a new law could come -- the law of grace and mercy resident in Jesus.

Religion became a partner in crime, seeking to control its members by moral legislation rather than helping, or at least releasing, them to find their own way back to the ancient garden and the empowering Presence. Presuming to be mouthpieces for the Father, religious leaders would arise to establish themselves as the authority in the community of God. Tradition and legalism would replace the life of the Spirit.

Father Has a Question for Adam

Meanwhile, back in the garden Adam and Eve stood rooted to the spot where they had thrown it all away, lost in the solitude of a frightening awareness of what they had done. Rewinding and replaying their actions again and again in their dazed minds, Adam and Eve trembled with fear of the consequences of their actions. Never had they felt such overwhelming terror. Retreating inwardly into their darkened deliberations, they experienced a deep sense of loneliness permeating their very souls. Meanwhile, a voice was attempting to break through the deep musings of their minds. Suddenly, they were arrested by the penetrating voice as it finally reached into the depths of their inner retreat. Rushing for the nearest tree, they attempted to hide from the voice.

"Adam, where art thou?"
"Who told you that you were naked?"
"Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

Questions are powerful tools to probe inward parts. The technique of psychological questioning is used in the psychiatrist's office as well as in the courtroom to find out the truth of a matter. Searching questions pierce the darkness of obfuscation, forcing man to confront the realities of his life. They compel us to examine our shame and our guilt, the destructive results of our wayward actions.

Father is the Master of the probing question, and as we will see in a later chapter, His Son also had the powerful gift of asking just the right question. It is of extreme importance that you understand the essential difference between the interrogations of man and the insightful searching questions of Father. Man's investigations are undertaken to expose and condemn. Father's questions come to reveal and heal.

The Mysterious Work of Forgiveness and Grace

Trembling at the sound of Father's voice, Adam and Eve attempted to hide themselves physically as well as psychologically. Hiding is man's perfected reaction to the horror of his actions and a natural response to the negative experiences of his life. Pulling the proverbial blanket over our heads gives us a sense of protection and security, albeit false. Through the years, man would refine this inward flight, creating great psychological impairment to his inner being. His only chance for healing is to remove the emotional coverings and in open honesty expose himself to the loving eyes of Father.

Regrettably, much of my life was spent on the pathway of this inward flight, as I sought to hide from the pain of what I perceived as my negative existence. Fearing to face the reality of my failures, I sought refuge in concealment. I lived under a false assumption that what others did not know would somehow protect me from increased pain and guilt. Fear of exposure hounded me, paralyzing much of my spiritual life. I did not understand that exposure was the only sure path to spiritual and emotional healing. Fear of exposure led me to the door of falsehood. When caught in a wrong action, I would simply lie to myself and others rather than expose myself.

To heal man, Father must expose man. Man's deep fear is that exposure will lead to even more emotional pain and condemnation. Man has good reason to fear unveiling himself. Self-disclosure more often than not leads to condemnation and judgment by others, even in the Church. But Father's questions are posed in order to enable us to see what He already knows. His questions help us arrive at a safe place of self-realization, where forgiveness and grace can do their mysterious and majestic work.

Hiding and Blaming -- Man's Answers to Father's Questions

The man said, "The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me from the tree, and I ate."

...The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."
Genesis 3:12-13

The couple had now lost all control of the situation. They could not get a grip on reality and moved blindly, it seems, from one sin to another. A chain reaction of deception and denial that had been set in motion was establishing future patterns of behavior for man. Rather than deal with his sin, man now introduced two very powerful psychological tools for attempting to avoid the consequences of his failures in life -- hiding and blaming.

In hiding and blaming, man fashioned a whole new vocabulary, as it were, to replace the spiritual vernacular of honesty and openness that characterized the ancient language of Eden. This dark form of communication was developed in an effort to protect man from facing the consequences of the horrible realities of his life. Thus began the dialect of blame shifting, rationalization, deception, lies, coded language, irresponsibility and shame-speech.

And Eve originated what would become the classic copout: "The devil made me do it." Enter the world of recrimination, injustice, scapegoating, and irresponsibility.
(John Shea)

The old mother tongue began to disappear as self-talk took greater control of man's speech patterns. Self-love, self-defense, and self-advancement were becoming the rule of the interior life of man. The image of self was replacing the image of God.

Now let us weep together as we examine the deterioration of the ancient language of Eden and the developing dialects of the language of self.

Language of Doubt

Now the serpent was more crafty than any beast of the field which the Lord God made. And he said to the woman, "Indeed, has God said, 'You shall not eat from any tree of the garden'?"
Genesis 3:1

The matrix of the garden was an environment of total, loving trust and obedience to the spoken words of God. Love and trust were the root grammatical structures of the mother tongue. They constituted the framework of man's outer environment as well as the structure for his inner world. All things were held together by Father's word -- the outer world and man's inner space.

Having carefully followed this developing structure, the evil one knew the only way to break it down was to create a fracture in man's trust in the words of God. With subtlety, he carefully planted a seed of doubt in the thought processes of the woman. Man and woman were only accustomed to honesty and open communication, never having experienced any other language in Father's company. But then the evil one introduced a new form of speech -- deception and insinuation.

The cunning of satan opens a mortal chasm in the soul of man. As the woman pondered the serpent's words, a hint of doubt began to take shape -- doubt that would eventually grow into an act of betrayal and a breakdown in man's trust in Father.

Trust, so essential to the language of Eden, was shattered in that moment. That one small entertainment of doubt would eventually mushroom into a whole system of unbelief. The new language of that system would express this doubt in myriad streams of human thought -- skepticism, cynicism, atheism, and humanism. Man began to not only doubt Father's words, but also to question His love, misinterpret His actions, and even move to the point of questioning His very existence.

Language of Pride

"For God knows that in the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."
Genesis 3:5

In his plan to bring down God's beloved creature, the serpent proceeded to his next strategy -- the appeal to pride. Man had lived contentedly in the humble place of the creature, understanding that all he was and all he had were a result of Father's loving power. Man was the creature, and Father was the Creator. Seeking to disrupt that order, the serpent stroked man's pride. "You will be like God." Man pondered this. Could it be possible? Could man also be a god? The beguiling door to divine possibilities cracked upon satan's sly words, and the man and woman took the bait and slipped through the entryway.

Where his speech once was filled with praise and worship directed toward God, man's language degenerated into the slutty speech of pride-filled talk -- pride of accomplishments, pride of knowledge, pride of strength, and pride of life. The humble language of man was being twisted into a focus upon who he was and what he could do. Love of self would now dominate his communications with others. Self-preoccupation quickly grew to overwhelm man's speech habits, robbing him of the ability and even desire to intimately relate to Father and effectively communicate with others in the ancient tongue.

Language of Twisted Desire

When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took from its fruit and ate; and she gave also to her husband with her, and he ate.
Genesis 3:6

In his desire to disrupt the flow of spiritual delight and desire between Creator and creature, the serpent again shifted the focus of desire away from Father's will to man's needs and wants. Eyes that were once filled with the light found in Father's presence were being clouded over with a perverted form of desire -- lust. The old words of worship and praise were being substituted with murmurs of selfish pleasure. The desire for momentary gratification was overwhelming the once content and grateful heart.

A floodgate of all sorts of evil desires rushed through the door opened by the woman -- inordinate desires for money, power, sex, and possessions would eat away at all spiritual desire. Rather than becoming gods as hinted at by the serpent, they unwittingly became slaves -- slaves to their own corrupted cravings. Rather than ruling over desire, desire would rule over them. The language of man evolved further, filled with all manner of lustful talk, eroding even further the pure speech of the love talk of Eden.

Language of Shame

He said, "I heard the sound of You in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid myself."
Genesis 3:10

Adam had never experienced fear. Totally secure in his belovedness, he confidently performed his work in the garden paradise. Invigorated by the freedom he experienced in the presence of Father, Adam joyfully worked on Father's behalf tending the garden. Clothed with a sense of divine worth, he was never troubled with thoughts of insignificance or failure. Love of Father motivated him, not duty or addictions.

The serpent's goal to divide Adam and Father and to destroy the peace in this ancient place was beginning to be realized. When his seductive work was done, the serpent needed only to step back and let the chips fall where they may.

In a blinding, horrific realization of what they had done, Adam and Eve recoiled in shame. Falling to the ground, they groaned deep within their spirits at their treasonous deed. A penetrating sensation of shame was stripping away the clothing of personal worth they had worn in the presence of Father. Father! Oh no! They became paralyzed at the thought of Father. For the very first time ever, they feared the presence of Father. What would He think? What would He do? "We have failed Him!" The pain was almost unbearable.

A pervasive sense of shame is the ongoing premise that one is fundamentally bad, inadequate, defective, unworthy, or not fully valid as a human being.
(Lewis B. Smedes)

Thus, destructive thoughts of shame were introduced into the being and language of man. At first subtle, eventually they would saturate his psyche to be acted out in his daily life. Shame would drive mankind in the wrong direction -- away from the presence of Father. This is the destructive power of shame. Rather than draw us to the place of healing, it drives us to run and hide from God and others. Unable to bear the guilt of our actions we hunt for places of seclusion that result in a numbing sense of loneliness. Enter the language of self-hate, compulsive comparison with others, unworthiness, and voraciously needing the approval of others.
Father Would Provide a Covering for His Still Beloved Children

I know a lot about shame. Much of my life was lived in the house of shame. At first, it was subtle and mostly unconscious, but I could feel shame's debilitating presence encroaching on my inner thoughts. I could not have explained exactly what it was; I just knew that there was something very wrong with me. Life went on, and the accumulation of years of failure sharply defined the shame. It began drifting to the surface of my mind more and more.

I felt the awful weight of shame for my failures as a son, as a husband, as a father, and finally, as a preacher. Shame depreciated my every attempt to please Father. Years of a steady infusion of shame finally left me spiritually disabled in my mid-life years. Only when I discovered the loving Presence of Father, or rather, when He found me, did the shame lift from off me.

Man helplessly wallows in the mire of guilt and shame until the coming of Jesus. In Jesus the filthy clothing of shame is replaced with the clothing of the Spirit.

The pain that Adam and Eve felt did not begin to compare to the pain of loss pulsating in Father's heart. Though deeply hurt, He could not leave His children to wander the world uncovered. He already had a plan in the works that would take care of everything, but until its appointed time, Father would provide a covering for His still beloved children.

Language of Rejection

Therefore the Lord God sent him out from the garden of Eden...
Genesis 3:23

Man had only known the Presence of Father. He had never lived a day of his life without the comforting sense of God all around him. His eyes first opened beholding the face of God radiant with love, and he had known only the security of living in that all-encompassing love. Now he was banished from the place of the Presence. There would be no more daily walks filled with sweet nothings being spoken in his ear. As the human retreated further into his own dark, self-absorbed world, he became deeply aware of a bone-chilling feeling of isolation. While relationship with Father is not totally destroyed, it is distorted and detached.

This detachment is the source of the profound sense of loneliness. At the numbing center of this loneliness man experiences a deep ache and longing for what could have been. This alienation and loneliness is woven into the very warp of modern man. His guilt and shame have driven him inward into a psychological alienation and spiritual loneliness. In this hermetically sealed condition he is prey to all the ongoing lies of worthlessness and shame.

C.S. Lewis said it well when he said he felt like a man brought out under naked heaven, on the edge of a precipice, into the teeth of a wind that came howling from the Pole.

The communal memory of what was lost in that ancient garden creates a psychic ache in the soul of man. Though unaware of its origin, he nevertheless seeks to fill this vacuum of loneliness and rejection with any and every sort of activity and relationship, or else he retreats into seclusion. The language of man is rife with expressions of names for this deep sense of loneliness and spiritual rejection.

Changed by the Realization that Father Has Always Pursued

What man does not understand is, he was driven out so that he might be brought back, changed by the realization that Father had always pursued him. The Tree of Life was kept from him for a time that it might be kept for him for an eternity. In the book of Genesis, we see man driven out of Paradise and away from the Tree of Life. In the Book of Revelation, we see the gate to Eden reopened and man once again brought into the garden with a special invitation to come eat from the Tree of Life. The Son of man will be the one to swing open that ancient gate and help man reclaim the precious ancient language.

Aloneness
Jasminka Diehl

14 Apr 2004 Some time ago someone spoke to me about being ALONE ... and my spirit took hold of those words and placed them deep within the heart. But in these last few days Holy Spirit has uncovered to me some vital "informations", or rather they were soft, gentle petals of His Truth - the words of Life ...

Being alone - ALONENESS is the condition of the heart and not of the flesh ... the pure, undefiled heart that emits that clear, crystal sound of surrender to the Lover of our soul. It has nothing to do with our natural lives, whether we choose to stay single, or are we married.

The heart of our Bridegroom recognizes that sound as the echo of His very own heart, sound of freedom, of not BELONGING to the affairs of this world ... It is the sound of His heartbeat, of His passion and love for His Bride, and there is NOTHING we can do that would make Him love us more.

As we come face to face with Him, with The One - The Lover of our soul, we realize the truth and there is no more doubt. His love IS the love that lasts for eternity; love so big, love so great, love so overwhelming and so beautiful, and we finally SEE Him - not through the veil of our natural eyes, but through the eyes of eternity.

And there is that sudden falling in love, falling backward into the abyss of His arms ... Falling, falling, falling - and not being afraid ever again of anything ... That love has the strength to TRUST and believe the IMPOSSIBLE, it knows the Truth and the Reality of that other WORLD, where He is the King and where He rules forever.

Such a love knows the unlimited space of His Passion and His Rest, assured in the ultimate knowledge of loving and being LOVED. Forever!!!

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; He hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord." - Luke 4:18,19

Birthing of The Vision

BIRTHING OF THE VISION

We are called to be the VISIONARIES, people of the Kingdom Realm, living in the now and carrying the vision from that Realm with passion and strength - nurturing it, until it reaches full term and is birthed through our willingness, and only by the Spirit of the Lord.

As the seed of the Vision is deposited deep within us, time is needed for that Vision to develop and grow - through our prayers and communion with the Author of that Vision.

There is such a Vision that goes beyond anything that human mind could ever conceive . It is so large and so bold that one human being can not carry it alone.

Jesus had the Vision of that ONE DAY, and that is why "with the joy that was set before Him He endured the cross". (Hebrews 12:2)

My heart rejoices, for in the life of Jesus that Vision is plainly written, not on the tablets of stone, but on the tablet of His heart, His flesh, and He was running with it, all the way to the cross. So that all who would take the time to read it would CATCH that same Vision, and RUN, RUN, RUN - until the whole earth has conceived it and given birth to that Vision.

For in that ONE DAY the true sons of God will emerge - the Manchild himself - the Christ Generation shall walk that victorious walk, in the very power of the Spirit Jesus Himself has walked. It is the power of Love that is stronger than death, love that can come only from countless nameless and faceless people, walking in the Spirit and denying the flesh, just as the Firstborn among many has done to show us the way. THIS IS THE WAY, WALK IN IT ...

The Vision contains the Life as it was intended to be, the impossibility becoming possibility, the total and complete wholeness of the person, victorious Kingdom life for kings and priests of the Most High God. Our lives holy and blameless because of the blood of Jesus, our bodies temple of our God, pleasing to Him in every way ...The Vision of Jesus living in each one of us, and His Body so large, overtaking the earth, filling every corner and every space, until this natural realm is taken over and completely gone.

Names and faces will not matter anymore for the Son of God, Jesus Christ Himself will live in us. Paul's words will become our truth : "I AM CRUCIFIED WITH CHRIST: NEVERTHELESS I LIVE; YET NOT I BUT CHRIST LIVETH IN ME, AND THE LIFE WHICH I NOW LIVE IN THE FLESH I LIVE BY THE FAITH OF THE SON OF GOD WHO LOVED ME, AND GAVE HIMSELF FOR ME." (Gal. 2:20)

The time of birthing of that Vision is at hand ...

Open Door
Jasminka Diehl

12 Apr 2004
Last year I had a "vision" of an "open door" in a dark space - prophetic utterance as an "invitation" from God, to enter those doors and see what is behind ... I was very excited about all of it ... I shared it with some of the people, but I believe now that it was premature, and I am learning to "hold my peace" and listen to His voice and His leading, and seek His timing in everything ...

Sunday, 04-04-04 was an incredible day .... I felt in my spirit the "shifting" and "change" of the Time ... It felt as the Reality of the Kingdom Realm has overtaken and "swallowed up" this Natural Realm, and since than I am so much more sensitive to it, and are more prone to recognize and see into the Spirit ...

His Invitation to us is to venture through that DOOR (or we can use the word PORTAL in the Heavenly Realm) and to experience The Supernatural, so it can become part of our every day living ... It is TIME for His Mysteries to be revealed, He wants to do it, and is looking for those with spiritual eyes and ears opened, the hearts set upon Him in constant pursuit, with desire to truly KNOW Him (not about Him).

The more time we spend in that "getting to know" mode, the better we will know God, closer we will become, and more "intimate" we will be ...

Before we "liked" what we saw and heard about God ... now, as we have closer and more intimate and personal relationship with Him, we can say that we "love God" ...

It is called progressive knowledge of God as a Person. Drawing closer to Him, spending quality time with Him, will produce even more desire to know Him even better, and the "liking" will change into "love" ...

So when we grow closer in the relationship, the natural thing is to share and disclose the "secrets" (He uses the word "Mysteries") to each other ... It speaks of intimacy where the result is the Trust ... Trusting each other with each other ...

Intimacy ALWAYS produces trust ... and that intimacy is found in abiding (spending time) with Him ... and the willingness to give ALL for the Love of our life.

That door in Heaven is open now, and while it is opportune time we need to enter in, before it shuts again ...

I can't help but draw the parallel between the doors that are spoken of in the Scriptures ... The one from Revelation 4:1and Isaiah 22:22, and the one in Matt 23 where the Invitation was issued for the Marriage Supper and so many have refused to come, with normal, everyday excuses ...

Sadly enough I see it in the "Church world" that is populated by all those that are constantly finding excuses and refuse to come in ... So then, the servants were sent to bring in anyone (from highways and byways) that would come ... All those that by the standard of the "churchianity" are unworthy (drug-addicts, alcoholics, prostitutes, and such ...)

In another parable in Matt. 25 there is the description of foolish and wise virgins, the lack of extra oil, and the need for it that led foolish virgins to seek after it from those that SELL, and while they were gone, the door was shut. It was opened only for a certain time, and than it was SHUT, and no one could come in ...

Shut door (wedding - marriage), speaks to me of INTIMACY ... The Bride and the Bridegroom are shut alone in the chamber, where NO ONE can come in. That is the time where all longing and all desires are fulfilled, the time where love has found love in completion of every need and every want of the heart. It is the ultimate love story EVER told ...

SOS 5:2 " I sleep but my heart waketh; it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled; for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night."

SOS 5:4 " My beloved put in His hand by the hole of the DOOR , and my bowels were moved for Him."

A Love So Fierce

Danny Korakas

Aug 20, 2004
"In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be a propitiation for our sins ... and not for ours only but also for the whole world." (1 John 4:10; 2:2)

A prophetic declaration of the love of God to the WHOLE WORLD is about to be unleashed with a fury of fire to melt the hearts of men. We may at times forget how to love, but God "so loved the WORLD that He gave His only begotten Son." (John 3:16). As bad as the world may seem at times, God has not forgotten or given up on the world. With a love so radical, so forgiving, so sacrificing, so fierce; how could He possibly give up on humanity. His heart radically burns for the saved and unsaved alike. His heart is ravished for the Muslim and the New Age-er. His passion is that ALL would be saved and come to the knowledge of Jesus Christ. (1 Timothy 2:4) God sends His love to us, "in that while WE were yet SINNERS, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8)

There are many people in the world today that are deceived by false religions and worship false gods. When people in India and much of the Orient look into the face of their gods, they see mean and evil countenances with sharp teeth and claws. There is a sense of hatred in the faces of these hideous idols created by the imaginations and hands of man. Is this really a "god" that you could LOVE and feel LOVED? The gods of the Egyptians, Assyrians, and other ancient cultures were even more diabolical looking and had an appetite for human flesh – even child sacrifice. How could these gods have possibly created the LOVE that burns in your heart or the love of a parent toward their child? You can only create what is within you.

You will find upon review, that all pagan religions and writings are void of a God that LOVES them. It is completely alien for the Muslim to know that God created them for a loving and intimate relationship and that He loves them UNCONDITIONALLY. The only benefit that the moon god Allah could offer a pious Muslim woman would be that of a "heavenly prostitute" for a cold blooded murderer. My dear Islamic friends, who really is your god? What is his NATURE?

The Greeks and Romans were serving a myriad of gods that were waiting to strike them with a lightening bolt at the first instance of weakness or failure. For the intellectual or strong Greek, these gods took great joy in trying to trick mankind so as to prove their supremacy. It was as if the gods were playing a sort of cosmic game with mankind for their amusement. How could it be that a "God" could truly LOVE them? We need to realize how revolutionary this revelation was to mankind at this time in history.

Preston Eby tells a famous Confucian story that some missionaries discovered when they got to China. It is a story of a young man of a wealthy father, who one day stole a large portion of his father's wealth and ran away from home. He took the money and wasted it in riotous living. The years passed and finally it was all gone and he came into destitution. Finally, through an intermediary, he appealed to his father to take him back again. With open arms, his father accepted him back into the home and prepared for him a great feast. Does this sound familiar? As they sat feasting together, all eyes were fixed upon the son. There was a big smile beaming on the face of the father which broadened as a look of horror suddenly spread across the countenance of the son. The son grasped at his throat, finally realizing too late that he had been poisoned! And Confucius says, "So it shall be with every son that dishonors his father." How infinite is the gap between this story and the story that Jesus told of the prodigal son. Jesus came to REVEAL and display the Father's LOVE to humanity. Jesus stated that He came not to condemn the world, but to save it. (John 3:17).

The heart of the Lord and His word to the church today is simple. Humanity will become like and resemble in their actions the gods that they serve. I believe that it was Alexander Hamilton who said, "people deserve the government that they have, for it is a reflection of who they really are." Trying to change an Islamic country to a form of democracy will never work as long as the people remain violent in their core religious and societal beliefs. Violent people produce violent governments — whether secular or spiritual. We not only take on the nature of the god we worship, we take on their countenance as well.

Jesus came to PERSONALIZE a loving Father and God to humanity — His creation. People seem to have a difficult time moving in the pure beauty of faith and need to see and experience things with their natural senses. God even overlooked our lack of faith and completely revealed Himself in Jesus Christ that we could look and gaze upon His love for us. Jesus shows us what the NATURE of God is like.

Jesus showed us a love so fierce and so powerful that it would have to finish its course on a cross dying for our well being and salvation. Has another "god" ever proclaimed his love in such tenderness and depth, let alone suffer death on his creations behalf? This astounded the world at this time with utter shock. Does it still today? I seriously doubt it. We are casual and numbed to the love of God by the cloud and pollution of religion that has created religious DUTY rather than spontaneous and passionate love.

Suppose that I came home to my wife Carole with a dozen long stemmed roses. Carole would say, "O Danny, thank you. They are beautiful." As she is about to hug me, I hold out my hand and say, "Don't mention it. It's my duty."

Well, what has happened here? The roses only have meaning if they are given spontaneously from my heart. Actually, without the spontaneity of passionate love, the roses actually belittle her. God did not perform a duty in His appointment with the cross. The Rose Of Sharon died for us out of a passionate love for relationship. On the other hand, the "dutiful religion" we see and experience so much of is a far cry from the dying to ourselves that Christ set as an example of love for us to follow.

I realize that many reading this have been beaten down and abused by the trials of life. A great many people, even though surrounded by many people, are lonely and feel isolated in the purpose and meaning to life. I know more than a few believers who are in financial difficulty and wonder if anybody really cares. Some have suffered lay-offs and job closings after years of faithful commitment and may even feel that God has abandoned them.

Many who are parents know the care and love you have for children who have been hurt and wounded. It is a love that reaches and extends out in the midst of every facet of need. It even extends to a child who is wayward and has run away from his or her family. We can try to imagine the love of the greatest and most caring parents, but it pales in comparison to the measure and unimaginable depth of God's love for you.

Because of His great love toward us, we hold within us the greatest of treasures and inheritance — His Holy Spirit. We are the New Testament Ark of His covenant. What made the Old Testament Ark of value was not the acacia wood overlaid with gold. Nor was it the tablets (God's law), Aaron's rod that blossomed (God's power and authority), or the jars of manna (God's provision). It was the manifest presence of God.

No other "god" has given humanity the gift and inheritance of His Words, power, authority, and perfect provision. Even the essence of His holiness God has given to us who believe. "Be holy for I am holy." (1 Peter 1:16) But the most astounding gift is that He gave us Himself! Like the Ark of old, His presence gives us value, meaning, and purpose. Of all that God could have chosen to call Himself, He simply said, "I am LOVE." When God fills us with His Spirit, He fills us with His love. God is telling us in His Word who He is. The words leap off the pages revealing to us His very nature. When we speak of caring we know that God is charitable, but He is not "charity." When we think of justice, we know that God is just, but He is not "justice." However, love is different. God IS love. Love is the revelation of the Father's very nature and being.

"And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in Him." (1 John 4:16)

Finally, we have those who do not believe or have faith in any "god." Actually, these individuals exhibit some of the "greatest faith" among the peoples of the earth. The Bible says that we are all without excuse and that God has revealed Himself to every man through something down deep in the spirit of within us. (Romans 1:20) To BELIEVE that there that is no God takes a tremendous amount faith considering the complexity of LOVE.

I can understand the scientific argument for evolution or the Big Bang theory. It makes perfect sense to me when I contemplate it on the surface. But as I dig deeper with UNDERSTANDING into the complexities of everyday life, I find serious faults and discrepancies in this "faith."

Imagine if I were to take all of the atomic and molecular particles in the entire expanding universe and combine it into one massive entity. In our scientific and natural understanding, we would obviously have the greatest source of power and mass conceivable. With this tremendous entity of power, could we or "it" produce just one drop of LOVE? Even those who believe in evolution must hold that everything has a starting place or origin. The question that the faithful atheist must answer is, "where was the origin of love and emotion?" Where did the freedom to experience and have passion come from?

The most intellectual and brilliant minds of men can justify and argue against the origins of God's creation. However, trapped within the confines of a finite mind, they have failed to UNDERSTAND the origin of the greatest gift given to man — The LOVE of God. "God IS love." And the love we express and experience from others can only have its origins within the heart and nature of God. It is His love for the whole world that permeates the hearts of mankind and gives them the ABILITY to love.

Jesus said that the whole world would know that we were His disciples by our love for one another. Does the world, your neighbor, your family, know that you are Christ's disciple?

A Message For My Bride
Yolanda Ballard

May 11, 2004
Reach out and touch the hem of My garment for I AM about to pour out an abundance of rain. Yes, this is the day of the latter rain outpouring, and I AM about to pour out an anointing that will break the yoke of bondage that has been upon My people. Yes, I AM about to set the captives free and refresh the weary. Why don't you just bow down and worship Me, and cast all your cares upon Me so that I can lift you up once again?

I know its not getting any easier for the enemy knows that these are the end times, and his time is running out. So he is coming on like gangbusters trying to devour all that he can, and he is using spiritual pride, and he's using complacency and deception and all kinds of tactics to divide the brethren. Especially those who were once close friends in My body, but don't allow this to happen. Unite yourselves closer than ever, and pull down the strongholds over your individual areas in which you dwell.

And yes, those who dwell in Israel, I want you to make sure that you keep covered with My love so that you can shine out with My glory and grace. I want to draw in the lost with a special grace. Yes, I want to touch those that have such a hatred for My people, and turn them around so that they will become a mighty army that lifts up and protects My kingdom. Yes, I want to raise them up to be dread warriors against the enemy. They will no longer be dread warriors towards My people but towards the enemy who once raised them up and trained them to devour My people.

So, I say to you this day, Israel, you will no longer be called one who not only will be hated by the world but one who will be treated with respect, because they will know that they have a God who will back them up showing signs and wonders. Yes, I will pour out fire from heaven, and devour My enemies, those who will not turn even when I reveal Myself to them, for I AM a just God, and I gave My life that all would be saved.

So, I want you to rejoice that you are not on your own for I promised that I would be with you till the end of time and that no weapon formed against you will ever prosper. I will supply all your needs and care for you like a chick underneath My wings. Fret not for the enemy will not destroy you. What the enemy means for harm I turn for your good. So, I want you to rejoice and even dance in the streets, because you do have the victory, and every enemy that comes against you will be scattered in seven directions.

Today is the day of salvation. Today is the day of the latter rain outpouring, and I AM calling you to stand with Me, and pray for My peace to reign in the land. Pray that My will be done, and My kingdom will come on earth as it is in heaven. Rest in Me for I will restore you and bless you and give you a long life. Draw near as I draw near to you. Yes, draw close, and I will hold you near, and pour out a kingly anointing upon you. I raise you up as My mighty warriors and My worshippers that know only Me as their God. I AM most pleased with you. I delight in you. I love you, says your God.

Ambrosia

Main Entry: am·bro·sia
Pronunciation: am-'brO-zh (E-)& Function: noun
Etymology: Latin, from Greek, literally, immortality, from ambrotos immortal, from a- + -mbrotos (akin to brotos mortal) -- Date: 15th century
1 a : the food of the Greek and Roman gods b : the ointment or perfume of the gods
2 : something extremely pleasing to taste or smell
3 : a dessert made of oranges and shredded coconut

Well, I got this word, then had to immediately look it up and was surprised at the root meaning. I've heard of the food, but had not remembered the immortality part. Also was reminded of the perfumed small bottles of oil I got while in Israel of spikenard, lily of the valley, frankincense and myrrh.

So asking the Lord what He wants to say and got:

"I am setting up a very wealthy banqueting table for my sons and daughters to come feast at. I am wanting to share more of the Word and the wisdom about My Word so ask when you read for wisdom that comes from above. I am a wealthy Father and I love to lavish my children with gifts, just out of My love for them.

I am pouring out anointings and rubbing my bride with oils, getting her ready for her wedding day. I am preparing her like Esther was perfumed, and readied to go into the king. I am rubbing and rubbing on you and like lotion penetrates the skin softening it and making it pliable, and oil penetrates, leaving the smell of it…I am softening you to the work of My Spirit, that you will be pleasing to your King when He comes to make His home in you in greater measure.

Esther was rubbed with myrrh for 6 months and then other oils. Myrrh is the symbol of suffering and death. Some of you are dying some more to your own agenda and thoughts of what life should be for you. Some are surely being rubbed with myrrh, for only then can you be raised in glory with Me.

Romans 8:17 Amp
And [if] we are His children, then we are His heirs also: heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ sharing His inheritance with Him; only we must share His suffering if we are to share His glory.

I gave up My glory, that you could receive salvation and healing and all that I have planned for you. A good Father is not selfish with his children. He does not take the food off the plates of his own children to feed himself, or covet what they have for his own. He isn't given to partiality and stinginess. He longs to impart something of worth to his own that will endure for eternity. I AM that Good Father and I know exactly what I am doing. I know the beginning from the end. I know what will help you to lay down your life as I laid down Mine. I know what will build your character and what will heal your character!

Nothing will be left untouched when I am finished. I am the perfect Creator! You were not an after-thought! I know you inside and out. I know you in ways no one else does. I do only what is good for you. Taste and see that the Lord is good!

I also know how to set the table and just who to set next to each other. Just like at a wedding feast you take care to set some next to others, I know who fit together and who do not. My wisdom is wiser than the wisdom of men. I am aligning you with those who will work together with you and bring to the table talents you had not thought of. I can see ahead to the outcome of what I am bringing together and Father knows best!

I am also accurate in My timing and will see to it that all is worked out in perfect timing and preparation for each task and each team.

Just like football teams pick new players and lineups for each year, I am lining up teams in My army that will be perfectly suited to bring down strongholds over cities and nations, tribes and clans. Each warrior is suited with the appropriate tools and weapons of warfare. So trust Me in putting it all together.

Just like a flower arrangement is made with varying colors and types of flowers, I am assembling My army in troops and teams that will destroy the ramparts of the enemy. Apostolic teams will go forth in power and glory to shake the nations. Nothing will be withheld from those who are willing to go for Us.

Prepare your hearts for battle My love. Put on your armor daily! Do not forget the enemy is prowling about for whom he may devour. Do not think I will allow him the upper hand! I know his ways and am greater and more powerful than any weapon he can bring against you.

I then saw a match striking, and what seemed like a powder keg being lit.

What has been a small ember burning inside you, is nothing to what I am about to do in you! I am turning up the HEAT My Bride and all that you have longed for will be fulfilled. Keep your eyes on ME!

Was led to look up strike and some stood out :

Rev 19:15-16 NKJV
15 Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16 And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written:
KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

Zech 10:11 NKJV
He shall pass through the sea with affliction,
And strike the waves of the sea:
All the depths of the River shall dry up.
Then the pride of Assyria shall be brought down,
And the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

Zech 12:4 NKJV
In that day," says the LORD,"I will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness; I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

Mal 4:6 NKJV And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,
And the hearts of the children to their fathers, Lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."

Acts 23:3 NKJV Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! For you sit to judge me according to the law, and do you command me to be struck contrary to the law?"

Harbor Lights
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 8th, 2004 1:05 am

I have called you to be harbor lights to those who are in darkness.
I am raising up a prophetic generation that can speak into the lives of the lost what the Father is saying so they will know that Jesus is the only solid Rock upon which to stand. There are many storms on the horizon, and like a harbor light that warns the ships of impending danger, I have called many of you to be harbor lights that speak to this generation.

Some of you have been given a small number of people to influence in a significant way. You go about your daily lives and you shine with My radiance and you generate warmth and love to all around you. This is who I have made you to be. And many will come to the light of My glory because you are faithful in all you do to reflect My character; My love.

For many ships, there is fog and smog that inhibits their view of the harbor light, obscuring their view. But with My light within you, nothing can obscure the view. My light drives out the darkness. It makes a clear path to the Light that is within you, that others can see My mercy, My love, My peace and kindness. Even a little bit of light drives out the darkness.

I want My children to have the FULLNESS of My light so that whatever obscures the vision in another may be destroyed and brought to illumination.
The fullness of My glory comes only when you know the fullness of My love.

Eph 3:17-19 AMP
17 May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love,
18 That you may have the power and be strong to apprehend and grasp with all the saints [God's devoted people, the experience of that love] what is the breadth and length and height and depth [of it];
19 [That you may really come] to know [practically, through experience for yourselves] the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge [without experience]; that you may be filled [through all your being] unto all the fullness of God [may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself]!

Some are content with just some love, as it’s more than they may have had before. But in this case it is ok to be discontent. It’s ok to want more and more of My love. My love will drive out the darkness. It is as strong as death. So it is a powerful tool against the enemy. I am fixing to DEMONSTRATE on a fuller scale, the power of My love to My own, that they may fully recognize it’s value, and receive the fullness of what I want to pour into you.

So ASK to be filled with it! Ask for it to be poured out in your love feasts.
Ask for it to permeate your very being. ASK and you will be filled. Come into My courts with thanksgiving for what I have given you, and into My gates with praise, and you will find Me there, pouring and pouring and pouring into you all that you need of this love. I am sending that river of honey that will annihilate all the jealousy within My church. It will destroy all competition and selfish ambition. It will destroy all that has kept you from intimacy with Me. It will come with FIRE and burn off all the dross left in My people, that they might finally realize the value of My love for them.

My love will transform you, and you will begin to understand one another and love one another in the manner I have desired for you to do. You cannot do this all yourself. Many have tried and failed. BUT when I come and do this in you, it will not fail. My wisdom is above all your earthly wisdom. Your eyes will be made new, and you will see each other much more clearly. I admonish you, that if you will come now, it will be a far less painful experience when I come into the church with this river of fire. Lay aside all the busyness, and come and spend yourselves on Me, come to Me and let me touch you and make you new. You will also gain wisdom for how to touch the lost without judging them. You will no longer focus on their sins, but rather on loving them for who they are to Me. You will learn to trust others to ME. You will no longer be filled with the lusts of this world. All insecurity will flee. Come and gaze upon My beauty, that I may fill you with it!

Hope is Eternal

Ps 31:24 NKJV Be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart, all you who hope in the LORD.

I AM your Hope and Your Salvation. Is there anything too hard for Me?
Is there anything or anyone beyond My repair and restoration? Am I Who created all living things unable to do anything to change people. Was it not I Who hardened pharaoh's heart? Was it not I Who made the lame walk and the blind to see.

I can change those who are blind in their hearts, even as I changed My servant Paul. It is unbelief that holds you back at times My children. You think somehow I have grown tired and weary of your prayers, or of your statements of faith. I am not deaf. I am not ignorant or apathetic to the needs you have. I know what it takes to form character in a man or woman…to make them people of FAITH and PERSERVERANCE.

Do you think you have what it takes to perservere under terrible persecution like My Chinese children? Do you think you can sway a nation as they have with their martyrdom and their perserverance under hardship? For you will have to in the days ahead. Will you be bravehearts? The most terrible one is coming and unless you are strong in the power of My Word and in the Power of My BEING, being made more and more in the image and likeness of Me, can you endure the firey trials that lie ahead.

My ways are PERFECT. My timing is always perfect. I know what it takes to stretch a man or woman and I know what it takes to motivate them. I know you! I know you perfectly! I know that what you think you have endured is NOTHING in the Western world compared to My children in the Eastern world. So I am doing what is best for you. I know the plans I have for you, plans for good and not for evil to give you a future and a hope. So don’t think I don’t have every step mapped out. You grow impatient in your humanness, but I am NOT impatient. I am the Patient One.

Rom 5:2-5 NKJV through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; 4 and perseverance, character; and character, hope. 5 Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

I am fitting you and molding you and making you into the toughest fighting machine of all time. I am fitting you in with foreigners even that there will be cross cultural blending of characteristics and learning of HUMILITY as many of other cultures know much more of humility than you do. You are a proud nation but you are being humbled, that you might be saved. Surely in a flood of great waters I will save you.

Ps 32:6-7 NKJV For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to You
In a time when You may be found; Surely in a flood of great waters they shall not come near him. 7 You are my hiding place; You shall preserve me from trouble; You shall surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

I AM Your bastion of HOPE! I am HOPE that endures forever! I AM the Eternal Hope of mankind. If I am your Hope, then you should expect good, and not bad, even if circumstances change. For good and evil falls on both the righteous and the wicked. But those who HOPE in their God will never be put to shame. They have an eternal promise and a reason for being. You are only strangers here. Your home is in the heavenlies. I am a MIGHTY GOD and you are My children. So do not forsake the HOPE that lies within you.
Know that no matter what comes, I AM WITH YOU! I AM EMMANUEL.
I am always with you! I will never leave you nor forsake you.

You have reason to rejoice for although trouble may come, I am giving you a decision of FAVOR and I will sustain you amidst all the trials coming on the earth if you will stay YOUR hope in ME. I will keep him in perfect PEACE whose mind is stayed on ME! Speak My Word and BELIEVE My Word for it is LIFE and health to your soul.

Ps 33:18 NKJV Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him,
On those who hope in His mercy,

Ps 71:14 NKJV But I will hope continually, and will praise You yet more and more.

Ps 119:49 NKJV ZAYIN Remember the word to Your servant, upon which You have caused me to hope.

Ps 119:81 NKJV KAPH My soul faints for Your salvation, but I hope in Your word.

Ps 130:5-7 NKJV I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in His word I do hope. 6 My soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning — Yes, more than those who watch for the morning. 7 O Israel, hope in the LORD; for with the LORD there is mercy, and with Him is abundant redemption.

Prov 10:28 NKJV The hope of the righteous will be gladness, but the expectation of the wicked will perish.

Prov 13:12 NKJV Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.

Prov 26:12 NKJV Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Jer 14:8-9 NKJV O the Hope of Israel, his Savior in time of trouble, Why should You be like a stranger in the land, and like a traveler who turns aside to tarry for a night? 9 Why should You be like a man astonished, like a mighty one who cannot save? Yet You, O LORD, are in our midst, and we are called by Your name; Do not leave us!

Jer 17:7-8 NKJV "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, and whose hope is the LORD. 8 For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters,
Which spreads out its roots by the river, And will not fear when heat comes; But its leaf will be green,
And will not be anxious in the year of drought, Nor will cease from yielding fruit.

Jer 29:11-14 NKJV For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. 12 Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. 13 And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.

Zech 9:12-13 NKJV Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope.
Even today I declare that I will restore double to you. 13 For I have bent Judah, My bow, fitted the bow with Ephraim, and raised up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and made you like the sword of a mighty man."

Rare Beauty
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 10th, 2004
tearsofthefather@comcast.net
www.upstreamca.org

There is one whom My heart beats for. She is devastating in beauty and rare in this world. She is one who has said yes to me in every area of her life. She has said, take over Lord, You know best. I am nothing without You.
Take my heart. Take my mind, perfect my will, that I can be and do all you want me to be and do.

Who doesn't want a bride like this? I can see the heart in you My bride.
I see the heart that says yes and leaps to obey and to say have Your way.
Thus I have made My plans for those who are of this bride, even if their flesh is resistant, even if their circumstances seem dim, because they have said yes to ME. I will say YES to them when they call. I will do whatever their heart desires that is in line with My will. I will provide for them abundantly out of my storehouses. The wealth that belonged to others will be brought them. For when they were sick, when they were weak, they thought of others besides themselves. They gave out of their weakness and were not selfish with whatever they had.

I will their families. I will restore their lost ones. I will restore gifts in them to make them shine like the stars in the heavens. They will hear My voice behind them saying “ This is the way, walk in it “. They will ride on the high hills of the earth. They will restore the lame and sick and tormented because I can trust them to say yes to My will in their lives. Their families will be blessed. Their health will be blessed and they will be restored. They have not wanted to stay in judgmentalism and criticism, but have tried to keep themselves from strife and condemnation of others. THIS is My bride.
These are those for whom I will do anything. They consider the poor and they do not judge them or resent them. They have My COMPASSION, and they walk in LOVE.

They go through persecution and affliction without complaining. In the midst of pain and hurt, they turn to ME and WORSHIP ME! They refuse to be counted with the ungrateful. They are thankful for all I have done, or allowed without resenting Me. They are now coming forth as GOLD and they will be wrought like gold and in the fire, they will GLOW! They will radiate My beauty. I will give them a coat of many colors to wear and they will be given the scepter of authority. The crown upon their heads will be gold, fitted with precious jewels, for they are such to ME…rare and precious jewels.

Job 23:9-10 NKJV When He works on the left hand, I cannot behold Him;
When He turns to the right hand, I cannot see Him. 10 But He knows the way that I take; When He has tested me, I shall come forth as gold.

Ps 68:13 NKJV Though you lie down among the sheepfolds, You will be like the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold."

Ps 45:7-17 NKJV You love righteousness and hate wickedness; Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You With the oil of gladness more than Your companions. 8 All Your garments are scented with myrrh and aloes and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made You glad. 9 Kings' daughters are among Your honorable women; At Your right hand stands the queen in gold from Ophir.
10 Listen, O daughter, Consider and incline your ear; Forget your own people also, and your father's house; 11 So the King will greatly desire your beauty; Because He is your Lord, worship Him. 12 And the daughter of Tyre will come with a gift; The rich among the people will seek your favor.
13 The royal daughter is all glorious within the palace; Her clothing is woven with gold. 14 She shall be brought to the King in robes of many colors; The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to You. 15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be brought; They shall enter the King's palace. 16 Instead of Your fathers shall be Your sons, Whom You shall make princes in all the earth.
17 I will make Your name to be remembered in all generations; Therefore the people shall praise You forever and ever.

Mal 3:17-18 NKJV
17 "They shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts, "On the day that I make them My jewels. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him." 18 Then you shall again discern between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

Mal 4:2-3 NKJV
2 But to you who fear My name the Sun of Righteousness shall arise
With healing in His wings; And you shall go out and grow fat like stall-fed calves. 3 You shall trample the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this," Says the LORD of hosts.

Termites
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 9th, 2004

Termites have invaded My house for some time now and the structure that has been will no longer be, because it is eaten away. The shell that is standing is only that in many cases and true foundation has rotted.
Just as termites eat away at the wood that holds up the building, so these termites in the spirit eaten away at all that holds up My church.

I am bringing in some fire starters that will exterminate the termites and drive out all vermin, and reestablish TRUTH as it's foundation in ME. Behold I am the Masterbuilder and anything not built on My truth is a counterfeit.

1 Cor 3:10-15 NKJV
10 According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it. 11 For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13 each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is. 14 If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward. 15 If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

I Am Truth and My words have not been as important to some as the words of My prophets. Yet they will stand forever as the standard of righteousness. My words are sometimes hard. But unless they are the words upon which all others are evaluated…that foundation is faulty. My words are not there to entertain, like many think they should. They are TRUTH and they are LIFE for those who eat them. When you eat something, you don't just taste it, but you swallow it, you digest it, it becomes then a part of you.
It's no longer something you hold in your hand or your mind, but it becomes a part of your life; you live it!

When it lives inside of you and becomes a part of you, it becomes what you are about. You live it, and don't just talk about it. Many talk a good talk. But their walk is far from their talk. Truthfully, all that is set apart for My use as a precious vessel will be tried by fire. And if you are sincere in your heart, you will withstand the fires of affliction, persecution and suffering, and you will come forth as gold.

Firestarters are regarded as dangerous people by some. But by others they are treasured, because they bring purification and challenge the wrong thinking that many have based their lives on. Some of these firestarters will be your youth, because I have been busy building their thinking to align with My principles. Be careful that you don't dismiss the challenges to your thinking that they will bring. You will know who they are, because they will challenge your ways of thinking and cause you to look at what you truly believe. They will recognize the phonyness of those who are pretenders.
They do not stop till they get the right answer. They have keen discernment and can smell when someone is a liar. They are also keen observers and can tell when someone is saying something just to impress, and when they are actually speaking from truth that has been digested.

I have others that will not have all the truth, but will have such a desire for Truth, that they also will challenge the status quo in many churches. They will tear down the idols in the House of the Lord, by their very prodding for the truth. Watch how you react to My firestarters. For I will not take it lightly if you do to them what you have done to my older prophets. Being real will count for much with this generation. Ask yourself, are you able to be real with them? Can you resist covering up, can you be who you really are? They are a hungry generation. They have endured much damage. They need healing, not just damage control. They need love that is real, not just adjusting to your ways of doing things.

18 I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see.
19 Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest, and repent. 20 Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me.

21 To him who overcomes, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne.

How did I overcome? Did I not rely on My Father for strength and everything that I needed in My hour of trial? And so must you rely on Father to get you through the trials that are coming. Do not think you can hide anything from Him. He knows all things and every part of you. He loves you and will do only what is best for you.

This winnowing will cause strain in the systems that are white washed; church systems, marriage and family systems. All will be tested and come forth as gold when refined by the fires.

Cling to Me, for I am a God close at hand, and not afar off. I was the fourth man in the fire in Babylon and I will be with you in these trials. Many have already been through their trials and are now coming out to freedom. They have learned to worship Me in the midst of trial and affliction. They will help lead you out!

America's Judgment

Hollie L. Moody

(June 19th, 2001) hlmoody61@aol.com)
I experienced the following vision ~~

There was a tremendous mob of people. They were milling around. The noise was incredible. For some reason, I sensed that all these people were claiming to be Christians.

I heard some of the people preaching and prophesying. Whenever someone began to preach and / or prophesy, crowds of people would run over to this person and gather around them. Then, another person would begin to preach and / or prophesy, and large crowds of people would then run over to that other person to listen to them.

Soon, there was a tremendous confusion of sermons and words from the Lord being shouted out to the crowds of people. The whole scene was one of absolute chaos and confusion.

But suddenly, I heard a small whisper. Some of the other people appeared to hear the small whisper also. We began to follow the sound of this small whisper to its source. The source was the Lord.

He was standing out in a desert, wilderness scene. A small group of people were standing quietly and solemnly around the Lord. In contrast with the mob of people I had just left, this group of people was extremely quiet and silent. They were very intense and totally focused upon the Lord. They were looking off in the distance, as if waiting for more to join them.

I watched as the Lord began to hand out small, rolled-up scrolls to each person. As each person received a scroll, they would stand to the right of the Lord. Soon, each person had received a scroll.

"What is this scroll, Lord?" someone asked.

"It is a message from Me," the Lord replied. "I have given to those of My children who have heard My still, small voice a message to deliver. They each have their orders from Me, and know exactly who to take the message to, and what the message is. They are to go only to who I send them to, and speak only what I have told them to speak."

Immediately after I experienced this vision, the Lord instructed me to go and take a nap; that He was going to speak to me in a dream.

The Lord telling me He is going to speak to me in a dream has never happened to me before, so I tried this voice to see if it was really from the Lord or not. I went to take my nap, and before I fell asleep, the Lord spoke the following to me. He said ~~

"I will be speaking to you in visions and dreams, and you will not understand them. I will instruct you who to speak of them to. These people will know what to do with them, and what they mean. This is a time of many voices clamoring to be heard. Pay close attention to whose voice you do and do not listen to. Take heed to your soul."

I then fell asleep and had the following dream ~~

I was in a room. The walls of this room were covered with pictures of babies being born. I was going from picture to picture, studying each one. Each stage of labor was represented.

This was the whole dream. Upon awakening, I was extremely puzzled and perplexed by this dream.

The next day, I experienced another vision. This was a horrific vision to me, and I've held it inside for another day because of how truly horrible and frightening it was to me.

I saw an angel with a large scale step out of the portals of heaven. This was one of those old-fashioned type scale that has like a small bowl on each side. As one side is weighted, the other side goes up and vice versus.

This angel began to place weights upon first one side of the scale, then the other. When both sides were equally weighted, a voice called out, "Hold!" (I somehow knew this voice belonged to the Lord.)

There was a very intense waiting silence after this command was called out.

I then realized that I was way up in the heaves, looking down on the earth. My attention became directed and centered upon the United States. I saw like a shield in place around America. Angels were on the inside of the shield, bracing themselves against it.

I then saw hordes of demons on the other side of this shield, pushing frantically and furiously against their side of the shield. They were howling angrily. It terrified me.

I saw those with the small rolled-up scrolls running with their message from the Lord. They were weeping and wailing as they ran, and also as they delivered their message. After they delivered their message, they would fall flat on their faces and continue to wail and lament.

Many who were the recipients of these messages also fell flat on their faces after they received and read the message. I heard their cries of repentance echoing throughout America. (The dream about the babies being born came back to my mind at this point. What I was seeing in this portion of the vision made me think of a birthing of revival brought about through tears of repentance and godly sorrow.)

Others who received the message, threw it away in disgust and disdain after having read it.

My attention then became focused upon Washington, DC. (I was still way up in the heavens in this vision, looking down upon this scene.) Something was transpiring within the White House. I saw some sort of "waves" undulating out from within the White House. These waves had some sort of far-reaching repercussions.

When these waves came forth from within the White House, I heard the angels who were still pushing against the demons on their side of the shield begin to wail and keen. When the demons saw the waves emanating from within the White House, they began to scream with victory.

The angel with the scale put one more weight upon one side of the scale. One side of the scale hit the ground.

When this occurred, the shield around America fell down, and the demons streamed into America, howling and in a frenzy.

I heard a voice proclaim, and once again, I knew it to be the Lord's voice ~~

"America! America! How oft I sent My prophets to you, and you scorned and ignored them. How oft I revealed Myself in majesty and power to you. You enjoyed the power and majesty, yet not the cost of following Me.

"Your ground is soaked with the blood of the innocents, and how shall I ignore or overlook this when it continues daily to occur? Your streets overflow with degradation. Many of your churches reek with hypocrisy, and My sheep have been driven away and have been left to wander alone; where they have become meat and prey for the wolves.

"Yet, I would wipe out these sins, and blot out their remembrance; if you had only returned unto Me with all your heart. I have stayed My judgment for a season. I will stay it no longer. You have been weighed, and have been found wanting. I have no pleasure in your judgment, America. Prepare to meet your Maker."

I then watched scene after scene of carnage and terror befall America. I just don't want or desire to go into detail about it. My heart was breaking as I witnessed all of this, and I was myself filled with horror and terror.

I went into the bedroom of each of my three precious, wonderful little children. Tears of fear fell down my cheeks as I gazed down at each one of my sleeping children, wondering in my heart what would befall them. If some of these scenes I witnessed actually do come to pass, I know that one of my children at least, would not survive. She has need of special medical supplies for insulin dependent diabetes. These supplies would be extremely limited to impossible to locate or receive if any of this vision actually occurs in her lifetime.

I don't have a time frame for any of this. If I am mocked or ridiculed for sharing this vision, I accept that. Once again, let me repeat, I pray this vision is false or does not occur. I will continue to pray and intercede for my country, and for a spirit of repentance to sweep across the shores of America. Yet, part of me feels that judgment will only be stayed if such a spirit of repentance does occur. The judgment is set. Too much has occurred within the borders of America for there to be no reaping of what has been sown for centuries.

I love America. I love my country. I love being an American. I love the American flag and our national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner."

I will continue to pray for a spirit of repentance to come upon my nation.

In Him,

A Matter Of Discovery
Sandy Warner

It's A Matter Of Discovery - Practical Teaching About Revelation

NOTE: When the Lord speaks to us, it is always in part. Once we swallow what little He has said, He builds upon it with another part. I apply this in a practical way by using the computer search features to find common words He had already spoken. For instance, at the time of writing this post, this first entry is what I heard:

HEARD - I will go with you. It's a matter of discovery. Go gifted one. Soar.

SEARCHING FOR COMMON WORDS When pondering the above phrase the word "discovery" was quickened to me. I typed in the word discover and the rest of these entries are excerpts of some of the things I had already heard about the concept. As you will see, each entry has a little more light shed on the quickened word "discovery." By the end, we have a fuller picture of exactly what we are discovering.

HEARD: Delivered.

ANOINTED HANDS: I opened to the scripture:

Luke 10:18-19 NKJV And He said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

Then I turned to 2 Words to Ponder with the titles: Ruling Authority and Fruit of Deliverance.

HEARD: Say now ruling hands. He brought me forth into a large place. Gifted. You have yet to discover how truly gifted you are. Personality. Rainbow. Instinct.

WORD TO PONDER: INCREASE A STEP AT A TIME I AM constantly delivering you from a strong enemy, when you use the gifts I give. As you grow and grow in your gifts and authority, I will bring you into larger and larger territory. You have yet to discover how truly gifted you are. I have planted a great wealth of My anointing within you, and in the days to come you shall recognize it as "instinctive intuition" which is actually My Holy Spirit within.

"They demonstrate that God's law is written within them, for their own consciences either accuse them or tell them they are doing what is right." (Rom 2:15 NLT)

HEARD: It was a long war. Stand. Overcomer. Did you let it slide? Not at all. Resist. There's a change coming. Valiant ones. Kept My watch. Beauty for ashes. Equipped. Things will never be the same. I AM with you says the Lord. A new alignment. Broader, expanded territory. Front lines. Defeated. Move into your place. Be free.

I kept you. Strong, unyielding and resistant. A long war effort and then some. Neighbors "Intimidation and Bullying" towering over you. I took them. It's true says the Lord. Defeated. Penalty. I drew a line. A line that says halt. And now you have room to expand.

Test the waters. Sweet medicine. There's healing. Loose them. Dead ones on the cross. Yielded to Me. It's a sacrifice says the Lord. Willing ones. Erase your sins. Forgotten. I only see glory. My Love for you. Kept. Do you understand? You will. Let Me carry you to the finish line. Well done, My servant. Thank you. Let's see what we can do for her. She's Mine. She will shine. My glory in her midst. I laugh with joy. As she discovers.

VISION: I saw myself spreading my hands and then looking at my palms.

HEARD: I AM with you says the Lord. New beginning. Effectively immediately. Now begin. Rejoice. Such joy.

VISION: I saw my Beloved. He slipped in beside me and we did a little twirly dance together. WORD TO PONDER: DELIVERED MY VALIANT ONES My valiant ones, keeping My watch, you have been through a very, very long war lasting many years. You faced strong, unyielding forces. They towered over you in strength, intimidation and bullying. And yet you stood and did not give an inch of territory. Through it all, you yielded to Me, and became My sacrifice for whatever purpose I chose. Thank you, faithful friends.

The towering giants who were too strong for you, I have spoken against them and drawn a line. I said, "Halt, you can not pass My divine restraint." And now I AM removing them from your midst, so that you will have a broad and free territory in which to expand. These giants are like hewn trees in a forest, cut and stripped for a pathway out of the battle. I AM removing them with My mighty hand.

I know you are tired from such a long battle, but remember loved ones, expanded borders beckon. Yes, they are bought and won with a price. But oh what joys await you as you test the waters for yourself! Stretch forth your hands to heal. Shine with My glory. Dance and twirl with joy, for I AM delivering My valiant ones.

"I will love You, O LORD, my strength. The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer; My God, my strength, in whom I will trust; My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; So shall I be saved from my enemies." (Ps 18:1-3 NKJV)

HEARD: It's a matter of discovery. Justice going to bat for you. Hold My hand, precious, we are going somewhere. Move you up a notch.

FINAL NOTE: As you can see by my search using the word "discover" there was quite a revelation of where we have been, where we are, and where we are going. This post is a relevant Word for us today, because I started with the most recent Word the Lord gave to me, then I circled around the concept to add further detail, then bringing it back to the last Word given in chronological order. In example, where we are at right now, is the God of Justice is going to bat for us! Praise Him!

If this concept of connecting words is new to you, it might take a stretch of faith to accept that all these specific entries with the word "discover" were meant by the Lord to join together. I have been keeping daily records for 20 years and have thousands of examples of Him joining common Words to pinpoint exactly where we are. He has thoroughly planted this as a foundation in my life in how He speaks. His Words and ways are very intricate, weaving in even the tiniest details. His works are a movement of His Spirit and not a skill of the mind or brain, however He gives us signposts to help us stay on track and confirm our journey along the way. These signposts are little common denominator words that continue to build revelation into an ever increasing and expanding circle.

CONCLUSION

WORD TO PONDER: REVEALED AS YOU GO
Yes, your Lord God of Justice has gone to bat for you, dear ones! You have suffered so much at the hands of the giants. As you have yielded to your own personal crosses and died to self, this has touched all of heaven. A great expanse of territory has been bought and won with great price. You shall go forth conquering that which stands in your way. Go forth, My faithful ones. You will not go alone, no, - not ever. I will go with you. My light shall shine before you as you move forward. I hope you will enjoy your trip, for it will be a road of discovery. Wonderful healing is awaiting you in your new land.

Deut 29:29-30:1 KJV The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

Heb 11:8 NLT It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going.

Boring Through The Pressure
Sandy Warner

May 14, 2004
All who live righteous in Christ Jesus shall suffer tribulation. The enemy hates My Name, and anything that I love. Fear not, beloved, for even though you feel you are in a tight and crowded place, I will bring you through to the other side. As you trust in Me to do this, you are boring through the pressures. This is creating a channel to pass through for others who are following the same path. Yes, your persecution is a sacrifice, but how beautiful are those who walk in My pathways of servanthood. These pressures are really your friends, for they are moving you forward through a birthing canal. There is light on the other side of this and joy awaits you, My friend.

"So he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will dwell among them. They shall neither hunger anymore nor thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any heat; for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to living fountains of waters. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes." (Rev 7:14-17 NKJV)

How May I Help You
Sandy Warner

May 15, 2004
[A Revelation About the Holy Spirit]

Many times this past year I have heard the phrase, "How may I help you?" At first I wondered if there was something that I wasn't doing that needed to be done. I wondered if I needed to pray more. Then I began to hear the phrase more often and I wondered if I was hearing the angels ask me this question, because angels are sent to serve us as heirs of His kingdom.

This week I heard the simple phrase again during the night. "How may I help you?" The flash of the following scripture came to mind. It was the Holy Spirit that had been asking me that!

John 14:16-18 NKJV
And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever -- the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you.

I was reduced to tears. The powerful Lord God of the universe had humbled Himself so much, as to come in the form of the tiny, still small voice and ask a simple handmaiden a simple question. I went to bed with a heart full and no answer. I was overcome and deeply humbled. With all His power in the world, all I could think of was the humble heart of a Servant asking me this question.

AUDIBLE VOICE [2/17/04]
A few hours later, in the early hours after midnight, from the vicinity of the foot of my bed, I heard the very cheerful, audible voice of a Man who said, "Good Morning!" I could not see Him, but I knew He was the Holy Spirit. Then in His still small voice He spoke to me. Here is an excerpt of what I heard Him say:

HEARD: I AM a Person. Just like you, with feelings. This is where I belong. VISION: I saw an identical picture of what I was literally doing. I was laying on my side, with my head on my pillow, and my hand resting upon my cheek.

HEARD: Pillow talk. Resting beside you. Where I belong. On that side too.

[I laughed out loud! I had just turned over on my other side in bed with my hand in the same exact position! How precious He is!]

HEARD: Inside of you. I wait every day. To commune.

Acts 7:49 AMP
Heaven [is] My throne, and earth the footstool for My feet. What [kind of] house can you build for Me, says the Lord, or what is the place in which I can rest?

John 14:23 AMP
Jesus answered, If a person [really] loves Me, he will keep My word [obey My teaching]; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home (abode, special dwelling place) with him.

CONFIRMATIONS
Right after that night I received 2 emails. One lady said, "Can I help you in some way?" The very next day another wrote and said, "Is there anything I can do to help? What are your needs?" With the same beautiful and humble hearts as the Holy Spirit, this was the Voice of My Lord speaking to me. Once again I was overcome and wordless at the heart of this King Who is a Servant.

John 13:3-9 NLT
Jesus knew that the Father had given him authority over everything and that he had come from God and would return to God. So he got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist, and poured water into a basin. Then he began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel he had around him. When he came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, "Lord, why are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus replied, "You don't understand now why I am doing it; someday you will." "No," Peter protested, "you will never wash my feet!" Jesus replied, "But if I don't wash you, you won't belong to me." Simon Peter exclaimed, "Then wash my hands and head as well, Lord, not just my feet!"

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration.}

WORD TO PONDER: COMMUNION
My love, how I long for our fellowship and communion! I so long for when you will awaken to My voice. I earnestly wait for our quiet times when all distractions are set aside. I love to bring you good cheer and speak My Words to comfort you and put strength into your being.

Your first training ground to hear My voice has been at night time when the distractions of the day are forgotten. I live within you and also along side of you as you toss and turn in your bed. PEACE. I AM there, dear one! I AM making my resting place within you and along side of you. A day is fast approaching when you will be at such rest in Me that you will be able to hear My still small voice even during the busiest of days. All shall grow out of our intimate times of communion.

John 16:7-15 NKJ
"Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you. And when He has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they do not believe in Me; of righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.

Humility And Answers
Sandy Warner

May 10, 2004
How I have longed to place you and connect you with where you belong. Yes, and how long you have yearned for this, dear heart. Remember, that servanthood takes the lowest place. Servanthood does not demand its own place, it waits till all are placed. This means trusting that what is left is exactly where you belong.

You will find that as you come low before Me, the river of My Presence washes your feet from the dust of the world. If you bend lower, it will wash your knees from bruises. If you lay even lower My river shall flow through your whole body, and the ashes of your pain will wash downstream, never to be seen again.

Isa 61:3 NKJV
To console those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; That they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified."

Separation And Ashes
Sandy Warner

May 12, 2004

As the years of shaking mount, even as the birth pangs of a travailing woman, I AM drawing all things to a climax. That which belongs to Me will be separated unto Me and purified. That which does not belong to Me will be increasingly warned, lest they be separated from Me for eternity.

The fuller's soap and the refiner's fire have one thing in common& ashes. The refiner's fire burns the dross and leaves the ashes. Fuller's soap is made from ashes and oil. It is the ashes of repentance that cleanses soiled garments. Lay low, bowing your heart in humility before Me. I will mix the blood of My Son, and the oil of the Holy Spirit with the ashes of your life and offer mercy. I will restore your losses and join you forever with Me.

Those that stand proud and defiant, hardening their hearts with willful sinning, will receive judgment. Judgment is My last option before eternal separation. Those that leave Me no other choice, I will judge. Even in judgment I love with an everlasting love. All things are coming to harvest. My house will be full before the door is shut.

Mal 3:2,3 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: And he shall sit as a refiner and purifer of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

A Message Of Preparation
Stephen Hanson

March 24, 2004

DA 11:36 "The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will say unheard-of things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been determined must take place.

1TH 5:1 Now, brothers, about times and dates we do not need to write to you, [2] for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. [3] While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

Rev. 13 [16] He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, [17] so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name.

"I tell you that things are going to be changing for the world over the next few months and year. For government systems will take on a new change of direction. Osama Bin Ladin will be found out by the end of the year. His capture will be good for the minds of many of the American people, but many in his original country will mourn for his capture. I tell you that you cannot root out all evil. You pull out old weeds from a garden and new ones will take their place. Even though these things will happen, liberalism will take on the form of much of the American governmental system. For the political party will be one of acceptance. Liberalism will be the order of the campaign coming this fall. No more will agendas be made as they have been made. I tell you that America will be losing ground with the rest of the world in terms of its ethical impact. For marriages and children will be held in jeopardy because of new laws that will be passed. I tell you that it is a short time before the anti-christ figure comes upon the scene. He will exalt himself above all others. I tell you that when they say "peace and safety" then beware, for that is when the real deception comes."

"Look to the east, for when you see the nations gather together then you will know that they are jockeying for position. Then out of a middle eastern country he will come. He will promise peace to many, but I tell you that peace will be far from his campaign. Do not take the mark that he desires, for with it then he has full control. You don't need to build-up resources for this day, for I will take care of you. I will take care of my people, and I will establish them in all of my ways. My people will be safe in times of trial and in times of distress. So, set you hearts and minds on Me and not on these things. Behold, I will come, and my kingdom will be an everlasting one. The sound of weeping and the cares of the world will be gone. I say these things to prepare you for what lies ahead."

Seek The Building Of My Spirit
Stephen Hanson

March 27, 04

1CO 3:10 By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as an expert builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should be careful how he builds. [11] For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. [12] If any man builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, [13] his work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each man's work. [14] If what he has built survives, he will receive his reward. [15] If it is burned up, he will suffer loss; he himself will be saved, but only as one escaping through the flames.

2SA 7:5 "Go and tell my servant David, `This is what the LORD says: Are you the one to build me a house to dwell in? [6] I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt to this day. I have been moving from place to place with a tent as my dwelling. [7] Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their rulers whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?" '

"A new day is coming. A new day is coming for many of my people. No more will my people be lacking. I tell you that the enemy of your souls will not triumph over you. From the rising of the sun to its setting down, I will watch over you. I tell you that difficult days are ahead but I will watch over you. Beware of what the world will promise you. Know that I will see you through the trials and temptations of this life. The waters will not overtake you and the flames will not touch you. I tell you that divine protection is found under my wings. Nothing will harm or hurt my people if they are found under my wings. "

"I tell you these things because you are entering into a new era and time. For the church, as a whole, will be going through a lot of changes. What are those changes? "

(The Lord showed me a vision of a small church. I was looking at it from above without a ceiling or roof on it. The walls were made of dirt and people were beginning to leave. Many of them were climbing up on ladders on the sides of the building, where the dirt walls were. They then climbed up and walked away. I noticed several pieces of rubble and rock where once a building was. There were pews and other accessories that one might find in a church today, except that the building itself was set into a dirt enclosure. The scene changed and now I saw jewels and riches being spilt upon the ground. As I watched, a man was taking something and was dispersing or scattering it upon the ground from side to side as he walked. This continued for some time, and then the vision faded.)

"I tell you that many within the body of Christ will pursue after riches in this hour. Those who pursue after the things of this world will be consumed by it. A new type of church will emerge out of the ground. It will be a place where I have "hollowed" it out. You will need to be in "protection" in these days, for no more will governments and agencies be a protection for you. Seek the building of my spirit."

The Church: A Mighty Weapon Or Loose Cannon?

I enjoyed so much reading a word this morning received by a prophet here in Wales, a clear picture of what God intends to do, and about the central position of God's Word in the fulfillment of His plans.

Words Needs To Be Turned Into Action

However, when I read words like the one I mentioned, I cannot help it but to point to a situation that we certainly need to look upon. While the prophetic, words and revelations and visions have increased dramatically in the last number of years and will increase even more dramatically in these last days, I see however a disconnection between words and action. Psalms 68:11: "The Lord gave the Word, great was the company of the preachers". While we hear lots of words still there is little action. Obviously some words are not to act upon immediately but to ponder and wait, however we need to be aware that there are many revelatory words from God that are linked to action on our part if they are going to come true.

A friend of mine told his students at the Bible School he leads in Spokane, WA "You have heard from God once, you have heard twice, thrice, even four times, how long until you start moving on what God has told you?

I have a great concern, and I am aware of how difficult a task it proves to be to bring a clear focus to the church. I mean for example: we hear so many words pointing to the harvest, the greatest harvest ever, but we do not see many people sowing. It is like people looking to the fields, unplowed, unsowed, singing to the rain to come, but unprepared and waiting for that rain that will bring the harvest. No amount of rain will bring forth a harvest if something has not been sown first. If all what we sow is rain we can expect to reap only mud.

The Church Is The Church Not The Nation.

I also see a let's say positional attitude in the church that is at odds with what the Bible teaches. We have received words about our nations and what God wants to do in our nations, but many if not most in the church fail to see that God uses the church to bring forth His plans, it is not the nation itself that ushers the blessings, no, the instrument is the church. In a sense we have assimilated the church to the nation, which is not true, the church is the church, and the nation is the nation. The church is planted in the nation, and although our nation might be considered a Christian nation, we have to admit that there is not much of Christ in our nation, and this in the end is to be blamed on the church itself, because we have blend in and made church and nation one thing. This in the end means that instead of transforming our nation, we are conforming to our nation's standards.

What I am saying above was the failure of Israel too. Israel was the nation of God, we can say the "church of those days". But Israel failed to fulfill God's plan of blessing the nations, mainly because they blended in with almost every nation assimilating their customs and life styles. The same is true of the church today; as long as the church keeps blending in, not keeping the holy separation from the world we cannot bring any good thing to the nation. We need to recover in a sense the saltiness of salt. If the church does not realize her unique position as a separated people, and not part of the world, then it cannot bless the nation either. We can bless only from a position of blessing and not from a cursed position. As long as we persist in bringing worldly methods, and views into the church, we will be standing on the same accursed ground where the world stands; what blessing can we give from there?

OBEDIENCE TO THE WORD IS THE STARTING POINT

We also need to recover the sense of obedience we see in the disciples in the Bible. How can we expect that people would move in what they hear from our prophets, if they do not obey the most basic commands from the Bible? The fact remains that there are quite a few commands in the Scriptures that do not need any confirmation, we just need to obey them: Go, preach, heal, teach, compel them...and so forth; we do not need any special revelation that tells us that we need to preach, or to pray, or to give, we just need to obey what God said in His Bible.

Basically the last paragraph shows the disconnection I was talking about at the beginning. God is revealing His plans for our nations, and for the end times revival, for the last harvest, amazing plans, amazing perspectives; the picture is so awesome! However the fulfillment of it all is linked primarily to obeying the basic principles as stated in the Great commission and all the other commands the Lord gave us. Of course God’s plans will be fulfilled because He spoke them. But we might find ourselves out of them, if we do not go back to the basics of obeying the Word.

Many people would argue that leaders seem to carry on everything without allowing the people to participate, so it seems that ministry belongs to the few; but this is a two side coin, while it is true that there are ministers that do not allow their people to get involved, there are also a lot, I’d say an awful lot of people that do not want to get involved, they’d rather pay someone to do the work.

We need to reconnect the church with her reason for being; otherwise the church is just a prettily wrapped empty box, or worse yet a loose cannon.

A New And Bold Church

Thomas Gibson

For thus saith the Lord. My power is blowing through the church. It will burn with fire all things. Those that stand on the Word in truth shall remain. Those that stand in the power of this earth shall be brought down.

No more shall sin enter at the door. I will prevent this by My power, saith the Lord.

With a new and bold church I will enter these last days with power. No more worldliness in the church. My power shall flow as it once did when I left this earth.

Those things that remain from the fire I will take out of the financial institutions that dares call itself "church" and I will build again My people.

So says the Lord of all.

Angelic Activity

Timothy Snodgrass

Dec 10, 2004
There is much angelic activity over the nations of the earth as we draw closer to the return of Jesus Christ. In order to overcome in the days ahead, we need to change the entire way we think. We need to think like angels. Our entire consciousness must undergo reformation. At our current mindset and way of thinking, we will not survive the shakings on the immediate horizon. The enemy wishes to create stress, which is the opposite of peace, but we must now be transformed into ambassadors of peace. As the earth begins to shake and travail, we must decide: we can either be messengers of fire, or messengers of stress. The Body of Christ is now being called into a new marriage, an alignment and partnership with the holy angels. Our thought patterns must undergo a quickening, a change, a reformation, a communion with the divine. Like lightning, our thoughts travel at the speed of light as prayers to the Throne. Although we have the wisdom of the ages available at our fingertips, we choose to live in darkness, addiction, dependency, stress, and defeat. This pattern must change by an act of our will, and must change now, or nations will perish. Do not remain chained to the spiritual and mental walls created by the enemy. Rise up above your adversary and overcome before it is too late, for the righteous judgments of God are now at hand. Though the earth shakes and is rent like a veil, remember that you are just a pilgrim passing through this small blue world among an eternal sea of stars, and that your pilgrimage is almost over!

Merry Christmas from the islands of the sea,

ISLANDS IN TURMOIL – REACHING OUT TO PHILIPPINE STORM VICTIMS

Recent storms in the Philippines have left nearly 1,800 dead or missing, thousands of homes destroyed, and 650,000 storm refugees who have displaced by mudslides and flooding. Many of those who have lost their homes have been fleeing to larger cities for shelter. I was recently touched by a family of four living on the sidewalk not far from us. All of their belongings were stuffed into one small box, and they were dressed in mud-covered rags; the mom was rocking a two-week old infant in her arms, while their young daughter was sleeping on the sidewalk, her legs covered with insect bites. Two weeks ago they had a home in the mountains, and farmed a rice field. Now they had nothing. The Holy Spirit placed it on our hearts us to buy them some new clothes, and make sure they had food and water every day. This was the beginning of an ongoing outreach to local storm victims. Please continue to intercede for beautiful people of the Philippine Islands, especially during this time of disaster.

An Alabaster Box

Bill Yount

Hurricanes Are Literally Breaking An Alabaster Box Open In The State Of Florida To Release A Sweet Anointing Over The Nation...Tell Florida To Hold On!"

I asked the Lord, "Why are all the hurricanes smashing the state of Florida?"

The Father answered me with a question, "What is stronger than all of the hurricanes put together, yet sweeter than honey?" The Father went on to say, "Hurricanes are literally breaking an alabaster box open in the state of Florida to release a sweet anointing over the nation!"

I heard a strong angel proclaiming over the state of Florida, "If you're going through hell, don't stop!"

"Operation Blue Roof" has been set up by the state to cover the roofs of houses and properties that have been damaged throughout the whole state. The blue roofs are blue plastic covering to temporary protect the roofs until they can be repaired. I sense these blue roofs represent 'spiritual' royal authority that is coming to cover the state of Florida. I saw 'roofing' angels descending upon the whole state proclaiming, "It's time now for 'royal' roofing to begin to be put on this state, upon the rooftops of houses, churches, schools, and government."

"Florida, I'm Giving You a 'Storm Runner' Anointing"

I sense the Lord wants to release something corporately, at this time, upon Florida that is more powerful than all of the hurricanes put together. I sense hell already has regretted its attack against this state. But God has allowed it for His Glory.

There is now being imparted into the state of Florida a "Hurricane Anointing" that will be known in hell by its authority over the powers of darkness throughout America.

I sense the Lord is taking the fear of storms out of His people throughout that state giving them a "Storm Runner" Anointing to run through troops and leap over high walls and storm the very gates of hell and deliver the prey back from the enemy for America! I sense a fountain of youth has been tapped into by the shaking of the hurricanes, releasing awesome mighty young warriors in children and youth that have been made strong through the storms and will become fearless towards giants in the land of America.

"Great Medical Breakthroughs Will Come Forth"

Looking back on the floods of the hurricanes, it will be said that in every place that there was troubled waters there will come forth great healings. There is healing in those troubled waters now! Great medical breakthroughs will come forth from this state of Florida to be released to the world. Hurricanes shook many breakthroughs free.

Every time a Hurricane was hitting you, it was breaking your alabaster box open more to be poured over a nation and the world!

Nahum 1:3 "The Lord has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet."

Ancient Times

Robin Paisley

3-30-04

And He said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, hereafter you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."
John 1:51

The days of seeing the heavens expanse open up before us are truly upon us! We have literally and spiritually broken through into new levels where we will walk into open heaven areas and be overwhelmed at the vastness of His Presence. We are also creating in our own living spaces open heavens, a portal into Heaven by simply just resting in Jesus, lying at His beautiful feet. With the new revelation that is pouring through these portals there will be many who will find themselves hungry for this knowledge but who are unwilling to spend time getting to know Papa and will operate mainly out of the second level realm, and with this we must continue to seek the Lord with all our hearts so that we will be able to discern between that which is spoken from this realm and that which comes straight from the Throne Room of God.

I have recently been visited by the two most glorious angels I have ever seen and their visitation not only had to do with the book the Lord has given me to write but also for the times we are coming in, they have much to deliver to us. The first angel was so glorious to look upon, as if I was peering right through him and into the past. His eyes were of no earthly color, but of amber and upon his forehead were written Ancient Destiny. (I must stop there and save the rest for the book.) Smiles………!

The second angel was much larger in size and bore the name Wisdom and Revelation. Both of these angels accompanied me on my trip to Moravian Falls where Yes, there truly is an open heaven, I have never seen such an awareness of His Glory in one area before, absolutely beautiful! Just hearing the words Ancient Destiny brings about a sweet taste in my mouth, oh to savor that which comes forth from The Ancient of Days for the coming days of divine visitations! In a vision from the Lord I saw beneath the earth a womb and inside this womb etched deep within its walls were the words "Historic Womb.' Much wealth of revelation is about to be birthed and in this release the Ancient of Days will breathe upon us His Ancient Winds from the four corners of the earth, these winds will bring forth our Ancient Destiny's. With this ancient wealth coming forth from the deep we must keep in mind that the enemy will also be hard at war in bringing up the past with false accusations, regrets and past sin but we must keep our eyes upon Jesus and He will be our Rock. All that is taking place right now has much to do with Divine Order in the body of Christ.

Daniel 7:9 "I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire."
7:13-14 "I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him, and there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed."
7:21-22 'I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them, until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the Saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom."

Before leaving on my trip I kept seeing in the spirit, large golden eagles soaring low to the ground, while in Moravian Falls I saw them land. Many golden eagles were stationed all over the world on dry land in order to protect the saints the Lord has taken underground. This deep burial in the Lord is required for the days ahead so that we will hear Papa's voice ever so clearly even through the most darkest of times. I could see many saints going underground in what appeared to be through snake holes and the eagles standing guard above. I then saw many rattlesnakes making their way back to their homes and the eagles would wait until only their tails were left visible and pick them up with their large powerful talons and literally drop them into much larger holes nearby, full of fire, what an awesome seen of God's grace, mercy and love! We are being given back our land precious saints, our inheritance that was stolen by the enemy and the only way to do this is to keep close to Papa's heart and He will send in the reinforcements, the Golden Eagles, Amen!

While in Moravian Falls I had the most joyous visit with Bob Jones, he and his wife Viola are truly the most humble of God's people I have ever met. Bob spoke mainly on the need of many saints who are not hearing or feeling anything from the Lord at the moment to step out into situations and plans the Lord is not directing quite yet, this will lead to much work in the flesh instead of the rest the Lord is requiring in Him. By waiting upon the Lord, He will lead you out in the right timing, into the right situations and then there will be no striving but freely moving by the spirit of the Lord. I will share more of this visit later when I have had time to digest all that took place.

Don't forget to check out Pleiades star cluster! It is a cluster of seven stars seen this weekend; Venus and the Pleiades are coming together. It happens every 8 years: Venus glides through the Pleiades star cluster. Venus 'as the morning star' was called by the ancients, Lucifer.

How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! Isaiah 14:12

And the Pleiades mentioned in Amos 5:8

Seek him that maketh the seven stars (Pleiades) and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The Lord is his name:

Venus gliding through Pleiades says much of what lies ahead, and every eight years speaks of new beginnings, seven stars 'perfection.' So here we see a glimpse of darkness coming but His Light is what turneth the shadow of death into the morning!

I pray the Lord so blesses you and that His mighty favor will fall upon you, and His love will saturate you like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments; (Psalms 133:2)

Much of His Love your way,
Robin Paisley

A New Day Has Dawned
Dorothea Montague

My beloved people...

A new day has dawned, a day when I shall move among My people in a way that you have never known.

~ You shall be aware of My presence with you in more power.
~ You shall hear My still, small voice speaking to you.
~ You shall receive instant answers to your prayers.
~ You shall be infilled with the Holy Spirit as I pour out My Spirit on all flesh in these days.
~ You shall be instilled with a holy boldness to go forth and proclaim the Gospel of salvation to all.
~ You shall be endued with My power and anointing to see those instantly healed, for whom you pray.
~ You shall receive power over the enemy and he will flee from you.

I have created you, My children, for just such a day as this, when in the midst of great tribulation in the world you shall have victory over the enemy and take your world for Me.

O, My people, you shall experience walking in the supernatural with Me with wonders and miracles following you. Great miracles shall be manifested through you as you pray.

A great love shall abound amongst My people which shall foster a new desire to help each other. You shall have a new compassion for the poor and needy and you will enter into ministries of providing for them.

All of these blessings I shall bring upon you even as tribulation abounds around you. I have long been preparing you for tribulation. There are still many of you who avoid dwelling on the prophecies which tell of events to occur in the last days. As you do you negate the blessings that I am bestowing on those who are being obedient to My instruction for these difficult days.

O, My people, I am calling you now to come into the ministries I have ordained for you for these days. I am calling the youth to commit their lives unto Me and to become a part of the great army of youth whom I am raising up. This will be a powerful army, filled with My Holy Spirit and on fire for Me. As they submit unto Me I shall prepare them to stand before multitudes and speak forth the messages of truth from My Word which I shall give them. They will receive training from Me rather than from sources of higher learning. This army of youth shall march across the world, filling sports complexes and every available meeting place and multitudes will gather to hear them. I have long been preparing them, filling each with the power of My Holy Spirit, enduing them with the Gifts of the Spirit to operate in the ministries I shall give them. I shall manifest miracles through them and countless numbers will come into My kingdom through their ministries, countless numbers will be miraculously healed through their ministries. I shall send them forth, two by two to minister then bring them back to army headquarters for rest and refilling of the Spirit. They shall walk in My glory and all will know that they have been with Me.

Many aged preachers, teachers and evangelists shall transfer their mantles onto the shoulders of the young and I shall anoint them with power for ministry. They shall walk through times of tribulation with My protection surrounding them.

I speak to parents and all those in authority over these young people and I admonish you not to put boulders in the path of these young people but rather to help and encourage them in their ministries.

I speak to the youth of the world...fear not but step out in faith and embrace the ministry I have chosen for you and you shall rejoice as fruit from your ministry comes into being.

Manifest in These Last times

My beloved people, hearken to the Word of the Lord....

He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you who through Him believe in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. (1 Peter 2:20,21)

My people, you are indeed living in the 'last times' as you witness what I am doing throughout the world, leading you to belief in My Father and giving you faith and hope in Him. As never before in the history of mankind I am sending forth those whom I have prepared, 'to go into all the world and preach the Gospel.' As never before and according to what has been prophesied by prophets of old, I am pouring out My Spirit on all flesh.

O, My people, do not turn away from the manifestation of My Spirit, do not turn away from the tasks I am calling you to do. I say unto you, now is the appointed time, now is the day of salvation.

Behold, now is the accepted time, behold now is the day of salvation. (2Cor.6:2a)

Go forth, My children, and touch the lives of all whom you meet, telling them the Good News of salvation in Me.

Tribulation, as foretold to occur in the last days has come upon every part of the world. Great suffering has come upon many countries and many are dying from hunger, especially My little children. I am calling you who have been blessed with abundance of this world's goods to give to the needy in far off lands. You do not comprehend the blessings you shall receive as you give unto others.

I am calling you to seek out those with sickness and disease in their bodies and fervently pray for them and with them and I will bring healing unto them. I have instigated great healing services in every part of the world and countless numbers are being miraculously healed. I have raised up many to operate in healing ministries but, I tell you, My beloved, to each of you I have given power to lay hands on the sick, pray for them and see them recover. Go forth, under My anointing and do so.

My precious people, I am bringing many of you into times of new beginnings and you shall walk on new paths with Me. You shall have a new fervor for Me, for My Word, for prayer and with compassion for others. As you step out in faith to minister wherever I lead you, you shall see the miraculous in operation and you shall marvel as you see what I am doing in and through you. Your faith shall rise to new heights as you believe the truth of My Word and see manifestations of it come into being. Faint not as you observe what is coming upon the world. Trust in Me with all your hearts and I shall protect you.

But those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint. (Isa. 40:31

I shall use you, My people, to bring in the great revival which is even now in progress even in the midst of tribulation throughout the world. Great multitudes of unbelievers shall be swept into My kingdom.

O, My people, I yearn for each of you to stand before Me and receive the mantle for ministry which I have destined for you and go forth in My power to win your world for Me.

An Era For The U S Ends

Timothy Snodgrass

September 26, 2004
The last 4 days have been very interesting since I arrived in the United States from the Philippines. While in flight from Taiwan to Los Angeles, President Bush condemned Israel at the UN General Assembly for not adhering the 'Roadmap', and the United States once again began pressuring Israel to concede covenant land promised to her by God. Immediately afterwards, Hurricane Jeanne shifted course, striking Florida just before midnight on Yom Kippur as shofars blew across the land on Tishrei 10.

Hurricane Jeanne was the 4th hurricane to strike Florida this year. The pattern '4' in Amos represents irreversible judgment with cannot be changed or altered. As shofars blew across the land at closing of Yom Kippur, an era for the U.S. ended and a call was issued to prepare for what is yet to come during the next three years of cleansing. Hurricane Jeanne is very small compared to many of the unexpected events which are about to follow. But the purpose of these limited judgments is not destruction, but ultimately salvation and a call to repentance across the land. For God is not finished with America yet, but has a plan and destiny for the United States.

If you live in the Southern California area, and would like to intercede with us tonight in Yucca Valley, below is directions to get to Grace Community Church. I will also be speaking in Sunnyvale (near San Jose) on Tuesday, and in Orange County once again before departing the United States.

Blessings,

Timothy Snodgrass

A New Pentecost

Apostolic Power: Pressing In For A New Pentecost

Acts 2:1-4 - When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord ... and suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire ... and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.

The Kingdom of God can only successfully invade the dominion of Satan when we are endued with power from on high. You must have spiritual power to advance the Kingdom.

How did they do it? Jesus warned the disciples of their need to wait and receive the power of the Holy Spirit: "Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high." (Luke 20:49). As they met in the Upper Room for ten days, their only agenda was to pray and wait on God. They knew that they must have more. They were not leaving with anything less!

The Outpouring Of The Spirit

Holy Spirit brings the government of God. What is often overlooked is that the Acts 2 outpouring was what birthed the early church. Holy Spirit is more than a phenomenon of fire and wind or just a renewal movement - the Third Person of the Trinity invaded the Upper Room to establish the Kingdom of God!

Being baptized by the Holy Spirit was more than just speaking in tongues. The enemy has so religiously minimized this experience by convincing us that if we speak our five or ten words in tongues, then we have arrived. Unfortunately, often we still do not have apostolic power! Holy Spirit is not just tongues. In Acts 2:8-11, He brought a miracle of languages with over fifteen languages being heard by the crowds. People heard the testimony of Jesus, but in their own native tongue.

The Great Commission for souls was birthed. The wind and fire of the Spirit drew a huge crowd who then heard Peter preach his first sermon. This holy tornado of the Spirit yielded 3,000 souls that day. For the first time, Peter was endued with power and moved in apostolic authority with the power of the Holy Spirit backing his words. Signs and wonders followed the apostles and churches spread like wild fire (Acts 2:41-47).

Summary

Do you want to walk in this fullness of apostolic authority? When you speak, does the power of conviction pierce hearts? How do we get this great outpouring of the Holy Spirit? We must have an even greater desperation. Today, the Lord is calling for another Pentecost! Imagine the power of Acts synergistically combined with the astonishing signs and wonders of Exodus! This is the hour we are approaching as we near the second coming of Christ. God is going to explode in an expression of power that we have never seen before! Are you desperate for a fresh baptism of fire from the Holy Spirit?

Prayer: Lord will you burn in me a holy desperation to move in apostolic authority with signs and wonders following. I want to move in the Holy Spirit and establish the government of God on this earth!

A New Kingdom Generation In Love With God

Ron McGatlin

My heart weeps with Joy as in my mature years, the new generation - the fruit of the sacrifices of the saints comes into view. The Spirit of God is moving upon and within children. There is nothing more beautiful than seeing young children completely in love with Jesus as the Holy Spirit moves upon them. It is so encouraging to see teens moving in love and power of the Holy Spirit.

Children experiencing the manifest presence of God and intimate oneness are saturated with God and filled with His love. They are transformed from natural to supernatural living - from worldly or religious ways to the pure and holy joy of the Lord.

"But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty;" (1.Cor.1:27)

There is no higher call of ministry than becoming a forerunner of facilitating the work of God in children. Summer camps for kids can become "Son bathing" opportunities as children and youth are led to surf supernatural heavenly realms with Jesus by the Holy Spirit. Church nurseries and children's group meetings can become powerful supernatural love experiences with God. "OpenHeaven.com IRN CRC" will soon be offering helpful practical material and testimonies from forerunners who are experiencing the supernatural transformation by the Holy Spirit of children and youth in the presence of God.

The following is a response from parents to meetings with one forerunner helping facilitate the moving of the Holy Spirit in children:

"This past weekend David Walters ministered at our church, Living Word Fellowship, in Wellsboro, PA. What a blessing! Our children were so full of strength and encouragement, and John and I, as parents, were really challenged to dig deeper with our kids in their walks with the Lord. Here is a brief testimony of our family's experience following the meetings.

NICHOLAS, age 12: Nick entered in so eager and ready but slightly apprehensive. Asking the question, "What if I pray and nothing happens". I responded with scripture, "If you ask the Father for bread will he give you a stone". Nick immediately teared up and shook his head no. It seemed to break that negative mind set off of him immediately! As John and I prayed for him, there was an intense anointing obvious over him. We encouraged him to just lay back and receive. And very quickly his prayer language came. He laid before the Lord praying in tongues for nearly and hour, and then sat up and drew a beautiful picture of himself receiving the holy spirit! Later when I asked, "SO, did you get BREAD!?" He responded, "Better, I got warm bread with melted butter and honey dripping all over it!" I love his description of the Holy Spirit!

TAYLOR. age 8: Taylor also was eager to receive, which in a sense shocked me because of his typical shy nature. Although I will say that his typically overly withdrawn nature seems to have been dismantled with the ministry he received this weekend. Taylor lay down before the Lord, and also immediately received his prayer language! As I was praying over our daughter Isabelle, and John was praying over Taylor, I looked over and his cheeks had a rosy glow, and his face was just radiating the Holy spirit! After laying for awhile, he got up and came over and prayed over his sister for over 30 minutes! Later when we asked him later about his experience, he said, "It was easy! And then it was fun, and I didn't want to stop". I asked him if he had to just forget about being his shyness. He said, "Oh, no I could never be shy about this! I just couldn't be shy about it!"

ISABELLE, age 6: Initially both John and I were praying over Isabelle, and her tiny chin just started to quiver, and her body was visibly responding to the Holy Spirit. After a short while, she began to weep before the Lord. This tiny one lay before her Father, receiving the tears of the holy spirit and crying out "Jesus I love you, Thank you Lord!" with up lifted hands for close to a hour and a half! A couple times I asked her questions about what was going on. Initially I felt, due to her responses to my questions, that the Lord was giving her his heart for the Lost. Then at one point her eyes opened, and it was clear she was having a vision. She began crying out the name of Jesus over and over again. I asked her if she could see him, and she vigorously nodded her head yes, and started weeping harder! Later when the tears lifted, as we tucked her worn out little self into bed, she told us that Jesus came to get her and he flew her up to heaven, she saw gold paths, she saw angels, they worshipped together, then she rested under His Wings. She said that the Devil was mad and tried to stop the angels. She said that Jesus told her how much he loved people.

OK, so my hands and heart are shaking as I write this. Our Father gives good gifts to his children, even the tiniest ones. This Mommy and Daddy are so overwhelmed by God's goodness, and the Holy Spirits infilling of our children. Rejoice with us! Thank you for your wonderful ministry!"

I heard a strong angel decreeing over the earth, interrupting the spirit of abortion as wombs were opening, "Not that one, you don't! These are made in the image of God!"

Prayers seemed to have mounted up and taken wings to ascend to the throne room crying out on the behalf of the unborn. I heard many angels communicating, "We just got a breakthrough assignment to deliver the unborn! Tell them to keep crying out and pleading the Blood of Jesus...the spirit of abortion is beginning to be notified, 'Let My Babies Go!'"

"ANGELIC MIDWIVES" ARE BEING ASSIGNED TO "HAND DELIVER" THE DELIVERERS

It seemed like a season equivalent to when God had called Moses in his mother's womb to be a deliverer to the nation of Israel. In Moses' time Pharaoh sent a decree to destroy every male child being born. But the fear of God came upon the midwives and they saved these babies. Moses was one of these babies who was delivered. I sense that these kind of "hand delivered" babies deliver nations!!!

And I sense that once again a season of intervention is in where the fear of God is beginning to fall on abortion clinics as "angelic midwives" are now being assigned to doctors and nurse practitioners.

A stronger cry from the throne became even louder for intercession as an angel began proclaiming, "I think we got another Moses here! Another David, another Deborah, and, yes, there is another Esther coming out of that womb! Keep prayer coming up. . . these babies have an anointing for the nations!"

THESE CHILDREN WILL BE "ARROWS IN THE QUIVER"

I saw the Holy Spirit begin to overshadow many mothers who, like Mary, were overwhelmed what to think and to do next as they were surprised by what was in their wombs. But the Holy Spirit began to melt their hearts, as it was revealed by God Himself, "Fear not, that holy thing which shall be born of thee is of Me. You are not carrying a mistake, you are carrying a miracle!"

I saw in the Spirit many babies being offered up for adoption. God had already handpicked married couples and placed His desire in their hearts to extend their families. These children appeared as arrows in their quivers who would eventually speak with the enemies in the gates of their cities and nations!

"Babies unplanned are Heaven's surprises; unplanned by man for Satan's demises!"

Lazarus Will Rise
Bill Yount

"Your 'Lazarus' Will Rise In 2005! ... I Will Visit Cemeteries, Seminaries, And Sanctuaries.... With A Special Visit To Insane Asylums!" - A Year Of Resurrection And Life!

It was as though I overheard the Father speaking to the angels... "Your New Year's assignment will be cemeteries, seminaries and sanctuaries.... with a special visit to insane asylums! The dead will rise in 2005!"

The Father continued to whisper heaven's secrets to the angels.... "If it's dead, I can raise it! But only if it's dead! Get ready to roll some stones away. 'Lazarus' will rise in 2005! My favorite specialty is still splitting graves wide open! Get ready to loose them and let them go!"

I sense many who thought the Lord was too late in the past year in answering their prayers will discover that God is still right on time in 2005! Resurrection Power will attack dead nations, dead churches, dead preachers, dead dreams, dead visions. "My Resurrection Power works best among the dead!" If you have anything that has died in your life, you are right on schedule. This will be the year of Resurrection and Life! Even the dead will hear His voice!

Insane asylums were high on God's list for the year to free tormented minds in the earth! New minds are coming to people on the earth... the very mind of Christ! Legions of demons will go with new minds arriving! New 'spiritual and physical' hearts will be given out also. Multitudes who are dead in sin and trespasses, many who have backslid and have gone back into darkness will come forth and be raised into newness of life.

I saw angels filling up monasteries bringing revelation, honoring the dedication of monks, Catholic priests and nuns, as another great move of God in the Catholic Church was in the making!

I sense the Father saying. "I will bring many up out of their horrible pit this year."

The twice dead will begin coming into God's Kingdom this year. I saw as though the sea was giving up her dead, as though these souls were coming up from the pit itself. There were pornographic stars, mass murderers, witches, many from the occults and eastern religions. Souls that had committed horrendous, indescribable crimes. It was as though hell itself was vomiting up these souls. Hell was letting go of them. The gates of hell were opening and these souls were being released as the command was being given... "Lazarus, come forth!"

I saw whole cities in the earth coming under the influence of Resurrection Power. Huge buildings and historical landmarks first appeared as though they were oversized grave-markers on top of the ground. Lying beneath these monuments were God-given dreams buried six feet under. Dreams of a city being lit as a candle on a candlestick, giving light to a nation were wrapped in graveclothes stuffed inside of coffins. Dreams of shattered households being turned into homes that would eventually effect a whole neighborhood were held captive inside of dark tombs. There were unmarked graves representing impossible dreams of street people crying up through man-hole covers for brotherly love to flow through her streets.

I then saw a river begin to flow deep beneath these cities. It began rushing and then finally gushing forth like a giant geyser. These torrential waters rising began flooding the streets of these cities, raising beggars and street people out of gutters and sewers. They were coming up through man hole covers as being flushed out of hell by the power of this river rising beneath the city. Light began to pierce darkness as this river flood increased lifting the caskets with God given dreams as they finally were pushed upward breaking the surface of the ground. Dreams were being resurrected throughout these cities. The surfacing dreams themselves then started breaking their coffins open and pushing over monuments causing them to fall into the now empty graves. It appeared that God was turning whole cities upside down, inside out and right side up! Their time of visitation had come!

"Lazarus... Come forth!"

America Needs Prayers

Ayman and Hala Mikhail

There's a lot on God's heart to be accomplished by the great nation of America. The nation that one day chose the sentence "In God we trust" to be its slogan & it was the prayer of the Americans for long "God bless America". Now it's far from that & America is badly in need for intense prayers. America needs prayers for awakening from her spiritual slumber which passed to almost all levels in the land, including - sadly - the church. A prayer for repentance. A prayer for being aware of the consequences of choosing the enemy's ways to be hers & not the fear of the Lord.

In a vision, the Lord showed me that America is destined in a way to stand like Moses on the mountain as is in Exodus 17. There was a battle taking place underneath and there was no way for that battle to be won without the lifted hands of Moses up there on the mountain. There is a great role for America in the whole world in taking its destined place up there in the presence of the Lord regarding the battle fields underneath. In the vision, the enemy was holding a staff trying to beat Moses on his legs to prevent him from standing in the gap on the mountain trying to hinder God's purposes to be done on earth as it is in heaven. This is exactly what the enemy is trying to do with America, both from the inside and the outside. Our heart prayer is that the Lord would open the eyes to see the beats that the enemy is keeping to do.

Accepted or not, America is seen in many places around the world is representing Christianity. The enemy is continuously trying against the Lord Jesus, His mighty work on the cross, His precious Blood, His love to the whole world and His Heart to reveal His Redemption to all mankind. The enemy is keeping attacking so it is quite natural for him to concentrate his attacks on a figure that represents the Lord.

Throughout the last few years, God used America as His extended Hand to many places all over the earth. The thing which stirred the enemy too much. However, in God's Heart, still there is a lot to be expressed on reality through that nation. It is the destiny of this nation to be the catalyst for God's purposes to be fulfilled against many strongholds in different spots of the world, east and west. Among the important spots that God is intending to use America as a catalyst are the highway nations of Isaiah 19: 23 - 25. In this strategic part of the world, in the end times, there is a deep sense that America will play a role like Moses on top of the mountain and Joshua in the battlefield (representing the highway nations).

There is a deep need for the American Church to understand how to stand in the right place and how to raise hands "both hands". Moses went to the "top of the hill" (v.10) and he kept "held up his hands"(v.11) and "his hand remained steady till sunset" (v.12). Need to notice where to stand, how to stand raising both hands (not one) (fair Godly opened eyes), how to stand steady till the time HE sees. There is a DEEP urge for the church to stand and keep on standing.

Our prayer is that God will make an open eye of understanding and an enlightenment in the church of America so that they will not be satisfied by the many knowledge and prophecies they got and received but to pray for a piercing and penetrating Godly directed, sharply targeted prayers.

The coming two months till the day of election is a very crucial time and there is high expectation that the enemy will try to do an extraordinary demonic attack so as to make a shift and a diversion in the mass opinion towards ungodly choice (like what happened in Spain in the last election). May God open the eyes of His people in America to discover the hidden agendas of the enemy whether from the inside or from the outside. There is a cry of travail that the Lord wants to release in the hearts of His saints in America and those who love it that America will not loose its time of visitation. May the awareness of its important role for the end times be raised in the hearts of God's people. May the fear of the Lord will come over the people so that they will understand the critical situation of the time. May the unveiling work of the Holy Spirit reveal to the people the serious consequences of wrong choices. May God give understanding not just knowledge and wisdom, not just intelligence to know God's ways and to follow it in such a time like that.

We need to ascend, lift up both arms and worship the Lord fervently and seek His Will to be fulfilled. We should press not for partial fulfillment of God's purposes but for His complete Will and Plan to be completely and fully done.

May God protect America,
May God stretch His Mighty Hand over America,
Let the blessings of the Godly fathers find a way to come into reality & flow to other nations.
In Jesus Mighty Name.

A New Season And Promises Fulfilled

June 23, 2004

"Your righteousness reaches to the skies, O God, You who have done great things. Who, O God, is like You? Though You have made me see troubles, many and bitter, You will restore my life again; from the depths of the earth You will again bring me up. You will increase my honor and comfort me once again. I will praise You with the harp for Your faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praise to You with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel. My lips will shout for joy when I sing praise to You... I, whom You have redeemed." PS 71:19-23

"For no matter how many promises God has made, they are "YES" in Christ. And so through Him the "AMEN" is spoke by us to the glory of God." 2 COR 1:20

"Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, as a man wakes from the stupor of wine. He beat back his enemies; he put them to everlasting shame." PS 78:65-66

My Faithful Ones, you have been going through the longest of seasons. A season of years for many and a season of sufferings. You look about you at a dreary and an unjust world and you see suffering coming on the innocent and My faithful ones while evil men continue to triumph. Still you stand with hope and belief that your God will come through for you and will turn the tables rightside up again and that you will step into a new season of your life and see the promises fulfilled.

Some say, why do you continue? Why don't you give up, you haven't received My promises after all this time, therefore why do you stand against all odds? But even walking 'through' the darkest valley of suffering, still your confidence remains in Me. Some say I have forgotten you....sometimes even you have thought I have forgotten you. Sometimes you feel as if I AM asleep, that I don't care or worse that I AM unaware of your situation. But even then you still remain committed to ME. While others have turned away from the path you remain steadfast even through the pain you are enduring.

I ask you, can the I AM forget one promise that I made to you? What have I promised you? Have I promised you your healing? THEN EXPECT TO BE HEALED! Have I promises you finances? THEN EXPECT YOUR INHERITANCE! Have I promised deliverance to you and your family of all that plagues you? THEN EXPECT DELIVERANCE! ALL of My promises to you WILL be fulfilled. They are "YES" but not only YES, they are "AMEN", IN CHRIST, to the Glory of your God, through you!!! You are the apple of My eye and the object of My Glory......

But, you say, I have been waiting for "years" for this day, but I say unto you.... the I AM has been waiting for this day since the world began. Beloved, I have heard every cry of "How long, Lord, How Long " as Satan has been working on you as never before to have you doubt even one promise that I have given you. You have prayed and you have believed, even though many times you felt to be the weakest of My faithful. Now you shall see Me act and when I decide to act things happen very quickly. As I fulfilled My Word to send a Savior, now you will see Me fulfill My word to you as you leave this long, long season behind. Old things are passing away and new things now you shall see. I have given you exceedingly great and precious promises. As this new season fast approaches, rejoice and give Me the praise for all that I AM about to do as you walk into A New Season and Promises Fulfilled.

I AM coming, dear one. I AM riding in a semi truck loaded to the max, completely full of benefits, and all for you. Wait till you see all that I have planned for you. I AM as excited as a fiancé, ready with bouquet in hand, and a kiss for the one I love.

Walk worthy of your calling, dearest, for we are not to be unequally yoked. I have chosen you to be My wife. I will be with you always.

"His voice and speech are exceedingly sweet; yes, he is altogether lovely [the whole of him delights and is precious]. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem!" (Song of Solomon 5:16 AMP)

Angels And Joy Bubbles
Sandy Warner

HEARD: Joy bubbles are coming soon. Suddenly. Things are going to change.

VISION: I was traveling past a tree. When I looked back, I saw an angel and he suddenly turned brilliant with the Lord’s glory. His mantle went from his shoulders to his hips and it was glowing white. He had turned to face the other direction and looked like he was preparing to depart. My eyes had been opened as in a trance and I tried to keep my eyes open so I could continue to see him. I did not want him to leave. Then he turned towards me and blew joy bubbles up into the air. The bubbles were about 2-3 inches in size. He continued to blow them with the wind carrying them straight to me. I opened my mouth and they popped inside my mouth and in my face. I was so delighted as they popped! I felt the vision closing down, and I tried to keep my eyes open as long as I could. Just before it did, I saw my own company of angels accompanying me. They were floating about 6 feet above my head.

VISION: I saw joy bubbles popping all over in the room. HEARD: Wings. Angel’s wings. They take flight. Yes you too, let’s go for a ride.

VISION: I saw 2 angels blowing bubbles up into the air.

HEARD: Angels. Joy. Right now. Meet you at the joy bubbles. Pop.

EXPERIENCE: Today, when I was ministering to a lady, I had the impression the angels were going to bring her joy bubbles. I told her that the Lord was going to restore her joy and that He was going to send her angels with joy bubbles. So, I started declaring this and was popping pretend bubbles all over her. The Holy Spirit then reminded me of the giant bubble wands we had bought last summer. (One of the ways the Holy Spirit speaks to us is bringing things back to our memory at the appropriate time. John 14:26) So, I said that they would also be bringing several giant bubbles at least 3 to 4 feet wide. She was giggling delightfully at this. When I finished ministering to her she kept laughing and then told me that on the way to the workshop today, there were people blowing bubbles above her from the top of the overpass and her car was bombarded with bubbles.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER JOY BUBBLES COMING
I am sending My joy bubbles. These shall pop over the heads of those with child-like hearts. They shall delight in My Presence and I shall delight in them. No good thing shall I withhold from them that walk uprightly. In their years of waiting, they have wept many tears, but they shall reap in joy as they see the fruits of their trust in Me.

"Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." (Ps 126:5-6 NKJV)

Effervescent Bubbles
Sandy Warner

SANDY RHEMA
DREAM: I was in this huge pool and Jesus was in the pool with me. The pool had gentle waves of effervescent water and it was washing me. There were millions of tiny sparkling bubbles in the water and they felt like energizing tingles one might experience in a Jacuzzi, only more gentle and tickling.

SANDY RHEMA
HEARD: Effervescent bubbles.
VISION: I saw some shiny stuff on my hands and then noticed iridescent colored bubbles on my thumb. HEARD: My yoke is easy and My burden is light. Exactly. I carry you. Man does not live by bread alone, but by every Word that proceeds out of My mouth. Jesus. Join Me. Out of the mouths of the prophets. Good Word.

HEARD: Don't be afraid to give whatever you can give. Don't be ashamed. Willing. It's not enough. Yes it is, it is plenty. It's a process, the anointing.

WORD TO PONDER GIVE WHAT YOU HAVE
I have given you My anointing within you and upon you. Allow Me to flow through you to touch a hurting world. You think that you do not have enough to offer, but I tell you it is enough, it is plenty. As you grow in what you have, I will give you more. And likewise, My anointing grows in your life as you release what you have. So, open the door and be willing. When you join in service with Me, remember, My yoke is easy and My burden is light. Man does not live by bread alone, but by every Word that proceeds out of My mouth. Won't you join Me? I will quicken My Words and bring loving touches of life.

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." (Matt 11:28-30 KJV)

GRANDMA ANNA EXPERIENCE
Tonight, while I was playing free cell on my computer, the Lord's Presence came upon me and I started receiving the most amazing download of bubbles inside my head! It felt like 7UP in there! It would subside and then come again. One time I thought I would swoon with it! I also yawned and yawned. I wondered if I was getting some kind of deliverance. I also wondered if the Lord was clearing plaque out of my brain. Something was sure going on up there! I still have such joy!

HEARD: Perfect trust brings liberty. Frowns gone. Bubbles and bubbles. All heaven laughing.

NOTE: Years ago the Lord told me He would lead me with His power upon my head. I have had many interesting experiences since then.

"With the precious things of the earth and its fullness, and the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush. Let the blessing come 'on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers." (Deuteronomy 33:16 NKJ)

SELAH WORD: 7UP IN YOUR BRAIN
Loved one, how I love to surprise you with My sensory delights! You said it felt like 7UP in your brain? And how you enjoyed the loving feeling it gave you? Just wait until even greater quickenings come! Then you will really giggle!

"But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. (Romans 8:11 KJV)

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER EFFERVESCENT WATER FROM MY THRONE
Let Me wash you with the cleansing stream of My Spirit. As you worship Me, it releases a flow of My Presence that bubbles forth. I AM with you, child. I AM with you in this cleansing stream of life. The bubbling of My Spirit is like effervescent water that refreshes, quickens and cleanses. This is My river flowing from My throne. As you immerse yourself in Me, My anointing bubbles cling to you and burst forth life to all you touch.

"He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)" (John 7:38-39 KJV)

Genesis
Sandy Warner

Jan 5, 2004
I have created a new genesis. It is a new beginning. Look upon the freshness of the tender greens as they cover this new creation. Look upon this tiny starting place and know that someday it shall be like a great forest, rich and vibrant and full of life. Just as I hovered over the face of the waters when the earth was but a baby, so I AM hovering over this new birth. Even as I brooded over Mary and she brought forth My Son, so My Presence broods over this new beginning. You have witnessed the dawn of My new beginning. My Spirit has spread an ankle deep covering over it. Someday the waters from My throne will be so deep, they shall pour forth like a huge falls with mighty power and they shall be waters deep enough to swim in. The whole earth shall be covered in My Presence.

"Do not remember the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing, now it shall spring forth; Shall you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The beast of the field will honor Me, the jackals and the ostriches, because I give waters in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to My people, My chosen. This people I have formed for Myself; They shall declare My praise." (Isaiah 43:18-21 NKJV)

"And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankles. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins. Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over." (Ezekiel 47:3-5 KJV)

My Bride Awakens To A New Day
Sandy Warner

Jan 7, 2004
After a long winter's nap, My bride is awakening to a brand new day. It is time to do Kingdom business and I will raise her up to do so. I will train and establish her to usher in My Kingdom for I will do it all through her. Yes, My Kingdom on earth, will be brought through the willingness of her love. My wife and I, we are an inseparable team. It is My joy to give her the Kingdom. I know the way that she takes and I will perfect all that concerns her. She shall walk in My power with My government upon her shoulders. She shall point the way to her Husband and there is nothing I wouldn't do for her, My love.

"I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or by the does of the field, do not stir up nor awaken love until it pleases." (Song of Solomon 2:7 NKJV)

Triumphant Overcoming
Sandy Warner

"WHAT YOU DEEM AS DEFEAT, I CALL 'TRIUMPHANT OVERCOMING'"

Precious one, what a courageous journey you have taken and how proud I AM of you to have trusted Me in sharing My Words. This has been a journey of faith. While you were yet a youth in My Spirit, I called you and gave you many signs of confirmation upon your life. You were so insecure that the mere thought of it made you tremble! How I love challenges! (Smile, dear one!) I had special assignments in mind just for you. You were perfect for the job.

I began by giving you My Words, but I called you to pray them instead of sharing them. You were My intercessor, partnering with Me in matters of importance to My heart. All along the way, I continued to give you confirmations, My signs that you really were hearing Me, and growing along the way. This was a journey of faith, for you had no person to give these Words to, or no one to give you a direct confirmation. I taught you to fly on the wings of faith as you held onto My confirmed Words.

"What a Story of Overcoming!"

I gave you the promise that one day we would be married as one, as happens to others of My fold. I said I would give you My Word as a two-edged weapon to soften the hearts of men, and to pierce the demonic spirits. This weapon would never run dry, for it is dipped in My eternal fountain of blood. This weapon would bow so low as to touch the ground in humility, then grow up as a pure white mantle, softly caressing your shoulders in governmental authority. This weapon would be like tall angelic wings covering you from behind.

You have accepted My Words of promise over your life. And what a story of overcoming! Against all odds, against every demonic current and onslaught, you continue to travel upward and press into Me. Whenever you come to the end of your rope, you lie spent before My feet, even as a salmon who has come home to spawn.

"What You Deem Defeat, I Call Triumphant"

My bride! What you deem as defeat, I call triumphant overcoming. You may feel beat up and dented having stood against all odds, but what you do not know is I that I plant mysteries in many of My children for them to discover. I have planted one inside your own spiritual womb.

I have planted many children in your own particular womb who are following the same path as you, My beloved. Your journey will be multiplied over and over again, as I plant My Words of promise within the insecure ones, and they also will take the courage to trust Me and follow My promises into fulfillment. These are My triumphant ones who so love Me, that they will reach beyond the limits of their own insecurities to go wherever I send them. They will fly on the wings of faith, built through one loving confirmation at a time. When My Words come to pass within their own lives, they will become My signs to a broken and crippled world.

"I will set a sign among them; and those among them who escape I will send to the nations: to Tarshish and Pul and Lud, who draw the bow, and Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands afar off who have not heard My fame nor seen My glory. And they shall declare My glory among the Gentiles." (Isaiah 66:19 NKJV)

A North Wind Is Blowing

Ron McKenzie

Jesus called his listeners hypocrites, because they could not understand the signs of the times in which they are living.

He said to the crowd: “When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, ‘It's going to rain,’ and it does. And when the south wind blows, you say, ‘It's going to be hot,’ and it is. Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky. How is it that you don't know how to interpret this present time? (Luke 12:54-56).

In light of this rebuke, I am puzzled most of the prophecies for America are so positive. I am amazed that the Christian prophets seem to be ignoring the economic signs that warn of troubles ahead for America.

Looking from the outside, many of the key economic indicators for the United States are negative for the future.

> Household debt has risen to 114%, of annual disposable income, a record high.
> Household saving is 0.2% of household income, lower than at any time since the great depression.
> New mortgages worth $2 trillion were issued this year to finance a bubble in the housing market.
> The average ratio of house prices to incomes is now well above levels that proved unsustainable in the past.
> The government budget is nearly half a trillion in the red this year.
> The government deficit for the next 10 years is estimated to be 5 trillion dollars.
> The federal government has trillions of unfunded liabilities for future pension payments.
> The trade deficit is now more than a $½ trillion, well above 5% of the economy;
> The United States spends a billion dollars a day more than it earns. It has to borrow almost 80 percent of the world’s saving, to fund this shortfall.
> Some projections suggest the trade deficit could exceed $1 trillion per year by 2010.

> Net foreign liabilities are expected to reach $3.3 trillion, or 28% of GDP, by the end of 2004.
> China holds about a trillion of US dollar assets (cf 1 Sam 13:19-22).
> Total American debt is more than $30 trillion – three times what the nation earns in a year. The last time debt was so high was in the 1930s.

All these trillions tend to blur together, but they are easier to see than a wind change. Their risk is compounded by dependence on Middle Eastern oil and a difficult war.

These statistics are certainly not the signs expected in a nation that is being blessed by God. He promised that the nation that obeys him will lend to many nations and borrow from none. It will be the head and not the tail (Deut 15:6; 28:12,13). At the end of the Second World War, America was the world's largest creditor, now it is the world's largest debtor. America has gone from being the head to the tail in one generation.

A few years ago, I shared a parable called the Commando Army, warning of an approaching economic crisis. I believe that this word might now have become relevant for America. The Unites States might be going to experience and Economic Shaking to wake it from slumber to God's higher purpose. The message of the commando parable is that Christians, who understand the season they are living in and use the time to prepare, can initiate a great victory for Jesus, when the shaking comes.

I am not sure if American Christians have joined in the property speculation and indebtedness that has swept their nation. I hope they have kept free from debt and the bondage it brings, because in these times, they should be getting free from debt, so they can stand together and not be shaken, if the American economy hits a bump in the road. The Commando Army parable is a vision for how this can happen.

I was intrigued by the vision of Crash of the Two Planes (LaTonya Williams (11/21/04). I wonder if the red and white plane represents the American dollar going down lower and lower. (The US dollar has lost a total of 35% against the Euro since early 2002). All the experts are saying that a slow decline in the dollar is a good thing, but they seem to be ignoring reality. They are saying, "Nothing is going to happen, its fine," but the dollar just keeps falling.

The bomb could represent a crisis for the American economy caused by a collapse of the dollar. The military base could represent spiritual commando armies getting ready for the shaking. After the bomb, much of the land remained green, the sky was blue, and people kept talking and having fun. This is a reminder that the productive sector of the American is so strong that it will survive the shaking of a dollar crisis. Many people will be shaken, but few will be destroyed.

I wonder if the second plane could represent the economic crisis spreading, much later, from America to Asia and Africa (yellow and brown).

Some Christians naively assume that an economic shaking would pave the way for the advance of the gospel. They forget that most economic collapses weakened the church and opened the door for tyrannical political leaders (like Lenin in Russia and Hitler in Germany). Christians will only be able to take advantage of the opportunity that shaking brings, if they have prepared in advance. We are living in a time of peace and plenty. We should be using this to Get Ready; so that we can stand when shaking comes.

We are living at a pivotal time in history. While things are going badly for the church, the situation is even worse in the world. You don't have to be a prophet to see the dark clouds on the horizon. The kingdom of man has over-reached itself and is rotting from the inside.

God is shaking the nations, so his people can establish the Kingdom. We can share in that victory, if we understand his plans and get ready for battle. The shaking of world system will be a great opportunity for the church. In times of crisis, power flows to those who understand what is happening and are ready for action. Joseph understood what God was doing, so he was able to use the seven good years to prepare for the seven bad years. He rose to power during a crisis, because he understood what was happening and knew what had to be done.

The times are urgent. We should be using our time to prepare for the political, economic and social upheaval that is coming. We should be joining together, so we can advance God's Kingdom when the kingdoms of the world collapse and fall. Radical change is needed, so we can shine brightly in the darkness and share in the victory that God has planned (Being Church Where We Live).

Arise O Africa

Bayo Omoyiola

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

Black man, do you know how favoured you are? You are indeed very special.

Black man was the first to be seen on planet earth the scientists say. No wonder Adam means dark earth. Adam was a black man and so are you.

In fact it was discovered that the garden of eden was located in a place in the continent afrique which is now africa though that part has been removed from africa now. but, the oldest map of Africa then called Afrique contains that part. We are indeed very special. Consider the black race and you will see we are indeed very special.

No wonder the enemy was after us. But we are now free from bondage.

Angel On Assignment

Jill Austin

As I strapped myself into my seat, I felt the hot tears welling up again. I turned and looked out the plane's window to hide the emotional flood that was assaulting me. I was reeling from the news of my mom's death.

When I had played it out in my mind, I'd always imagined her dying in my arms. I would be there to comfort her, to stroke her hair, and whisper words of love as she slipped from this life into the next. Instead I had been on the other side of the world in New Zealand.

In the last five weeks I had ministered in eight different cities -- 55 meetings in all. When the call came about my mom's death, I stayed up all night crying and packing. I was physically exhausted, but even worse, I was grief stricken, completely overwhelmed by the loss of my best friend, and my inability to do anything about it. I tried to still my heart to hear God's voice on this two-hour flight -- the first leg of the arduous 20 hour flight back to Los Angeles.

When Death Came

Just a few days ago the Lord woke me up at 4:00 in the morning. I sensed a spirit of death was coming against my mother. I phoned and found her in tremendous pain. I called several friends and asked them to pray and visit her. Over the weekend she did better, but Monday morning she admitted herself into the hospital. Her left lung collapsed and she was put on a respirator.

I had received an emergency call from a nurse right before I was to minister to a large crowd. She told me that my mom was in critical condition. Immediately I was overwhelmed with grief and a profound sense of powerless. I couldn't get there. Everything inside of me was screaming, "I'm on the other side of the world. Please Lord, keep her alive until I get home."

I knew there was nothing I could do and there was a church full of people waiting for me. I began to cry. Then I remembered Mom had told me that no matter what happened to her I should keep ministering. I did the meeting with tears streaming down my face. The Lord moved powerfully.

"He's Coming For Her!"

As soon as the meeting was finished I called the hospital and was surprised to talk to Lillian, an old friend of mine, who had pushed through hours of bumper-to-bumper traffic to pray for her. This Hispanic pastor from East L.A., who lived and ministered in the barrio, had never met her before.

My mom had been a medical doctor who worked for over 30 years at the L.A. County Hospital in the midst of a sprawling barrio. She loved the poor, the outcast, and the broken and even reached out to her patients' families. The Lord brought Lillian as a wonderful picture of how my mom had poured her life out to thousands of homeless and destitute people. Now, alone on her death bed, she was attended by this Hispanic woman.

"Lillian, I'm so relieved you're there. Quick, break the spirit of death. Tell my mom to wait for me to get back from New Zealand. Tell her to fight for life." Suddenly a realm of eternity opened. I saw a vision. In the distance a glorious man was emerging. White light illuminated Him. He was getting larger as He quickly approached. His face was radiant and His fiery eyes penetrated my soul. I knew He was coming for my mom.

Startled, I cried out, "No, wait Lord! I need to get home to be with her." But even as I spoke the words I knew nothing would deter Him. He came closer. I could feel His unstoppable determination and love. It was her time. Urgently I said to Lillian, "He's coming for her. I see Him now. Quickly, get right down to her ear and pray the prayer of repentance." I hung up the phone and prayed until I felt a release in the Spirit.

"She Laughed Herself Into the Arms of Jesus"

Later, Lillian told me that when she entered the hospital room it felt lonely and depressing. My mom was in a coma and had been unconscious for hours. As she prayed, the atmosphere began to change. She was aware of angelic activity moving throughout the room. The darkness was displaced by a glorious light.

Lillian continued, "I told her about the Lord and to my surprise your mom sat up, laughed, and said, 'Now I know what Jill meant.' Then I said, 'Betty, your womb has brought forth a prophetess, so now you can have the prophet's reward. Just run to Him.' She literally laughed herself right into the arms of Jesus." Lillian told me, "I felt Him come for her. She went peacefully into His arms. And do you know what? She sounded just like you when she laughed."

The Angel in a Business Suit

As the plane lifted off from Christchurch, New Zealand, I prayed through my tears, "Lord, my whole world is falling apart. Because I left to minister to thousands, I wasn't able to comfort the most important person in my own life." Waves of pain rolled over me as I was trapped in a cocoon of grief, wondering if I had made the right choice.

My sister was already at the family home, where I had been living with my mom. She had told me that mom didn't want a funeral or memorial service. I opened my Bible and was surprised to read, "A man may have a hundred children and live many years...but, if he does not receive a proper burial, I say that a still born child is better than he." (Ecclesiastes 6:3-4)

The last thing I wanted was to talk to anyone. I was embarrassed that I was so unglued in a public place. I just wanted to disappear; I was overwhelmed and distraught. The comforting voice next to me invaded my space by tapping my Bible and saying, "I know the author of that book."

Through my swollen eyes I saw a slender business man in his mid-40's with slightly graying hair. He looked very British and very proper dressed in his expensive suit, not someone I would naturally be drawn to. I was surprised that I wasn't offended by this intrusion. Instead I felt warmth and acceptance coming from him.

My heart began to tremble as a spiritual energy enveloped us. I felt a heightened sense of the Lord's presence and He whispered, "Don't be afraid." Revelation came to me that this man was a divine messenger, an angel of the Lord. I knew then that it was all right to share the grief that was engulfing me.

I said, "I have a question for you. My mom just died and my family tells me that she did not want a funeral or memorial." I showed him the passage and asked what it meant. He said, "She doesn't have to have a funeral, but she should have a memorial or celebration meeting to release the fullness of her radiance and honor her life's work. It's a public witness testifying to the fullness of her life."

Knowing and Going

As he spoke I felt life penetrating my grief and releasing deep comfort and much needed hope. I wanted confirmation of her salvation, so I asked, "Is she with the Lord?" He gently said, "Mankind measures a human life by years, but Jesus measures a life by the passing of seconds. And the last three seconds are the most important to Him. In those last three seconds Jesus is the most forgiving and has the most mercy. God is a God of details, right down to the last second."

He continued, "Many people are 'knowing and going.' They go back and forth, leaving and returning to the Lord throughout their lives. We almost lost a young man last week, but in the last three seconds we got him into the kingdom. We have many people like that all the time."

"No One Can Steal a Human Life Out of the Hands of Jesus"

I talked to him about the heavy spiritual warfare in New Zealand that targeted us. We experienced witchcraft, and Satanists were praying against us. This made me wonder if my mom had been taken out early by the enemy. My angel assured me, "No one can steal a human life out of the hands of Jesus. It was her time to go home.

"When a person is preparing to die, his heart either gets more cynical or more tender toward the Lord. When you look over the last several months, weeks, and days, what was your mother doing? What was she talking about? What was she focused on?"

Although I was still on the plane, we entered a different realm. The atmosphere literally changed as we became engulfed in the tangible presence of the Lord. He quoted scriptures and they became more than three dimensional. They opened up portals and doors into eternity. I was flooded with colorful visions. Time had no limitations; I was in a place of eternity without earthly boundaries.

It was as though the two of us were sitting in a private movie theatre, seeing past events, flash backs of my life and my mom's life. I was seeing, feeling, and hearing conversations of our last several weeks together.

My trip to New Zealand had been delayed by two days because the airplane ticket was lost. My mother followed me around the house reading to me from a book on angels and talking about God. I wondered at the time if the Lord was preparing her to go home. These visions settled my heart once and for all that she really was with Him.

Many of my unresolved questions from the past were answered. I also received preparation for what was ahead. These heavenly experiences gave me confidence that He was indeed orchestrating everything.

Following Jesus to the Uttermost Ends of the Earth

I apprehensively asked, "Did I pass the test?"

He said, "The city of Christchurch is the uttermost ends of the earth and you were willing to leave your mother and follow Jesus here. You certainly passed the test."

My heart warmed as I heard the love and acceptance in his tender voice. He opened my Bible and read:

"Then He said to another, 'Follow Me.'
"But he said, 'Lord, let me first go and bury my father.'

"Jesus said to him, 'Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and preach the kingdom of God.'
...But Jesus said to him, 'No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.'"* (Luke 9:57-62)

A Test of Forgiveness

He looked at me with his penetrating brown eyes and solemnly said, "You have another test coming. However you judge, you shall be judged, and however you measure, it will be measured again to you."

Somewhat taken aback I asked, "What does it mean?"

"Forgiveness."

"Who?"

"You must keep your heart right. When you get home, and the family inheritance is divided, you will be plundered."

The plane landed and he held my hand as we walked up the ramp into the terminal. I felt strength and peace flood my being. I was greeted by friends who were there to help get me to my international flight. I turned around to look for him, but he was gone. I knew I'd been ministered to in this great time of loss by an angel on assignment.

Return to the Nations

Six months later I was once again sitting on an airplane crying, "Lord, I don't even have a home." I had been living with my mom, but the family home had been sold. My few belongings were in storage. I'd given my cats away. Two suitcases stuffed with my meager possessions were stowed in the plane's belly. I had no phone. I was on my way back to New Zealand with no return address. My whole life was turned upside down. My mom, my home, and my city were behind me.

On the week of September 25, 1992, a radical revival and visitation hit our meetings in Christchurch, New Zealand. The Lord broke in miraculously in a little inner city church, gripping people with heavenly encounters -- salvations, deliverances, and healings. Open heavens penetrated the atmosphere releasing angelic activity and waves of heavenly glory.

I sensed the presence of the living witnesses, the ones who had gone on before, and my mom was with them cheering me on. September 25 just happened to be her birthday. It was one of her dreams to someday visit New Zealand. I smiled as I realized she had finally made it.

The Austin Comet

When I left New Zealand the Lord directed me to live in Kansas City. When I got there I found out that Bob Jones, a renowned Kansas City prophet, had predicted that a literal comet, called the Austin Comet, would be discovered in the heavens. He also predicted that a "comet" named Austin was coming to Kansas City on December 5, 1992, on the tenth anniversary of his church's founding. That's when I showed up.

The celestial Austin Comet was discovered by a New Zealand scientist and could be seen in the heavens from 1990-1994. During those years I ministered 12 times in New Zealand and saw the Lord shake that nation with His glory.

Heavenly Strategies

In the middle of all the chaos surrounding my mom's death, the Lord sent me a divine messenger. Looking back, I identified several ways the angel helped me.

- Direction: The angel told me to do a memorial service. As a public witness telling of the fullness of her life, I hosted a radical prayer and celebration meeting. I displayed all her photographs, needlepoint, and jewelry and I could feel the glory in the room. It was an open heaven.
- Comfort: He showed me that the days and months before Mom died she had gotten closer to Him. This gave me assurance of her salvation.
- Revelation: I wondered if the enemy had taken her out prematurely. The angel assured me that no one could steal a human life out of Jesus' hands.
- Encouragement: The angel reassured me that I was faithful to God's call on my life in going to the ends of the earth.
- Divine Orchestration: He helped me to trust that I was where I was supposed to be. God had brought someone to minister to my mother on her death bed when I couldn't be there. I actually participated when I had an open vision and saw Jesus coming for her.
- Warning and Strategy for the Future: Unfortunately, what the angel said about being plundered by my family came to pass. Although it was hard to forgive when I was left homeless, having the advanced warning prepared my heart. I was not taken by surprise when I lost the family inheritance.

Anatomy of Hate

Becky McLendon

Hate has been sent a strong delusion and believes lies. But love has had a hole bored in its ear and is hearing what love is saying. Hate is the accuser. Whenever the accuser jumps on you, it is hate trying to break you down. Hate does not know the truth about you. Hate believes lies. Hate is always damned, therefore it spends its life damning others. When it thinks it is telling the truth. It is lying.

Hate is the teacher of false doctrine. It is like quick sand. Only love can bring them out.
We must be his love towards them.

Hate exalts itself, is proud. It is so smart, or so it thinks. But it hates love and thinks love must be abolished. Hate wants us to hate each other; it wants to divide us. Hate is the dragon that tries to devour the man-child, because the man-child is God's love in bodily form.

But love is saying we will love each other more as a people, even to perfection. God builds His house of love, and hate is shut out from it. Love has a table spread in the presence of hate, and hate condemns all that is on that table. Hate is insanely jealous of the things of God and the people of God. It hates that the people of God are chosen from the foundation of the earth, and it has no part in that love. Hate warns the people to stay away from this love. Don't touch their table.

Hate is our enemy. That is why it tries to “break the dishes” in the House of Love. But it does not understand, love holds onto that which is holy and precious. And soon the whole table will be set with the “dishes of Love.”

Paul was a hater. But the LORD rescued him on the road to Damascus. The LORD knows how to rescue haters, but at first it will look very bad for them. How they receive His rescue determines whether they will go on with Him or hate even more.

Jesus died for the haters. So shall we "die" for them, and at their hands. That’s why things that have been had to be. From the time we were born, hate has tried to destroy us. Hate wanted our mothers to abort us. It has succeeded in many cases. Hate has caused many to succumb to addictions and disease. However, hate will never separate us from the love of God, if we love God with all our hearts. We have been born one.

There is a pride that goes with hate. It exalts itself. It says God’s people are just dummies. The antichrist is hate. It sits in the temple of God. So those that have hate believe they have God .

Hate says, “ I will ascend into heaven and be like the Most High God. Hate preaches death, saying, “You have got to die.” And then sets out to kill and destroy to prove itself to be right. Where there is persecution there is hate. And persecution only comes about when love is abounding in the hearts of God's people. Where there is love, there is a crying inside. It is the cry that weeps between the porch and the altar, crying MERCY MERCY Lord and how long O Lord till you avenge us?

Hate says to hate, “Let’s get married, and have kids like us.” So they go to the preacher and get married, hate-to-hate, joined to conceive hate and give birth to hate. Whole congregations of people can be founded on hate! It is some thing how the blind haters think their thing is more important than what the Lord wants, or what the Lord has made them for.

In case you are looking for the antichrist, look for hate, and you have found him.

Hate opposes all that is called God. And hate is a spirit. Pride comes before a fall. I believe we could even say hate comes before a fall. Strokes I believe follow hate, and, many times, high blood pressure. Hate comes out of the root of bitterness. And bitterness is the basis for all disease. It is a place for cancers to grow. It is a cancer-breeding ground. Bitterness IS a cancer. It is a tumor that has festered up with things that a person should have “gotten over” a long time ago, had they trusted God.

Hate has come to lie, hate, steal, kill, and destroy. But in Christ, we are NOT destroyed; we remain!!

Blessings and shalom to you all.

Becky

Journal From A 7-day Fast of Stillness
Becky McLendon

For several days, I had heard the "still small voice" of the Lord prompting me to "fast" unto Him. It was during that time that I read the article and exhortation from Chuck Pierce concerning a seven-day "fast" of being still before the Lord. I kept going back to that article and re-reading it. On Friday Sept. 3, the Lord said "DO IT!" So I did. I went "off line" except for very minimum time during that week, and went IN to the Word. Chuck had outlined a series of scripture readings for each day, and the Lord prompted me to follow it. Day one was simply a beautiful time of refreshing in the Psalms. But from then on the warfare, Chuck had said would happen, did!!

(Day 2 Saturday, Sept. 4) of a seven-day "fast" of stillness)

The effectual, fervent prayers of a righteous man availeth much. (James 5:16)

A SELF righteous man can get nowhere with God. A SELF righteous man's prayers are NOT fervent, NOR are they effectual.
They CANNOT avail much. They are the prayers of an open grave.

Matt. 6:5-15: Self righteous pray-ers are as the heathen. Righteous men pray in secret and the effectiveness of their prayers are their open reward.

God will judge the iniquity of self-righteousness. With sudden judgment and sudden death.

He gave this word while I was walking:

"Woe to those who walk the paths of their own righteousness, for I have had enough of your iniquity. You know not day or hour of My coming suddenly to you. A wall will suddenly appear before you which says:

"I have had enough of your self-righteousness,
your religiosity."

"My finger has written upon that wall:

MENE: God hath numbered thy kingdom and finished it.

TEKEL: Thou art weighed in the balance and art found wanting.

PERES: I have divided you (away from My flock) and given you to the Medes and Persians (the enemy)

"I have turned you over to Satan for destruction of your flesh and no pleas for mercy or even the prayers of My saints will avail anything, for the King of righteousness has stood up, and the enemy of My people has to die.

"Yes, this is a wall of death. Haman met it and died by his own devices. Ananias and Sapphira died by it in their own religious lies and self-justification. Cain died inwardly from it, as Abel's blood cried out from the earth and testified through Abel's martyrdom. Korah and his people died from it in their presumption that they were as anointed as Moses to lead My people, when I had chosen Moses as my anointed one. Ham was cursed immediately when he looked upon My servant Noah, with whom I had established My covenant, and went out to report his father's nakedness to his siblings.

"Consider the religious elders who dragged the adulterous woman to my feet and threw her down on the ground, demanding the Law be satisfied. The finger of God wrote, and they were struck to the core with the knowledge of their iniquity. They knew a wall had suddenly appeared before them. They had come face to face with the only One who is without sin and the only One who could cast the first stone. However, the stone was not cast by that Holy One. They were stopped cold in their iniquity. This iniquity brings sudden death.

"Great fear and trembling to you, you whited tombs who judge all by outward appearances and deeds and do not properly discern My body from within. You drag My people through your own dung and mud in judgment and accusation. You base righteousness upon church membership, frequency of "attendance," how many times one has read through the Bible, a regimented prayer program, ecstatic worship and manifestations, exhibiting "gifts," having a "ministry," how loud one prays, praises, shouts or wails, your hair length, your manner of conformity to religious rules. But you do not know Me. Therefore I do not know You.

Enough! Go away you doers of self-righteousness. I never knew you."

I certainly obtained a clear vision of areas of self righteousness hidden in my heart.

Day 3 Sunday Sept 5 of the Fast of Stillness

Ezekiel was commanded to eat the roll of God's words given to him. For the first time in all the times I have read Chapter 3 of Ezekiel I "SAW" and "HEARD" things never before perceived! God said to Ezekiel that he was to "cause thy belly to eat and fill thy bowels" with this roll that I give thee..."

In scripture, the BOWELS (Me eh) refer to the intestines, womb, belly, stomach, the INNERMOST PART, HEART...associated with God's emotions. The abdomen means COMPASSION. So God commanded Ezekiel to eat the scroll, to eat His words but go further than just taking that word in. Go further than merely reading and studying it. God went so far as to say "study to show thyself approved....CAUSE THY BELLY, your innermost parts, the seat of your emotions, your reproductive facilities, to EAT MY WORDS THAT I GIVE YOU. When we study God's words, we are to let it go into our innermost parts: the holy of holies in us, so that we will be MOVED WITH COMPASSION in all our dealings.

It is out of the BELLY that the Living Waters flow! It is out of the HEART that spring issues of LIFE. Our public MOUTH reveals what lies within our BELLY, be it life or death, blessing or cursing. We may speak truth, but without LOVE. We may speak words of hard judgment, but without being MOVED WITH COMPASSION. So EAT God's words that HE gives you. And in that EATING, CAUSE your BELLY to eat and FILL YOUR BOWELS.

God sends His Ezekiels with His words to HIS PEOPLE. They are a people of the Captivity! Man has been speaking MAN'S words to them, and they are destroyed for lack of vision (revelation knowledge and understanding). Man "studies" the Bible all the time, and it is usually what he has chosen for himself, and usually the interpretation of other men. True study of the scripture is to "eat the scrolls of GOD's words" and to "cause the belly to eat them" also. The keys are these: Let GOD give you HIS words to study, then study them. With the getting get REVELATION and UNDERSTANDING of those words. "Cause thy belly to eat them!" This study shows you to be APPROVED unto God to preach what He preaches and nothing more. This study keeps you from adding to or taking away from the book of the testimony of God's words.

I think I will "study" more, causing my "belly" to eat His words!

Behold I have made thy face strong against their faces and thy forehead strong against their foreheads as an adamant have I made thy forehead" Ezekiel 3:8

A strong face or forehead is one that is firm, valiant, sound, powerful, violent and hard. It is powerful and able to resist. The word "strong" usually carries with it a sense of violence. It connotes a stubbornness, and being unyielding in the things God gives to one to accomplish.

A people of "strong face and forehead" is being made able to butt heads with a rebellious people and not back off. They are being held silent until the completion of the course, and will emerge with a "talking-in-your-face-confrontationalism" with the words that God gives us.

God is sending his Ezekiels to butt heads with HIS OWN PEOPLE. These are God's words that He gives us, that we have "caused our belly to eat and our bowels be filled", so, moved with compassion for the people of God, we go out and butt heads with them. This "butt-head immovability" is is born out of love and compassion for the people of God. God's words to His rebellious house seem much harder than the words to the lost! They are also resisted more violently by God's people than they are by the lost.

Love and compassion behind the words God gives us serves to bring REPENTANCE to God's people: A people who say they "have need of nothing." It is the ONLY KEY to true revival, because it SLICES into the heart of self-righteousness and exposes the dong, the worms, the creeping things, the false idols, the abominations of desolation that have desecrated His sanctuary. God's people have become antichrist and have seated their antichrist selves in the Holy Temple of God, thus the abomination of desecration is already set up. They are whited tombs full of dead men's bones.

We must have revelatory understanding of the words God gives us before we dare presume to step out and speak them. We are to receive them into our most interior part, our feelings, our intellect, our center, our place of caring for, our place of comforting so as to bring about repentance and restoration amongst a rebellious people. We are to HEAR (Shama) the words that God gives us. Hear with attention and obedience. We are to GIVE OUR UNDIVIDED LISTENING ATTENTION to the words He gives and not be occupied with "many things."

God says to His messenger: "LOOK AT ME WHEN I AM TALKING TO YOU. For if you don't, how can you even expect to be effective and full of My authority. You are to hear Me spiritually and not be filtering My words through your vain assumptions. You are to preceive the message, to SENSE THE SOUND. Cause thy belly to eat My words, if you are going to go out to a rebellious people to butt heads with them."

O, Lord, my God, heal me of ADD of the spirit. (Attention Deficit Disorder) I want to eat Your words and thoroughly digest all that You say.

Ezekiel was sent forth, having been "lifted up in the spirit" and gone forth in bitterness and in the heat of his spirit."

The words that God has given us to eat, and we have caused our bellies to eat them, creates within us a bitterness, a sad heart that is FIERCE, and WILD with the heart crushing experience of being in the midst of family turmoil. The people of God are a violent people in their wickedness and iniquity. The family is torn up, the body is dismembered and dislocated. Like Ezekiel, we say, "I have to go to my loved ones (God's family) and declare to them the "Sudden Death Playoffs" The scores of the Wheat and tares are tied right now...there has to be a SUDDEN DEATH to produce the victory. God is judging unbelief IN THE HOUSE. MEMBERS OF OUR OWN HOUSEHOLD are about to become our enemies.

We are going into a sudden death play off, and the victor WILL be the Lord.

We go forth in the HEAT of our spirit: a hot anger, which is God's hot anger, against His rebellious people. The words we speak in this heat demonstrate God's anger, His wrath, His rage and indignation. This is not going to be an easy one.

However, His hand is strong upon us. He has laid hands upon us to choose us. So we go forth in power and strength and with His full assistance.

What is the SUDDEN DEATH message?

"Tell the wicked they shall surely die. In their state of spiritual death, they shall die. In their dying they shall die. Tell them, who are teetering on the brink of sudden spiritual death which will suddenly physically die,

"STOP what you are doing.
TURN AROUND and GO BACK!
ALL the way to your First Love!!!
Or you will DIE!
In your sin, you will DIE!

"You, O, messenger, whom I have chosen, YOU are responsible to warn the wicked and speak to My people in captivity. Why? You ask. To turn formerly righteous men BACK to their righteous state lost by committing iniquity, so they will NOT DIE in their sin, and that former righteousness be blotted out of the Lamb's book of life. His name, his character, will be erased!

"You, O, messenger, whom I have chosen, WARN the righteous that they SIN NOT, and thereby they will LIVE."

When do we do this? After we have been committed to SILENCE, to sit where they sit and be astonished (SPEECHLESS). We basically become a RECLUSE, shut up "in our house," speechless until He speaks His words and sends us. THEN WE SPEAK.

Some of you are understanding this and you have already felt the hand of God "strong" upon you. We are in the times of announcing "SUDDEN DEATH." with words from God that our bellies have eaten!

With your words in my belly, cause me to give them out in your authority to bring repentance amongst your people that they may be made whole.

Day 3 Sunday and Day 4 Monday.. intense battles with temptations of old behaviors....cravings for sugar and /or chocolate. Wanting to return to old patterns. Irritability. and temptation to get on the computer and exchange emails or call friends on the phone. and chat. In the heat of battle. GOD WILL WIN.

Day 5 Tuesday. The worst intensity of warfare in my members ever. The Lord said GO FOR A WALK. Everything in me balked at it...I couldn't breathe. I hurt all over. Anger intense. Wanted to call friends for "support." Wanted to email people with prayer requests. The LORD said, Be STILL and KNOW that I am God. I said to myself: "I HAVE TO FIGHT THIS THING." Again, the LORD spoke: BE STILL AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD. YOU MUST TRUST ME TO FIGHT THIS BATTLE and WIN IT. Finished the walk. Now I await the victory.

Day 5 of the Fast of Stillness

Exodus 12-15.

The Passover

This lamb is without blemish: meaning it is entirely whole, faultless, upright in conduct. This lamb is a DIVINE STANDARD that man must attain. He must try to meet all requirements of God's law. Be

NOT ODIOUS in relationship to God. We have the faith of Christ and He is our Lamb without blemish. We, in our following, become lambs without blemish also, for God hath said, Christ will present unto Himself, a church without spot (blemish) or wrinkle, but a complete and perfect church.

The people were to completely roast this lamb with fire and eat it ALL, including the purtenance: the nearest, the center, the interior of a things, the part IN THE MIDST, the BOWELS. Purtenance suggests the HEART of the mind, the SEAT of thought and desire. It is all that is within, the inward part of the body which is the seat of laughter, thoughts. The SPIRIT...the entire inner being. When we eat ALL of the lamb, we partake of the ESSENCE of Christ and become that ESSENCE in ourselves! Only this way can "death" pass us over!!!

In order for us to be "perfect and without blemish" it is more than putting blood on the doorposts.. It is getting into the ESSENCE of the One who shed that blood, eating Him completely. It is CHRIST IN US the hope of glory! And that comes from partaking of all Him.

This brings to mind the day the Lord woke me up saying "You will have ALL of Me, or NONE of Me." What I had of Him, I would LOSE, if I did not desire ALL of Him. That came alongside His promise to shake my theology! Our theology HAS to be shaken if we are to eat the whole Lamb.

Day 6 of the Fast of Stillness: Joshua 5,6, and 7

The reading today was Joshua 3,4,5, and 6. THIS JERICHO WILL FALL. God hath spoken it. And I will NOT, like Achan, cling to ONE THING of it! The Lord is my very present help in times of trouble!

It is interesting to note that no one could cross the Jordan until the people which came out of Egypt were CONSUMED because they "obeyed not the voice of the Lord." He sware that He would not "show them the land." To be consumed indicates be finished, ended, completely destroyed. Wickedness HAS to come to completion before it can be destroyed.

Crossing Jordon was for the NEW generation. And this new generation was circumcised immediately upon crossing Jordan. And after the circumcision, they remained STILL until they were WHOLE. Could it be that the Lord wants us WAITING on Him until WE are made whole? If we are this "glorious church" we need to be WHOLE, and that can only come from WHOLLY eating the WHOLE Lamb. For each step, or level we go in God we need to remain still until we are WHOLE before moving on to the next one.

To be WHOLE implies to LIVE, to live anew, recover, to be well, make alive, be refreshed, and this life comes from a right relationship with the Lord, not by incantations or rituals. The choice between life and death is ours!

Through eyes of faith, both His eyes and ours, God has given us "Jericho" and the king and his mighty men of valor to us. While God was judging the disobedient Israelites, just out of Egypt, He was working on behalf of those with whom He had just renewed His covenant. And He does the same today. Obedience in every thing is necessary for our "Jericho" to fall and the "city" to be captured and spoiled. HOWEVER, we can see through Achan, the consequences of one who breaks faith with God. When even ONE breakes faith with God, it affects the whole "nation". The relationship enjoyed with God is broken. When one member is "dislocated" the whole body hurts. We don't just speak of "America" here but of the whole "nation" of God, universal in all generations.

Our individual trespasses affect the entire Kingdom. God cannot work in our favor to give us victory over our enemies if there is sin in the camp. In Joshua 7 it was only after Achan and his family was completely consumed that God released Israel from their guilt in the matter. Achan's sin was not simply one of stealing goods or even covetousness. He defied God by disobeying Him.

Sin in the camp must be removed before God can make us victorious again. Jerecho had been a pagan city which defied God's word. Something to consider here. Are we, in our attempts to "get along" with everyone and to be "politically correct," bringing sure defeat and judgment upon ourselves as believers? Yes. Sudden terror came to the Israelites at Ai...sudden defeat, sudden death comes to those who take the accursed things when God has said NO. The Joshuas carry the burden of the church on their shoulders because they are one with Christ. He that has taken the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire and all with him will be destroyed. He has transgressed the covenant with the Lord.

The solution: 2 Chronicles 7:14."If My people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves, pray, seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, THEN will I hear from heaven, I will forgive their sins and heal their land."

"I the Lord thy God do not change."

Day 7 Of the Fast of Stillness

Emerged confident that significant deliverance has taken place, that what the Lord has said is established, that I carry in my heart His burden for His people, and that there will be more "Fasts of Stillness" as He directs.

Blessings and the shalom of God upon you and your house.

Amen.

Embracing the Abundance of God's Kindness"
A Look at Genesis 24

Releasing Heaven's Resources - The Abundance Of Kindness

Kindness is a subject that has been much on my heart of late and I feel it is something the Lord wants to stir in each one of us...learning to be kind to others and learning (or re-learning) how to be kind to ourselves.

During the last couple of months, we've looked at prioritizing relationship with Christ, flowing out of intimacy with Him into fruitfulness (John 15) and waiting patiently until the word of the Lord comes with release and fulfillment of our Kingdom destiny (Philippians). Today's teaching from Genesis 24 is a continuation of this journey through Scripture and encourages us to embrace God's kindness.

The Commissioning

"Abraham was now old and well advanced in years, and the Lord has blessed him in every way. He said to the chief servant in his household, the one in charge of all he had...go to my country and my relatives and get a wife for my son Isaac." Genesis 24:1-2, 4

The story of Abraham's servant is a wonderful encouragement to us today as servants of our Lord Jesus Christ. Just like Abraham's servant was, we are entrusted with an ambassadorial anointing from heaven to step out and fulfill the Great Commission. When it's time to move on a faith promise, the Lord lets us know by His Spirit.

But "What If...?"

Abraham's servant was an obedient man, but nonetheless still had questions and some doubts and anxieties as to the success of his mission. He asked his master, "What if the woman is unwilling to come back with me?" (Genesis 24:5) but quickly received a profound word of holy hope. Abraham gave his servant an incredible promise of success for the journey he was about to undertake in faith - he was to have angelic accompaniment! An unseen protector, one sent from heaven, would assist this mere mortal to complete the task set before him.
"He will send his angel before you so that you can get a wife for my son from there." Genesis 24:7
Likewise today, the Lord releases his ministering angels to assist those who will inherit salvation (Hebrews 1:14).

Having questions is ok! It's what you do with them that counts. Holy people are honest people. Holy people have a whole and healed heart. The remedy to worry is to put God at the center of whatever concerns you. Once He is rightly established at the core of the issue, all our anxieties melt away in His loving embrace. Abraham's servant did just that and was able to move on to the next stage of his journey.

The Blessing Of Covenant Relationship

Buoyed up in his faith, the servant then entered into a covenant agreement with his master and swore an oath to him concerning this matter (v. 9). As New Testament believers, we have entered into a covenant relationship of grace with our Lord Jesus Christ. He is faithful to provide for us and to protect us. Covenant brings many benefits including grace, mercy, forgiveness, and a renewed relationship with God. Through Holy Spirit we may experience an inward transformation and walk in the freedom of those who have been released from condemnation through Christ's sacrifice (Romans 8:1-2). Christ is our mediator and sanctifies us through His blood.

Content and securely anchored in his covenant relationship, the servant then left to fulfill his mission, taking with him all kinds of good things (v. 11). As his master's representative, he was entrusted with considerable wealth and resources. We, likewise, have been given every good gift in God (Ephesians 1). Heaven's resources are poured into us and through us by God's kindness in order that we might be a blessing. God longs for his bride to take up her royal inheritance. Perhaps you need to ask the Lord today for your inheritance?

Trusting In God's Favor And His Kindness

"Then he prayed, 'O Lord, God of my master Abraham, give me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham. See, I am standing beside this spring and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water. May it be that when I say to a girl, 'Please let down your jar that I may have a drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I'll water your camels too' - let her be the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master." Genesis 24:12-15

Trusting and believing in God's kindness, the servant laid a prayer fleece before the Lord and God moved in power.
"Before he had finished praying, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder." (v. 15)
God responded with a Kingdom "suddenly" and gave the servant the God-given desire of his heart. Similarly, we too may believe for God's "suddenly" in our lives as we learn to trust and obey Him and rejoice as we see our hopes and dreams fulfilled in Christ. I have found that God's "suddenlies" are usually preceded by much soul searching, patient waiting, and pursuing Him in prayer. Then comes the breakthrough, bringing with it much joy and favor. Waiting, then…whoosh!

Obedience to God brings blessing and favor. Being in favor with God often means we are shown favor with man. This is not favoritism, nor is it manipulation. Rather, it is the outworking of God looking kindly upon a person and treating them with tender regard.

Blessed Are The Pure In Heart

Rebekah, the bride-to-be, is described as being very beautiful and she was a virgin (v. 16). Her beauty, purity, and virtue of heart reflect a picture of the Bride of Christ perfected by our Lord's sacrifice at Calvary. Jesus taught his disciples that only the pure in heart will see God (Matthew 5:8). We can rest in the truth that the Righteousness the Kingdom demands is the same Righteousness that God gifts in grace to every believer. Holiness is not about striving or legalism. We are holy because Christ is holy. We are a chosen people, a royal nation and a people belonging to God (1 Peter 2:9).

Hurrying to meet Rebekah, the servant requested that she give him a little water from her jar. It takes humility to know when and how to make a request and make your needs known. It also requires humility to receive another's act of servant hood on our behalf. Jesus graciously washed His disciples feet, setting an example both for them and us as believers. It was because of His security in relationship with His Father that Christ was able to be perform such a meek act of service. Christ came as the Servant-King and taught us to model perfect love and compassion. Moreover, Jesus also taught that if we do this (i.e. live lives of humility and show kindness) that we will be blessed (John 13:17). We are encouraged to be like Christ, who made Himself nothing that we might have life eternal (Philippians 2:7).

Sometimes our pride may get in the way of our needs being met and we may not ask for help at all. At other times we may ask for help, but perhaps we ask with wrong intent in our hearts. The apostle James teaches:
"You do not have, because you do not ask God. When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures." James 4:2-3

God wants to bless His children. He especially wants to gift us with Holy Spirit and He has already seeded the heavenly places with every blessing as our inheritance. Don't be afraid to ask for what you need, because the Lord knows every hair on your head and cares infinitely more for you than you can ever ask or imagine. He longs to pour out Holy Spirit on every single believer (Luke 11:13).

Child Of God - Drink From His Presence!

Rebekah responded to the servant thus:
"'Drink, my lord,' she said, and quickly lowered the jar to her hands and gave him a drink. After she had given him a drink, she said, 'I'll draw water for your camels too, until they have finished drinking.' So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough, ran back to the well to draw more water, and drew enough for all his camels." Genesis 24:18-20

God is gracious to refresh His children and to give us His life-giving water, meeting all our spiritual, emotional, physical, and practical needs. Jesus Himself, stood up on the last and greatest day of the feast and proclaimed that if anyone was thirsty they should come to Him and drink from the life-giving waters of Holy Spirit. Beloved, if you are feeling worn out, wounded, weary or dry, drink from the well of joy and salvation of Jesus Christ today.

Rebekah displayed a willingness to serve, and in her humility was used by God. All the Lord is looking for is our availability. We don't have to qualify. Jesus qualified us in Grace when He poured Himself out as a love offering on the Cross, canceling the power and the penalty of sin and death. Take Christ's kindness to your own heart and don't be afraid to ask for a double portion. God wants to tenderly bless YOU His child.

An Open Letter To Prosperity Teachers And Pastors

Clay Sikes

December 4th, 2004

The Body of Christ has suffered many distractions in its journey to Christ's return. One such distraction has swept through American churches like wildfire and occupies much of what is termed Christian Television. This false doctrine is now being taught in many foreign countries, as the hopeless, distraught, and downtrodden are being shown hope through a doctrine that promises much, but delivers little. The potential damage of this doctrine cannot be measured in words. The spirit of anti-Christ is rampant deceiving the very elect with false promises and appeals to our flesh (1 John 4:1-6). I offer this open letter to be judged, particularly by those who subscribe to the modern day prosperity message. I asked that those who read this take the liberty of God's spirit to pass it own to those who may benefit from what is written here.

Having been a disciple of "The Prosperity Message," having served in a Board capacity in one of these large ministries, and having given hundreds of thousands of dollars in adherence to these teachings, I initially felt I had an intimate understanding of this message, and yet later became mystified as I began to suffer a drastic financial demise. I had no known sin in my life and felt that I was following God's instruction with money, at least to the point of what I was being taught from this doctrine.

The emphasis of these teachings seemed always to relate to my giving, with little emphasis upon anything else. As things got worse financially we gave until it hurt; and if giving alone would suffice we would have survived with flying colors. We gave away everything but the kitchen sink in an effort to get God to move in our increasingly dire situation.

On the day of my final collapse, I clearly heard the Lord say I Samuel 6:1-13. During the years following, the Holy Spirit revealed that I could hear God for His general direction, but lacked patience to wait upon His 'how to' (the specifics within the scope of direction). Scripture tells us "…with wisdom, get understanding." Wisdom is God's 'direction;' understanding is His 'how to.' The prosperity message, with its single-minded instruction (GIVE) left me with little teaching to understand my dilemma. All efforts in counsel with my Spiritual mentors produced little in the way of explanation. Some theorized I was in some type sin, or simply lacked faith. The fact that the message (doctrine) could somehow be flawed didn't seem to register with any of them. Crisis produces reality and crisis I faced! The Word (instruction) I knew and applied was having little effect. True divine revelation, when applied, will always produce divine results. The fact that the word I depended upon in the midst of a crisis produced nothing, was my first signal of 'flawed doctrine.'

I was to further realize that while I had heard of God, I didn't really know Him (Job 42:5,6). During a time of meditation upon these scriptures I realized that my relationship with God lacked intimacy –I did not have a personal relationship that allowed me to go to God with any confidence. In the difficult years following, I was transformed from carnal Christian (seeing things in the natural), to spiritually discerning what God was doing in my life. I realized that what was going on inside of me was far greater than what was going on outside. I finally realized that what had happened, though extremely difficult on my flesh (going flat broke at 51 with a new baby), would eventually produce something new and exciting in my life – a relationship with my creator!

I also heard another phrase that was to impact me heavily; this from 90 year old Arthur Burt, a welsh minister. I heard Arthur say in a tape, "God was not about improving me; he was about removing me!" This was the beginning of an understanding that my salvation was not about me; it was and is about Him. When my focus went from my needs getting met, to hearing and obeying God that His needs be met in the earth, things began to happen in the natural world in which I live. What I gleaned has changed my life! When I meet His needs, by hearing and obeying, He meets mine, because the greater always includes the lesser (Matthew 6:33). When I stopped chasing money (Matthew 6:32), and began to seek His face, hear and obey, His favor began to find me. Why? The "why" can be found in another teaching from my old friend Arthur; THE GREATER ALWAYS INCLUDES THE LESSER. The greater (doing His will), always includes the lesser (my needs being met). I am realizing that the greatest gift I can ever give God is myself.

Since this difficult experience and my subsequent financial recovery, I believe what I experienced and learned is revelation of a much deeper truth. I offer this word to be judged. What surfaced through this occurrence was truth beyond what I knew as "the truth." I learned that true prosperity in God extends far past money, and in fact, includes all aspects of life. What I had ascribed to as 'the truth,' was in fact a perversion of truth – "Give generously and God will generously give to you." While this is "a truth," it is not necessarily "the truth." The simple 'give to get' part of "the truth," in my humble opinion, has been over emphasized by most prosperity teachers; particularly those who depend upon the Body of Christ for their living.

While many will not publicly acknowledge this, it is my heart that some at least will acknowledge the mistake of 'preaching and teaching to meet personal needs and ambitions.' Rousing sermons on 'giving' are often given during times of financial need. The manipulation and hype surrounding much of this is self-serving. It is not what we do that matters to God, but rather why we do it. If our motive is Holy Spirit inspired we are on the right track; if the motive is to simply serve self in some way, we are selfishly operating in the World's System. God is revealing His Kingdom (ways) in contrast to the World's way. These two systems are constantly competing for our affections, and the one we choose determines our ultimate outcome. A 'called man' cannot touch the World's System and find success, nor can he can fail following the Kingdom's Way (hearing God and obeying).

In concluding the points of the above paragraph, many feel their intellectual understanding and application will suffice – it will not in this hour! Seminary is no more a qualification before God than tending bar. In fact, the bartender may have a better shot at hearing God than those caught up in their own self-righteousness. Those prone to religion are least prone to relationship.

We are coming to a time of distinction in understanding the difference between 'good' and 'God.' Good works are often called "God's works," when in fact God has little to do with it. IF IT DOESN'T ORIGINATE BY THE SPIRIT, IT AIN'T GOD! Do not confuse intellectual assent with the Holy Spirit! The words "preachers and programs" go together like "horse and carriage." Like all preachers, all church programs and doctrine are not Spirit inspired. Those called to the end-time remnant will discern this difference.

The Body of Christ is constantly being pummeled for more money to build unnecessary buildings, purchase unnecessary airplanes, furnish lavish homes, establish more programs, more TV time, more, more, more! Many will have to give account to God for what amounts to selfish ambition and greed. While many are quick to recognize sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, and orgies as sins of the flesh, few recognize "SELFISH AMBITION." Our society accepts and even rewards ambitious people. The Word of God is crystal clear on this subject: It (selfish ambition) is an act of "the sinful nature" and "those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God." Please take the time to read Galatians 5:16-21. Selfish ambition is sin and many who represent themselves as Spiritual fathers move by their own ambitious desires. We should not be ignorant of Satan's devices used to gain advantage over humans. Any ambitious effort outside the leading of the Holy Spirit is sin for me, for you, or anyone else called of God. Let me confess to all who read this – I fight this daily in my own life so I can little point the finger, but hopefully this offers light!

My testimony, and what I say here match – I am not teaching scripture without first walking in the revelation. It is at this point that I offer a caution TO THOSE WHO CAN RECEIVE IT: Beware of those who teach beyond what they walk in. We will overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony (Revelation 12:11). There is an anointing to covey truth based upon testimony that far exceeds any other form of spiritual man-to-man communication. Revelation isn't revelation until you hear it, believe it, walk it.

The next great move of God will be 'The Kingdom of God,' and those who are leading this move are "the Sons of God." True sons will only teach what they walk in. You will know them by the fruit of their life – their life is their testimony. If a man's teachings do not line up with his life, BEWARE! As stated, the anti-Christ spirit is deceiving many today, and much of this deception is being heaped upon the Body by men whose lives do not line up with what they teach and preach. I will not digress on this point, but should you have interest in further explanation please read 'Discerning The Spirit Of Anti-Christ' at www.lighthouseprophecy.com.

From my financial demise, and many other of life's difficulties, I discovered that God indeed does bless our giving, but only if we are moving under a direct unction from the Holy Spirit. Obedience to His Spirit, whether it is giving or some other directive, invokes the favor of God. At this point, God began to focus me on Romans 8:14, "because THOSE who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God." I reasoned that if there are some "THOSES" who are led by the Spirit of God, then there must be some THEMS who are not. "Those" is a word that suggests separation from the rest of the pack.

I knew that I occasionally heard God for His general direction, but the Holy Spirit revealed that I was NOT being led of the Spirit in all I undertook. I am only now beginning to see the depth of my past carnality as a Christian. My traditional thought process calls for me to answer my own questions and supply my own needs. As I move deeper into God, I am seeing His great willingness to communicate with me in both general and specific areas, as well as provide for me. Now, when I move outside the boundaries of the Spirit I can feel it. When self jumps up in me, and it often does, God in His great mercy reveals my own greed and selfishness.

Much of the modern day prosperity message appeals to our greed (carnality). It often brings to mind some form of Christian lottery. The "giving to get" syndrome is rooted in a self-serving doctrine that points to self's ability to provide instead of the sovereignty of God – "You give, and God will have to give to you!" The very motive of this message is rooted in selfishness.

Once we get acquainted with our own greed, we then open ourselves up yet another lesson - Being our own provision! I heard the Holy Spirit say that a needy man can chase money just like a greedy man. In my hour of greatest need my search for money was intense, and at its height the Lord spoke Matthew 6:31,32 to me. "So do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat? Or what shall we drink? For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them." Chasing money when our needs are great is a natural thing to do, but only the rest of God will produce the provision of God. As God once said to me, "When you stop, I start. When you start, I stop!" I was soon to learn that true rest in God (Hebrews 4) produces trust and obedience, and trust and obedience produces the provision of God. During this period I also got a John 5:30 revelation… "Of my own self, I can do nothing." For years everything I tried turned to manure until I simply quit trying and started obeying.

Another grave and carnal error by many in the Body of Christ is in following 'THE LAW' in tithes and offerings. When we engage the law as a lawful act instead of hearing the witness of the Spirit in our giving, we forfeit the grace to hear God for His specific instructions (Galatians 5:1-4). As I disengaged from the law (in my giving) I was released from the curse that the law brought upon me (Galatians 3:13,14). Amazingly, I began to hear God clearly with reference to giving. I also realized that God owned a 100% of every dime I am ever provided, not 10%. If He indeed owns it all, He is indeed willing and able to tell me what to do with it all. Once I learned that God owns it all, not the tenth I had been taught, my stewardship responsibilities took on new meaning. I entered into a new and deeper understanding of stewardship.

True stewardship is all encompassing; it involves all, not part, BUT ALL. As a brief conclusion to this point, let me say again that tithing, as a law will produce a curse upon your finances. Test this word. Try praying and hearing God in your giving and see God's hand in your life in new and exciting ways. Read and meditate the above-mentioned scriptures and allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you. God intensely desires to commune with His people, but our traditions make the word of God to no effect (Matthew 15:6). What does this really mean? Our tradition or our way is to consult self, to depend upon self for answers; to be directed by our soul, when God desires that we hear from His Spirit within us. As amazing as this is, many of us know little of hearing His Spirit speak to us. Hence, we are bound by our own traditions. Often the unGodly counsel we take is from ourselves. Read Psalm 1 to understand why failure is so widespread among Christians.

Part of the false doctrine taught by many Word of Faith ministers is found in making the Bible God. The emphasis seems to always be upon reading the Word, with little emphasis upon getting before God, seeking His face, hearing and obeying. Meditating before God is an incredible missing link in the Body of Christ today! God's spoken word to us is masterfully confirmed by His written word, but when we do not first hear the Spirit on 'the Word,' we simply substitute our lack of an intimate relationship with Bible reading. This also contributes to the powerless state of the Church.

Intellectual assent is no substitute for an intimate relationship. Please understand that I am not saying the Bible is not the Word of God – it is! But what I am saying is that with a right relationship with God, "His sheep hear His voice," which is often His specific instruction to us apart from the logos. God desires to speak to us in specifics. In business, He will often give me specific direction relative to a real estate transaction. This type communication cannot always be found in the Bible, though often God will confirm specific instruction through His written Word.

I sense that we have gotten off base in our priorities. Instead of teaching the Body of Christ the prosperity message and good stewardship, we should first teach 'Sonship;' how to hear the Holy Spirit for ones self (Romans 8:14). Once intimacy is established, God and man can move in complete synchronization. "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." It should not come as a shock that the Spirit does not lead every Christian?

We must lead the Body of Christ into hearing and obeying God. When enough individuals are hearing and obeying, an Army will arise whose commander and chief is God. The corporate Body will begin to operate in a power never seen before in this earth. Sonship will begin to dictate stewardship and every other aspect of our being. The emphasis will shift from 'doing' to 'being.' Individuals moving in synchronization with God's Spirit will connect to other parts of the Body to which they are called. As these parts unify, strength will come as properly connected parts begin to operate in the order and power of God – THE BODY OF CHRIST WILL ARISE!

God is beginning to birth His Church in preparation for His return. SONSHIP IS THE MOST IMPORTANT ISSUE IN THE CHURCH TODAY!

What is God's purpose for the local church? To vest His corporate authority upon His Church; an authority that exudes the character, revelation, and power of God to all who come in contact with it. What is the believer's objective in the local church? To BECOME a Body/Church that is without spot or wrinkle – a work that is pleasing to the Father, which is totally controlled by the Holy Spirit. Every man must hear God as to his part in this work.

I think it fair to say that as this victorious assembly begins to emerge, the attacks of the anti-Christ spirit will continually test and expose true motives in the hearts of men. Prosperity or any other doctrine will NOT be permitted to come ahead of God's plan for His Body. As the Corporate Christ begins to come together as a remnant Body, the "called," will be separated from the "chosen" (Matthew 22:14).

If we are to be part of the promised seed of God we must distinguish between that which is blessed of God and that which is "chosen." There are many ministries today which are anointed and blessed but are still works of the flesh, having their origin in the minds and strivings of men, not in the heart of God. Like Saul, they may lead the church for a while but they will soon pass into oblivion. While Saul enjoyed the blessing and following of the people, David appeared cursed, and so it is until the appointed time (Galatians 4:1-7). Saul could not tolerate God's chosen heir to the throne just as Ishmael could not endure Isaac and taunted him. There is enmity between that which is born of the flesh and that which is born of the Spirit.

What then is the difference between the "called" and the "chosen?" The distinguishing feature between flesh and spirit is that the fear of the Lord (obedience) is greater than the fear of men or circumstances. One of the ultimate tests of being chosen is deciding who we fear the most, men and circumstances, or God. The spiritual nature of man must rule over the soulish nature. Spirit draws unto Spirit and soul draws unto soul (flesh). God's "chosen" always yield to that which is spirit. Those who love self-promotion and men's approval more than the things of the Spirit will always reject truth. The "chosen" of God are those who fear Him the most. Their emphasis is not prosperity or getting blessed, but obeying the living God and fulfilling their role and destiny in God's great plan for the age in which we now live.

As God separates us from the ways of men and those who practice such ways, we will soon find ourselves in a unique company of believers who share common beliefs in coming out of the Babylonian World's System (Revelation 18:4). It is in this unique company (assembly) that God will release His power. Let us not be sidetracked by the teachings of big name TV evangelist or pastors alike. Lord, grant us the wisdom the see this distraction for what it is, and have the courage to stand against it. Let us all ask the question, Is it prosperity or Sonship that we should be seeking? Is it prosperity or Sonship that we should be teaching? Judge this word!

Dear List Members,

The subject of "The Prosperity Message" strikes a cord with many of us. The abuses of this message are many, but truth seems to be finding its way into our hearts.

I also took the liberty of sending this word to some of my old friends who make their living espousing this message. Their replies (to me personally) have been interesting. Of some interest to this discussion, there seems to be some understanding of past errors, but as yet, and unacceptance of wholesale change.

In Him,

Clay

Clay,

I left one of those churches also. I am in a great well balanced Church now with an Awesome pastor. Its unfortunate how many people are stuck in this kind of "Money Cometh" teaching. Its also a shame that the majority of them that do decide to leave are not going to any church after this so they just go back to what they were doing before they got saved. Thanks for passing it.

In The Secret Place,
Elaine

Hi Clay,
Good article.
Have you seen this one lately?
John

Title: The Holy Bible, King James Version 2 Pet 2:3 (KJV)

3And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

Clay,

I want to commend you for your stand for the TRUTH in God's word. I have been an ordained minister, but due to all the garbage that has been and is still being taught from the pulpits of churches across this nation, I have refused to allow myself to be a part of this flim flam. I turned in my papers years ago, and said "no more" to this farce that is being perpetrated on God's people. I have recently left an independent church, in which I have served a pastor and the flock for 17 years in various capacities. This man has been led astray several times by people who have come to the church with ways to get rich.

The first was a woman who successfully fleeced a number of the flock, then flew the coop, costing not only lost monies, but a full three-fourths of the congregation. Another was an admitted con-man, who duped another several of the flock out of nearly one MILLION dollars. He wound up in jail, but NONE of the money was recovered. Some bank account off-shore we are sure. I stayed through the both of these hoping that Pastor had learned his lesson, as he refused to pay heed to all the warnings from a great number of voices prior to the first two rascals that came through. I had been part of the church leadership during the first two incidents, but left as the pastor embraced the third party to come along. I had given him a written word that I am positive that I received from God. It was a very strong word, but He refused it. Others in the leadership, including his son, the asst. pastor, said that it was a true word. The word was ALSO given him by two other men who moved in the prophetic gifts, a FULL YEAR after I had first delivered it to Pastor. He refused to hear them also. Shortly after that I left the church. My wife and I have been having bible studies in our home since then, and God has surely opened our eyes to the error that is being taught from the pulpits across America.

I long for the day that I have opportunity to teach to others outside our small group, the truths that we have found in our Revelation studies. God sure has a way to de-bunk so much of what has been taught in error for so long. God bless you and the ministry that you oversee, for many will be enlightened by this letter that you have sent out.

I know that there will be critical voices raised in protest, but these are the ones who are blinded by the lust for the riches of the world, rather than the riches of the Kingdom of God.

Hurray!!!! Thank God, somebody finally said it!!

Shalom Brother Sikes,

I saw your open letter posted on InJesus. I did not have to judge it, because it is something my wife and I have been living the past 8 years. I am sure you already know the most terrifying thing you could say in the midst of these kind of organizations. The spoken word as it is given to you by Ruach HaKodosh and to start to teach others the same. This teaching is seldom met with open defiance and in many cases when first presented it is received. The rub comes many times not from leadership but followers who realize they themselves are responsible to walk as He walked.

There are many who still seek an earthly king to follow. In due time leadership will show you the door. This is pervasive through out Christendom where ever legalism, tradition, or personal power is involved. One thing you wrote struck a cord. That was your reference to David and how he was perceived and treated. One more thing, do a word study on Nicolaitanes, you will find it strikes true to what you have seen. Be encouraged and enter into His rest.

Thank for your obedience it encouraged us. Shalom Andy and Nancy Tapins- FireFall Christian Redemption Ministries.

AWESOME WORD AS A PASTOR IN SOUTH TEXAS IN A STORE FRONT ASSEMBLY WE ARE THE SONS OF A MIGHTY GOD RECEIVING A WORD FROM HEAVEN NOT HANDLED BY WORKS OF THE FLESH PRAISE GOD FOR THE MOVING OF HIS HOLY SPIRIT AND THE VOICE OF TRUTH THAT SETS US FREE!! PASTOR CANTU

Hello Clay,

Glory to our mighty awesome risen king: Jesus!

If you wanted a response--"judge"-- please let me. I'm feeling chatty and grateful.

I was surprised by God in 2000---and through a series of wonders ended up pastoring the church my granpa built the year I was born. Dad had stewarded a remnant of five.....When I agreed, my siblings returned and we hover at 11. And here I am again measuring the stupid stuff. This was never even a dream of mine...but it has become a willingness.

No matter what the text, HE has me teach on hearing Him and becoming a people of whom it is said, "behold how they love each other." Hear Him, obey Him........I speak it at least once every Sunday, often more. I talk about hearing each other on the telephone and knowing who it is at the first word or two and we do that by spending time with each other, by being intimate. And it is essential that we do the same with HIM because we will be deceived otherwise.

I taught "the Crucified Ones" for five months and every week it was.......hear HIm; obey Him. They decided to do a verse-by-verse of the Revelation of Jesus and it's still, hear Him, obey Him!

Three of His people are over 80 and have known Him all their life but week after week they don't think they even saw His hand, much less heard His voice. The ones in their 60's are so overwhelmed by their families troubles and lack of any evidence of God (addictions) that .... I'm seeing them speak His word every now and then; with authority and humility as tho' they were quoting Him. Makes me nearly cry.

They all now know love isn't pretty but it IS vital and it makes us like HIM. For a while I had them read Paul's love chapter. I still send them to Romans 8; 1 often. I teach them fairly regularly that tithing doesn't cut it if HE said to give more or none.......and Voting is of little consequence if you don't hear God before you pull the lever.

I find myself nagging when I'm away from them (they're 160 miles round trip from my house) by all the time telling people I will no longer say, "Lord, stop me if this isn't You." They have so many good things that God didn't tell me to do.

Walking in the power of the Holy Spirit is an amazing thing and I'm not talking about big deal stuff (yet). I don't heal or deliver yet (in HIM, of course) but after an entire hour of hiccups I did hear enough to ask my 86 year-old to pray for someone's finger so his hiccups would leave (we'd prayed, given him sugar, breathing exercises....when you're small you can.) Thank God for His deliverance and healing even if it did take a while. I've had no income since 2000 and am current on all the bills, lacking nothing. And I sense HE's changing this but haven't heard how yet.

Thank you, Clay. You echo what I am learning. If HE shows you .... please pass on any tips on teaching it.

Sha'alu shalom Yerushalayim, SaraLou

Thank you Clay!

A much needed and timely word but one that will be reviled by the "money men"! I pray that many will follow this path to true victory and real peace.

MATTHEW 16:25-27.
For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for ME will find it. What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? For the SON OF MAN is going to come in HIS FATHER'S GLORY with HIS angels, and then HE will reward each person according to what he has done.

Too many have lost this fundamental principle in their blind pursuit of prosperity. It is not how much we have but what we have done with what we have that counts. Little is much when blessed by YHVH! Do we trust YHVH, man or self? Do we love? Do we accept the unacceptable ones? Do we put others first? Will we ever truly die to self? This and a million other servant things are truly the way to follow the principles of the KING'S servant. Be blessed, Magdala, Doorkeep for THE ARK

Clay,

What a wonderful exhortation!! I have run across so many believers in these recent years who are being taught by the Holy Spirit Himself the very same understandings and wisdom. It is very encouraging to see it and hear it. I have experienced almost the exact same set of circumstances you have … and expect many others are in the same boat. You have a tremendous ability to communicate. Please keep it up.

Your exhortation reminded me of the Rich Young Ruler in Mathew 19. His problem too was his view of "ownership". Jesus put before him many of the commandments … except the first one where his real problem was located. Jesus then masked the first one (you shall have no other God before Me) by saying "If you want to be perfect, go sell what you have, give to the poor and come follow me (notice He didn't say, "Sow it into my ministry."). At that point in time, the RYR could not do it.
I hope that later he did. I know there have been times where I found many places in my life where I had said "no" as well … only to have the mercy and grace of God continue to work on me.

The interesting thing is the discussion that followed as Jesus and the disciples were watching this RYR make the wrong choice and walk away. It was clear that the RYR believed that if he obeyed, he would never be "blessed" again … it would all be gone forever … it made him sorrowful. However,

Jesus never said that. In fact, because of this RYR's view of ownership ("It's mine!"), he couldn't enter into the kingdom of heaven.
Jesus observed and mentioned as he walked away that this was a hard thing … but that with God all things were possible. He then relayed a story of a landowner in Mathew 20. With this story of the landowner, He was telling them just how possible it was and what the RYR's life as a mature SON would and could look like if he had said "yes" instead of "no" to Jesus' instruction.

All the characteristics of this landowner and the way he did business and conducted himself are indications that he went about his life in intimate relationship with the Father. He did things that were not self serving, things that do not necessarily make business sense. Instead of always wanting a good deal, he gave a good deal. He was good and knew that the goodness of God draws men unto repentance. At the same time he was steadfast and strong to others … very much like Jesus on numerous occasions.

The ownership question is exactly why the Bible does not teach much, if any, about the tithe in the New Testament. It is simply because God did not want to convey to us that He only owned 10% of us. The question that always lingers in my mind when I hear "That is mine." from someone is "But whose are you?" Its only after we recognize that it is all His, and make a free, love motivated choice from the heart to give it all to Him, that we can then HAVE all that is His.

I remember God speaking as clearly as He has ever spoken to me one morning when I was studying about the tithe. I had seen what the tithe was used for which was actually a number of things but primarily for provision to orphans, widows and Levites (priesthood). The conversation went something like this: "Son, in the Old Testament, the tithe was holy unto Me.
You have seen what I used it for. Now stop and meditate on this question: If you lived back then and were a typical Jewish believer and you made $10, how much would have been Mine?" I replied, "$1.00 Lord". He then replied, "OK, forget about the other $9.00, how much of the $1.00 is Mine?" I replied, "All of it, Lord." He responded, "What I want to ask you is 'Why don't you make a choice to become that $1.00. Would you make a choice to become the tithe?' If you will, I'll then be able to use you to do the same thing I used the tithe for in the Old Testament. Namely, to minister to the orphans (those without a father – Me), to widows (those without a husband – Jesus), and to Levites (those who actively minister the gospel … not necessarily limited to "pulpit" ministers)."

Wow! I really had a new perspective. I really understood something about ownership that I had never seen before. I understood how to divide the Word that in Matthew 6 speaks about the birds that neither sow nor reap but are provided for, but in 2 Cor. 9 speaks that if you sow sparingly, you'll reap sparingly. It has to do with the attitude and viewpoint of ownership that we take in approaching the Father. If we view our sowing and reaping as "Kingdom sowing and reaping" as opposed to "personal sowing and reaping", it then makes all the sense in the world. But if we view it as "personal sowing and reaping" we slander the work of the cross (Phil. 4:19, 2 Cor 8:9).

Ultimately, I saw that giving is ministry (Rm 12:8, 2 Cor 8:4). I saw that if I continued to look at it as something that it was not, I would never see it for what it is. I saw what the Macedonian bunch from the churches in Phillipi saw. FIRST, they gave themselves to the Lord (became His), and then unto Paul's bunch BY THE WILL OF GOD (2 Cor 8:5). In other words, they got to a place of understanding ownership, then out of intimacy began to do that which was instructed by the Father. Its funny tome to see the difference this understanding made versus what we see today. This Macedonian bunch implored them with much urgency to receive their ministry of giving. We have back-to-front in today's church.
In our day, Paul's bunch is doing the "imploring urgently" because of wrong beliefs on all sides.

This is what is changing. I believe it with all my heart. The Holy Spirit is operating with a directive from the Father to bring this understanding to full age. Many are seeing the truth, and beginning to proclaim it … but they are doing so without an agenda to hold someone up and say "You have been wrong, now repent!!!" Rather, they are doing so out of a motivation of love alone for the Father and the Family. Not for price or reward (Is 45:13).

What father would enjoy having their children shout with joy from the mountain tops, "My father provides a roof over my head, clothes for may back and food for my tummy only as I give unto him!!!" I would consider that an insult of the highest order.

"Father forgive us."

Thanks again Clay. I know I have rambled, but your exhortation brought back some great stuff to the mind of this business man. Thanks for your consecration … and keep communicating the revelation you receive … you a very gifted at it.

Grace To You,
Russ Gressett

Thank you Clay Sikes!

This revelation from someone else who has been indoctrinated by the "Prosperity Message" blessed my soul. Several years ago after being in a "prosperity ministry" for almost 5 years I began to have the same thoughts as you have described in your letter. For a while I thought it was me, something was wrong with me, that if I was really doing all I was supposed to do I too would be walking in the same prosperity. I mean I am anointed too right! We gave and gave, everything we had and were "proud" to give it. We were excited as we futily awaited our return.

When I discovered it "the return" was not coming in the manner we were expecting I began to get a clue. Although I was seeking to know God with all my heart and I DID have an intimate walk with Him, something had to be amiss. I had already written a book on being intimate in the presence of God. Of course it was difficult to tell anyone else how I felt because everybody we were friends with ascribed to the same message, give to get. Then my husband's car broke down and he had to hitch hike to church 4 times a week to serve in the ministry. He came home one night from church after taking the train from work to get there and my eyes were finally opened. He was excited as he came in telling me about the $300,000 car our pastor had just purchased (cash) for his wife.

I was not excited. I said something is dreadfully wrong with this picture. Not that I begrudged the pastor or his wife getting the new car; I simply didn't understand why we were faithfully serving a ministry, giving all that we had, tithes, offering, giving to the man and woman of God, and still placing money on the pulpit steps 3 times a week, (thinking we were hearing from God) and were without transportation to continue getting there to "give to get."

It was then that I knew we were not in the will of God. We also had a ministry and I was flying all over the country preaching, many times buying my own airline tickets and paying for hotels, running up credit card debt as my pastor was teaching us that we should continue to give ourselves out of debt. As you well know that never happened.

Something was dreadfully wrong. I'm so glad that we have been liberated for several years now and thank God you have too. Sometimes the hard way seems to be the way that God teaches us, maybe so we'll never forget it I'm not sure. But I can tell you that I'll never forget that lesson; we do have a closer walk with our Father. We've learned the right principle of giving as well as the right principle of tithing. And we're no longer operating in bondage.

Thanks again, for sharing and our desire is that the Pastors and Teachers teaching this message will get the revelation as well. We do teach that God's people are to prosper, but not at the expense of the Body and a true relationship with the Father.

We will keep you in our prayers and thank God you got the REVELATION as we did.

TO GOD BE THE GLORY!!!

YOU HAVE TRULY HEARD OUR LORD!!! I SALUTE YOU!!! CONTINUE IN THE RIGHT PATH!!!! GREAT WILL BE YOUR REWARD IN HEAVEN!!!

Angel of the Covenant

Susan Cummings

Summaries of Various Experiences with the Angel of the Covenant and the message he comes with.

These experiences that Susan had are all real, and each one is a separate visitation and message, but putting them all together, we can see a pattern that the Lord is wanting us to understand. His Word is now being fulfilled and we, the People of God, will be vessels that the Lord will use to facilitate some of the fulfillments.

I have placed these in order of event. Some of these are dreams, and some are visions. Some are Prophetic Encounters and experiences while driving or on the phone. We have tried to make all of the messages clear...

“MY ANGEL OF THE COVENANT HATH COME DOWN”

I am lying upon my bed, sleeping deeply. Suddenly, I am being swept over with waves upon wave of lightning and with great cracks of fire in the spirit. I can see myself in my dream lying on the ground. Great cracks of lightning are cracking over me. I can see a being standing over me. This being is so big that I cannot see all of his form. He is standing over me and there are clouds above me, and all around Him, and He goes on and on beyond the clouds.

I am overwhelmed by His presence, and the lightning cracks throughout my whole body, and my spirit. I cannot move, nor can I open my eyes, yet I can see everything. I hear the voice of the Lord say, “My Angel of the Covenant hath come down.” The voice is so strong that it echoes through my whole being. The lightning cracks through my being, and I am frozen in place with the Holiness of this angel. I can only lie there, and see this form above me…………

The Lord then says,

“My angel has come down to earth, and has come into the midst of My Own, and shall stand with them, while I pass by. For I now have passed over My People, and now I will pass over the earth, and it will disclose it’s blood. I required blood to be shed for the life of Mine Own, so that I might pass over with My Mercy, and now I will require blood for the earth.

For the Trumpet has already sounded, and the hosts are in place, and the righteous have assembled at My Call. Now I have required that My Justice be meted……

I have sent My Angel of the Covenant to you. He stands in the Holy Place, and shall remain there until I have passed by, and He will cover My Own, and be with you until the end. My Holy Fire has been released, and it comes to stand before you as a witness.

What I have wrought this day will now be seen in the earth, and no man will stand before Me, without My Blood upon him. Nothing will stand before My Holiness without My Blood Covenant Seal upon it. My Sanctuary will no longer be defiled, for I have come to My House, and have now stood in your Midst. And the profane has been cast out, and has now been removed from it’s place before Me. My Angel with the Flaming Sword now stands to prepare the way, and nothing shall enter in, that is not covered with My Holiness again.

What is wicked will now be seen as wicked, and will now be without My Presence and My Word will not be upon it anymore. For I have sought, and searched, and have now measured all things, and have rendered My Righteous Judgment, and the division of the holy from the profane is now complete, and I have now decreed that the Fire has begun………"

Clarification on the Angel (Messenger) of the Covenant Dream

I have had several requests for more understanding on my dream of the Angel (Messenger) of the Covenant coming. Today, I felt the Lord give me more understanding for you. Hopefully I can convey this accurately for your benefit.
-Susan

In Malachi 3: The scriptures speak of the Lord's angel (Messenger) coming to the Lord's people. This angel is sent forth to usher in a period of refining and cleansing in the people, and also to usher in the plans and purposes of the Lord in their midst.

Malachi 3
[1]BEHOLD, I send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me. And the Lord [the Messiah], Whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; the Messenger or Angel of the covenant, Whom you desire, behold, He shall come, says the Lord of hosts.
2But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap;
[3]He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and He will purify the priests, the sons of Levi, and refine them like gold and silver, that they may offer to the Lord offerings in righteousness.
[4]Then will the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in ancient years.
[5]Then I will draw near to you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against the false swearers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, and who turn aside the temporary resident from his right and fear not Me, says the Lord of hosts.
[6]For I am the Lord, I do not change; that is why you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.
[7]Even from the days of your fathers you have turned aside from My ordinances and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the Lord of hosts. But you say, How shall we return?
[8]Will a man rob or defraud God? Yet you rob and defraud Me. But you say, In what way do we rob or defraud You? [You have withheld your] tithes and offerings.
[9]You are cursed with the curse, for you are robbing Me, even this whole nation.
[10]Bring all the tithes (the whole tenth of your income) into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and prove Me now by it, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.
[11]And I will rebuke the devourer [insects and plagues] for your sakes and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground, neither shall your vine drop its fruit before the time in the field, says the Lord of hosts.
[12]And all nations shall call you happy and blessed, for you shall be a land of delight, says the Lord of hosts.
[13]Your words have been strong and hard against Me, says the Lord. Yet you say, What have we spoken against You?
[14]You have said, It is useless to serve God, and what profit is it if we keep His ordinances and walk gloomily and as if in mourning apparel before the Lord of hosts?
[15]And now we consider the proud and arrogant to be happy and favored; evildoers are exalted and prosper; yes, and when they test God, they escape [unpunished].
[16]Then those who feared the Lord talked often one to another; and the Lord listened and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him of those who reverenced and worshipfully feared the Lord and who thought on His name.
[17]And they shall be Mine, says the Lord of hosts, in that day when I publicly recognize and openly declare them to be My jewels (My special possession, My peculiar treasure). And I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him.
[18]Then shall you return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who does not serve Him.

Revelation 10 also speaks of the Angel of the Covenant.

Revelation 10

The Angel and the Little Scroll

[1]Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven. He was robed in a cloud, with a rainbow above his head; his face was like the sun, and his legs were like fiery pillars. [2]He was holding a little scroll, which lay open in his hand. He planted his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, [3]and he gave a loud shout like the roar of a lion. When he shouted, the voices of the seven thunders spoke. [4]And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said and do not write it down."
[5]Then the angel I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven. [6]And he swore by him who lives for ever and ever, who created the heavens and all that is in them, the earth and all that is in it, and the sea and all that is in it, and said, "There will be no more delay! [7]But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants the prophets."

It is a signal of the divine time of the return of the Lord into the affairs of men, and of a sovereign visitation to bring forth His Will. Those who recognize this new time of visitation and dealing, and embrace the Lord in it, will be brought forth, but those who have chosen to go their own way will now suffer much trial and loss.

The fear of the Lord is returning to the House of the Lord once again. Purity and Holiness will be restored to those who embrace the workings of the Lord during this time. Those who reject this season will be left outside of God’s purposes and will miss the visitation of the Lord.

In this time of purification, the Lord will judge the things that have not born fruit in our lives, or that have defiled His House. He has also come to release those who have judged themselves first, and have allowed the holy Spirit to refine them, into their place in the outpouring and harvest to come.

In the dream, I listed three sets of scriptures that the Lord had quickened to me.

Namely, Daniel 4:22-26
Jeremiah 4:22-26
Matthew 4:22-26- Which is incorrect, it should be 5:22-26

In Jeremiah 4:22-26:

The Lord is stating that His People have not known Him intimately, and therefore have no understanding or wisdom. They had not chosen to pursue Him and to become like Him. Creation knows God and trembles, yet, we don’t. We have walked as barren and have lacked the fear of the Lord. But the Lord is changing this now in this season. He is restoring Holiness again.

In Daniel 4:22-26:

The Lord states that he is removing those who have exalted themselves and who have not humbled themselves in God’s sight. There is much pride and arrogance in the church, and the Lord is bringing down everything that exalts itself against the knowledge of Him.

In Matthew 5: 22-26:

The Lord is dealing with the true condition of the heart. He knows the heart and that we have offered impure offerings to him, with impure motives, and not in love. Malachi 3 addresses this also. The Lord will no longer accept those who would come to him with unclean hands and unclean hearts, and He will not look on sin anymore. There is coming a true fear of the Lord back into our midst, and the Lord will raise up a Holy Remnant who will walk in Truth and Love.

Isaiah 40 tells us to prepare ourselves and to prepare the way for the Lord is coming to deal with men, and we will know His Judgments in our midst. For He is Holy.

Psalms 24 tells us to cleanse ourselves before we come to Him, and to prepare ourselves, for He is coming back into our midst, and He will once again be Lord in His House. Man will not rule, but God will remove those who have ruled in His Place wrongly.

I pray that these scriptures have given you some more understanding of the times that we have now entered into, and how you can begin to seek the Lord as to your part in the plans and purposes of the Lord. It is time for the bride to rise up and to stand before the Lord in the earth and be seen as Holy.

May the Lord bless you all and cause you to know Him more!!!!!!!

The Angel of the Covenant Is Now Moving

On March 28, 2004, Prophetess Susan Cummings saw a vision of the door of Heaven standing open over Pastor Patrick O'Marra and a Light shining down, in front of him.

Susan said, "The shaft of white Light before your destiny, step into the Light son, I see you stepping into that pillar of Light, the pillar of Truth, and that Light is so bright it's coming out of your hands, it's coming out of your eyes, it's coming out of your mouth, it's coming out of your ears, it's shafts of Light that are exploding out of all the orifices of your body."

The Lord says, "You have seen it from afar off but now it is drawn nigh to you, you have heard of it from afar but now it is within you, you have asked to walk in that many times now it's within you because it's My Time, now you will stretch out your hand and I will perform it, now you will speak forth My Word and it shall be, now you will open your eyes and you will see, for this Day the vision has come to be, for this Day My pillar of Truth abides in thee, for it is no longer a promise but a reality, for I have sifted you and I have weighed you and I have tested your heart for this night now I give you a brand new start, I have created you son to walk with Me in this dimension that's why the drive within you compelled you and has become a part of you and now will come out of you, for My Word is Light and I spoke it forth and it came to be and My Word that abides in you will now be a reality, for it is a Living Word a pillar of Truth and as you speak forth at My Command it shall be for I will perform it and even create it as you obey Me, for you also have passed under My rod and have not denied Me, so look son, look further past the horizon, stretch out your hand further out past the seas, for the cloud does come and they will surely Rain upon thee, 7 times you have gone out to look and now it is forming and it's coming, and you will warn them and you will tell them prepare because a Great Rain is coming, a Great Storm is coming, many look for mantles, and many look for swords, but few reach out for My Word, few reach out for that pillar of Light, few reach out as you have this night."

Susan said, "A ball of Light has come in the room and this ball of Light is, there's lightning shooting out of it and the Light is so bright, it's white but it's like Fire and lightning is shooting out of it and it's making this noise like Maria makes, that noise, the wings of the Cherubims, and this ball of Light, the Light is so bright and the lightning is streaking out of it and it's making that noise Maria makes.

An Angel is stepping out of it, it's the Angel of the Covenant and He has a book in His hand. He's giving us the book, He says, "I make My Covenant with you." I see Him giving you (Patrick) the book and I see Him saying to you: "You will write the vision for you stand in My Light." Patrick, He's giving you that book, your standing in this pillar of Light and He's handing you the book and He's saying, "Write the vision for it is My Covenant and it's Time to write it, it's Time for the Word to come forth and to become and to be done!"

"Take it out of His hands." This is part of the fulfillment of the prophecy written in Revelation 10:1-11.

And I saw another angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire. And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth, And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, And sware by him that liveth forever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that are therein, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer: But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his prophets.

And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book (scroll) which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book (scroll). And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. And as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings. Revelation 10:1-11 (Gk)

Then, on March 31, 2004, Susan had a dream while in Rochester, NY.

In the dream, she had a vision of a loud voice that spoke to her as she was lying on the couch, saying, “Large Man Walking.” Then a very large foot stomped down very hard right by the couch where she slept. It was so big that she could not see over it, or around it. The whole couch shook, the room shook, the house shook, and the earth shook. Then, a voice said very strongly to her, “The Terror of the Lord is coming.”

Then, on April 1, 2004, Susan saw another vision of the Angel of the Covenant as they were driving to a meeting to Naples, NY.

He rose straight up out of the sea of water, and had a bright sun that shone around His head and face. He had His right hand raised to Heaven, and swore by Him who sat on the throne, and said, “That which was, and that which is, and that which is to come, now shall be, for the Father will now be glorified through thee.” The vision ended.
Revelation 10 Daniel 12 Malachi 3

Revelation 10

The Angel and the Little Scroll

[1]Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven. He was robed in a cloud, with a rainbow above his head; his face was like the sun, and his legs were like fiery pillars. [2]He was holding a little scroll, which lay open in his hand. He planted his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, [3]and he gave a loud shout like the roar of a lion. When he shouted, the voices of the seven thunders spoke. [4]And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said and do not write it down."

[5]Then the angel I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven. [6]And he swore by him who lives for ever and ever, who created the heavens and all that is in them, the earth and all that is in it, and the sea and all that is in it, and said, "There will be no more delay! [7]But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants the prophets."

Daniel 12

The End Times

[1] "At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then. But at that time your people-everyone whose name is found written in the book-will be delivered. [2] Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake: some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt. [3] Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever. [4] But you, Daniel, close up and seal the words of the scroll until the time of the end. Many will go here and there to increase knowledge."

[5] Then I, Daniel, looked, and there before me stood two others, one on this bank of the river and one on the opposite bank. [6] One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long will it be before these astonishing things are fulfilled?"

[7] The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, lifted his right hand and his left hand toward heaven, and I heard him swear by him who lives forever, saying, "It will be for a time, times and half a time. When the power of the holy people has been finally broken, all these things will be completed."
[8] I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, "My lord, what will the outcome of all this be?"
[9] He replied, "Go your way, Daniel, because the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. [10] Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will understand.
[11] "From the time that the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. [12] Blessed is the one who waits for and reaches the end of the 1,335 days.
[13] "As for you, go your way till the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days you will rise to receive your allotted inheritance."

Then again on April 11, 2004, Susan saw the Angel of the Covenant for the fourth time in two weeks. This experience was while driving to the airport. Pastor Patricia Kim, Pastor Patrick O'Marra, and Susan were in the van. On this afternoon, Sunday, April 11, 2004, the Lord showed Susan a vision of the Latter Rain, while she was driving…..and then the experience began to happen also….-

I first felt it as we were driving down the street on the way to the airport, Susan says. It began pulsating and was like a fireball in the van, then the Lord said, "I Am the Lord thy God, walk uprightly before Me." and now it is still pulsating but it feels like He's pouring out of it into the van. It's like He's going to fill the van up, like Golden Rain, that Golden Latter Rain is going to fill this van up, that pulsating is right there, you can feel that pulsating, that because the ball of Fire is in this van, it's about this big…… Susan says…. Joel 2:23.

It's right here, the Angel of the Covenant travels in that ball, and it's amber color, orange amber color, it's not red, it's like a Golden orange, "I feel like the Lord is saying, "We are now complete, its like He has completed the work that He has begun, now He is going to extend out, I just see Him lengthening, extending out because, its like what happened today, it's like finally all the pieces are now laid, you know everyone's is in their place, and functioning, now He's going to extend out, and I saw a note tablet and a stamp go down and it stamped and it said, GO, it's like now you can go, extend because everyone is right.

"The burning ones (fiery angels) will go with you everywhere I send you, for they have been given unto you, for just as I placed My hand upon you, they have also placed their hand upon you, for they have been sent to go with you until the end, for they are ones that have been held in reserve, they will go with you, they will go with My sent ones, for My burning ones are assigned to My sent ones and they will go with you as I Am in you, they will go with you, and wherever I take you they will be with you, and it is as you were saying earlier.

"Wherever the Word goes we go, because it's like the wheel in the wheel, the wheel went wherever the Lord went at the same time, it's like they are assigned and given that wherever we go they go, I can feel that, I can feel that, it's like it's a part, it's become a part of you, it's like they been given and assigned, I can feel that, they go in tandem, there's 7 that go with us, of the 8.

But this the presence of the Lord here that amber colored flaming ball is still right here, actually if you put your hand out you can feel it, you can feel where it is, you can feel it in the Spirit, when I was sitting here driving I could feel that right through me, it feel like a Wind.

I feel a power emanating, sometimes it's Fire, but this time I feel like pulsating against my skin, like the Lord is breathing on me, I feel a pulsating, and it's all centered, it's like the Lord is riding right here with us, Patrick said, "I see colored lightning, it's striking, it's blue, that is the lightning from the Throne Room according to Revelation 4:5.

And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thunderings, and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

And the throne is blue color, sapphire blue according to Ezekiel 1:26."

And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness of the appearance of a man above upon it. Ezekiel 1:26

Susan said, "I never saw colored one before but is was blue, it's getting foggy in here," Patrick said, "That's that cloud of the Revival angels,"

Susan said, "Now this is weird, there is an angel on top of the van, he's sitting on the luggage rack with a harp in his hands, he's on top, he's got a white garment on, he's got a gold sash, belt, he got not really blonde but kind of burnished gold hair, it's a big harp, kind of that kind they have in the orchestra, he's playing the harp," Patrick said, "This is the angel that appeared to me on November 2, 2000, he was behind the veil with his arm across the strings about the play the harp, that veil has now been removed, that veil was removed on March 11, 2004, and remember I told you that the Lord said, : "The next thing to happen was the angel would now play the harp," which is what your seeing now, so what the Lord said would happen has now happened!" Susan said, "What does that angel do," Patrick said, "He's the angel from Revelation 14:1-3, about the angels harping with their harps on Mount Zion, it just came to me that that scripture I gave you earlier in the prophecy to you, it mentioned about, ye children of Zion, Joel 2:23."

Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given to you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. Joel 2:23

Susan said, "Is that in my Joel 2:23, cause that the scripture you read to me earlier, cause when the pulsating first started the Lord said, "I Am the Lord your God, walk uprightly before Me,"

Thank you Lord we are children of Zion, he is playing the harp and the lightning is striking blue, and there's an angel on either side of the van, one of my side, one on your side, outside the van, and they both have trumpets, and there silver trumpets, there long skinny, long skinny silver trumpets, those are the ones that are blown by the Tabernacle too, the Priest's blow the long silver ones, they're not the ram's horns, they're the long silver ones,

Make thee two trumpets of silver, of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps. And when they shall blew with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And if they blow with but one trumpet, then the princes, which are the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves to thee. When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east part shall go forward. When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journeys: But when the congregation is to be gathered, ye shall blow but ye shall not sound an alarm. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets, and they shall be to you for an ordinance forever throughout your generations. And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresseth you, then shall ye blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies. Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginning of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God. Numbers 10:1-10

The Angel of the Covenant is ahead of us and He's standing, and He's very big actually, and His head is almost touching the clouds, and His feet are on the road ahead of us, and He has the book in His hand and it's open and speaking, He's reading from the book.

See, before, He had one foot on the land and one on the sea and He was holding the book, and he swore by the Father, that which was, and that which is, and that which is to come, is now to be, for the father now will be glorified thru thee, that was the announcement.

Now, He's reading from the book, He didn't read from the book before He just made the announcement, but all things will now be accomplished, well, now the books opened and he's reading it, He speaking it, that's the announcement stage, but now, He's reading from the book, He's declaring that.

There are angels all around, they're all, (it's kind of like when Elisha prayed for his servant, Lord open my servants eyes that he may see the hosts) but they're not chariots, just angels but they're all standing above the trees all along the horizon, and they're heads come just to the bottom of the first layer of clouds, there about, I don't know how tall that is, they're all standing all the way around, all the way around.

The Angel of the Covenant is reading from the book, and the lightning is striking blue, and the Angel of the Covenant says, "These things I have now spoken you now Go and Do!" Susan looked at us as she spoke that, Susan said to us, "He is saying to us, "What I have spoken in My Word you must now Go and Do!" The Living Word, the things He has spoken now, He speaking in the Spirit to us, so our spirits know, and all Heaven is in attendance cause it like they are attending, attendance of the Lord saying,
"Go and Do!" Like a Commissioning service or where you're brought before the King as an audience, it's like the Lord is saying, "I've laid all the foundation now, everything is in readiness, everybody is ready now, now you Go and Do, I've prepared you, but He is reading from the book, proclaiming those things because it's open."

Patrick it's open, the book is opened, He reading them now, He said, "All things must now be fulfilled," well now from the opened book He is speaking them forth, so not only is He walking, the Lord walking in the earth, He is now speaking those final things so they can now be accomplished, that had been sealed up in Daniel, and in Revelation, is now being spoken, uttered, what was sealed.

So that those Words that are now going out will now be accomplished by God's people, and there is a huge Rainbow, it starts right over there by those trees and goes all the way up, it goes down over that way, it goes all the way across.

Some of the angels, their heads are below the clouds, there's some standing behind them, oh, they're in ranks…. some standing behind them are taller, and actually you can see their shadows behind. Their heads go to the second layer of clouds, there's a first layer and there's a second layer. Their heads go to the second layer, they're standing in ranks, the shorter ones are in front, the taller ones are behind, the Angel of the Covenant isn't there anymore, He's gone, it's just the ranks are still there, there still standing all around.

And you know the amber colored ball is not just one solid color amber, it swirls, it's kind of like you would look at the sun, how it has variations in it, flames of the sun kind of move around, you can't look at it directly, you know when they take pictures and stuff, it shows the movement of the sun, the amber swirls and has different hues and different things in it.

Those two angels are gone now, and this one just left. This is all the Throne Room experience with all the different angels that are in the Throne, around the Throne Room, it's like they're all positioned for an announcement or proclamation, or declaration. The hosts are still there, the ranks are still there, I can see them, there all standing along the horizon facing us, but they' re all in file, and there's ones in file in ranks, layers, usually I only see one row, I usually don't see layers.

The shafts of Light coming down from the clouds, shinning straight down," (All three of us saw these) "great shafts of Light are shining straight down, the rainbow is straight ahead, now you guys should be able to see this, it's about this far from the edge of the road, it comes straight up, it's not real dark, it's kind of a Light, but the rainbow colors and it's on the right hand side, and it goes up over the road,"

Patrick said, "The Lord just told me what this is, today is April 11, 2004, one month from March 11, 2004 when He removed the veil, now exactly one month later He is performing the next part of the vision of the huge angel with the harp playing it, remember it says in Joel 2:23 that the Former and Latter Rain would come in the first month, and it's been one month since the beginning of the fulfillment of the vision revealed to me on November 2, 2000, and in that vision I saw the Former Rain of the anointings of the people of the past being restored and the Latter rain of the End Time Move of God!"

The Understanding- This vision experience of Susan and ourselves began with the manifestation of Joel 2:23, the ball of Fire- the Former and Latter Rain coming in the first month or one month since March 11, 2004 when He rent the veil between God and us and between Heaven and Earth. Now one month later according to Joel 2:23 the Lord is pouring out the Golden Rain- the Former and Latter Rain!

Cross Over
Susan Cummings

Cross Over, Child.

Step over from where you are, and step into My Purposes for you. It is time for you to decide. It is time for you to move. You cannot remain where you are, and remain IN Me. You must move on to walk with Me any further.

Cross over.
Step out of the bondage of fear that torments you day and night. Come out of the place of death, and step into Me. For I am your God. Nothing that is given to Me can remain in it's bondage or remain in captivity.
Your fear has driven you to despair and to doubt My Word and My Faithfulness to you. Reach out and take My hand. Allow My Word to draw you into renewed Faith and into true Hope. Nothing in My House dwells in torment. You have remained there long enough.

Cross over, Child.

Come out from the unclean thing, my child. You have remained in your defiled state long enough. You cannot see My Face unless you deny your flesh and it's appetites and cling unto Me. I am your Healing and your Deliverer. I will bring you out from the torment that drives you.
No longer will you be overtaken by the enemy but you will rise up in Holiness and stand in garments of Truth and Holiness. Receive the Truth, embrace it, and walk forth out of the pit, and be free In Me.
Cross Over.

Press through the Cloud of Confusion that covers your life, child, and be renewed in your soul. Pull down those thoughts and vain imaginations that speak constantly to you, and that never leave you. Forsake the counselors that have gathered around you and who do not have My Word upon their lips. Nor do they have My Heart. Seek Truth, and receive it.
Those dark clouds that have been with you for your entire life must bow their knees to Me. Give Me your Life. Do not hold back yourself from Me anymore. You cannot continue to go your own way anymore, or your thoughts will totally sever you from Me completely. You must take your thoughts captive, and use My Word to establish true authority and relationship with Me. Come to Me completely.

Cross over, Child.

Free yourself from the cords and chains that bind you. Never think that you are forever captive, as you were never taken over forcefully, but by your slowly embracing the deceptions. It is with the lure of enticements, and the listening to them that you were slowly bound. Remove those lies and be free tonight. Take control and stand upon My Word.
Never give Holy Ground to an Unclean Person or devil. Never give what is Holy to the Unholy. Use your authority and rise up into your place and take what was stolen, or you will never be free. The cords are tightening, child. Unless you shake yourself you will be totally bound, and will be unable to break them, so you must see the Truth. Rise up!

Cross Over!

Taste not the pleasant things of the world anymore. For the flesh takes delight in what is not profitable for you, and it is bringing you into a place of compromise and ineffectiveness. If you choose to continue to partake, you will be given over to your desires and they will blind you and become your defeat and master.

It is time for Holiness and Purity of mind, body, and spirit. It is a narrow path that Mine will walk, and that Mine will choose. Walk worthy of your calling, and walk in My Light.

Cross Over, My Child.

It is time.
Now, is the Time, to be free.

Prophetic Message 01-07-04

"A few months ago I shared a three part DREAM that I had concerning the coming storm to America. In the first phase of the dream I saw TIDAL WAVES mounting up far out at sea.

During the next phase of the dream I saw the waves of the sea roaring and a tumultuous storm cloud growing darker and darker as it came nearer to the shore.

During the third phase of the dream I saw people running for their lives who had been at ease on the shore. The Spirit called the storm I saw in this dream Euroclydon. Since that time, which was back in July or August a terrible storm hit the eastern seaboard of the United States, the power outages in New York and other eastern states took place, the fires in Southern California raged and other terrible events took place.

A few weeks ago I wrote a humble submittal to those who would hear concerning more to come! I warned that there was another wave about to crash upon the land and since that time, floods, mudslides, fifteen deaths in San Diego alone caused by “flu” and earthquakes have shaken California.

On January Fifth, 2004 while driving north on I-15 I was at perfect peace with the Lord and enjoying the beauty of that day. I had been in prayer and had drawn very close to the Lord in my heart. As I was driving in perfect peace with my eyes wide open, I saw several nuclear bombs explode in several cities across America at the same time. Immediately the scripture came to mind about the UNWALLED CITIES.

I did not want to see this vision and actually asked that it would depart from my mind. Yet as I continued to travel down the road I began to sense the seriousness of what I had seen. The Spirit began to speak to my heart about a SERIES OF EVENTS that will take place SIMULTANEOUSLY.

The Lord revealed to me that the reason there have been no suicide bombers blowing up malls and other people oriented facilities is because in the mind of the terrorist there is a knowledge that if they were to walk into a place or be on a bus and blow it up, there would be a quick intervention that would arrest the entire population of men and women from these foreign countries throughout the United States. One explosion would not fulfill the intent and purpose of what has been planned against this country.

What is happening at this time is a planned and plotted series of explosions at the same time that will cripple and cause to collapse the nation in one day. When I saw this vision I saw cities fall in a moment. What has propelled me to write this is that approximately twenty minutes ago I was told that a “Dirty Bomb” was found in a locker in Las Vegas Nevada. I know in my heart that there are nuclear weapons in this country that are planted in several cities throughout.

My prayer and hope is that as Elijah heard the plans of the enemy behind closed doors, that someone will take heed to what I am sharing and will begin to make noise in the ears of those who must hear. The last thing the Lord reminded me of was a teaching that I had heard several years ago about CITIES OF REFUGE. He has planned those cities obviously way ahead of what is about to happen. I am very concerned about the next two and a half months in America.

Let me close by saying that while the vision was intense and sobering, there was not one ounce of FEAR. I will say to all who are listening that San Diego, California will be a CITY of REFUGE in the days ahead. There will be the fulfillment of prophecy in this place!

Every seed that has been planted will come to fruition. The book of Acts will be an open expression in this place. Please pray and be sober like never before. The greatest moment is near to come for Gods people, those who love the Lord Jesus Christ with a sincere heart and are willing to lay their lives down for him and follow him wherever he leads."

Prophetic Word For March 2004
Vincent Xavier

01-09-2004
Since November 7th 2003 the Lord has been revealing to me certain events that are going to take place in March 2004. This understanding has been given on the heels of a prophetic unction that was released in June 2003, which was a proclamation of the YEAR OF RELEASE. (This word is attached to this document) With the word YEAR OF RELEASE came the knowledge of Gods people being brought to their HIGH PLACE so that they may ride and walk upon the HIGH PLACES of the earth. With the understanding of the HIGH PLACE came the knowledge of how this would come to pass. The Lord said it was an EXPONENTIAL SEASON! Put together the Lord is revealing that HIS PEOPLE would come to their high place in an exponential way in this the year of release. The year of release began or was prophesied of on PENTECOST 2003 over the airwaves on our radio program in San Diego. Sometime during the month of October, 2003 I asked the Lord what the year 2004 was going to be, he said the year 2004 is the YEAR OF ACCOMPLISHMENT. (This word is attached to this document) When I looked up the word accomplishment I saw that it meant SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION! Now as was said earlier, on November 7th the Spirit began to reveal certain events that were about to occur and added emphasis in revealing the month in which these things would come to pass. I want to share with you the order of events that have been revealed and will in some cases present details of how it was revealed.

1. November 7th, 2003: I was led to Joel Chapter 2:21-27 The Spirit said prophesy this word over San Diego, California. The word came after the fires. The details of this word are attached to this document. The essence of Joel's Prophecy is that it was to occur During the FIRST MONTH which, according to the Hebrew Calendar is March. The Lord chose to reveal to Joel the month in which the events were to take place and so again he has revealed it. Please read Joel's Prophecy in Chapter 2:21-27. If you have a concordance and a Hebrew Dictionary, look up each word and phrase and be amazed at what the Lord is planning for this new season.

2. The next place the Spirit led me was in John 19: 28-31 In theses Scriptures I saw where it was written "JESUS KNOWING THAT ALL THINGS WERE NOW ACCOMPLISHED, THAT THE SCRIPTURE MIGHT BE FULFILLED SAID, I THIRST." I looked at the word ACCOMPLISHED and began to marvel. It was the second confirmation I had received, but what really surprised me was the TIME Jesus said this. In verse 31 we read; "FOR THAT SABBATH DAY WAS A HIGH

DAY" The HIGH DAY was the PASSOVER. I went to Exodus TWELVE and saw the Passover was celebrated in the month of MARCH! I understood that Jesus was on the cross during the PASSOVER SEASON and he was saying on the cross in the month of MARCH, IT IS FINISHED! IT IS ACCOMPLISHED! A great study in Exodus 12, 13 and 14 would bless you richly because in those chapters the EXODUS or the COMING OUT OF THE HOUSE OF BONDAGE IS REVEALED! Again it was the month of MARCH that the people CAME OUT!

3. The next place I was led in the Scriptures was to JOSHUA Chapters three and four. Please understand that I was NOT looking for these verses. I was simply in prayer and study before the Lord and would come to places in the Scriptures that revealed these passages. After reading of the MIRACULOUS CROSSING of the Israelites from the wilderness to the promised land I saw in Joshua 4:19 that the crossing took place on MARCH 25th. Here I saw the people coming out of the HOUSE OF BONDAGE into the wilderness in March and now they were coming out of the wilderness into the promised land in March, 40 YEARS LATER! Again I would strongly recommend you read Chapters Three and Four in the book of JOSHUA.

4. The next place the Spirit led me was in ACTS Chapter TWELVE. This is the story of Peter being imprisoned after the killing of James the brother of John who was one of the SONS OF THUNDER. (And though it was THUNDER that clapped in those two men, it was the lightning that was to strike in the days of Peter.) The twelfth Chapter of the book of Acts is a parallel to Exodus chapter TWELVE. In the third verse of Acts Twelve it is written; "THEN WERE THE DAYS OF UNLEAVENED BREAD" This again was the month of MARCH! What happens in this chapter is that Peter is in prison but the ANGEL OF THE LORD arrives on the scene. LIGHT shines in the prison, the chains fall off Peters hands, the Angel speaks to him to put on his sandals and gird himself, which is the same message God gave to Moses to tell the Israelites on the night of Passover, "THUS SHALL YOU EAT IT, WITH YOUR LOINS GIRDED, YOUR SHOES ON YOUR FEET, AND YOUR STAFF IN YOUR HAND." (Exodus 12:8) In the 8th verse in Acts 12 the angel tells Peter to "GIRD THYSELF, AND BIND ON THY SANDALS. CAST THY GARMENT ABOUT THEE AND FOLLOW ME." The essence of Acts 12 is found in the 10th verse where it is written, "WHEN THEY WERE PAST THE FIRST AND SECOND WARD, THEY CAME UNTO THE IRON GATE THAT LEADS UNTO THE CITY. I want to declare unto you right now that the Iron Gate represents the gate of bondage that has held Gods people captive for two thousand years and outside that gate is the CITY, which is the KINGDOM OF GOD! Our FREEDOM! OUR RELEASE! OUR INHERITANCE! Back to the verse; "WHICH OPENED TO THEM OF HIS OWN ACCORD: AND THEY WENT OUT." STOP!!!! It was in the month of March that Peter was released from prison in a supernatural way just as the Israelites were delivered from the HOUSE OF BONDAGE! His chains fell off his hands EFFORTLESSLY! The Iron Gate opened before him EFFORTLESSLY! And HE WENT OUT! Oh I challenge you to read ACTS TWELVE from verse 1-19.

Please understand that I have a FOUR-DAY CONFERENCE LOCKED UP IN ME that MUST BE RELEASED. What I have shared with you is just the outline of in depth research that has occurred over the past few months. What the Spirit has revealed is rich and prevalent for the CHURCH TODAY! There is a level of hope and expectancy that must arise in the heart of Gods people over the next SIXTY DAYS! The word of the Lord is declaring plainly what it is that God is preparing for his people. But the intense insight is far reaching. If you are interested in hearing this word in conference form then please let me know and our fellowship will set up the conference. If you would like me to come with this word to your fellowship I am willing.

When I saw all the events taking place throughout the WORD I have become convinced that March 2004 is going to be a month of miraculous intervention between God and His Church. I have come to the place where I am convinced that MARCH 2004 may very well be the time of the TRANSLATION, or the disestablishment of the law of sin and death, which has captivated Gods people for two millennium since CHRIST. I further understand the RISK involved in saying such things and the risk of proclaiming a MONTH that God will do great things, BUT I cannot but speak the things the Lord has revealed to me. The LEAST of what MARCH will usher in will be nothing less then what I have shared with you in this letter. You will indeed GO OUT of the house of Bondage, OUT of the Wilderness and you will come into the CITY, the KINGDOM OF GOD where the supernatural becomes natural and the extraordinary becomes ordinary. Your chains, whatever they may be will fall off of you, doors will open that no man can shut and God will be Almighty God.

In closing I want you to know that over the past few years I have written with a contending anointing against the United States of America. It was said to me that this anointing was likened unto Jeremiahs anointing when he contended with Israel. But let it be known that as Jeremiah wept for his people, so I have wept for this nation. The hard writings have been an attempt to provoke Gods people to repentance from Governmental idolatry, man worship and compromising sinfulness. I have written to a remnant that have come out of Babylon and have compelled all who would hear to come out as well. I KNOW that my Father, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has told me to write the warnings I have and I KNEW that these warnings would be read and heard by “watch Dog” agencies and other intelligence groups. To them I pray that their eyes will be open and that they will know the truth of Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God. These warnings have not been one sided or unbalanced. They have been perfectly balanced with the WHOLE council of Gods word. I declare unto you who love the Lord in Spirit and Truth that your time of RELEASE is come. Be ready! Be on the watch! The Lord shall do GREAT THINGS FOR YOU!

May Gods peace and blessing be upon each one of you this day.

In Christ Jesus our Lord Vincent Xavier

Acting Prophecy Part III

The Abomination of Desolation

Introduction

One of the most cryptic signs of the last days is the abomination of desolation. This sign is first recorded in the visions of the prophet Daniel (chapters 8, 9, 11 and 12), and the Lord Jesus reiterated the sign in His Olivet Discourse in Matt. 24:15 and Mk. 13:14.

Part III discusses the prophecy about the Endtime Antichrist and sign of the abomination of desolation from a new perspective. The ideas to be discussed are organized under three main sections.

Section 1 contains a summary of the prevailing views on the prophecy about and the identity of the Endtime Antichrist and sign of the abomination of desolation. Section 2 introduces the new interpretive approach used to study the original vision of Daniel (chapter 8), and carries the result obtained from applying the new method. The Third Section presses the result obtained in Section 2 to its logical conclusion. It presents the discerned relationship between the prophecies about the Antichrist and some major political and ideological movements of the 20th C.

Justification of the study

All of the prevailing viewpoints on Biblical Endtime prophecy each have something important to say and contribute to our understanding of the identity of the Endtime Antichrist. But it cannot be considered redundant to seek for further understanding into the true meaning of these two important elements of Biblical Endtime prophecy – the Antichrist and the sign of the abomination of desolation. Hence, the following re-interpretation of these two major objects of eschatology is presented to enhance knowledge in this area. Such an additional effort to delve meaning does contradict the original intentions of God - 'Many shall search and knowledge will multiply' (Dan 12:4).[1]

Section 1: The Prevailing Views

Some of the most widely accepted views on the Antichrist and the sign of the abomination of desolation can be summarized as follows. In its primary prophetic sense, the prophecy has been associated with the activities of the anti-Jew Syrian King, Antiochus Epiphanes. In what this king did to the Temple and to the faithful Jews when he invaded and occupied Judea in 171- 165 B.C. many see the first level fulfillment of Daniel's visions.[2] However, the mention of the sign of the abomination of desolation by the Lord Jesus in His Endtime teaching (Matt. 24, Mk.13), gave a renewed life to the sign. That made it clear that the sign is still in the future at the time Jesus spoke in 33 A.D. The Lord Himself then left the door open for another round of interpretation and expectation. Therefore, since then, there have been diverse views how the sign was or will be fulfilled.

Some Bible scholars teach that Jesus' prophecy about the sign of the abomination of desolation was fulfilled when Rome destroyed the Second Temple in 70 A.D.[3] These scholars see the figure of the Antichrist in one of the Antichristian Roman Empire Caesars. Equally there are many other Biblical scholars who believe otherwise, saying that most of the signs Jesus gave on the Endtime, including the sign of the abomination of desolation, are still in the future. These teachers explain saying that first should arise a worldwide ruler, the Antichrist, who will sit in the restored Temple in Jerusalem, declaring himself to be god (God). [4] The, it is the declaration of himself, though a man to be god (God), which will constitute the sign of the abomination of desolation.

Moreover, there is also a third alternative viewpoint, a fringe teaching, which argues that the prophecy about the Antichrist and the abomination of desolation should not be taken too literally. This perspective asserts that the prophecy about the Antichrist will be fulfilled when the Endtime church is swept by widespread false doctrines. The rise of such false teachings will constitute the manifestation of the spirit of the antichrist, and its domination fulfill of the prophecy about the abomination of desolation. Though false teachings and teachers have plagued the church in all its history, it is said that, such a spirit of the antichrist will manifest and magnify itself more than ever in the Endtime. Therefore, among those who subscribe to this viewpoint, there is little expectation for a king called the Antichrist to reign worldwide.[5]

Section 2: The New Interpretation Method Applied

To understand the sign of the abomination of desolation in a new light, first we have to go to the original vision of Daniel in chapter eight and reinterpret it from a new perspective. Daniel's vision in the eighth chapter opens as follows,

"… I saw in the vision that I was by the River Ulai. 3 Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and there, standing beside the river, was a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward, so that no animal could withstand him; nor was there any that could deliver from his hand, but he did according to his will and became great. 5 And as I was considering, suddenly a male goat came from the west, across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. 6 Then he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing beside the river, and ran at him with furious power. 7 And I saw him confronting the ram; he was moved with rage against him, attacked the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to withstand him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled him; and there was no one that could deliver the ram from his hand." Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in place of it four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven. 9 And out of one of them came a little horn, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Glorious Land. 10 And it grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them" Dan. 8: 2-10.

Daniel saw this vision around 538 BC. As the Book of the Maccabees and secular history attest, Daniel's vision had come to pass by accurately predicting the events, which took place in the Middle East region during c. 300 – 100 BC period.[6] However, it will be totally wrong to limit the understanding and application of this vision (and the other related visions of Daniel's), only to the events that took place in that time frame and in that confined region.

We have a solid precedence in the New Testament usage of Old Testament history and prophesy to enable us to seek for wider and deeper meanings in Daniel's vision. We also find enough exegesis precedence in Bible scholarship to take a vision like Daniel's beyond its local and immediate context and apply it to far distant future events, including Endtime events. For that matter, the angel that was sent to Daniel to help him understand the vision had told Daniel that the vision has application to latter day events.[7] If so, then Daniel's vision should be interpreted in such a way that it becomes fully applicable in a meaningful way to make us understand better God's workings in the last days. But the question will be - which of the available Scripture interpretation methods should we choose to attain our intent?

If Daniel's vision is to apply to latter day events in its totality, there is a need for adopting a different interpretation method. One such technique is the figurative interpretation method. The figurative approach is chosen, because, Daniel's vision is inherently typological, and hence such an interpretive approach will allow us to fully grasp the larger issues implied in the vision. [8]

Once we adopt this interpretive method, the next step will be to single out the major protagonists and historical processes found in the vision for closer scrutiny, to evaluate them for their typological value. Later, we will map these protagonists and historical processes to their figurative counterparts of the last days. Only after such a course, then we will assign the abomination of desolation a new meaning based on what we have come to establish through the new approach. Hence, the logic we will apply to identify the abomination of desolation will be inductive rather than deductive.

5.1. The Broad-Strokes of His-story

Daniel's vision can best be understood as a canvass of human history painted by God with broad strokes. But to fill the details and to know how to apply the vision to larger human issues, first we have to unshackle the vision from the tyranny of the local and the immediate context.

First level discernment of Daniel's vision leads us to the following insight: some titanic forces shape history; and these forces will be in conflict for mastering the world. Such a conflict in its drive and intent can be understood as a clash of civilizations, a clash which will basically be cultural, political, and even economic in nature. The competition and conflict between the opposing 'civilization' forces will progressively accentuate and finally climax, in the latter part of human history, in the form of a horror unleashed by one of the rival forces. This horrifying assault will involve an unprecedented carnage carried out against the forces which side with God, and it will be accompanied by a sacrilege committed against the temple of God. It is such a horror and sacrilegious act that is called the abomination of desolation in the visions of Daniel. The instigator of the horror will be Satan, but those who implement it in history will be his human agents.

5.2. The Prophetic Drama: Decoding Types and Figures

In much abbreviated form, Daniel's vision can be summarized as: First, the Persians will be dominant in the world stage. Later on, the Greeks will challenge and overthrow the Persian Empire to be the dominant world force. But soon, the Greek Empire will break up, and several dynasties will arise from it. Later on, one of the Greek dynasties will invade the land of Israel and desecrate the Temple.

But our interest goes beyond the immediate and literal sense. From names and symbols and from actions and reactions (alliances, battles, etc) of the major protagonists, we should be able to discern valid figurative and allegorical counterparts to be matched to latter day characters and events.[9] To fully understand the latter day application of Daniel's vision, first we have to unravel the allegorical and figurative codes of the vision. This we proceed to do now.

(i). The Persians

In Daniel's vision, the Persian Empire is represented by a two-horned ram, and at the beginning of the prophetic drama, the ram stands as the world dominating power (Dan 8:20).

But beyond the literal and the shadow, what is the prophetic symbolism of the Persian (ram)? This is what we can learn about the Medes and Persians in the Bible: They are commissioned by God to destroy Babylon and to liberate the people of God, the Jews; they are used of God to restore the Second Temple; their first king, the one who overthrew Babylon, King Cyrus, is called the Anointed One of God, and hence made a type of Messiah (Is. 45: 1). Moreover, among all gentile empires, it is the Medes and Persians who get no word of judgment from the prophets of Israel. Hence, for these and other similar reasons, we can say that the Medes and Persians can be taken as symbols and shadows of godly people (forces). Therefore, in their latter-day manifestation, the 'Persians' will be all those groups of people who will openly acknowledge the power of God in the universe and in their lives. So the latter-day 'Persian' will be all those groups who practice and support religious faith and uphold traditional values.[10]

(ii). The Greeks

On the other hand, the Greeks, who are represented by the he-goat in the vision, are the opposite of the Persians in their worldview and life style. It was ancient Greek philosophers and writers who laid down the first groundwork for modern philosophy, science and art. Hence, based on their legacy, the Greeks are taken as a metaphor for the secular and rational mind-set. Based on both Scriptural and secular usage, the 'Greek' is therefore a type and symbol of groups and nations whose main focus is the material than the spiritual, the empirical than the transcendental, reason than faith. Therefore, in the following interpretation of the vision of Daniel, the Greeks will symbolize those who are mainly after intellectual, rational or secular pursuit.[11]

5.3. Spiritualizing the Prophetic Drama

Daniel's vision opens by showing the meteoric rise of the Greek Empire and its quick triumph over the Persians. In order to apply our figurative interpretation to this part of Daniel's vision, we have to look down the corridors of human history to find a historical event(s), which bears resemblance and parallel to such a power encounter and outcome as depicted between the literal Persians and the Greeks. The only time in history we see the clash of cultures as symbolized by the conflict between the 'Persian' and 'Greek' forces would be the Enlightenment Period of the 17th century. During that Period, particularly in Western Europe[12], there was a sudden burst of intellectual and artistic activity. A crop of rational and secularizing philosophies, groundbreaking scientific discoveries and theories, and creative works of art flourished. It was as if intellectual and artistic activity was suddenly released from its traditional and religious milieu. Attendant to such resurgence in rationalism in much of Europe, soon culture, economics and politics were enlivened with secularism and modernity.

However, as the new 'Greeks' increasingly asserted their influence in society, confrontation and clash with the forces of the status quo became inevitable. In those days, more than any section of society it was the church and the monarchy, which represented and upheld traditional values and institutions. Soon it was destined that the 'Persians' of those days – that alliance of the monarchy and the church, was to square off with the emergent 'Greek' – the intellectual and philosophers of the day.

During the Middle Ages, the church and the monarchy were the dominant force in all Europe. The hegemony of the two institutions was quite uncontested and unquestioned. Even when they were challenged now and then, they had always emerged victorious. However, as time passed, both church and monarchy lost their vigor and vitality, and could not march with the times. Inevitably, they were perceived as bastions of backwardness and oppression. By the 16th C., following the general revival in learning, vanguards of thought and reform began to question the long-held dogma and institutions of society. As the result, slowly the church and society began to lose legitimacy in the eyes of the public. To wit: The scholastic and rationalist 'Greek' 'he-goat' was moving in with rapid speed into the stage of human history. Its assaults were soon to take the unprepared church-monarchy - 'Persian' 'ram' - by surprise.

The 'Greek' animal, to its advantage, was armed with a single conspicuous horn between its eyes. The 'Greek' force became more ferocious by the day as its indignation built up against the 'Persian' status quo. But the 'Persian' ram was not in the best of shapes to take on the battle of ideas with the 'Greeks'. At least one of its 'horns' was growing backward!! [13] The church and monarchy were to engage in a conflict with the intellectuals, for which they were ill prepared.

Soon it became apparent that the church and the monarchy - the bulwarks of faith and tradition, were no match to the swift-footed philosophers and scientists of the day. As revolutionary ideas flourished and new scientific discoveries were made almost by the day, long-held views and institutions gave way to forces of secularism and modernity. The foundation of traditional society was undermined from the uninterrupted intellectual barrage of the 'Greek' mind. Consequently, the status quo was nudged out of position and influence, or was violently overthrown.[14] In such a manner, over a few centuries, the 'Greek' mind achieved ascendancy. Culture and politics was 'Hellenized', first in Europe and later throughout the rest of the world.

5.4. The Fracture of the 'Greek' Power

As Daniel watched further in the vision, he saw the following taking place,

"Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in place of it four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven. 9 And out of one of them came a little horn, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Glorious Land. 10 And it grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them." (Dan. 8: 8-10)

In its allegorical sense, this part of Daniel's vision, predicts that the forces of secular modernization will not remain united for long, but break up into various camps and factions. As history shows us, in the midst of its power and ascendancy, the 'Greek' - intellectual force - unleashed by the Enlightenment Period, broke up into various factions.

To wit: the break-up in the 'Greek' camp, soon after the victory over the forces of tradition, would give rise to 'four horns pointing to the four winds of heaven.'[15] This predicts that myriad of ideological and philosophical positions and factions will break out from the secular camp. Figuratively speaking, then every point on the ideological compass will now become possible - 'East', 'West', 'North' and 'South' will be just a few of the major 'scholarly' positions to emerge. Soon after, the focus of the vision shifts and concentrates on one of the 'four' horns; and it is from this horn that, subsequently, will arise a sub-horn (little horn). For all its peculiarities, particularly its antipathy to religion and God, it is this 'little horn', which is singled out by God for special attention and recognition.

From its small beginnings in the camp of the 'Greek's', the 'little horn' will grow in power to become an irresistible force later on.[16] To all those who acknowledge God (i.e. 'Jews'), it will be this branch of the secular forces, which will become their worst insidious enemy. As the result, religion and traditional institutions will come under its ideological siege. Persecuting religion will be just one of its modus operandi.

5. 5. Identifying the latter day 'little horn'

Then, of all the offshoots of the modern day 'Greeks', which one of them best fulfills the description of the 'little horn'? As Daniel tells us, the identifying marker of the 'little horn' should be its 'Greek' heritage, and its virulent opposition to God.

As the history of the Enlightenment Period shows us, as that movement progressed, various branches in the secular movement surfaced. These various groups later morphed into their own species, later to coalesce into schools of thought, philosophies, ideologies, parties, or institutions, etc. Particularly, those secular groups with political orientation, they became mainly responsible for much of the social and political revolutions and reforms that took place in the ensuing post-Enlightenment centuries.[17]

Regarding God and religion, secularists took up divergent positions. The major positions adopted were: Atheism, deism, and agnosticism. However, it has been those with a distinctly atheistic orientation, which became rabidly anti-God and anti-religion, by undermining the tenets of faith and persecuting the adherents of religion. With which of the branches of the latter day 'Greeks' should we then associate such kind of behavior towards God and religion?

As we have discussed earlier, the Endtime manifestation of the 'little horn' carries both secularist and atheistic characteristics. And according to Daniel's visions, the 'little horn' also unleashes a horrifying persecution against God's people and desecrates the Temple. If we carefully survey the history of modern secular thought, no other school of thought than radical socialist and communist ideology best fits the figurative/ historical description and career of the anti-God and anti-religious 'little horn.' [18]

5.6. The Birth Marks of the Latter-day 'little horn'

Much of the socialist/ communist ideology is the brainchild of 19th century political science philosophers, Karl Marx and Frederick Engels. These two men, more than anyone else, laid the foundation of atheistic socialist ideology (communism) among the working class of 19th C. Europe. Afterwards, communist ideology conquered the vast lands of Russia in 1917, and later after WWII it expanded into much of Eastern Europe, China and South East Asia. Particularly after WWII, socialist/ communist ideology became such a pervasive worldwide socio-economic and political movement that its influence controlled the politics and economics of many developing nations in Asia, Latin America and Africa. Many countries in these continents fell under the spell of radical socialism in one or another form. By the time of its near extinction in the 1990s, communism has succeeded to bring close to a third of mankind under its rule or influence.

Wherever communists were in power, traditional values and institutions in general and religious faith in particular was under continuous threat. They regarded religion as the relic of mankind's primitive past; therefore, they labored hard to uproot it through ideological brainwashing or police torture. Adherents of religion suffered endless persecution at the hands of communists. Their punishment included death penalties, labor camps, exile, dispossession of wealth, job discrimination, etc. Particularly, Christians and Jews carried the brunt of such persecution.

Section 3: Endtime Events and the Antichrist

5.7. Profiling the Endtime Little Horn

In order to easily identify the nature of the Endtime 'little horn', first we have to draw its profile based on relevant Biblical passages, which are traditionally associated with it.[19] At the same time also in order to understand the true meaning of the abomination of desolation, an alternative meaning to the term sanctuary/ temple will be developed. It is only after lying the groundwork with such important starting steps, that then the meaning and identity of the antichrist and the abomination of desolation fixed and associated with appropriate Endtime events.

(a). The Little Horn

Much has been written on the identity - origin and career of the Endtime 'little horn' or the Antichrist. Sundry individuals, institutions, and even nations have been suggested as fulfillment of the prophecy about the 'little horn' (antichrist). In this regard, some of the most cited candidates have been, the Roman Caesar Nero, the founder of Islam - Mohammed, the Roman Catholic Church and its popes, Adolf Hitler, Communism and its leaders, and much recently the New Age Movement and the Masonic Lodge. These names are in addition to all those false Messiahs who down the centuries declared themselves to be the personifications of the Second Coming of Christ.[20]

However, if we let Scripture speak for itself, this will be what will emerge as the profile of the Endtime 'little horn' (Antichrist).

- It will be a branch to arise from the victorious 'Greek' dynasty (Dan. 8: 8-9)[21].
- Starting from small beginnings, it will amass political power through intrigue and conspiracy. Literally, it will be a master of intrigue (Dan. 11: 21, 23).
- Though it has its roots in Christianity, it will abandon the Faith. It will deny God and Christ. It will be a master of deception, succeeding in misleading many people. The Lie it promotes will cause many to fall away from faith in God (Dan. 8: 25; 2 Thes. 2:3, 9-12; 1 Jn. 2: 18-19; Matt. 24:24; Rev. 13: 14).
- After it comes to political power, it will establish a policy of controlling and distributing wealth (Dan. 11: 24b, 43, 49; Zech. 11: 16).
- Those who acknowledge him and owe him allegiance, they will receive privilege and influence. Merit will have little space in the empire the antichrist (Dan. 11: 39).
- Because of the mighty deeds it is able to accomplish many will be duped about its supernatural strength (Dan. 8: 24; 2 Thes. 2:9-10).
- It will be a power, which will be quite marked for its haughtiness and impiety. It will be a cruel dictator, which will inspire terror and sow much destruction (Dan. 7: 23-25, 8:23-24; Rev. 13: 1-10).
- It will utter words of arrogance. It will lift IT-SELF up against God. It will attempt to play the role of God in the life of the people, promising redemption for humanity (Dan11: 36; 2 Thes. 2:4).

- Its survival skill will convince the gullible in its invincibility (immortality) (Rev. 3-4).
- It will have utter disregard for traditions and customs of the people, including to the observance of religion (Dan 7:25, 11:37).
- It will be intensely hostile to religion to the point of desecrating God's temple. God's people will suffer unparalleled persecution at its hands. It will carry out a horrifying act that will leave the sanctuary of God profaned and desolate (Dan.7:25, 8:9-13, 25, 11: 30-31; Rev. 13: 5-7) .
- It will build up military power, and will engage in territorial expansion. It will attempt at worldwide influence and dominance (Dan. 11:38 –44).
- God's people are advised to be the first to recognize the intentions of the 'little horn' as it first emerges in power. When it maneuvers its army in position, it is time to leave town. They should flee its presence to safe zone in time (Matt. 24: 15-21; Lk. 21: 19-23).
- The nations that would come under its control will languish under its mismanagement (Dan. 7:23, 8:24, Zech. 11: 15-17).
- Its final demise will come not through human force but by what can be regarded as Divine judgment (Dan. 8:25).

Based on the foregoing profile of the Endtime 'little horn' as well as the discussion carried out in Section 1, and after canvassing the landscape of secular ideologies and systems, none comes closer to meeting such descriptions than atheistic Communism (Marxism-Leninism). It is this ideology, more than any other political/ ideological offshoot of the Enlightenment period, which better fits the picture we have drawn above as the profile of the 'little horn'. For example, and as well recorded in history books, the worldwide Communist movement (Marxism-Leninism) has been openly anti-God and anti-religion. It has proven itself as a very revolutionary movement geared towards overthrowing and abolishing the older order. In all the places it has gained absolute power, Communism has unfailingly has shown its antipathy to national tradition and custom. Moreover, it has been known well for its widespread persecution of the faithful, being responsible for the death and suffering of untold of millions. Communist totalitarian states have given rise to many brutal dictators, who have proved evil geniuses. Such leaders brought about much build up in the national military force, leading to bellicose and expansionary policies.

(ii) A digression: The twined little horn

However, there is also another kindred anti-God force of the last days, which we must consider here. This 'secondary' anti-God political system we have to make mention of for deep spiritual and historical reasons. This one, like Communism, it also drew its ideological inspiration from the offshoots of the Enlightenment, from little reputed intellectual works of some 19th philosophers and artists.[22] It, like its other totalitarian counterpart, was also a political messianic movement whose goal was the setting up of a secular utopia for its own kind. It, like Communism, caused massive destruction to nations, and untold persecution and suffering to the people of God. It, like Communism, was also openly anti-God. A leader of fierce countenance, a man who has been considered as an evil genius, led the ideology. This man was able to make a Lie to prosper in his hands.

This second ideology and political system we consider here along Communism is Nazism. Nazism under Hitler had shown itself a sworn enemy to God's people, the Jews. It dedicated itself to their total extermination, murdering some 6 millions of them in the most gruesome manner.[23]

We will discuss Nazism before Communism to show how Nazism also fulfilled the prophecy about the Antichrist and the abomination of desolation. However, Communism will still remain the main focus, as it is the better fit of the two anti-God ideologies for the prophecy about the Endtime 'little horn.' But before, we discuss any of them in relation to the abomination of desolation; first we have to determine the true identity of the sanctuary/ temple, which the Bible says would be profaned by the anti-God forces.

5.8. The Sanctuary Profaned

According to Daniel (8:10-13, 23-27), the 'little horn' will become progressively more arrogant and hostile to God. Eventually, it will unleash violent persecution against God's people, and as the result, God's sanctuary will experience a horrendous desecration and desolation.

'And it (i.e. the little horn) grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them. He even exalted himself as high as the Prince of the host; and by him the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down. Because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast truth down to the ground. He did all this and prospered. Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who was speaking, "How long will the vision be, concerning the daily sacrifices and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled under foot?" (Dan. 8: 10-13).

But what is the nature and identity of the sanctuary of God that would be profaned in the last days? Is it the Temple in Jerusalem; or some church building; or as some say, the body of believers, which the Bible also considers as the temple of God? Which of these sanctuaries of God is the one to be profaned by the Antichrist? Which of these possible meanings of sanctuary/ temple meant by God - in the ultimate sense - as the sanctuary of God?

It can be recalled that the commonly accepted schools of interpretations on Endtime Bible prophecy, nearly all associate the sanctuary to be desecrated with the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem. Only one fringe interpretation school considers the body of believers (churches) to be the sanctuary of Endtime prophecy. However, even this interpretation gives little room to consider an evil political power, which the Bible says, will arise in the last days to cause fearful destruction to the land and to the people belonging to God. Hence, this interpretation school clearly overlooks the warning given about the intense persecution the political 'little horn' will unleash against God's people (cf. Dan. 8: 23-27). Did not Jesus warn that God's people should not waste time, but flee as they see the 'abomination of desolation', because unparalleled atrocities and sufferings would follow? So we cannot deny the fact that the Antichrist would be a secular political power opposed to God's people, to cause them physical harm and destruction.

At this point, it obliges us to establish whether it is a physical structure or building (temple/ church), which is referred to by Daniel as the ultimate sanctuary of God which will be profaned and left desolate by the Antichrist, or else if it is the mystical/ figurative temple, that is the people of God themselves, who would suffer untold atrocities at the hands of their secular enemies. For many Endtime prophecy students, the temple/ sanctuary of God is the physical place where God's people gather for worship, whether be it the Temple in Jerusalem, or the synagogues or the church buildings. But even in the true sense of the word even these structures derive their sanctity only because the people of God meet there to worship God. There is a good Scriptural reason to consider the people of God themselves as the ultimate and true sanctuaries of God, where God's primary concern lies. Therefore, it is God's people, either in the collective or in the individual sense that should be considered as the ultimate sanctuary of God. Such an understanding of the believer(s) as the ultimate sanctuary where God takes up His residence and His worship occurs continually. Such a conception is not only in the Old Testament implicitly but also in the New Testament openly.[24]

"Thus says the LORD: "Heaven is my throne and the earth is my footstool; what is the house which you would build for me, and what is the place of my rest? All these things my hand has made, and so all these things are mine, says the LORD. But this is the man to whom I will look, he that is humble and contrite in spirit, and trembles at my word" (Is. 66:1-2 RSV).

"But it was Solomon who built a house for him. Yet the Most High does not dwell in houses made with hands; as the prophet says, 'Heaven is my throne, and earth my footstool. What house will you build for me, says the Lord, or what is the place of my rest? Did not my hand make all these things?' " (Act. 7:47-50 RSV).

"Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?

If any one destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and that temple you are" (1 Cor. 3: 16-17 RSV).

"The Jews then said to him, 'What sign have you to show us for doing this?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews then said, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?' But he spoke of the temple of his body" (Jn. 2: 18-21 RSV).

Hence, when we talk about the temple/ sanctuary of God hereafter it will be primarily in the sense of God's people and remotely in terms of a physical place or structure. In this case, then the focus of the desecration and desolation of the sanctuary will be acts of cruelty (horror) committed against the people of God by the anti-God secularist power.

"At the end of their rule, when the transgressions have reached their full measure, a king of bold countenance shall arise, skilled in intrigue. He shall grow strong in power, shall cause fearful destruction, and shall succeed in what he does. He shall destroy the powerful and the people of the holy ones. By his cunning he shall make deceit prosper under his hand, and in his own mind he shall be great. Without warning he shall destroy many and shall even rise up against the Prince of princes. But he shall be broken, and not by human hands. The vision of the evenings and the mornings that has been told is true. As for you, seal up the vision, for it refers to many days from now" (Dan. 8: 23-26).

According to this word, in the last days would arise a cruel autocrat, a dictator, who would be a master of intrigue and conspiracy work. This secular power would amass much political power in its hands, and then unleash an act that would astonishing and unprecedented in its destructive scale.

The secular power, which would arise in the Endtime, would mislead many through its demagogy, making many to believe the Lie for the truth. It would be able to accomplish feats of endeavor. It would be pretentious in its claims and be impious in its behavior towards God. It would kill many of those who belong to God. God's people would be openly marked for persecution and destruction.

As we consider the sanctuary of God that would be profaned by the 'little horn' principally as God's people, and not as a physical place like the Temple, synagogue or church.[25] then the desecration of the 'temple' would become the gross violation of human dignity that God's people will suffer at the hands of the God-haters. Their desolation is then the destruction of their livelihood and even their life. Hence, the Endtime manifestation of Abomination of Desolation is mainly the wanton and barbaric act committed against the true temple of God, which are His people.[26]

5.9. The 'Little Horn' in Action: The Destructive Lie

Next we will consider two historical instances of the latter day where an atheistic and authoritarian power humiliated and destroyed the temple of God in the most astounding manner. Here we will be first considering the unparalleled persecution and murder of the Jews at the hands of the Nazis. Next we would consider the career of Communism and its widespread persecution of the people of faith, particularly Christians.[27] What we find out about the Jew's persecution at hand of the Nazis and their subsequent history is intended to serve us as a type to what would happen in spiritual Israel, i.e., the church.[28]

This how one writer described the rise of the Nazis and the Communists in the 1920s,

"At the very moment the American intelligentsia turned to totalitarian Europe for spiritual sustenance and guidance in orderly planning, [Europe] was in fact embarking on two decades of unprecedented ferocity and desolation – moral relativism in monstrous incarnation."[29]

"If the decline of Christianity created the modern political zealot – and his crimes – so the evaporation of religious faith among the educated left a vacuum in the minds of Western intellectuals easily filled by secular superstition. There is no other explanation for the credulity with which scientists accustomed to evaluating evidence, and writers, whose whole function is to study and criticize society, accepted the crudest Stalinist propaganda at its face value. They needed to believe; they wanted to be duped."[30]

(a). The Nazis

In the political and economic uncertainties in post-WWI Germany, Hitler emerged from total political obscurity to set up his Nazi party. In the late 1920s, Hitler 'established himself as a brilliant and innovatory speaker, a hard-working party organizer and an authoritarian leader of terrifying will-power.' Those who gathered around him also believed in the necessity of a strong leader, a totalitarian state, and racial purity and world leadership for the German people. To this end Hitler and his henchmen conspired and maneuvered themselves to power. Though they apparently came to power through constitutional means, once they got the power they clung to it in the most unconstitutional manner. The Nazis in power proved to be the lawless ones par excellence. They ruled by decrees rather than by constitutional laws. What the Fuehrer willed, it was the law of the moment. It was the devils that have assumed state power.

Through their skill in organizing and controlling social life, authoritarian rule, and Hitler's irresistible demagogy, the Nazis were able to impose order, security and industrial efficiency in Germany unseen over the previous two or three decades. The rapid rearmament policy the Nazis followed accompanied by suppression of workers unions, allowed Germany to experience economic boom under the Nazis. This did not fail to make positive impression on many Germans. To many, therefore, Hitler appeared as a miracle worker, working order out of chaos, and bringing optimism out of the national malice. His popularity was not low by any means.[31] The Deception latter to come in the open, for the moment was taking root in the hearts of the German people - that Hitler had the Answer and provides the Solution. But soon the consequences of endorsing the Nazis were to be made apparent to all.

The Nazi party under Hitler was a highly disciplined, methodical, and ruthless organization. The Nazis set up a police state, and they ruled through fear and total allegiance to the State. Their main ideology was racial purity of the German race. They taught that a purified German race is historically destined to rule the whole world. To that end the German nation, had to be cleansed from what the Nazis considered 'polluting' racial elements and people of inferior quality. So the Nazis set the stage to make human sacrifices to the ideology they preached. It happened that it was mainly the Jews and the Slavs who carried the brunt of Nazi hatred and became the major victims of Nazi extermination plans. The Jews were condemned to die, while the Slavs were mainly intended to become the slave-labor class for the Teutonic master race.[32]

True that, Jews have known much hatred and persecution nearly in every nation they were dispersed since the Roman days. However, what they experienced at the hands of the Nazis was unparalleled in its cruelty and magnitude. For Hitler to realize his millennial Third Reich dream, solving 'the Jewish Problem' was a centerpiece of his ideology.

"The 'Jewish problem' was central to his (Hitler's) whole view of history, political philosophy and program of action."[33]

In the years they were in power, Hitler and his henchmen murdered some six million of Jews in the most gruesome manner. Hitler's race idea was clearly satanic, and its implementation most horrific. "At Auschwitz, where 2 million were murdered, the process was run like a large scale industrial operation."[34] Hitler in all his arrogance opened his mouth and uttered obscenities against Jews and their God. His hatred of Jewry and their religion was impeccable, and he mobilized all his power and resources to the total annihilation of the ancient people of God.

Through the sweeping police actions of the ruthless secret service and the army, the Nazi regime herded Jews inside from Germany itself and from many other European lands and sent them to the concentration camps. In these camps, Jews were worked to death, were starved. Many were sent to science and medical laboratories where they were experimented with as human guinea pigs. Millions of them were murdered in the Nazi gas chambers.

"…There were no rest periods and anyone leaving his zone was shot, 'attempting to escape.' There were floggings every day and 'several hangings a week.' Potato-turnip soup was served at midday, a piece of bread in the evening.[35] Fritz Saukel, head of the slave-labour system, had laid down: 'All the inmates must be fed, sheltered and treated in such a way as to exploit them to the fullest possible extent, at the lowest conceivable degree of expenditure.'"[36]

"Then they would feel the gas and crowd together away from the menacing columns and finally stampeded towards the huge metal door with its little window. Where they piled in one blue clammy blood-spattered pyramid, clawing and mauling at each other even in death. Twenty-five minutes later the 'exhauster' electric pumps removed the gas-laden air, the great metal door slid open, and the en of the Jewish Sonderkommando entered, wearing gas-masks and gumboots and carrying hoses, for their first task was to remove the blood…before dragging the clawing dead apart with nooses and hooks, the prelude to the ghastly search for gold and the removal of the teeth and hair which were regarded by the Germans as strategic materials. Then the journey by lift or rail-waggon to the furnaces, the mill that ground the clinker to fine ash, and the lorry that scattered the ashes in the stream of the Sola."[37]

Thus was humiliated, desecrated and destroyed the sanctuary of God, His own people – the Jew. Hitler and his race ideology was that abomination which left God's people desecrated in the most horrifying manner. Only a few of the European Jews who were wise enough to discern the devil in Hitler and his sinister plans for the Jews were able to flee the looming menace in time, to flee to safety to other countries (cf. Matt. 24: 15- 20).

The ferocity and the scale with which the Nazi regime destroyed know little parallel in the history of man.

"The Third Reich…lasted twelve years and four months, but in that flicker of time, as history goes, it caused an eruption on this earth more violent and shattering than any previously experienced, raising German people to heights of power they had not known in more than a millennium, making them at one time the masters of Europe from the Atlantic to the Volga, from the North Cape to the Mediterranean, the end of a world war which their nation had cold-bloodedly provoked and during which it instituted a reign of terror over the conquered peoples which, in its calculated butchery of human life and the human spirit, out-did all the savage oppressions of the previous ages." [38]

The founder and leader of the Nazi party and regime, Adolph Hitler, carried many of the hallmarks of the Antichrist listed above. He was charismatic but deceptive, intelligent but an evil-genius. He was with a cruel heart with infinite capacity to hate and destroy on a mass scale.

"The man who founded the Third Reich, who ruled it ruthlessly and often with uncommon shrewdness, who led it to such dizzy heights and to such a sorry end, was a person of undoubted, if evil, genius. It is true that he found in the German people, as a mysterious Providence and centuries of experience had molded them up to that time, a natural instrument which he was able to shape to his won sinister ends. But without Adolph Hitler, who was possessed of a demonic personality, a granite will, uncanny instincts, a cold ruthlessness, a remarkable intellect, a soaring imagination and – until toward the end- an amazing capacity to size up people and situations, there almost certainly would never have been a Third Reich."[39]

In Hitler the world saw an abomination that made desolate, he authored the Transgression, which unleashed an awful horror human history ever witnessed. Nazism was evil incarnate, its destructive power energized by the devil. Hitler made the Lie of racial superiority to prosper in his hands, and many were deceived by the Lie and became his agents of desolation.

(b). Revolutionary Communism (Marxism-Leninism)

Next we will consider revolutionary Communism (Marxism-Leninism) the primary manifestation of the 'little horn' and the abomination of desolation. In the following paragraphs we will expound the features of Communism in order to see what a close parallel exists between it and the profile of the little horn provided above.

(i). Communism: The Child of the Enlightenment

Communism has its origins in the rational and secular worldview set loose by the Enlightenment. As acknowledged by its proponents, Marx's communist ideology drew much inspiration from 18th and 19th C. British political economy, French and English utopian socialist ideas, and the dialectical and evolutionary works of F. Hegel and C. Darwin. Revolutionary Communism, more than any other offshoot of the secular-humanist camp, was the most radical and materialistic in its propositions. It openly and actively rejected traditional institutions and customary values, and called for the total and complete overthrow of the old order. [40] Marxists worked for their political ideal - the establishment of a completely new social, political and economic order organized around an autocratic socialist party and state. Most often, their methods to achieve their goals were conspiratorial, violent and ruthless.

For example, as Johnson observed about Stalin, the former ruler of the Soviet Union, Stalin was running a Cultural Revolution, an attempt to change the fundamental human attitudes over the whole range of knowledge by the use of naked police power.[41]

(ii). Communism: Anti-God and Anti-Religion

Marxism in its conception of history and the origins of the universe was purely materialistic; it has no room for God in the origin of the universe and the affairs of men. For example, the German 19th C. philosopher, Ludwig Feuerbach who strongly influenced Marx with his atheism was, "an early and prominent atheist, who denied all supernaturalism and attributed all talk about God to talk about nature. Man, he said, is not dependent on God but on nature."[42] The origin of the idea of God and the practice of religion was attributed to the fear man had of the natural forces in his primitive days. Therefore, the idea of God and faith in Him will no longer be necessary once man is able to comprehend the workings of nature. Hence, Marxists reject the idea of God totally as relic of the lower stages of historical development of mankind. Instead they deify the rational, scientific man. Man can liberate himself from all the forces, which hinder it from attaining his perfectibility.

The founders of revolutionary Communism assiduously wrote and agitated against any form of religious belief as an unnecessary relic of man's undeveloped state. For example, Karl Marx noted that religion is the opiate of the masses and a drag on progress, and, hence, one of the primary tasks of the working class when it comes to power would be to destroy all religion.[43] Similarly, Lenin expressed his hatred of the church in the most venomous terms. He considered priests as gendarmes in cassocks. According to Johnson, Lenin's idea on religion was pure atheism,

" Religion was important to him, in the sense that he hated it. Unlike Marx who despised it and treated it as marginal, Lenin saw it as a powerful and ubiquitous enemy… he had an intense personal dislike for anything religious… From the start, the state he created set up and maintains to this day an enormous academic propaganda machine against religion. He was not just anticlerical like Stalin, who disliked priests because they were corrupt. On the contrary, Lenin had no real feelings about corrupt priests, because they were easily beaten. The men he really feared and hated, and later persecuted, were the saints."[44]

It was such hatred and rejection of the Divine which took the form of most dangerous policy measures once the Communists started to take state power beginning in 1917 in Russia. As history showed, the Communist totalitarian party and state proved highly inimical and destructive to the organization and mission of the church, as well as to the survival of the individual believer. The Communists attempt to wipe out the idea of God and the practice of religion, cost the church and the faithful much in the form of martyrdom, long and short term imprisonment, exile and material sacrifice, etc. Communists general attempt to set up a secular utopia led them to engage on massive scale social engineering and brutal suppression of all whom they considered opponents. The church and the faithful individual fell victim to the grandiose Communist attempt to make the 'New Man', which will overcome all natural forces and usher the endless era of bliss.

(iii). Communism: The Lie as the Redeeming Truth

The communist party was projected as the incarnation of the infallible word of Marxism-Leninism, which everyone has to follow without any deviation. For example, in the words of V. Lenin, Marxism has a status like that of the Bible among the faithful.

"'From the philosophy of Marxism … cast as one piece of steel, it impossible to expunge a single basic premise, a single essential part, without deviating from objective truth.' " And, "Orthodox Marxism requires no revision of any kind either in the field of philosophy, in its theory of political economy, or its theory of historical development.'"[45]

The whole assertion of Marxist theoreticians has therefore been: If the teachings of Marxism-Leninism were strictly followed in statecraft, inevitably would follow the Perfect Society. It was claimed, unlike other social philosophies, that Marxism-Leninism was scientific, therefore, able to provide the Solution to the varied problems of humanity. One need only to follow it thoroughly and apply is wholeheartedly to see its good results.

Since Marxists believed in the inherent goodness and infinite capacity of mankind, they believed in the perfectibility of man. They placed much faith in the assertion of Darwinian evolutionary and Hegelian dialectical laws to believe that mankind was on a course of progress to achieve a higher order of existence. To achieve his Perfect State, man did not need the help of the supernatural. As Schaeffer observed such view of mankind contradicted the fallen nature of man.

"The Perfectibility of Man was the basis of much of the Enlightenment and of the French Revolution. Theoretically it was a basis of the Marxist-Lenin revolution in Russia. [However] Each place this concept of the Perfectibility of Man has been acted on it has led to tragedy, to political chains, and to the loss of humanness."[46]

Marxist taught that Communism could usher in a secular utopia, a classless, secure and prosperous society, which would know no end. This assertion placed a direct challenge to the Christian millennial worldview. Projecting their vision of a secular perfect world, the Communists confronted humanity with a stark choice. The choice had to be made between them, the secular messiahs, or the Christian Messiah, Jesus Christ.

"Marxism, which provides remarkable evidence of the power of dominant key ideas to inspire and direct man, is undoubtedly one of the greatest challenges to traditional religious belief… the thinking of Marx had religious overtones, whether from his own Jewish background or from a Christian atmosphere…Marxism can be called a quasi-religion insofar as it calls from its followers a devotion and a commitment that is in their empirical character resemble commitment and devotion that characterize religious people...Furthermore, like a religion, it has provided themes of fulfillment and hope – a revolution interpreted as the initiation of a Communist world society that would be a final consummation. There are many logical similarities between the doctrine of the Marxist millennium and the Christian doctrine of Christ's Second Coming." [47]

It should not come as surprise that many were deceived to by the words and deeds of the Communists to believe that the Communist system was the promised Kingdom of God come in a secular form. Therefore, as one Christian philosopher put it, Communism has been a Christian heresy.

The sad fact, however, was this - under Communism the heart of man that was intended at creation to worship only God and to be His sanctuary now was forced to enthrone Man as god, the man-made Communist ideology as savior. To achieve this goal, Communists by terror and persecution, propaganda and economic blackmail, induced people to reject God and embrace dialectical materialism as the liberating Truth. Thus God was exiled from the hearts of many.

Hence, millions were seduced and compelled to believe the Lie that man is his own god and can save himself. The Lie uttered at the Fall of man in the Garden of Eden – 'You shall be like God', came closest to its fulfillment through the ideology of Communism. Because, Communism, more than any other ideology has had a very well-thought out atheistic philosophy and attempted for several decades to set up a worldwide Millennial–like Utopia on earth, it more the Nazi ideology comes closer to fulfill the prophecy about the Antichrist.

(iv). Communism: The Communist State as the Red Beast

If Nazism was a political utopian ideology, a secular messianic aberration based on race theory, Marxism, on the other hand, was an ideology of the zealots based on class warfare. According to Communists, in order the Perfect Society to emerge, first society has to be broken up through class warfare, and only later it could be made up again according to the Marxism-Leninism blue print. Therefore, old social relations have first to be smashed ruthlessly, the propitiated classes should be dispossessed mercilessly, and the toiling masses have to be empowered economically and politically with little delay. Only class-based revolutionary struggle led by the Communist party would start and then complete the liberation of the masses from oppressing natural and exploiting social forces.

Based on the above theoretical framework, everywhere Communists assumed political power, beginning with the Russian Revolution in 1917, assumed absolute power to organize, direct and control every aspect of social life. Individuals' rights were suppressed in the name of the common good. Therefore, individual's right did not count much under Communism, only the so-called interests of the masses, as defined by the Communist elite. Any disobedience and deviation from the Party dogma and rules, was considered treason to the party and state and was suppressed with outmost severity.

Society had to render absolute allegiance to the Communist state. Acknowledging any other power, like Jesus Christ, for example, as source of truth and guidance in the life of the people, amounted to treason and anti-revolutionary activity.

Under Communism the state was elevated to a god-like status. It was the most centralized State, overseeing every aspect of life in society. Its orders have to be obeyed at any cost and to it belonged every allegiance. In such a state, Marxist ideology was defied as the objective and infallible truth. The Communist party leaders were seen as the owners of revealed truth, with power to lead the people to total redemption.

Consequently, any allegiance to God or any other customary authority was considered criminal offence in the Communist lands. This inevitably led to conflict between the true believers and the Communist rulers. To true Christians who could only acknowledge Jesus as Lord, the new communist Caesars could not be worshipped and obeyed as Lord without compromising ones faith. As Schaeffer observed in this regard,

“ The humanist worldview with inventible certainty leads in the direction of statism. This is because humanists, having no god, must put something at the center, and it is inevitably society, government, or the state…”[48]

“The early church carried out their civil disobedience in the only way available to them. They came to the clear issue of worshipping Caesar or not, and rebelled in refusing to do so, though they knew the cost. It seems to me that in most the Iron Curtain countries the Christians are in about the same position as the early church. They are not in a position to change the system because of their low numbers, because as Christians they are systematically shut out of places of influence, and because of the iron control. Thus they must resist, in the manner the early church did, when they were commanded to disobey God…if apprehended, paying the price [meant] being sent to the labor camps in Siberia, which at times still means certain death, and certainly great suffering. The labor camps take the place of the lions.”[49]

Under Communism, as under Nazism, the people belonged to the state and not the other way round. Hence, the people were dealt with in every manner in order to make the state ideology a success.

(v). Communism: Temple Defiled

But what has been the legacy of Communism - this secular messiah, the pseudo-Christ - over the 70 or more years of its existence? Did it bring to its subjects any spiritual liberty and material bounty, as promised? Was peace, prosperity and bliss its legacy? Is that what its records show?

In the name ideology and economic policy, millions of citizens were killed, interned in prisons, or exiled in Communist lands. As their records show, Communists have been heartless and barbaric to the extent of exterminating and persecuting the populace to fit their ideological ends. For example, In the 1930s under Stalin’s campaign to collective Soviet agriculture, it is believed that some 10 million rural dwellers and others had perished.

“During these years something like 10 percent of Russia’s population passed through Stalin’s penitential machinery…Churches, hotels, even bathhouses and stables were turned into gaols; and dozens of new ones built. Within these establishments, torture was used on a scale, which even the Nazis were later to find difficult to match. Men and women were mutilated, eyes gouged out, eardrums perforated; they were encased in ‘nail boxes’ and other fiendish devices. Victims were often tortured in front of their families… In 1942-45, there were many more Soviet camps, most of them larger than the Nazi ones, and containing many more people… Most of the camps, however, served a definite economic purpose…Lenin and later Stalin built up the world’s second-largest gold industry and huge gold reserves, on the backs of men working a sixteen-hour day, with no rest days, wearing rags, sleeping often in torn tents, with temperature down to sixty degrees below zero, and pitifully with small quantities of food.”[50]

Another major country, which came under the influence of Communism next to Russia, was China. In China Communists took power in 1949. The Chinese Communist leader, Mao tse-Tung indulged in social engineering and politically motivate terror campaigns with consequences not less than that of Stalin in Soviet Russia. For example, Mao’s Great Leap Forward, his attempt to transform Chinese agriculture into a commune system, had a high human cost. It led to man-made famine, which killed some 40 million Chinese.[51] Mao’s rule was a ruthless and autocratic as much as Stalin’s was. Wholesale killings of political opponents, consigning intellectuals and dissidents to labor camps, persecuting and controlling the churches have been a common occurrence in Communist China.[52] Regarding the policy, which the Chinese Communist followed in relation to the churches, what Aikman notes here is quite revealing.

“On coming to power, therefore, what the [Chinese] Communists needed to accomplish in relation to China’s Christian population was twofold challenge.. First, they needed to intimidate into total compliance or cow into silence any prominent Catholic or Protestant Christians leaders who opposed the new regime. Any center of impendent civic leadership, and hence potential political opposition, could not be permitted to survive beneath the new mandate. Second, to avoid totally alienating the entire mass of Christian believers in China while they were still consolidating their power, the Communists needed to co-opt a large portion of the clergy. These were not to be just passive supporters to the new regime, but active enthusiasts…the Communists had planned the infiltration and control of Protestant Christian churches carefully and thoroughly. . It was during this period of mass reeducation all over China that the terms ‘thought reform’ and ‘brainwashing’ first acquired wide currency. The large majority of Protestant clergy in China went with the process. The price for resistance ranged from public denunciation, arrest, imprisonment, and possibly execution.”[53]

Aikman ably chronicles what Chinese church leaders had to pay for standing firm for Jesus Christ and rejecting Mao’s secular Utopia propaganda. Many Church leaders and priests were shot to death for so-called counter-revolutionary activity. Many others were sent to labor camps as long as 20 years where they labored under harsh conditions. Police torture and surveillance of churches is still a common occurrence in China today.

Believers faced similar persecution in countries where Communists took power. In former East European Communist block counties, China, North Korea, Vietnam. Cambodia, Laos, Cuba, Ethiopia, Christians churches were closed, and believers suffered martyred at the hands of Communists.[54], [55] What took place in Cambodia at the hands of Communist in the mid-1970s was horrifying.

The Communist elites, which seized power by force all over Indo-China in April 1975 immediately, embarked on nationwide programs of social engineering, with grave consequences to the population. The models and inspirations were Stalin's collectivization of the peasants and China's Mao rural communes. But it was in Cambodia, where the worst atrocities against humanity took place. The most horrifying atrocities against the people were justified in the name of total social revolution, where everything from the past was anathema and had to be destroyed. At the hands of the ruling party, the Khmer Rouge, mass terror was the chosen weapon to hasten history, and realize the envisioned Communist Utopia without delay. Millions of members of so-called parasite classes, undesirable elements and counter-revolutionaries died under the social engineering policies of the Khmer Rouge. Most died while attempting to flee the Khmer devils, got executed by the Communist, or died under the harsh conditions of the rural villages to which they were forced to live after driven out of the cities and towns.

"About 100,00 Cambodians were executed, 20,000 died trying to flee, 400, 000 died in the forced exodus from the towns, a further 430, 000 died in the camps and 'villages' before 1975, and a 250,000 more in 1976. Hence between April 1975 and the beginning of 1977, the Marxist-Leninist ideologues ended the lives of 1,200,000 people, a fifth of the population."[56]

The Khmer Communists like their predecessors, Lenin, Stalin and Mao, were heartless ideologues. The human person was an expendable sacrifice on the altar of Ideology. They were prepared to commit mass scale atrocities in the name of ideology.

"Like Lenin, they were pure intellectuals. They epitomized the great destructive force of the twentieth century: the religious fanatic reincarnated as professional politician. What they did illustrate the ultimate heartlessness of ideas."[57]

(vi). Communism: Militarism and Imperial Expansion

Communists believe in strong military and police power to impose and control their autocratic rule. This has to be done to use their parlance to protect the dictatorship of the proletariat from internal and external counter-revolutionary forces. So everywhere, Marxist-Leninist parties, inevitably a large-sized 'peoples army' characterized each state. The first and leading Communist country, Soviet Russia for long time maintained one of the largest armies of the world and it became one the largest arms producer of the century. It was mainly Russian armament, which was exported to other communist nations to bolster their dictatorial grips on their own citizens. Most of the former and present day communist nations have had the highest per capita number of soldiers and defense expenditures.[58]

The virtual strength the Red Army demonstrated in WWII in defeating the Nazis, was soon used to occupy many East European countries under the Soviet orbit as satellite communist nations. Soviet Russia exercised influence in Communist China's policy until the early 1960s, and was the undisputed controlling force in other Communist oriented countries of the region. Soviet expansionism in Asia, the Middle East, and Africa and to some extent Latin America was quite marked.[59] Among other factors, it was helped by the winds of change that were sweeping the developing world in the post-WWWII years. Soviet influence and expansionism was carried out in the guise of supporting national liberation struggles and in the name of assisting developing nations to pursue independent economic and political policies from their former colonial powers. In many developing countries the Soviets supported left wing movements and armed revolutionary insurgencies; engineered coups to bring Communists to power; propped up unpopular socialist governments with massive economic and military aid; and even at times launched direct military invasions in support of their client regimes, etc.[60]

However, according to Daniel chapter 11, the pretensions of the 'little horn', in our case, that of Soviet Russia's expansion and world domination will not go unchallenged. Another secular world power will strongly challenge its posturing. Particularly in its latter stages, the Antichrist's empire would encounter a stronger challenge, which would leave it exposed for its true nature. The charges it used to hurl on others would return back on it; and it would be made to retreat back to its own homeland (Dan. 11: 18-19). As winds of change sweep against it from various directions, it would try to save its empire, but that would be too late. Once retired and confined to its provinces, it would stumble (make false steps), and as the result meet its demise never to rise up again (Dan 11: 44-45). [61]

Conclusion

There is no other better way to end the discussion on the desecration and desolation of the human person at the hands of 20th C godless ideologies than to look at the reflections of the present Pope, John Paul II. The Pope is one of the few persons of who has witnessed the emptiness and horrors of both Nazi and Communist ideologies. The Pope is also unique in the sense that he as a Christian scholar devoted himself to the metaphysical study of the plight of the PERSON. His deep reflection on the degradation and pulverization of man's fundamental uniqueness at the hands of modern day godless ideologies is unprecedented.[62] What Naugel notes below about the Pope is quite noteworthy in light of what has been said in this article about the Antichrist and the abomination of desolation.

"[The Pope] witnessed first hand the devastating consequences of various humanistic ideologies which promised a utopian dream but delivered a cultural nightmare, stripping away the freedom and dignity of countless multitudes (emphasis added – Ed.). In due course [he] became convinced at intuitive, experiential, and philosophical levels that the fundamental crisis in the West rested squarely upon false ideas about the nature of persons... [He] was not only concerned about the devastation of those who suffered under the icy grip of the Nazi and Communist regimes, but he also recognized the disfiguring consequences of upon those held in bondage to the excess of Western individualism and selfish capitalism. Regardless of location, for [him] various political and economic systems based upon secular and atheistic assumptions led to a profound betrayal of the true nature and nobility of persons."[63]

The Nazi atrocity against the Jew had at least one positive outcome - the setting up of the Jewish own homeland, the state of Israel in 1948. One of the mottos of the founding fathers of the re-born state of Israel was: No more again. After 2000 years of exile, persecution at the hands of Christians and gentiles, and lastly victims of unprecedented Nazi atrocities, finally God allowed the Jews to set up their own kingdom (state). This God allowed coming to pass so that the Jew will no longer be trampled under the feet of the gentiles.

There is a spiritual lesson from Israel's story. How the restoration of Israel's kingdom (state) was preceded by the rise of the godless Nazi regime and its evil deeds, this carries a deep spiritual lesson. The story of Israel is intended to shadow the story of the Christians, how first they would suffer intensely at the hands of another 20th C. ruthless godless power. The fall of this anti-God power would be a harbinger of the rise of the Kingdom of God in the earth.

“Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. So you also, when you see all these things, know that it (he) is near--at the doors! Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place” (Matt. 24: 32-34 NKJV).

Appendix

Common Biblical Passages on the Antichrist

1. ‘And it (i.e. the little horn) grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them. He even exalted himself as high as the Prince of the host; and by him the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down. Because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast truth down to the ground. He did all this and prospered. Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who was speaking, "How long will the vision be, concerning the daily sacrifices and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled under foot?" (Dan. 8: 10-13).

2. “At the end of their rule, when the transgressions have reached their full measure, a king of bold countenance shall arise, skilled in intrigue. He shall grow strong in power, shall cause fearful destruction, and shall succeed in what he does. He shall destroy the powerful and the people of the holy ones. By his cunning he shall make deceit prosper under his hand, and in his own mind he shall be great. Without warning he shall destroy many and shall even rise up against the Prince of princes. But he shall be broken, and not by human hands. The vision of the evenings and the mornings that has been told is true. As for you, seal up the vision, for it refers to many days from now" (Dan. 8: 23-26).

3. “In his place shall arise a contemptible person on whom royal majesty had not been conferred; he shall come in without warning and obtain the kingdom through intrigue. Armies shall be utterly swept away and broken before him, and the prince of the covenant as well. And after an alliance is made with him, he shall act deceitfully and become strong with a small party. Without warning he shall come into the richest parts of the province and do what none of his predecessors had ever done, lavishing plunder, spoil, and wealth on them. He shall devise plans against strongholds, but only for a time. The vision of the evenings and the mornings that has been told is true. As for you, seal up the vision, for it refers to many days from now" (Dan. 11: 21-24).

4. “The king shall act as he pleases. He shall exalt himself and consider himself greater than any god, and shall speak horrendous things against the God of gods. He shall prosper until the period of wrath is completed, for what is determined shall be done. He shall pay no respect to the gods of his ancestors, or to the one beloved by women; he shall pay no respect to any other god, for he shall consider himself greater than all. He shall honor the god of fortresses instead of these; a god whom his ancestors did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts. He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god. Those who acknowledge him he shall make more wealthy, and shall appoint them as rulers over many, and shall distribute the land for a price “ (Dan. 11: 36-39).

5. “At the time of the end the king of the south shall attack him. But the king of the north shall rush upon him like a whirlwind, with chariots and horsemen, and with many ships. He shall advance against countries and pass through like a flood. He shall come into the beautiful land, and tens of thousands shall fall victim, but Edom and Moab and the main part of the Ammonites shall escape from his power. He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. He shall become ruler of the treasures of gold and of silver, and all the riches of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians F62 shall follow in his train. But reports from the east and the north shall alarm him, and he shall go out with great fury to bring ruin and complete destruction to many. He shall pitch his palatial tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, with no one to help him” (Dan. 11: 40-45).

6. ‘Therefore when you see the 'abomination of desolation,' spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" (whoever reads, let him understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house. And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes. But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! And pray that your flight may not be in winter or on the Sabbat’ (Matt. 24: 15-18).

And as the Lord Jesus has it, the moment the people of God notice that such an anti-God secular power, which is not worthy of the place, it stands in, ruling power, then it is time to flee without wasting a minute. Waiting too long will make the difference between survival and death. The people of God should pray that God will give them the right conditions to facilitate their migration to a safe place out of the reach of the Antichrist power.

7. “As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? And you know what is now restraining him, so that he may be revealed when his time comes. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, but only until the one who now restrains it is removed. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will destroy with the breath of his mouth, annihilating him by the manifestation of his coming” (2 Thess. 2: 1-8).

8. “And I saw a beast rising out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads; and on its horns were ten diadems, and on its heads were blasphemous names. And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, its feet were like a bear's, and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. And the dragon gave it his power and his throne and great authority. One of its heads seemed to have received a death-blow, but its mortal wound F42 had been healed. In amazement the whole earth followed the beast. They worshiped the dragon, for he had given his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who can fight against it?" The beast was given a mouth uttering haughty and blasphemous words, and it was allowed to exercise authority for forty-two months. It opened its mouth to utter blasphemies against God, blaspheming his name and his dwelling, that is, those who dwell in heaven. Also it was allowed to make war on the saints and to conquer them. It was given authority over every tribe and people and language and nation, and all the inhabitants of the earth will worship it, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb that was slaughtered. Let anyone who has an ear listen: If you are to be taken captive, into captivity you go; if you kill with the sword, with the sword you must be killed. Here is a call for the endurance and faith of the saints" (Rev. 13: 1-10).

9. "Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. And this is the spirit of the antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming; and now it is already in the world. Little children, you are from God, and have conquered them; for the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore what they say is from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and whoever is not from God does not listen to us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error... Many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh; any such person is the deceiver and the antichrist! Be on your guard, so that you do not lose what we have worked for, but may receive a full reward. Everyone who does not abide in the teaching of Christ, but goes beyond it, does not have God; whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. Do not receive into the house or welcome anyone who comes to you and does not bring this teaching" (1 Jn. 4: 1-6, 2 Jn 1: 6-10).

10. "How you are fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, [F17] son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, You who weakened the nations! For you have said in your heart: 'I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation On the farthest sides of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High.' Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, To the lowest depths of the Pit. "Those who see you will gaze at you, And consider you, saying: 'Is this the man who made the earth tremble, Who shook kingdoms, Who made the world as a wilderness And destroyed its cities, Who did not open the house of his prisoners?'" All the kings of the nations, All of them, sleep in glory, Everyone in his own house; But you are cast out of your grave Like an abominable branch, Like the garment of those who are slain, Thrust through with a sword, Who go down to the stones of the pit, Like a corpse trodden underfoot. You will not be joined with them in burial, Because you have destroyed your land And slain your people. The brood of evildoers shall never be named" (Is. 14: 12- 20).

[1] Or to use the words of the man of God, Ravi Zechariah, "Let My people think!'

[2] Antiochus Epiphanes belonged to the dynasty of one of Alexander the Great generals who divided the Greek Empire after the death of Alexander. Antiochus Epiphanes invaded the Jewish state (171- 165 BC) and attempted to Hellenize the nation's culture and obliterate the Jewish faith. The king in his most defiant act to Jehovah God set up a Zeus statue in the Temple in Jerusalem and sacrificed a pig on the altar. What According to the Book of the Maccabees, what Antiochus Epiphanes did fulfilled the prophet Daniel's predictions, given some 300 years earlier.

[3] In this case the sign of the abomination of desolation was fulfilled when the Roman soldiers carried their imperial ensign into the Temple ground. That act was sacrilegious, making an abomination to stand in a place where it did not belong. The final act of Temple desecration, however, was the razing of the temple, where it was left desolation for centuries to come. This viewpoint, among those who study Eschatology, is known as Preterist.

[4] According to this viewpoint, in the last days, the Antichrist will allow the Jews to build the Third Temple, in which he will later set himself up as God. This act of deifying oneself as God in the Temple will then fulfill the prophecy about the abomination of desolation spoken by Jesus. In this regard, the Antichrist, will be the last-days' version of the anti-God, anti-Jew, Greek king, Antiochus Epiphanes. Those with Pre-millennial eschatological belief hold to this viewpoint.

[5] In the last days, there will be a great falling away from the true faith in many churches. Satan as a last ditch effort will release lying spirits to sow error and deception among the churches. It will try to mislead even the elect if that was possible. As false doctrine is an abomination to God, those churches, which will follow such teachings, will become spiritual barren lands (*desolation).

[6] Many scholars see in Daniel's visions (chapters 8, 10 and 11) accurate prediction of the meteoric rise of the Greek Empire; its success in overthrowing the Persian Empire (c. 300 BC); the conflict the Greeks developed with the Jews (c. 171 – 165 BC); and the rivalry and struggle that ensued among the Greek dynasties, and at the end the overthrow of Greek power by the Romans.

[7] Even the angel, who was sent to Daniel by God to help him understand his visions, had repeatedly emphasized to Daniel that the visions referred to the latter days. And Jesus said as much. Jesus had associated the sign of the abomination of desolation, with events to take place in the last days.

[8] Interpretative methods, which use allegory, typology and figurative language, are commonly used in the New Testament to interpret Old Testament history and prophecy. For example, see, Jn. 1:29, 6: 30-35; Rom. 2: 25-29, 1 Cor. 5: 6-7, 10: 1-4; Gal. 4: 21-31; Heb 9; 1 pet. 3: 18-21.

[9] Chapters 10, 11 and 12 in the book of Daniel continue with the same theme as contained in the eighth chapter. Therefore, in the paper, repeated allusions will be made to the other related chapters.

[10] Unlike the Greeks, it can be said that the Medes and Persians were more inclined to religion than to science and philosophy. The Persian religion of Zoroastrianism, in its system of belief was dualistic. It recognized the existence of two powerful deities in the universe - the Good One and the Evil One, and ultimately the Good One will triumph over the Evil One to set up a worldwide empire of bliss. The Persian religion, then as compared to that of the Greeks, comes much closer to the religion of Israel in its ideals. On the other hand, the ancient Greeks had their pantheon of gods, but these were known for their jealousy and debauchery.

[11] In the vision, the symbol of the Persian was a ram and that of the Greeks was a he-goat. Such symbolism carries significant meaning. There lies the clue who is the good guy and who is the bad guy, in the eyes of God.

[12] As Daniel saw in the vision, the rise of the 'he-goat' (Greek) is from the west. This was not only literally fulfilled through the rise of Alexander the Great, from the western side of the then known world, but also proved true in the allegorical sense much later. The revival of modern science and philosophy and its swift ascendancy on the world stage, came from the West - from Europe, and not from the East - the Asiatic lands.

[13] In a figurative sense, we know that a horn is a figure of power and strength. But one of the two horns of the ram ('Persia') was growing backward. This tells us that at least in one aspect, the Persians had lost the progressive edge and had become backward and reactionary. At least, one aspect of their power and influence had become blunted. On the other hand, the horn on the 'Greek' animal was conspicuous and it was located, of all places, between the eyes. This tells us that the source of 'Greek' strength will come from discernment, i.e., knowledge and wisdom.

[14] The struggle between the modernizing forces and those of tradition, at times was a bloody confrontation, erupting into social revolutions and civil wars at times.

[15] Such a break up in the apparently monolithic secular humanist camp, led to the emergence of myriad of factions. The divergent viewpoints and ideologies the factions held, most often pitted them against each other. Daniel's vision in chapter 11 deals with such kind of rivalry and struggle between two branches of the 'Greek' Empire, namely, the northern and southern branches. This in a prophetic-figurative sense, points us towards the latter part of human history where two dominant secular powers (ideologies) will struggle for supremacy in the world.

[16] Cf. Dan. 11: 21-23. The 'little horn' will gather power through intrigue and other clandestine means.

[17] They, more than any other group, became responsible to the rise of the modern nation state, each with distinct national - ideological, economic and political orientations.

[18] From the additional descriptions given to us about the little horn (or the king of the 'North') in Daniel chapters 8 and 11, we can extract more evidence to correlate the 'little horn' with the communist ideology. For example, the little horn has utter disregard to tradition and accepted forms of faith; its beginnings is conspiratorial and involves revolutions/ coups; it takes control of the economy and redistributes wealth; it will be worshiping the god of the munitions, indicating it will heavily relay on brute power and militarism; that it will launch a worldwide conquest and expansion campaign, and that it causes much havoc, etc.

[19] The 'little horn' is also commonly known as the Antichrist (2 Thes. 2: 2-12; 2 Jn 1:7) and the (Red) Beast (Rev. 13).

[20] Some of the cult leaders who claimed the title of Messiah include such figures as the Americans Charles Mason, Rev. Jim Jones and David Koresh, the Korean Rev. Moon, and the Japanese Asahara Shokou. For one aspect of a discussion on this subject, see David Gorenberg's book, The End of Days .

[21] Hence, as we have seen earlier, it will be an offshoot of one of the major branches of the Enlightenment Movement. It means that it will be part of the secular-humanist movement, which would dominate the Western mindset beginning the 17th C.

[22] For the intellectual roots of Nazism, see William L. Shirer, The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich (New York: Touchstone, 1990), pp. 97-113. Shirer traces the origins of German (Aryan) racial superiority and the theory of the Superman, which led to the megalomaniac deeds of the Nazis, to the works of the following major philosophers and writers: the Germans, Fichte, Hegel, Treitschke, Nietzsche, R. Wagner. As well as the lesser lights of the Frenchman, Gobineau and the Englishman, Chamberlain.

[23] Though Hitler did kill many Christians for their faith, those whom he killed for their religious identity by far a larger number were Jews.

[24] Stephen in his last sermon, which led to his martyrdom, brings out this idea most. He argued with the Jewish religious leaders that God's ultimate temple is the human body (the believer's heart) and not the Jerusalem Temple (acts 7: 44-50). To support his point he quoted 1 Kgs. 8:27 and Is. 66: 1-2. The apostle also quite underlies the fact the believers are collectively and individually constitute the ultimate temple of God (1 Cor. 3: 16-17, 6: 19-20; 2 Cor. 6: 16-18; Eph. 2: 21-22). Paul by quoting Lev. 26:12 to support his interpretation clearly indicated that its was Israel the nation which was collectively the true abode of God and not necessarily the tabernacle or the temple she had. Jesus also referred to His body as the temple (cf. Jn. 2:19-21). Jesus words in Jn. 14: 23 give some indication on the ultimate meaning of the human body as the temple of God.

[25] One can include all other classes of people who as well who refuse to submit to the dictates of the impious secular power, and hence suffer similar fate as does the people of God. Humanity, in the general sense, it can be argued that, is the bearer of the image of God and His potential temple..

[26] The perpetrators of this indignity against the people of God are 'despised powers' - educated barbarians ('Greeks'). The designation, 'little horn' implies as much the inferior quality or the low estimation given to such intellectuals by God, as anything else (Dan 11:21). See also Ps. 119: 141 to see that the word 'little' implies despised.

[27] Israel and the Church, are the two ecclesia of God. Both have been selected as the repository (abodes) of the oracles of God. Israel incarnates the OT, and the Church the NT. God, who is the WORD (Logos) resides and manifests Himself through a chosen people. See for example, Is. 49:3; Rom. 9: 4-5; 2 Cor. 3: 3.

[28] In a wider context, one can consider all human kind, irrespective of nationality, class or creed, as the ultimate and potential temple of God. In this case, any power that attempts to take the place of God in the life (heart and mind) of mankind is the false Messiah ('little horn'). Some of the anti-God forces more than others have been quite violent in their opposition and persecution of those who resist such an usurpation.

[31] According to Johnson (p. 295) "By the mid-1930s Hitler was running a brutal, secure, conscienceless, successful and, for most Germans, popular regime. The German workers, on the whole, preferred secure jobs to civil rights which had meant little to them."

[35] It is said that the 'little horn' will suspend the morning and evening sacrifice for 2,300 days (Dan 8:13). That is for about for 6 years and 4 months. If in this case if one considers food as the required sacrifice for the upkeep of the human-body temple, then, the Nazis by starving the Jews for the duration of the Holocaust (1939-1945) fulfilled this part of Daniel's prophesy. (NB. However, based on ones preferred calculation, if one doubles the 2300 days, one arrives at duration of about 12 years and 8 months. This gives us roughly the period the Nazis lasted in power (1933 – 1945)).

[40] According to prophecy (Dan 11:36-39,) the Antichrist will be anti-traditionalist. The 'little horn' will have a clean break with the traditions and customs of the people. What it will bring into national life will be an imported god, a foreign idea, with little root in the customs and traditions of the people. The idea being foreign, then it has to be bolstered and secured with force of arms. The subject people have to pay a very stiff price to comply. Only those who conform can make a living out of the system.

[58] This conforms Daniel's words that the Antichrist will worship the god of strongholds (Dan. 11:38). In modern parlance, that he puts much faith in military build up and use of military power.

[59] According to prophecy (Dan 11:18) the 'northern power' (Antichrist) will succeed in his expansion campaigns until it is stopped by an opposing power. In its Middle East and Africa adventures, many ME Arab countries will be spared its control; but north and northeast Africa would come under its influence (Dan. 11: 41-43).

[60] In this instance, the case of Hungry (1956), Czechoslovakia (1968) and that of Afghanistan (1980) can be considered as clear cut cases of direct Soviet military interventions.

A Place For Him To Rest
Francis Frangipane

In the kingdom, there are no great men of God, just humble men whom God has chosen to use greatly. How do we know when we are humble? When God speaks, we tremble. God is looking for a man who trembles at His Word. Such a man will find the Spirit of God resting upon him; he will become a dwelling place for the Almighty.

Entering the Sabbath Rest of God

Heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest? -Isaiah 66:1

God asks for nothing but ourselves. Our beautiful church buildings, our slick professionalism, all are nearly useless to God. He does not want what we have; He wants who we are. He seeks to create in our hearts a sanctuary for Himself, a place where He may rest.

In the Scriptures this rest is called "the Sabbath rest." It does not, however, come from keeping the Sabbath, for the Jews kept the Sabbath, but they never entered God's rest. The book of Hebrews is plain: Joshua did not give the Israelites rest (see Heb 4:78). And after so long a period of Sabbath-keeping, the Scripture continues, "There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God" (Heb 4:9). This rest was something beyond keeping the seventh day holy.

The question must be asked then, "What is this Sabbath rest?" Let us explore Genesis in pursuit of our answer. "Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work" (Gen 2:3). Before God rested on the Sabbath, there was nothing special or holy about the seventh day. Had the Lord rested on the third day, then it would have been holy. Rest is not in the Sabbath, it is in God. Rest is a prevailing quality of His completeness.

Revelation 4:6 describes the throne of God as having before it, as it were, "a sea of glass, like crystal." A sea of glass is a sea without waves or ripples, a symbol of the imperturbable calm of God. Let us grasp this point: the Sabbath was not a source of rest for God; He was the Source of rest for the Sabbath. As it is written, "the Creator of the ends of the earth does not become weary or tired" (Isa 40:28). And even as the Sabbath became holy when God rested upon it, so we become holy as we put away sin, as the fullness of God settles and rests upon us.

In our study, we are not associating God's rest merely with the sense of being rebuilt or rejuvenated, which we obviously need and associate with human rest. The rest we seek is not a rejuvenation of our energy, it is the exchange of energy: our life for God's, through which the vessel of our humanity is filled with the Divine Presence and all-sufficiency of Christ Himself.

Enveloped and Permeated with God

The Hebrew word for rest was "nuach" and, among other things, it meant "to rest, remain, be quiet." It also indicated a "complete envelopment and thus permeation," as in the spirit of Elijah "resting" on Elisha, or when wisdom "rests in the heart of him who has understanding." God is not looking for a place where He can merely cease from His labors with men. He seeks a relationship where He can "completely envelop and thus permeate" every dimension of our lives; where He can tabernacle, remain, and be quiet within us.

When God's rest abides upon us, we live in union with Jesus the same way He lived in union with the Father (see John 10:1415). Christ's thought-life was "completely enveloped and thus permeated" with the Presence of God. He did only those things He saw and heard His Father do. He declared, "the Father abiding in Me does His works" (John 14:10). There is rest because it is Christ working through us! Jesus promises us, "If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it" (John 14:14). How vain we are to think we can do miracles, love our enemies, or do any of the works of God without Christ doing His works through us!

This is why Jesus said, "Come to Me . . . and I will give you rest" (Matt 11:28). In a storm-tossed boat on the sea of Galilee, Christ's terrified disciples came to Him. Their cries were the cries of men about to die. Jesus rebuked the tempest, and immediately the wind and sea became "perfectly calm"-even as calm as He was (Matt 8:26). What program, what degree of ministerial professionalism can compare with the life and power we receive through Him?

You see, our efforts, no matter how much we spend of ourselves, cannot produce the rest or life of God. We must come to Him. Many leaders have worked themselves nearly to exhaustion seeking to serve God. If they spent half their time with Him, in prayer and waiting before Him, they would find His supernatural accompaniment working mightily in their efforts. They would become passengers in the vehicle of His will, a vehicle in which He Himself is both Captain and Navigator.

Cease Striving, Know, then Obey

To enter God's rest requires we abide in full surrender to His will, in perfect trust of His power. We learn to rest from our works "as God did from His" (Heb 4:10). It requires diligence, however, to enter God's rest (see Heb 4:11). To "rest from our labors" does not mean we have stopped working; it means we have stopped the laborious work of the flesh and sin. It means we have entered the eternal works which He brings forth through us.

The turmoil caused by unbelief is brought to rest by faith. The strife rooted in unforgiveness is removed by love. Our fearful thoughts, He arrests through trust; our many questions are answered by His wisdom. Such is the mind which has entered the rest of God.

The church needs to possess the knowledge of God's ways, for herein do we enter His rest (see Heb 3:812). We gain such knowledge through obedience to God's Word during conflicts. As we obey God through the testings of life, we learn how to deal with situations as God would. Consequently, it is of the utmost value to hear what God is speaking to us, and especially so when life seems to be a wilderness of hardship and trials.

Therefore, the Spirit says, Today if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts as when they provoked Me, as in the day of trial in the wilderness. . . . Therefore I was angry with this generation, and said, "They always go astray in their heart; and they did not know My ways"; as I swore in My wrath, they shall not enter My rest. -Hebrews 3:78, 1011

He says, "they always go astray in their heart . . . they did not know My ways . . . they shall not enter My rest." Let us understand: Knowing God's ways leads to His rest.

We must see that there is no rest in a hardened heart. There is no rest when we rebel against God.

Our rest comes from becoming honest about our needs and allowing Christ to change us.

Thus Jesus said, "Learn from Me . . . and you shall find rest for your souls" (Matt 11:29). Stop fighting with God and learn from Him! Let His Word put to death the torments of the sin nature. Cease struggling, cease wrestling against the Blessed One. Trust Him! For eventually His Word will plunder the defenses of your heart. Be committed to your surrender! In time He shall no longer use adversity to reach your heart, for you shall delight in being vulnerable to Him. Continue your diligent yielding until even His whisper brings sweet trembling to your soul. Far more precious than the men of a hundred nations is one man perfectly given to the Spirit of God. This man is God's tabernacle, the one to whom God looks . . . and is well-pleased.

He says, "Heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest? For My hand made all these things, thus all these things came into being" (Isa 66:12). Yet, incredibly, one man with one quality of heart captures the attention and promise of God. "But to this one I will look, to him who is humble and contrite of spirit, and who trembles at My word" (v 2).

God looks to the man who trembles when He speaks. For in him the holy power of the Most High can, without striving, abide in perfect peace. He has learned the ways of God; he delights in obedience. He has chosen to give God what He asks: nothing less than all he is. In return, this man becomes a place, a holy place, where God Himself can rest.

A Prophecy For Native America

by 6/11/04

And after I have plucked them up, I will return And have compassion on them and will bring them back again, Every man to his heritage and every man to his land. (Jeremiah 12:15)

This scripture pertains to both Jew and Gentile. The Lord has said that He shall pluck up the nations from their land who have touched the inheritance of Israel, and He shall pluck up the house of Judah (praise) from among them. Then shall He return and have compassion on them and restore them to their heritage and their land! The house of Judah (praise) is in the process of being plucked up from these nations and sent back into His Holy service, to worship the Living God. Although there are many Jews who are in this cycle of restoration; (and we wait with great anticipation for the revelation of the one new man to be complete), I am really referring to the Gentiles who are among the house of Judah (praise). They as well have been plucked up and called to worship the True and Living God!

The America that exists at this present time is a mongrel nation. I myself am a mixture of French, English, Scottish and Welch. You may also include me as Native American by the sole virtue of the fact that I am a full blood Wannabe! America, as much as she wants to be, is not a nation unto herself; Native Americans are the True Fathers of this land. All indigenous peoples who originally bore the children of the land are the fathers.

Those Gentiles of foreign nations who heard the call of the Living God, and migrated to North America, came with a true commission. If they had only known the lover Jesus in an intimate way they would not have operated in the kind of fear and arrogance that led to the senseless slaughter of a ravishingly beautiful people, Native Americans. Had they followed the examples of the apostle Paul and his ministry to the Gentiles, there would be no need for all this discourse. Our forefathers were all puffed up with religion, which kept them blind to the fact they were on equal terms with the Native Americans as Gentiles. Perhaps the greatest tragedy is the lost chance for Christian Gentiles to embrace Native American Gentiles in the love of Christ instead of the religion of man! Or is it? I say that this is not forever a lost opportunity. The forefathers of what is now the United States were foreigners, and guests in this land. Native Americans were the stewards and the true fathers of the real America, (Turtle Island). Though they didn't see that then, let's not skirt that truth any longer. Native Americans are the fathers in this land, and they will gather the children together in unity in the last great revival.

Malachi 4:6:
"And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to the fathers."

O if the missionaries only knew their true place when they came here. If only they understood the ways of God. When the Lord brings a wave of healing, restoration, and revival to the Native Americans on a large scale they will receive the grace for the kind of forgiveness that Jesus pours out. Not even a sparrow falls to the ground with out our Father in heaven knowing it. When we come to know Him and see Him for who He really is we have no choice but to let go of our own judgments; especially those judgments that give us soulish protection from our deepest wounds.

There is not only a heart of reconciliation that God has for the indigenous people of this nation, but there is a mandate of recompense. Casinos are NOT the price. The Lord has said, they shall be returned to their heritage and to their land! This scripture speaks of both Jew and Gentile, and certainly Native Americans. They indeed have been plucked up, and since then, the house of Judah (praise) has been found in them and they have been released by the Lord as His remnant and forerunners, making highways in the dessert for the rest of the native nations of this land, and in foreign lands as well.

Prophecy

As you, the indigenous fathers of this land receive the Lord in these last days; you will have the grace to forgive the evil that was forced upon you. You will step into your destiny in Christ, not as nations, but as one nation.

Your heritage; land, language, art, dance, and music, yes your whole culture shall be restored to all of you. The diversity of the Native American Nations and the mongrels who also reside on this land and represent the nations of the whole world will come together in unity under the True and Living God to embrace one another in Love, and in Christ, to the glory of God and to the destruction of the religious spirit. The Native American role as fathers in this land will be known by the great revival they will lead in the last days.

The Lord has reserved America as His trump card. Although America has hit a record low in spiritual life in these days, we also have prophecies of destiny for America. We have all wondered why God has moved in such a supernatural realm in 3rd world countries, while America seems to be in a spiritual slumber. But the Lord is about ready to bring America into the greatest revival that the world has ever seen.

Habakkuk 1:5 (amplified):
"Look around [you, Habakkuk, replied the Lord] among the nations and see! And be astonished! Astounded! For I am putting into effect a work in your days [such] that you would not believe it if it were told to you..."

Acts 13:41 (amplified):
"Look, you scoffers and scorners, and marvel and perish and vanish away; for I am doing a deed in your days, a deed which you will never have confidence in or believe, [even] if someone [clearly describing it in detail] declares it to you."

"The first shall be last and the last shall be first". Another way to say this is "The former and the latter shall rain together". The Lord has saved the best wine for last yet again! Indeed America is the trump card of the Lord. Would anyone dare to believe it? Would anyone be inclined to hear the word of the Lord? This land has a history of firsts and lasts. Those native to this land are the first. The foreigners who came in the last few centuries are the last.

Native Americans and the pilgrims celebrated the first Thanksgiving. The Natives at that time were looked upon as the elders of this land. In fact, Columbus called them God's people. The children of this land will know this truth again. I tell you that the Native Americans and all the other nations which are represented here in North America will share the banquet table of the Lord in the last and most powerful time of thanksgiving this natural world has ever seen, in what will be realized as the last great revival in the world. All nations will be flowing to Zion. Come let's go up to the mountain of the Lord. All the nations of the world will find the unity and brotherhood of Christ in this land, and the fathers of this land will lead us in the song of the Lamb. Prepare your hearts O Native America. The Lord is going to restore the very roots of your ancient culture, and bring an anointing to heal your people and your land in the very midst of it. Rejoice, for your hour is close at hand! Amen and Amen!!!

Mal 4:5-6 NKJV Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. 6 And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."

2 Cor 12:11-12 NKJV Signs of an Apostle
I have become a fool in boasting; you have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you; for in nothing was I behind the most eminent apostles, though I am nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and wonders and mighty deeds.

“I made a covenant with the world that before the day of the Lord, I would send Elijah to restore the hearts of the children to the father and the hearts of fathers and mothers to the children. Hearts are restored when they know the truth of MY LOVE! Hearts are restored when they have embraced forgiveness and let go of bitterness and pain, grief and sorrow for all that they have been through.

I have come to set men free – FREE to WORSHIP ME ALONE! I am the Father and it is MY HEART the lost need to understand and to be reconciled to! It is MY heart that those in the CHURCH need to be restored to! Then I can restore to them all that has been destroyed in their lives. If they are yoked to man, and not to ME, then they continue to go in circles. They continue in a cycle of dependency that is NOT on ME. Independence from ME is NOT the goal of the church. Many are pursuing a dream that is a lie. Many are pursuing self-sufficiency, and success in the way the world means success. THIS IS NOT MY PLAN! It is your plan. It is the way of the world.

Even now, I am loosing the reigns on many of My chosen apostles. They will not come to you wearing “ apostle” on their T-shirts and claiming to be what they are not. Many false apostles have gone forth luring people unto themselves. But I send apostles to lift ME up…When I am lifted up, I will draw all men to Myself. The apostles and prophets POINT to the KING. The apostle does not laud himself and hoard riches unto himself. He uses the riches to build the kingdom, so that all will SHARE in the necessities of life…and so that none are in LACK.

They are presecuted because they bring a message of REPENTANCE like the early apostles did, and as I MYSELF DID! They are persecuted for calling my children to repent and to cast aside the ways of the world. It is not a call that many would want to take on. If you look at their lives, you will see that their way was not the easy way. They took the narrow path.

They stood for HOLINESS and RIGHTEOUSNESS and they lived that holiness and DEMONSTRATED the Kingdom. They didn’t just talk about it, but people’s lives were changed when they prayed for them. They established true doctrine. And it is this FOUNDATION that I am restoring. The church is built on the blood of the apostles and prophets. Never were they loved but by those who were truly Mine. They endured hardship, as true soldiers of the Cross. They took up their cross and followed ME. They didn’t hesitate. They didn’t hesitate to GIVE THEIR ALL TO ME and for My Kingdom!

They walked in HOLINESS. They did not walk according to the ways of the world and their own desires. Without holiness, no one will see GOD!
2 Cor 7:1 NKJV Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

1 Thess 4:7-8 NKJV For God did not call us to uncleanness, but in holiness. 8 Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, who has also given us His Holy Spirit.
Heb 12:14-16 NKJV Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord: 15 looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled;

Apostolic power comes with apostolic holiness. THAT is why you are meandering through roads of faith and trials My beloveds. You must be willing to lay down your life if you want to keep it! You must be willing to lay down all the hidden sins, and all the hidden sinful attitudes that keep you from the holiness I WANT for you! I am perfecting you in holiness that you might receive the power I want to pour into you.

I AM THE SOURCE of all you need. So what it takes is coming to ME. RECEIVING FROM ME. Laying down your life, will cause you to save it! Sanctify yourselves with the TRUTH! Know that if you want all of ME, to be filled with the fullness of ME, that you must know MY LOVE in great DEPTH and to know the beauty of MY HOLINESS! Worship Me and I will lift you higher My loves. WORSHIP ME through the pain. Worship ME through the loss and sorrow, through the trials and temptations! For I AM RESTORING. AND, I am building greater FAITH to show you that I will take you through anything. So that when MY judgments fall, you will be able to lead others into the TRUTH of My covenant.

Many of you are walking on water. You are in a walk or test of FAITH, because you have ASKED ME for greater faith. How can you gain more faith without it being tested My love? Cling to the sweetness of MY WORD. SPEAK IT INTO THE HEAVENS. SPEAK IT TO THE DEMONIC REALM, that they might know that you are clinging to ME, and not to sorrow over circumstances! Shout from the rooftop what you hear in your ear! REJOICE in ALL THINGS, and you will overcome all things!

The one thing all my true apostles knew, was the power of MY LOVE. They walked and talked with ME. They knew ME. They knew My heart. And they learned to demonstrate it to others through all they went through on My behalf. They suffered WITH ME, and they received MY GLORY! They learned to grieve over what I grieved over. They learned to rejoice in all things, and prison doors opened, and ways of escape from death were realized due to their learning to PRAISE ME IN ALL THINGS and under all circumstances. PRAISE is the key to LIFE, and authority. The enemy comes but to steal, rob and destroy your joy, peace and happiness in Me. If you can show him, that you will not ALLOW IT TO BE ROBBED, then you will walk in more power and authority than you have ever known, rather than getting into complaining and self pity and sorrow!"

1 Thess 2:6-8 NKJV Nor did we seek glory from men, either from you or from others, when we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. 7 But we were gentle among you, just as a nursing mother cherishes her own children. 8 So, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own lives, because you had become dear to us.

1 Cor 12:28 AMP So God has appointed some in the church [for His own use]: first apostles (special messengers); second prophets (inspired preachers and expounders); third teachers; then wonder-workers; then those with ability to heal the sick; helpers; administrators; [speakers in] different (unknown) tongues.

Eph 2:20-22 NKJV having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, 21 in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, 22 in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.
James 5:17-18 NKJV Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. 18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

Luke 11:48-51 NKJV In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. 49 Therefore the wisdom of God also said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,' 50 that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, 51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.

Luke 9:10 NKJV Feeding the Five Thousand
(Matt 14:13-21; Mark 6:30-44; John 6:1-15)
And the apostles, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done. Then He took them and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.
Mark 6:30-31 NKJV Feeding the Five Thousand (Matt 14:13-21; Luke 9:10-17; John 6:1-14) Then the apostles gathered to Jesus and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught. 31 And He said to them, "Come aside by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." For there were many coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.
Eph 4:11-13 NKJV And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, 12 for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, 13 till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; 14 that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, 15 but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head — Christ —

2 Peter 3:2-9 NKJV that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior, 3 knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation." 5 For this they willfully forget: that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water, 6 by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water. 7 But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 8 But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9 The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

Jude 17-19 NKJV But you, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ: 18 how they told you that there would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own ungodly lusts. 19 These are sensual persons, who cause divisions, not having the Spirit.

Rev 2:1-5 NKJV The Loveless Church
"To the angel of the church of Ephesus write,
'These things says He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands: 2 "I know your works, your labor, your patience, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. And you have tested those who say they are apostles and are not, and have found them liars; 3 and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name's sake and have not become weary. 4 Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love.

Eph 3:2-7 NKJV if indeed you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which was given to me for you, 3 how that by revelation He made known to me the mystery (as I have briefly written already, 4 by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ), 5 which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets: 6 that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, 7 of which I became a minister according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effective working of His power.

Gal 1:15-17 NKJV But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called me through His grace, 16 to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

1 Cor 4:9-14 AMP For it seems to me that God has made an exhibit of us apostles, exposing us to view last [of all, like men in a triumphal procession who are] sentenced to death [and displayed at the end of the line]. For we have become a spectacle to the world [a show in the world's amphitheater] with both men and angels [as spectators].
10 We are [looked upon as] fools on account of Christ and for His sake, but you are [supposedly] so amazingly wise and prudent in Christ! We are weak, but you are [so very] strong! You are highly esteemed, but we are in disrepute and contempt!
11 To this hour we have gone both hungry and thirsty; we [habitually] wear but one undergarment [and shiver in the cold]; we are roughly knocked about and wander around homeless.
12 And we still toil unto weariness [for our living], working hard with our own hands. When men revile us [wound us with an accursed sting], we bless them. When we are persecuted, we take it patiently and endure it.
13 When we are slandered and defamed, we [try to] answer softly and bring comfort. We have been made and are now the rubbish and filth of the world [the offscouring of all things, the scum of the earth].
14 I do not write this to shame you, but to warn and counsel you as my beloved children.

2 Cor 11:1-6 AMP
1 I WISH you would bear with me while I indulge in a little [so-called] foolishness. Do bear with me! 2 For I am zealous for you with a godly eagerness and a divine jealousy, for I have betrothed you to one Husband, to present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. [Hos 2:19,20.] 3 But [now] I am fearful, lest that even as the serpent beguiled Eve by his cunning, so your minds may be corrupted and seduced from wholehearted and sincere and pure devotion to Christ. [Gen 3:4.] 4 For [you seem readily to endure it] if a man comes and preaches another Jesus than the one we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the [Spirit] you [once] received or a different gospel from the one you [then] received and welcomed; you tolerate [all that] well enough! 5 Yet I consider myself as in no way inferior to these [precious] extra-super [false] apostles. 6 But even if [I am] unskilled in speaking, yet [I am] not [unskilled] in knowledge [I know what I am talking about]; we have made this evident to you in all things.

2 Cor 11:12-33 AMP But what I do, I will continue to do, [for I am determined to maintain this independence] in order to cut off the claim of those who would like [to find an occasion and incentive] to claim that in their boasted [mission] they work on the same terms that we do.
13 For such men are false apostles [spurious, counterfeits], deceitful workmen, masquerading as apostles (special messengers) of Christ (the Messiah). 14 And it is no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light;
15 So it is not surprising if his servants also masquerade as ministers of righteousness. [But] their end will correspond with their deeds.
16 I repeat then, let no one think I have lost my wits; but even if you do, then bear with a witless man, so that I too may boast a little.
17 What I say by way of this confident boasting, I say not with the Lord's authority [by inspiration] but, as it were, in pure witlessness.
18 [For] since many boast of worldly things and according to the flesh, I will glory (boast) also.
19 For you readily and gladly bear with the foolish, since you are so smart and wise yourselves!
20 For you endure it if a man assumes control of your souls and makes slaves of you, or devours [your substance, spends your money] and preys upon you, or deceives and takes advantage of you, or is arrogant and puts on airs, or strikes you in the face.
21 To my discredit, I must say, we have shown ourselves too weak [for you to show such tolerance of us and for us to do strong, courageous things like that to you]! But in whatever any person is bold and dares [to boast]--mind you, I am speaking in this foolish (witless) way--I also am bold and dare [to boast].
22 They are Hebrews? So am I! They are Israelites? So am I! They are descendants of Abraham? So am I!
23 Are they [ministering] servants of Christ (the Messiah)? I am talking like one beside himself, [but] I am more, with far more extensive and abundant labors, with far more imprisonments, [beaten] with countless stripes, and frequently [at the point of] death.
24 five times I received from [the hands of] the Jews forty [lashes all] but one; [Deut 25:3.]
25 three times I have been beaten with rods; once I was stoned. three times I have been aboard a ship wrecked at sea; a [whole] night and a day I have spent [adrift] on the deep;

26 Many times on journeys, [exposed to] perils from rivers, perils from bandits, perils from [my own] nation, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the desert places, perils in the sea, perils from those posing as believers [but destitute of Christian knowledge and piety];
27 In toil and hardship, watching often [through sleepless nights], in hunger and thirst, frequently driven to fasting by want, in cold and exposure and lack of clothing.
28 And besides those things that are without, there is the daily [inescapable pressure] of my care and anxiety for all the churches!
29 Who is weak, and I do not feel [his] weakness? Who is made to stumble and fall and have his faith hurt, and I am not on fire [with sorrow or indignation]?
30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that [show] my infirmity [of the things by which I am made weak and contemptible in the eyes of my opponents].
31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ knows, He Who is blessed and to be praised forevermore, that I do not lie.
32 In Damascus, the city governor acting under King Aretas guarded the city of Damascus [on purpose] to arrest me,
33 And I was [actually] let down in a [rope] basket or hamper through a window (a small door) in the wall, and I escaped through his fingers.

2 Cor 12:10-12 AMP
10 So for the sake of Christ, I am well pleased and take pleasure in infirmities, insults, hardships, persecutions, perplexities and distresses; for when I am weak [in human strength], then am I [truly] strong (able, powerful in divine strength).
11 Now I have been [speaking like] a fool! But you forced me to it, for I ought to have been [saved the necessity and] commended by you. For I have not fallen short one bit or proved myself at all inferior to those superlative [false] apostles [of yours], even if I am nothing (a nobody).
12 Indeed, the signs that indicate a [genuine] apostle were performed among you fully and most patiently in miracles and wonders and mighty works.
1 Cor 15:10 AMP But by the grace (the unmerited favor and blessing) of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not [found to be] for nothing (fruitless and without effect). In fact, I worked harder than all of them [the apostles], though it was not really I, but the grace (the unmerited favor and blessing) of God which was with me.

1 Cor 12:29-31 AMP Are all apostles (special messengers)? Are all prophets (inspired interpreters of the will and purposes of God)? Are all teachers? Do all have the power of performing miracles? 30 Do all possess extraordinary powers of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? 31 But earnestly desire and zealously cultivate the greatest and best gifts and graces (the higher gifts and the choicest graces). And yet I will show you a still more excellent way [one that is better by far and the highest of them all--love].
1 Cor 9:5 AMP Have we not the right also to take along with us a Christian sister as wife, as do the other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Cephas (Peter)?

Rom 16:7 NKJV Greet Andronicus and Junia, my countrymen and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

Acts 5:17-20 NKJV Imprisoned Apostles Freed
Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with indignation, 18 and laid their hands on the apostles and put them in the common prison. 19 But at night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, and said, 20 "Go, stand in the temple and speak to the people all the words of this life."

Acts 2:37-39 NKJV Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?" 38 Then Peter said to them, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call."

Acts 2:42-45 NKJV And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers. 43 Then fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. 44 Now all who believed were together, and had all things in common, 45 and sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as anyone had need.

Acts 4:34-37 NKJV Nor was there anyone among them who lacked; for all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, 35 and laid them at the apostles' feet; and they distributed to each as anyone had need.

Acts 5:12-14 NKJV Continuing Power in the Church And through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. And they were all with one accord in Solomon's Porch. 13 Yet none of the rest dared join them, but the people esteemed them highly. 14 And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women,

The God of Jeshurun
Priscilla Van Sutphin

June 2nd, 2004

I was sitting here playing one cell and listening to worship, and I heard...

"Who is a God like that of Jeshurun..."

So I looked up the scriptures using this name, and the meaning.

I believe it is a call to the body to come right again...to become righteous.

Of course that only happens as we surrender to HIM, and get in His presence, and are molded by the circumstances and interactions He brings into our lives. We have to cooperate with His Most Holy Spirit. It also seems to be saying that destruction and judgment is at hand - perilous times.

I thought to the encounter at the coffee shop tonight. I was sitting with two youth and one older man. We were talking about rehabilitating prisoners, and how different things could be done to bring responsibility, healing and accountability into their lives, and about the local marine base that was shut down and how it could be used for that.

Shortly thereafter, an elderly man came by with little cards he was passing out to beg for money. He was deaf per the card. I signed to him "Jesus loves you", and indicated I had no money, and the older guy he gave a card to, didn't want to give, so I asked him if I could borrow a dollar so I could give him something and he obliged me and I gave the man a dollar, and later went to the bank to get some money to repay him.

Now as I'm writing this, I am convicted that it was a perfect opportunity to DEMONSTRATE the love of God through praying for him, like Peter outside the gate beautiful. [Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I can give to you!] And I am horrified at my own lack of sensitivity at that moment in not looking to the Spirit. But here we had just talked about rehab, and how people discard the homeless and don't care for them, yet in that moment, none of us did all that was needed, I am ashamed to report. Here I have been to India and seen the deaf hear, and seen such miracles, yet I didn't even ask if he would like prayer. The others were only talking about helping, but when the opportunity came - nothing. We get so caught up with what we are doing we ignore the obvious sometimes. One youth had just given smokes to a young guy that was out of him, who I was discerning was fully packed with demonic bondage, angry and bitter, and tormented. Here we all had opportunity to DO something to demonstrate the love of God. I am thinking, why didn't I get the dependency on HIM in that very moment? Maybe it wasn't time, but I've done it before, then I thought that God wanted to say something about this enactment.

One of the things we had spoken of, was my recent attempt to rescue a young woman I met in Romania from abuse she was experiencing...beatings and abuse from the very people who were supposed to help her. So this other ministry wrote and I mentioned her and they offered to call her and visit her! I was so shocked they would be willing.

Then they did, and it all turned into a fiasco. In the melee of events it was hard to discern from my end what was truly going on. Then the Lord gave me an object lesson.

A friend had been visiting and she happened, as she left, upon a small sparrow that had been carried out of its nest by crows intent on eating it. It was lying in the driveway about 15 feet from my car. She had disrupted the crows, but then called me to come look - like maybe I could rescue it, and it was in shock, unable to move much. I revived it enough such that it began to respond and peep, but wouldn't open it's mouth to drink water from the dropper or anything and later that night the poor thing died separated from it's parents.

This friend is also someone I have tried to help, but who has been very unteachable in certain areas. Sometimes though our intentions are best, they are interfering with what God is doing. Sometimes we do what we think is best and it still doesn't work. Without HIS guidance, and fullness of revelation from Him, we can flounder around and not be effective. I pray next time I will be able to be more dependent to hear what the Lord is saying, to be more consistent with relying on Him.

OT:3484 Yeshuruwn (yesh-oo-roon'); from OT:3474; upright; Jeshurun, a symbol. name for Israel: KJV - Jeshurun.

OT:3474 yashar (yaw-shar'); a primitive root; to be straight or even; figuratively, to be (causatively, to make) right, pleasant, prosperous: KJV - direct, fit, seem good (meet), please (will), be (esteem, go) right (on), bring (look, make, take the) straight (way), be upright (-ly).

JESH'URUN

(jesh'u-run; "upright"). An honorable surname given to Israel (Deut 32:15; 33:5,26; Isa 44:2; in the latter, "Jesurun" in the KJV) and representing Israel as a nation of just or upright men. The epithet righteous nation, as we may render Jeshurun, was intended to remind Israel of its calling and involved the severest reproof of its apostasy.

Isa 44:1-20 NKJV God's Blessing on Israel

"Yet hear me now, O Jacob My servant, and Israel whom I have chosen. 2 Thus says the LORD who made you and formed you from the womb, who will help you: 'Fear not, O Jacob My servant; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen. 3 For I will pour water on him who is thirsty, and floods on the dry ground; I will pour My Spirit on your descendants, and My blessing on your offspring; 4 They will spring up among the grass like willows by the watercourses.' 5 One will say, 'I am the LORD's'; another will call himself by the name of Jacob; another will write with his hand, 'The LORD's, 'And name himself by the name of Israel. 6 There Is No Other God "Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: 'I am the First and I am the Last; besides Me there is no God. 7 And who can proclaim as I do? Then let him declare it and set it in order for Me, since I appointed the ancient people. And the things that are coming and shall come, let them show these to them. 8 Do not fear, nor be afraid; Have I not told you from that time, and declared it? You are My witnesses. Is there a God besides Me? Indeed there is no other Rock; I know not one.'"

9 Idolatry Is Foolishness

Those who make an image, all of them are useless, and their precious things shall not profit; they are their own witnesses; They neither see nor know, that they may be ashamed. 10 Who would form a god or mold an image that profits him nothing? 11 Surely all his companions would be ashamed; and the workmen, they are mere men. Let them all be gathered together, Let them stand up; Yet they shall fear, They shall be ashamed together.

12 The blacksmith with the tongs works one in the coals, fashions it with hammers, and works it with the strength of his arms. Even so, he is hungry, and his strength fails; He drinks no water and is faint.
13 The craftsman stretches out his rule, He marks one out with chalk; He fashions it with a plane, He marks it out with the compass, and makes it like the figure of a man, According to the beauty of a man, that it may remain in the house. 14 He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes the cypress and the oak; He secures it for himself among the trees of the forest. He plants a pine, and the rain nourishes it.
15 Then it shall be for a man to burn, for he will take some of it and warm himself; Yes, he kindles it and bakes bread; Indeed he makes a god and worships it; He makes it a carved image, and falls down to it. 16 He burns half of it in the fire; With this half he eats meat; He roasts a roast, and is satisfied. He even warms himself and says, "Ah! I am warm, I have seen the fire." 17 And the rest of it he makes into a god, His carved image. He falls down before it and worships it, Prays to it and says, "Deliver me, for you are my god!"
18 They do not know nor understand; For He has shut their eyes, so that they cannot see, and their hearts, so that they cannot understand. 19 And no one considers in his heart, Nor is there knowledge nor understanding to say," I have burned half of it in the fire, Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals; I have roasted meat and eaten it; And shall I make the rest of it an abomination? Shall I fall down before a block of wood?" 20 He feeds on ashes; A deceived heart has turned him aside; And he cannot deliver his soul, Nor say, "Is there not a lie in my right hand?"

Isa 44:21- 28 Israel Is Not Forgotten

"Remember these, O Jacob, And Israel, for you are My servant; I have formed you, you are My servant; O Israel, you will not be forgotten by Me! 22 I have blotted out, like a thick cloud, your transgressions, And like a cloud, your sins. Return to Me, for I have redeemed you." 23 Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it! Shout, you lower parts of the earth; Break forth into singing, you mountains, O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and glorified Himself in Israel.
24 Judah Will Be Restored

Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, and He who formed you from the womb: "I am the LORD, who makes all things, Who stretches out the heavens all alone, Who spreads abroad the earth by Myself; 25 Who frustrates the signs of the babblers, And drives diviners mad; Who turns wise men backward, And makes their knowledge foolishness; 26 Who confirms the word of His servant, And performs the counsel of His messengers; Who says to Jerusalem, 'You shall be inhabited, 'To the cities of Judah, 'You shall be built,' And I will raise up her waste places; 27 Who says to the deep, 'Be dry! And I will dry up your rivers'; 28 Who says of Cyrus, 'He is My shepherd, And he shall perform all My pleasure, Saying to Jerusalem, "You shall be built," And to the temple, "Your foundation shall be laid."'

This is the second time in a few days that I got the above verses 24-27.

Deut 33:24-29 NKJV

24 And of Asher he said: "Asher is most blessed of sons; Let him be favored by his brothers, and let him dip his foot in oil. 25 Your sandals shall be iron and bronze; as your days, so shall your strength be.
26 "There is no one like the God of Jeshurun, Who rides the heavens to help you, And in His excellency on the clouds. 27 The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms; He will thrust out the enemy from before you, and will say, 'Destroy!' 28 Then Israel shall dwell in safety, the fountain of Jacob alone, In a land of grain and new wine; His heavens shall also drop dew. 29 Happy are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, the shield of your help And the sword of your majesty! Your enemies shall submit to you, and you shall tread down their high places."

Deut 33:3 NKJV Yes, He loves the people; All His saints are in Your hand; They sit down at

Your feet; everyone receives Your words.

This 333 number has come up lately along with 222 and 22:22.

I read that in the book of Songs, it says My beloved 22 times and My love 22 times. Some of these number combinations seem to represent to us, the love of the LORD for us and how much He will be with us in this final hour of history.

Deut 32:1-47 NKJV Song of Moses
1 "Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. 2 Let my teaching drop as the rain, My speech distill as the dew, as raindrops on the tender herb, and as showers on the grass. 3 For I proclaim the name of the LORD: Ascribe greatness to our God. 4 He is the Rock, His work is perfect; for all His ways are justice, a God of truth and without injustice; Righteous and upright is He.
5 "They have corrupted themselves; They are not His children, because of their blemish: A perverse and crooked generation. 6 Do you thus deal with the LORD,

O foolish and unwise people? Is He not your Father, who bought you? Has He not made you and established you?
7 "Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations. Ask your father, and he will show you; Your elders, and they will tell you: 8 When the Most High divided their inheritance to the nations, when He separated the sons of Adam, He set the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the children of Israel. 9 For the LORD's portion is His people; Jacob is the place of His inheritance.
10 "He found him in a desert land And in the wasteland, a howling wilderness; He encircled him, He instructed him, He kept him as the apple of His eye. 11 As an eagle stirs up its nest, hovers over its young, spreading out its wings, taking them up, carrying them on its wings, 12 So the LORD alone led him, and there was no foreign god with him.
13 "He made him ride in the heights of the earth, that he might eat the produce of the fields; He made him draw honey from the Rock, and oil from the flinty Rock; 14 Curds from the cattle, and milk of the flock, with fat of lambs; and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats,

I capitalized the Rock words here to emphasize that it is symbolic...we draw honey = sweetness from the LIVING WORD. And we also draw OIL from the flinty Rock...the Spirit of God.

15 "But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked; You grew fat, you grew thick, You are obese! Then he forsook God who made him,And scornfully esteemed the Rock of his salvation. 16 They provoked Him to jealousy with foreign gods; With abominations they provoked Him to anger. 17 They sacrificed to demons, not to God, To gods they did not know, To new gods, new arrivals that your fathers did not fear. 18 Of the Rock who begot you, you are unmindful, and have forgotten the God who fathered you.

I thought to a vision someone sent me tonight of the coming of the new age leader...and that is type of provoking Him to jealousy with worshipping demons or another god...a form of godliness with no power thereof, or the wrong power.

19 "And when the LORD saw it, He spurned them, because of the provocation of His sons and His daughters. 20 And He said: 'I will hide My face from them, I will see what their end will be, for they are a perverse generation, Children in whom is no faith.

The above is surely for now eh?

21 They have provoked Me to jealousy by what is not God; They have moved Me to anger by their foolish idols. But I will provoke them to jealousy by those who are not a nation; I will move them to anger by a foolish nation. 22 For a fire is kindled in My anger, and shall burn to the lowest hell; It shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 'I will heap disasters on them; I will spend My arrows on them. 24 They shall be wasted with hunger, Devoured by pestilence and bitter destruction; I will also send against them the teeth of beasts, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

25 The sword shall destroy outside; There shall be terror within for the young man and virgin, the nursing child with the man of gray hairs. 26 I would have said, "I will dash them in pieces, I will make the memory of them to cease from among men," 27 Had I not feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should misunderstand, lest they should say, "Our hand is high; and it is not the LORD who has done all this."'
28 "For they are a nation void of counsel, nor is there any understanding in them. 29 Oh, that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end! 30 How could one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had surrendered them?

31 For their rock is not like our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges. 32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom and of the fields of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter. 33 Their wine is the poison of serpents, and the cruel venom of cobras.

34 'Is this not laid up in store with Me, sealed up among My treasures? 35 Vengeance is Mine, and recompense; Their foot shall slip in due time; For the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things to come hasten upon them.'
36 "For the LORD will judge His people and have compassion on His servants, when He sees that their power is gone, and there is no one remaining, bond or free. 37 He will say: 'Where are their gods, the rock in which they sought refuge? 38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise and help you, and be your refuge.
39' Now see that I, even I, am He, and there is no God besides Me; I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal; Nor is there any who can deliver from My hand. 40 For I raise My hand to heaven, and say, "As I live forever, 41 If I whet My glittering sword, and My hand takes hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to My enemies, and repay those who hate Me. 42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword shall devour flesh, with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the heads of the leaders of the enemy."'
43 "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people; for He will avenge the blood of His servants, and render vengeance to His adversaries; He will provide atonement for His land and His people."
44 So Moses came with Joshua the son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people. 45 Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, 46 and he said to them: "Set your hearts on all the words which I testify among you today, which you shall command your children to be careful to observe — all the words of this law. 47 For it is not a futile thing for you, because it is your life, and by this word you shall prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess."

There has been a "sign" lately, related to me of a billboard or sign saying " HAVOC" .

Main Entry: hav·oc
Etymology: Middle English havok, from Anglo-French, modification of Old French havot plunder
1 : wide and general destruction : DEVASTATION
2 : great confusion and disorder

Are you ready for awakening among your children?
Are you ready for an outpouring on the children?
I am asking because whenever it has come before, many adults assume the total role for building My church. But I am going to do a mighty work in and through your children. I brought them to you as a gift. They are My children too, and I am going to pour out some gifts that are unexpected.
You will find your children suddenly catapulted into doing things you thought you could not imagine!

I will raise up some mighty Josiah's, and Micah's to confront even your own idolatry! They will ask questions you don't know how to answer. But I WILL ANSWER THEM! I hear the cries of My lambs scattered throughout the nations and I hear them crying because of abuse, neglect and strife. Children themselves are My gift. They are precious to Me, and they should be most precious to you. But I have some hard things to say to you My people.

Are you ready to listen? Will you stop for a moment and see that the conditions in which SO many of My children live is horrific for any child?
Children being taught to hate. Children being taught to shoot guns. Children used as cover for adults in the midst of war. This disdain for their lives is the highest form of witchcraft to Me. I CARE for My children. Teaching little children to do violence, is an abomination to Me! Children are being shot to death in many of the nations of the earth. Children are hungry and starving in many places in the world. Who will care for them? Who will shelter them from the abuses of this world? WHO WILL STAND UP for Me against the wiles of the evil one?

I've told you that complacency will be judged. Complacency is when you think it will never happen to your child, when you can see that others are in such dire distress and circumstances that even many adults could NEVER endure, and do nothing about it!

Do not think that if you sit comfortable in your homes, and do NOTHING to help the children of the world that I will not judge it! Most people are OBLIVIOUS to the needs of others in these times. Selfishness has gone to new heights in the world. Children are being murdered not only in the womb, but in the streets of major cities of the world. Children are being abused sexually and killed by parents. WHEN WILL YOU OPEN YOUR EYES AND SEE THAT I SEE. MY EYES ARE OPEN TO THEIR CONDITIONS AND MY EARS OPEN TO THE CRIES IN THEIR HEARTS.

Some are so abused, they think there is no other way of life that exists, and they hurt and mutilate themselves because they think that they are worthless! Some roam in gangs in the streets due to neglect. Mothers are not home to care for them, because fathers have left or both parents are working. Women are overstressed having to do the work of raising of them, and trying to earn a living at underrated jobs.

In some places they are cared for but only as a means to have a ministry, rather than for the precious souls that they are! In some places they are like in concentration camps with no one to give them affection.

When will you take notice of your condition oh Church? Will you open YOUR EYES and OPEN YOUR EARS? Will you DO something to ease their suffering? Will you care about something beside your own life? Will you lay it down for MY LIFE birthed in you? There are so many sorrowful situations that come to my ears and eyes daily. I have to look at it every hour of every day. FOR THIS REASON, My judgment will come to those who are complacent and apathetic! Apathy runs rampant throughout the world! Children are taught to do drugs even by their own parents! Who would ever imagine such a thing could happen?

And now, when the abomination spoken of in My word is running rampant also over the rights of children, how can you not speak up? What am I talking about? I am talking of the beasts that rule the world that molest and abuse children and try to garner their RIGHTS in a “civil” society! Their rights to abuse young children. DO YOU THINK I SHOULD RESTRAIN MYSELF, WHEN I HAVE TO VIEW THIS DAY AFTER DAY? Their little souls are murdered every day. And if that weren’t enough, there are Satanists who murder them to attain demonic power, and the ones who kill them in their own homes are no different. SELF has been exalted in the nations.

Behold I come soon to carry out MY JUSTICE. Will you awaken to the sound of the trumpets being blown and open your hearts to do what is right in the eyes of Your KING? Will you no longer be apathetic to the needs of the poor and broken? Will you, MY CHURCH, take them into your hearts and into your homes. Will you lay down your life as I did Mine for you?

I tell you that even your children will prophesy to you, saying what have we done to help? For years I have warned you that perilous times are coming.

I will now use the mighty little ones to trumpet MY WARNINGS and you WILL take notice. You will be astounded with what I do in them. Do NOT say “they are too young LORD! “ For I will use them to speak prophecy! I will use them to bring healing and deliverance! I will pour out MY Spirit on ALL FLESH. PREPARE YOUR CHILDREN for the days ahead. TEACH THEM THE WORD! EXPLAIN the Word to them! STOP trying to pretend the world is going to change for the better when you can see the signs of the times.

I will raise up children and I will raise up youth VERY QUICKLY NOW! I will use them because the adults do not want to change! They will lay hands on the sick and they will recover! I urge you to not negate them when they come to you with dreams and visions, but to SEEK MY FACE to help them interpret what they are seeing. Work with them, and do not work against them or you will find yourself fighting with ME! And My actions will be swift.

I am loosing angels now as I speak. Many of them will have heavenly encounters and will be taken in trances to heaven to see the things their parents are not even looking for because they are too BUSY to take time for Me! You are on the threshold of awakening! KNOW that nothing YOU have done will accomplish this. Be careful NOT to take credit for what ONLY I CAN DO! Whole schools will come under the power of My Spirit and they WILL be saved! They will walk with ME and talk with ME. They will KNOW me.

I want to say that I am so proud of you who have loved your children and prepared them, and shown them what is important. HUMBLE yourselves that you might receive what I will pour out in and through them! You will minister some of you as FAMILIES to families!

And I also have a word to those whose children have been attacked by the ravages of the enemy who has known they are a special generation. DO NOT GIVE UP on MIRACLES. For you are about to see a DIVINE REVERSAL that will astound you! I WILL DELIVER THEM! I WILL HEAL THEM! I will fulfill the call on their lives! I am coming soon to accomplish this so do not despair! Do not think I haven’t seen your heartache and groaning for their lives! You will see the most fantastic miracles, and many of them will come THROUGH the children! Come now and let us reason together! Come and ask for WISDOM.

The YOUTH are going to be turned around in a way that will also astound many! Those of you who have children that have fallen prey to drugs and alcohol and drugs through the devices of the evil one, will see a GREAT RESTORATION. Overnight I will turn them from despair to DELIGHT!
And your hearts will REJOICE in singing because of the miracles I do in them and through them!

James 1:5-8 AMP
5 If any of you is deficient in wisdom, let him ask of the giving God [Who gives] to everyone liberally and ungrudgingly, without reproaching or faultfinding, and it will be given him.
6 Only it must be in faith that he asks with no wavering (no hesitating, no doubting). For the one who wavers (hesitates, doubts) is like the billowing surge out at sea that is blown hither and thither and tossed by the wind.
7 For truly, let not such a person imagine that he will receive anything [he asks for] from the Lord,
8 [For being as he is] a man of two minds (hesitating, dubious, irresolute), [he is] unstable and unreliable and uncertain about everything [he thinks, feels, decides].

I want to let you know that I, Your LORD, AM NOT INDECISIVE! I Am is not lacking in wisdom or counsel. I see the end from the beginning. I see the future and I know the past. I knew the decisions you would make long before you made them! I chose you from the foundations of the world, and it is I Who will accomplish My perfect will in you.

Isa 11:1-3 NKJV (Isa 9:1-7)
There shall come forth a Rod from the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. 2 The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD. 3 His delight is in the fear of the LORD, And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes, Nor decide by the hearing of His ears; 4 But with righteousness He shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked. 5 Righteousness shall be the belt of His loins, and faithfulness the belt of His waist.

A bruised reed I do not break, and smoking flax I do not quench. I know what it takes to make each person who is indecisive into someone who will make a decision to come to Me or to do what I will! I saw before the foundations of the earth each person's life in response to the hardships of life. I saw those who would grow bitter and difficult. I saw those who would stand up under the hardships without hating, and who would persevere. I have shed many tears for all your difficulties, because I AM the High Priest who watches over your souls. I know each crevice in your heart where pain is hiding! I AM all seeing. I am Jehovah Rohe [GOD WHO SEES] and I know the way you take though you cannot see it all at once. The steps of a righteous man are ordered by the Lord My Word says. I KNOW YOU! I KNOW THE RESPONSE YOU WILL HAVE in any given situation. I saw IT before the beginning of time, so nothing surprises Me! You see? I am not appalled at your mistakes! I knew you would make them. But I saw the end from the beginning. And I know that I will finish all that I set out to do in your life and in the lives of others who love Me. Nothing you do is a surprise to Me.

Matt 12:19-21 AMP He will not strive or wrangle or cry out loudly; nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets; 20 A bruised reed He will not break, and a smoldering (dimly burning) wick He will not quench, till He brings justice and a just cause to victory. 21 And in and on His name will the Gentiles (the peoples outside of Israel) set their hopes. [Isa 42:1-4.]

I, the I AM, know every pain in your heart, every hidden sin, even when you yourself do not see it! I will illuminate your darkness, and make all things known, because I am DECIDING on your behalf to make you, MY BRIDE to stand out and be arrayed in My GLORY, so that all the world will see you the way I see you! So that they will know that I have loved you!

Song 1:5 NKJV I am dark, but lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem,

Mal 3:17-18 NKJV "They shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts, "On the day that I make them My jewels. And I will spare them As a man spares his own son who serves him." 18 Then you shall again discern between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

My will is NOT to harm you, but to perfect your CHARACTER! I Am working on your heart. I am doing heart surgery. I want you to have MY HEART towards others, and to see as I see. So lay down My beloveds, and allow me to do that surgery, so that your heart can be healthy again, and so that you will have My discernment! You will no longer be indecisive, but you will STAND in the TRUTH of who you are in Me. And you will STAND in the light of My glory and exhibit MY LOVE and KINDNESS to the thirsty and hungry world. You will no longer vacillate between belief and unbelief! You will walk in FAITH and KNOW deep in your heart My faithfulness to you, and the depth of MY LOVE, so that you will be unafraid.

Joel 3:14-16 NKJV Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. 15 The sun and moon will grow dark, and the stars will diminish their brightness. 16 The LORD also will roar from Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem; The heavens and earth will shake; but the LORD will be a shelter for His people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

I AM ABOUT TO ROAR OVER YOU MY BELOVEDS! I am roaring because the enemy has sought to devour all that he can! Do not merely accept whatever happens. Seek MY FACE, and seek MERCY, for I am NOT a God of destruction, but of RESTORATION and LIFE. There is one who is the destroyer! He seeks whomever he may devour. But that is not My heart. I am seeking to rescue you out of the darkness and to bring you to LIFE. When you don’t listen to ME, then I may allow him to touch certain things like he did to Job, MY servant, so that your heart will be turned to ME, to seek ME with ALL your heart. I do not rejoice over destruction. It breaks My heart when that is the only way for people to understand what is important, and to DECIDE FOR ME ~ instead of against My ways! I am bringing forth many surprises for My people in this hour. I am RESTORING relationships, I am RESTORING gifts and callings, and things you have been robbed of. I am RESTORING your souls! I am purging the dross off your life so that you might come forth as gold!

Job 23:10 AMP But He knows the way that I take [He has concern for it, appreciates, and pays attention to it]. When He has tried me, I shall come forth as refined gold [pure and luminous]. [Ps 17:3; 66:10; James 1:12.]

Ex 1:21 NKJV And so it was, because the midwives feared God, that He provided households for them.

Job 21:9 NKJV Their houses are safe from fear, Neither is the rod of God upon them.

Prov 18:10 NKJV The name of the LORD is a strong tower; The righteous run to it and are safe.
Prov 18:12 NKJV Before destruction the heart of a man is haughty, And before honor is humility.

Mal 3:17-18 NKJV "They shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts, "On the day that I make them My jewels. And I will spare them As a man spares his own son who serves him." 18 Then you shall again discern between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

A Parable Of Two Trees
Stephen Hanson

March, 6, 2004

EZE 17:22 " `This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will take a shoot from the very top of a cedar and plant it; I will break off a tender sprig from its topmost shoots and plant it on a high and lofty mountain. [23] On the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it; it will produce branches and bear fruit and become a splendid cedar. Birds of every kind will nest in it; they will find shelter in the shade of its branches. [24] All the trees of the field will know that I the LORD bring down the tall tree and make the low tree grow tall. I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish.
" `I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.' "
JN 15:1 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. [2] He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. [3] You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. [4] Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.
JN 15:5 "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. [6] If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. [7] If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you. [8] This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

"I would say that a tree grew great and beautiful. It grew and showed great splendor in itself. The time came for it to produce fruit. I would tell you that instead of rich fruit it was rotten. This tree boasted of its great stature. It said, 'Behold, I have grown to such a great height that I could do almost anything.' This tree could do amazing things. It could perform great miracles. It could raise the dead and heal the sick. This tree had studied about these things and had gone to seminars to learn how to do this. "

"The second tree that stood beside this one was much smaller, but its leaves were very lush and green. This tree had lent its help to many of the younger trees around it. When it had been cold and rainy, it had been a canopy for the other ones. I tell you that when harvest times come, I tell you that the fruit from this tree will be very ripe. "

The meaning of this is as follows:

"The first tree represents many who have grown tall in their gifting. They have done great signs and wonders, but they have not lent help to others. The second tree has spent most its time showing how it can help those around them. I tell you that when the time comes I will judge them accordingly. "

What Looms On The Horizon
Stephen Hanson

March 14, 2004

MT 24:32 "Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. [33] Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door. [34] I tell you the truth, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. [35] Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

COL 3:1 Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. [2] Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. [3] For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. [4] When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

"I tell you that the days are moving nigh to my soon return. This world is not your own though, you need to set your sights on what's above. Wars and rumors of war will continue. By this next fall the scene will change. I tell you that a new president is on the horizon. No longer will a Republican agenda fill the walls of the White House. For I tell you that a new regime is coming. Things will not be as they were. New policies will be made. When these things are set in order, then the world will be propelled into the last days. It will be as it has been prophesied in my word. For soon after these things have been set in order, the figure who sets himself up as the "most high," will come upon the scene. Woe to those who follow his policies. "

"I tell you that the sheep will be scattered, but surely, my hand will be outstretched to them. You will be hated by all nations because of Me. But I will feed you and give you drink by living waters. Surely, this generation will not pass away until all these things will be accomplished. "

"Be strong my people, for you will need my strength in the days ahead. "

A Parable Of Abiding
Sandy Warner

Mar 12, 2004
You have often wondered what it means to abide and how to do it. You question where you are, where you are going, and haven't a clue. Relax, dear one, I AM teaching you how to abide.

Consider the blind man who has moved to a new city. As he listens to the sounds, experiences the smells, and deposits what he touches into memory…he is leaning upon Another who has eyes to see. His companion walks with him giving him understanding and insight into what his senses are experiencing.

Every move he makes, everything he experiences… he listens, learns and remembers. His daily life is a safe refuge because he clings to his Companion. And that is abiding in Me. Abiding is living in a constant state of expectancy where your whole being is leaning upon Me for your sight, your hearing, your discernment, your understanding and all your needs. Abiding is a constant state of friendship and intimacy in all that you are and do. So, precious, when you question what is going on in your life, cling to Me and learn.

"Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me." (John 15:4 NKJV)

Marching Orders
Sandy Warner

Mar 10, 2004

A divine set up is about to take place. I will catch you in your hiding place, and bring you out. For I AM giving you marching orders to go forth outside your comfort zone and beyond your existing boundaries. I will stretch you during this time and help you cross over beyond your own limits into new places. You will know My power beyond all that you have ever known before and you will go forth with anticipation, joy and blessings. Joy shall bubble up as you finally lay down your past and walk into your new beginnings with faith, hope and love. Listen to the trumpet calling. For I AM passing out marching orders. You shall share your own history of trusting Me in hard times. No longer will you hope for your marching orders, you will DO IT and do it triumphantly. Go for it!

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!" (Psalm 118:26 NKJV)

Resting In The Clouds
Sandy Warner

Mar 11, 2004
[Open The Door To Rest]

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA

EXPERIENCE: Today I was so tired I fell asleep in my chair. HEARD: Handmaidens usually do too much. They wear themselves out.

Upon awakening I looked out the window and saw a sign in the sky in the clouds. The clouds looked like a lady sitting at a desk. Then she turned into a duck. It's head was turned with the bill tucked under the feathers of its wings. That is where its oil glands are located.

In my thoughts, I likened the oil glands to His anointing. The duck's bill was even receiving what I would call an anointed mouth as it rested. Lord, help me apply this lesson while I am working at my desk or out and about. I so desire to live in Your anointed presence by way of Your Kingdom principles. I want to come into your rest in all that I do and say and not be so stressed out.

SELAH WORD: LEARN TO REST WHEREVER YOU ARE
Beloved handmaidens, learn a lesson from the ducks. They rest with their bills comfortably tucked into the feathers where I placed their oil glands. Likewise, search out the oil of My presence. You will find it in My place of rest. You are wearing yourselves out with too much activity. I have not placed all that stress upon you. Come into My resting place and hide yourself in the shadow of My wings. That is where you will receive My anointing.

"So God's rest is there for people to enter. But those who formerly heard the Good News failed to enter because they disobeyed God. So God set another time for entering his place of rest, and that time is today. God announced this through David a long time later in the words already quoted: "Today you must listen to his voice. Don't harden your hearts against him." This new place of rest was not the land of Canaan, where Joshua led them. If it had been, God would not have spoken later about another day of rest. So there is a special rest still waiting for the people of God. For all who enter into God's rest will find rest from their labors, just as God rested after creating the world. Let us do our best to enter that place of rest. For anyone who disobeys God, as the people of Israel did, will fall."
(Hebrews 4:6-11 NLT)

SANDY RHEMA
I had been thinking about the doorway to His throne room. For many years I had been interceding over this.

HEARD: Just opposite the doors. To the throne room. The wait, it won't be that long.

VISION: I was lying on my back looking up at the huge doors, waiting for them to open. I had my hands behind my head, my right leg crossed over my left knee, and I was bouncing my calf and foot back and forth, like I used to do as a child. When I was bored as a child, I would lie on my back, crossing my knees in the same fashion, and look up at the cloud formations in the sky.

The Lord was tongue and cheek telling me that I was to wait in front of the doors, and I might as well relax while I was doing it!!!

CONFIRMATION: Today, my son and I are outside watching Wayne pressure wash the house. My son (knowing zilch about my rhema this day) puts his arm around me and chants: "One, two, three, four. We need someone to open the door. Five, six, seven, eight. We need someone to open the gate!"

CONFIRMATION: When I came back in I glanced at my Family Circus calendar: The family was looking at the clouds and an outstanding sky. Jeffy asks, "Is it an ad for something Mama?"

This confirmation was a 2 fold joy, because today was also the day I took the cloud photos in to get negatives made for my book cover.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: REST AND WAIT FOR YOUR DOOR OF PROMISE
Long you have waited for My promises to come to pass! As you wait upon Me, I want you to learn to rest in your faith. It is one thing to believe Me, it is another to rest in the process. Resting does not change your focus or anticipation, it merely gives you a relaxed contentment as you do so. Dear one, I will grant you many joys with signs along your pathway. These will delight your heart as you fully rest in Me. I AM able to perform that which I have promised. What joys await you, dearest!

Heb 4:1-3 NLT
God's promise of entering his place of rest still stands, so we ought to tremble with fear that some of you might fail to get there. For this Good News--that God has prepared a place of rest--has been announced to us just as it was to them. But it did them no good because they didn't believe what God told them. For only we who believe can enter his place of rest.

The Rat Race
Sandy Warner

Mar 9, 2004
It is New Year's Eve going into 2004 and my newly married son just called, asking me if he and his wife could come right over. I am thinking, "That's a strange question, since when does a son call and ask his mom if he could come over? Something must be up."

He proceeded to tell me that our precious daughter in law had just opened the glove box and there was a huge, live wood rat staring her in the face. She screamed and jumped out of the car the same instant. This scared the rat so badly that somehow it ran behind the sealed dashboard and now they didn't know what to do.

They had spent Christmas with her folks, a few hours south of here. The house was in a wooded area and it must have come in from the cold, then bummed a ride on their trip home. Just overnight, it managed to shred paper, chew the car seat, eat the Christmas snacks, poop, and make a nest inside the glove box.

I wondered if the Lord was wanting to say something to me since I had just read about the rats in Iraq and how they are scaring people and even biting them. It was quickened to me that sometimes the Lord warns us through negative parables, (rats are unclean in the scriptures) so I prayed and asked Him what He was saying. He answered my prayer the following morning.

I woke New Year's Day to a beautiful carpet of snow. We don't get a lot of snow around here so this was a special treat and I wished I had not put away my new unfinished Christmas puzzle the night before. I would have enjoyed doing it on the window table with such beauty surrounding me. But last night, I felt I would be wasting time by doing puzzles and besides that, I wanted to get ahead in the Ears2Hear posts so I could take some time off. {I won't tell you how many times the Lord has told me throughout the years not to rush, rush, rush so I can rest, rest, rest…}

I had just completed another series and was praying about upcoming Ears2Hear. As I was going through rhema, I opened a directory that was quickened to me and my eye landed on the following entry:

SANDY RHEMA
HEARD: Slow down. Pause. Take a break.

QUICKENED GLANCE: My eye fell upon the following comic. Often when the Lord talks to me, He draws my eye to something when at the same time I am thinking about something of similar context. He quickens where my eye lands and His personal Word is revealed to me. This is one of my most favorite ways to hear Him, - through quickened eye glances.

QUICKENED COMIC: [From Family Circus] Billy's Dad, with brief case in hand, is walking out the door. He says, "It's off to the rat race." So little Billy, school books in hand, goes out the door and says, "It's off to the mouse race!"

OK Lord, You have my thorough attention. The rat in the car… our cars, or any kind of transportation, are our symbols of either our ministries or our relationships with You. Yes, once again you got me. TAKE TIME and enjoy the moments of every day, WITH You… enjoy Your daily benefits.

Ps 68:19 KJV
Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah.

I have decided that this post is a keeper and so I am "busy" working on The Rat Race, (and enjoying it). "Ring, ring, ring." …

It was my Sonshine. He has just reported that they now have one "foot long" DEAD rat. Praise the Lord! Further more he said that at midnight (New Year's Eve) their car alarm went off. It must have been the rat. Well Lord, we got Your alarming message, loud and clear. Thank You for loving us enough to alert our attention with negative parables. Open our ears to hear You in all the ways You speaks to us.

Prov 1:2-7 NKJV
To know wisdom and instruction, to perceive the words of understanding, to receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, judgment, and equity; To give prudence to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion -- A wise man will hear and increase learning, And a man of understanding will attain wise counsel, to understand a proverb and an enigma, the words of the wise and their riddles. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

THE RAT STORY CONTINUES
Wayne warned him that it might be a good idea to set another trap. We were all surprised at that idea. Nevertheless, our son set another trap. The car alarm again went off in the middle of the night and guess what? Another dead rat waiting for him in the morning. When the Lord really wants to get our attention, He usually doubles the message. Loud and clear, stay out of the rat race and take time to pause and rest in Him.

PAST RHEMA ABOUT RATS

Years ago, someone asked me if I would like to be a part of their ministry. This person was getting about 1-6 hours of sleep a day and working nonstop. I felt that it was a trap to get me off course. The Lord confirmed it by giving me a yucky rat dream.

People often quote the following scripture but don't stop to apply it in context. To me, this scripture says that He sends dreams to warn us about going in a certain direction, or even warns us regarding our motives.

Job 33:15-17 KJV
In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed; Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, that he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.

After the rat dream, another confirmation came when I was listening to a sermon about slowing down and learning to rest from undue stress. He was saying that it was very important to the Lord for Him to have put resting on the Sabbath in the 10 commandments. He mentioned that over-stressed people can't even sleep. He said those who run the rat race, end up being a rat!

HEARD: Hey, busy believer, what can I say? Life style, slow down. Relationship. Cast your care.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER CATCH THE RAT
Beloved, I do love your passion and zeal for life. And I especially love your enjoyment of the ministry to which I have called you. However, you get knocked off kilter when your goals became ambitions merely for the pursuit of getting them done. It is further awry when you are hurrying to finish so that you can go play.

In a busy world, so often you forget about our relationship. When you slow down, you learn to listen to what I have to say through your daily life. You learn to enjoy the moments of every day, instead of pushing your way through them, so you can enjoy the end of the day.

Do not get caught in a rat race of speeding forward. Rather, take it a day at a time knowing I have a perfect timing and a way to fulfill everything. Remember to pause and listen. I may quicken a particular thought and draw your eye to land upon something that sheds light on that same thought. Often, where I draw your eyes, are answers to questions you have prayed. If you are so goal oriented that you miss all the scenery in your day's journey, life becomes a maze and a rat trap. Slow down, and learn to pause. Take what you are doing at the moment and turn your heart towards Me. I may have something very special to say to you.

"And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word." (Luke 10:39 KJV)

Time To Recharge Your Batteries
Sandy Warner

Mar 8, 2004
My special warrior child, I have watched you bravely stand strongly against the opposing forces. While you were pouring yourself out as a soldier, I carefully surrounded you with My protection and covering. You reached way beyond your own limits with compassion for others even weaker than yourself. Now you are totally spent. Enough already!

Your batteries need recharging. You have learned well the secret to My power. It is being plugged into My Presence and My Word. It is leaning upon Me in all that you do, and knowing your Source of life and strength.

I AM calling you into a new place, dear one. It is a governmental mantle. You shall be given the authority and power to release the captives and heal them of their warrior wounds. Even as you were wounded and recovered, so shall you recover others. This will be a new level of anointing, for I AM turning up the dial on your gifting and My power shall flow even stronger than you have known.

"O God, You have taught me from my youth; and to this day I declare Your wondrous works. Now also when I am old and gray headed, O God, do not forsake me, until I declare Your strength to this generation, Your power to everyone who is to come." (Ps 71:17-18 NKJV)

A Parable Of Persistence
Sandy Warner

Mar 4, 2004
[Persistence in Prayer]

SANDY RHEMA
VISION: I saw my son's keys.
HEARD: Teach them to pray.

Yesterday my son lost his keys in the house. We rarely lose things in our home, because it is so organized. (One of the reasons is because I can't stand looking for things!) So we turned the house upside down for those keys. All the while I kept saying, "Lord where are the keys?" We went to bed and still no keys. I continued to pray and asked the Lord if He would either tell me or show me a vision of where they were. As a result, the above is what I saw and heard! That was not exactly what I had in mind, but the Lord wanted an object lesson instead.

This morning as our son was getting ready for school, not only did he not find his keys, but he couldn't find his watch either. He said he would be lost at school without his watch and went to school in the mulli-grubs.

I woke up feeling like I was fighting a bug or the flu, but it was time to pick up the house. As I glanced at my table, there was an old outdated tape recorder and some tapes that did not belong on it. Because I felt so yucky, I didn't want to put it all away, but neither did I want to leave the mess on the table because it bothered me.

I took the recorder and put it on the kitchen counter. Then I looked at it on the counter and said, "That's stupid to clean the table and then clutter my counter!" So I dragged myself into the next room closer to our storage closet and dumped it on that table. I looked at that table and said, "You are almost there, just put it away!" I walked into the storage closet and dumped the old recorder into the box with the old earphone paraphernalia and recorder cords.

For some strange reason as I was doing it, I thought to myself, "Wouldn't it be terrible to dump this in the box, never looking inside the box, and all the time my son's keys are in there???" So even though I felt so weak and sickly, I lifted the box down from the high shelf and glanced at the contents. I saw no keys.

As I was starting to put the box back, I thought, "What if his keys are at the bottom of the box, and I stopped too short?" So I lifted the earphones and cords and there were the keys just waiting to be found! How they got there I did not know. I was quite amazed that the Lord has coaxed me one halting step at a time towards the bottom of that box.

This was most definitely a story of persistence. I could have stopped anywhere along the way, and every step was an overcoming one, because I felt so weak and sick. It was not an easy task, but in spite of myself, the Lord answered my prayers and drew me the whole way. I wondered how long it would have been if I had just dumped the recorder in the box without looking. It could have been months till we used that box again.

I told Wayne the story at lunch about finding the keys, and that now our son had also lost his watch. We prayed again. When he came home from school, he saw the keys hanging from the kitchen counter knob, where we usually paste little notes to him. He was grinning ear to ear and thanking the Lord. When he entered his bedroom, the Lord directed his eyes and they fell upon the crack between his storage chest and bed. You guessed it… his watch. As he came out a few minutes later, very happy, Wayne related a very exciting story!!!

Earlier he came in and asked me where his measuring tape was. I didn't know, and was feeling very wiped out and laying down so he searched by himself. Evidently he went into his shop a second time and said, "Lord the enemy is stealing from us and this needs to stop right now!" As soon as he said this, he looked down and saw the corner of his measuring tape sticking out of a place he had already searched.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: PERSISTENCE RECOVERS ALL
Beloved ones, I know you are weary and frustrated with your losses. I AM drawing you to get your focus off your misery and begin to exercise through prayer, the rights I have given you. It is time to learn how to recover what has been stolen.

Ask Me for help to restore your losses. I seek and find that which is lost. Join Me! Be persistent in your faith until you get your rewards. Do not stop short of your goal, do not settle for less. Begin to put your foot down and command that what the enemy has stolen be returned.

Dear ones, I know you are weary, hurting and discouraged. Let go of the outdated tapes that repeat in your mind. Put the past behind you and don't give up. Be persistent. With one foot in front of the other, overcome one step at a time. Keep going, you are almost there. As you trust Me to answer your prayers, I will draw you along the right path in spite of yourself. If you do not give up, you shall recover all.

1 Sam 30:3-4,8 NLT
When David and his men saw the ruins and realized what had happened to their families, they wept until they could weep no more….Then David asked the LORD, "Should I chase them? Will I catch them?" And the LORD told him, "Yes, go after them. You will surely recover everything that was taken from you!"

Daffodil Glory
Sandy Warner

Mar 2, 2004
[Persistence Brings Reward]
A few years ago, I read the following story circling the Internet. It so touched my heart that I saved it to post at the right time.

The Daffodil Principle
by: Jaroldeen Asplund Edwards

Several times my daughter had telephoned to say, "Mother, you must come see the daffodils before they are over." I wanted to go, but it was a two hour drive from Laguna to Lake Arrowhead. "I will come next Tuesday, " I promised, a little reluctantly, on her third call.

Next Tuesday dawned cold and rainy. Still, I had promised, and so I drove there. When I finally walked into Carolyn's house and hugged and greeted my grandchildren. I said, "Forget the daffodils, Carolyn!

The road is invisible in the clouds and fog, and there is nothing in the world except you and these children that I want to see bad enough to drive another inch!"

My daughter smiled calmly," We drive in this all the time, Mother."

"Well, you won't get me back on the road until it clears and then I'm heading for home!" I assured her.

"I was hoping you'd take me over to the garage to pick up my car."

"How far will we have to drive?"

"Just a few blocks," Carolyn said, "I'll drive. I'm used to this."

After several minutes I had to ask, "Where are we going? This isn't the way to the garage!" "We're going to my garage the long way," Carolyn smiled, "by way of the daffodils."

"Carolyn," I said sternly, "please turn around."

"It's all right, Mother. I promise you will never forgive yourself if you miss this experience."

After about twenty minutes we turned onto a small gravel road and I saw a small church. On the far side of the church I saw a hand lettered sign "Daffodil Garden." We got out of the car and each took a child's hand, and I followed Carolyn down the path. Then we turned a corner of the path, and I looked up and gasped. Before me lay the most glorious sight. It looked as though someone had taken a great vat of gold and poured it down over the mountain peak and slopes. The flowers were planted in majestic, swirling patterns, great ribbons and swaths of deep orange, white, lemon yellow, salmon pink, saffron, and butter yellow. Each different colored variety was planted as a group so that it swirled and flowed like its own river with its own unique hue. Five acres of flowers.

"But who has done this?" I asked Carolyn. "It's just one woman," Carolyn answered. "She lives on the property. That's her home." Carolyn pointed to a well kept A-frame house that looked small and modest in the midst of all that glory. We walked up to the house. On the patio we saw a poster "Answers to the Questions I Know You Are Asking" was the headline.

The first answer was a simple one: "50,000 bulbs," it read.

The second answer was, "One at a time, by one woman. Two hands, two feet, and very little brain."

The third answer was, "Began in 1958."

There it was. The Daffodil Principle. For me that moment was a life changing experience. I thought of this woman whom I had never met, who, more than forty years before, had begun, one bulb at a time, to bring her vision of beauty and joy to an obscure mountain top. Still, just planting one bulb at a time, year after year, had changed the world.

This unknown woman had forever changed the world in which she lived. She had created something of ineffable magnificence, beauty, and inspiration. The principle her daffodil garden taught is one of the greatest principles of celebration: learning to move toward our goals and desires one step at a time, often just one baby step at a time, learning to love the doing, learning to use the accumulation of time.

When we multiply tiny pieces of time with small increments of daily effort, we too will find we can accomplish magnificent things. We can change the world.

"It makes me sad in a way," I admitted to Carolyn. "What might I have accomplished if I had thought of a wonderful goal thirty-five years ago and had worked away at it 'one bulb at a time' through all those years. Just think what I might have been able to achieve!"

My daughter summed up the message of the day in her direct way. "Start now," she said.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: BIT BY BIT
Bit by bit, one step at a time, I unfold My plans for your life. I have given you My promise, that what I have planted in your life is intended to be a hidden wealth that will come forth in the right season. As time passes, you shall see seasonal manifestations of these, My planted treasures. Stay faithful to Me and believe My Words spoken to you. In the fullness of time I shall multiply it all for My glory. As you look back from whence you came, you shall know without a doubt, that no matter what, I have done far beyond what you could ever ask or think.

Always remember that when your life comes into blossom, that it came from persistent time on your spiritual knees.

1 Cor 2:9 KJV
But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

Long you have labored and long you have held onto My promises. I am so pleased with your tenacious heart! After all this time of holding on, you may think that you don't know what you believe or what is going on. You may feel helpless and hopeless. Remember that during birth, a baby is upside down and not in control of its environment. A baby is not born with its feet planted on the ground, stable and set. It is born, upside down and held. So, let My Words take their course in your life as you experience the birthing of My promises. As your promises come to fruition, they will emerge in their infancy stage. Do not despise the day of small beginnings. Even Jesus was born in a manger.

"And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." Then He said to another, "Follow Me." (Luke 9:58,59 NKJV)

Healing Instruments

What's coming Doc? Yep, that's what's coming! It's healing in a new day and you shall walk in a new level of anointing. I will make you like doctors of healing and you shall become My instruments for even the most delicate surgeries. And these patients won't have to pay anything. For My healing waters shall be freely given to all who would come.

"Is anyone thirsty? Come and drink--even if you have no money! Come, take your choice of wine or milk--it's all free! Why spend your money on food that does not give you strength? Why pay for food that does you no good? Listen, and I will tell you where to get food that is good for the soul!" (Isa 55:1-2 NLT)

My Quickened Words
Sandy Warner

Mar 1, 2004
The Words that I speak are alive. They give life. Some times you question if what you hear is My Word for your life. If I were to hook you to a jumper cable and charge you back to life, does it charge someone else? No, it is meant for your life. Does the battery question the Source of the charge? No, it simply detects life and energy and receives it. My Word connects with your heart and charges you with belief. My Words put a bounce in your walk of faith, by giving you a momentary lift off for the next step.

"It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life." (John 6:63 NKJV)

A People of Passion
Patsy Shelton

My Heart Is Longing For A People of Passion
Apr 13, 2004

Ah saith the Lord God; my eyes are going to and fro searching for a people of passion. A people that are burning with a passion to do My will. A people that are even burning with desire for My will to be accomplished in and through them. A people that will say even as My servant David did, " Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, I delight to do thy will, O my God." His heart fixed and longing to fulfill all that I had destined him to be and to accomplish. And as My Son said, "Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done." For the things, which will be accomplished through My own in these end times, will cost them everything, and I must have willing and obedient hearts. Hearts that are afire with a passion which will become a driving force and they will lay down their lives, deny themselves, pick up their cross and follow the example of My Son into total obedience regardless of the cost. The way of the cross is the only way for resurrection life, and resurrection power to be birthed in My own, and into the earth. The flesh must die, so that the spirit can be totally free to soar into realms of My Glory.

So many of My people think that they will enter into the wondrous things that I am about to do but their complacency and apathy is a stumbling block. They think that they will be able to ride of the coat tails of the forerunner's of this next great movement with a spirit of passivity but yea it will not be so, saith the Lord God. There will be no room for spectators only for participators. I am shaking everything that can be shaken in order to move those that have become complacent out of their comfort zones and into a place of passion.

Oh, how My heart is longing for a people of passion, saith the Lord.

Apostolic Releases

5 August, 2004

FOUR APOSTOLIC RELEASES AND INCREASE: Apostolic proclamation, apostolic power, apostolic suffering and affliction

Bible:
2Co 12:12 The signs of a true apostle were performed among you with all perseverance, by signs and wonders and miracles

Jas 5:10 As an example, brethren, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

Ro 8:35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

2Co 4:17 For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, 2Co 7:4 Great is my confidence in you; great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort; I am overflowing with joy in all our affliction.

Four Apostolic Releases And Increase:

Beloved ones, there is in this hour a fresh release of the Spirit in the nations. There is coming forth the rising of the Apostolic anointing as has yet not been seen in this generation. There coming such an unction of this four fold release and in its coming, it will come as a great and mighty wave! There is a great swell coming over the nations. From every tribe and nations now comes this Apostolic anointing.

This anointing is known as a "father" anointing for in it there is the SOWING of seed, and the BIRTHING of new and great and mighty exploits through the Spirit. Now is the appointed time for much sowing has gone forth and not that the time of germination has come, BIRTHING of this new release in the apostolic anointing.

Beloved, many have cried out for the prophets and for the apostles, and now comes forth the apostles. Beloved do not be blinded by the gifts and by the charisma of people. Look for the seal of My Spirit upon the hearts of these mighty men and women whom I have separated unto Myselft. They have been hidden for a season as David was hidden with his mighty warriors in the cave of Adullam. They have been hidden so as to remain unspoiled by the religious order of the day. Now the time has come forth for My light to shine through these dear ones. Now is the time for true APOSTOLIC FATHERING to come forth in the nations.

The signs of true apostolic ministry shall now arise in the nations.

1. Apostolic proclamation

Beloved you shall see the rising up of the proclamation of the gospel of the Kingdom. Just as the Early Church proclaimed with conviction the fullness of the Kingdom in the Son, and went forth to all the nations, now you shall see that same ZEAL and FERVOUR in a NEW GENERATION of apostolic ministry. This apostolic ministry will be seen through the same Spirit that was in Paul and Peter and others. Apostolic ministry shall be seen in great evangelistic manifestations of the Spirit, where the heart of the apostolic fathers will be revealed. The new wave of apostolic ministry will be characterized by the HEART OF THE FATHER in these apostles, who will call many out of darkness, and who will hearken the PRODIGALS TO RETURN, and who will call together those called out of darkness into My marvelous light, and establish NEW WINESKINS that will hold this NEW APOSTOLIC WINE!

There will be radical change as the Gospel of the Kingdom is proclaimed! Radical change. You shall not recognize the fullness of the Kingdom and the new apostolic wave that sweep over the nations!

2. Apostolic power

Precious ones, this wave of apostolic power will come as an onrushing wind! All will be made low. All that is not of Me within the church will be swept aside and all things will be in submission as unto Me. This wind that is coming forth will be of such intensity and life and brilliance that NO MAN will be able to stand. The unction of My Spirit will be poured on the "ordinary people" who will do "extra-ordinary" exploits in Me and through Me.

This power will manifest in the most unlikely of people. The NEW WINESKINS now coming forth will stagger the established order. There will be many who will not know how to "navigate" this new move of My Spirit.

Beloved I declare to you, that at this hour, GREAT SIGNS shall FOLLOW the proclamation of the SON and the KINGDOM of GOD! When you will proclaim the Son and the fullness of the Kingdom, you shall see signs confirming who I am in your midst! These signs will be an offence to many and many will become confused and angry. Many will wonder as to why and how My Spirit can move in this way and dispense grace through the vessels now coming out from Adullam's cave!

There is a new wave of apostolic power coming through a new generation of apostolic servants. These servants will NOT be tied to any denomination or affiliation. They will be KNIT TO ME! They will flow in My grace and power because they will be HIDDEN IN ME! They will have no loyalty to any man or human system. Their loyalty and allegiance is ONLY TO ME! They will walk in the power and might of My grace and strength. They have NO ONE ELSE and NOTHING ELSE! I AM THEIR ALL IN ALL!

YOU SHALL KNOW THEY ARE OF ME BY THE SIGNS THAT ACCOMPANY THE PROCLAMATION OF THE KINGDOM AND THE MANIFESTATION OF "NEW WINESKINS"!

3. Apostolic suffering and affliction

Beloved ones, be aware of what you are crying out for! Be aware of counting the cost for this apostolic wave that is now coming upon the nations! This NEW GENERATION of apostolic ministry will NOT COME, other than through great suffering and affliction.

Many have been hidden in the cave of Adullam, away from the "Saul's" that control body life in the church! They have been hounded and persecuted in the church system! They have suffered rejection and ridicule and have been assailed by all kinds of accusations! Many have been trampled and discarded as if upon a trash heap! Many have endured and hung on simply because they desire Me more than their own lives! I have redeemed them! I have hidden them in Me! Now this generation who have suffered, they will rise up! They will rise up! Their sorrows shall be turned to great joy in this hour! They will arise to new heights in Me! They will be vindicated in Me! They will find LIFE in ME! They will give all that I have and continue to give them away to all who hunger and thirst after Me!

Beloved be aware, and count the cost! Be aware that to embrace this new wave of apostolic ministry means to embrace not only the proclamation and the power, but ALSO the APOSTOLIC SUFFERING and AFFLICTION that will prepare you for this ministry, and will also FOLLOW AFTER YOU!

You will be hounded and you will be ridiculed and ostracized throught he spirit of jealousy that flows in the church! You will be discarded and cast out of assemblies because of the grace and beauty of your lives before men! You will be judged and cast down! You will be mocked! You will lose EVERYTHING for My sake! In the very end, you will realize that at this hour, as the FOUR FOLD RELEASE comes on the earth, that it will all be worth it!

Count the cost! Beloved count the cost! Be aware of what you are praying and crying out for! DO NOT BE FOUND WANTING OR LACKING! THIS VISITATION WILL COST YOU EVERYTHING! ARE YOU WILLING TO PAY THE PRICE?!!! ARE YOU? I AWAIT YOUR RESPONSE BELOVED! I WILL GIVE MYSELF FULLY TO THOSE WHO EMBRACE THIS APOSTOLIC WAVE NOW COMING ON THE EARTH!

A Prophetic Cacophony
Priscilla Van Sutphin

June 28th, 2004 8 pm

A couple weeks ago, I was at church and a young couple was leading worship who normally are not solely responsible for it. After a bit, the music suddenly was more like a cacophony; noisy and non-orderly and I felt the Lord say that this was a sign of how His body functions –" in a disorderly manner independent of Me" and " The music that comes forth sounds to My ears like this" (very terribly noisy) a non-harmonious sound - Everyone doing their own thing but so many still ravaged and embittered by rejection and unhealed!

It was like there was no melody to follow – just sounding noises! It was all well intentioned and enthusiastic, but very OFF-BEAT! Women were waving flags in colors of fuchsia and purple. And the singer had the same color in her sweater. Suddenly there was just the sound of the guitar and people got very quiet and still.

Then the singer sang: " Beloved, let us love one another for he who does not love does not know God. Beloved let us love one another! "

And then there was more about thanking God for all He has done. I realized I was watching a prophetic enactment for something the Lord wanted to speak about.

Then I got Psalm 30……

The Blessedness of Answered Prayer

A Song at the dedication of the house of David.

I will extol You, O LORD, for You have lifted me up, and have not let my foes rejoice over me. 2 O LORD my God, I cried out to You, and You healed me.

3 O LORD, You brought my soul up from the grave; You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. 4 Sing praise to the LORD, you saints of His, and give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name. 5 For His anger is but for a moment His favor is for life; Weeping may endure for a night, But joy comes in the morning. 6 Now in my prosperity I said, "I shall never be moved." 7 LORD, by Your favor You have made my mountain stand strong; You hid Your face, and I was troubled. 8 I cried out to You, O LORD;

And to the LORD I made supplication: 9 "What profit is there in my blood,

When I go down to the pit? Will the dust praise You? Will it declare Your truth?

After this there were a couple more songs, and then the People sat more, and I had an reminder about how when David's first baby died, he worshipped. Anything good or bad should bring our worship! When Job lost all his children and belongings He cried out, " The Lord gives and the Lord takes away, blessed be the name of the Lord!"

Cacophony : harsh or discordant sound : DISSONANCE 2; specifically : harshness in the sound of words or phrases

Dissonance
1 a : lack of agreement; especially : inconsistency between the beliefs one holds or between one's actions and one's beliefs

b : an instance of such inconsistency or disagreement 2 : a mingling of discordant sounds; especially : a clashing or unresolved musical interval or chord

The word 'agree' is the Greek word sumphoneo; to agree harmoniously or to symphonize.

NT:4856 sumphoneo (soom-fo-neh'-o); from NT:4859; to be harmonious, i.e. (figuratively) to accord (be suitable, concur) or stipulate (by compact):

KJV - agree (together, with).

NT:4859 sumphonos (soom'-fo-nos); from NT:4862 and NT:5456; sounding together (alike), i.e. (figuratively) accordant (neuter as noun, agreement): KJV - consent.

NT:4862 sun (soon); a primary preposition denoting union; with or together (but much closer than NT:3326 or NT:3844), i.e. by association, companionship, process, resemblance, possession, instrumentality, addition, etc.: KJV - beside, with. In composition it has similar applications, including completeness.

Ps 133 NKJV Blessed Unity of the People of God - A Song of Ascents. Of David. 1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! 2 It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down on the beard, the beard of Aaron, running down on the edge of his garments.

3 It is like the dew of Hermon, descending upon the mountains of Zion;

For there the LORD commanded the blessing — Life forevermore.

Dew, rain, water, oil are all symbols of the Holy Spirit. One of the meanings of dissonance is the inconsistency between one's actions and one's beliefs.

I believe the Lord is saying that

"Many are coming together to worship ME, but that worship is like a noisy gong. It is like a clanging symbol, because there is a gap between the belief in what they believe and what they do. So many are unhealed because the overall church has not taken time with people to help heal them. The hurts have been glossed over and bandaged as if putting a bandaid on a gaping wide wound."

I used to be a nurse, and when I was a nurses aide working in an infectious disease ward, we would sometimes get people who had major surgery but an infection got in the wound, and you would have to debride the wound with peroxide or another solution and dress it with gauze, and you would see this massive wound all open, no stitches. It would be like taking this wound a huge man and trying to put a bandaide over it. That would be ridiculous.

It speaks about this in Jeremiah…

Jer 6:10-15

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Indeed their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot give heed. Behold, the word of the LORD is a reproach to them; they have no delight in it. 11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD. I am weary of holding it in. "I will pour it out on the children outside, and on the assembly of young men together; For even the husband shall be taken with the wife, the aged with him who is full of days. 12 And their houses shall be turned over to others, fields and wives together; For I will stretch out My hand Against the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD. 13 "Because from the least of them even to the greatest of them, everyone is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely. 14 They have also healed the hurt of My people slightly, saying, 'Peace, peace!' When there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No! They were not at all ashamed; Nor did they know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; At the time I punish them, they shall be cast down," says the LORD.

I have so many times seen churches who just want to do the quick prayer at the altar, if that, and leave people the rest of the time on their own to get what healing or deliverance they may need. But the body has been sick, and it has sorely lacked the power it needs to bring true healing. And when the Spirit does come in power, then voices immediately rise up against it because of the form it comes in, and it gets quenched. It is a very sad state of affairs.

I have been in the Toronto movement shortly since after inception, and even in renewal churches, the Spirit has not always been allowed to move at His will. The Spirit still has to move over for our agenda, and so in many it has waned. We have disdained His presence and are in sore need of repentance.

Our flesh wants IT'S agenda more than the Spirit's. I was in one church for a time, and they would bring in renewal speakers and the Spirit would move, but then things would go back to business as usual, and I would think, what is wrong here Lord? Why doesn't it happen when they aren't here? Why aren't we seeing more miracles, hearing more prophecy, seeing YOU do more healing? Like John Wimber used to say, when he was first saved he asked the church, "When do we get to do the stuff?" [in the bible]. Unless we are healed enough, how can we do any works without running dry. We need to be constantly renewing our mind, washing it with the Word, and to always be submitting to soaking prayer when the Lord illuminates our darkness, that we might be thoroughly healed as much as possible. We cannot COVER the woundedness by hiding under a bandage. The wound is still infected if there is bitterness and anger. So there must be a spiritual DEBRIDEMENT of the woundedness in order for healing to occur. The yucky, unclean infection must be excised and cleansed in order that new tissue will grow correctly and be healthy.

The cacophony is due to lack of LOVE. LOVE bears all things, endures all things, never fails, is kind and generous. It doesn't covet position and power to itself. It rejoices to see others prosper and grow. It rejoices at the successes of others, and is not competitive or jealous. It takes time with people, and doesn't dismiss their concerns, it doesn't gloss over their woundedness. It helps in spiritual and practical ways. And we need to give of our TIME if we expect to see growth in God's children, even as we give our time to raising our own children in order to see them grow. People who are wounded need NURTURING, not just lecturing or a quickie prayer!

And in order for people to agree, we need to know HIS LOVE.

1 Cor 13:4-8 NKJV Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; 5 does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; 6 does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8 Love never fails.

The enemy opposes love. The enemy is about fear. The enemy's troops do not agree on anything except hatred for God and us. There is power in agreement. When a husband and wife pray together it is a very powerful thing the Lord once told me. Because He said, if any two agree as touching anything, it shall be done for them. At Babel, the Lord saw the agreement of man opposing HIM and He said…Gen 11:6 NKJV And the LORD said, "Indeed the people are one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they propose to do will be withheld from them.

So if we walk in love, we may be able to agree if we walk in the Spirit, and then ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE.

Matt 18:19-20 NKJV "Again I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there in the midst of them."

1 John 5:7-8 NKJV And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

If They agree as one, and Jesus prayed that we may be made ONE as THEY are ONE, then surely in this hour of perfecting His Bride, He will fulfill the prayer of Jesus in John 17, at least among the wheat.

We make the body complete when we walk in harmony with each other! We need churches without WALLS. We should be recognizing others in the body by the Spirit, not the flesh. When I was in Bucharest, they took me to an American church. But when I tried to give a prophetic word after service to the pastor, he wanted to know my credentials, where I went to school, and whom I was associated with. Help • Privacy Policy • Feedback • Meet Jesus

A Prophetic Cacophony - Part 2

...He didn't ask the LORD, and wasn't even open to the fact a total stranger might just be sent by the Lord. Maybe it will take persecution to unite us.

I remember a storm in the Chicago area, years back where it snowed so much that many roads were blocked, and I remember working in the hospital in Elmhurst at the time, and how one man had to bring his wife in labor to the hospital on a sled, because there was no other way he could have gotten there. Many people did not show up to work. But it was the first time, I saw people work together for the good of all without complaining! It seemed that under the pressure of the situation, walls came down. People treated each other nicer, and were more cooperative and humble.

Phil 4:2-7 NKJV Be United, Joyful, and in Prayer

2 I implore Euodia and I implore Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. 3 And I urge you also, true companion, help these women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life. Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice! 5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; 7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

I find the sequence of this passage interesting. He implores the church to unity and to gentleness, to pray through everything. Then he says the following:

Phil 4:8-9 NKJV Meditate on These Things

Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy — meditate on these things. 9 The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.

Paul says from his jail cell, to MEDITATE on things that are holy, noble, just, pure, lovely and of good report, and virtuous, anything praiseworthy.

This is how to guard your hearts and minds as he says above that! Then he says, what you learned and saw and heard in him, to DO. And God will be with you! So we must not just believe. We must ACT on our beliefs and in accordance with them. It is putting faith into ACTION. Just like James admonishes us to do.

James 2:14-24 Faith Without Works Is Dead (cf. Gen 22; Josh 2:1)

What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? 15 If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, 16 and one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? 17 Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

18 But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. 19 You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe — and tremble! 20 But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead? 21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar?

22 Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect? 23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." And he was called the friend of God. 24 You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only.

Unite and Ignite
Debra & Marvin Westbrook

6/28/04

God sends us forth to the nations with a clear trumpet call. Recently we ministered in Trinidad from June 10-21. This was a glorious trip for us as, once again, God showed Himself faithful on our behalf, establishing covenant relationships and flowing with His presence over His people. Before we left, God spoke these words to our heart.

If they will unite, I will ignite!

Clear and simple. Unity is important to the heart of God and essential to an outpouring of His glory through His people. But, unity is not a horizontal agreement between people but first, must be entered into with a vertical agreement with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

John 17:20-23
"I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word; 21 that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. 22 And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: 23 I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.
NKJV

As we enter into oneness and intimacy with God, then unity is established between us by Holy Spirit in the bond of peace, Jesus Christ. Unity abounds in the Godhead and as we enter into intimacy, the overflow of this unity into us through relationship with our Lord, flows outward through us to other people. It is not anything that can be hyped up or manipulated but is pure and simple, flowing from the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit into us and through us to others. God made it clear that for Him to ignite this nation with an outpouring of Holy Spirit, unity must be established within His Church.

Unity is like the key to the ignition switch of an outpouring of God's Spirit as on the Day of Pentecost!

There is so much more to say here but I will write more in the coming days.

Prov 16:32 KJV He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.
Prov 16:32 NLT It is better to be patient than powerful; it is better to have self-control than to conquer a city.
Prov 16:32 AMP He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, he who rules his [own] spirit than he who takes a city.
Prov 16:32 NIV Better a patient man than a warrior, a man who controls his temper than one who takes a city.

Temper/anger
OT:639 'aph (af); from OT:599; properly, the nose or nostril; hence, the face, and occasionally a person; also (from the rapid breathing in passion) ire: KJV - anger (-gry), before, countenance, face, forebearing, forehead, [long-] suffering, nose, nostril, snout, worthy, wrath.
OT:599 'anaph (aw-naf'); a primitive root; to breathe hard, i.e. be enraged: KJV - be angry (displeased).
Prov 19:11 NKJV The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger, and his glory is to overlook a transgression.

In asking the Lord if He had something to say, He spoke “distemper”.
“Recently it is believed to be the culprit in the death of a number of African lions”. See:

The Lion is a symbol of the apostolic ministry. And I felt when I read about the lions suffering from this, that the Lord was impressing upon me, that the true apostles in the land that he is raising up across the world, have had a certain frustration going on in them about the conditions of the church and the world. But that letting that frustration develop into anger, other than righteous anger is a bit like Jonah when he didn’t want to go to Ninevah. He knew the kindness of the Lord, but his heart was not one with God’s heart towards the PEOPLE of Ninevah. For the Lord is not willing that any should perish.

“So what do you want to say Father?” I asked. And I heard…

“Many of you now are going through treatment for distemper. Your anger has infected you and turned to pride and resentment, and unless you get some “shots” of My love to your heart and soul, you will not fulfill the call on your life. I am not frustrated easily by your own weaknesses or sin.
Yet many of you have judged others unjustly without recognition of your own sin and weaknesses. I am SLOW to anger and full of kindness and I am not given to wrath easily. Though there is plenty to be angry about in the world today. Things are proceeding as expected and foreseen.”

Joel 2:13 NKJV So rend your heart, and not your garments; Return to the LORD your God, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness; and He relents from doing harm.
Nah 1:3 NKJV The LORD is slow to anger and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked. The LORD has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet.
Ps 145:8-9 NKJV The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and great in mercy. 9 The LORD is good to all, and His tender mercies are over all His works.
Ps 103:8-10 NKJV The LORD is merciful and gracious, Slow to anger, and abounding in mercy. 9 He will not always strive with us, nor will He keep His anger forever. 10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor punished us according to our iniquities.
Prov 15:18 NKJV A wrathful man stirs up strife, but he who is slow to anger allays contention.

“Many of you, I have intention of using to correct the problems in the church, but if you are sent to correct you must do it with no selfish ambition or vengeance in your hearts. You must go in LOVE and obedience, and not because you have “an axe to grind”. You cannot have resentment in your heart for what has been done to you, or what I HAVE ALLOWED to soften you and break your pride. Oh yes, some of you are still mad at ME for allowing things in your life that made you the person you are! But you are not seeing the whole picture that I see.

Many have rejected you because I was making you more and more like ME.
Many have rejected you because of the calling on your life, out of jealousy and their own selfish ambition. Many have been slain in the sanctuaries, and bludgeoned by the greed of those building their own kingdoms. But I have a miraculous plan. For I have said that if you share in My SUFFERING, that you will also share in My GLORY! So cast aside all your anger and all your bitterness My sons and daughters, for nothing that has happened to you will be for nought in the days ensuing. If you will repent of your bitterness and anger, and resentment towards ME, and others, I will use you mightily to bring down the plans of the enemy and to reap the great harvest of the centuries. But if you continue in anger and ill speaking and bitterness of heart. You will be PASSED OVER. ASK and it shall be given you! Knock and the door will be opened! Just ask Me, and I will heal the brokenness of your heart. Come away with Me and LET ME touch you! And all that has happened will be reversed and you will see Divine reversals in your life and circumstances. Inquire of Me, and I will show you all you need to do.”

Lamentations 3:1-42 NKJV
I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.
2 He has driven me away and made me walk in darkness rather than light;
3 indeed, he has turned his hand against me again and again, all day long.
4 He has made my skin and my flesh grow old and has broken my bones.
5 He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
6 He has made me dwell in darkness like the dead of long ago.

7 He has hedged me in so that I cannot get out; He has made my chain heavy. 8 Even when I cry and shout, He shuts out my prayer.
9 He has blocked my ways with hewn stone; He has made my paths crooked.
10 He has been to me a bear lying in wait, Like a lion in ambush.
11 He has turned aside my ways and torn me in pieces; He has made me desolate. 12 He has bent His bow and set me up as a target for the arrow.
13 He has caused the arrows of His quiver to pierce my loins.
14 I have become the ridicule of all my people — Their taunting song all the day.

15 He has filled me with bitterness, He has made me drink wormwood.
16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel, and covered me with ashes.
17 You have moved my soul far from peace; I have forgotten prosperity.
18 And I said, "My strength and my hope Have perished from the LORD."
19 Remember my affliction and roaming, The wormwood and the gall.
20 My soul still remembers and sinks within me.
21 This I recall to my mind, Therefore I have hope.
22 Through the LORD's mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. 23 They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness. 24 "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "Therefore I hope in Him!" 25 The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, To the soul who seeks Him. 26 It is good that one should hope and wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD. 27 It is good for a man to bear The yoke in his youth. 28 Let him sit alone and keep silent, because God has laid it on him; 29 Let him put his mouth in the dust — There may yet be hope.
30 Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him, and be full of reproach. 31 For the Lord will not cast off forever.
32 Though He causes grief, Yet He will show compassion According to the multitude of His mercies.
33 For He does not afflict willingly, Nor grieve the children of men.
34 To crush under one's feet All the prisoners of the earth, 35 To turn aside the justice due a man Before the face of the Most High,
36 Or subvert a man in his cause — The Lord does not approve.
37 Who is he who speaks and it comes to pass, when the Lord has not commanded it?
38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High That woe and well-being proceed?
39 Why should a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?
40 Let us search out and examine our ways, and turn back to the LORD;
41 Let us lift our hearts and hands To God in heaven.
42 We have transgressed and rebelled; You have not pardoned.

“REALIZE My sons and daughters, that I love you immeasurably, and beyond anything you can imagine. There is no one that loves you as I do. I was not wanting pain or discomfort and oppression in your life. Yet many of you in your bitterness of heart have come to expect pain and lack of comfort because of the things you have suffered. I AM WANTING TO RESTORE all things. I have said that the knowledge of ME will cover the earth. I want you to change your expectations to fit with MINE for you. I want you to believe how much I love you and am for you!“

Isa 11:9-12 NIV
9 They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.
10 In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples; the nations will rally to him, and his place of rest will be glorious. 11 In that day the Lord will reach out his hand a second time to reclaim the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Lower Egypt, from Upper Egypt, from Cush, from Elam, from Babylonia, from Hamath and from the islands of the sea. 12 He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel; he will assemble the scattered people of Judah from the four quarters of the earth.

Ps 106:32-33 NKJV They angered Him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses on account of them; 33 Because they rebelled against His Spirit, so that he spoke rashly with his lips.

Ps 55:11-13 NKJV Destruction is in its midst; Oppression and deceit do not depart from its streets. 12 For it is not an enemy who reproaches me; Then I could bear it. Nor is it one who hates me who has exalted himself against me; Then I could hide from him. 13 But it was you, a man my equal, My companion and my acquaintance.

Ps 55:9-10 NKJV Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues, for I have seen violence and strife in the city. 10 Day and night they go around it on its walls; Iniquity and trouble are also in the midst of it.

Ps 31:20 NKJV You shall hide them in the secret place of Your presence from the plots of man; You shall keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

OT:7379 riyb (reeb); or rib (reeb); from OT:7378; a contest (personal or legal): KJV - adversary, cause, chiding, contend (-tion), controversy, multitude [from the margin], pleading, strife, strive (-ing), suit.
OT:7378 riyb (reeb); or ruwb (roob); a primitive root; properly, to toss, i.e. grapple; mostly figuratively, to wrangle, i.e. hold a controversy; (by implication) to defend: KJV - adversary, chide, complain, contend, debate, ever, lay wait, plead, rebuke, strive, thoroughly.

Food You Know Not Of - Part II

Part II

John 5:39-40 NKJV You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and these are they which testify of Me. 40 But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life.

The scriptures are given to us for our edification and encouragement and comfort, but if we don't seek the AUTHOR of the Word, then, we only have Relationship with the words, and not THE WORD Himself. Reading scripture and meditating on it builds our spiritual IMMUNE system. We fight the enemy with the Word, so if we don't get it into us, we have nothing to fight with. We absolutely need the Holy Spirit to help us to understand the Word anyway, so it is a wise thing to ask Him to help us even as we pick it up to read, to show us meaning for our lives in it. I have found that I can remember scriptures more when the Lord illuminates them! As you ponder the scriptures, He can give light to them and you will understand them better, and this way apply them to your own life.

Ps 23:5 NKJV You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over.

Even in the midst of attacks from the enemy, and in the midst of turmoil, the Lord will set before you, His illumination of scriptures, that you will be able to be encouraged and to rest in His arms. He will anoint you with the oil of GLADNESS and you will overflow with anointing to give to others.

Matt 22:29 NKJV Jesus answered and said to them, "You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God.

See He was chastising them that although they thought they knew the scriptures, they really did not know them, because they did not know God's heart or Him. Relationship is two ways, not just us speaking to Him, but He speaking to us, if we will stop and rest in His presence and not withdraw from it too soon to hear. Quietness seems a hard thing for westerners to adapt to. To just sit and relax, and meditate on Him. We feel guilty for not DOING something. But it is in the quietness and rest that RESTORATION comes, and often the REVELATION also of so many things He wants to show us. That is where we get our DIRECTION. Psalm 23 says, Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me! The rod and staff are His direction and guidance.

Job 6:6 NKJV Can flavorless food be eaten without salt?

What does salt represent? Incorruptibility, covenant, preservation from corruption, that which endures.

Job 23:12 NKJV I have not departed from the commandment of His lips;
I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.

We must grow to treasure the words of His mouth more than food. I remember that Smith Wigglesworth would read the bible before each meal he ate, thinking to fill his soul with the word , as much as his body with regular food. I'm not saying we have to do what he did. Just that we should love the WORDS of the Lord, Rhema or Logos. And we need to fill ourselves with them as much as with natural food. Our Spirit needs strength to fight also, so we should seek Him for all that our body and soul and spirit need in order to be whole.

Job 12:11 NKJV Does not the ear test words and the mouth taste its food?
And again… Job 34:3 NKJV For the ear tests words as the palate tastes food.
This is a lesson in discernment. If we fill ourselves with His word, then also discernment grows, so that when a lie is spoken we recognize it as a lie. If we fill ourselves with TRUTH, then lies become more apparent.

Job 36:31 NKJV For by these He judges the peoples; He gives food in abundance.
The food spoken of here is His voice speaking to you through the Word or through His own mouth to your heart and mind.

Job 38:41 NKJV Who provides food for the raven, when its young ones cry to God, and wander about for lack of food?
Ps 78:25 NKJV Men ate angels' food; He sent them food to the full.
John 6:31 NKJV Our fathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"
Deut 8:16 NKJV who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers did not know, that He might humble you and that He might test you, to do you good in the end —

Manna represents food in the natural for the stomach, but in the spiritual it represents Jesus, Who is the Bread of LIFE. What comes from His mouth is life to our body and strength to our soul. And we need that LIFE daily!

Rev 2:17 NKJV "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it.'"

Isaiah also talks about a "new name" which according to Conners symbolizes the releasing of NEW REVELATION…
Isa 62:2-4 NKJV
2 The Gentiles shall see your righteousness, and all kings your glory. You shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD will name. 3 You shall also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. 4 You shall no longer be termed Forsaken, Nor shall your land any more be termed Desolate; But you shall be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; For the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married.

Hidden manna is available to those He has close relationship with. We just need to be AVAILABLE. If we quiet our spirits and bodies before Him, He speaks. Hidden manna are things in His word, yet not fully understood. God tells His secrets to you. He reveals. But again, I emphasize, you must be available to hear.

Ps 104:21 NKJV The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God.
Ps 111:5 NKJV He has given food to those who fear Him; He will ever be mindful of His covenant.
Ps 136:25 NKJV Who gives food to all flesh, For His mercy endures forever.
Ps 145:15-16 NKJV The eyes of all look expectantly to You, and You give them their food in due season. 16 You open Your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

Look how many scriptures affirm physical food, for those who are His, and there is an alignment also to spiritual food. God will not leave us comfortless or directionless, though sometimes He seems to restrain His voice and you must make a decision and use your best wisdom. In order to eat food, we wash it, and prepare it, and cook it sometimes, and then eat of it. And when it is digested it gives us energy to perform the normal everyday activities of life. We also must chew on the word to digest it…ponder it, meditate on it. Then it gets into our soul and mind, and we can apply what's in it.
Josh 1:8-9 NKJV
8 This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. 9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

Prov 23:2-3 NKJV And put a knife to your throat if you are a man given to appetite. 3 Do not desire his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.

Wow, this is a hard saying, yet it is an admonition against idolatry. Do not desire the Kings dainties as it says in Daniel as deceptive food, causes our spirits to be oppressed. Likewise when we eat rich foods, not meant to be taken in or to be the bulk of what we eat, then our bodies suffer toxicity. Gout is one of those diseases.

Prov 30:8-9 NKJV Remove falsehood and lies far from me; Give me neither poverty nor riches — Feed me with the food allotted to me; 9 Lest I be full and deny You, and say, "Who is the LORD?" Or lest I be poor and steal, and profane the name of my God.

It is part of our human nature to be satiated with where we are, and in this complacency can develop. So tis better to have what you need and not be given to excesses. God always knows best. The overly fed, often forget where they were, and what they were, and then give in to apathy and complacency.

Ezek 47:11-12 NKJV Along the bank of the river, on this side and that, will grow all kinds of trees used for food; their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. They will bear fruit every month, because their water flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for medicine."

Dan 4:11-12 NKJV The tree grew and became strong; Its height reached to the heavens, and it could be seen to the ends of all the earth. 12 Its leaves were lovely, Its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all. The beasts of the field found shade under it, The birds of the heavens dwelt in its branches,
And all flesh was fed from it.

Dan 4:21-22 NKJV whose leaves were lovely and its fruit abundant, in which was food for all, under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and in whose branches the birds of the heaven had their home — 22 it is you, O king, who have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

Note the similarities of symbolism in the above scriptures. God aligns trees to men. In Is 61 He calls us TREES of righteousness. So the trees by the river in Ezekial 47 refers to us. This is a promise to those who stay by the river that comes from the throne of God: that our leaves will not wither and our fruitfulness will not fail. "They will bear fruit every month, because their water flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for medicine." So our fruitfulness will continue as we stay immersed in Him, abiding in Him, communicating with Him. And that fruitfulness will be food to others who are needy. And our leaves…our prosperity in the midst of abundance or famine will be medicine to the masses. Leaves represent that prosperity amidst any conditions of the world. Prosperity of soul, not money so much as the whole picture of one whose life is immersed in God and is full of His love, His patience, His mercy, His joy, His kindness, His goodness, His self-control. Praise the Lord!

Hag 2:10-14 NKJV The People Are Defiled
On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Now, ask the priests concerning the law, saying, 12 "If one carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with the edge he touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any food, will it become holy?""'
Then the priests answered and said, "No."
13 And Haggai said, "If one who is unclean because of a dead body touches any of these, will it be unclean?" So the priests answered and said, "It shall be unclean." 14 Then Haggai answered and said," 'So is this people, and so is this nation before Me,' says the LORD, 'and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.
Here Haggai gives a word from the Lord about separation. It is similar to the parable of the leaven in the New Testament. A little leaven leavens the whole lump. So does our sin affect everyone else in the body. A person who is backsliding does not read the WORD. I remember once when I was married, that my ex would be just the best person when he was in the Word of God, but the moment he wasn't you knew it. His behavior would change, and get looser and looser, more and more rationalizing behavior. Self came back on the throne. And it is true for me as well. It's just easier to see in others.
There are also times when God just has us laid out with a carving knife and sometimes in those times, all you can read is Psalms. So it is not definitive, but I have seen so many who proclaim to be Christian and do not walk accordingly, and you find out that they are not reading the Word, nor they worshipping in intimacy with Our Lord. It seems to be a barometer sometimes. The WORD is LIFE to our souls even as natural food is life to our bodies.

Prov 3:8 NKJV It will be health to your flesh, and strength to your bones.
Prov 3:18-19 NIV She is a tree of life to those who embrace her; those who lay hold of her will be blessed. 19 By wisdom the LORD laid the earth's foundations, by understanding he set the heavens in place;

Prov 4:20-22 NIV ………..listen closely to my words. 21 Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart; 22 for they are life to those who find them and health to a man's whole body.

From The Rising Of The Sun To Its Going Down

Ps 113:3-9 NKJV 3 From the rising of the sun to its going down the LORD's name is to be praised. 4 The LORD is high above all nations, His glory above the heavens. 5 Who is like the LORD our God, Who dwells on high, 6 Who humbles Himself to behold The things that are in the heavens and in the earth? 7 He raises the poor out of the dust, And lifts the needy out of the ash heap, 8 That He may seat him with princes — With the princes of His people. 9 He grants the barren woman a home, like a joyful mother of children. Praise the LORD!

Ps 50:1-4 NKJV God the Righteous Judge A Psalm of Asaph.
The Mighty One, God the LORD, has spoken and called the earth from the rising of the sun to its going down. 2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God will shine forth. 3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent; A fire shall devour before Him, and it shall be very tempestuous all around Him.
4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that He may judge His people:

" From the rising of the sun till it's going down, I have made a covenant to My people. I will come and I will pour out LIFE. There is NOTHING that can stop Me from doing my mysterious and marvelous work! NOTHING, NOTHING, NOTHING can stop what I have prophesied would happen.
No matter what happens, what I WILL for MY PEOPLE will not fail!
The coming harvest will come at a great price, but it WILL COME, and I will pour out GREAT GLORY. I will sanctify My temples with My glory, and all will be made new! I will NOT keep silent at the wickedness of the wicked.
I will not remain indifferent as they are! Am I a man?

Will I not purge my threshing floors? Will I not level every mountain and raise up every valley? Will I not RESTORE that the knowledge of the Lord will cover the earth as the seas? Surely My hand is not too short to strengthen. My power not to dim to bring forth what I have commanded?
Fight the good FIGHT! STRENGTHEN your bands! Strengthen those who are weak and faint of heart, and weary! CALL FORTH those who have been hidden. TRUMPET FORTH all that I tell you in your ear! BELIEVE MY REPORT. For the mouth of the Lord has spoken and declared that from the rising of the sun to it's setting, NOT one WORD will be broken! I make peace and I make calamity. I bruise, and I RESTORE! I lift up, and I bring down low!

Nothing happens that I am surprised by it. I am all-knowing. Men may mock the law. Men may create a picture of Me in their minds that reflects their own desires, but I REMAIN THE SAME, yesterday, today and tomorrow!
I have a covenant yet to write on the hearts of men, that will astound the unbelieving! I have a day of surprise for those who thing I am dead or sleeping! All is in MY HANDS, and My arm is not yet broken! I will come forth like a MIGHTY MAN, and all will be done according to MY PLANS.

The heart of the priest should be as My heart. The law should be written in their hearts, and on their lips. But sadly, men are changing even My WORD to reflect their own predispositions. Again, I am not surprised, I have known their schemes and plans. And I tell you, that when the enemy comes in like a flood, I WILL RAISE UP A STANDARD AGAINST HIM. My remnant Bride will be a standard that will SHAKE THE EARTH! A FIRE will devour before them for I WILL BE WITH YOU, and I WILL bring forth justice and righteousness, despite the evil plans and plots of men. MY NAME WILL BE LIFTED HIGH ABOVE ALL NATIONS! AND GREAT EXPLOITS will mark My soldiers of glory! Be not dismayed at the opposition that surrounds you now! SPEAK FORTH MY WORD, and WAR like a good soldier, and I will bring forth Your righteousness as the noon day!

Keep your eyes on Me, and watch what you say with your mouth, for the enemy is looking for any open door to attack you with. ASK FOR MY OVERCOMING GRACE, and I will give it! GET READY MY BRIDE FOR A FLOOD OF MANY WATERS IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD. AND KNOW THAT I WILL SHAKE MY FIST AT THE ENEMY OF YOUR SOUL, TILL HIS CAGE IS RATTLED, BUT KNOW WHEN IT IS, HE WILL BE ENRAGED AND INCREASE HIS FORCES. But so will I

INCREASE MY POWER WITHIN YOU to withstand all his plans!”

Isa 45:6-13 NKJV That they may know from the rising of the sun to its setting that there is none besides Me. I am the LORD, and there is no other; 7 I form the light and create darkness, I make peace and create calamity; I, the LORD, do all these things.'
8 "Rain down, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness; Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together. I, the LORD, have created it.
9 "Woe to him who strives with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth! Shall the clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?' Or shall your handiwork say, 'He has no hands'? 10 Woe to him who says to his father, 'What are you begetting?' Or to the woman, 'What have you brought forth?'"
11 Thus says the LORD, The Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: "Ask Me of things to come concerning My sons; And concerning the work of My hands, you command Me. 12 I have made the earth, and created man on it. I — My hands — stretched out the heavens, and all their host I have commanded. 13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways; He shall build My city And let My exiles go free, not for price nor reward, "Says the LORD of hosts.

Isa 59:19-21 NKJV So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun; When the enemy comes in like a flood, The Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him.
20 "The Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from transgression in Jacob," Says the LORD. 21 "As for Me," says the LORD, "this is My covenant with them: My Spirit who is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your descendants, nor from the mouth of your descendants' descendants," says the LORD, "from this time and forevermore."

Mal 1:11- Mal 2:9 NKJV
11 For from the rising of the sun, even to its going down, My name shall be great among the Gentiles; In every place incense shall be offered to My name, and a pure offering; For My name shall be great among the nations," Says the LORD of hosts. 12 "But you profane it, In that you say, 'The table of the LORD is defiled; and its fruit, its food, is contemptible.' 13 You also say, 'Oh, what a weariness!' And you sneer at it," Says the LORD of hosts." And you bring the stolen, the lame, and the sick; Thus you bring an offering! Should I accept this from your hand?" Says the LORD. 14 "But cursed be the deceiver Who has in his flock a male,And takes a vow,But sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished — For I am a great King," Says the LORD of hosts," And My name is to be feared among the nations.

Corrupt Priests
1 "And now, O priests, this commandment is for you. 2 If you will not hear, and if you will not take it to heart, to give glory to My name," Says the LORD of hosts," I will send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. Yes, I have cursed them already, because you do not take it to heart.
3 "Behold, I will rebuke your descendants and spread refuse on your faces, the refuse of your solemn feasts; And one will take you away with it. 4 Then you shall know that I have sent this commandment to you, that My covenant with Levi may continue," Says the LORD of hosts. 5 "My covenant was with him, one of life and peace, and I gave them to him that he might fear Me; So he feared Me and was reverent before My name. 6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and injustice was not found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and equity, and turned many away from iniquity.
7 "For the lips of a priest should keep knowledge, and people should seek the law from his mouth; For he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. 8 But you have departed from the way; You have caused many to stumble at the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," Says the LORD of hosts. 9 "Therefore I also have made you contemptible and base before all the people, because you have not kept My ways But have shown partiality in the law."

A Promise From The King

Yolanda Ballard

As the year comes to an end and a new one is well on its way, I want you to look to Me like never before, for I AM going to show you things that will surely amaze you concerning what I will have you to do. For I have taken you through the fire in preparation for a deeper calling upon your life. You have been more than willing to serve Me and have been patient in seeking My face, and now I will surely reveal to you what you have been waiting for.

I will pour out My glory in a fuller measure, and give you the discernment you will need for I AM taking you up to a higher level in worship and warfare, and that means that you will be coming against greater devils. For we all know what My word says, and that is, "Greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world." But you can't go into battle without knowing what you are up against. Many have been come against hard where you might feel like you aren't able to stand this pressure any longer. But I will not allow you to go through anything you cannot handle if you look past the natural and look to Me. For I AM the author and finisher of your faith, and you have the mind of Christ, and the joy of the Lord is your strength. With all the Truth you have going for you, you will truly overcome, succeed, and take the land.

Rise up in the might of your King. Let out a mighty shout of victory for our God reigns. Reach out and touch My hand and unite your heart with Mine, and I will take you forward as one in a mighty march against all that has tried to hinder My work in this land. Yes, unite ranks and hearts, and begin to praise Me. Yes, reach out and lean on My faith to take you through. Don't trust in your own understanding, but in all your ways, acknowledge Me, and I will direct your paths.

And yes, I have promised you health and prosperity if you delight yourself in Me. Put Me first in your heart and in all your ways, and My righteousness will be yours. For you have a promised package if you love Me and obey Me. This is the day for quickened blessings. This is the day to stir up My anointing by basking in My secret place in worship and intimacy. Draw near to Me and I will draw you even nearer so you will even heart My heart cry for the lost and My heart beating even more for you.

Yes, feed My sheep. Look out for one another with a kind word of encouragement and a helping hand for you can't make it on your own. Include Me always in your agenda. Don't leave Me out, because of vanity and independence. Cast off the pride and unbelief. And I will show you the way to stand to pull down the strongholds, and once and for all be the bride I called you to be. Yes, I have called an army of worshipping warriors, a bride with boots on, but you must not entangle yourself with the affairs of the world, and be My kingdom-minded.

This is the day to step out and take the land for I AM calling you to battle, and worship will be your greatest joy and asset that will lead you in the fight. I have given you My armor. And I've given you My sword and shield. Your greatest and most powerful weapon besides worship is My love for without love you are nothing against the enemy. So do not allow the enemy to separate you in any way taking sides over affairs you think are important. For nothing is more important than My love shared through grace and truth.

This is the day for salvation and to take a stand. May your heart and mind be pure, and from this day forth walk as a victor in My might. A new day to you, new beginnings. All things are passed away, washed in the blood and made whiter than snow. Nothing to hold you back. Reap My promises. Gather the wheat together. Spread My word and be discerning, says your King, for We are going on.

A Prophetic Flow

Lift up your voice like a trumpet, says the Lord. I have come as the eagle to spread My wings over you and to release a prophetic flow that shall be given to you. I say to you, speak and proclaim in the land My soon return. Proclaim My goodness among the nations. Speak aloud the word that I give to you, even if it is only for your ears, and hear the sound of My trumpet that will stir your spirit. You shall be strengthened and empowered by My presence. I come to give voice to My people and speak to your hearts those things that I am about to do, for I will reveal the mysteries of the age and those things hidden in darkness. I will reveal to you, My chosen generation, that which is to be spoken in this hour. Arise with hope and be renewed. Be anointed for you are My voice in the land. Lift up your voice like a trumpet!

Watch for opportunities and be aware of situations designed to produce an attitude adjustment. Examine your own heart when circumstances arise that challenge you, for you will be able to see more clearly than ever your state of mind and make the necessary adjustments to align yourself more perfectly with My character and nature, says the Lord. Yield quickly in the Spirit to these corrections because stubborn refusal to respond in a godly manner equates to rebellion. Beloved, this is in preparation for what is ahead. You cannot move forward without this adjustment, and now is the time for modification.

I speak to you who, because of need and presumption, have set up certain people and relationships in your own heart as idols. You elevated them in importance and worth, and when they did not perform according to your expectation or meet your particular need, you began to tear them down. You were in error to put them up and you are in error in tearing them down. This process had nothing to do with what they did or did not do; it has to do with the unrighteous motives of your own heart. You need to see others as I see them, says the Lord, and to love one another as I have loved you -- not according to their performance with regard to your life or any merit of their own, for this is to judge according to the flesh instead of righteous judgment. See those around you in light of the fact that I love them and they are precious in My sight. Choose to be in agreement with the mind of Christ. Walk in the Spirit.

Examine your hearts and pay particular attention to those things that you do that are motivated by fear. Your tendency is to set up elaborate systems of protection to avoid being hurt. But, this attitude will become a place of isolation and bondage as you cut yourself off. Now is the time to overcome fear of man and fear of what others can do to you. "If God be for you who can be against you?" I speak to many who are afraid of being deceived, but have I not said that I am with you to direct your steps? Will I not guide you and bring truth? For light will suddenly burst forth in the darkness if you will only trust Me to show you the way. I AM with you.

March 18, 2004: Turn from all wicked schemes and evil devices. I know you thoroughly, says the Lord, and what you have been successful in hiding from men is not hidden from My sight. You have not only sinned against man, but you have sinned against Me, and you can be sure that your sin will find you out. You are entering a season of exposure. What has been spoken in secret will be shouted from the housetops. What has been cleverly disguised in deception and darkness will be brought to truth and light. This will happen on every level. Everything from gossip and slander to criminal activities will be disclosed, for I am calling you to righteousness and holiness. This is truly a season of cleansing and purging. Be sensitive to conviction, and do not harden your hearts in rebellion. Walk in the integrity of My Spirit, for now is the season of the preparation of My Bride. 1 John 1:9, "if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

Consider the seed of offense planted in the ground of your heart. This is how it grows -- it calculates, enumerates, delineates, separates, repudiates, isolates, violates, retaliates, contaminates, and obligates others to choose. Offense shuts the door to your brother and opens the door to the devil. A brother offended is harder to win than a walled city, and contentions are like the bars of a castle. (Proverbs18:19) Eradicate this noxious weed. Forgive.

Apostolic Strategy

Apostolic Strategy

"…the Holy Spirit said, 'Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work…'"* Acts 13:2

Part 1 of 4

God is restoring a new level of the 'apostolic' to His church.

But for this to occur we must cut through the extraneous and get to the foundational. In an age of communication and information overload we are desperately in need of distinguishing between the primary and the peripheral.

And so, in this teaching my object is to uncover the primary strategy for an apostolic release and show how the kingdom of God may increase on earth.

Distinguishing between 'Strategy' & 'Tactics'

To do this we must understand two terms:

'Strategy' – the art of war – the planning and direction of the larger military movements and overall operations; and

'Tactics' – the art of disposing armed forces – the carrying out of the larger strategy through manoeuvres in actual contact with the enemy.

The former consists of foundational principles which are inviolable and universal, applicable to all peoples and all times. They look at the big picture – to where, when, and why troops and resources are best directed to ensure victory.

The latter consists of situational procedures – methods that will vary depending on circumstances to deliver troops and resources in implementing the strategy. For example, troops and supplies may be dropped in by parachute, or they may be landed by boat. It deals with the logistics of a specific mission.

Tragically the church devotes most of her energies to the 'tactical', trying to implement and improve practical programs, assuming they are integral to God's larger 'strategy'.

The 'tactical' must come out of the 'strategic' and relates to the management of either the church (this management is called the 'diaconate') or the sphere of the apostle (the 'apostolate' which is managed by the ministry of 'helps and administrations'). This opens the difference between the 'church' and the 'work' which we will unpack later in this study.

The 'strategic' is macro-leadership the 'tactical' is micro-management. But one must flow out of the other – the latter out of the former.

This article therefore will take us into the 'war room' – into the macro. There we will explore the apostolic strategy for the global expansion of the gospel and the increase of His kingdom on earth.

Defining the term 'Apostle'

To do this we must first define the term 'apostle'. The Greek word 'apostolos' simply means a sent one. Jesus used the verb form of this word when He declared, "As the Father has sent (apostello) me, so I send you" (Jn 20:21). Every believer clearly has an apostolic commission. The marching orders have already been given. But how are those orders delivered in a given situation so that the body of Christ might move into the apostolic – into its commission as a sent one?

This is where the apostle kicks in. Along with the prophet, they are the pivotal ascension gift ministries for the healthy functioning of the body and the releasing of the saints to the work of ministry (Eph 2:20; 4:11-14). In other words, the body cannot function 'apostolically' without the full and mature functioning of the apostle.

The use of the term 'apostolos' in classical Greek is highly instructive. First, in the context of Roman colonial expansion, it was used to refer to the commander of a naval expedition sent out to establish a new colony; and secondly, to the whole fleet and colony which was founded by that commander.

Nature & Function of the Apostolic

The Holy Spirit has lifted this term from its classical context and embedded it within the sacred text to describe for us both the nature and function of the apostolic.

Sent from God, the primary function of the apostle is to plant the colony of heaven on earth. This is far larger than just planting new churches. It encompasses this, but has more to do with the increase of the kingdom both in a quantitative and qualitative sense – the raising up of a new humanity enjoying "righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit" (Rom 14:17; see also Rom 8:29; Heb 2:10).

This is born through the corporate and plural nature of the apostolic. We have just seen in the original usage of the term the thought of leadership (the commander) and the corporate (the fleet and the colonists).

While not teaching explicitly the corporateness of the apostolic ministry, the Scripture does teach it implicitly by way of a model.

Paul, for example, on his 3rd missionary journey returning from Greece "was accompanied by Sopater of Berea, and by Aristarchus and Secindus of the Thessalonians; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia" (Acts 20:4). Through this corporateness the gospel spreads and the kingdom is expanded.

Paul said of his associate Timothy, "For I have no one else of kindred spirit…But you know of his proven worth that he served with me in the furtherance of the gospel…" (Phil 2:20, 22). Likewise, Luke in his record of Paul's 2nd missionary journey provides us clear testimony to the corporateness and effect of Paul's ministry in the spread of the gospel. "And a vision appeared to Paul…a certain man of Macedonia…saying, 'Come over to Macedonia and help us.' And when he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them" (Act 16:9,10). It is important to note that while 'he' (Paul) had seen the vision 'we' (Paul's team including Luke) sought to go. Through the apostle, Luke concludes that "God had called us to preach" – a vivid picture of what could be called the 'corporate apostle'.

It appears that Paul's apostolic gifting was the catalyst for the release and function of other ministries. His life and dynamic irrepressibly found expression in a company of intimates (see Rom 16:1-16). These men and women, while free, subordinated any individualistic pursuit of ministry, resulting not in an organisational structure, but in a pure and powerful demonstration of the body of Christ – of free men walking together in relationship as love-slaves to Christ.

Paul – the Prototype Apostle

And so, the history of God's activity through the church is primarily a history of 'men and movements'.

He calls and commissions 'apostles' through whom he raises up a work. After the ascension of Christ

Peter, James, and John, all had their spheres of ministry from which flowed related movements of followers and co-labourers.

However, as significant as these men where I would suggest that there is one man and movement which is the normative model – the prototype.

This, in my view, is Paul – the pioneer 'apostle to the Gentiles' (Gal 2:8). A man sent to the ethne – to all tribes, tongues, peoples, and nations (see Acts 26:16-18). His mission was universal – to ALL nations.

Let me explain.

Peter, by contrast, was recognised as an 'apostle to the Jews'. This was according to a divine commission, as was Paul's apostleship to the Gentiles (see Gal 2:7,8). James and John were also established as 'pillars' in Jerusalem – the Hebrew church (see Gal 1:19; 2:9, 12; Acts 15:13; 21:18). Although, tradition later places John in Ephesus (living out his days towards the close of the first century as an old and venerated leader of that church); and Peter in Rome.

However, Paul was the chosen instrument to take the gospel to the nations in accordance with God's purpose (see Acts 9:15; 26:15-18; 13:47; Isa 49:6; Rom 1:1; Gal 1:15). This was primarily an issue of call and revelation:

"…God who set me apart from birth and called me by his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son in me so that I might preach him among the Gentiles…" (Gal 1:15-16)

Because of his call to the nations God entrusted a unique revelation to Paul. This revelation was not received from any man, nor revealed to previous generations,

"…the gospel I preached is not something that man made up. I did not receive it from any man…I received it by revelation from Jesus Christ" (Gal 1:11-12).

He did not receive it from Peter, James, or John. In fact Paul's revelation was so unique he could describe it as 'my gospel' (see Rom 2:16; 16:25; 2 Tim 2:8; 2 Th 2:14; 2 Cor 4:3).

He also warned of a 'different gospel' in contrast to the gospel that he had preached (see 2 Cor 11:4; Gal 1:6, 8, 9). Paul's gospel was so distinctive in contrast to that of Peter, James, and John, and so integral to the establishing of the new covenant order that he publicly withstood Peter in Antioch to protect it (see Gal 2:11-14). Peter, writing many years later, acknowledged that Paul's revelation was 'hard to understand', but had evidently accepted the rebuke affirming his writings as 'Scripture' (see 2 Pet 3:16).

So, what was the revelation that others found so hard to understand – and what was unique about it?

Paul explains,

"Surely you have heard about the administration of God's grace that was given to me for you, that is, the mystery made known to me by revelation… In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, which was not made known to men in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God's holy apostles and prophets. This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of ONE BODY…" (Eph 3:2-6).

It is the revelation of the 'ONE BODY' in which there is neither Jew nor Gentile (see Eph 2:11-18; Col 3:11; Gal 3:28; 6:15; Rom 2:28, 29). Until this revelation the gospel (with the exception of Cornelius's household – Acts 10) was viewed as exclusive to the Jew. And even after the outpouring of the Spirit at Cornelius's house the Gentiles were still subjected to the ritual law. Certain individuals came from James in Jerusalem to Antioch demanding the Gentiles submit to circumcision. Conflicting with Paul's revelation of the gospel this precipitated the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15) and triggered Paul's later confrontation with Peter at Antioch because of his withdrawal from the Gentiles (Gal 2).

This revelation of the 'ONE BODY', as we will see in part two, is the essence of the apostolic mandate.

Part 2 of 4

Antioch – the Prototype Apostolic Church

Before we expand on the revelation of the 'ONE BODY', viewing Paul as the apostolic prototype for the universal church, let us explore the beginnings of that ministry.

If we are to understand the intent of the Holy Spirit in any given direction, we must go back to the first instance of that direction. This provides the model for all future development.

To do this we must return to the city of Antioch . It was from here that the Gentile mission was born, becoming the true parent of the universal church. The action of the Holy Spirit in this city creates the DNA for the apostolic – it becomes the prototype for gospel expansion and kingdom increase.

Focusing on Antioch, Acts chapter 13 divides the record of Acts in two – the first section (ch 1-12) finding its focal point in Peter's mission to the Jews, and the second (ch 13-28) finding it in the unfolding Pauline mission to the nations. Significantly, the first reference to Paul as an 'apostle' does not occur until chapter 14 (vs. 4, 14) – after he has been sent from Antioch.

Acts 13, therefore, provides the ingredients for the release of the apostolic.

Let us examine this in more detail:

A 'Gateway' City

First, we see that Antioch was a 'gateway' city.

Antioch, in Syria, the third largest city of the Roman Empire after Rome and Alexandria, was a commercial and political hub. Close to the frontier between the Greco-Roman world and the Orient, it contained a highly cosmopolitan population. It was the gateway between West and East – a city through which commerce, government, many nationalities, and belief-systems found access to larger geographical regions and spheres of influence.

The international complexion of the city and therefore of the church is reflected in its leadership –

"In the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod the Tetrarch) and Saul." Acts 13:1

In addition to Barnabas from Cyprus and Saul from Tarsus, the leadership consisted of Simeon called Niger (meaning 'black') obviously from Africa; Lucius of Cyrene, from Libya, in North Africa; and Manaen, 'brought up with Herod', a member of the Jewish aristocracy.

As the master-strategist, in this melting pot of the nations, the Holy Spirit chose to give birth to the apostolic. It became the launch pad for the Gentile apostolic mission – for the colony of heaven invading earth.

And so, the 'Antioch model' illustrates that the Holy Spirit is strategic in choosing 'gateway' cities for the raising up of the apostolic.

Even so, it must be remembered that 'forerunners' and 'saviours' most often come from or minister in obscure places before strategic expansion. He sent, for example, John the Baptist into the wilderness; Amos was called from a small country town, and Jesus came from Nazareth . Paul was also taken into Arabia for a season before his strategic placement in Antioch (see Gal 1:17 , 18).

The Church of the City

'…in the church in Antioch…' Acts 13:1

God is restoring the church of the city. The coming worldwide visitation will be so extensive, and so, intensive, that one group will not be able to contain it. It will demand a new wineskin – the emerging city-church.

The apostolic church knows nothing of our modern denominational divisions. It was not denominated by theologies or celebrities, but by geographies. Geographical boundaries and civil jurisdictions alone determined the church's boundaries. They were not in competition with one another. When the apostle addressed a church he would speak, for example, to the whole 'church of God in Corinth' (1 Cor 1:2). Evidently, the church, even in these large cosmopolitan cities, was functioning as one unified body.

This brings us again to the content of Paul's revelation of the mystery – 'that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of ONE BODY…' (Eph 3:6).

The revelation of the 'ONE BODY' was not only the 'message'; but also the 'method' of Paul's apostolic mission to the Gentiles. Once received it was modeled in the city-church of Antioch and then in Paul's apostolic team. Conceived in the womb of the city-church it was thrust out from the 'ONE BODY' of Antioch to plant and nurture the corporate Christ, city by city, throughout the nations. Paul and his team had hands laid on them by the Antioch church and were 'sent'(apostello) out (see Acts 13:3). And so, "the inhabitants of one city will go to another and say, 'Let us go at once to entreat the Lord and seek the Lord Almighty'" (Zech 8:21).

This is in vast contrast to many of the 'apostolic networks' we currently see operating.

Flying the flag of a particular 'network' new members are 'recruited' to that network rather than 're-formed' into the 'ONE BODY' of the city. Consequently they are defined and denominated by their membership with that particular 'apostolic network' rather than by the church of the city. This in my view is not effectively different to our existing denominational divisions.

Because we are in transition this deficiency is understandable. We are emerging from a sub-normal Christianity. And so, the fullness of the apostolic ministry will occur only in harmony with the restoration of the city-church. This will occur as a work of the Spirit and will require distinguishing between two very different spheres of ministry – between the 'church' and the 'work'. It will also demand that one serve the other, but more of this in Part 3.

The apostolic Gentile mission began in Antioch and will continue until the 'full number of the Gentiles has come in' (Rom 11:25). As the parent of that mission, Antioch has imparted its DNA and will, therefore, play out in every authentic expression of the apostolic.

Just as the Church of Ephesus, 'tested those who claimed to be apostles... and found them false' (Rev 2:2), contemporary apostles will also need to be measured and tested.

The marks of an apostle apart from the 'miraculous' (signs, wonders and miracles – 2 Cor 12:12), are seen in the 'man' (in their fellowship of Christ's sufferings for the sake of Christ's body - see 2 Cor 4; 6:3-13; 11:16-12:10; Phil 3:10; Col 1:24-27); in their 'message' (the revelation of the mystery – the one body – Eph 3:2-6); and in their 'method' (the Antioch prototype as discussed here).

The revelation of the mystery – of the Father's purpose to raise up a MATURE CORPORATE CHRIST in every city – is shown to the 'apostles and prophets' (see Eph 3:5). It will drive them not to build empires and networks but to spend their lives in growing the 'church of the city'. This is the peculiar mission of apostles, prophets, and teachers who are set in the body as the spearhead of heaven coming to earth in a given locality (see 1 Cor 12:28). They do not exist for themselves – to be a successful and growing network – but for the body of Christ of each locality to come to 'the fullness of the stature of Christ' (see Eph 4:11-14).

This DNA only comes by the Spirit – " …it is now being revealed by the Spirit to God's holy apostles and prophets" (Eph 3:5); and is therefore one of the proofs of true apostleship.

Without it, new 'apostolic networks' will only prove to be an aberration – as self-serving, sectarian, and schismatic as the historic denominations.

And so, when Paul planned to visit Rome, for example, he addressed himself 'to all in Rome (to the whole church of the city)…I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to make you strong…' (Rom 1:7,11). He was concerned to impart something of the Spirit to the whole church of the city that would add to their corporate maturity. His apostolic passion and purview took in the whole horizon of the city-church. He was not looking for recruits to grow his own network.

It is time to ask ourselves whether we are merely building a 'successful' network or the corporate Christ!

In Part 3 we will discover the role of prophetic worship, prophets, and teachers in releasing the apostolic.

Part 3 of 4

The ‘Church’ and the ‘Work’

Despite the apostolic message and method finding its focus in the city-church, the ONE BODY, there is a clear division of labour. Paul and Barnabas, at the direction of the Holy Spirit, were to be separated from the ‘church’ to the ‘work’.

This is the birth of the apostolic. Hands are layed on them and they are ‘sent’ (apostello), immediately embarking with John Mark, on the first missionary journey into Asia Minor (modern day Turkey), preaching, winning disciples, planting churches, and appointing elders. On returning to Antioch they give an account of their labours and after a lengthy stay Paul returns, this time with Silas, to “see how they are doing” (Acts 15:36), thus providing oversight for the towns and cities previously visited.

The ‘church’ and the ‘work’ are distinguished in missiology as the ‘modality’ and the ‘sodality’. They are two distinct spheres of calling. The former referring to the local sphere of congregational life. The latter referring to a trans-local sphere – in fact, to the brotherhood, or association of an apostolic company, separate from the former but given to the work of serving it along with a larger region.

This pattern has been reflected throughout the Christian movement in the various reforming movements, brotherhoods, and missionary movements of both the Catholic and Protestant traditions. However, because of the subnormal condition of church life they have been limited in their ultimate effect despite the often reforming nature of their origins. They have in most cases been born of a true apostolic or prophetic commission.

Even so, in response to the spiritual malaise of the church they have separated from it and given themselves to specialist areas such as missions, prayer, education, or mercy – but, in isolation to the true apostolic burden of the ONE BODY, the corporate Christ of a city. And yet this is the DNA of the original ‘sodality’ of Antioch.

Consequently, our current understanding of so-called ‘para-church’ ministries is aberrant (so also our understanding of the ‘local church’). As the Holy Spirit restores the fullness of the apostolic and prophetic foundation of the ‘new thing’ God is doing, many ‘para-church’ ministries will either become a part of the city-church diaconate or become fully-fledged apostolic movements serving and facilitating the restoration of the ONE BODY, the city-church, across whole regions of the globe. Others may become ministries of 'helps' to those movements that have a true and proven apostolic commission. And some will be shut down as the Father plucks up all those things He has not planted.

The Foundation of Apostles and Prophets

If apostles and prophets, in union with Christ as the chief cornerstone, truly are the foundation of God's dwelling (see Eph 2:20-22), these transitions and realignments will only occur as the foundation is re-laid.

This is why intimacy with God is so foundational to what is going down right now, but more of that in a moment.

In any building process first things must be first – first the foundations and then the superstructure – "…God sets first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then…" (1 Cor 12:28). This means that for the "dwelling in which God lives by His Spirit" to be raised up across a whole city – for a citywide revival – apostles and prophets are not optional. In fact, without them it begs the question as to what we have really been building. It explains in some measure why the church has stalled in the West, particularly the new city-reaching and church growth technologies.

A restoration or rebuilding process demands the 'uprooting and pulling down' of all that is not true to the original plan. Only then can the 'building and planting' proceed. This is the work of reformation as God shakes all things that can be shaken, so that only the unshakeable will remain – every human system, structure, and sentiment will be shaken until the Kingdom only remains. Our present 'local church' structures are currently experiencing this. The traditional model of a pastor-led congregation operating as a denominational franchise will phase out as the city-church wineskin built on the foundation of apostles and prophets replaces it. This is the Father's original pattern – a MATURE CORPORATE SON revealed in every city (see Eph 4:11-13; also for a full explanation see chapter 9 of the author's book, 'Snakes in the Temple: Exposing Idolatry in Today's Church').

And as it was at the first the heavens will again, at this end of the age, resonate with the Father's pleasure as He declares over the CORPORATE CHRIST, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well-pleased. Listen to him!" (Mtt 17:5). God will rivet the attention of whole cities and nations as a visible cloud of glory descends over them sweeping multitudes into the Kingdom.

But how will this occur – and how will the apostolic foundation be restored.

The Antioch prototype provides the strategy.

Prophets and Teachers

"In the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers…" Acts 13:1

It would appear prophets and teachers prepare the way for the release of apostles. Through prophetic teaching and declaration a shift occurs in the spirit realm that releases new or higher levels of the apostolic.

This kind of teaching is not just the transfer of information. It is not Greek Academe, the teaching of seminaries or Bible Colleges, but rather that kind of prophetic teaching which is truly transformational. It is not man's wisdom acquired from book learning, but a wisdom taught by the Spirit. It is food for the spirit which comes from the Father's heart through those sent as ascension gift ministries to the church (see Eph 4:11). They are those that Jesus promised that He would send as "prophets, wise men and teachers" – they are John-the-Baptist-type prophets, reformers, and revolutionaries sent to prepare the way of the Lord (see Mtt 23:34).

And as they prophesy, as did Ezekiel, there will be a "noise, and a shaking as the bones come together, bone to bone" (Ezk 37:4-8) – a re-formation of the church – in fact, a restoration of the ONE BODY, until their breath enters them and they "stand on their feet as an exceeding great army" (v 10) – a cohesive fighting force with ONE SPIRIT, ONE HOPE, ONE LORD, and ONE GOD and Father, over all and through all and in all (see Eph 4:4-6). And so, “From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work"”(Eph 4:16).

The Body of Christ is now entering a phase of prophetic teaching and declaration strategic to the restoration of apostles and the city-church.

Prophetic Worship and Intimacy – birthing the Apostolic

“As they were ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said…” Acts 13:2

These kinds of prophets and teachers are given to the Lord in ministry to Him. They know what it is to play to an audience of One. They are not ecclesiastical functionaries – professional ministers and church technicians – but men of the Spirit. Like David they have hearts after the heart of God and know how to lose themselves in Him – to fall into the Great-Heart Himself.

They are not ‘doing’ worship to bring God down – trying to coerce Him to perform or manipulate Him.

Priests after the Order of Zadok

They are priests after the order of Zadok. Having remained faithful to the Lord and to the sanctuary while others pursued their idols of growth and success they alone, in this new temple of the city-church, the MATURE CORPORATE CHRIST, will be permitted to “come near my table to minister before me” (Ezk 44:16).

Those Levites who pursued other gods will bear the consequences of their unfaithfulness. They will still minister at the gates of the temple before the people – but never in the sanctuary before the Lord (see Ezk 44:10-16). The secret of the Lord is with those who fear Him – and so, His hidden counsels, the hidden things of His heart, will only be revealed to those who have denied all other lovers, remaining true in their devotion to Him.

Over the last five years, with some of the more obvious manifestations of the current renewal subsiding, the Lord has been searching hearts to see whether we would continue to pursue Him, or resort to ‘business as usual’ – to man’s programs and planning. Those who have crossed the invisible line of unfaithfulness in the present season will visibly wear the consequences in the next. They will be supernaturally withheld from having significance in the restored temple of Ezekiel’s vision – from the new temple of the city-church. The most unlikely will emerge as the apostles and prophets of this new era of the church. Those who have lead whole churches and movements in their headlong pursuit after the Baals of growth and success will not regain their birthright in the intimate things of God even with weeping.

And so, the apostolic is born of intimacy. Union with Christ is what true apostles are all about, providing the foundation for the dwelling of God with men.

Out of intimacy with the Father the next season will see an increased level of prophetic teaching and declaration – a declaration of the secret things of God’s heart as they pertain to the MATURE CORPORATE SON – to the restoration of the city-church built on the foundation of true apostles and prophets with Christ as the chief cornerstone.

To the surprise of the religious system a new breed of Zadok-like apostles and prophets will be released into the Body of Christ to prepare the Bride for the harvest of the nations.

In Part 4 we will discuss the apostolic strategy to harvest cities and nations.

Part 4 of 4

Rebuilding the ‘House of the Lord’

God is once again calling out a remnant from the church's Babylonian captivity.

Just as ancient Israel, when the seventy years had expired, were set free to return and rebuild the temple, so too the people of God in this hour (see Jer 25:11-12; 29:10-14; Ezra 1:1-5). The prophetic clock has been ticking and the time for our release is imminent. But it is a release with a purpose – 'the restoration of all things spoken by the holy prophets' (see Acts 3:21) – to restore and rebuild the house of the Lord.

But we have misunderstood the 'house of the Lord' – we have thought it was our 'paneled houses' – our 'local churches' – our franchise outlet for the latest so-called 'apostolic network', new movement, or historic denomination.

We have forgotten that Jesus said, "I will build My church" – that He is completely single-minded about the restoration of "one flock with one shepherd" (Jn 10:16) – the one church of the city.

We have prevaricated by saying, "The time has not yet come for the Lord's house to be built" (Hag 1:2). But the time has come – the Lord is asking, "Is it a time for you yourselves to be living in your paneled houses, while this house remains a ruin?" (Hag 1:4).

We have wondered why it's so hard to 'do church' – why there is so much 'burn-out' – so much failure and frustration – and so little growth.

And so, the Lord is saying,

"Give careful thought to your ways. You have planted much, but have harvested little…You expected much, but see, it turned out to be little. What you brought home I blew away. Why? …Because of My house, which remains a ruin, while each of you is busy with his own house." Hag 1:5-9

The Lord is about to stir the hearts of His people again. As they hear the prophetic sound of the Haggais and Zechariahs, Zerubbabel and Joshua, the apostolic builders, with a remnant people will leave their sectarian and selfish interests to return to the work – to the rebuilding of the city-church – the raising up of the dwelling of God by the Spirit (see Hag 1:12-15).

"Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit"

But because the status quo (building our ministry, movement, church, or denomination) is such an immovable mountain the word of the Lord will declare,

""'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit'…'What are you, O mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become level ground. Then he will bring out the capstone to shouts of 'Grace, Grace!'

Then the word of the Lord came to me, 'The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this temple; his hands will also complete it...'" Zech 4:6-9

The mountain of entrenched patterns – two-thousand years of religious traditions, structures, and sentiments – of self-seeking and self-promotion will fall before the omnipotent Spirit. What is impossible to man is possible to God. All things that can be shaken will be shaken, so that only the unshakeable will remain.

The release of God's people and the restoration of the city-church are imminent. Its foundation will be re-laid, but it will be by the Spirit, not by any human might or power – there will be no twelve-step city-reaching strategy to pull it off!

The foundation of apostles and prophets with Christ as the chief-cornerstone is the first step. And it will only be re-laid through a deep work of the Spirit. False foundations – denominational, celebrity, and self-seeking agendas will be ripped up and discarded in this new move of the Spirit. A deep repentance will grip the hearts of many as they are called to "raise up the age-old foundations" (Isa 58:12).

All across our cities and nations these reformational forerunners are now being prepared for release. They have been called by the Spirit into places of obscurity and anonymity. Just as those who, in debt, distressed, and discontented were called out from Saul's palace to David at Adullam (1 Sam 22:1-2) in preparation for the throne – for the third and apostolic anointing – so too, a remnant forerunner company for the restoration of the apostolic city-church. They will prove to be the embryo of a new wineskin that will harvest whole cities and regions of the earth.

True Servanthood – "known, yet regarded as unknown"

As 'no-name' apostles and prophets they will make way for the King. They will be buried in Christ as the chief-cornerstone – hidden in God – obscured in the anonymity of true servanthood – "known, yet regarded as unknown" (2 Cor 6:9). A foundation is never visible, except as it is being laid. And so, for a short season there will be a re-emphasis of their role in the process of rebuilding and restoration. But as they are put in place, in Paul's words,

"…God has put us apostles on display at the end of the procession, like men condemned to die in the arena. We have been made a spectacle to the whole universe…we are fools for Christ…" 1 Cor 4:9-10

As true apostles they will receive the sentence of death in themselves – they will decrease, so that the life of God may increase.

And so, again in Paul's words,
"For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ" 1 Cor 3:11

And this foundation is more than the doctrine of Christ. It is not knowledge about Christ. Rather, it is being immersed in the knowledge of Christ – a union of spirit – the intimacy of bride and groom.

Buried in this knowledge (through prophetic worship, declaration and teaching), prophets will prepare the way for a new release of the apostolic according to the Antioch prototype.

Apostolic Strategy for Maximum Impact

But, once launched into the nations these new-breed apostles will employ a certain strategy – one that, for Paul, harvested cities and nations.

They will go to the 'Jew first', signifying the old order of man's religious systems, with a prophetic challenge (see Rom 1:16; 2:9,10, Acts 13:46; 18:6; 28:17-31). From them a remnant will believe and come out identifying with the 'new thing' that God is doing. As the old order resists the time will come to withdraw and go to the Gentiles – this will signal the harvest of a new kingdom era.

In particular, this pattern was evident during Paul's third missionary journey. In Ephesus,

"Paul entered the synagogue and spoke boldly there for three months, arguing persuasively about the kingdom of God. But some of them became obstinate; they refused to believe and publicly maligned the Way. So Paul left them. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. This went on for two years, so that all the Jews and Greeks who lived in the province of Asia heard the word of the Lord". Acts 19:8-10

True to the apostolic pattern of separation between the 'church' and the 'work' ('modality' and 'sodality' – refer Part 3) there is no indication Paul presided over the infant church of Ephesus in any kind of eldership or pastoral role. Rather, he gave himself to the apostolic work of teaching and training.

The School of Tyrannus became an ‘apostolic training centre’ which impacted the whole region. Ephesus, being the commercial and religious hub for the whole of Asia (modern day Turkey), was the strategic choice for maximum impact.

Apostolic Anointing for Miracles and Multiplication
How did this work? On the principles of replication and multiplication. Paul, out of a fathering relationship, instructed Timothy,

“…the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will also be qualified to teach others.” 2 Tim 2:2

Four generations of leadership are embedded in this one apostolic directive. Paul not only replicated his life and ministry in Timothy, but it then multiplied through him to the third and fourth generation and no doubt beyond.

Along with “extraordinary miracles” this is how “the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power” throughout the whole of Asia (Acts 19:11, 20). It is no coincidence that when the apostles at an earlier date released themselves from administration and gave themselves to prayer and the ministry of the word that, “the word of the Lord spread” and that, “the number of disciples increased (multiplied) rapidly” (Acts 6:7).

Addition is one thing, multiplication another. Believers were ‘added’ to the church initially, but as the apostolic grew they began to ‘multiply’ rapidly (cf Acts 2:41, 47; 4:4; 5:14; 6:1, 7; 9:31, 35, 42; 11:21, 24; 12:24; 14:1, 21; 16:5; 17:12; 19:20).

From Christ, as the “Apostle and High Priest of our confession”, this apostolic anointing for miracles and multiplication will flow into His body as it comes to maturity.

In Ephesus healing and deliverance occurred through handkerchiefs touched by Paul. The seven sons of Sceva, using the name of Jesus to exorcise demons without faith, where mocked and overpowered as the demons screamed, “Jesus I know, Paul I know, but who are you?” The whole city was seized by fear and the prince demon of Artemis (Diana) was so shaken that a citywide riot against Paul ensued pouring into the 25,000-seat theatre. The temple built to Artemis was four times larger than the Parthenon in Athens and the cult was so powerful that it presided over the religious, economic, and cultural life of the whole city and region. However, through the apostolic anointing for miracles and multiplication it was bound from this time. While there is no record of Paul confronting this prince power head on, at a later date John stood before the altar of Artemis commanding the demon to leave. Instantly the altar split into pieces and half the temple collapsed!

Apostolic anointing and strategy leads to maximum impact! This is the time to return from our Babylonian captivity, from our self-seeking, and re-build the temple of the city-church – to rediscover the foundation of apostles and prophets with Christ as the chief-cornerstone.

A People That Will Be A Praise Unto My Name

Dee Hoetmer

17th March 2004

Isa 33:10 Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

Do not look to the left or to the right, for your deliverance will come from Me. Look to the hills from whence comes your deliverance. Some trust in horses, some trust in chariots. Why do you look to Egypt My people for your deliverance from your circumstances?

Psa 121:1 I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. Psa 121:2 My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth. Psa 121:3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Psa 121:4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. Psa 121:5 The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.

Psa 20:7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God. Psa 20:8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright. Psa 20:9 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

Isa 54:4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

Have I not said that I will open the door? Have I not said that I will hold you by the right hand and show you the way in which you must go? Many are fretting, looking for that open door, anxious to move forward in your call. Yes the world awaits the revelation of the Sons of God. Creation awaits redemption, but for now My children I have to teach you patience, longsuffering and fortitude.

Rom 8:21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

You are to have the attributes of My Son before I reveal MY SONS to the world. Lay down your own agendas, lay down your presumptuous thoughts about what awaits you in your calling. All self seeking, all self glorification must cease. Long have I suffered My name being brought into disrepute. Long have I suffered the mockings of My Holy name, for My children have not brought glory to Me! Now when I send our My prepared ones, MY SONS, they will go forth ablaze in My Glory!

Rom 8:18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

There will be no mistaking who is LORD, CREATOR OF THE UNIVERSE AND ALL THAT IS THEREIN. You will stretch forth your hand in faith and I will do creative miracles. Yea limbs will grow where there were only stumps, eyes will appear in empty eye sockets. There will be no mistaking that I, THE LORD GOD JEHOVAH, IS GOD!

The miracles will not be for you Beloved, in that day, but that the world will know who I AM. Kings will bow down to Me in that day I will reveal My power through you. My name will no longer be mocked. My people be ye Holy even as I AM Holy! My name will no longer be mocked, the world will see who I AM.

So now you see Beloved, why it is just a little longer, a little more refining and I WILL SEND FORTH A PEOPLE THAT WILL BE A PRAISE UNTO MY NAME!

1Pe 1:7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

Phi 1:11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

Eph 1:12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.
Yeshua.
AMEN!

A Prophet's View Of Apostolic Church

Robert Holmes

John the Baptist was the greatest prophet ever been born of woman. Yet he never appeared on TBN, never made an album, never started an international itinerant ministry. There was no JohntheBaptist.com, he did not heal the sick, never joined a frequent flyer club and gave no words of knowledge. The 700 club would not have had his mailing address. John offers us an excellent view of the conduct of a New Testament (NT) prophet, as he related to Jesus, the Christ - our Chief Apostle and the High Priest of our confession.

Prepare the way. John made way for Jesus. Fundamental to his calling was to prepare the way of the Lord (Isa. 40:3). Prophets of the NT make way for the apostolic church to emerge. "He must increase, and I must decrease" (Luke 3:30).

Edify the congregation. John prepared the hearts of the people for Jesus (Luke 3:18). He edified them with exhortations to holiness (not pampering them with soft words). Prophets of the NT edify and build up the people of God (Acts 15:32) moving them away from sin.

Yield to apostolic leadership. John was yielded and submitted to Jesus (Mark 1:7). He affirmed the worthiness of Jesus. Prophets of the NT know their place is second to the apostolic elders (1 Cor. 12:28), and that they work upon the foundation of the apostle.

Launch apostolic ministry. John baptised Jesus, preparing him for ministry (Matt. 3:13). Prophets of the NT work with teachers to launch apostolic ministry from their midst (Acts 13:1) and travel with them to resolve disputes (Acts 15).
Team ministry. The work of John (water baptism) worked seamlessly with the work of Christ (baptism by fire and the Spirit - Matt. 3:11). Prophets of the NT do not work alone, but partner with apostles (Eph. 2:20) in laying the foundation of Christ in the church.

Free to release, not gather. John did not keep disciples to himself, but let them pursue Christ when He came (Luke 7:18). Prophets of the NT recognise that they are leaders in the church (Acts 15:22), in the larger context of teachers and apostles.

Sharing the sufferings. John was not exempt from the apostolic sufferings of Christ, and was beheaded (Matt. 14:10). Prophets of the NT are promised suffering and persecution (Matt. 23:34) next to their apostolic buddies.

Restore sons to fathers. John demonstrated the spirit of Elijah, restoring sons to the fathers (Matt. 11:14). Prophets of the NT move in the spirit of Elijah, bringing back the fathering nature of the apostolic church (Mal. 4:5,6).

A Prophetic Warning

John Martin

Recently I've begun to sense that many who believe they have a ministry and expect it to come to fullness soon are being very cautious not to offend anyone within the institutional church because they believe that as soon as they receive the anointing they are waiting for that the churches will throw out the red carpet for them and they do not want to spoil things. However I believe God raises up prophets to speak His clear words to the apostate people to warn them rather than to appease them. In this light I believe that I should re release this word the Lord gave me in Feb. 2003 for I did not fully understand it until now.

The revelation began as I had set down for a moment about 10 minutes before the first person came through the door of our sanctuary on Sunday Feb 2. I picked up my Bible and let it fall open. I began reading a familiar passage from Mark 13 when my eyes were drawn to verse 14 and the words “abomination of desolation” I heard the Holy Spirit say “get your concordance and dictionary”. It seemed He wanted me to see something I had not been aware of before. Strong’s concordance calls “abomination” something detestable. And “desolation” as waste or something come to naught, or loneliness or solitary.

Webster’s defines “abomination” as extreme disgust and hatred, detestation and loathing , idolatry.

“Desolation” as laid waste, void of inhabitants, loss of companionship, loneliness and gloominess.

The Holy Spirit prompted me to re read vs.14 with this new understanding.

Mt. 13:14 When you see, hear, feel, sense God’s extreme disgust, hatred and loathing of His Church being laid waste, void of inhabitants (inhabitants who are actually occupying the land and steward it wisely for Him rather than for their own profit) full of gloominess (people without joy in the Holy Spirit, disheartened and without hope) full of loneliness (surface relationships) and loss of companionship (two cannot walk together unless they be in agreement) Let the person who senses this (anyone who is actually enjoying true intimacy with the Holy Spirit will feel God’s heart ,whatever His mood) Then let those who are in Judea “My Church” flee to the mountains (the secret place of Psalm 91)
I was given to understand that He was speaking of judgment about to come upon the Church similar to Jesus cleansing of the temple only more so and for the final time.

He then began to unfold understanding of the following verses.

(Mark 13:15 NKJV) "Let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house.
Strong’s concordance lists “ edifice” as the primary word rather than housetop.
Webster defines “edifice as a large elaborate building such as a palace or church.
A person on a housetop can see farther than a person standing on the ground.
This speaks of ministers and ministries who are in high places who should have better vision and understanding of the times and seasons.

The instruction here is that they should leave immediately because God is going to judge the entire church and anyone who does not leave will be judged along with all the rest. They are not permitted to take anything out with them as in Jericho where all will be destroyed and no mementoes allowed.

The leaving may not be a literal physical departure as much as a total surrender of the credit they have been taking that belongs totally to God.

(let the reader understand) They are not one bit better than the least in God’s kingdom and would not even be where they are if not for His grace.

(Mark 13:16 NKJV) "And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes.

This worker pertains to one who has a ministry (though pure) with roots in a corrupt system. Remember that the field is in the system, Judea or Church which is about to be judged. This person is told to flee to the “Arms of God”

And not attempt to take anything with him, for his work is corrupted by the corrupt system “root”.

(Mat 7:18 NKJV) "A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit.

The entire system is corrupt therefore will be done away with in order for the new to come forth.

(Ezek 20:38 NKJV) "I will purge the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against Me; I will bring them out of the country where they dwell, but they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

(Mark 13:17 NKJV) "But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!

Those who are pregnant represent those who believe they are pregnant spiritually and are about to birth something new into the old system. They are unable to let go of their visions for greatness in man’s kingdom that bears God’s name. Woe to them because they cannot bring themselves to leave and will be judged along with the rest.

Nursing mothers represent ministries that are dependent on their founder for their very existence and therefore feed the leaders ego with their dependencies. These persons are so addicted to this that they would die rather than leave this dependent child. Abraham was required to surrender his Isaac and because of his obedience he was used of God mightily.

(Luke 14:26 NKJV) "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple.

Then the Spirit directed me to Luke 17:30-37 which is known to be another account of the same teaching of Jesus. Prophesy can be fulfilled more than one way and the Holy Spirit is saying this is just one of those ways that is now and for the Church.

(Luke 17:30 NKJV) "Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed.

He is saying that through the impending judgment on His Church that the Son will be revealed in the remnant and the world will marvel whereas now they loath the Church because they see the hypocrisy more clearly than we do.

(Luke 17:34-37 NKJV) "I tell you, in that night there will be two men in one bed: the one will be taken and the other will be left. {35} "Two women will be grinding together: the one will be taken and the other left. {36} "Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left." {37} And they answered and said to Him, "Where, Lord?" So He said to them, "Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

I had always been taught and believed that this referred to the rapture of the Church but in light of what the Spirit was indicating to me I looked in the concordance at the word “Eagles” and learned it is assumed eagles because of it’s “wind like flight”. Some translations say “Vultures”

I also was aware that as Christians we are taught that eagles are regal birds often used in scripture to depict spiritual heights and special vision. Also believed that they always catch their prey and eat it alive if possible.

In one of God’s coincidences (coincidence is taken from the root “to coincide”) therefore coinciding with the present revelation, I had perchance viewed a TV documentary just 2 days earlier about the spawning of salmon.

In this story it was shown that as the salmon have died following the laying of their eggs that the stream banks were lined with many eagles, all vying for the dead carcasses of the fish and it was said that eagles prefer dead flesh.

Then they showed a juvenile eagle trying to get something to eat among all these adult eagles. Every time he would get a hold of a dead fish an adult would come and take it away from him. Tiring of this he finally ventured out into the stream and took a hold of a dying salmon and dragged it to shore in spite of it’s feeble flopping and began to eat it. None of the other eagles even paid attention to him as he consumed his prize. Therefore I believe the Holy Spirit was pointing out that there is no real difference between eagles and vultures as far as this scripture is concerned. Those taken out are the wicked among the Church who go to a place of death and there will be consumed by vultures and eagles (scavengers both).

I submit this only as a reporter of what I believe the Holy Spirit revealed to me and that He used these scriptures to convey a message of impending judgment upon a corrupt system that cannot be salvaged.

(Mat 9:17 NKJV) "Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins break, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

6 days following this revelation I had a powerful dream that I would not have understood if not for this. I will submit the dream later this week.

Respectfully,
John Martin

A Prophetic Worldview
Rick Joyner

Sep 18, 2004
We are well into some of the most interesting, challenging, and dangerous times in human history, and will continue to experience them daily. In order to survive, much less prevail in the times ahead, we must start to perceive the future more clearly, and take proactive steps to be prepared.

The church must also take more proactive steps to engage in what is unfolding if we are to be the light and salt that we are called to be in our times. The gospel has made the greatest advances in its history in the last two decades, but in the West and many other countries, it has been pushed to the very fringes of existence, and can retreat no further. Indeed, it will not retreat any further. The recapturing of lost territory will begin now, and we will see many great spiritual victories in America, Europe, and the Middle East.

To be the salt and light that we are called to be, we must understand the times, and the darkness and corruption that we are called to confront. After reviewing a few of the basic principles of what is now unfolding, we will address some specific principles of what we must do. We can know in great detail what is happening, and what is going to happen, and still be overcome by the times if we do not apply the faith and truth that we have been entrusted with.

Our Battle

As the Lord said in Matthew 13:39, "...the harvest is the end of the age..." The harvest is the maturing and reaping of what has been sown in the hearts of mankind. This includes both the good and the evil. All the seeds that have been sown in man are now coming to full maturity. As these mature, the battle between them will rage from one end of the earth to the other. Understanding this most basic conflict will be necessary to understanding the world in the times ahead.

We must also understand that there are other ways to deal with conflict than to fight them head on. There is a way to actually win some fights by refusing to fight, at least until the time is most advantageous for us. Every general knows that choosing the battlefield can give the greatest advantage in any battle. Many of the great military victories in history were won by generals who repeatedly refused to be drawn into a conflict until the battlefield suited their strengths, or magnified their enemy's weaknesses. This is something that Christians must learn.

Too many needless defeats have come because Christians have allowed themselves to be drawn into conflicts on the basis of issues rather than by a true leading from the "Lord of Hosts," or the "Lord of Armies." Most of the ground that has been lost by the church was lost because the devil was allowed to choose the battlefield, and/or the timing of the battle, and God's people ran ahead of Him to engage in it.

Of course, the Lord and one faithful person is an overwhelming majority against the entire host of the enemy, but we must understand that for the Lord to fight for us we must be in obedience to Him. He insists on being the Commander of the host. Any army that is not disciplined, or under the authority of its commander, is not likely to win any battles. We have lost too many battles with this kind of foolishness and cannot afford to lose any more. We must, above all things, learn to be submissive to the Head.

A More Powerful Weapon

We must also understand the most basic spiritual truth Paul wrote about in Philippians 4:7, "And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."
Because of the increasing conflict and fears that are spreading throughout the world, it is more important than ever for us to find, and abide in, the peace of God. Christians, who serve the One who is above all rule, authority, and dominion, should have a profound peace in the midst of any circumstance. This is one of the foremost characteristics of one who is truly abiding in Christ -- they will have a peace that is beyond human understanding.

This peace will increasingly give Christians a great advantage in the coming times. It will cause them to become a marvel and calm in the midst of the storms that will turn multitudes to the Prince of Peace.

We are told in Romans 16:20 that "...the God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet." This is very interesting since the title that the Lord uses for Himself, more than ten times as that of other titles, is "Lord of Hosts" or "Lord of Armies." He is a martial Leader, but what crushes Satan is not His martial power, but His peace!

We know that if God just wanted to destroy the devil, He could do so with the blink of His eye. The Lord Jesus could have destroyed the devil immediately after His resurrection. However, He did not do this for our sakes. Conflict is one of the greatest tests of character and what works maturity in us faster than anything else. The Lord does not want it to be easy for us, or He would have made it much easier. What He is seeking is for us to learn and grow from every conflict we face.

We must not waste our trials. Those who waste trials by not responding in faith or growing in the peace of God through them, will be increasingly overcome by the times. Those who use their trials to grow in faith and the peace of God will increasingly stand out as overcomers, and the world will turn to them for light to see through the darkness. The peace of God is one of the most powerful weapons we have been given, and to prevail in the times ahead, this must be understood and lived.

The Battlefield

We abide in the kingdom of God by abiding in the Spirit of God. When we abide in the Spirit of God, we will obviously manifest the fruit of the Spirit. The "peace of God" (see Philippians 4:7) is the linchpin fruit of the Spirit. By this I mean that if we lose the peace of God, we will quickly lose our patience, love, etc. When we lose our peace, we lose our footing in the Spirit and begin to slide into the grip of the evil that is called "the works of the flesh," such as fear, anger, jealousy, etc. When we fall to these, we not only lose our own battle, but the devil has succeeded in getting us to change sides, fighting for his purposes. Instead of calming the storms of conflict in the world, which is the spirit of death's ultimate purpose [conflict], we add to it. This is why almost every attack of the devil against us is first intended to rob us of our peace. Jesus is the Prince of Peace. If we are under His authority, we will not lose our peace. If we lose our peace, at best we will be drawn into fighting battles on the devil's turf and on his terms. It is likely to get even worse, so that the devil actually has us fighting his battles for him. His turf and his terms are basically to start fighting in the flesh, abandoning our "divinely powerful weapons" which will always defeat the devil.

We are told in Ephesians 6:12, "For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places."
To summarize, when we lose our understanding of the spiritual nature of the conflict, we lose both the battlefield that we can win on, and the weapons with which we can win.

The obvious strategy of terrorism is to sow fear throughout the world, robbing the world of its peace of mind, and peace in general. The devil uses fear to bring people into bondage to do his will just as the Lord uses faith to set us free to do His will. These are basic counter-powers in the ultimate battle for the souls of men. That is why the peace of God, which guards our own hearts and minds, is what we must guard above all. This peace is rooted in our trust in God, His love for us, and His power to use all things to work together for our good (see Romans 8:28).

As fear continues to rise in the world, the kingdom of God will also grow stronger as His peace grows within His people. Again, it is fundamental to the coming conflict that we guard the peace of God which guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

DO NOT LET ANYTHING STEAL YOUR PEACE.

Regardless of how bad and confusing things get in the world, we can be sitting in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus. From that place we will never lose sight of the fact that no matter how it may sometimes seem, we will win! We are already assured of ultimate victory. In the end, it will be proven that truth is stronger than any lie, and that the righteousness and justice of God are the guiding principles that true wisdom seeks.

So, the first battle will almost always be the devil's attempt to get us on his turf, or in the flesh, having departed from our position in the Spirit of God, which is maintained by abiding in the peace of God. Again, do not let anything steal your peace.

The Present Battle Array

I have given so much attention to the importance of abiding in the peace of God because of some of the things that I am about to share. If we become overly focused on these situations, instead of keeping our focus on the Lord and His ultimate victory, we will become gripped and controlled by fear. By that, the devil will at least win a victory over us personally, and that does not have to happen. However, if we do not understand the devil's schemes and do not learn how to effectively fight them, he will win far more than he should in this growing conflict.

Isaiah 30:25-33 seems to directly address the attack on the World Trade Center. Every verse is worthy of an in-depth examination, which would require a book instead of a bulletin. For now, I ask you to read it carefully. We will examine a few of the more pertinent highlights in more depth, with my remarks being in parentheses after each verse:

"And on every lofty mountain and on every high hill there will be streams running with water on the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall." vs. 25 (emphasis mine)
(The great slaughter was more than just those killed in New York and Washington on September 11, but it began a time of great slaughter in the world. Even so, there will be streams of water on every lofty mountain and high hill. Mountains and hills often represent governments in Scripture, and water often represents the Word of God in Scripture (see Ephesians 5:26). This is the day when God's Word will be flowing to governments everywhere.)

"And the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, on the day the Lord binds up the fracture of His people and heals the bruise He has inflicted." vs. 26
(The light and healing power of the Lord will be multiplied during this time.)

"Behold, the name of the Lord comes from a remote place; burning is His anger, and dense is His smoke; His lips are filled with indignation, and His tongue is like a consuming fire;" vs. 27
(This is the time when the world will begin to experience the wrath of the Lord, and His words will be burning like fire.)

"And His breath is like an overflowing torrent, which reaches to the neck, to shake the nations back and forth in a sieve, and to put in the jaws of the peoples the bridle which leads to ruin." vs. 28
(This is the beginning of the shaking of the nations that is spoken of in Hebrews 12.)

"You will have songs as in the night when you keep the festival; and gladness of heart as when one marches to the sound of the flute, to go to the mountain of the Lord, to the Rock of Israel." vs. 29
(At the same time, rejoicing will be known by God's people so that it will even seem like a festival in the midst of what is happening. Many will turn to the Lord as a result of this.)

"And the Lord will cause His voice of authority to be heard. And the descending of His arm to be seen in fierce anger, and in the flame of a consuming fire, in cloudburst, downpour, and hailstones." vs. 30

(Prophetic authority will greatly increase in His people. Usually the fulfillment of "the arm of the Lord" (see Isaiah 51:9) in biblical prophecy comes in the form of human armies. He does at times use natural events such as earthquakes, storms, etc., but it is most often armies.)

"For at the voice of the Lord Assyria will be terrified, when He strikes with the rod." vs. 31
(Biblical Assyria includes the territory from present day Iraq to Sinai.)

"And every blow of the rod of punishment, which the Lord will lay on him, will be with tambourines and lyres; and in battles, brandishing weapons, He will fight them." vs. 32
(Islam does not have inspirational music, and music will become a powerful weapon in this battle.)

"For Topheth has long been ready, indeed, it has been prepared for the king. He has made it deep and large, a pyre of fire with plenty of wood; the breath of the Lord, like a torrent of brimstone, sets it afire." vs. 33
(We will see fire consume many in this battle.)

War in Heaven and on the Earth

God has established two types of government on the earth; one is civil government, and the other is His spiritual government. It is imperative that we understand the realms of authority that He has given to both of these, their distinctions, and their relationship to one another. In Romans 13:1-4, Paul addresses the purpose of civil authority:

"Let every person be in subjection to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those which exist are established by God.

"Therefore he who resists authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and they who have opposed will receive condemnation upon themselves.

"For rulers are not a cause of fear for good behavior, but for evil. Do you want to have no fear of authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same;

"for it is a minister of God to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid; for it does not bear the sword for nothing; for it is a minister of God, an avenger who brings wrath upon the one who practices evil."

I have heard Christians say that America and other nations should not retaliate against their enemies when attacked because of the Lord's exhortation to turn the other cheek when struck. We need to understand that civil governments have a different mandate than the one He gave to His church. Confusing these two mandates has brought considerable confusion through the centuries, and continues to do so. The Lord is preparing His church for ruling in the age to come, but we are not called to rule in this present age. That mandate has been given to civil governments until the Lord sets up His kingdom on the earth. Civil governments are "a minister of God" that "does not bear the sword for nothing," but is "an avenger who brings wrath upon the one who practices evil." Since we are commanded to pray for our governments, we should pray for them to be able to fulfill this mandate effectively, avenging evil, and bringing wrath upon those who practice evil.

Verse 29 speaks of there being songs and gladness of heart when the wrath of God is seen, so it is right to rejoice and celebrate the victories of good over evil. If we are in unity with the Lord, we will do this. It is a shame and a tragedy the way that even our own news media has so focused on the negative aspects of the conflict in Iraq, giving almost no coverage to the good that has been accomplished. When good news is not celebrated, and bad news is, it should make it very clear which spirit is presently in control of the media. Do we even want to receive our information from such a source?

Right now, great victories for truth, righteousness, and justice are being accomplished by our armies, and it is right to celebrate them. There are problems, and everything is not being done perfectly.

However, only the foolish or naive should expect them to be done perfectly on earth. In this present age, even the best solution to a problem is often only a little better than the worse solution, and both will be messy. Even so, the ultimate result of the Lord bringing His judgments on the earth is rejoicing, and that is being done now by those who have understanding. It will increase as read in Psalm 98:1-9:

"O sing to the Lord a new song, for He has done wonderful things, His right hand and His holy arm have gained the victory for Him.

"The Lord has made known His salvation; He has revealed His righteousness in the sight of the nations.

"He has remembered His loving-kindness and His faithfulness to the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

"Shout joyfully to the Lord, all the earth; break forth and sing for joy and sing praises.

"Sing praises to the Lord with the lyre; with the lyre and the sound of melody.

"With trumpets and the sound of the horn shout joyfully before the King, the Lord.

"Let the sea roar and all it contains, the world and those who dwell in it.

"Let the rivers clap their hands; let the mountains sing together for joy before the Lord; for He is coming to judge the earth; He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity."

Rejoicing in the Lord is fundamental to those who understand Him, His ways, and His acts. God is working mightily through current events even if much of the media is trying to make it look like the devil is winning. Great doors for truth, righteousness, and justice are being opened in a part of the world which has known so little of these for so long.

Iraq really will begin to know truth, righteousness, and justice, and become a pillar of strength for its neighbors. Because the real war is not against "flesh and blood" (see Ephesians 6:12), but one of the strongest of all principalities in the spiritual realm, the war does need to be fought in prayer more than in the natural realm now. We must pray for our leaders and our soldiers, celebrating what they have accomplished, but not expecting them to accomplish that which is our part -- the battle in the heavenly realm.

The Iraqi people, and indeed the Arab people, are some of the Lord's choice people, and will give us some of the greatest apostles and prophets in the last days. We must pray for truth, righteousness, and justice to be established over biblical Assyria. The ultimate result of present events will be the fulfillment of Isaiah 19:19-25:

"In that day there will be an altar to the Lord in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the Lord near its border.

"And it will become a sign and a witness to the Lord of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the Lord because of oppressors, and He will send them a Savior and a Champion, and He will deliver them.

"Thus the Lord will make Himself known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the Lord in that day. They will even worship with sacrifice and offering, and will make a vow to the Lord and perform it.

"And the Lord will strike Egypt, striking but healing; so they will return to the Lord, and He will respond to them and will heal them.

"In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrians will come into Egypt and the Egyptians into Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

"In that day Israel will be the third party with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth,

"whom the Lord of hosts has blessed, saying, "Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance."

The Big Reversal

For a time, it may look like the opposite is happening in the Middle East, but truth, righteousness, and justice will prevail there. The Lord deeply cares about all of the people of the Middle East. At the same time, many of the nations that have taken their freedoms for granted, that have turned from God as the only true Source, will see peace, and freedom, swiftly eroding before being lost altogether. Europe is very close to suffering a future of more oppression and even more destruction than it suffered in the last century. Her leaders have been taking her down the path to a terrible future that will be far different from the one that they have promoted.

However, this dark future is not inevitable and can still be changed. Europe has learned very little from the conflicts of the last century and is still basically headed in the same direction that caused the previous devastation. Anyone who sounds the alarm is called an "alarmist," and is ridiculed and shunned.

It is a good thing that America is now distancing itself from the general direction that Europe is taking. American politicians that cow-tow to European leaders and want to lead America toward a closer alliance with her "traditional allies," would lead America to a likewise terrible future. Contrary to what these are promoting, the "Old World" is not the "traditional" ally of the New World. The New World should not try to follow the old. This is not to imply that we should not have any relations with Europe or align ourselves in the things that we do have a common interest in, but Americans should not be overly concerned when most European countries prove not to be true friends of America. Again, Europe is headed for a terrible future if it does not make a radical change to its present direction.

The EU and the Antichrist

Many Christians around the world view the European Union (EU) as the platform upon which the antichrist will seek world dominance. The EU is a godless and blatantly anti-Christian organization. However, when viewing much of Europe's "Christian" history, it is understandable why so many Europeans want nothing to do with anything Christian again. Their history with Christianity is very different from that which is found in the United States and other "new world" and even "third world" nations, yet they fail to make these distinctions.

Without question, some of the greatest souls to have walked the earth over the last two thousand years were European Christians. It was also European Christianity that gave birth to the greatest systems of government and justice in the world, which set the stage for the incredible advancement of civilization that the world has benefited from since. It is also true that some of the most evil, oppressive tyrants in history were also Christian leaders in Europe. These are likewise remembered not only by the general population of Europe, but by Jews and Muslims as well.

However, it is a fact that the strongest, most stable, and most free and prosperous nations on earth are almost entirely founded on the Protestant and Evangelical Christianity that was born in Europe. The reason for this is that the Reformation made salvation personal instead of corporate, the result of being a member of an institution. This focused on the importance and value of individual faith, instead of just membership in an institution, and gave infinite, eternal value to the individual, which gave birth to governments and systems of justice that upheld this view. This freed the creativity and initiative that has benefited the world. European statesmen likewise gave much to advance the civilization of the entire world. For these things we should be grateful, and it is right for us to honor our "fathers and mothers." Even so, the present generation of European leaders are not our fathers and mothers, and the other nations of the world would be very foolish to follow them in the way in which they are headed.

Much of Europe is in danger of an Islamic takeover much sooner than anyone has considered. Most European nations not only have large Muslim populations now, but traditional Europeans are aborting their children at such a rate that most now have negative growth rates. At the same time, Muslims are having very large families. By this attrition alone, many European nations will have a Muslim majority in a short time. However, there is another factor that will speed this up even more. When Turkey joins the EU, the floodgates to Muslim immigration in Europe will be thrown wide open, because there are open borders between all EU nations.

The pattern for Islamic takeover of a country has been seen repeatedly in Africa. The Muslim population remains very docile and compliant until a majority is reached. Then they become ruthless in their subjugation of the rest of the population. Anyone who does not understand the basic purpose of world dominion by Islam does not really understand Islam. Europe is their next main, natural target, and it is very likely that they will succeed to a great degree.

Germany and Britain -- the Salvation of Europe

Germany, the nation that brought so much destruction to Europe in the last century, is the main hope for the salvation of Europe in this one. The European Union has been built on the back of the German economic strength, and the Germans have been willing to pay a very high price for inclusion into the European community. This is mostly the result of the continued guilt many Germans feel because of the Nazi regime, which other European leaders have learned how to manipulate. However, the price that the German people have to pay to carry this heavy burden for the rest of Europe is far more than their leaders told them, and the benefits are far less than they were promised. The German people will soon realize this. The awakening of Germany and all of Europe to what is happening to them by the EU, by opening the door wide for Islam, will be one of the ultimate sources of salvation for Europe.

The German people have a "martial gift." They are going to understand "the Lord of Hosts," and they will follow Him. Germany will help stop Islam in Europe, and help save Israel, ultimately becoming one of Israel's best friends in the world. At least for a time, Germany, Britain, and America will form a genuine alliance, and a much more natural one, and become pillars that uphold freedom and democracy in the world, along with many other partners.

What the enemy was able to use to bring so much destruction to Europe in the last century, conflict between Germany and Britain, may be the salvation of Europe in this century. Britain and Germany are natural allies, and together they can save Europe. We must pray for Europe, and especially these two countries. Both must cast off the guilt of the past, not forgetting its lessons, but moving ahead and using them as a moral compass. The British Empire accomplished far more good for the world than bad, and the same is true for Germany.

Africa and the New Breed

There is a new breed of leadership that will soon arise in Africa that is principled and decisive. Africa will begin to unite and, through this unity, it will prosper. It will also find ways to combine the best of both the European cultures and influences in its heritage with the best of Africa, forming a dynamic new engine of progress. This too is from the Lord.

Missionaries from Africa to Europe will also help lay a foundation for the Lord's deliverance for Europe. These are "bread upon the waters" that returned from the many great missionaries sent forth from Europe. These will have a moral clarity that many Europeans have lost. These missionaries from Africa may be viewed by many as "simple," because their education is different in many ways, but they will have the wisdom of the Queen of Sheba to know how to find true wisdom.

As Africa unites, it will become a powerful economic, political, and military force in the world. Reformation and Evangelical Christianity will reach new heights in Africa, and so will the democracies founded through them. There will be a mighty struggle for their birth and survival, but this too is a part of the process they must go through. It is Africa's time.

China and the Far East

China will also continue to rise until it becomes one of the most powerful economic, political, and military forces in the world. China will become increasingly desperate for Middle Eastern oil, devising a long range plan for controlling it. To do this, it must weaken America, and it is doing so by supporting the terrorism that is causing so much instability in the rest of the world. When it perceives that America is weak enough, China will march on the Middle East with the pretense of bringing stability to the region. However, their real purpose is to gain control of the oil. The Chinese will give no quarter to Islam, and will ruthlessly seek to wipe it out, along with Israel. It will be Israel, with God's help, that turns back China, which will ultimately result in the joining together of Israel, Assyria, and Egypt that is written about in Isaiah 19.

Russia

Russia is destined to have many struggles as it rebuilds after communism, but it will experience the greatest revival in history. Russia will, likewise, have a great conflict with China, and it will be devastating to both nations. However, Russia will become the source of some of the greatest moves of God in the last days. The Russian people will be blessed with great joy and spiritual prosperity from the Lord. Russia will become very rich in all of the true treasures and, in many ways, the marvel and envy of the world.

The Collapse of the Present Energy System

Few are now talking about it, but before the end of this decade, the world will have used more than half of its fossil fuels. This is a well known fact that no one seems willing to face. At the same time, consumption continues to climb at an increasing rate. One of the downsides to democracy is that they seldom face problems until they are at crisis level. This energy crisis becomes bigger every day that it is not faced, and when it cannot be avoided any longer, facing it will have devastating consequences to the world economy. Gasoline prices will multiply in a matter of months to over $20.00 a gallon in the United States and much higher in Europe and Asia.

At the rate the energy prices multiply, the standard of living will be falling. We are still a few years from this, and there are answers to this problem in alternative sources of energy, but these alternatives are not being developed at the rate that they should, and we are already quite far behind the curve. Solar power, wind power, hydraulic power, and nuclear power could already be reducing our need for fossil fuels by over 50 percent.

It is not likely that the world will start facing this problem as it should for another five to ten years, but when it does, the changes will be rapid. If we are wise, we will begin planning for them now. Christians should be on the forefront of conservation, thinking fuel efficiency in all of our planning.

At the present rate of consumption, over half of the world's fossil fuel energy reserves will have been consumed in less than a single century. Think about how selfish we will have been to use up the world's energy like that! Christians who reverse their own consumption of energy will be doing the right thing, and this is how the wealth of the wicked will be given to the righteous.

If we stop running to the store for every single item, instead making lists and disciplining ourselves to go only once or, at most, twice a week; if we will carpool, buy efficient vehicles, and use public transportation whenever we can, we will begin to save a substantial amount right now. We should set a goal of reducing our own energy use by a substantial percentage each year, and use the savings to get out of debt. The ones who do this will be the ones who will have the financial reserves to buy when the world starts selling -- at bargain prices.

Our Great Need

In this age we can only "prophesy in part," and what I have presented here are a few brief scenarios that are obviously just a small part of the whole picture. I believe some of what I have shared here is fixed, and will certainly come to pass. I think some of the directions that some nations are heading can be changed by prayer, repentance, and/or revival. Presently, we are in desperate need of leaders who serve world leaders like Daniel did -- without compromising their beliefs, without defiling themselves with the world's food, who have the spirit of divine wisdom and revelation to understand the mysteries that the Lord is revealing, and a devotion to the Scriptures and biblical prophecy, interceding to see it fulfilled.

The world's problems are becoming increasingly complicated and dangerous. However, the answers to the world's problems are very simple. Man was created to rule over the earth, but to do so in fellowship with God. Without God we will inevitably come to a tragic end in anything that we seek to do. By the end of this age, all of mankind will have learned this lesson -- we cannot make it without God. We are in need of strong, wise, decisive leadership -- qualities that are only found by those who have built their lives upon the true wisdom of the fear of the Lord.

Many Christians, because of the numerous teachings and prophecies about the nature of the coming antichrist, have tended to shy away from any kind of strong, decisive leadership. Even if these teachings and prophecies about the nature of the coming antichrist are accurate, to shy away from strong, decisive leadership is the worst possible response to them. This only makes the vacuum bigger and easier for evil leaders to fill. Christians, who are followers of "the King of kings," and are supposed to be becoming like Him, should therefore be the strongest, wisest, and most decisive leaders on earth. This is stated in Daniel 11:31-32:

"And forces from him will arise, desecrate the sanctuary fortress, and do away with the regular sacrifice. And they will set up the abomination of desolation.

"And by smooth words he will turn to godlessness those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will display strength and take action."

We see here that, at the very time the "abomination of desolation" is being set up, the people who know their God are displaying strength and taking action. There has never been a more important time for strength and action by Christians. This is, in fact, the nature of true Christians. To be the "salt of the earth" or "the light of the world," one cannot be passive.

The New Leaders

A new breed of Christian leaders is beginning to emerge that is not seeking to build their own kingdom, but rather the kingdom of God. They are not seeking to use the people for their own interests, but are expending themselves for the sake of the people. They are not professionals or hirelings, who flee from trouble or confrontation, but they will be ready and willing to risk even their own lives for the people and the sphere of authority that has been entrusted to their care. They will not cower in fear at even the greatest threats of the enemy, but will walk in a manner worthy of their calling -- in faith, courage, and integrity, standing for truth, righteousness, and justice without compromise or wavering.

As the world's problems are becoming so complex and dangerous, moral clarity is one of the greatest gifts that a leader can have. Because of the erosion of basic morality and integrity in much of the world, world leaders have become much more prone to choose the path of least resistance rather than seeking to do what is right because it is right. Therefore, when a leader does arise with basic and simple moral clarity, they will be hated and feared by a majority of the world's confused, opportunistic, and politically motivated leaders. Even so, the greatest leaders understand this and will be willing to take the pressure to do what is right.

Because the world's problems are becoming increasingly complex, simple and honest solutions are almost always going to be the right answer to them, despite the ridicule and even rage they tend to generate in those who do not live by a clear moral compass. In the coming times, we will be given many choices between the morally wise and those who seem to be more worldly wise. We must start viewing moral clarity as the most important characteristic of any leader that we follow.

Ronald Reagan was a good example of this and what can be accomplished in this fallen world. He was a relatively simple man, but his greatest strength was his moral compass. He saw right and wrong in black and white and he was devoted to doing what he perceived to be the right thing. It was this kind of moral clarity that started the cracks in the Iron Curtain and the collapse of communism -- one of the most diabolical and deadly evils to come upon the world. Communism was born through the philosophy of humanism combined with relativism. Such ultimate tyranny will always be the ultimate result of these.

Moral clarity and moral resolve will always push the darkness back. Martin Luther is one of the great examples of this in history. He was but a monk, living in a small village in a nation that at the time was broken and obscure. However, when Martin Luther took his stand on his convictions and refused to compromise them regardless of the consequences, the whole world changed. No conqueror in history changed the political landscape of the world as much as that one monk did by taking his stand for the truth as he saw it. Even though he was not right about everything, and even had some very bad theology mixed into his beliefs, he did have moral clarity in a time when very few others did. Such will set the course of history just like he did. Such people are desperately needed in these times.

The Trouble Gate

The Lord made it clear that the end of this age would see the greatest times of trouble the world has ever known. However, this was not meant to be discouraging, but encouraging. We are told concerning the apostle Paul that he went about "Strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying, 'Through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God'" (Acts 14:22). Note that it does not say Paul went around discouraging the saints by talking about tribulations, but rather "encouraging them." Many today are bringing far more ultimate discouragement to the church by not addressing tribulations or troubles. The end of this age will know the greatest troubles because it will be entering the kingdom age. Troubles should always be viewed by Christians as a gateway to the kingdom -- an opportunity.

As we are told in Hebrews 12, everything that can be shaken will be shaken. Everything that is not built on kingdom principles will not survive the shaking that is coming upon the world. However, it is encouraging to know that everything which has been built on kingdom principles will survive and become the bridge into that age. Some governments will qualify and some nations will not experience a complete collapse.

We must keep in mind that "the great time of trouble" that is the end of this age is the result of man trying to run this world, that God created, without God. The ultimate lesson that mankind will learn from this entire age is our desperate need for God -- His fellowship, His leadership, His wisdom, His mercy, and His grace. Even so, many Christians have foolishly swung to the extreme of thinking that doing anything is futile. For Christians not to do anything, because of a fatalistic view that "nothing can be changed anyway," is one of the most tragic delusions of our times. We are here to be the "salt of the earth" and "the light of the world." This means Christians should have the solutions to the world's ultimate problems.

However, without exception, the solution to every human problem is the Cross and acknowledgment of the Lordship of Jesus Christ. Regardless of how complicated the human predicament becomes, we must not allow ourselves to be beguiled from the purity and simplicity of devotion to Christ (see II Corinthians 11:3). This is the ultimate truth that we must never compromise or our salt will have lost its saltiness, and our light will go out.

As the most wise human leader that ever lived once wrote, "But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, that shines brighter and brighter until the full day. The way of the wicked is like darkness; they do not know over what they stumble" (Proverbs 4:18-19). So if we are walking on the path of the righteous, which is the path of doing what is right, we should have increasing clarity and light until we are walking in the very fullness of the light. If this is not a basic characteristic of our personal lives, then we have somehow departed from the path. If this is not the basic characteristic of our church life, then we have somehow departed from the right path as a church. The same is true of a nation.

We most often get distracted from the right path by departing from the simplicity of devotion to Christ. Complication is the path that leads to darkness, and stumbling over what you cannot even see. The worldly wise are the most foolish human beings on the earth, but to the immature or undiscerning, they come across as wise and learned because of their comprehension of the complex. The truly wise may seem to overly simplify things at times, but they are the ones who see, and they are the ones who will enter the gate into the kingdom. Follow moral clarity above all things.

Summary

These are the times that the prophets of old desired to see, and we have been chosen to live in them. For all of eternity it will be a great honor to have been one of the saints to live in the last days. The Lord has saved His best wine for last. It will be one of the greatest of all human mistakes to be spiritually asleep through these times. For this reason, He is graciously sending another "Great Awakening" to wake up His people to the times that we are in. This awakening is already spreading across whole continents and has by no means finished its course.

We are about to awaken to the truth that true Christianity is the greatest adventure and the most fulfilling life that one can have on the earth. It is also the most difficult. Christianity is not for the faint of heart. As the times grow more intense, it will require increasing courage, faith, resolve, and endurance to continue in the faith. Even more than these, it will require increasing love for God and an increasing love for one another. For this reason, those who stand through the times that are upon us will be numbered among the greatest saints who ever lived.

Recent church history reveals a pattern of great in-gatherings followed by great pruning, followed by even greater in-gatherings, etc. Like birth pangs, these cycles are becoming more frequent and more intense as we get closer to the birth of the new age. This is the age in which Jesus will reign over the earth with His faithful who have stood true when tested.

The earth has also been experiencing its own birth pangs and the entire world is about to tremble with the struggle to give birth to the coming age. For this reason we will know the truth of Hebrews 12:26-29:

"And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven.'

"And this expression, 'Yet once more,' denotes the removing of those things which can be shaken, as of created things, in order that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe; for our God is a consuming fire."

It is not wrong for us to love our countries and to seek to serve them, but we are entering a time when even the most trusted institutions created by man will be shaken. Only those that were born in the heart of God and have a foundation in Him, will remain. Even so, that which was added to them that was not from Him will be stripped away by the shaking. Again, that which was not born of God, regardless of how good it may seem, will not survive the shaking that is coming. We must build our lives and put our hope only on the kingdom of God that cannot be shaken.

The kingdom of God is coming to the earth and the Lord's will is going to be done on the earth just as it is in heaven. Regardless of how much we have been blessed, living in great places, having great jobs and lifestyles, if our hope is not rightly placed in the kingdom of God and our devotion isn't focused on the kingdom above all things, we will soon prove to have been some of the greatest fools in history. Good can be the worst enemy of best, and we must not allow our devotion to be to any other good but the kingdom of God.

A wise saying for the world at this time is, "If you do not change your direction you will end up where you are headed." Without major changes in direction, many of even the most stable countries in the world are soon going to experience unprecedented catastrophes. We must heed the warning of Psalm 32:6:

"Therefore, let everyone who is godly pray to You in a time when You may be found. Surely in a flood of great waters they will not reach him."

This means that we should not wait for the floods to come to start building our houses upon the Rock. When the floods come, it is too late. Seek every day to sink your roots deeper into the truth that alone can make you free, and seek every day to get closer to the Lord. He alone is our Rock.

What Are You Fighting For

Rick Joyner

The world's problems are getting bigger, more complicated, and increasingly beyond man's ability to solve. The end of this age will be marked by cascading problems that have surpassed any human ability to deal with them. This is the ultimate fruit of man trying to live without God. Not only man, but the whole creation will forever be able to look back on the history of the earth and see what the results are when trying to live without God. In the midst of this, there will be a testimony of what it is like to live with God.

In spite of the way that man has rejected God, God has not rejected man. He continues to offer answers to the pressing problems that are the result of our own selfishness and rebellion. He still causes His sun to shine on the just and the unjust. He still gives His rain to all. That is the remarkable God we serve. The testimony of who He is, and what He is like, is abundant throughout the creation. It will become even more clear and brilliant through the darkness that is coming.

As stated previously, God's judgment at the end is not from vindictiveness at having been rejected, but His judgment was set from the beginning in the simple truth that we must all reap what we sow. This had to be so. There could be no true authority given to man if there were not also true responsibility. There could be no accomplishments if there were not also consequences.

The catastrophic problems that will be man's judgment will mostly be of our own making. One thing that will become clear to the discerning is how closely the spiritual and natural worlds are linked. With the spiritual pollution, there is corresponding pollution of the natural world as well. With each spiritual disease, there seems to be a corresponding natural disease that reflects it as well. We will discuss this in more detail later, but it is a basic truth.

In spite of man's foolishness, rejection of God, and rebellion against Him, the Lord will offer man solutions to even the greatest problems right up to the end. The Holy Spirit is called "the Helper" (see John 14:26) and His nature will never change. He remains faithful even when we are unfaithful. He will never stop trying to help, and neither should we.

When the Lord healed the ten blind men, only one of them even returned to thank Him. The Lord, who knows all things, knew that this would be their response when He healed them, and He healed them anyway. He healed them because He wanted to help them whether they acknowledged Him or not. As Peter said in Acts 10:38, "You know of Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how He went about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed by the devil; for God was with Him." It does not say that He healed those who would turn to Him, but "all." What an amazing God we serve!

As our calling is to be like Him, and do the works that He did, we need to be willing to help everyone we can, regardless of whether they turn to the Lord or not, and regardless of whether they are even thankful or not. If we would determine every day to do good and to help someone, we would be amazed at how much more fellowship we would be having with the Holy Spirit.

While the devil is releasing his hordes to do evil, to oppress and destroy, God is raising up an army that will do good, save, and liberate. As the world enters into increasing chaos, it will be very familiar ground for the Holy Spirit. When He first moved upon the earth, it was in chaos, but look at the beautiful creation He made out of it. He thrives in chaos! As we see the chaos in the world rising, we should see it as an opportunity for the Holy Spirit to move again.

One of the most important things we can do at this time is to grow in our faith in the Holy Spirit to deal with chaos. We need to view every trial in our personal lives as an opportunity to grow in this faith. Regardless of the chaos in our families, our jobs, our schools, our cities, and in the nations, the Holy Spirit can handle any of it with ease. We must not waste these trials, but grow through them. That is why they have been allowed in our lives.

As Paul wrote in Philippians 1:6, "For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus." We can be sure that the Lord will finish what He begins. This is true of us and everything He does. Every university that was begun for the purposes of Christ will return to Him before the end, and will be perfected in its purpose. Many of these are now being used for the devil more than for the Lord, but that will change. The same is true of man in general, and that too will change. In the end everything God began to do with man will be completed, and perfected, as will be the case with everything else He began to do.

This is what Peter referred to as "the restoration of all things" in Acts 3:21. Mankind and the earth will be restored to their original purpose and condition. This will be true of "all things." This is why the Lord came to the earth, and why He went to the cross. If we are going to be like Him, and do the works that He did, we must be fundamentally committed to redemption, reconciliation, and a complete restoration.

When Israel crossed the Jordan they were entering the land that had long ago been given to their fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, but which had been possessed by heathens. The same is true of many things since. Science, the study of the creation, is something that the Lord wants man to do. However, much of it has been possessed by the heathens, but it will be reclaimed. God is currently raising up some to retake biology, chemistry, physics, and all other forms of science. In many ways they will have to have the courage, resolve, focus, and wisdom of the great generals. They will fight until all of the enemies have been driven out of this land.

There are others being raised up to take back the media, music, movies, television, cities, and even nations. These will be some of the greatest conquerors who have ever walked the earth. They will be true knights of the Holy Spirit, who fight for the King of kings.

What are you fighting for? This is a question we must all soon answer. We are here to fight, and to conquer. The emerging church will not be content to just hold its ground. It will be looking for land to retake for the coming kingdom. We will do much of this by having the answers to the world's worst problems. We will have the light that dispels the darkness. His people will have the helping hand that will pull others out of the quicksand. However, we cannot pull others out until we ourselves are standing on solid ground. Let us build our fortifications upon that which cannot be shaken, and then go forth from them to the sound of the battle.

Being the Salt and Light by Walking in the Truth
Rick Joyner

It is crucial to not just know the truth, but to love the truth. Today I am going to take it one more step to walking in truth. Knowing the truth is important, but not enough. Loving the truth is important, but not enough. We must live what we believe if we are going to be true. Jesus did not come to just be the Way or just be the Truth, but He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. If we are going to truly know Him and follow Him, He must be all three to us.

The harvest that is the end of the age is the maturing of everything that has been sown in man, both the good and the evil. This is why it will be the fulfillment of Isaiah 60:1-2, "Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. For behold, darkness will cover the earth, and deep darkness the peoples, but the Lord will rise upon you, and His glory will appear upon you." Here we are told that at the same time the great darkness is coming upon the peoples, the glory of the Lord is appearing upon His people. This is the time that we are coming to, and to walk through the great darkness that is coming, we are going to need the greatest light.

Character and Power

Before the very end of this age, it will require both the character of Christ and the power of Christ to prevail. This is the Lord's intention - to compel us into the Light. The lukewarm will not make it through what is coming. The clear differences between the light and darkness will continue to increase. For this reason it is inevitable that increasing division will come all over the world. The lines are being drawn, and the sides chosen by all who live on the earth. This is the great "valley of decision" (Joel 3:14).

It is for this reason we should all be committed to the truth of Proverbs 4:18 in our lives, "But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, that shines brighter and brighter until the full day." If we are still on "the path of the righteous" we should be experiencing more light and understanding each day. Those who are on the path of the righteous will have a hunger for the truth and a conviction to obey the truth and will walk in it. These are two basic issues that we should always be watchful of in our lives. This becomes increasingly important as we proceed toward the end of this age and see Hebrews 12:26-29 coming to pass:

"And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven.' And this expression, 'Yet once more,' denotes the removing of those things which can be shaken, as of created things, in order that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe; for our God is a consuming fire."

Everything Seems to Be Getting Less and Less Stable

The long trusted institutions are showing great cracks in their foundations. Even the governments that once seemed so strong are beginning to totter. This is because of the shaking that is already beginning to take place. The Lord, in His mercy and patience, is allowing it to come upon the world gradually, in increasing waves, just as contractions come upon a woman in labor. As we get closer to the birth of the new age in which Christ will reign over the earth, the contractions will become more intense and more frequent.

However, we have a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and if we are building our lives on it we will not shake either. This is leading to a place where Christians will become the only stable ones on the earth and all others will be increasingly disconcerted and fearful. Every life will become either full of increasing light and faith, or filled with increasing confusion and fear.

We are coming to the time when the economy, schools, banks, police, and even some of our most trusted governments, are going to become less and less stable. This is not something that should surprise us, but something for which we need to prepare. This is, in fact, already the case for most of the world. There are many countries where it is hard to determine who will be in power from day to day. Police departments are corrupt, supporting the ones who offer them the most. The economies of these countries are based more on the black market than on the stock market. However, these are also the places where some of the strongest Christians are found in the world. In some of these places the Christians are turning their shaky, national governments into strong, stable ones. These still may not be up to the standards enjoyed by some countries over the last few centuries, but great progress is being made. This is from the Lord.

Right Foundations

The nations that are stable today are mostly the ones who are benefiting from strong Christian foundations. These too will be tested, but to the degree that they are built on the right foundation they will stand the test. Therefore, it is one of our purposes as the salt of the earth and the light of the world to help steer them to that which alone can stand the testing that is coming.

It is for this reason that if we are blessed to live in a democracy where we cannot only speak the truth, but also vote for righteous leaders, we are failing in our purpose if we do not do so. Many well-meaning, but deceived Christians think that it does not matter who they vote for because God is going to put His people in office regardless. This is not the case. As we are told in Psalm 115:16, "The heavens are the heavens of the Lord, but the earth He has given to the sons of men." This means that He has given man the authority for what happens on the earth. As it has been well said, the only thing required for evil to prevail in a place is for the righteous to do nothing. If it happens on our watch, then it is us who have allowed it.

It is because the Lord has given the authority over the earth to men that He will not intervene on the earth until we pray. He knows what we need even before we ask Him, but He will even Himself comply with our authority, and only give us what we ask for. That is why the Lord Jesus continually referred to Himself as "the Son of Man." He could not redeem the earth as God, but had to do it as a man. Until He returns and sets up His throne on the earth, He has given the earth His church as the salt that preserves and the light to show the way.

The Power of Prayer

Because prayer can move the hand of God, there is nothing more powerful that we can do on this earth than pray. Therefore, an intercessory prayer meeting can accomplish more for the good of the earth than the United Nations and all congresses and parliaments combined. However, this does not mean that we are wasting our time voting or participating in the political process. As we are discussing walking in truth, walking involves touching the earth. If we are going to walk in truth, we are going to stand for truth in every way that we can touch the earth. This is one way that we can effectively be the salt and light we are called to be. To not take advantage of such an opportunity is a dereliction of our duty as citizens and Christians.

As Christians, we should be far more devoted to our duty to the church and the kingdom of God, but that does not negate our duty as citizens. In the next United States Presidential term, there will likely be many judges appointed, including Supreme Court judges that can have a very basic impact on the moral direction of the nation. Not only the President, but the Congress, as well as many state officials, will have a major say in who these judges will be. It was not the Congress but the courts that removed prayer from schools, legalized abortion, and have in many other ways flagrantly opposed the standards of righteousness and justice established in the Scriptures. In most Western nations it has been proactive judges who were used to try and remove the Word of God from having any influence in our culture. We should be praying for all government officials and using our vote to put in office those who will not only lead well, but place in other appointed positions the ones who will be righteous. This is part of our responsibility on earth that has been given to us.

There will be nations that have been built upon a strong foundation according to God's standards of righteousness and justice that will stand the shaking that is coming. If our nation does not pass this test, it is because the Christians in it were not the salt and light that they were called to be. To be the salt and light that we are called to be, we do not want to get overbalanced in our devotion to the natural, but neither do we want to neglect anything that we can do. Vote, and vote according to the Lord's standards of righteousness and justice.

On Australia
Rick Joyner

Australia will emerge as one of the most strategically important nations in the world over the next two decades. It will be one of the leading nations in the newer world that is about to emerge. Australia will begin to fulfill its original name, "the great South Land of the Holy Spirit." The people of Australia will have a special love for the Holy Spirit and they will know Him and His works. As they do this, the Holy Spirit will move upon the desert interior of the nation, beginning to make it fertile and fruitful. This will be a sign that the heart of Australia is being changed.

Australia has been given the opportunity to become one of the great "new" nations in the world. It will be different from the European model, the American model, or the Asian model. Australian independence is a gift from God. This has and will be abused by some, but it must be maintained. Australia must be willing to set its own course in politics, economics, and faith.

There is a revolution coming to the whole church and much of this will be driven by Christian education. Australia is called to be a leader in this. There are great churches in Australia, but even so, Christian schools in Australia are accomplishing more for the coming purposes of the Lord than the churches are at this time. However, neither the schools nor the churches have yet perceived the spiritual revolution that they are called to lead, and both are still far from their full purpose. There will be a revolution without rebellion, but a revolution of purpose.

Just as it took Australia a long time to realize its own calling to be a separate nation, it is taking the church in Australia a long time to understand its own unique calling in the Lord. However, the coming spiritual revolution in Australia will come and it will begin to radically transform not only the church life of the Christians in Australia, but transform the nation into a fresh breeze for other nations.

The Lord has put the adventure spirit in the heart of Australia. Australians will mobilize for a noble cause like few other people on the earth. Much of this devotion is the Australian attraction to adventure. The Lord put this in the Australian heart for the purpose of mobilizing one of the great missionary forces in history. In the coming years, Australian missionaries will be found close to the great spiritual advances in almost every country.

This attraction to adventure, which is in the heart of Australians, will be the key factor to mobilizing and motivating the youth of Australia. As the youth in many nations will be drawn to the increasing anointing coming on worship, the arts, and the power gifts of the Spirit, Australian youth will be drawn far more to the adventure of foreign missions. Australia will not lose its youth to missions-it will lose its youth if they are not given to missions. The churches and ministries that have the strongest missions will begin to draw the next generation and arise as the great lights in the nation. However, the youth must be trained, equipped, and engaged in the good fight. They will not settle for just being spiritual tourists. They are warriors and the ones who will take new territory for the kingdom.

For all of the great cities of Australia and the nation as a whole, missions will be the key to the future. All that are given to missions will return abundantly multiplied because a generation will arise that will use the blessings for the right reasons. Seek the "great grace of God," that which is by and through His Holy Spirit. Then seek to carry the grace of God to those in need. You will then have all of your needs met and will not be in danger.

PERTH

I saw Perth becoming like a staging base for a great invasion. International ministries started to gather there and others were raised up from among the churches already there. Then a steady stream of ships began leaving for Africa, with an occasional ship turning north toward Asia.

As ships often represent leader-ship, I felt that these represented many leaders being sent to Africa and some to Asia. Some of these ships were troop ships and some were cargo ships. The troop ships were foot soldiers and I knew they represented missionaries going to Africa in great numbers and also to Asia, but in lesser numbers.

NOTE: The cargo ships that I saw were mostly carrying energy in the form of fuel oil, gasoline, and natural gas. I felt strongly that this was both natural and spiritual, but I want to address the natural first. Australia has been blessed with great energy resources that it will learn to distribute wisely, not just for profit, but to nations that will use it wisely. Powerful nations will try to intimidate Australia into selling them their energy resources, but Australia must resist such pressure. These resources are a gift to help developing nations. These nations will become a much bigger blessing to Australia in the long run than the powerful ones such as China who will only increase their intimidation once they see that it works.

In the vision when I saw these troop and cargo ships arrive at the ports, they linked up. Then the troops formed convoys for carrying the energy into the countries. Everywhere they went the lights would come on in villages. I felt these represented churches that were being birthed from the people and resources coming from Western Australia.

There is a great spiritual window of opportunity opening for Perth. If the churches in Perth will unify, the Lord will put Perth on the world map of the church and use it to gather one of the great harvests for the last days, especially in Africa. Perth has been somewhat isolated for a reason. This is a blessing and a protection from the Lord.

SYDNEY

Sydney is already a beautiful and remarkable world-class city. If it humbles itself, and will turn to the morality and integrity of the Lord, it will become one of the most powerful business centers of the world. Great companies that will arise in Australia will be based in Sydney and many others will move their headquarters there. Then Sydney will become the gateway city of the South Pacific and a major door to Southern Asia.

There are many true worshipers in Sydney and their worship is touching the Father in a special way. They are getting heaven's attention. For this reason some of the great prayer ministries will also be raised up in Sydney that will give birth to powerful spiritual change throughout the region and make the way of the Australian missionaries victorious. Through them Sydney can become a city of power that stands with the great and influential cities of the earth.

A Refuge Safe From The Storm

Angel Dahilig

8/31/2004

The LORD is close to the brokenhearted,
And He bindeth up all their wounds;
Not with stitches and salves, but
With His compassion and tender mercies.

When the afflicted, oppressed, and fearful
Need a shelter from the storm,
They need only to run to the Great Shepherd,
To the Protector and Lover of their souls.

Weary from the storm, they collapse at His feet,
Where He carefully lifts them up by His Right Arm,
And carries them gently over His shoulders,
through the night rains.

Here, they are safe,
as they rest and trust in His Love,
And in the Protection and Strength of the Great Shepherd.

He carries them to the Shelter, that He Himself has built --
A Place of Refuge
To keep His sheep, safe from the storm.

There, He Himself feeds them.
There, He Himself provides them their water.
There, He Himself keeps them,
Until the storm has passed them by.

"See, I AM the Great Shepherd.
I have prepared a place for you.
If it were not so, then I would not have told you.
My sheep hear My Voice;

They follow after Me.
So, come, and I will provide for you living waters and a shelter for your soul."

Matthew 5:3-4
"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. "

Matthew 11:28
"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

John 10:27
"My sheep listen to my voice;
I know them,
and they follow me."

Deut. 31:6
"Be strong and courageous.
Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the LORD your God goes with you;
he will never leave you nor forsake you."

John 16:33
"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace.
In this world you will have trouble.
But take heart! I have overcome the world."

Psalms 23:1
The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.

Argentina
J. Conrad Lampan

I just received this email with an account of a prophecy given in Singapore for the nation of Argentina.

"There were around 22,700 pastors from 162 nations. All gathered there, and in the last night, one of the Asian servants went up to the stage and began to cry very loud...in that moment, 1,000 Levites (music servants) brought a roll of 30 feet high. When they began to open it up....it was an Argentine flag of about 300 feet long and 10 meters high!! I was so amazed! This pastor was crying and began to say : Argentina, praise! Argentina, Praise!!! ARGENTINA, PRAISE!!!!! Isaiah 42:13! Argentina, Praise! The Lord has chosen you to reach out the world! You will gain the world!!! There's a new time for Argentina! and I will began with my holy movement in the beginning of 2004 until 2009... 2,000,000 souls will be gained by year, 10 million persons will be gained in 5 years! Argentina will be conquered place by place, city by city, neighborhood by neighborhood!" and then, the 1,000 Levites put the flag on the floor and began symbolically to play the "shofar" (an ancient Hebrew horn used for the sound of Victory and War) and dance on the flag. Then, this man began to say "There is a place in Argentina where God's going to begin all of this...God's saying ...Mendoza....San Rafael, Mendoza!" then, everyone there on the flag bowed down and prayer over San Rafael, Mendoza. The moving of the Holy Spirit was so strong; you couldn't stand on your feet there. This man continued saying, “37% of the religious leaders...I don't know what's the main religion of Argentina, but 37% of the religious leaders of Argentina will be visited by the Holy Spirit. Argentina is the last frontier to conquer.... Don't worry about the world, worry about Argentina, because I have Argentina in one hand... And in the other I have the world. If Argentina is gained ...the world will be gained." Then this man called all the pastors from Argentina present there, and there were only 9 pastors and prayed for them and anointed them, and declared that Argentina is the land God's chosen for gaining the Earth for the sake of Christ."

The Pastor or the People
J. Conrad Lampan

I was just reading Psalm 106 which brings an account on how the people Israel managed to provoke the Lord to anger and how the Lord in His grace saved them. When I came to verses 32 and 33 I was literally struck.

“They angered Him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses on account of them because they rebelled against His Spirit, so that he spoke rashly with his lips”
(NKJ version. Italics mine.)

We all have read or heard or know first hand of pastors who have fallen in a variety of sins, and also heard of how their congregations have suffered, and have felt betrayed by their pastors. Have you? I have heard and seen it in a lot of places.

However my contention today as I read this passage again and again is that we always blame the pastor or leader for his own fault, which ultimately is true, but before that leader fell, what was the role of the congregation? How did he or she get there in first place?

How many pastors have lost their ministry, and like Moses had to “behold from afar off” whatever blessing God had for them because their congregations were never supportive? It makes me cry when I think back and realize that so many of them were pushed over the edge by congregations that were "lusting after their own hearts, having lost all sensitivity" (paraphrasing Ephesians). Those same congregations which were so unsupportive, uncaring, insensitive, just looking after themselves, when their pastors were found in trouble it was the same people that were ready to tie them to the stake and light the fire that would finish their ministry, or even their life.

Some would argue that if the congregation is not well taught it is the pastors fault altogether, however when reading Ephesians we find that Paul was addressing the people rather than the pastors, and as he puts it they are not in good shape because they have hardened their own hearts, and lust after their own ideas and desires.

I was visiting a town in the Midwest in America and was told about this church that has changed 7 pastors in less than 5 years, simply because not one of them suited their ways! In another church it was discovered that a group of people were undermining their leadership using witchcraft! Could you believe this? A friend of mine had to leave his pastorate because the church considered that there were more important things to take care of than the salary of the pastor. When he realized that the situation was not going to change and that his children were suffering too much he simply had to resign and go back to work. The list would be too long to write it down here, I just wanted to bring a few of the most flagrant cases I know of.

Now, I am not defending sin. If a pastor or leader or teacher or whoever God has put in a position of certain responsibility sins, in whatever kind of sin, that person is responsible before God for His sin. No I am not defending sin, but I am arguing that the people, the congregations are not without sin when they treat their leaders like expendable material; or when they do not care for them; when the people do not support their pastor, when they do not pray for him or her; when all their conversation about their leader is simply gossiping; or when they look at their pastor as their "employee" altogether subject to whatever desire they might have at the moment.

Moses was punished because of his "sin with his lips" because of the provocation of the people. It is sad that he was punished, and in first place it is sad that he sinned. Yes, he was punished, but the people did not go without punishment. God is patient but sooner or later His wrath will reach us if we first do not cry out for mercy.

The people of Israel were sent into captivity, once and again, and they did not seem to learn their lesson. Finally they were scattered over the world, so much that their own nation disappeared. For almost 2000 years Israel did not have a land, they did not exist. Have we ever wondered why there are so many churches that close their doors and simply cease to exist? We are used to blame the pastors or leaders, however maybe it was not the pastor; may be it was the people.

The Lord said of Israel "they have made my Spirit angry, therefore My Holy Spirit became their enemy". Wow! Or should I say woe? Woe is me! Woe to us, if the Holy Spirit ever becomes our enemy. It is about time that the church stops playing games with God's Holiness.

Whose Revival
J. Conrad Lampan

What do we think when we read in some announcements for conferences, or seminars, or other gatherings, sometimes happening in the same area at the same time, and each claim to have received a word from God promising that revival will start during "their" conference? The implied message of those announcements is that God has chosen "this" and not "that" conference or seminar or even church to bring forth revival into that area.

When I hear or read such claims I gather two things immediately.

The first thought that comes to my mind is that God has not spoken. God never ever said that He would build our church, or our conference, or our gathering. He said: “I will build MY church. HIS Church. Period.

The fact remains that after the conference has finished revival has not actually happen so we can reasonably ask where is the promised revival? we hear quite a few different explanations as to why God’s “word” was not fulfilled that range from ‘it was not yet the time’ to ‘the people did not respond’. Of course the blame always go to the people or to God.

The real answer to this question is a much simpler and prosaic one: GOD HAS NOT SPOKEN.

The second thing I gather is that we have developed an awful and very dangerous ability to use God (or try to use Him) to promote our own thing. We need to turn the table before God Himself does. We are to be the instruments the God will use and forget about God being your means to achieve your own goals or agenda.

Revival is at the bend; it is coming simply because it is in God’s heart. Revival is coming because He desires it for His own purposes. However the clue as to whether it will hit me and my church lies in an attitude and not in a word.

In 1982 a revival hit Argentina that proved to be the longest ever in the history of revivals. The pastor of the church where it started was asked by some visiting pastors: “Brother, can you tell us what you did in order to have this revival? One would expect a complicated answer, or a series of steps that took them into revival.

The answer?

WE MADE OURSELVES AVAILABLE TO GOD.

A Rain of Fire
Ron Powell

07 May, 2004
But it is no shame to suffer for being a Christian. Praise God for the privilege of being called by his wonderful name!
For the time has come for judgment, and it must begin first among God's own children. And if even we Christians must be judged, what terrible fate awaits those who have never believed God's Good News? And "If the righteous are barely saved, what chance will the godless and sinners have?" So if you are suffering according to God's will, keep on doing what is right, and trust yourself to the God who made you, for he will never fail you. 1 Peter 4:16-19 NLT

My Children,
A rain of fire is falling upon My church. You ask, why have recent events left you feeling isolated and alone. I tell you as long as you look upon your brothers and divert your attention to the circumstances from without you will never allow for the work within. I have driven you into the wilderness to reveal by fire thy thoughts and thy sins.

I am purging and purifying My people. By My Spirit shall I burn away the dross and reveal the true treasures of the hidden man, yes, the gems buried beneath the sin of self seeking and indifference.

I will once again give you eyes to see your own faults and not those of your brothers. Do not condemn thyself but see this as My love restoring you and establishing you.

Your hearts will once again confess sins at My altars and praises from the devoted shall once again be heard in the corridors of heaven. That which is without value shall be consumed and the beauty of holiness shall radiate from hearts which seek My Kingdom and It's Righteousness.

I shall return for a Bride without spot and without wrinkle. Shall I not prepare you for that day? Yes, this is necessary to reveal the truth about your hearts. It will renew fervor and restore holiness. You shall not be ashamed on the day of My appearing. I come to gather My elect, My treasures.

Blessings,

Admonition to the Men Of God
Ron Powell

05 May, 2004
Come back, we beg you, O God Almighty. Look down from heaven and see our plight. Watch over and care for this vine that you yourself have planted, this son you have raised for yourself. For we are chopped up and burned by our enemies. May they perish at the sight of your frown. Strengthen the man you love, the son of your choice. Then we will never forsake you again. Revive us so we can call on your name once more. Turn us again to yourself, O Lord God Almighty. Make your face shine down upon us. Only then will we be saved. Psalm 80:14-19

I hear your cries for those who have turned away from hearing. I hear your cry to turn their hearts once more to Me. I am mindful of the needs of My Church and I will not forsake My people, for this I have promised. I am the husbandman and I will faithfully tend My vineyards and wild animals will not ravage it's fruit.

I will thoroughly purge and dress the vine so that it will bring forth more fruit. Yes, the harvest time is just ahead. Grieve not the limbs that I remove. Fruitless limbs take away the health of the entire vine. This must happen or you will be powerless to be partakers in the last great ingathering. Take My hand, I will lead you. Loose thy affections from all things thou hold precious and leave them in My keeping.

Turn from all distractions and seek Me completely! Truly only then shall your heart know complete satisfaction and thy soul shall be at rest. I do not set Myself to strip thee of all thy earthly ties but I am calling you to give Me all thy affection.

Yield to Me the love you have for the institutions. Do not have a divided heart. I would that you understood that those which remain are as one man and those who have left thee have left Me. They are as fickle lovers who seek only thy strength and thy wealth. When they have gorged themselves at thy table, they leave having only considering their own bellies. When have such men characterized My Kingdom?

Surely your focus must turn once again heavenward from whence cometh thine help. Give Me wholly thine hearts affections and I will meet thine every need. I am coming to revive and refresh thee, to cleanse and quicken thee. Yes I shall cause new life to spring forth and the desert places shall bloom again. Grieve not ... Rejoice!

Blessings,

Postcards From God
Ron Powell

13 April, 2004

Jesus Said:
Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.
For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.
And a man's foes shall be they of his own household. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.(Matthew 10:34:37)

O Man of God,
I have placed the fire of self judgment in My church. I have ask that a man judge himself by the standard of My word. To judge the motives of his heart and the thoughts of his mind by the same accord. Should not a man bring his thoughts into subjection to My truth and shall he not look at them in the light of My written Word. For I have covenanted to bring you into the fullness of the stature of Christ, this I will do as you bring to Me the issues of your heart. I have set before you open doors this day and I ask you to be governed and directed by My Spirit. Acknowledge Me as it is written and I will direct your steps.

Beloved, if a man set his earthly family above My will shall he not be considered unfit. Yet, you say your consideration for your family is out of love for them and how can love be wrong, I say it is out of personal preference and fear. At the heart of the issues you bring, have you not concerned yourself with thoughts of how others would feel if you followed completely the path I set before you. Ponder this, Is not the heart treacherous and a deceiver? Can the Flesh know the will of The Spirit? I have not come to comfort flesh but as it is written: Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

And again it is written: For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

Yes, an unregenerate man minds the things that are after the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.
Have I not spoken through My servant Paul: to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
Yes, carnal reasoning is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

My Child, then set a watch that you might know My ways and allow My ways to govern your path! For My sheep know My voice and another shepherd they will not follow, even if that shepherd be thine own flesh.

May unexpected Blessings come to your house today,
His Servant,
Ron Powell

A Release of Special Favor

Mel Zackay

zackaym@yahoo.com

The Lord is releasing special favor upon His Bride. For even as it was for Esther, he is has extended his scepter for us to come into the Holy of Holies and experience Him in a new way. This is a time when our spiritual eyes will be opened, when the scales will fall off as the Lord gives us revelation into His will for our families, communities and nations. It is also a time that He is releasing many into the sphere of the secular and giving favor to many to even stand before kings and rulers to simply be that light that will shine.

It is a time for us as believers to simply yield to him and by faith take hold of and embrace the calling upon our lives. Where he has sent us, it shall not be without his involvement and planning. He is releasing a special favor on the Church and an opening of our eyes that we may realise that our life and being is all about HIM and to simply bring all to the cross.

PROPHETIC WORD

IT IS BEING DONE NOW, says the Lord. Receive My grace and My power to move you forward in this season. For behold I shall direct your steps and lead you in My righteousness. There is a great hunger and desire in the heart of man to be intimate with Me and to know Me, and I am sending you, My people, as laborers in the field to gather the harvest, to those who will say, 'Here I am, send me.' Truly this is a time for My revival fire to sweep across the lands of the earth. I give them to you as your inheritance, says the Lord, for you are My sons and daughters of the resurrection power.

In His service... Mel.

All Systems Are Go

Mary Clark

The Lord showed me a computer, set up and ready to go. Someone had pulled a chair up to it.

Then I heard the Lord say, "All systems are go!"

Here is what He has to say on this subject:

I, the Lord God Almighty, have declared this day that all systems are go.
I have said words before that I am about to do a mighty work in your midst. I have told you to look forward to many wondrous things. Well this is the hour when you may look and see My work manifesting in your life in a wonderful way. Let Me reiterate: All systems are go. I am ready to proceed with My plans. All is lined up according to My will. It is time to blast off into the things of your God, beloved. It is time to BLAST OFF into the things that I have prepared for those who love Me!!!

The High-top Sneaker

Mary Clark

July 15, 2004

In a vision, I saw a high-top sneaker. Someone was trying to lace it with string cheese. I thought to myself, that person is not going to be able to tie that string cheese in a bow without breaking it. Why did you show this to me, Lord?

I want My dear children to see something with clarity. The ways of man just will not support My work. No! Man's ways will not support My work. It must be My way or no way at all. You ask Me why I would make such a statement, and I will tell you the facts:

Your God looks on man's ways and scoffs, because man does not know the ends and outs of every situation. Man looks from only one angle – at the most, two. Man has a certain standard of criteria that he lives by, and it is not up to My standard.. That is why I say that man's ways will not support My work.

I am asking that My children lay aside their own ideas and listen to Mine – follow My instruction. You will see that if you will follow My lead, laying aside your preconceived notions, that you will know victory – victory in the market place – victory as you minister to your fellowman. But if you insist on doing things your way you will know defeat. That is the long and short of it, beloved. That is the truth of the matter. Now take heed! Follow My instruction, and know victory even if My ways seem foolish to your mind at the time. Pay your mind no heed. Follow My instruction, and see My will develop in your midst.

I am calling My dear children into a relationship of truth. I want you to know that I am with you all the way. I will not forsake you. Don't you forsake Me and My ways, beloved. Follow My lead and you will know a certain success in the process, but if you go with your mindset you will know defeat. I am eager for you to follow after My will, laying aside the old staid ways of doing things. I am eager for us to come into a unity of mind. I am eager for you to know Me and know My will in your daily life, without skipping a beat. So don't pretend that you don't hear Me when I give you some instructions that are a bit off the wall. No! Follow My lead, and I will guarantee you that you will know success. You will not only know success you will dwell in a success that can only be counted as great victory – great victory for your Beloved, and great victory for My kingdom.

Know this: Many are trying to do things their own way. They are trying to act out My will in their lives without listening to My instruction. That, beloved, will get you nowhere in your walk. It will get you nowhere! Follow My lead, and you will know victory. But if you follow after your notions – the notions that the world has instilled in you – you will be sliding on a downhill slope into failure. And that is a fact, beloved. That is a truth that you can take to the bank!!!

The Silver Basin
Mary Clark

In a vision, I saw a silver basin filled with water. There were many feet around the basin. Why did You show this to me, Lord?

This silver basin represents many things to My dear children. It represents My redeeming work on your behalf, and it represents My servanthood to mankind. I want you to realize the extremes that your God went through to call you His own. I want you to stand fast to this truth.

In this day, I will be calling you to wash many feet in My name. I am calling you to show forth the servanthood of the living God. So gird yourself with your towels, kneeling down before those I send to you, and know with each act of servanthood that you perform on My behalf, you will be shining forth My glory, and you will be revealing My heart to bless and to love mankind.

I am calling for you to take your place around My basin – My silver basin of redemption. It is a place where you will dwell in the knowledge of My great love for you and for all of mankind. I want you to reveal My heart, and show forth My will for each person that I put in your path. I want each of you to know that the hour of powerful demonstration is upon you. Stand fast in this truth. For just as surely as I have called you to be My servants, performing on My behalf to the masses, I have called you to demonstrate My wondrous will as it shines through with promise. So don your towels of purity and hope, and know as you kneel before another to wash his feet, that you are also washing My feet, and bringing forth a new hope to all who will receive.

This is the hour to shine forth the glory of the living God. It is the hour to step into the splendor that I have provided for your enjoyment. So get ready to kneel before your fellow man, and give to him the gift of hope that lies in becoming one who serves another unceasingly. Isn’t that what it is all about? Serving others as I served while I was on earth? Serving others with a heart that is tender and caring? Yes! That is what this walk in all about, beloved, so get ready to shine forth My caring heart, and know with each example that you show of your God, you are pleasing My heart – pleasing My heart most satisfactory!!!

Welcome Home

July 17, 2004
Psalm 84: 10 Better is one day in Your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked.

I want My dear children to know something today. I want you to know that I do delight in you and in your willingness to follow hard after My will. It delights Me to have you draw close to Me. It delights Me to know that is where you want to be – near to Me – in the courts of your God.

Let Me tell you something, beloved, about the courts of your God. They are extraordinary – far, far, beyond all imagination. Far, far above anything you could ever think. My courts are magnificent. They are wondrous. They are filled with holy treasure. Yes! My courts are certainly the place you would want to be. To know that this is your desire, when you have never seen them, delights Me, beloved. It delights Me to know that you long to be close to Me – One Whom you have never seen.. You have never beheld My face full of My wonderful glory, and yet you tell Me that you delight in Me and prefer to be a doorkeeper in My house than to live in any dwelling on earth. That does delight Me, beloved. You are blessed doubly because of that longing that you have, and your desire to let Me know. Yes! You are doubly blessed!

Know this too, dear child: I have some wonderful things in store for you. You, who delight in the Holy One, Whom you have never seen, have some wonderful surprises in store for you. So get ready to see a full manifestation of My glory in your midst, and know, dear child, that it does delight My heart to bring this wonder of wonders to you –My beloved.

I want you to know that I went to great expense to bring forth this shining hour. I gave much, knowing that My true beloved would fall into line with My will – have that yearning for Me and My dwelling place in your heart. I knew that hour was to come. I knew that you would bring delight to My heart in a way that nothing ever could. And now here we are, beloved: On the brink of that wondrous hour when you will walk in a fullness of My glory – fullness that you never dreamed.

Oh, My beloved, do you know how I have looked forward to this wondrous hour – this time when we would walk hand in hand into the plentitude that I have for you? No, you do not. But it is enough for Me to know, dear child, that the hour is finally upon us, and soon you will know My all-pervading goodness. You will see the design of My heart take shape in your hearts in a wonderful way. You will declare your allegiance to Me yet once again, and I will hear once again with a thrill in My heart.

I want you to know that a time of wonder is surely upon those who take delight in serving the Almighty King of glory. I want you to know that it pleases Me greatly to see this hour unfold in your midst. For you see, I have had this plan in the works from the beginning – from the beginning, dear favored one, and all the time I had you on My mind, in My heart, in the very center of My heart of hearts.

Oh, glad tidings I bring to you this night – the gladdest of tidings as I tell you these words of truth: I have made a way for you to enter into a most intimate holy union with your Beloved. I have made a way for you to be so close to Me that we will be one – we will be united in a wonderful way – a way that screams of unity – sweet, holy, unity. There will be no denying that you are in unity with your Beloved, dear child – no doubt at all. It will open a season of the greatest hope to My dear children – a season of inexplicable wonder – a season of the sheerest delight. And it is coming soon, beloved. It is coming soon.

So know this night that I am pleased to call you My own. I am pleased to draw you closer to Me. I am pleased to bless you beyond your comprehension, and bring forth this hour of sweet unity with the Beloved in your heart of hearts. I have designed a wonderful place for you – a place of rest and peace – a place of joy and unrestrained happiness. I have prepared it. You have longed for it. Now get ready to enter, dear child. Get ready to enter into that place – that wonderful place in Me where you will know that you have arrived in the courts of the Almighty One to His good pleasure. Welcome, beloved. Welcome to your heavenly home. Welcome to all that I have gladly provided for you. Welcome to all that was bought at great expense that you might know Me in this manner.

Welcome home, beloved. Welcome home!!!

Zorro Rides Again
Mary Clark

barnabessie@earthlink.net
July 12, 2004

In a vision, I saw Zorro, riding his horse really fast. Then I heard the Lord say, "Zorro rides again!"

Zorro rides again. He is headed right straight into your heart. He has many magnificent feats that He would like to accomplish in record time. You say, "Why, Lord, Zorro is a fictitious character. What could You be talking about?" I tell you, beloved, just as this fictitious hero went forth doing his good deeds, I am going forth doing My good deeds in hearts. I am going forth straightening out things that are all kinked-up, smoothing them to My liking. But I must hurry. I have just so much time to accomplish this feat. I need to be really quick, and I will be.

I am doing a magnificent work – a wonder-filled work in hearts. I am setting things right that have been turned topsy-turvy. I am showing man just what the living God has up His sleeve, and it is good – it is outstanding! I am bringing about a work, according to My timetable, that will delight My children's hearts. My children are eager for the completion of this work. They are asking Me to hurry up the process. I am completing it according to My expertise – according to My timetable. It is looking good. Be patient, little ones, be patient. It is coming along nicely, according to My will. It will be good. It will be worth the wait. It will be worth every moment of waiting, for when I shine forth My glory upon the face of the earth, all will be lined up according to My will and nothing will fail – nothing will be askew in this work. You will applaud it. Bells will ring in heaven. Hands will clap in wild, ecstatic applause from My throne, for I am bringing about a stupendous work. And just as Zorro went forth on his horse with breakneck speed, your God is setting about His business, bringing forth His will at breakneck speed. But don't be concerned, beloved. I will be fine – just fine. My steed never loses his Rider. When we are going about the Father's business, we are one – we are in total unity – we are eager to do His will and see His kingdom flourish on earth as in heaven.

So know this: I am doing a wonderful work. I am accomplishing it according to My will – according to My expertise, and the work that I do will be completed without a flaw. My children are eager for the completion. Be patient. I do know what I am doing, and I am doing it well. You will see the light of My glory, and know that I have accomplished My will with the expertise that only the holy One could deliver. That is My plan, dear child of God. That is the plan that I have set before Myself, and I will accomplish it with a will of iron, for have I not said that My desire is to do the will of My Father. That is what I am doing. That is what I am bringing forth. That is what you may expect!!!

Salt of the Earth

barnabessie@earthlink.net
In a vision, Someone took the top off a salt shaker, and poured salt into His hand. He then took the salt and threw it on the bed where two of my good friends were sleeping. Why did You show this to me, Lord?

I want you, My children, to know that I am about to enter your dreams. I am about to reveal Myself to you in these dreams. When I do, you will know that something truly wonderful has happened in your heart. You will know that the Almighty has come into a new arena of your life, showing to you the wonder of His great love for you. You will identify this as a most extraordinary event. So get ready for a most pleasant visitation from the One Who is Love, and rely on Me to intervene in your dreams – in your sleep-time – with great truths and wonders that will please your heart, that will bless you substantially, and will open a new hour for you to walk tall into the things that I have planned for you to enjoy.

I am about to pour forth something salty in your dreams that will enable you to rise up strong in this coming hour. This salt will fortify your heart, and bring you into a place of rich discovery in Me. Yes! I am bringing forth something that will give a different flavor to your sleep-time. Get ready to explore a new arena. Get ready to draw closer to your Love, and know deep within that I have called you to enter into a new hour of wonder, and it will shine forth when you least expect it – when you are in dreamland.

My heart is being extended to you, displaying My will, and that is to bless you, strengthen you, and move you deeper into My will shining forth for you to come into a new place in Me – a new place of My great love being made known to you, and offering to you a new hope in your tomorrows.

Get ready for a visitation. Get ready for something unusual to come your way, and know that it comes by way of something that will add much flavor to your life, making things that are about to appear in your life more palatable than you ever dreamed they would be. Get ready, beloved, for a happening that will come when you least expect it – in your place of sleep – in your place of dreamland – the dreamland that I will enter and sprinkle liberally with something that will make your future more palatable than you ever imagined. Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good, and He has made a way for you to know this fact firsthand. Get ready for a sample soon. Get ready for a sample, but it will only be the beginning. It will only be the beginning of what I have in store for your enjoyment – all for your enjoyment!!!

The Frosting on the Cake
Mary Clark

I am putting the frosting on the cake, beloved. I am spreading it smoothly. There are no lumps, and every inch of My cake will be covered with My delicious white icing. Yum! Yum! What a delight to My eyes. What a delight to My heart!

I am spreading My frosting. I am preparing My bride for the dance of love. Get ready to comply with My wishes, as I whisk you off in My embrace. Get ready to know the True and Eternal One in a wonderful way.

I am preparing My bride for the last days. I am clothing you in a white – a sparkling white – a white that will blind the eyes of the world, but will open the eyes of those who wish to follow after the Beloved. This is the hour – this is the time to know the goodness of the living God as is shines forth, bringing you into a place of resplendent beauty.

Many have testified of the love of the living God. Many have spoken of its richness. You are about to experience this wonderful love of your God. So get ready. The time is upon you.

I am putting the frosting on the cake. My bride is looking glorious. She is shining forth the goodness of the living God. I am putting a covering on her that is completely My very own design. It is lacking nothing. It is complete in its splendor. So know that the hour of wonder has dawned, and the Beloved is taking you into a new place – a new place of His great wonder. Know too that My hand is doing a most exquisite work. Now is the hour to shine forth, beloved, revealing the heart to your God. Now is the time to know deep within the love of the Master – the thrilling and most complete love of your Holy Master.

For something wonderful is coming your way. It will arrive soon. It is a work that is being completed by My most gracious hand, and you will identify it by its beauty and the bright shiny cherry that I am placing on top. Yes! As I complete this wonderful work, you will know that the hour of completeness is upon you, and you will see the bright, red cherry to prove it. Identify this work, beloved. Receive all that it entails, and know deep within that your God has singled you out for the finest of hours to display His great wonder – the great wonder of His purity and hope as you step forth into His arms of glory and reveal yourself to the masses as My bride, My beloved, My holy love!!!

Big Change

In a vision, I saw a young man cup his hands around his mouth and yell something. What was he saying, Lord?

That young man was making a proclamation to the world. He was telling all of mankind that the living

God is winding things down, and they had better get ready for His return. He was serious, and his message was urgent. Those in the world who heard him looked on his message with disdain, while those who belong to the living God clapped, danced, and sang with hearts surrendered and eager for their Lord's return.

I want to add these words to those of the young man. I am a God of great strength and power. I am eager to see man come forward and surrender to Me. I am eager to display My might and power to the masses, and let them know that surrender to Me is sweet. But I can see that all of mankind will not receive this message, so I am going to do something BIG. I am going to cause something BIG to happen on the face of the earth that will shake mankind and help mankind to get his attention off the world and on me. I am going to do something that will make a substantial difference in the way that man now lives. I am going to show man that he is not as self-sufficient as he thought he was. I am going to show him that the Almighty God wants to enable him to move forward in Him. When mankind sees this, he may do one of two things: He may surrender, finding that in that surrender the Lord God Almighty has shone forth His glory to his heart, or he may turn away from My approach, seeking more of the world's ways, and becoming sorely disappointed, but unable to give up his quest for the things of the world.

All that I have spoken is about to happen, beloved, and when it does, I want you to remember these words. I want you to embrace My truth now, and know that with your surrender to Me will come an extraordinary wonder into your heart that will satisfy, fortify, and strengthen.

These are the words of the Almighty God being spoken through His servant. They are words of truth and urgency. Get ready to know something deep within your heart that will enable you to combat anything that comes your way in the future, for in embracing Me and My words of truth you will know an incomparable strength within, and you will be able to aid in the salvation of mankind. You will be able to shine forth the glory of your Lord, displaying His loving character, thereby wooing mankind into that place in Me that you have found that is so rich in substance.

So get ready to go forth in My name, displaying My goodness to the masses, and know that I will be with you, upholding you all the way. Do not look at the conditions of the world around you, beloved. Look at Me. Stay focused on Me, and know deep within the wonder of belonging and being maintained by the living God in an extraordinarily new way – a way of great wonder and truth – a way that will show you the true meaning of life – a way that will lead you into that place of irrepressible joy and well-being no matter how the circumstances around you look.

These words I have spoken to prepare your heart for what lies ahead. Embrace this truth, and know deep within that when your God called for change, He was speaking of drastic change. He was speaking of things taking on a totally new look, and this would come by His hand. He was speaking about upsetting man's system, and declaring His own. That is what Your God is talking about. I am not talking about something small in the eyes of man. I am talking about something BIG – something that will truly get the world's attention. I am talking about a change coming to the face of earth that will be so BIG that it will upset the whole system that man has built and looked to for his substance. Yes! Beloved, I am talking about drastic change that will be looked on by man as a huge explosion of wonder – not wonder as you see in your God, but wonder as you see is disaster – that kind of change!!!

April Showers Bring May Flowers
Mary Clark

In a vision, I saw Someone twirling a white umbrella. The umbrella was trimmed with a colorful, floral fabric. It was very pretty. Then I heard the Lord say, “April showers bring May flowers.” Here is what He has to say to us:

I am the Holy One Who has your future in Me secure, beloved – secure – again, I say, “SECURE!” Look forward to all that I am bringing your way. Look forward to seeing the mighty fall, and the weak lifted high.

I am being about My Father’s business in this hour. I am readjusting some things. I am taking some things totally out of the picture that were once looked upon as “holy.” Know that the work that I do will complement those who follow after My heart. Yes. You go hand in hand with My work, beloved, as you follow after My heart.

I am extraordinarily glad to call you My own. I am extraordinarily delighted to present the coming hour. It is surely coming by My hand, and it will be a work that will ring true in the halls of heaven for all of eternity.

I said that April showers bring May flowers, and that is a truth that I want you to look on in this hour with much anticipation. For just as surely as you will see the showers of rain come forth, you will see the goodness of your God declared in the blossoming forth of His beloved. My beloved will shine forth My goodness, revealing many wonders in the process. I wish to explain Myself with accuracy in this piece, so hear Me out and know that the words that I speak are essential to your well-being. So take them in. Digest them, and know the wonder of walking in My will in a totally new way.

I am bringing forth an hour when the rain of My glory will intensify to such a degree that there will be times when you will call out to Me to desist from this rain. I am going to rain My glory on those who have called out to Me their willingness to move forward into My work. I am going to give you a deluge of My omnipresent glory that will certainly get your attention. You are going to ask Me, “Father, why so much? Why are You pouring down on us this copious amount of your glorious rain – Your most pronounce glory?” I will tell you why now, beloved: There is work to be done, there is little time to do it, and I am making a way to equip you for My purposes in a way that will not be completely understood. But know this: This plan that I am undertaking will accomplish My wishes, and you will know a certain success in your life that will take on the quality of the surreal. Now that is all that I will say on the subject at this point, but know this: April showers are bringing forth May flowers, and you are going to blossom forth for Me – you are going to show the world something of the greatest importance: The living God abides in your heart, and He is moving powerfully in your midst. Get ready for a deluge. Get ready for a blossoming forth. Get ready to behold the signs of the time from a front-row seat, beloved – a front-row seat!!!

Ascending Butterflies
Sandy Warner

Feb 17, 2004
BOB JONES QUOTES
{From Tape of the Month, Morningstar Ministries, June 2002} http://www.morningstarministries.org/

"Foundation ministries. Governments. In heaven's time, that cocoon is going to start wiggling. It's getting weaker in here. I can just feel it. There's gonna be a jail break. And that wall is breaking down and I am going to kick loose again. And the cocoon of the anointing is going to open and you are going to find out you're not a worm, but a butterfly. For a metamorphous has taken place"

"God's government is getting ready to come forth. And this agreement is like a loaded gun. And you are going to begin to see power down here. Taking from the enemy. You are going to see salvation like you have never seen before. And the blank checks is going to do it. Do you understand? Papa has signed it. And He will only bless it in His government. But we are getting ready to see a government that you can't deny. We are getting ready to see a government down here established in heaven. Man's been trying to get a government up here. If the real thing happens, it will come by heavenly visitation, by angels, and this apostolic is going to happen and I wouldn't touch it. It's getting ready to break out of a cocoon and I am not going to help it one ounce. If you help a chicken come out of the egg, you will kill it. If you help something that has been in metamorphous, you will kill it. I'm not going to touch it. God's doing it, He said He's going to do it, and He's doing it. His heavens are

"You're getting ready to get translated or raptured. (Laughter in audience.) Me being a good Baptist I like to put my Baptist doctrine in it. But this is the kind of rapture you come back with. Every day before the throne and back with the results of it. Translated from this present darkness into His marvelous light. Get ready for the Holy Spirit to move on you like you have never seen before. And when this cocoon breaks, I think some of you are going to be the most shocked at what He has already done in your lives."

"Already you have access to heaven. You are already seated with Christ in heavenly places. Why haven't you gone there? Because you have been changing. Now the translation begins. The butterfly ascends on high and comes into the light of God. And when it is joined with Christ, it only has one purpose and that is reproduction, conception. You are getting ready to reproduce on scales you have never seen before."

MONARCH BUTTERFLY REPRODUCTION
+ From the egg to adult stage is about 4 weeks. + Adults live from 2 to 6 weeks. + Adults lay an average of about 700 eggs, one at a time. + In one month, those 700 eggs will reproduce. + This cycle continues until it is time to migrate. + Monarchs go through 4 or 5 generations per year. + Up to 1 million butterflies migrate to either California or Mexico each year.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: BIRTHED AND TRANSLATED TO THE THRONE
When I plant a promised seed in your life, it grows under My divine watch care and in perfect timing. The time for birthing is already in motion and no one tells the mother when it is time to yield her child. Rather, it is the child that releases the hormones into the blood stream saying it is time to break free from the confining place. And this is the same in ministry. My Seed within you quickens the time to go forth.

My Love, I have promised you many journeys to My throne room. And you have already been here. I have allowed you to remember snippets of those times, so that you will know that I fulfill My Word in your life. Those things that you have not remembered, do not regret. I have ordained exactly what you shall remember and exactly what you are not to resurrect into your natural mind. Your spirit man remembers everything, so do not worry about your destiny. Just submit to Me and My timing will bring all to fruition. My plan is birthing many children so that My house will be full. When My house is full, all shall come to a climax.

"This boasting is all so foolish, but let me go on. Let me tell about the visions and revelations I received from the Lord. I was caught up into the third heaven fourteen years ago. Whether my body was there or just my spirit, I don't know; only God knows. But I do know that I was caught up into paradise and heard things so astounding that they cannot be told." Butterfly Migration

Feb 19, 2004

Monarch Butterfly Migration Facts

+ Only the last generation of the summer migrates south, because the rest do not live long enough. Statistics say this is probably the largest generation, and also probably has the highest mortality rate before it reproduces the following summer.

+ They do not reproduce in the winter. This is because they migrate before they are completely matured. Even though they look just like normal adults, they are not sexually mature.

+ They begin their migration when they feel the chill in the air. This is late summer or early fall. They travel to warmer climates in order to survive the winter.

+ Up to 100 million Monarch butterflies migrate either to California or to Mexico each year.

+ Eastern populations migrate to Florida, the Texas coast, and in Mexico.

+ Monarch butterflies follow the same migration patterns every year.

+ They soar like birds upon the air currents, instead of flapping their wings. They are dependent upon the wind current going in the right direction.

+ The energy they need for the long trip comes from the milkweed they ate as caterpillars and the nectar from the flowers.

+ In their winter abode, they cluster together creating a shingle effect that protects them from the bugs and the rain. Each butterfly hangs with its wings over the butterfly beneath it, and so on - just like a roof! This gives warmth to the whole and the weight of the cluster also prevents the butterflies from being blown away. Some of these butterfly clusters are massive.

+ They winter until March, then they retreat back home again.

PARABLE OF MIGRATION
The Monarch Butterflies rise to the wind currents and soar south in order to escape the harsh and cold winter. Likewise, there are some believers whose faith will have grown to such a degree, that they will be able to rise above the circumstances of the world's dark storm. They will dwell in warmer conditions and find increasing comfort in dwelling in unity with kindred hearts who have taken the same journey.

There are quite a few entries in Annie's Visions that speak of 2 different groups of people: those that are above the storm and those that are beneath. The Lord tells her that only those who have come into their inherited possession will have the storm beneath their feet. One of the purposes of the storm is to bring all His own into their inherited possessions.

After studying her visions and praying over their interpretation for many years, I have come to believe there are at least 3 criteria for placement. The first may be the timing of when a person was naturally born and how long they have been a Christian. The second is how quickly a person submits to the Lord, laying down their rebellion and yielding themselves to the training process of death to self. Last is the appointment of their calling and placement, because in a couple of her visions the Lord tells her that those who are above the storm have the task of helping and working with those beneath the storm.

{Her books are out of print, but they are in the process of reprinting all 4 books into one larger book. We will announce when they are released. For more information about Annie, please visit our website: www.thequickenedword.com }

VISION: I saw a butterfly and it landed on the ground very gently. HEARD: In Him all things are made. Ride out the storm, you did that.

VISION: I saw a butterfly come from a long distance. It was so beautiful. Then all of a sudden I realized it was coming to me. I quickly pulled my sheets over my face thinking that I could hide. But the butterfly landed right on my face. It was very gentle.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: USE YOUR STORMS AS OPPORTUNITIES
If you learn to make use of every trial and every circumstance and embrace it ALL as allowed by Me, I AM able to bring you into your promised possession without delay. Every time you run from Me, rationalize your circumstances or refuse My voice, it delays My perfect will in your life. Dear one, I have many good gifts, promises and your inheritance waiting for you. I build line upon line in your life without skipping steps.

No one escapes the storms of life. However those who take advantage of their personal storms, believing Me through them, will rise in faith above the world's darkest storm. They will have learned that each storm brings promotion, and each storm has its reward. They learn to rest and soar on the winds of My Presence, and relax their faith as they let Me carry them to a warmer place.

Mark 4:37-41 NKJV
And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling. But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?" Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace, be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm. But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?" And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

A Siege Is Coming

Stephen Hanson

July 12, 2004

The word below was given to me starting July 6 and was finished on July 12. The Lord began speaking to me while near the area where we will be moving to. This is not the first time that some of these things have come forth concerning an invasion or war that would break out within America's borders. These are serious things to consider and I believe that we need to take them before His throne, so that we might be prepared for the days that follow. The time frame is uncertain; it is in His timing. However, it is clear that those who place their trust in Him will be found in "safe habitations." Also, after sending out the prayer request and update yesterday, my wife mentioned to me that perhaps some of these things didn't need to be said. If I've pleaded our case in the wrong way, I apologize. We all need each other, but we need to look to God's provision first.

NA 3:14 Draw water for the siege, strengthen your defenses! Work the clay, tread the mortar, repair the brickwork!

ISA 54:16 "See, it is I who created the blacksmith who fans the coals into flame and forges a weapon fit for its work. And it is I who have created the destroyer to work havoc;

"The land that you are in is a land that has been forsaken by some, but I tell you that it is received by Me. For I tell you truly, this land will be protected from the siege that comes upon the United States. The winds will blow and will bring havoc upon much of the land. Many will seek other forms of security in that day. There is no protection that will save them other than myself. Some will seek to run to other lands. Some will seek political and military strength; but I tell you, an invasion is coming. Have I not warned, and have I not mentioned these things before to you? Yet many still choose to disbelieve. "

"Shelter can be found in Me, so seek that shelter. For these things will come and who will you run to? I tell you there are many things forthcoming that many think will never come--but these things are written down in my word. With the dawn of a new year the pendulum will begin moving. America cannot withstand the onslaught from within, nor can it from the outside."

"You ask, 'Can these things be prevented?' I ask you, "Can you stop the full speed of a freight train as it moves down the tracks?" Your sin has reached its capacity. Yet many choose to ignore these things."

"The land will be scorched and it will be changed forever. Your borders have been protected in the past but a time is coming when the walls will come down. "

Find Rest In Me In The Midst Of The World Around You

Stephen Hanson

June 29, 2004 (I am leaving early tomorrow morning for NM. We are all going to check out the area where we will be living in August of this year. So, you won't hear anything from me until around July 10 when we get back. Pray for traveling mercy and that it would be a good adventure and time together. Thanks.)

MT 11:28 "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. [29] Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

MK 6:30 The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught. [31] Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest."

MT 18:2 He called a little child and had him stand among them. [3] And he said: "I tell you the truth, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. [4] Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

(All throughout my time with the Lord as this message was coming forth, I first saw a room where there were tools and various craftsmanship-like devices and pieces of carpentry. My sense was that this was a room where many of us have our various gifts and skills. God was wanting myself and others, to lay these things down, and yet I also sensed that He was in the process of refining and perfecting these gifts and skills because He is also the Great Carpenter and Creator. After this scene, as I was worshiping, the Lord brought me to a door that opened up into a beautiful vista that looked out onto a waterfall and lush trees and forest. This is the place where He wants to bring us to give us times of refreshing in Him. Then I saw a little child who was climbing the edge of a stone wall. On this wall were many things of His kingdom. There were books of different types and all kinds of beautiful things that one might find a vast library.)

"Out of my fullness, I am giving a new resting place in Me. I am giving a rest that is seeing beyond the days of tomorrow. I am giving a rest that the mind can not know, but only the spirit can understand it. Drop your weapons of warfare and lay them at my feet. Do not toil in your own strength and do not go about doing your own business. Let me handle many of the affairs that you do not understand. Lay down your skills and gifts before Me. It is time to go away to the lonely mountain and find your rest there. Leave the cares of this world behind you. Leave behind your bow and arrow and all your weaponry. Find strength along the mountain path that you take beside the mountain stream. You must not take anything with you---only yourself. Open the door to my spirit and partake of my fullness there. Breathe in the air and the smoke that is around you. Be as a little child that would explore the secret chambers of my spirit. I want all of my children to be as a little child in Me. I want them to be playful, and creative, and learning new things every day. Too many of them have become dusty and boring. These times of resting are essential. For strength is needed for the days ahead. Find rest in Me, in the midst of the world around you."

Will You Listen, And Will You Be Ready
Stephen Hanson

July 17, 2004

DA 5:27 Tekel: You have been weighed on the scales and found wanting.
JER 22:21 I warned you when you felt secure, but you said, `I will not listen!' This has been your way from your youth; you have not obeyed me.

"Tell them that time is running out. Time is running out for those who would want to come to know Me. These things are said because there are dark days ahead. The world is on the brink of new things that are coming.

The Lord showed me a scene of a Middle Eastern man who was standing on top of a high place. He had a gun and shot it into the air. Then in his hands he held a net. Below him were a group of people, seemingly of Caucasian descent. He then took the net and tossed it forward and it encircle all of these people and they were captured. Out of the midst of this scene, a long scroll came and on this scroll was written:
"A decree is ordered that America is held in the balance."

"In not a long period of time a captivity will occur. Your national security will be breached. At that time the world will be propelled into the things that written in my word. Then the prophetic time table will be laid out and will occur. I told Jeremiah of a captivity that would come and they did not listen to him. Will you listen, and will you be ready when these things happen? "

A Storm Is Coming
Stephen Hanson

Oct. 23, 2004

“A nation has invaded my land, powerful and without numbers; it has the teeth of a lion, the fangs of a lioness. Joel 1:6

“I tell you that a storm is brewing and it is not the kind of storm that one would normally see in nature. There are many forces gathering together to make a plan.”

[The Lord showed me a pair of binoculars that someone was looking out of and I knew somehow, that they were for me to look out through. After I began to look out of them, I looked out into the distance and saw a very large group coming towards me. At first I thought it was an army of some sort. However, as the group came closer to me, I saw that they were people, citizens of a country, who were fleeing from something. There were thousands and thousands of them. The road that they were on turned towards me more and I saw that they were very much in panic and fear from what they were running from.]

“The scene that you saw represents a group of people who were running from a nuclear attack—for your nation, United States will be invaded. Woe to you New York City, for you will be ones held as running from a raging storm. Woe to you Washington D.C., for your battle is also like this. Will your arsenal ward-off the enemy? Where will you run, and where will you hide from the enemy?”

“I tell you that these things are coming. Prepare your homes and prepare your hearts. But I tell you that those who seek my shelter will be safe.”

Blessed Is He Who Does Not Give Into The Beast
Stephen Hanson

Oct. 17, 2004

“There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and his image, or for anyone who receives the mark of his name.” This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God’s commandments and remain faithful to Jesus. Rev. 14: 11-12

(At the beginning of this prophetic word, I looked overhead and noticed that there were three ravens that flew overhead. Each time I noticed them, and heard the flap of their wings as they soared above me and went off into the distance beyond the school that I live nearby. I believe that each of these ravens symbolizes the forces of evil as they have begun their onslaught in the heavenly places.)

“I say that the era that many of you are living in is an era that specifies the end of all things. Look at the events that are around you, and tell Me, those of you who think otherwise. This is a time when many will look to other forms of religion. This is a time when many will fall from the faith. This is a time when it calls for deep faith and endurance. Behold…. evil encircles round about you. The forces of evil plan to unleash all of their fury. This time marks the beginning of these onslaughts. But remember that He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. You were born for such a time as this, and you will be seen through these times. These things will mark the season that you are entering into, and they will follow you the next few years. Remember that I’ve told you that that figure would arise who exalts himself. He will arise and will make himself known during the summer of 2006. The number that speaks of him also corresponds with that time frame. Remember those numbers, for they speak of June 6, 2006. But I will not leave you comfortless. Blessed is he who does not give into the beast, but follows my spirit in these days. “

A Shaking In The Heavens and In The Earth

Musa Opiyo

July 5, 2004
tblcann@aol.com
Indeed what can be shaken shall be shaken. For I am moving in this hour says the Lord to shake to the core the foundations laid by man and challenging the false doctrines that have been circulating round My church. I am moving to expose the hearts of man for they really are. I am moving to restore My Kingdom not built with human hands but by the power of My Spirit. For yea there is a rearranging and shift occurring in the heavens, as I have said before that I will not only shake the earth, but now the heavens shall rumble at the sound of My voice.

Why are you doing this, you may ask? I am moving to establish My Divine Order and authority in My church. No longer shall she be led blindly by every wind of doctrine and any spiritual fads, but she shall become a holy bride, without spot or wrinkle. I am separating the true from the false. I am filtering My House of all that defiles from all that is pure. But what I am primarily doing is removing all stumbling blocks and all hindrances from before My Bride that would stop her seeking Me with all her heart. I am restoring intimacy with the Bridegroom that the Bride has never known before. So stand back and let Me do My Work.

For those who remain in Me I shall remain in them and My Word shall remain written on their hearts. But for those who venture outside the boundaries of My will, you shall come under My severe judgment. I chasten those that I love and I love My people too much to allow them to remain as they are.

A shaking is coming. Remain on the Rock and you will not be moved.

Heb 12: 26-29 NIV
26. At that time his voice shook the earth, but now he has promised, "Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens." 27.The words "once more" indicate the removing of what can be shaken-that is, created things-so that what cannot be shaken can remain. 28. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverance and awe 29. for our God is a consuming fire

Words, Words, Words

Musa Opiyo

July 9, 2004

aguilamo@btinternet.com

I AM Alive and My Word is living, sharper than any two edged sword. My Word brings life to those who are mine and judgment to those who oppose Me. There is nothing that proceeds from My mouth that is not faithfully accomplished in due time. My due time may not be your opportune time, but I will tell you that when My Words are accomplished, it is at just the right moment every single time. My Words bring deliverance to those held captive in chains to the enemy. Just a single word and the chains fell off from My disciple Peter as he was held in the prisons of men. Just one word and Lazarus was raised from the dead. That is indeed the power that My words hold. And if you still have doubts in your hearts, My creation tells it all. Behold the mountains, the mighty rivers, the celestial bodies. Were they not a result of My spoken word?

Believe that My words are truth and that when I speak a word over you it shall come to pass. Only a matter of time and it shall be fulfilled. If I don’t do what said I would do, would that not make Me a liar? Yet I AM the Way, the Truth and the Life. In Me you have life eternal. In Me you live and move and have your being. In you I have placed the power of the creative word because you were made in My image and likeness. The ball is in your court as to the outcome of the words you speak. What shall it be, blessings or curses? Life or death?

Gal 6:7 NIV
Do not be deceived: God is not mocked. A man reaps what he sows.

Sow life and you will reap life. Sow peace and you will reap the same. Speak kindly of one another and you will expect the same back. But if your words constantly spell doubt, unbelief, anything contrary to My Word, then do not be surprised of you reap the same. I am raising up a people who are led of the Spirit to speak only what I tell them to speak.

Life and death is in the power of the tongue. Which one will you author?

A Season of Romance

Diane Schultz

April 28, 2004

dsglory@juno.com

The following is a word I believe the Lord gave me this morning for His body, His bride. I have been feeling the fire of His love literally burning inside of me for several days since and during the "In the Mantle Conference" in Melbourne, Florida.

I sense we are entering a divine season of intense intimacy with the lover of our souls. We are about to become putty in His hands. Who cannot obey and follow a lover like this? Through His intense and passionate love He is about to ruin and transform us. Get ready for the ride of your life for He is truly a dangerous lover.

"Holy fire. I am releasing holy fire that will consume everything that seeks to take My place. I am wooing and drawing My bride. I am overtaking her with holy passion, holy fire the likes of which she has not yet known. I will so captivate her with My love, My blessings, My presence that none else will even compare to My love. Like a bridegroom on his wedding night I will romance My beloved beyond her wildest expectations. She will not look away; she will have no other desire but Me. Her eyes will be fixed on Me as I entice her with my fiery passion, My touch, My words of love and romance. I will dance with her. I will romance her. I will captivate her heart and her soul until she is so in love with Me that none else will draw her eye or her heart. She will only have eyes for Me. No other lovers. No other lovers will ever compare to Me. None will love her as I do. None will bless her as I do. None will cover her as I do. None will bestow such depths of fiery passion as I will. I am My beloved's and she is mine."

As The Deer Pants

[Open the Door to Intimacy]

SANDY RHEMA
I look back to the year after I graduated from high school as the hardest year of my life. I had a very hard time adjusting to change and spent a great deal of time wrapped in miserable thoughts and emotions. That year, I also felt the plunder of my own personal compromise with giants of sin and wrestled to overcome them. It was during that time that I experienced a wonderful comfort singing Psalms to the Lord. My most favorite was singing Psalms 42. When I sang my heartache to the Lord, it blew away the torment I felt and also brought me into comforting intimacy with Him.

Ps 42:1-5 NKJV
As the deer pants for the water brooks, so pants my soul for You, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God? My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually say to me, "Where is your God?" When I remember these things, I pour out my soul within me. For I used to go with the multitude; I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept a pilgrim feast. Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him for the help of His countenance.

SANDY RHEMA
I slept poorly last night and am resting this afternoon.

NAP TIME HEARD: Daughter, I love you. I will strengthen you. My beloved.
VISION: I saw a beautiful doe sitting down in peace.
HEARD: It's you.
SONG IMPRESSION: Then I remembered the words to the song: "As the deer pants for the water, so my heart pants after You."

VISION: I saw an angel get into the back seat behind the driver's seat of our car. He was crammed into the car and way too big for it! He was long and lean, with well toned muscular legs. The car door was still open and I saw him duck back under the car roof and lean out of the car in order to give me the most beautiful smile.

HEARD: I am here to help you. Strength.

[I was so touched that the Lord understood my weariness and had sent an angel of strength to strengthen me. Just that smile alone was enough to see how much the Lord loves us. I was so encouraged. I also thought of a beautiful deer laying among the green grass in peace. In the 23rd Psalm, it says He makes me lie down in green pasture and leads me beside still waters. Many animals will not lie down if they are agitated with unrest.]

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA
EXPERIENCE: I had just finished reading some past rhema and scripture (Psalm. 42) about a deer. I closed down the computer to go to lunch. As I was driving, suddenly out of no where appeared a young buck racing along side of me on the drivers side of the road. I could have reached out and touched him. I must have been going 35 miles an hour. I could scarcely believe my eyes. I knew it was a sign to me. I slowed down and the deer still kept pace with me. When I got to the corner, it crossed in front of me and went under the underpass and up the hill.

I am so humbled by His communing with me in such an obvious way. How I love Him. It was His way of encouraging Sandy and myself in our current circumstances.

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: DEEPER YEARNINGS
My Beloved, the one who pants for Me! How I love your deep yearnings for Me. Take the effort to nurture your thought life with creativity birthed from My Spirit. Use discipline to turn from thoughts not edifying. Bring all into obedience and quiet yourself before Me.

There are seasons and times when I draw close to My people. I want to draw closer to you and will place within you My yearning to draw closer to Me. If you give heed to My gentle call, we will be given many precious bursts of life together in a new and meaningful way. I await your response, dear one.

Ps 42:1-2 NLT
As the deer pants for streams of water, so I long for you, O God. I thirst for God, the living God. When can I come and stand before him?

Pray For Those Over You
Sandy Warner

Apr 2, 2004
When you find yourself caught within the captivities of Babylon, - in your city, in your occupation, in your school, or in your government, pray for its peace and prosperity. For you too shall prosper in peace. I know the plans I have for you, and they are for your good and not your calamity, no matter where you are planted.

Jer 29:7,11,12 NLT
And work for the peace and prosperity of Babylon. Pray to the LORD for that city where you are held captive, for if Babylon has peace, so will you… For I know the plans I have for you," says the LORD. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. In those days when you pray, I will listen.

Resist Compromise

[Closing the Door to Compromise]

Last night I watched a true story movie. I was disappointed over the bit of carnality in the story (rated PG), it was not necessary. Since it was a true story I wanted to see how the ending resolved. As it turned out, it had a totally lousy ending and injustice reigned in the courtroom. When I went to sleep I had the following dream:

DREAM: I dreamed I saw a vision of an old fashioned lady with a cigarette dangling in her mouth. She was one of the occasional characters in the true story movie I saw last night. While in the dream, I was agreeing with the Lord that she had a carnal mouth in her language, but then rationalized watching the show, saying the ending was good.

[This dream was an object lesson from the Lord, because in reality it was a terrible ending of injustice reigning in the court system.]

HEARD: The end does not justify the means.

VISION: I saw a long line of people. One person started to compromise, then I saw the group of people compromising more and more and more. It started with one and then went down the line. In the vision I realized that one bad apple can ruin the whole lot.

1 Cor 5:6 AMP
Do you not know that [just] a little leaven will ferment the whole lump [of dough]?

VISION: I saw a pair of gloves and they were red. [INTERP: Red can mean several things including sacrifice, but in context to my seeing a lot of red stop signs lately, red in this vision means to STOP. Gloves in past rhema represent our destiny.]

HEARD: My point exactly. Compromise, did you miss something?

Col 3:7-8 NLT
You used to do them when your life was still part of this world. But now is the time to get rid of anger, rage, malicious behavior, slander, and dirty language.

QUICKENED MAGNETIC SIGN: Watch your step, everyone else does.

HEARD: Painful. Compromise.

HEARD: How's my luck holding out? (Then I heard the name of an elder I used to know.) Blind. Compromise in the institution.

VISION: I saw a door was swinging closed but it only closed half way.

HEARD: How fast can I go? How fast do you want? We have to allow them to make mistakes. Compromise in the fast lane.

HEARD: Compromise. To raise a familiarity of the comfort zone.

HEARD: 3 weeks late into the hard winter. That is a parable.

HEARD: Holiness is what You want from me. Take my mind and transform it. Take my will and form it to Yours. Help them overcome this. Compromise.

VISION: I saw a pastor very alarmed when he found out that the degree of the coming enduement of power - that he had been waiting for, was exclusive for holiness.

HEARD: Do not argue. A holy people. Zipporah.

Ex 4:24-26 NLT
On the journey, when Moses and his family had stopped for the night, the LORD confronted Moses and was about to kill him. But Zipporah, his wife, took a flint knife and circumcised her son. She threw the foreskin at Moses' feet and said, "What a blood-smeared bridegroom you are to me!" (When she called Moses a "blood-smeared bridegroom," she was referring to the circumcision.) After that, the LORD left him alone.

HEARD: Spirit of compromise. Before they died, they were spent. I died, I died, I died.

[INTERP: Before they finally yielded to the Lord, they spent themselves arguing and striving with Him about compromising His holy standard.]

HEARD: A built in mike. They need to hear My voice. Some powerful stuff is coming down the pike. Oh Father teach us Your way. Are you with Me?

HEARD: The unholy spirit versus the Holy Spirit.

WARFARE: I was taken up into a trance and wrestled in the sky with some kind of a powerful being between 11:11 and 11:56 PM. It attacked my back and I could not reach it. Finally I got a strong grip on it and whipped it around like a bull whip, over and over again, repeating the name of Jesus! Supernaturally I was given a very strong will and would not let it go until it yielded. I woke still fighting. I prayed that I would know its name and that I would understand what this fight was about because this was quite a fight and I did not know what I was fighting. Then I went back to sleep.

DREAM: I was dreaming that I was warring against this same spirit. I was at the microphone explaining what the war was about and I looked over in the kitchen area where I had placed some kind of an object lesson. Then a women that I knew who operated in a carnal and counterfeit spirit went to the kitchen and said, "There are no right or wrong answers." Still in the dream, I felt this was spoken under the influence of compromise, or the Ahab spirit.

HEARD: That's what this is, a tug-a-war. Close the door. Compromise.

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

[The following is an excerpt from the Word to Ponder, Before the Second Wind]

WORD TO PONDER: I PRAY FOR MY BRIDE, MY WIFE
Dear Father, I pray for My beloved. I love My bride! The battle has been long and under the strain of her load she has fallen, not knowing which way is up. Hear her cries for help and send her mercy. For I long to send her mercy, I long to bless her with My second wind of refreshing and endue her with My power.

Father, help her to choose the right path — the pathway of holiness. For only in that path can she overcome the insurmountable odds sent against her. Even now the deceiving antichrist spirit is in the world. The only way she can overcome this is to cut off its luring passions and lusts. My bride has been lured into carnal entertainment and this deceptive spirit is stealing the heart of My wife! Instead of being washed pure by the water of Your Word, she has fallen into compromise through the brainwashing of carnal filth.

Give her mercy and operate on the cataracts that blind her vision. Let her see the deception and return to Me, her Husband. Oh Father, she is so close to death! Help her to sever this, for this same spirit that is mesmerizing her to sleep and compromise is also the same spirit that can one day trod her under foot. The only way to escape that day is the pathway of holiness.

Even now We are measuring the temple that encompasses those who dwell in My most holy place; those who have separated themselves from the outer courts of the world. Even now You are offering this same grace to others, to cut off the death grip of carnality. And even now You are offering access for those to come into Your most holiest place.

"A highway shall be there, and a road, And it shall be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it, But it shall be for others. Whoever walks the road, although a fool, Shall not go astray." (Isa 35:8 NKJV)

Shore Up Your Walls
Sandy Warner

Mar 31, 2004
Precious one, My discipline in your life has taken its toll upon your faith. Now that you have chosen to totally devote to Me that part of you which was running away, I want to recover and strengthen you.

Be comforted, that by totally yielding yourself to Me, you are quite safe. Standing before you is a large shield, raised from the ground to heaven. Standing behind you is a tall warring angel to cover your backside. Directly over your head is a large canopy. This is your home, like a tent, only this booth is a rock solid fortress, and even better than that. The better part is that I have safely tucked you into this rock crevice. This is in the crevice of My arm, right next to My heart. You are safely shielded from the heat, dear one.

And now, as you have earnestly prayed to receive a promotion in your seeing gifts, I AM preparing a new pair of glasses for you. You shall see things as they really are. Rejoice for that which was lame is now put back into joint.

Heb 12:11-13 AMP
For the time being no discipline brings joy, but seems grievous and painful; but afterwards it yields a peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it [a harvest of fruit which consists in righteousness--in conformity to God's will in purpose, thought, and action, resulting in right living and right standing with God] So then, brace up and reinvigorate and set right your slackened and weakened and drooping hands and strengthen your feeble and palsied and tottering knees,

[Isa 35:3.]
And cut through and make firm and plain and smooth, straight paths for your feet [yes, make them safe and upright and happy paths that go in the right direction], so that the lame and halting [limbs] may not be put out of joint, but rather may be cured.

To Fall Or To Fly
Sandy Warner

Mar 29, 2004
Yes, the enemy seeks to bring you down, but I seek to hold you up. In the distance there is a light coming closer and closer, shining brighter and brighter. You ask Me, "Is this a falling star, or a floating one?" It’s your choice. You can keep your focus on the plan of the enemy or you can choose to believe Me. I AM the One Who keeps My stars suspended without strings. They float with feather light elegance amidst the darkened landscape. I spread them out like a canopy, set firmly in place. Will they stand? Always. They are protected and then some. You may feel suspended in mid air, with no place to plant your feet, but remember the One Who holds it all together, will also keep you afloat..

Amos 5:8-9 NLT
It is the LORD who created the stars, the Pleiades and Orion. It is he who turns darkness into morning and day into night. It is he who draws up water from the oceans and pours it down as rain on the land. The LORD is his name! With blinding speed and power he destroys the strong, crushing all their defenses.

As They Lay Sleeping

Marie-France McDowell-Smith

Aug 18, 2004
As my precious sheep lay sleeping, I am watching over them with songs of love and beauty. I, the great I AM, fill their souls and hearts and minds with Ruach, and slips of remembrance of me imprinted as they journeyed my throne room remain as they awaken each day.

Lingering is the fragrance of roses and lilies from the garden as we have walked in early morning, spoken, communed one with another.

My music continues to resonate within their spirits, the magnificent beautiful resonance that is more protection than my own begin to understand. It is a literal wall of protection as voices are lifted upon high to Me forming praise with their lips.

I see them as they continue to glide upon a sea of glass, the hearing of angels' wings round about each one. O, could you but see the activity stirring all about...angelic activity of enormous power and protection. And soon you shall!

This is the season to ask and receive...more of the elusive matters of the heart and soul than material, temporary commodities...oh, that my sons and my daughters would more so desire the eternal riches from my throne room, the matters that change their eternal character to the likeness of my Son, Yeshua ha Mashiach...I call to them, I call and ask them to come closer to my heart, listen to my whispers of love toward them.

When they begin to truly hear, they will walk closer to me in My ways and in HIS footsteps for all time. I call out in the early morning to see if any respond, if any awaken to take time with me...but most sleep carried away by the cares of this world.

I carry my own to higher levels, to the heavens above, breaking through warring angelic encounters and pollution of spirit, to places of beauty and power where nothing can touch them from other realms, protected by My Mighty Right hand, and witness the release of captives from eons of time.

Set free and arising to new life and destinies to fulfill...come forth my Armies, for the time draws close, you will sing and shout and dance as David, confusing and confounding an enemy set for slaughter. Yeshua (Jesus) HAS OVERCOME THIS WORLD; YOU TOO OVERCOME with your sacrifice of praises to My Holy Name...fall upon your faces and seek Me, truly seek me and I shall be found.

I, the great I AM have not been completely forgotten upon this earth ... sing forth, shout forth, praise My Holy Name, O precious remnant mine, all mine. Gather together and see the spectacular that I will display at the coming Feast as I have prescribed...precluding the Feast of all times. Prepare your spirits, clean and ready for the filling to overflowing as golden honey from your Glorious YHWH [God].

My warrior ones, upon your knees, upon your faces! Stand guard! You the greatest, the strongest, my warriors -- protect the lingering and the weak of the assembly, that none should be left behind....none! I conscript you to speak out My truth to those holding too closely their own philosophies, their own ideas of who they are in My end-time army and who I AM...for they have placed themselves above my people as taskmasters and not servants...I have called servants, not villains of harshness.

Some have modeled themselves after the pattern of this world, forsaking My voice and direction....SPEAK OUT MY WORD. Help them to release their fears, these high and mighty ones, allow them to crumble and weep. When they repent, I will lift them up. They will receive more of My love through you. For truly the tenderness and compassion of your YHWH is upon you My remnant, to give away to them, to cover as a blanket of love and draw in those who are most afraid. Many of these are the ones who will be most empowered in service to their King. Awaiting them is the filling of Ruach, the flow of Ruach, the freeing of Ruach upon their souls. Show them the Way, HIS NAME IS Yeshua (Jesus).

In this way, I will raise them to the positions and functions that I have destined for them. As an intricate puzzle nearly complete, all people in their places, all alliances connected, all readied for their continued service to Me. My deliverance comes...HE COMES- - My deliverance for ALL people around this earth. Those who are not only called by My name, living out My love in their lives, but those sealed with My love for the price has already been paid, HIS name is Wonderful.

I hear the crying out night and day of My servants who have come before you and servants now nearly vanquished by the constant pounding of the enemy upon their lives. Pray for one another, love one another in deed and not word alone. For if you but speak only and love not in deed, you make mockery of who I AM.

HEAR ME, MY PEOPLE, HEAR ME...Your deliverer comes, I come in terror and tenderness. My own, my prepared remnant in pockets of protection and provision. Stand ready, gathering all who are part of your circle of responsibility and love. I COME! Give My Truth away without delay! TO ALL PEOPLES give it freely and give it fresh, as quail provided each new day! Meat for My assembly in need of strength and endurance for the VICTORY March to come. Draw within yourselves My joy, your strength, My song, and let it flow over onto all in your midst!

Love, Abba

A Storm Watch

Danny Korakas

Aug 26, 2004
Yesterday, the Lord began speaking to me about "summer storms." Carole and I live in South Georgia near the coast and the weather during the hot summer months can be very unpredictable. Storms with very strong winds can seemingly and suddenly come from nowhere and unannounced. Many go to work with an umbrella regardless of the sunshine in the morning or the forecasted predictions.

"In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, IF NEED BE, you have been grieved by various trials, that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ." (1 Peter 1:6-7)

Like the storms of nature, it is natural to experience storms in our lives. As spirit-filled believers, we need to get our heads out of the sand and face the reality of storms in our lives. A warped theology has crept into the church that says we as believers need not and should not suffer storms in our lives. Well, the first thing we need to realize is that storms are not only inevitable, but they are necessary.

The ant is an insect that certainly does not boast of tremendous size. Neither does it possess great intelligence or strength compared to other species on the earth. However, the ant is WISE in that it PREPARES for the "winter time" by storing up a surplus in the summer. Their WISDOM is far beyond and out of proportion to their physical size. Just like the small ant, the wise man uses the joy and benefit of the sunny days to prepare for the cloudy or stormy days that are certain to come.

We will all suffer cloudy days in our lives. We all must deal with the loss of life and death. We all suffer various hurts and rejections along the path of life. Peter stated through the Holy Spirit that we would certainly experience "VARIOUS TRIALS." Beloved, what the Lord would have us know is that rejoicing comes through the VICTORY that He has already planned on our behalf. Every trial or situation in the life of a child of God, whatever it may be, must pass from the Son to the Father and then to us. With this being the case, EVERY situation that passes through God to us must have a very important purpose in His love for us.

You will have in a crisis whatever you bring with you when the storm hits. You will have whatever resources you have brought to the storm. Some people have prepared for difficult times and some have not. Like the ant, we can easily endure and conquer the storm by what we have gathered in the shining of the Son. The secret of abundant life and victorious living cannot be purchased. It is simply knowing the weather patterns of life and being prepared with a surplus of God's power and GRACE. It is gathering in the Word of God and His promises. It is storing up the riches of God's love and care for us in every situation and trusting Him to work everything out for our good — even the purifying of our faith.

I also realize that this will not be a popular message with some. However, it is vital as we approach the exciting and awesome days that lie ahead as we anticipate our Lord's return. We must be a people that recognize the storms and winds of life and embrace them with great GRACE. This IS our witness to the world. It's easy to be loving when everything is lovely. It's easy to be patient when everything is going your way. But the REAL YOU comes out and surfaces under fire and pressure. It is the storms in life that reveal to us who we truly are and why they might be necessary in our lives.

Trees that are constantly watered and fed on a well manicured lawn do not have to work their roots down deeply for water and nutrients. You will notice that when the storms come, it is these tree that are uprooted and toppled. However, trees that have endured stormy seasons and winds of change have dug their roots down deeply and are firmly anchored. Actually, without resistant winds, a plant never grows to its potential strength. Even what may seem to be dry times can have great benefit in that it causes the tree to dig deep and search for water.

The Redwood trees in California have some remarkable qualities in that besides being the tallest and greatest of all trees, they are likewise the oldest. For hundreds of years they have weathered storms, earthquakes, drought and wildfires. What is fascinating about the giant redwood tree is that its roots only go down an average of 4 feet. It doesn't take long to ponder how a tree of such height could withstand the wind and storms of life under such weight. Their secret of success and longevity of life is that their roots all hold and interconnect with one another! They essentially hold each other's hand in case one might fall through adversity.

What a lesson we can learn from the redwoods. I believe we are allowed to encounter much in life because we fail to hold each other hands in our SELF-consumed society. It is the storms of life that drive us into the arms of one another. The Psalmist continually cried out to God as his refuge and strength in His times of trial and affliction. The Psalmist recognized that the storms in his life drove him into the shelter and arms of a loving Father. To embrace rather than resist the storms of life brings understanding that our roots and relationships are made stronger. I believe that the "root" of everything within the kingdom of God hinges upon RELATIONSHIPS.

The importance of this message rests in the understanding of WHERE we seek our shelter in the storm. How many storms will we have to endure before we realize that the only reason it was allowed to exist was to move you into the arms of God? What will it take for you to reach out and hold somebody's hand? What will it take before our hearts are truly broken for the needy sitting right next to us in church? Or, do we even know? The mighty redwoods do. Are their relationships DEEPER than ours at only 4 feet?

I have never before sensed such a greater anointing for weeping and broken hearts. The supernatural ability to sense the needs of others is going to increase exponentially. This will be one of the greatest TESTS that the church must pass if we are to move to the next level of evangelism — the genuine caring for one another. This IS our witness to the world.

And the Lord restored Job's losses when he prayed for his friends. Indeed the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then all his brothers, all his sisters, and all those who had been his acquaintances before, came to him and ate food with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him for all the adversity that the Lord had brought upon him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and each a ring of gold. Now the Lord blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning." (Job 42:10-12)

Job would look back upon his life and realize that God's hand and heart was upon him through the greatest of life's difficulties. Likewise, Peter could say with a clear conscious that we can rejoice through the difficulties we experience as well. Even as Peter would backslide in his commitment to the Lord by denying Him; Jesus spoke to him beforehand saying, "Simon, Simon! Indeed, Satan has asked for you, that he may sift you as wheat. But I have PRAYED for you, that your FAITH should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, STRENGTHEN YOUR BRETHREN." (Luke 22:31-32)

What ever situations or storms we may encounter in life, we can be sure and have faith that Jesus is praying and interceding for us and that He loves us with an everlasting love. I believe that the Lord is sharing with us to do the same concerning one another.

A Time To Prepare For The Future
Stephen Hanson

MT 24:4 Jesus answered: "Watch out that no one deceives you. [5] For many will come in my name, claiming, `I am the Christ, ' and will deceive many. [6] You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. [7] Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. [8] All these are the beginning of birth pains.
MT 24:9 "Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me. [10] At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, [11] and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. [12] Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, [13] but he who stands firm to the end will be saved. [14] And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

NU 35:9 Then the LORD said to Moses: [10] "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: `When you cross the Jordan into Canaan, [11] select some towns to be your cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone accidentally may flee. [12] They will be places of refuge from the avenger, so that a person accused of murder may not die before he stands trial before the assembly. [13] These six towns you give will be your cities of refuge. [14] Give three on this side of the Jordan and three in Canaan as cities of refuge. [15] These six towns will be a place of refuge for Israelites, aliens and any other people living among them, so that anyone who has killed another accidentally can flee there.

"I tell you that the winds are blowing in a new timeframe for the body of Christ. No longer will you wonder and wait for those times that are leading up to my soon return.

For surely, you are living within that last generation. You will see that the birth pangs will come to a climax. The birth pangs will intensify and bring forth many things. It will be a time when many will run to and fro looking for answers. I tell you that even the elect will be deceived. You have seen droughts in the Midwest and the western United States. You have seen flooding in many of your rivers. You have seen fires burn up many sections of the land. You have heard of the war in Iraq and have seen the death toll. But I tell you that this is but the tip of the iceberg. For now, many false leaders and spiritual guides will come upon the scene. For the deceiver has a plan to mislead many. I have told you that a new era is coming to the White House. I tell you that policies will change. I tell you that you will have a brief period of success and hope; but then your land will be taken by storm. You will be seen as a land that once held the promise but has fallen. What can be done about these things that are impending? I say, to fortify yourselves and get your own houses in order.

Remember that I will not leave my own people. I care for the fatherless and those who have been forsaken. A time will come when you will have cities of refuge for them. A time will come when you will have places of safety to build. Remember that I instructed Noah to build an ark. Some of you likewise, will be instructed to build these places of refuge. Do not let others caution you against this. I am your instructor and I will guide you. Consider the ant, oh sluggard, and how he builds. A wise son plans for the future. I would not have you to fear but to plan ahead. Then when the devastation comes you will be on "safe ground." Be wise and plan ahead. In its time and in its way, it will be instructed and known. These are the days that many will have looked into. These will be the days that many have pondered over. I will not leave my body fatherless or without hope. "

EZE 33:1 The word of the LORD came to me: [2] "Son of man, speak to your countrymen and say to them: `When I bring the sword against a land, and the people of the land choose one of their men and make him their watchman, [3] and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people, [4] then if anyone hears the trumpet but does not take warning and the sword comes and takes his life, his blood will be on his own head. [5] Since he heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning, his blood will be on his own head. If he had taken warning, he would have saved himself. [6] But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes the life of one of them, that man will be taken away because of his sin, but I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood.

HEB 11:1 Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. [2] This is what the ancients were commended for.

"I tell you that a great awakening is coming to those who hear my word. To those who would hear it and embrace it, I would say to prepare yourselves for the days that lie ahead. The days will be filled with the promises of hope. I say that hope will never disappoint you. You will find disappointments in this life, but I have told you to look beyond this life."

"I have told you of the impending storm that is coming. I tell you that it is a storm, and you would be wise to heed the warnings that I have given. For surely, the darkness will fall upon this land. But I tell you, just as a storm cloud has a silver lining, so in the midst of the storm that is coming, there is the silver lining of strength and endurance. For truly, to those who would heed the warnings, a supernatural strength will be imparted. For as the ocean waves lap against the coastlines of your land and the land is taken by siege, so will the ocean waves of my spirit lap against your heart and give you the full attributes of my arsenal against these days. For truly, in the natural, ocean waves will rise against your coastlines. But these tidal waves will not be as a result of natural phenonomen, but they will rise because of an attack----and you America will fall to your knees. And when these things come, you will know that I warned you beforehand. Then in the midst of this turmoil, a leader will stand up. He will promise world peace. He will claim and promise many things, but do not believe him. His fate is sealed. Behold....I come quickly. Who would heed the warning, and yet have hope?"

America The Ambivalent

Nigel Cameron

April 2, 2004

Dear Concerned Citizen
I've just come from the White House, where I was privileged to watch the President sign into law the Unborn Victims of Violence Act.
This is known to many as "Conner's law" in recognition of the ghastly homicide of Laci Petersen and her unborn son. That dreadful crime put wind in the sails of this legislation, which brings federal law into line with that of many states. The Unborn Victims of Violence act treats those who are murdered in the womb in the course of the commission of a crime against their mothers as victims too.

The issue here is not, of course, abortion, and there were "pro-choice" as well as "pro-life" members of Congress voting it through. Abortion is not in general a crime, so the Unborn Victims Act offers no protection against it. But by drawing attention to the significance of crimes committed against the unborn it underlines the deep ambivalence of Americans on this most divisive of questions. For while their mothers carry them in the womb, unborn babies are distinct individuals. Of course, we know this in experience. The "pro-choice" mother who conceives a child she plans to carry to term speaks about "my baby" as much as the pro-lifer.

More than thirty years after Roe v. Wade the question of abortion is unresolved in American life. From one point of view, the Court took the matter out of the hands of legislators, and therefore the people who elect them. Yet it has not proved to be quite so simple.

Look at the furor over "partial-birth" abortion, a gruesome late-term procedure that has now been prohibited in federal law. Plenty of people who are generally "pro-choice" support the Partial Birth Abortion Ban, including politicians who generally vote down "pro-life" legislation. Why is that? Because, plainly, the closer the baby gets to birth, the harder it is for anyone to overcome the intuitive acknowledgement that it really is a baby. And the harder it gets for them to stomach the grisly killing techniques involved.

Yet courts in three states have blocked enforcement of the law, while they hear challenges to its constitutionality. Earlier state laws have been struck down as unconstitutional, and while those who drafted the ban on partial-birth abortion sought to make it challenge-proof it is inevitable that these federal cases will end up in the Supreme Court. We should follow their progress, in Nebraska, New York City, and San Francisco, follow the arguments, see who gives evidence – as the drama of ambivalence is played out for all to see.

The point is this: as a society we are thoroughly ambivalent about the unborn.

Side by side with this ambivalence we find a wide range of opinions that do not always reflect the “pro-life” v. “pro-choice” alternatives we find in the media. Plenty of Christians check the “pro-life” box when they are asked, but when push comes to shove and they face problem pregnancies they resort to abortion. Plenty more, including large numbers of priests and pastors, do little or nothing about the issue, even though they toe the line and say they are against it. By the same token, there are “pro-choice” women who would never have an abortion, but who defend the principle. And there are others who are deeply happy with abortions done in response to fetal handicap and inherited disease – the kind of eugenic abortion that not so many years ago some evangelicals supported.

Some people, though, are not ambivalent at all. A few weeks ago I was debating Peter Singer, Princeton bioethics professor who has been called “the world’s most influential living philosopher.” Singer candidly believes that handicapped babies should be killed if their parents wish. He has no illusions about abortion, so he is happy to call the embryo and fetus a human being, and to argue that since as a society we kill them before birth, why should it trouble us to kill some of them after they are born?

Ironically, when he opens his mouth and comes out with the logic of what someone has called his “robotic utilitarianism,” people listen. But he is so candid that they draw back. Even “pro-choice” listeners have been made to think again, since when Singer says that there really is no difference between taking the baby’s life before and after birth, they are more liable to believe him than us. Of course, he’s right, as we have been saying all along. Let us continue to work for the day when logic will prevail and the unborn be fully welcomed into the human community.

When I get home what I’m most looking forward to is holding Tessa, our latest grandchild, four weeks old and still as little as many an unborn baby. That’s when I find our ambivalence hardest to understand.

After The Apprentice

Judy Curmi

12-9-2004

I was watching portions of an episode of the reality TV show "The Apprentice" starring Donald Trump. After the program was over I received the following message.

What I look for [in a person] is totally different than the picture the world has created of what constitutes success. Success in the world is associated with being driven. My Spirit does not drive, but leads day by day and hour by hour, down paths the world knows nothing about.

The closer you come to ME, the farther you will divorce yourself from the world and the things of man. Man's desire is to elevate himself and he frequently does this by attacking and belittling others. There will be NO attacking in my kingdom. There will be NO belittling in my kingdom. Both of these are foreign to my nature and my method of thinking.

Attacking others to raise ones own self-consequence is anathema* to me. Attack is a favorite weapon of the enemy, yet many of my children (even those who are supposed to belong to me) embrace it with great gusto.

Where is your discernment? Where is your desire to pursue the things of MY kingdom? You can not have it both ways! YOU CAN NOT ACT LIKE THE WORLD AND BELONG TO ME! You can not be in pursuit of the world and its goals and belong to me. If you wish to belong to me then you should be pursuing the things of my Spirit and of my eternal kingdom.

The world will give you brief accolades, but the attention of the world will never fill the gaping hole in your spirit that is supposed to be filled by me. Nothing else can fill that space, for I myself created it, with the Purpose in mind of having a relationship with you.

It is as simple as a flower needing water. Nothing else can fill that need. Without water the flower will wither away and perish. So it is with you. I AM the food you need. I AM the living water you need and nothing but nothing can replace my Presence and the role I wish to play in your life.

Money, honors, titles – all of these fade away before my magnificent Presence. What is true, worthy and of real value is easily seen in my Presence. The false and the useless quickly come into perspective and are seen for what they are, valueless junk that needs to be discarded or jettisoned from your life.

Don't be mesmerized or entrapped by the world. Don't be seduced into giving up your soul for a brief fling with what is valueless. Only that which is of true value will remain forever!

Many individuals who are considered "valueless" or of little consequence will surprise you, for they have stocked up treasure of great consequence in heaven. This is the treasure which has true value and will last forever. This is the kind of treasure that those on earth who think they are rich now would gnash their teeth to get their hands on. My treasure (true and lasting treasure) has never come from consorting with the world, but by recognizing my voice and following after me and the things of my Spirit.

This is NOT something that can be achieved intellectually or by using one's thought processes, reasoning or natural mind, for the things of the flesh are flesh, and the things of the Spirit are Spirit. One road leads to death and one road leads to Life.

One path opens the door to the treasures of eternity. The other opens into a dark and empty room that is totally devoid of any life or joy. The treasures of this world will turn to cobwebs. No one wants cobwebs and no one has any use for them! So it will be with everything you have done to satisfy your flesh and bring glory to yourself.

The humble will be the ones with authority in MY kingdom. This is just the reverse of how the world thinks and operates. That is why the earth must and will be cleansed. I will have a beautiful house. I will have a beautiful bride.

I AM going to win this battle, no matter how man strives against me. Man's striving and rebellion are as nothing to me. They are not too hard for me to deal with! Nor will I sit back forever and allow the unregenerate and degenerate man or woman to do just as they please.

Enough is enough. I have called, warned, begged and pleaded. Most individuals paid me no heed at all. So be it. I now begin to display each man's fruit for all the world to see. Some of it will be very unpalatable indeed.

This can only change when people are willing to let me set their worlds right side up and give the control of their lives to me. Your life must be in MY hands or I can not be your shepherd. If you have not chosen me, then you have certainly chosen someone else!

Your treasure is where your heart is. So, where is it? Which door have you chosen? Which treasure have you chosen, the one you can see [now] or the one you can't see? How unwisely some choose! Do not let yourself be pulled into the trap, lest you stand before me naked with nothing to show for your life but cobwebs and ashes and no excuse of merit or value.

Your Jesus

Anathema: 1. A formal ecclesiastical ban, curse, or excommunication 2. A vehement denunciation; imprecation; curse 3. Someone or something cursed, reviled or shunned*

PART II

12-10-2004

I have just said, "Attacking others to raise one's own self-consequence is anathema to me. Attack is a favorite weapon of the enemy, yet many of my children (even those who are supposed to belong to me) embrace it with great gusto."

You show your opposition to me by denouncing or expunging* the character of others and trivializing their accomplishments.

All of my children are valuable to me and I do not rate one more highly than another. I do not make an A team, B team, C team, D and F teams. My perception is very different than yours, but who has been personally querying of ME to find out what MY opinion is? NO, your minds are already made up. Your heels are dug in and you are positive that you are right!

Such attitudes are not a part of my eternal kingdom, for the person who is filled with my Spirit is humble and malleable to my will. – All I have to do is whistle, and they turn their head to listen to me.

Sorrowful times are upon you and mankind is not prepared. He is either busy trying to build his own kingdom, or he is conniving with others, trying to bring someone else's kingdom down!

Such are the useless follies of men and the barrenness of their thinking. No fruit is produced except for stinky, unpalatable, inedible fruit. The few good fruit trees I myself have hidden away for this final hour.

The final hour is almost upon you. It is nigh – at the door – and the doorbell is being rung right now. The wise man would lock his door and put on the dead bolt, but by not being wise children, you will fling this door wide open for the hoards of hell to rush in. [Rev. 9:1-12]

You wanted this because you did not want ME in any way, shape or form. So I am giving you what you desired and I will allow the process to run its full course. The holy and profane will be separated; the good and the evil; that which is full my life and that which is lifeless.

You have dug your pit. You have chosen what you desired. To you it will be a bed of suffering, for evil fruit can never bring forth good results.

Expunge: 1. To omit, erase, strike out, obliterate 2. To eliminate physically; annihilate*

Rev. 2:18-23 And to the angel (messenger) of the assembly (church) in Thyatira write: These are the words of the Son of God, Who has eyes that flash like a flame of fire, and Whose feet glow like bright and burnished and white-hot bronze.*

I know your record and what you are doing, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your recent works are more numerous and greater than your first ones.

But I have this against you: that you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess [claiming to be inspired], and who is teaching and leading astray my servants and beguiling them into practicing sexual vice and eating food sacrificed to idols.

I gave her time to repent, but she has no desire to repent of her immorality [symbolic of idolatry] and refuses to do so.

Take note: I will throw her on a bed [of anguish], and those who commit adultery with her [her paramours] I will bring down to pressing distress and severe affliction, unless they turn away their minds from conduct [such as] hers and repent of their doings.

And I will strike her children (her proper followers) dead [thoroughly exterminate them]. And all the assemblies (churches) shall recognize and understand that I am He Who searches minds, (the thoughts, feelings and purposes) and the [inmost] hearts, and I will give to each of you [the reward for what you have done] as your work deserves. A Total Heart Cleansing

(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)

Come before Me, My children, with fasting and with prayer for I am your God, and I desire you to walk in true humility and repentance.

For this is the time and the hour where I will pour out My power upon you, but you must be ready.

You must be a pure vessel to carry My glory and My power.

Too many in this hour have become deceived in thinking that what they are doing is purely of Me and it is not.

Too many have taken my Words in vain and twisted them to their own justification of what they are doing.

Come before Me with an open and teachable heart, and I will show you the error of your ways in justifying your own works.

I am calling you to true humility, My people. I am calling you to true repentance.

If you are willing, I will pour out upon you my gifts that will enable you to walk in My perfect will.

I will enable you to stand up bold.

You do not need to fear man or any other created thing because I gave you authority over all the power of the enemy.

You do not need to hide your convictions any longer. If I am for you, who can be against you.

You do not need to compromise your faith. Walk with Me uprightly not hiding your light in any area but just shine My love and grace upon others.

Do not hold back in any area that I am calling you to walk in. Just step out boldly in faith and I will meet your every need. Be My people and I will be your God.

What is the true motivation of your walk with Me?

Are the things you are doing from a pure heart of adoration of Me or are they from a heart of competing with one another out of jealousy.

This is a time to truly examine your heart.

Are you making a name and a fame for yourself or are you lifting up My name?

You need to truly examine your heart and be honest even with yourself. What is motivating most of your actions in ministry.

Is it love or pride? What is keeping you from receiving all that I have for you?

For My hands are tied when there is willful sin present in your life.

Do not suppress that which isn't of Me any longer.

Let the truth of your actions rise to the surface so that I can skim it off that you may be clean through and through.

You are My people and I understand what you are going through.

I have been tempted to sin in every area but I had victory over it all that I may come through victorious for you that you may overcome.

Pridefulness and deception comes in many different forms for the enemy is so subtle trying to trip you up in it.

There may be deceitfulness in your own heart and not even know it.

Who knows the heart of man, unless I reveal it to you?

That is why I say be open and teachable and I will show you the error of your ways that you may be humble and broken before Me.

Like the alabaster box, unless it is broken open, the fragrance of the perfume cannot come forth.

So I encourage you, My children, if you want to be used in a great way in My end time army, humble yourself before Me that I may clean your heart.

Cry out for the baptism of brokenness that I may freely flow through you.

This is the time and the hour that I will pour out My power.

But only on those who are ready.

Open up that I may show you the error of your ways and show you that of your heart that isn't of Me for I am ready to do a total heart cleansing of those you are willing.

Dying brings forth life. Brokenness brings forth freedom in Me.

Beside Still Waters
Yolanda Ballard

(LionOfJudah1920@wmconnect.com)

(An Encouragement for Close Fellowship)

Beside still waters I will lead you. I will supply all your needs if you will look to Me and Me alone. Have I ever left you where you had to beg for bread if you put Me first in your life? Then why do you fret now when your faith is tested so severely? When you are tested in this fashion, you are experiencing the fire of My love that has come to purge the dross that is deep in your heart. When you have trouble trusting Me, it is because you have put other things in your life before Me. For I have promised you that if you put Me first and My righteousness, I will surely supply all your needs, and you will not lack any good thing.

This is the day of the latter rain outpour of My Spirit, and I have come to pour out both fire and rain. I have come to purge you and to make you pure in heart. How many struggle with attitudes against your brother? How many struggle with giving Me the first fruits of your day for I delight to be with you where you will both bask in My presence and at the same time serve Me in the intercessions of My heart. For yes, I have come to share with you the burdens of My own heart if you will get before Me and be still and listen closely. For I have not called you to carry the burdens that you have chose to bear but My own.

Listen closely to My own heart cry for I long to travail through you to change the tide for many are in great loss and spiritual upheaval of their soul and need their lives turned around, and I need you to cry out for them. These situations you are not aware of, because these people have hidden this situation well, because they have chose to look to Me alone. For they are a rare breed, and I AM most pleased with them, but at the same time the enemy has come on strong like with Job to sift them like wheat. For I have My hand upon them and will only allow the enemy to go so far, but I need My midwives to step in and to press in for their breakthrough.

Now is the day for salvation and for the latter rain outpour of My Spirit, but you must be ready and willing to be used in a mighty way. Do not put your own comforts first. Seek My face and put My will before your own, and I will bless you in ways that you have never imagined could happen in your lifetime. For I will raise you up as spiritual kings and priests of war. Yes, I will strengthen you with My armor. I will teach you how you should wear it, and I will teach you how to use it. I will undo the lies of the evil one about spiritual warfare. I will pour out fresh truth and manna upon you and set you free that you may run even towards the enemy with courage in your heart. I promised that your enemy would be scattered even into seven directions. You are not to retreat but to stand bold with head set like flint against the evil one. Don't back down on My promises, pursue your inheritance for I have given you the land and even the nations as your inheritance.

Yes, this is the day of the latter rain outpouring of My Spirit, and it all begins with you. Are you ready to be used mightily? Are you ready to forsake all for My power and might to flow through you? Why do you allow the enemy to distract you? Why are you satisfied with less than the best for I have called you not only to serve Me but to be My most intimate friends. I love you and I call you to My side to lead you by quiet streams to bless you with My presence that you have never experienced before in this measure. Yes, I AM ready to pour out My Spirit out upon you in full measure, but you will never be able to hold it or even contain it unless you have first been in My presence where I can stretch you and even measure all your heart can contain.

If you fall upon Me, I will break you like the alabaster box and pour out through you My fresh and sweet fragrance. But if I fall upon you because of your rebellion to My will, you will surely turn to dust, for I cannot allow My people to continue to go their own way and say that they know My name. These are the end times, and you must prepare before Me. The enemy has come to sift you, and I have come to turn up the flames for I must have a pure in heart people. Draw close to Me and continue in close fellowship, and only then will you have My peace and My joy flow as one through you. And only then will you know My love through the storms. And only then will I be able to lead you by still waters and refresh you and restore you. Yes, draw close while you have the time.

A Thrusting
Bill Yount

There will be a 'Thrusting' for those who have been 'Trusting' Me for their Entire Households!"

In the Spirit, I saw Heaven full of harvest sickles that were destined to be used by the angels, to be thrust into the earth for a sudden reaping of final harvest. What appeared to be the largest harvest sickle in heaven captivated the angels' attention as the Father decreed:
"With one thrust of this sickle whole households will be brought into My Kingdom! Pick it up! There will be a 'thrusting' for those who have been 'trusting' Me for their entire households!"

Right before the order to thrust this sickle into households, it appeared that all hell was coming against these families upon the earth - sickness, bondage and relationships that seemed impossible to ever be reconciled.

But these were the families heaven was about to break loose upon! If all hell is coming against your household, you are right on schedule. Keep trusting for the thrusting!

I sensed the Father saying, "Before I return to the earth, you will literally see whole household salvation taking place. Mega churches have not been built large enough just for the household harvest that's about to come in! Have you noticed how many cities are building bigger stadiums this hour? Do you know why? It's not for sports. I started with Promise Keepers drawing men into stadiums to awaken them to their wives. But now I am going to awaken whole families that will need larger facilities to worship Me in."

Families Are Coming Home

Recently I was traveling with a prayer partner as we were driving past a housing development. I said to him, "Why are so many people building huge houses these days when only the husband and wife are living there? It doesn't make sense."
But I just heard the Father say, "Bill, their families are coming home! Their children whom they haven't heard from or seen in years are about to come up the driveway. These houses were built for these last day family get-togethers who will experience church right in their homes! They will need a big house for some big parties - just for the prodigals that are on their way home!"

I saw angels descending with yellow gold ribbons, decorating the trees in the front yards of houses. Angels who throw parties when the lost get saved where descending upon rooftops declaring, "It's party time! - Thrust ye in the sickle!"

I Will Bring In The Harvest
Bill Yount

With Three Nails And Two Pieces Of Wood - I Will Bring In The Harvest!"
by Bill Yount (blowtheshofar@juno.com)

In Italy (where The Passion of The Christ was filmed) expert harvesters have discovered that grape vines produce more fruit when grown on cross like poles... they get more sunshine and fresh air.

I saw the Body of Christ plowing with great difficulty in the field of labor. Finally our plow seemed to hit a stump in the field and we couldn't go any further. With all our efforts and praying this stump remained unmovable and steadfast. Our hearts were broken for we knew God had placed us here to plow in this great field of Harvest.

But this "stump" in the field was stopping us.

I then heard the Lord say, "You have hit treasure! This is no ordinary stump of an ordinary tree. You have just hit the base of the tree of Calvary. It's the cross growing in your field! You must not, I repeat, you must not remove it. It is growing in your field to remove you out of the way from hindering My Harvest. You will have to embrace this cross and die before I can release resurrection power into your field of labor."

As we beheld the cross growing in our field, we began to experience a "severe pruning" in our spiritual gifts, especially in the area of the prophetic. He was cutting and pruning us back to bring forth a more sure word. He was adjusting our gifts, callings, and ministries to bring forth the fruit of "Servanthood" in our lives. I felt the Lord say, "Your gifts are showing more than your fruit. You are embarrassing Me!"

I then remembered right before the cross - they beat on Jesus and cried out to Him -Prophesy to us! But He didn't... there are times you don't prophesy - you just show others how to die - to self, gifts and plans.

As we embrace the cross, death and surrender will bring forth fruit that will remain to bring in the Harvest. In fact fruit is the Harvest - it will bring it in.

Many are spiritually "stumped" in their lives, families and ministries this hour. They feel they are at a cross-roads and are looking for a fresh word from heaven to tell them what to do. Many are asking, "Lord, should I go this way or that way?" But I sense the Lord saying, "Go this way =|= spread out your arms. You are not at a cross-roads, you are at the Cross!"

Have you been betrayed? You are nearing your cross. Have you been rejected? You are getting closer.

Don't run now. If you miss your crucifixion - you will miss your resurrection!

Ascending The Mountain Of Vision

Wade Taylor

A mountain tree if it would see
The far horizons and the stars,
May never know a sheltered place
Nor grow symmetrical in grace.
Such trees must battle doggedly the blasts, and bear the scars.
-Loyal Marion Thompson

The Lord is seeking those who are willing “to come apart” and "ascend” the mountain of vision to be there alone, with Him.

“But know that the Lord has set apart him that is godly for Himself.”
Psalm 4:3.

There is much that yet remains hidden, which the Lord desires to reveal to those who intimately desire Him, and are willing to come apart to spend quality time with Him, alone.

To these “set apart” ones, He is saying,

“Come up here, and I will show you things which must be hereafter.”
Revelation 4:1b.

“The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, and what is the riches of the glory of
His inheritance in the saints.” Ephesians 1:18.

It is His desire that we become one of these, to whom “the mysteries of the Kingdom” will be revealed.

“It is given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.” Matthew 13:11b.

Our coming into this realm of “spiritual vision” requires our being “separated” from all that is seemingly good, in order to be brought to the best. Therefore, many weights (acceptable things not born of the spirit) must be laid aside, that we might climb unhindered into this “set apart place” of union with Him, in the outworking of His end-time purposes (the mysteries of the kingdom).

“Rise up, My love, My fair one, and come away...look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon.”

Song of Solomon.2:10b, 4:8b.

For those responding to this call into the higher realm of spiritual vision and insight, there is a priceless reward.

“I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”
Philippians 3:14.

This poem by Loyal Thompson, expresses in the imagery of a mountain tree, the price and the reward for our persevering in the ascent up into the realm of Kingdom identification with our Lord.

“A mountain tree if it would see.”

A mountain tree speaks of elevation. It is a lone tree, jutting out from the crest of a very rugged, wind swept mountain, far above the peaceful forest beneath. There is a reward for its singular loneliness, and its struggle to survive – It can see

“The far horizons and the stars.”

Here, this lonely battered tree can view the distant skyline, or look up into the expanse of the Heavenlies in all their glory; for this mountain tree abides in a pure clear atmosphere.

But, there is a price; it has been set apart from all others. As a result, it

“May never know a sheltered place
nor grow symmetrical in grace.”

In the forest beneath, each tree is sheltered and protected by those that surround it. Because of this protection, these trees are symmetrical, fully formed and beautiful in appearance. However, they cannot see “the far horizons and the stars,” as their vision is very limited.

Because of its exposure, high on the mountain, this mountain tree is both scarred and gnarled by the storms it faces. It must continually withstand its contrary environment - all the opposing buffeting forces, as it struggles to maintain its place of vision.

“Such trees must battle doggedly the blasts, and bear the scars.”

The determination, obedience, and faithfulness, in abiding in this place of pure atmosphere and vision is rewarded; for this “tree” (us) sees with clarity, not only those things close at hand, but also the “far horizons and the stars” in a perspective of which others merely dream.

Although Jesus had twelve disciples, only three, Peter, James, and John, were taken by Him into a high mountain apart, where He was transfigured before them (Matthew 17:1-2). These saw His visible Glory while Moses and Elijah talked with Him. They received an understanding which could never have been imparted to them in any other way.

So also in our day, those called up into the “mount” are able to view the stirrings, movings, and interventions of God, pertaining to the world and to His Body, with a clarity and perspective that is not available to those who rest below, in safety and comfort.

Few are willing to ascend the mountain with Him and then abide there, for “vision always has a price.” John the Baptist said, “He must increase, but I must decrease” (John 3:30). In other words, “The way up is down.” This paradox applies to those who would come up into the mountain top.

Abraham was called alone, out from his kindred and country, into a land he knew not. There, he became the friend of God and the progenitor of a set-apart nation.

Joseph was sold alone, into a strange country where he suffered alone, in a dark prison. There, in a time of dire need, he became the head of a nation, and saved his people.

Moses fled into the wilderness alone, where he met the Lord at a burning bush. From there, he led Israel from bondage, into their own land.

Jesus went up into a mountain alone, to pray, and to call unto Him whom He would.

“And they came to Him. And He ordained twelve, that they should be with Him, and that He might send them forth to preach, and to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils.” Mark 3:13b-15.

These became the foundation upon which the Body of Christ is built.

Today, many are resting in the safety of the sheltered place, satisfied with the surrounding protection it provides. These appear as being beautiful to the eye and “symmetrical in grace.” But something is missing; they are not in “the mount of vision.”

There are those who cannot remain satisfied in the place of sheltered comfort, and passive acceptability. These who are “intensely hungry for more” are responding to His call to “rise up and come away.”

Never again will they be able to rest in the safety and security of past experiences or visitations, but they are pressing onward toward this mountain realm of “higher vision and revelation.”

Each pioneer paid a price for the vision they received. Few of them were understood or accepted in their lifetime. With the “new understanding” that “truth and vision” are always costly, may we join with these saints of old, and begin our ascent upward toward this realm of clear vision.

We have marched around the mountain long enough - let us linger no longer. One thing is certain:

He knows the way, and He desires to lead us there.

A Time Of Opening

Russ Hughes

It has been some time since I have given a word about a particular season, but during a prayer time with our worship team, I felt prompted to bring the following word.

I believe it speaks of a particular window of time starting sometime this Autumn and lasting for around 18 months. It may be localized and for our particular community, but it may also be a word for the wider community of believers around the world -- I ask you to weigh it.

A time of opening is about to start. Opening of ears to hear the Lord's voice, opening of eyes to see the Lord's face, opening of hearts to receive the Lord's words, opening of mouths to speak the Lord's blessing.
The Lord is going to open doors we thought were locked; He is going to bring release for many captives: release for those bound in long-term sickness, release for those bound by years of unforgiveness, release for those caught in habitual sin and life-destroying patterns of behavior.

He is going to open doors of opportunity. He is going to open doors of finance. He is going to open doors of favor.

DREAMS ARE ABOUT TO BECOME REALITY

The Lord wants His people to walk with Him as never before and trust Him as never before. The time of dreaming is about to become the time of reality; the time of longing is about to become the time of fulfillment. The Lord is enough, sufficient, and more than able to do these things. Walk away from the props of mere existence and walk through the open door of life.

A Time Of Rooting Up And Plucking Out

Dee Hoetmer

[South Africa]

A weeping and wailing and a gnashing of teeth will be heard in the outer court as I come in judgment to those who have refused My promptings and to heed My prophets. There have been seasons of planting but now comes a time of rooting up and plucking out of those who walk after the dictates of their own hearts. I am putting an axe to the roots of their perverse ways and I will burn as wood, hay and stubble their works that were not ordained by My spirit. I speak not to the babes for I will yet have compassion, I speak not to the wounded who seek My face for their healing, but to those who have long perverted their way before Me.

Mat 15:13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.
Amos 4:11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, AND YE WERE AS A FIREBRAND PLUCKED OUT OF THE BURNING: YET YE HAVE NOT RETURNED UNTO ME, SAITH THE LORD.
Jude 1:12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, FEEDING THEMSELVES WITHOUT FEAR: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

Those who dwell in the inner court of My presence will be covered in this time of judgment. Did I not say that I am coming to judge My house and set My house in order before bringing judgment upon the nations? Why are your faces now pale with anguish, why are you walking in confusion about the things sent to try you? These things are sent to expose your innermost parts of the heart so that it may be you will be saved in that great and dreadful day of the Lord.

It is in the fires that you are refined. It is in pestilence and tribulation that you will be purged of chaff. It is in storms and whirlwinds that I have My way. Oh that you would have heeded My commandments, then your peace would have been like a river and My anointing would drip off your head like the oil off Aaron’s beard. You would have been like a strong tree planted by the waters, with your roots deep in the river that flows from My throne, but you would not heed Me, nor the warnings of My prophets in the opportune time for refining. Now the days are short and the end approaches and I am doing a quick work in those that would hear AND OBEY.

Isa 48:18 O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

Those that have submitted to My refining fires are now a strong tree under which many will find refuge in the storms. They walk in resurrection life, in My anointing, speaking life to those who would hear, bringing healing to the wounded and setting the captives free. These are the first fruits of My remnant, My Bride. They are known by their love for Me and for one another.

Romans 6:5 FOR IF WE HAVE BEEN PLANTED TOGETHER IN THE LIKENESS OF HIS DEATH, WE SHALL BE ALSO IN THE LIKENESS OF HIS RESURRECTION

But I have many children who have remained obstinate and un-repentant. Do I not say in My Word that if a tree does give forth good fruit that it will be cut down and thrown in the fire? Examine the fruit of your life, ARE YOU BRINGING FORTH LIFE OR DEATH, DOGMA AND SELF TAUGHT KNOWLEDGE OR MY WORDS BY REVELATION OF MY SPIRIT, JUDGMENT AND DIVISION OR UNITY AND LOVE.

Jesus Took a Towel

by Bill Somers

Some time ago I heard a taped message by a well known minister with the title of: Jesus Took a Towel. The text was these verses from John 13.

> John 13:
> 1 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.
> 2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;
> 3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;
> 4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.
> 5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.
> 6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?
> 7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.
> 8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.
> 9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
> 10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.
> 11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
> 12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?
> 13 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
> 14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
> 15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
> 16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.
> 17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

There are many messages you can preach from the above verses. The importance of servant hood. The need to be cleansed by Jesus. The betrayer in the midst. The way to set an example. Etc., Etc,

What the Lord showed me was something quite different. It began when He got my attention by something very odd in the text. Look again at verse 5. "After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded."

What is so strange about this is that Jesus is wiping the men's feet on a towel that he is wearing, not one that he is carrying.

My wife will often give her dog a bath. When she does, she puts on an apron to keep herself clean and dry and she uses one or more towels to dry the animal.

But Jesus is wiping the men's feet on himself! He is getting the mud and filth off their feet and on to the towel he is wearing, onto himself. This is really strange! And it's awkward: You try doing that!

The bible is full of strange things like that. Often they are clues that there is a deeper spiritual meaning to be found in the passage.

Salvation
First of all we need to see that the washing of the feet represents our salvation.

Peter says to him "Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me." So what does this tell us? It tells us this.

Unless we are cleansed by Jesus, washed in His blood, we can not have any part with Him. That is we can't have any relationship, we can't know Him as our personal savior without the cleansing of the blood. The foot washing then is a picture of our salvation.

Next we consider the fact that Jesus is getting his towel that he is wearing all dirty, while he is washing the men's feet.

The Sin Bearer
The deeper meaning here comes from the idea that clean garments represent righteousness, and that filthy garments represent sin. We find a reference to filthy garments in Isaiah.

> But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; …. Isaiah 64:6

And clean garments are spoken of in revelation.

> … And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Revelation 7:14
> And it was given unto her that she should array herself in fine linen, bright and pure: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. Revelation 19:8

So Jesus washed the disciples feet but in the process all their dirt, which stands for sin, gets on him. What this passage is showing is that Jesus cleansed us by taking our sin upon himself.

We can see it stated in another way in Peter, who speaking of Jesus, says:.

> Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Peter 2:24

And also these passages from 2nd Corinthians and Galatians say something quite similar.

> For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2nd Corinthians 5:21

> Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Galatians 3:13

It is also found in the old testament when the ministry of the suffering servant, Messiah, is prophesied.

> He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Isaiah 53:11

What this is saying is that Jesus took our sin upon himself, or he became sin, or became a curse, for our redemption.

Here are two more verses closely related to this theme.

> For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mark 10:45

> So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. Hebrews 9:28

His normal clothes represent his Divine nature. That is what he set aside when he became a man to suffer and die for us.

The towel representing his human nature was clean, reflecting his sinless condition. But in saving us he had to take on our sin. And so the towel gets all dirty as he does this service. This is what the foot washing illustrates.

When He is finished, he sets aside the dirty towel and puts his own clothes back on. This speaks of Jesus once again taking on the Divine nature after his resurrection.

There is a veiled reference to this in the book of Zechariah, where Joshua the high priest is a type of Jesus.

> And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him
> And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?
> Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.
> And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment. Zechariah 3:1-4

This scene shows Jesus as a man coming to the judgment seat of the father, still bearing our sins. And we see the Lord, [the Father] rebuke Satan the accuser. After all Jesus was innocent! Then he gets a change of raiment, new clothes. His divine nature is restored to him before he is raised from the dead.

Another passage depicting the servant hood of Jesus, our messiah, is in Philippians.

> Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
> Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
> But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:
> And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Philippians 2:5-8

To sum up the entire scene, what Jesus has done here is to act out his entire ministry in a symbolic form.

He rose up from where he was seated represents leaving His throne in heaven
Setting aside his clothes is his incarnation. He was born naked into this world.
Taking a clean towel is the sinless human nature that he took upon himself.
Washing the men's feet is washing us with the blood.
Getting the towel dirty, is bearing our sins for us.
Putting his own clothes back on, is his resurrection in a glorified body, taking His divine nature back once again.
His sitting down again speaks of sitting on his heavenly throne once again, at the right hand of the father.

> So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? John 13:12

Lord, help us to realize and be thankful for what you have done for us sinners.

All The Power You Need

Our Children's Deliverance

www.boyson.org

"It happened that as we were going to the place of prayer, a slave-girl having a spirit of divination met us, who was bringing her master's much profit by fortune-telling. Following after Paul and us, she kept crying out, saying, 'These men are bond-servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation.' She continued doing this for many days. But Paul was greatly annoyed, and turned and said to the spirit, 'I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!' And it came out at that very moment" (Acts 16:16-18).

Did you notice that Paul did not even ask the girl's permission before he cast the demon out of her? Nor did he ask the permission of her owners. He did not ask her parents or aunts or uncles. He did not even speak with the girl, but he spoke to the demon inside of her, over which he had full authority! And it came out of her right away and she no longer had any power to tell the future (see Acts 16:19).

Paul did not spend hours counseling the girl on the dangers of divination. He didn't take any time to convince her that she could and should be delivered, he just spoke to the demon and drove it out of her in the name of Jesus Christ.

Too Caught Up
Sometimes, I think we can get too caught up in what our limitations are as followers of Christ instead of just following Christ; He took authority over demons. He didn't counsel them out, beat them out or preach them out, He simply cast them out, and then told the people to sin no more.

I believe it is a deception of the enemy to try and get our focus to be on our limitations as Christians. If he can get us caught up in questioning or doubting whether or not we have authority, he will keep us from taking authority over him. Then he will be able to continue his evil schemes in our lives and in the lives of those we love.

The message in Acts 16:16-18 is so powerful, because if we examine it we see it says that Paul's motive for delivering her was that "Paul was greatly annoyed." The demon was simply bothering him and so he cast it out of her, rendering it powerless to affect him and the girl.

He didn't know the girl. He wasn't her pastor or parent or master; he had no earthly authority over her. All he had was the authority given to him in the name of Jesus Christ. The demon that was harassing him didn't have a chance.

Many times I have been approached by other believers who came with their list of rules that I must follow in order to be success in taking authority over the enemy. By the time I am done listening to them, I am more confused than ever. I end up feeling like there is no way I could possibly measure up to all their rules and restrictions. They make me feel hopeless and powerless. But, I finally made up my mind that I'm going to continue to "walk on water" until they can prove to me that I can't.

All Paul had was annoyance and Jesus and he changed a young girl's life. The demon "power" that manifested through her was gone and she was set free.

The Children of This Age

In this day and age, with the enemy parading his power before the young people of this generation and enticing them to do evil, we need to know the authority we have in Christ.

The children of this age feel powerless and helpless to help themselves, and they are greatly influenced by the ungodly power they see in movies, books and games. But we can, like Paul, take authority over the power in them and command the demons to come out.

One day several years ago, my husband and I were led to go into a store that sold video games. We were appalled at the high level of blatant demonic activity in the games we saw. Even the covers of the games were filled with glorified demons and lust-filled pictures of scantily dressed women. We were further offended by the fact that the clientele of this store were primarily children.

It did not take us any time to decide that this store should no longer be in business! So, together we commanded it to go out of business in Jesus' name. We also commanded that every demon in every game that had been sold by that store would leave the game and not return. Within a few months it closed!

For my husband and I, our annoyance came by the blatant parading of evil before the eyes of innocent children. We became righteously annoyed! Our mother and father instincts took over and we wanted to obliterate the devil for hurting these kids.

Those children were not ours, but they were God's; He made each one of them. So, because they were His children, they became ours. We could not stand to see them tormented by demonic spirits merely because they didn't know any better.

The children didn't know the demonic power that was in those games, but we did. And the demons knew that we knew, and they became afraid, because they were exposed to people who would take authority over them and render them powerless for the sake of God's Kids.

Church, it's time we stop debating our authority and just simply take authority over the demonic realm. This generation desperately needs us. There are so many young people that have gotten entangled in darkness, and the demonic powers are tormenting them. They are depressed and suicidal; they need deliverance. Yes, they need to be told the truth about witchcraft, etc.. But, until we can get close enough to them to effectively train them, we must get rid of the tormenting spirits.

We need to show our young people where the real power lies, so they will no longer want the imitation. The real power is in Jesus Christ. He is the real super-natural power. He has conquered the evil power of our enemy and given us the authority to render them powerless (see Luke 9:1). Jesus won at Calvary, and that victory is ours today.

Do not let the enemy convince you that you are powerless. You have all the power you need, because you know the ALMIGHTY, ALL-POWERFUL GOD of the universe. And HE is ALL THE POWER YOU NEED

Access To The Throne

Victoria Boyson

How to Obtain ACCESS TO THE THRONE OF GOD"

"Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the center of the throne..." (Revelation 5:6)

John saw a Lamb! A Lamb who had been slain, yet He stood! He was dead, yet He lived! All hell came against Him, yet He stood in fearsome triumph over His enemies. Not even death could hold Him; the grave could not keep Him. The throne was His destiny, and now He stands having triumphed over His enemies and taken His rightful place on the throne of heaven!

Who is this man? Who is this Jesus? Do we yet truly know Him? We have seen Him as the Lamb who was taken to be slaughtered, who relinquished His life for our sake. But do we know Him as the fearsome Lord of all of heaven?

Yes, He was tortured and mocked! Yes, He was truly crucified! And, yes, He was buried in the tomb! But death was not for His goal; His goal was the resurrection from the grave! It was to endure everything hell could throw at Him and become the champion of heaven. He is our triumphant King!

The King of Heaven endured the cross for our sakes so that He might restore us to Himself. We were dead in our sins, but He triumphed over death to release us from its grasp. It was for our sakes He died, and it was for our sakes that He lives.

The Lamb rules, having been slain, yet now He lives!

COMPLETE RESURRECTION

Jesus endured a season of death, but He did not remain dead. Death was merely the means to give us life and life abundantly. And though we too may undergo a season of death and destruction of our flesh, that is not where we will stay...that is not God's goal for us. His ultimate goal, in allowing us to face trials, is for us to live an abundant life with Him.

Though you may suffer a little while, God will restore to you all that you have lost and more. He does not restore you halfway, but He gives you a full and complete resurrection, with not even the smell of death on you.

As we stand with Christ having endured the fire, we look on our enemies with great authority. Having endured all that hell could throw at us, we have been made fearsome before our enemies. We can stand now with the Lamb and rule with His authority, having access to the throne!

OUR PRAYERS ARE A GIFT TO HIM

"The four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints." (Revelation. 5:8)

As the elders in heaven worshiped the Lamb, they brought before Him bowls filled with our prayers. And a part of their worship was presenting our prayers to the Lamb! Beloved, your prayers are a gift to Him and bring Him great pleasure.

Can you imagine? In the midst of all the majesty and glory of heaven, in the middle of that awesome scene, Christ gives our prayers access to His throne! Our prayers play an important part of heaven's worship and honor to the Lamb...they are that important to Him.

Jesus rules now having triumphed over His enemies -- all the glory of heaven worships and adores

Him -- yet He finds joy in our prayers. And because our prayers are important to Him, they bring great joy to all of heaven.

Because our simple prayers bring Jesus joy, they are very important to all who know and love Him. Those who truly love the Lamb will want to bring to Him what He will find enjoyment in. And saints, He enjoys you!

THE BRIDE IN CHAINS

My youngest son, Cole, had a vision. He saw a woman whom the enemy had entangled in chains. She was held captive by the chains that bound her. I believe this vision was what the bride of Christ has looked like for many years, and the church is still very much entangled in the world -- enslaved by it.

We need to see our beauty and our value in Christ. As we begin to see ourselves the way He does, we will be set free to be all that God desires us to be. Furthermore, we will reign with our Beloved and rule with His authority.

You are the bride of heaven; you are what Jesus wants! Moreover, He wants you to rule and reign with Him. That is why the requests of His bride (the prayers of the saints) have access to His throne continually. He could have anything in this universe, but what He chose was you. He chose to die for you and to restore you to your place by His side, to rule and reign with Him.

Though you were deemed unlovely and rejected, though you endured torture and mistreatment, He sees you as beautiful. The rejection of others has not made you disdainful to Him. No, it has made you lovely in His sight and He wants you even more. Though you are rejected and despised, He finds you lovely...you are what He wants! You have not received the praise of men, but of heaven.

He is the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright Morning Star. He reigns in glory and yet He says to you, His bride..."Come! Whoever is thirsty, come." He says, "Whoever wants Me, come; experience all that I have for you. Experience the wonders and glories of Me."

YOU ARE NOT INSIGNIFICANT

Are you beginning to see yourself the way that He sees you? Can you see your beauty? He wants you to see yourself through His eyes, not through the eyes of rejection and pain. He wants His bride to see herself as beautiful. May you truly see yourself in Him; may you truly see your worth and value, and may you see your beauty!

You are the bride of heaven! Though He has all the splendor of heaven, it would be nothing if He couldn't have you there with Him. You are what He died to save; you are what He loves.

You are not insignificant to Jesus, but the sole purpose of His death and resurrection.

When you begin to see your beauty as His bride, you will value your prayers as much as He does. You will know that whatever you ask for in His name, according to His will, will be given to you. You will see that you truly do have access to the throne of heaven.

Dear Saints, throw off the shackles of condemnation and worship the Lamb. He loves you; dance with Him!

Autumn Trees Without Fruit

Danny Korakas

Nov 12, 2004

"These men are those who are hidden reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you without fear, caring for themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, uprooted; wild waves of the sea, casting up their own shame like foam; wandering stars, for whom the black darkness has been reserved forever." (Jude 12-13)

Last week we shared on the exposure and traits of "false teachers." I would like to discuss this week the effects and ultimate demise of false teachers. The Bible states that these teachers resemble "autumn trees without fruit."

"Now in the morning, as He returned to the city, He was hungry. And seeing a fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it but leaves, and said to it, 'Let no fruit grow on YOU ever again.' Immediately the fig tree withered away." (Matthew 21:18-19)

This has been a story that has drawn many different conclusions as to why Jesus cursed the fig tree. Even though Jesus saw the fig tree from afar, He certainly would have known that the season for ripe figs was not at hand. The key reason is in the verse that follows: "And when the disciples SAW it, they marveled, saying, 'How did the fig tree wither away so soon." (Matthew 21:20)

It was important to Jesus that the disciples clearly saw what was transpiring in His reasoning to curse the fig tree. It is just as important to see that Jesus called the fig tree "you," meaning something was deeply personal to Him concerning this fig tree. Could it be that Jesus was recollecting an event in history that forever affected His heart and was the ultimate reason He was moving toward Jerusalem to suffer the cruel fate of the cross?

The Bible says that mankind (you and I) were created by Him, through Him, and for Him. (See John 1:1-5) We must realize the depth and affection that Jesus has for us as His people created in His image. He designed us for intimate relationship along with providing us everything that we needed for an abundant life.

"The woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the EYES, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed FIG LEAVES together and made themselves coverings. (Genesis 3:6-7)

The "you" that the fig tree represented was the serpent — the master "false teacher" who deceived Adam and Eve to desire "gnosis" (The tree of the knowledge of good and evil) over the intimate relationship and provision that God had offered through Jesus Christ. (The tree of life)

As Jesus was on His way to the cross to die for the salvation of mankind, I believe that He could not help but remember the visual manifestation of man's sin — the wearing of fruitless and barren FIG LEAVES. It must have pierced Jesus' heart to see mankind, who once walked in His perfect love and image, step out from his hiding place corrupted in the covering of fig leaves. The passion, love, and humanity of Jesus could not help but curse this fruitless "autumn tree" that took Him back in time. Today, Satan still whispers through autumn trees: "Surely you will not die. For God knows in that day ... you will be like God."

This provides us a better understanding of why God did not accept the offering of Cain. Cain, as we know, was a farmer by occupation. Abel, on the other hand, was a shepherd of livestock. The Bible tells us that Cain brought an offering of the fruit of the ground and Abel brought an offering of the first-born of his flock. Both of these young men were raised in a God-centered home whose parents feared the Lord. I believe that both of these men worked hard on their offering – especially Cain who would have had to work the soil in the heat of the day. Cain's offering was born out of hard labor in soil that God had cursed. So why did God not accept Cain's offering?

First of all, Cain would have had to know that his parents covered their sin from the "fruit of the ground." God had clearly demonstrated His acceptable means of covering the nakedness of sin and what was a pleasing offering of atonement. Adam and Eve were ignorant to the sacrifice that God desired. However, Cain and Abel would have surely been taught through their parent's mistake that God required the sacrifice of an innocent animal (the shedding of blood) to cover the sin of humanity. God had a prescribed way of worship and it was not the fruit of the ground.

We have "Cain's" and "Abel's" in the church today. Likewise, our spiritual parents in the faith have taught us the acceptable offerings to the Lord. When the "Cain's" of today bring their offerings of what may seem full of tremendous labor and works, it is found unacceptable to God. Why? Because, like Cain, they are serving God in their own way, rather than serving God His way. False teachers will naturally gravitate to the cursed earth (world) for their means of direction and reason. They base decisions on carnal logic of what is right and wrong, rather than childlike faith and simple obedience to God. It should be no surprise that once Cain realized that his offering was unacceptable to God, the Bible says that "Cain was very angry and his countenance fell." This is the response of a RELIGIOUS person when confronted with TRUTH.

The false teachers of today have a lot going on in terms of activity and programs, but over the long run, they produce little to no spiritual intimacy with Christ in others. The institution of hyper-religious activity is a clear sign of a person that has not been healed of rejection and is trying to earn the following and approval of man. (This was the mentality of Cain in his jealousy toward his brother Abel.) False teachers will emerge from the body of Christ because of their need for affirmation and the praise of men. (These are the tares that dwell among the wheat.) The curse of Jesus upon this tree revealed its true nature as being "twice dead." First, there was no fruit. The ability of a teacher to reproduce Christ in others is in the seed that he sows. However, our seed is always in the fruit that we produce. And second, there was no root system that was grounded in the truth of God's Word. The hiding behind "fig leaves" will never cover the nakedness of their self-serving motives and agendas. 2005 will be a year that the Lord will bring the power of His protection to the body of Christ as He exposes many who proclaim to know Him, but don't.

"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 'Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in your name, cast out demons in your name, and done many wonders in your name?' "And then I will declare to them, I never knew you." (Matthew 7:21-23)

The effects that these "autumn trees without fruit" have had on the body of Christ is far-reaching. You can only give what you TRULY have. If a pastor or a teacher in the church does not have an intimate and on-fire relationship with Jesus Christ, what can they possibly give you of any spiritual benefit? The Pharisees could quote the first five books of the Bible by memory. They tithed to the smallest herb and fasted weekly. But Jesus said, "For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 5:20) They use activities, programs, and control to HIDE their shame of not truly knowing Christ. The effect of a true teacher will have a primary mission — to cultivate a loving, reliant, and intimate relationship with Jesus Christ.

The next metaphor that Jude uses in exposing false teachers is "wild waves of the sea, casting up their own shame like foam."

The metaphor "wild waves" is a picture of disobedience through a lack of self-control. Water is a wonderful metaphor of the Holy Spirit. Jesus would use "water" to paint a picture for the woman at the well concerning the gift and outpouring of the Holy Spirit. However, water when attached to wildness and waves paints a completely different picture of erosion and destruction.

When the prophet Samuel was sent to Saul, he warned Saul to carefully heed these instructions: "Now go and attack Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and nursing child, ox, and sheep, camel and donkey." (1 Samuel 15:3)

The Bible does not say that Saul refused to obey. He didn't change his mind about anything. There was nothing that we can SEE that was blatantly rebellious or disobedient. Saul gathered his army as the Lord spoke through the prophet and attacked Amalek. Everything on the surface looked great. What a "spiritual warrior" that Saul seemed to be for God. He attacked and killed thousands of the Amalekites with their livestock. However, we read that Saul spared Amalek. Not only that, but Saul spared the very best of the livestock and gave it to the people so they could offer a sacrifice to God. Well, to the people this must have seemed like a very spiritual thing to do by a very spiritual man. I can imagine the people saying, "what a godly king we have in his service to God and us."

But God had a completely different view of what had unfolded in this event. The Lord share with Samuel that He regretted setting Saul as king over His people! Saul had agreed to follow the instructions of the Lord, but didn't think that the "cultural trends" of keeping the enemy king as a trophy of his endeavors would make much of a difference. Saul killed thousands upon thousands and spared just ONE. We could say that Saul was 99% obedient to the call. However, we read later in this story that God called it REBELLION.

Many pastors and teacher are saying, "But look at all the good that I have done." They may say, "You're just looking at the 1% or the very small things that I have done wrong instead of all that I have done right." When Samuel caught up with Saul in 1 Samuel 15, Saul rejoices in the fact that "he carried out the Lord's instructions." I am convinced that Saul really believed that he carried out the purpose of God's instruction, but God called it rebellion. The difference between Saul's opinion and the Lord's opinion is that Saul was a "hearer of the Word and not a doer of the Word."

The 1% that Saul failed in as a leader was complete obedience to what God had called him to. Saul desired to create an image of religiosity that was valued and praised by man. The root problem in Saul was spiritual insecurity. Insecure leaders are so busy trying to equip themselves that they become negligent in equipping others. This is the calling of a true teacher.

"Wandering stars" is the last of the five metaphors that Jude uses to paint a picture of false teachers. Up to the advent of the sextant, mariners and travelers used the stars for reference points and guidance. This reliable guidance was made possible by the fixed position of certain stars, such as the North Star. These fixed stars are very few, as most "stars" shift or move across the sky as the earth moves in its yearly cycle around the sun. Can you see the picture that Jude is painting for us to see?

Many so-called leaders in the church are posing as "guiding lights" for the people of God, only to lead them astray from the truth of God's uncompromising Word. New Age doctrines with emphasis on yoga and eastern forms of "self-enlightened" meditation have crept into the more modern and health-conscience church. "Prophets" will sell you a word and teach you how to prophesy for a bargain

$50.00 conference fee. Since when do we read in the Bible of prophets selling anything that belongs to God? I am all for charging money to cover the expenses for conferences and events. However, those called to prophetic ministry must be very careful what they are charging for. Jesus paid the ultimate price for all of us to receive God's best. We didn't pay a dime. Is this our model?

"Prosperity teachers" promise material wealth and financial freedom if you give your money to them. They call it giving to God. Really? It seems to me that they are preaching a message that they are not willing to believe themselves. If God will supernaturally take care of all your needs by sowing into a ministry, then why do THEY have to keep coming back to you year after year for more money to cover their financial issues? These are wandering "stars" that lead many people into disillusionment and even greater poverty by their false teachings. Sowing and giving IS a Biblical principle. However, these false teachers do not want to tell people the entire truth. The Bible says that if we are lazy (both naturally and spiritually), we will suffer poverty. You can sow till the cows come home and make others wealthy, but if you are naturally and spiritually lazy, you will indeed suffer loss and never improve your financial standing.

I sensed a need to write this article as we move into 2005. "5" is the number of GRACE. Great grace will come to the body of Christ as God in His sovereignty exposes the many false teachers that have infiltrated the church. Even on many prophetic web-sites, there is avoidance to list articles that really deal with TRUTH when it may draw a possible negative response. Avoidance of the truth is usually the product of a need for recognition or the fear of man. The hand of God is coming over the church and we must dig to the deepest part of our souls and discern what it is truly in us. The TRUTH and character of church leadership is not so much how well they treat somebody when they come to fellowship for the first time, or how well they treat someone while they attend. It is how well they treat someone when they decide to leave because of un-fulfillment.

We are already beginning to see the direction that the Lord is taking the church and the prophetic movement in this fall season. Surely, many who have abused the privilege of SERVING God's children will be exposed. Likewise, the church will have to come to terms with her antiquated and religious traditions of control that have paralyzed the church in her commission. Many will "fall" in this Fall season and the Lord will bring forth a teaching leadership whose heart is for Him and the destiny of His people. They will be the greatest of martyrs in that they truly laid their lives and reputations down for the destiny and purpose of others.

A Tidal Wave Of Christianity

Robert Fitts

September 11th focused a lot of attention on the growth of Islam.
What most pundits and scholars have missed is the incredible growth of Christianity, and where it's growing. We like to think of ourselves as the Christian West. But there is growing evidence that the center of Christendom has moved. Africans are running to accept Jesus Christ. It is a scene playing out all across the developing world.

It may sound like an exaggeration, but it's not: Christianity is sweeping across the southern hemisphere and Asia like a tidal wave.
"The scale of Christian growth is almost unimaginable," said Dr. Philip Jenkins, distinguished professor of History and Religious Studies at Penn State University.

Jenkins shocked and probably panicked some of America's political and media elite with his acclaimed book, The Next Christendom: The Coming of Global Christianity. Jenkins argues the greatest movement of the past century was not communism or capitalism.
Do the math and the winner is Spirit-filled Christianity, or what he terms in his study as "Pentecostalism."

"The modern Pentecostal movement begins at the start of the 20th century," Jenkins said. "So say this begins with a few hundred, a few thousand peoples. Today you're dealing with several hundred million people, and the best projections are by 2040's or 2050's, you could be dealing with a billion Pentecostals worldwide. By that stage there will be more Pentecostals than Hindus. There are already more Pentecostals than Buddhists." Jenkins says in just 20 years, two-thirds of all Christians will live in Africa, Latin America or Asia."

Back in 1900, there were about 10 million Christians in Africa, representing about 10 percent of the population. Today there are 360 million, representing just under half the population.

That is one of the most important changes in religious history, and I think most of us didn't notice it," he said. A lot of people still haven't noticed it. When scandal or controversy hits an American church, the U.S. news media tends to treat it like a worldwide crisis for that denomination.

But it is not a crisis for those churches in the developing world.
Most of them are not gripped by debates over homosexuality or abortion that is a problem for European and American liberals. They believe the Bible. "The Bible is alive in Africa and Asia and Latin America,"
Jenkins said. "Overwhelmingly, th[is] kind of Christianity is one which is very Bible-centered, which takes the Bible very seriously, takes authority very seriously, both the Old and the New Testament, in a way which I don't think western Christianity has done probably since the Enlightenment." But the growth of Christianity threatens Islam, and Christians are being slaughtered in places like Nigeria and Indonesia.

Jenkins thinks the conflict will intensify in nations where the two faiths compete. And he debunks the notion that Islam is the fastest growing religion in the world. Christianity is growing faster." If you look at the 25 most populous countries in the world in the mid-21st century, 20 of those are going to be divided to a greater or lesser extent between Christianity and Islam," Jenkins said.

Then there is China. There are about 80 million Christians in China, according to former Time Magazine Correspondent David Aikman, who predicts China will be a Christianized nation in 20 to 30 years.

He does not predict a Christian majority, but a China that is 25 to 30 percent Christian. Enough, he says, to change society and government. "If you have a Christianized China, the leadership of China would reflect a Christian worldview to some degree," Aikman said. "A China that's Christianized would not be a threat to the United States."

And Aikman says the Chinese church leaders have a burden to take the gospel the rest of the way across the globe, to the Muslims.

"It's part of a sense that they call 'back to Jerusalem,'" Aikman said.

"They believe that just as the gospel originally came out of Jerusalem and went to the West and to North America and Europe and came to China, now the Chinese need to bring it back to Jerusalem, not in the sense of evangelizing the Jewish, but in the sense of completing the circle so that the gospel message is available to everybody in the world."

Imagine Chinese reaching the Muslims, Koreans evangelizing Indians, Africans taking the gospel back to a largely godless Europe.

African Matthew Ashimolowo is the pastor of the fastest growing church in England. "God is sending people who used to receive missionaries to now be missionaries around the world," Ashimolowo said. Kenyan Bishop Gilbert Dya has one of the largest churches in London.

"I am in this country, believing that God sent me here in Great Britain to make a voice on His behalf to let them know that they need to repent and come back to God," he said.

The developing world is not only a growing base for world Missions, Jenkins says it is becoming the center of Christendom again. "Jesus said His church would last until the end of time. He never used the word, 'Europe.' Christianity is returning, I think, to its roots. It is a religion that originated in the Middle East and in Africa. Perhaps it went away for a while, but now it's back," Jenkins said.

Auckland New Zealand

Karen Frith

April 2000
I saw the Lord hovering above Auckland, the feeling of his great love for the people was strong.

Next I saw the Lord as the Rider on the White Horse, in his hand was a huge banner with REVIVAL AUCKLAND emblazoned upon it. The banner was huge and was being waved over the Churches and Auckland.

At the edges of the Banner were Flames of Fire, and a wind started to blow powerfully. The more the wind blew the more the Fire was ignited.

The Rider on the White Horse was holding the Banner and was fighting with unyielding passion and strength for Auckland, his beloved. He was fighting the Battle.

The scene changed and this time I saw the Church of Auckland, in the form of a huge wheel. The wheel had been cleaned up, freshly oiled, restored and was now ready to move. Sparks were flying as it gained momentum.

The wheel was brilliant to the eye, a fine pale gold, so bright it was hard to look at without your eyes getting sore. The Glory of the Lord was there and the Glory was being transported wherever the Wheel was going.

To the left of the Wheel I saw a big heart, it was alive, beating and warm. Every heartbeat was filled with Worship and Worshipping. The love of the Father was flooding in and there was healing, unity and reconciliation for all.

I could see many worshippers, ministering unto the Lord. It was glorious.

I then looked up and saw the River of God flowing from the Throne of God. The River flowed through the Heart and touched all the Worshippers. It looked like a tremendous rushing waterfall. The water was so loud, yet it was matched by the sound of incredible worship. It was like a taste of Heaven.

I was then shown to the right side of the Wheel. There was an Altar and it was made up of loose stones.

The stones I understood were us, the congregations – the people. As we experienced the Love of the Father and his healing touch and continued worshipping him an Altar was established.

The Fire from the Revival banner passed over the Altar and ignited it. It was amazing for as the Fire touched the Altar, the people declared “He is the Lord! He is the Lord!”

I then noticed that underneath the Altar , were some lush leaves called “Healing Leaves”. As the Fire touched the Living Stones, they were ejected out – commissioned to Evangelise, Preach, to teach and to move in the gift of healing.

They carried the Revival Fire with them and ministered locally, nationally and some internationally. The healing leaves were not only for healing but salvation for the lost.

I was then drawn to the Wheel again, and noticed that below the wheel were the Intercessors. They were positioned between a desert below them and the Wheel above them. The River of God and The Fire of God touched them. As they were touched by God, the prayers increased.

The Intercessors proclaimed the word of the Lord and spoke life in to the desert. As they proclaimed the word, life started to spring up and new things grew in the desert soil. New birthing! The River of God was soaking the earth and it was becoming a fertile and good soil for sowing, reaping and harvesting

Authority

Teresa Seputis

(TS@godspeak.org)

Your enemy, the devil, is a defeated foe. I won the victory over him when I died on Calvary and rose from the dead. Before I rose I descended into hell and I took from the devil the keys of power and authority that he had long ago stolen. He was powerless to stop Me then, and He is powerless to stop Me now.

I have given you, My Church, this authority that I won over the devil in My death and resurrection. This authority cannot fail you because it is not dependent on you -- it is dependent solely on what I have already accomplished when I laid down My own will to obey the Father's will.

Nonetheless, this authority only prevails when you use it to accomplish My purposes. If you do not use it, it will not prevail for you. If you use it awry, it will not prevail for you. But when you use it in accordance with My will and to accomplish My Father's purposes, you walk in the same authority that I walked in.

You have been given power to defeat the devil, to foil his plans, even to command demons. You have been given My authority to break the power of torment, of sickness and disease, of oppression and poverty that the demonic realm would unleash on people. I have given you My authority to set captives free and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

Little one, are you using the authority that I have given to you? Are you watching Me to see what I am doing, that you may do it with Me? Are you listening to My voice and obeying My command? Are you doing what My Father is doing to advance His kingdom and to set people free from the oppression of the enemy?

Or are you cowering in a corner, afraid of the one who I have already defeated? Even though he is a defeated foe, he is still a foe and he can still be dangerous. His greatest offensive weapons are lies and deception. He will try to convince you that he has greater power than you do. And if you do not exercise the authority that I have already given you, then his power is effectively greater than yours -- for he is using his against you and you are not using yours.

Child, I did not give you spiritual armor to polish and brag about and to leave in your closet. I gave it to you to use, that you would have a defense against the fiery darts of the enemy, that his lies and deception and attempts to cause fear would have no power over you. The armor of God are your defensive weapons, and I fully expect you to use them once I have given them to you.

Likewise, I did not give you My authority so that you could bury it under a bush to keep it safe. I gave it to you to use. It is not intended to be solely for your own protection, should the enemy devise plans against you. No, I have given you defensive armor for that.

The authority that I have given you is intended as an offensive weapon to accomplish My purposes. It is intended for you to go forth into battle at My command to set the oppressed free and to advance My kingdom. It is intended for you to break the power of sickness and death and addiction and bondage off of the lives of the lost, so that they may understand the good news and turn to Me. My authority is intended to enable you to be My witnesses and to make the devil powerless to stop you as you do what you see Me doing.

I have given you My authority and I have made you unstoppable. I have given you all that you need to be My witness and advance My kingdom. I have placed My Spirit in you to show you My will, so that you can see and do what My Father is doing in this earth. I have given you authority over all the power of the devil and I have placed My anointing in your hand. Now listen to My voice, hear what I command you and obey Me. Rise up and fear no more, for I will make you a victorious and overcoming one.

Now go forth. Use the authority that I have given you to accomplish My purposes.

A Vision For The Church

Phil Townend

mailto:phil@thebridge.force9.co.uk

The Net

Introduction

This vision is based on my own experience and sense of what God seems to be doing in the world today. I do not claim it to be a `prophecy', but I do I believe there to be prophetic insight here – much of it gleaned from others.

The global perspective is where we start, since I am sure this needs urgent restoration across the Body. In the past certain individuals and groups – especially missionary and parachurch organisations – have carried the torch for world evangelisation. But we are all called to have the world on our hearts. For many of us the first verse of Scripture we learnt was John 3:16, `For God so loved the world…' God has always had the whole world in focus, although He is active in every part. We too need to see things this way, His way.

From the global context, however, we need to see how these principles work out at the local level. The global and local are two aspects of the one church. If the Body is the sum of the parts, to function effectively all the parts need to work in harmony, allowing the flow of Holy Spirit life through the whole Body that is His home. So as well as having a global perspective, we need to understand what God is doing at local level and become passionate about what local church life could be like if God REALLY had His way there!

There are two dangers to avoid here: firstly, for those networking across the Body to drift into a superficial world of exciting relationships that have no ultimate effect `on the ground' where most people are. The converse danger, however, is for local believers to get so buried in their own needs and aspirations that they neither see how they fit in the wider picture nor experience the life that flows from the wider Body.

What follows is an explanation of what I believe God is doing in the Church today, in its global and local aspects, with some concluding thoughts. You may not agree with everything I have written, but I hope it will encourage you to think and pray about the issues raised and the significant times we are living in.

GLOBAL ASPECT

The net now forming

At this very moment in history God is beginning to cover the world with a network of interlocking relationships between groups of believers in every place. Although the net is in a very early stage of development, it is forming at a rapid pace. Initially, God is joining key individuals and groups together, making critical personal and geographical connections for His future purposes. But His intention is to involve everyone who is willing to be a part of this net.

Divine initiative

In the process, God is releasing the Body of Christ world-wide from many of its traditional and `neo-traditional' constraints in order to make room for new developments and allow for the level of joining that is required. This does not mean that old forms are being summarily discarded, but that they are being naturally superseded by new relationships and priorities. This is more a case of evolution than revolution, as God in His mercy increasingly takes `hands on' control. While many of our endeavours and relationships, new and not so new, are being used by God, He is also overtaking our initiatives with His own in order to achieve His desired outcomes His own way! There will be no doubt in the end that it was God Himself who formed the new wineskin that is soon to appear.

The call to prayer

God has made the success of this joining dependent upon our co-operation with Him, primarily in the place of prayer. This has always been the way God works. It is all the more important now, given the difficult times that we live in and the greatness of God's present-day purposes. Today God is promoting prayer everywhere. There is an unprecedented call to urgent prayer in and for the nations. Starting spontaneously, many national, regional and international prayer movements are emerging - and already they are beginning to connect with one another. Prayer centres committed to twenty-four hour prayer for the nations are springing up all over the place, and are also being linked. This global network of prayer foreshadows the network of kingdom life that we are talking about. Special seasons of intense intercession are happening somewhere all the time. There is a tremendous increase world-wide in prophetic revelation in the place of prayer. Flexible and mobile prayer teams are becoming a common feature in the advance of the Kingdom. Sometimes these teams are going out to prepare the ground for intensive evangelism. More often they are dealing with unresolved issues from the past through warfare prayer and acts of penitence and reconciliation. These are remarkable developments. Yet there must still be an exponential increase in prayer across the whole Body for the true Bride of Christ to come forth, ready for Christ's return. There are some signs that this kind of increase is beginning.

The significance of Israel

At the same time, God is restoring some key understandings to the church concerning the place of Israel in His purposes at the end of the age. Israel is, as it has always been, God's time clock. We are to watch its face more closely than ever, seeking to bless that nation and co-operate in what God is doing there and among Jews everywhere. Above all, we are to pray for Israel – especially for the peace of Jerusalem. Our attitude to Israel and what is happening in the Middle East as a whole affects other aspects of our lives, even though the relevance is often not revealed to us. We need to be prayerful and vigilant. We need to love the Jewish people unconditionally, wherever we find them. We also need to be sensitive as to how they might relate to the global net we are expecting.

The destiny of the nations

The relationship between believers in different countries – especially between those in Western and Third World countries - is of particular significance as this net forms, since any barrier obstructs God's purposes. God has chosen to distribute gifts variously among the nations. The church in each nation needs to give what it has and receive what it lacks, each using its redemptive gift and fulfilling its national destiny, in order that the whole global Body of Christ might be built up. In particular, the church in rich nations must face up to its responsibility to release the practical resources that God has so graciously given to it, in the knowledge that God will give back to us out of the abundant spiritual treasures He has placed within His church in poorer nations. As is true from believer to believer and congregation to congregation, so from nation to nation: we need each other and the gifts that we bring to each other to be complete.

The structure of church

Another important area of new insight is to do with the way we express church. The DAWN (Disciple A Whole Nation) strategy, the Cities for God initiative and the burgeoning cell church movement are just three particular reflections on what it means to be church at the turn of the millennium. Other ideas about how to be church in the home and in the world, or how to penetrate the profusion of subcultures in Western nations and reach minority or unreached people groups around the world, are being given variously. As has always been the case, the Holy Spirit deposits revelation as and where it suits the Father's purposes. This increase in revelation itself bears witness that the end draws closer. None of these insights are complete in themselves, but must be seen in the light of the Big Picture of what God is doing and the net that is forming.

The release of apostolic teams

An essential element in the process of change now taking place is a fresh release of apostolic ministry, according to the New Testament pattern. In contrast with some recent models, the emerging apostolic dimension is not so much about setting government in place but about releasing ministry to `go' in order to bring maturity to the Body of Christ. This `going' can be to a place, a group or a nation or nations. A key feature of this emerging ministry will be the creation of flexible, mobile apostolic teams that will move from place to place, bringing that which is lacking into local situations everywhere, establishing new churches wherever they are needed. The relationship between the local and mobile will be one of mutual submission, always looking for the leading and anointing of the Spirit. The teams will operate out of local bases, often communities of local congregations already flowing together in God's purposes. Some will grow within and out of existing missionary organisations and parachurch groups, recognising the significance of their historic role, but embracing new ways of going about their calling. The teams will vary, changing in personnel to fit particular situations. They will function relationally, as the Spirit leads. Often these teams will overlap and interact with one another naturally, as and when appropriate. There will be no set form for them, although we will see prophetic, teaching, evangelistic, healing and other ministries functioning regularly through these teams. What counts will be the gifting and anointing God wants in a particular team at a given time for a specific situation. Many teams will be multicultural and international in make-up. This will express a powerful witness to the world and into `the heavenlies' of the unity of the church. These teams also strengthen the mesh – representing translocal relationships - which link the knots in the net, so that the whole net can become strong. Some teams are already operating in a limited way. Others are beginning to form. Thousands more are needed in order to see the whole net come into place.

The manifold wisdom of God

It must not be thought that the net or the apostolic teams that operate across the net represent a simple, uniform structure – as the image of a net might imply. In fact, while the principles hold everywhere, the outworking on the ground will be a profusion of many and different expressions of church life as God makes a supreme revelation of His `multifaceted' wisdom and incarnates Biblical truth in myriad different contexts through His church at the end of the age. In many ways the variety and diversity will be greater than we see now. The wonder of it all will be the strength of the unity, the level of co-operation and the underlying faithfulness to the Scriptures that will characterise this church. What might seem structural chaos to many will, in fact, be the true organism - as distinct from organisation – that is Christ's Body, the Church.

The preservation of wine

Neither must it be assumed that present denominational and other organisational structures will necessarily disappear. When Jesus used the metaphor of wine and wineskins, he was not rejecting old wine, but simply showing the foolishness of putting new wine in old skins. There is old wine that is good, very good. But it needs the old skins. Perhaps this speaks of the accumulative wisdom of the church that is preserved in, what may seem to many of us, archaic containers, yet has brought us to where we are now and still provides kingdom life for many millions of people today. As long as it is kingdom wine, it is worth drinking. I believe there will be older structures, forms and practices that will be interwoven into this great net of kingdom relationships, becoming part of the rich variety and diversity we have already spoken about.

The call to give

All these changes call for a great release of people, time, money and other practical resources into the work of God's Kingdom . Hospitality will become a commonplace gift, to the point where no-one can really call his home his own. Many practical comforts – especially in the West - will need to be `liquidated' into finance for the kingdom and more often than not released into the Third World. People will be required by the Spirit to uproot and go to far flung parts of the world. The UK in particular will have a special mandate to send people. Bibles, Christian books and magazines, worship material and other resources will be needed in abundance to feed the coming growth in the church. The many apostolic teams will need to be equipped and supported to do the work they are called to do. All this will be required, despite increasingly adverse economic conditions world-wide. More than ever before we will need to know how to give, how to pray and how to trust the One who holds everything in His hands.

LOCAL ASPECT

Change at local level

Nowhere is the change that is taking place more evident or needed than at a local level. The local church is the microcosm of the global church. However, what constitutes a locality is often a complicated matter. For most believers it is important to be able to identify with some clear geographical region beyond their own group - yet without becoming as ego-centric about that area as we can be about our group! The biblical concept of a `city' is helpful, if understood to include a town, borough or other administrative area. But it is a fact that unity can be complicated, and many of us are relating to one other at different levels, from immediate neighbourhood to large, urban conurbation. The principle to bear in mind is to pursue as far as we can unity at EVERY level, but discern the main perimeters of local church for us. Some will probably need more wisdom from the Spirit here than others, depending on specific local circumstances.

Defining local church

Bearing this in mind, we can define local church, in its simplest, biblical terms, as the sum of believers in a given area – one body of people irrevocably joined to one another, without barriers of age, race, background - together expressing the life of Christ to the community around them. This definition does not preclude variety within and among local expressions of church, but it does insist that these will be facets of one local entity and that this unity be explicit in terms of identity and vision. This is the local church that the Spirit is working to restore at this very moment in history.

A fundamental shift

While many people adhere to this definition in theory, the practice is often very different. Many still refer to their own congregation as their `local church' and treat it to all practical purposes as a self-contained, independent structure with respect to vision and mission – even if another one meets directly across the road or operates in the same patch! I believe God is challenging this unbiblical and unwarranted autonomy. Scripture says that we are members of one another. It is only we who often restrict this to relationships and ministry within `our group', forgetting that most epistles were written to the church in localities, not individual groups. Anyway, there is no limitation on our unity. This principle of interdependence is as true for families as for nations, and needs to be manifest in every arena – including local church, as we are defining it here. I believe that God has this issue - a vision for true local church in true unity for common territory - near the top of His agenda today, and that the winds of change at local level are there for those who have eyes to see it. That is one reason why there is such a restlessness at local church level - certainly in the West. It is a sign of the fundamental shift taking place.

The church now emerging

The fact is that many Christians including church leaders are no longer content being cooped up within an independent congregational structure and vision, often feeling restricted by too small a vision with little progress towards stated goals. There are probably more Christians than ever struggling within their local fellowship situation, hankering (probably unwittingly) for a bigger vision to live within. Some are frustrated where they are; others are moving uncertainly between congregations, or out on their own somewhere. Whether this is good or bad, of course, depends on individual attitudes and particular circumstances. But it is happening, and we cannot ignore it.

New alignments

One of the most significant developments locally are the many links that are forming naturally between Christians across congregational fences, usually where a common `heart' for the common territory is felt, quite often forging bonds that are at least as real, meaningful and fruitful as those experienced within their own respective groups. In particular, young people are getting together across traditional boundaries as if it was the most natural thing in the world and they won't be returning to the way it used to be either: they are the future happening now! Some leaders are uneasy about this, because it seems to cut across their own initiatives and agendas. Of course, issues of rebellion, running from personal issues, etc. are part of the mix. Yet this restless tension and spontaneous re-aligning is to be expected when God is changing things. Upheaval of this kind always brings both good and bad elements to the surface. However, whatever negative forces may be at work, the solution is not to be reactive and try to preserve the status quo at all costs, it is to press through into what God has taken hold of us for whatever THAT costs. When you consider that it is often at the local level that we find most resistance to change - both in human and spiritual ways - then things are bound to get interesting when God starts moving here!

The front line

When considering what God might be doing at local church level, we need to remind ourselves that it is here at the local level where for most people the `rubber hits the road' in terms of kingdom life. The local church as it exists in cells and congregations, homes and public places, schools and workplaces, is the real front line of God's kingdom. This is where the vast majority of believers live out their faith day after day, and it is not so easy here to stay focused and faithful in often mundane situations. We can so easily get side-tracked into secondary issues and petty concerns. I believe it is here that, quite frankly, the enemy gets us most battened down in various kinds of pride, complacency, self-seeking and other ways of preserving what we have without us really being aware it! Over the generations satan has been largely successful in cutting us off from one another locally, effectively blunting the local church as a powerful force for God's kingdom in the area. If he can now get us to take the present renewal and focus inwards on our own group and its mission, he will have seriously restricted our ability to disrupt that long held hold over our localities. And if he can neutralise the church at this level, all the exciting movement at translocal level is of little consequence. Remember, just as the whole church is the sum of its parts, so is the local church the main substance of all that makes up the universal church. Because the local church stands on the front line in God's kingdom purposes, it is imperative that we listen to His voice at local level. In the light of what we have said about local church and, indeed, the whole sweep of God's dealing with His people - I think it is entirely unreasonable and unrealistic to ask God to move powerfully in our localities, yet expect Him to leave untouched all our structures and systems however biblical we think ours are! We really must choose to co-operate with God as He works to set His people in each place free to be all that they were meant to be as an instrument for the advance of His kingdom in these latter days.

The present renewal

I believe that much of what we are reaping now goes back to what happened a few years ago, when a fresh wave of the Holy Spirit broke out and impacted many churches in the Western world especially in the UK. One of the prophetic 'slogans' of the time was 'Jesus wants his Church back.' This was clearly a true word from the Lord to His Church. But many people interpreted this within their own narrow mindset of what church, even local church, meant. Leaders preached a half word - `Jesus wants THIS church back', or even `Jesus wants OUR church back'. Some saw it largely in terms of the renewal of their own stream or denomination. Yet this was not what had been proclaimed. Jesus was after HIS church, ie the WHOLE thing back, the Church he died and rose again for. It follows that, if Jesus wants His Church back, it is so he can manifest his Headship over and his purposes through that Church. Why should we assume He will leave things as they were in terms of the structure of the church locally? Might He not consider the independent ways we operate as belying the unity that He Himself prayed for? There is a strong argument from outside the church that our disunity does more to prevent a lost world finding the saving love of the Father than any other single factor. As the Owner, Jesus has every right to do what he likes with what He owns - including demolishing or reordering as he sees fit - so that he can build what He has in His heart to build. For those who believe in the net now forming and the united expression of local church that is emerging, this is no surprise. We must face up to the fact that much of what exists in our localities church wise will need some radical attention before we see what we are believing for begin to take shape.

A reformed local church

The fact is God is restoring something more akin to the picture we see in the New Testament of local church life in terms of its unity, simplicity and flexibility. He is taking the best of what we have brought with us down the centuries and through more recent decades, adding new forms for the needs of the present time, and connecting the whole thing together. What will emerge is one interlinked network of believers in a given area, together covering that area with many and varied small and middle-sized groups. Older groups will bring the best out of their own particular history and multiply it, but always seeking to further the overall progress of God's kingdom in the area (and beyond). Many new groups and new types of church life will form. The cell-based church model provides valuable principles as to how we might become much more flexible through its emphasis on small groups (although at present is heavily postulated towards an independent church structure). Relational unity among recognised leaders is a clear prerequisite for what is coming, as is grass roots prayer across denominational and other lines. United leadership is needed now to bring some cohesion within the wider local Body. This must work in hand in hand with outside input `into' the area (not just `over' individual congregations), bringing what is lacking into the Body and knitting the local into the translocal scene.

An apostolic church

However, the relational connecting that is happening is the starting place for, not the fullness of, what is coming. It is not ultimately about having a strong group of pastors who are bringing their congregations together and flowing together for the sake of the gospel locally encouraging though this is. Rather, it is about having the right leadership ministries released within the whole local church and surrounding community, in conjunction with appropriate help from outside, so that Ephesians 4 can be fulfilled and maturity might come. For a variety of reasons, we have tended to shy away from the key issue of the role of apostles and the apostolic in the church today. Once we realise that the apostolic is all about the church 'going out' and that the reason for having apostles in our midst is so that the whole church might become apostolic, then we can begin to appreciate and covet this ministry. God is restoring the so-called 'five-fold ministries' in these days including the apostolic - in order to complete His mission. But this is about function not title, servanthood not government, and will more likely than not challenge many of our previous notions relating to these leadership ministries. However, if we keep in view a local (and universal) church that is growing ever closer to maturity as a teaching, pastoring, evangelistic, prophetic and apostolic community of believers, we will welcome among us those who are strategic in helping this come about.

Call the elders…

In particular we need to see true spiritual 'fathers' or elders take their place amongst us, in our churches and communities. By this I mean those appointed and anointed of God (not man) to provide a spiritual canopy over the territory for the sake of the people who live there believers and non-believers alike. This is more than and different from simply a gathering of congregational leaders. It is a divinely ordained group of men (and women) sharing responsibility and authority in the Holy Spirit for specific regions. It does not even have to be an explicit group that meets and has an overt function. It may include individuals active in secular fields, exercising eldership and exerting influence there, but all joined by the Spirit towards a common vision. These elders are not necessarily of high profile or active in conventional church leadership. They will want to serve not rule, and the bulk of their ministry will relate to the hidden ministry of prayer. They will discern and build in harmony with the travelling apostolic teams we have already identified. They will release, simply by being in place, a plethora of ministry in the local community. The important thing is that these elders be recognised and honoured by the church and, to some extent, the wider community. We will know when they have come into position because of the new sense of strength, security and freedom in the Holy Spirit that will be evident as well as the fruitfulness that will follow hard on the heels of their inauguration. This is a restoration of New Testament patterns and a fulfilment of our desire for God's order. But beware God's serendipity here! There is little doubt it will all look very different from what we have been expecting!

Local and translocal

It is perhaps important to stress again here the God-ordained interdependent nature of the whole church, local and translocal. As we have asserted or implied a number of times already, there is in reality only one church of Jesus Christ. So even local churches as we are defining them here are no more self-sufficient than an individual person, cell or congregation, and therefore need to be joined to the wider body to be complete and have real success. The purpose of the apostolic teams mentioned earlier is to establish, help and support local churches and their leadership as appropriate, so these churches can mature and multiply, finding their own key ministries from within as well as receiving ministry from outside. In the process, these visiting teams will be making kingdom connections - facilitating the wider networking essential for global church expansion, and also being agents for the creation of specific mutual, life-giving relationships between local churches in different parts of the world, as the Spirit makes such links. Again, this is in contrast to much of the apostling we have known in recent decades. In the past, these apostolic relationships 'at a distance' were mainly vertical and functioned within a particular denominational or stream context. Those will have to adapt in a changing situation. Either they will continue as a helpful but less significant support to one part of the local body, or evolve into a significant ministry to the whole local church - or simply disappear. As I mentioned earlier, some local churches (as we have defined them) will become apostolic home bases for traveling teams. However it works in each situation, there will be amazing and strategic links around the world that will mean in a very real and meaningful sense that to be part of the local church is to be part of the church world-wide.

The Flow of the Spirit

How the local church will be organised and express its life will vary from place to place as it does now, according to the history, culture and (hopefully) the present needs of that area. We must never interpret the principles here as representing or determinant of any specific form like Macdonalds opening another virtually identical restaurant in yet another town. God intends displaying His manifold - ie ‘many faced’ - wisdom for all to see. He is a God of variety not uniformity. But there is an essential underlying understanding about unity and priorities which is non-negotiable for the future. We must be ready to die to our own ideas and desires to be part of God’s greater purpose for the locality in which we live and, indeed, his global purposes. We need to realise that perhaps more than ever before it is true that the river of God’s Spirit flows where hearts are being joined, gulfs are being bridged, vision is corporate and a destiny is being pursued together.

The challenge today

At the present time it is important that each local congregation ask itself a fundamental question about how it views its life and ministry. Does it operate out of an independent mindset, expressing a unilateral vision, with only a secondary or optional regard to what else is going on locally? Or does it seek out fellow local believers, desiring a corporate vision for an area together, looking to find its place in the wider context? The latter situation must become normative for everyone to prosper. Sadly, much of the local linking that is going on today falls short of this principle, reflecting a struggle with issues of priorities. The truth is that until a group (or, let’s face it, the leadership of that group) acknowledges that its own destiny and success is irrevocably tied up with that of all other groups in that area and, indeed, the whole church world-wide - it will not give the necessary priority to finding and following a corporate vision, and in consequence will not be able to fully play its part in fulfilling God’s highest purposes for that area.

CONCLUSIONS

The end is in sight

We have looked at the net that God is making, His fishing net. As in the parable Jesus told, God is building a net for a great catch of fish (people) at the end of the age. Looking back we can see that He has visited His church in recent years to encourage us and restore many things to us. And now it is time for Him to build the end-time net. God is always moving things forward, according to His own schedule. We cannot afford to stand still or miss His timing. As the 90’s started, many prophetic voices were predicting the transformation we are talking about here. One particularly respected voice prophesied that the church at the end of the decade would be almost unrecognisable from the one at the start. Yet, despite some significant developments, this profound change has not yet happened: so were the prophets wrong? I don’t think so. In my opinion the prophetic insight was correct, it is the church that has been painfully slow to respond to the Spirit. We are far more entrenched in our familiar surroundings and resistant to change than we think we are, and that has kept us, I believe, behind God’s schedule. However, in many ways the 1990’s have been a watershed for the church. We have certainly seen more failure of past methods and structures than we have success with our new ones. But most believers are agreed that there is no turning the clock back now. The scene is set for a fulfilment of the hopes of the early 90’s, and, indeed, of the biblical expectation of a glorious church before the end comes.

The last great push

So where is it all going? Where does it end? Many people are talking about revival today. Others speak of great harvests of souls to come. Yet God has more in His heart than even these wonderful things. The Scriptures are clear: we know our mission mandate is fulfilled when we see Jesus return in glory. It is my firm conviction that we are entering the final stage in history and that the present stirrings in the church and the world particularly events in and around Israel - are the beginnings of the final great `push’ of God’s Spirit, in partnership with God’s people, that will ultimately usher in the return of Jesus. However, He will only come back to a spotless Bride in a fully evangelised world. The net represents both the Bride of Christ in its global completeness, as the body is joined together, and the Church’s mission fulfilled, as it spreads over the face of the whole earth. We are all called to be part of this great enterprise.

A final warning

In all this change, we need to watch ourselves carefully. It is vital we remind ourselves constantly that it is God who is at work right now bringing about this great transformation. Rebellious, divisive and critical attitudes and behaviour on our part with regard to God's people and any existing church structures are never justified, and will seriously hamper, if not severely undermine, what God is doing at the present time, if given the space to do so. We must watch our heart attitudes, preserving the unity of the Body at all costs, following the footsteps which lead to the Cross. We need more grace than ever to stay right with God and right with one another through this time of change, looking to God to lead us forward and for us to simply find the grace to follow. Out of an undying love for the world God sent his Son to die for all people. God will only work His purposes out through those who will share in that same heart of love and self-sacrifice, and share the same vision to see the whole world netted with living Church, bearing witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ, so that the end might come.

As each part does its work…

As you have been reading this article concerning the Church at the turn of the Millennium, I hope you have been listening for what the Spirit might be saying to you through it. It is time for all God's people to be seriously asking Him to take from us all that obstructs His highest purposes through us. We then need to ask Him to fully include us in what He is doing today - both in the nations and down our street - rather than ask him to simply bless what we are doing. Expressed in different words, there is a need for sincere and radical repentance, ie. turning from that which is not lined up with God's will to that which is. We must then ask in simple sincerity: show us, Lord, our part in Your great scheme of things and we will do it. For the whole Church is built up as each part does its work. Ultimately, the church on earth boils down to you and me and every other Christian seeking to do what God tells us to do in the power of the Spirit. Let's ask God for the grace to do it!

A Visitation Is Nearing

Luz Cintron

This morning, before dawn it was so weird around here. I have been dreaming stuff and the Lord started to explain what I had just dream even within the dream. The presence of the Lord was strong and peaceful. Then when I awoke as I opened my eyes I could see the from my bedroom door opened, that the dinning room was full of tiny little white lights, and I mean thousands of them all over on the wall that I could see from where I was. They looked like the tiny Christmas tree lights but there was also like a wood structure of some sort with narrow wood planks crossing here and there. I did not have the full view since I was still on my bed. The lights dimmed and the vision disappeared and I said to the Lord "Now that was so nice I wish I just could have seen more of it " and Presto! It all lighted up again and I was looking at it. It stayed on for a while but I had no desire to get up and walk into the dinning room. For some reason I was peaceful and content to see as I was shown and no had no curiosity to pursue the matter any further, so I just looked into the corner that I was being shown and listened as He spoke . The wood structure was of a deep dark color similar to black. It was covered in some places under the lights that could not be seen, as when one plants a vine or any other creeping plant and places this sort of things for it to grow and crawl on it. Some parts you see it some parts you don’t.

I continued praying then I heard a phone ring as if it would have been in my bedroom but the ring was not of my phone. It was exactly at 5:59 because the Lord told me to look at the clock. 5 through grace, 50 a deliverance and 9 in the fullness of the Spirit, in all fruitfulness of His gift, as He is a gift to us purchased through blood to allow us to receive Him, He is the very womb of God from which His Sons shall emerge volunteering in the day of His power.

This is as far I can receive from this now, I felt sadness and peace. His love was the foundation of all of it. I feel that a visitation is nearing to us. A visitation of His glory. As the Lord showed His glory to the children of Israel at the inauguration of the Aharonic priesthood (*Lev 9:23), so it will be when the sons of God near their day for they are priests to Him.

In one of the dreams I was visiting a believer, and she shied from me fearing that I was bringing a hard word. Later on she came near and asked me what it was all about, I kept quiet. Then she continued to speak confessing that fear had kept her from nearing to hear. There was much sadness in my heart because I had been sent with a word of hope and blessing and encouragement, but she was not able to receive it because of fear. When she confessed that to me, the time to give the word was gone. I only answered, Now you would not know. If only you would have known, but its OK, I guess that is the way we tend to react."

It was not about qualifying or not, she was not disqualified, just an opportunity that was very much missed. It was about a love that in blindness finds itself still captive of fear living its punishment. But that is not love since from its root it lacks the sure foundation, for we love not in or from ourselves, but because He first loved us. If our hearts receive His love as He gives it to us, then we will find love with which to love Him back and love each other and no fear will be able to hinder the resolve of His love in us.

The Lord longs to Emmanuel and live with and among us. That is what He is still seeking but few open their dwelling place unto Him. When He declares in His word that He does not change He is Truthful. He has not changed at all. He longed to dwell among Israel. They could have been known as the people among whom God dwelt but fear kept them and they asked Moses to listen to God and stand before God for them. Now He comes and seeks exactly the same. Who will answer? Who will say here I am and listen? Is not about what to do but about standing still and seeing His deliverance, of us first from our own delusions and fleshly mindsets. It is about what He can do with the obedience and trust of man when He dwells in their midst. Yeshua came and lived among us doing many things even though very few trusted then, but when the Son of Man comes back will He find faith? Have we learned the lesson better than those before us? Will the heart of His Bride find its perfection?

Like the little girl that ceases from childhood and finds her first impressions of love is enamored of it, but she must one day leave that stage and find how true love is and even what true love is. For the love of God consist not in that we have loved Him but that He loved us first and that was manifested in action giving His very life, His only begotten and what should love be in and among us, if it doesn't translate in that laying of our lives for one another unto Him then we do not have Him at all. A time of silence is to come to awaken love in which love will be revealed in its true nature as with fire, because glory is found manifest through the ashes (of things revealed) since His glory He does not share with flesh.

Amen!
Luz

A voice says, "Proclaim!"
And I answer, "What should I proclaim?"
"All humanity is merely grass,
all its kindness like wildflowers:
the grass dries up, the flower fades,
when a wind from Adonai blows on it.
Surely the people are grass!
The grass dries up, the flower fades,
but the word of our G-d will stand for ever."
Isaiah 40:6-8

* Aharon raised his hands toward the people, blessed them and came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering and the peace offerings. Moshe and Aharon entered the tent of meeting, came out, and blessed the people. Then the glory of Adonai appeared to all the people! Fire came forth from the presence of Adonai consuming the burnt offering and the fat on the altar When all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

A Vision In The Office

Jerry Golden

Tuesday, June 01, 2004 –
jerry@thegoldenreport.com http://www.thegoldenreport.com/

It was 2:30 AM and I couldn't sleep, so I decided to go downstairs to my office and see if I could write an article on some things that had been on my mind. My mind however just drew a blank, so I decided to lie for a while on the couch in the office. It was then that I begin to hear from the voice I know so well. But before sharing it with you I should warn you that most of it might sound like an over active imagination of one who stays on top of current events around the world. In fact, God and I have had a serious conversation over if I should say this was a vision. But God has clearly instructed me to tell others what I have seen, so here it is, you are the judge.

God spoke to me and said I have found your heart and efforts pleasing but you still have much to learn and I will teach you many things about my Church. The time is very near when panic and chaos will grip the hearts of men and many will die from the fear of what they are seeing. The things you are about to see are for you to tell those who will listen.

It was a Mall, where I am not sure but there were dead and wounded bodies scattered over a large area and as soon as I saw this I was in a different place looking down on a large gathering of a sporting event. Many were already dead and others were gasping for their breath and dying even as I looked at them. One man spoke to me, saying they have already destroyed our economy by cutting off the oil, now they want to kill all of us.

I thought I'd keep seeing this type of disaster but to my surprise I found myself in a Church, judging from the interior and the looks and sounds I thought it must be a Baptist Church. As I sit there in the presence of God unable to speak I heard the Pastor give a short glib standard salvation message, and I watched the people who were frightened and unable to understand why all this was happening to them. Many were destitute without food and no way to purchase any. One man interrupted the Pastor and said why haven't you prepared us, why haven't you warned us? The Pastor begins to cry and the people got up and left him standing behind the pulpit. It was then I noticed an amazing thing, the Pastor fell to the floor and he was dead.

Then we were in a city center and I watched as people were looting and screaming obscenities at each other. Some were shooting and arm robbing the ones that had just stolen the goods from the store just moments before. I looked at the Bank and it was closed and people were trying to get in but the doors were locked.

There were military troops on the streets of the larger cities and they were shooting people with impunity, no one could believe what was happening. As they ran almost aimlessly in pure panic, we followed one man to his home. He greeted his wife and two small children with, I didn't do any good, and I don't know what we are going to do now. He sits and turned on the TV and the news about Israel was on. Israel was under heavy attack and they had already destroyed Damascus. It was believed that many missiles were on the way from Iran. Egypt had launched a full-scale attack and it was feared that Syria had launched missiles with chemical and biological warheads. I turned to God and said you promised that Israel will not be destroyed again, but He reminded me that it wasn’t the end of the story and to wait and see His Word come to pass. Looking back at the TV it showed how suicide bombers had killed many all over the country and everyone was frightened to the point of not knowing where to turn for help.

It was then God showed me Believers who had bonded together and had a Pastor who had prepared them, their love for each other was obvious and many were coming to them for help. But even more important many were being drawn to them as their love was a witness for Yeshua.

I ask God why more Pastors hasn't prepared the Believers, and He told me that they have been desensitized by Y2K and felt they couldn't tell them to prepare again. But those Pastors who knew to prepare their congregations and did not will wish they had never knew Me; I will tell them I never knew them. It was then God said to me, "only those who truly know Me would overcome and witness My great salvation, for all Temporal things will perish but those born of the Spirit will see Eternal Life." I then ask God what would He have me to do? God told me then, that I was to continue on the task set before me and not to look back, that many would be saved.

End of Vision, like I said you be the judge.
Shalom,
Jerry Golden

A Word To My Cohanim
Marie-France McDowell-Smith

5764 12 Nisan (Shabbat ~ April 3, 2004)
Ezekiel 45 ~ from the Complete Jewish Bible (translated by David H. Stern)

A Word To My Cohanim
"When you divide the land by lot for inheritance, you are to set aside an offering for Adonai, a holy portion of the land. Its length is to be 25,000 [cubits, that is, 8 miles] and its width 10,000 [three miles]; this entire region is to be holy. Of this there is to be reserved for the holy place an area 875 (feet) square, with eighty-seven and a half feet for open land around it. Alongside this region you are to measure a length of eight [miles] and a width of three [miles]; in it is to be the sanctuary, which will be especially holy. It is a holy portion of the land; it is for the cohanim who serve in the sanctuary, who approach to minister to Adonai; there will be a place for their houses and a place set aside for the sanctuary. A portion 8 by 3 miles will be owned by the L ' v ' im who serve in the house; it will also have twenty [gatekeepers'] rooms. You are to give the city possession of an area, alongside the offering of the holy portion, one-and-a-half by eight [miles]; it will be for the whole house of Isra'el.

'The prince is to have the territory on both sides of the holy offering and the city's holding; it will extend westward to the western border of the land and eastward to its eastern border; and the length [from the far side of one] of its two parts [to this far side of the other] will be the same as the length of one of the [tribal] portions. His possession in Isra'el will be limited to this, and henceforth my princes will not wrong my people but will give the land to the house of Isra'el according to their tribes. Adonai Elohim say this: "Princes of Isra'el, that should be enough for you! Get rid of violence and looting, do what is right and just, and stop evicting my people from the land! says Adonai Elohim'.

"You are to have honest balance-scales, an honest eifah [a one-bushel dry-measure] and an honest bat [a five-gallon liquid-measure]. The eifah and the bat are to contain the same volume --- the bat is to contain one-tenth of a homer, and the eifah is to contain one-tenth of a homer; the homer is to set the standard for measurement. Also the shekel, is to be twenty gerahs, your maneh will be the sum of a twenty-shekel piece; a twenty-five-shekel piece and a fifteen-shekel piece.

This is the offering you are to make: one-sixth of a bushel from every ten bushels of wheat, and you are to give one-sixth of a bushel from every ten bushels of barley. The law for olive oil is to be half a gallon from every fifty gallons, which is the same as ten bats or one homer, since ten bats equals a homer. From the flock, take one sheep from every two hundred being pastured in Isra'el; [all these are to be used] for grain offerings, burnt offerings and peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says Adonai Elohim. All the people in the land are to present this offering to the prince in Isra'el. The prince's obligation wil be to present the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings at the feasts, on Rosh-Hodesh, and on Shabbat --- at all the designated times of the house of Isra'el. He is to prepare the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings and peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Isra'el.

"Adonai Elohim says this: 'On the first day of the first month you are to take a young bull without defect and purify the sanctuary. The cohen will take some of the blood from the sin offering and put it on the door-frames of the house, on the four corner's of the altar's edge and on the supports of the gate of the inner courtyard. You are also to do this on the seventh day of the month for everyone who has sinned inadvertently or though ignorance. Thus you will make atonement for the house.

"On the fourteenth day of the first month you are to have the PESACH, a feast seven days long, matzah will be eaten. On that day the prince will provide, for himself and for all the people of the land, a young bull as a sin offering. On the seven days of the feast he is to provide a burnt offering for Adonai, seven young bulls and seven rams without defect daily for seven days, and a male goat daily as a sin offering. He is to provide as a grain offering a bushel [of grain] for a young bull and a bushel for a ram, and for each bushel [of grain] a gallon of olive oil.

"On the fifteeth day of the seventh month, during the feast [of Sukkot] he is to do the same thing for those seven days in regard to the sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings and olive oil.'

I AM Adonai Elohim, and I have something to say to My cohanim; I want to show you things from My throne room perspective. I will provide for you. I tell you to divide by my specifications, to comply with Torah. This is not law, this is My instruction for your good and for the protection of the people, all of the people. My Torah provides for ALL My people, the old, the weak, the strong, the young, the ill and infirm, none are excluded as you obey My Torah.

Selfishly take now for yourselves and lose it all for your rebellion toward me, or obey and know that provision has and will be made for you by ME, the True and Living God, the Holy One of Israel. Choice is demanded of you this day.

Do you see that in My Word, I have made specification, provision for you My cohanim. This is not to be of your concern for I provide for My own. Have I not said that mine will never beg for bread. Fall prostrate before Me, and see that I give it all to you, in My sacrifice, I have given all for you, I AM your inheritance.

You, My cohanim are to teach the people the difference between the common and the holy, between clean and unclean. All that is devoted to Me in Isra'el will be yours. Obey Me and inherit all that I have commanded....for I AM your inheritance.

I tell you today My cohanim, cease the violence in the land, do what is right and just. Demonstrate, oversee and set the standard for fairness and honesty in the market place, in the land, and in families.

Remember to honor Pesach and observe Resurection Sunday. Spread the blood upon the door posts of the house, the corner's of the altar, and upon the supports of the gate of the innercourt. Wisdom is speaking My cohanim! Do you seek her above silver and gold?

I AM mercy for those who inadvertently sin or in ignorance sin, My mercy flows in My blood...tell them. Go to the hiways and byways and bring them to Me. My banqueting table is set for them, the last of the invited guests. Teach them, reach them for My names' sake, and in the authority of my name, Messiah Yeshua, and in the power of My shed blood upon Calvary's hill.

My Word is very specific; quickly learn from those skilled, understand the numbers and the measurements. I speak to this generation and to this time. Are you listening? Understand the pattern that I AM showing you. Do you see the perfection, the symmetry, the music, the mathematics, the beauty of My Torah?

Do you see the link between Pesach and Sukkot and know that the My people are ignorant. Have you only taught them from man's perspective? Listen to me! Teach them. Learn from My Ruach haKodesh and teach the people...for I AM Your Prince, Your Jehovah Shalom, Jehovah Shamma, Jehovah T'sikenu, Jehovah Nissi, Jehovah Jireh, Jehovah Rophe. I AM sending out an alarm to you My cohanim!

I AM the great I AM; I will fill you with My Ruach haKodesh, I will give you strength and Joy unimaginable for this time, you will rise up with great vitality, energy and wisdom for such a time as this. Be about Your Abba's business, I will provide...even now I am touching the purse strings of many and the flow will come soon, for despite all of their worldly wealth, evil has come to their door...focus upon My direction, your service to me, and see what I shall do for you. I tell you My cohanim, prepare My people.

My cohanim, the deep hunger in My people is stimulated by Me. Encourage the people now! They must eat at My table for the famine and GREAT WAR begins soon.

Joseph company arise and complete all that has been assigned you. Help My people to complete their preparation! Feed My sheep! Teach them to hide My Word in their hearts; to cover their minds with My Torah! Cohanim, cover the lintels of their minds with the blood of Messiah Yeshua, so that death will pass them over and they will be relased from Egypt, bondage broken, release theirs at last. Do it now and see the riches that they will carry with them to the Promised Land, My protection, My provision, My peace....they will carry MY GLORY!

In My Tender Love to you,
Your Abba

A Word To My Warriors

Linda Patterson

June 22, 2004
Third Day Warrior get ready, sharpen your sword for the battle is about to begin!

There has been a shifting, a shaking a wilderness making of warriors tried and true. Yes, My warriors as you have been tried and tested and I have watched you, I have examined your ways, your thoughts and the very intents of your heart. You have come through the wilderness and the fire into My glorious presence. You have answered the call to come up higher and have met Me in the Secret Place.

You have been relentlessly pushing against a wall that seemed like a fortress, that seemed an insurmountable obstacle and as you have cried out to Me with your whole heart the breath from My nostrils has knocked the wall over and you have vaulted forward into the new day, the third day, the day of My power, the day of My release, the day of My victory.

Throughout the nations of the earth I have assembled My army. They have been called and commissioned in the Secret Place and are ready for war. From the foundations of the earth and throughout the tunnels of time victory has been assured. The Captain of the Hosts charges forward on a white steed, unfurling a banner across the nations, “Holiness Unto the Lord”.

Changes are coming quickly! What was not shall be, what was shall be no more.
Arise now my victorious, overcoming warriors of the morning. Give a shout for truly I have given you the city.

A Word To My Faithful Ones

Dee Hoetmer

I come today to give you much encouragement and support. To fill you with My love and to cradle your weary head. You have said in your hearts, is there no end to the trails, no end to this weary way?

You have been through the refining fires and rejected it not, but sought My face through it. It is now time for restoration of body, soul and spirit. I will revive you, I will renew you! I will make your feet as hinds feet, even as a Roe. Your spirit will be light and your heart will have exceeding great joy.

You see My Beloved, you are to be My bright and shiny ones as the world is enclosed in darkness. You are My representatives upon the earth, endued with My Spirit, My Glory, My Authority!

Do not weep and mourn My Beloveds, this is the start of a new hour in Me. Have I ever been unfaithful? I WILL DO WHAT I SAID I WILL DO! I will restore your body, your weary mind, and your spirit. I have not brought you this far in Me, to leave you where you are. No indeed not! All has been My plan and purposes for you, ordained since before the beginning of time.

I have knit your heart with Mine, your desires are now My desires, your heartbeat now My heartbeat. It has been a labor of love, this that I have wrought in you. Do you really think I will now leave you where you are, broken and weary upon your bed? No, again NO!

I am faithful to fulfill all your purposes. Every step you take will be ordered by Me. Every word you speak will be ordered by Me. My Beautiful Beloveds, “you have come a long way” and I AM WELL PLEASED WITH YOU! THE REFINING IS DONE, MY GLORY IS TO COME, yes you will shine with My Glory. All that look upon you will know that you are Mine, redeemed, restored, forgiven and the life you now have is My resurrected life, THE POWER OF MY RESURRECTED LIFE, THE AUTHORITY OF MY RESURRECTED LIFE, that is now beginning to dwell in you by My Spirit. You have felt the tingling in your fingertips, yea even in your body. This is the start of My Resurrection Life beginning to flow through you. As you step forth, the earth will be redeemed, brought under My RIGHTFUL LORDSHIP AND DOMINION!

You will say it was worth it all as, you see what I do through you, My Beautiful Beloveds, representatives of Me upon the face of the earth!

Beloved You Are In Me

Dee Hoetmer

I am speaking simply as a time of refinement and purging upon My body I decree. I would that none be lost, that all, even the simplest of My children, understand the season they are now entering.

My judgment on My church comes, first to the shepherds and then to My sheep. I will be merciful for I know your hearts; those that willingly bow their knees to Me will have an easier time of this time of refining then those who willingly refuse to bend the knee. Those who know better, but sell themselves to the ways of the world to protect their image and their kingdoms will feel the hand of My judgment more severely. I am not a harsh God to those who are humble before Me, but those of My children who refuse to change their ways and plan and purpose their own ways, will have a hard time of it.

Beloved I speak to you as if still babes. You are entering a time of refining, a time of cutting away of all fleshly desires, of all that is not of Me, for I WILL have a Bride, spotless and without blemish to declare My glory upon the face of the earth. I will be gentle with those of gentle hearts and even seem harsh with those who have harsh hearts. To those I say fall upon the Rock before the Rock falls upon you! THE CHOICE IS YOURS BELOVED, will you bend the knee so that I can change you to all that I have called you to be?

TO MY BELOVED WHO ARE IN ME, those who have submitted to My refining fires and have allowed themselves to be purged, A GLORIOUS SEASON AWAITS YOU. You are My forerunners, you have My protection, provision and guidance. I will open the doors to the churches to you. Sometimes you will not be received but those who have wisdom will hear. You are My forerunners to lead the rest of My sheep, yea shepherds even with tender hearts of servant hood. YOU WILL SHOW THEM THE WAY INTO A DEEPER PLACE IN ME. Be kind, be patient for they will now go through the refining fires as you did. Be merciful and graceful as I have been with you. Discount none for you do not see their hearts as I do! I will show you who to minister to!
